MISSISSIPPI WILL PARADE PROGRESS AT 36TH ANNUAL STATE FAIR OCTOBER 9-14

Mississippi will parade her progress before the world at the 36th annual Mississippi Free State Fair to be held at Jackson October 9-14.

"The Parade of Progress" has been selected as the exposition theme and will form the keynote of one of the most attractive as well as representative group of commercial, industrial and agricultural displays ever seen in Mississippi.

Opening at noon on Monday, Oct. 9, with a monster "Capital City Progress Parade", the Fair will continue through Saturday, October 14, with daily events celebrating various phases of the state's progress in recent years.

Monday has also been officially designated as "Press Day" in honor of the members of Mississippi's "Fourth Estate" who will be honor guests of the management at a noon luncheon.

Monday will also be "Hinds County Day, Fair Association Day, Chambers of Commerce Day, City Officials Day, Jackson Luncheon Club Day, Automobile Clubs Day and Labor Day."

Jackson's civic, commercial, industrial, educational and religious progress will be depicted in the opening day parade which promises to be one of the longest and most colorful processions State Fair thorough have ever witnessed.

Mississippi's commercial and industrial progress will be celebrated on Tuesday, October 10, which will also be Transportation Day, Food Products Day, Gasoline and Oil Day, Farm Implements Day, Wholesale Day and Retailers Day.

Honoring Governor Hugh White and all departments of state, Wednesday, October 11, will be "Mississippi Progress Day. Every department of state will be represented in a giant parade scheduled to move up Jackson's Capitol Street promptly at 11 A. M.

Highlights of the day include a Mississippi Progress Luncheon at noon sponsored by the heads of all state departments and a banquet at 6 P. M. at which Governor White will be host to the governors of southeastern states.

Thursday, Oct. 12, will be dedicated to Mississippi's agricultural progress with more than a score of farm agencies co-operating to make the day one of the most eventful of Fair Week. Farm forces will unite at noon in a Agricultural Progress Luncheon in the State Fair Banquet Hall.

Educational forces will join Friday, Oct. 13, to celebrate the state's outstanding progress in the field of knowledge. Twenty-four individual school groups representing every phase of education are listed as co-sponsors of the various events of the day.

State Fair week will reach a fitting climax on Saturday, Oct. 14, "Veterans and Fraternal Day". A list of 24 organizations representing every fraternal and veterans group in the state will co-sponsor this grand finale day.

After a parade up flag-festooned Capitol Street veterans and fraternal units, forming the most colorful procession of Exposition Week, will halt in front of Mississippi's massive War Memorial Building for dedication ceremonies.

Midnight will find the curtain descending upon the 1939 State Fair — and Mississippi's Parade of Progress.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME

The home of Mrs. Mary E. Bacon, 5 miles north of Iuka on Eastport Road, was totally destroyed by fire Sunday, Oct. 1st about 2 o'clock p. m.

Mrs. Bacon and daughter Birdie, had left home to visit a neighbor. They just happened to see the smoke after they were almost a mile away, returning then to find their home a mass of flames, too late to save anything.

Iuka Radio Talent.

Last Sunday morning I was surprised and pleased to receive the following telegram from Memphis: "On Polished Rhythm Program Sunday 5 P. M., WMC, as Lum's Cousins. We are using part of your skit and part of another. Listen in. (Signed) Billie and Louise." Several weeks previous to this Iuka's well-known hill-billy impersonators, Miss Billie Burke Whitehurst and Miss Lucille Pace, had confided to me their ambition to appear on the radio. At their suggestion I wrote a skit for them which is adapted to either stage presentation or use on the air. They had, it seems, not had the time to fully prepare this skit when unexpectedly they were offered the opportunity to appear as guests performers on the above mentioned program. Needless to say to their many friends, they came through with flying colors on this try-out. With more time for preparation we are looking forward to big things from these two talented and attractive as well as amusing young entertainers, who have given Tishomingo County audiences many and many good laughs.

Letter From England.

Just before the war started in Europe I sent a manuscript about the South to a friend in England. I had hoped it might be placed in some English magazine. A letter has just come from her which gives interesting side-lights on how the English people are getting along since hostilities began. I quote from it as follows: "When your letter came I was indeed perplexed because I haven't the opportunity or money to know the best publications to send your work to. However, we did think of the British Digest, of the same style as the American publication. When the parcel arrived it had been opened by customs officials and re-sealed without any extra charge for duty. I finally thought of a friend who is a well known author and knew he would know where to send the manuscript. He says 'I have read it with great interest and under normal conditions it should easily find a place in one of our bigger magazines. Now the war makes a terrific difference and there is practically no chance, as long as the war lasts, of a market for such articles in this country. The publication of one of my own books has been postponed indefinitely, maybe for years. Here, we are becoming used to war conditions and settled down to a new routine of living. We have to darken our windows at sunset, and Jean and I can't leave Grandma alone much. The old people are very nervous of air raids, and this a somewhat dangerous part, being between towns, tho' in the country. But we are very busy knitting for the hospitals. The weather has been just grand. One can certainly feel the fall in the air. I do not really love this season so much as spring, even tho' it has great beauty. For the falling leaves are rather saddening; yet there is the promise always of spring to come once more. Man may upset the world, but nature travels on her way

Women: "Build-Up" To Relieve Pain

A weak, run-down, undernourished condition calls for attention!
Such a condition often enables functional dysmenorrhea to get its foothold. That's one thing which leads to much of women's suffering from headaches, nervousness, those cramp-like pains. A good way to relieve such pains, women by thousands have found, is by the proper use of CARDUI. It stimulates a lagging appetite, assists digestion and assimilation; thus helps build physical resistance to periodic pain.
Taken just before and during "the time," many women also report that CARDUI helps to ease the pain and discomfort of the period.

JANETTE BURNS, DEAD

On September 27, 1939, Mary Janette, a very precious little girl and the only little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Burns, of Tishomingo, passed from this life into the great beyond.
For eight long weeks Janette was seriously sick and during this suffering she fought a brave fight trying to get well.
She was given treatment in Booneville Hospital, Tupelo Hospital and the Baptist Hospital in Memphis, and it seemed that everything was done by loved ones, friends, nurses and doctors that was possible for them to do. Even many prayers were sent up to the Lord the "Great Physician" asking that if it could be His will that he spare her life to brighten her home—yet she had to go. We can not understand why she was taken
so young, only six years of age,
but we do know that it was God's will and he is too great and too good to make a mistake.
Surely he had a purpose unknown to us that will be revealed later.
Janette entered school at the beginning of this term and never has there been a child entered with a happier little heart and more life than she had, but for only nine days. Such a short time but yet long enough to gain the love and friendship of both teachers and pupils of the entire school.
Besides her mother and daddy, Janette left a little two year old brother, "Jimmy," a grandfather, Mr. J. H. Finh, a number of uncles, aunts, cousins
and a host of friends.
Her funeral was held at the Methodist church in Tishomingo
by the pastor Brother W. L.
Whitener, who spoke many comforting words to the bereaved ones.
Her little body was laid to rest in the Highland cemetery and the grave was completely covered with beautiful flowers, expressions of sympathy from loved ones and friends.
The pall bearers were cousins
of little Janette: Messrs Harold Waldrep, Clebern Finch, Ralph
Daniel and Fred Bostick, Jr.

I will not say Janette is dead,
Oh, no, she's just away;
She's just beyond the shadows
In the light of perfect day.

And I know that she is happy,
With the Savior over there;
But you're lonely here with out
her,
And you miss her everywhere.

She was like a bit of sunshine,
Sent to make your home so bright;
And it seems now that her going
Has turned everything to night.

But if you'll think it over,
You'll know that God is love;
And for some special purpose
He called Janette above.

Perhaps God lent her to you,
To make Heaven's way more
fair;
Already you are closer drawn
Since she has entered there.

She never can come back to you
Here in this world below;
But this, the Lord has promised
That you, to her, can go.

And dwell with her forever
In the city of delight;
Where separations come no
more,
Where there will be no night.

I cannot say Janette is dead
Oh, no, she's just away;
She's just beyond the shadows
In the light of endless day.

Praying that Heaven may lighten your sorrow.
I am your friend,
Ollie Bickerstaff.

"Build-Up": Way to Ease Women's Pain

Many weak, run-down women are in a vicious circle. Their under-nourishment often leads to what is called functional dysmenorrhea and its symptoms—headaches, nervousness, irritability, intermittent cramp-like pains—from which many women suffer. Surest way to break the vicious circle is by building strength and energy, which so many find may be done with the help of CARDUI. It stimulates appetite, aids digestion, and thus helps in this "build-up" of physical resistance. Women also report that, if taken just before and during "the time," CARDUI helps to ease the pain and discomfort of the period.

IN MEMORY

God is gathering buds, full blooming roses will not do, He took from the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Burns their little girl, Janette. The home is lonely now, the joy and light have flown and as they sit with shadowed brow they feel that she is gone. Dear little bright-eyed Janette always so full of glee, always so very affectionate, the pride of that home was she. How they miss her childish prattle and always will. Her place is vacant everywhere in the home. Though the beautiful life has been taken, she will always be fresh in their memory. Their loss is Heaven's gain, and truthfully can we say death never stilled a warmer heart, earth never pillowed a lovelier head, Heaven never welcomed a sweeter spirit, and may her parents and little brother that she was so devoted to meet her in Heaven and make an unbroken family around God's throne.

Farewell sweet child, 'tis hard from thee to part, although the Lord hath called thee home it almost breaks our heart, but it was God's will, so just bow in submission to Him who doeth all things best. She is now resting with Jesus in Heaven. She is done with earthly troubles, no more sorrow she shall know, no more pain or sickness she will suffer here below.

Lovingly, her aunt, Mrs. T. G. Howell.
