ASSISTANCE FOR DISTRESSED FARMERS

Washington, D. C.
October 28, 1939.

To the people of the First Congressional District of Mississippi:

When this extra session of Congress convened I introduced a bill asking for $20,000,000 to be used in assisting the distressed farmers in this area. I went on the floor of the House, explained the condition, and stated that these farmers are in distress, and more entitled to our consideration than are the peoples of the warring nations of Europe, and that I would insist on aid for them at this session.

My efforts have brought results. At a White House conference early this week, the President informed me that he had authorized the Farm Security Administration to use $5,000,000 saved in the Budget, together with $4,000,000 they already had, for grants and loans in the neediest cases to secure subsistence for themselves and feed for their livestock. He also said he had requested the Surplus Commodities Corporation to distribute meal, flour, etc., in these distressed areas in order to relieve human suffering.

He also said he had requested the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to use about $20,000,000 left there in what they call the "Disaster Loan Fund" to be loaned to the farmers at very low rates of interest, say 3 or 4 per cent, and repayments stretched out over sufficient length of time to lighten the burden as much as possible.

This $29,000,000 is for all the distressed areas throughout the country. I have just talked to the heads of these various agencies, and I am informed that they will be ready to announce within the next few days the method of procedure to be followed in making these loans and grants, as well as the distribution of the surplus commodities.

Just as soon as this program is announced I will send a copy to every paper in the District, in order that you may all know just what steps to take to secure assistance.

Letters and appeals are pouring in so fast that it is almost impossible to answer them all. Therefore, I am giving this information through the local papers. I want you to know that I am doing everything I can to secure all the assistance possible during these distressing times, and I hope you will be as patient as you can under the circumstances.

This distressed condition was brought about by a situation over which we have no control, and I have no hesitancy about appealing to the Federal government for aid. This condition is temporary. Next year we will probably make a good crop

W. A. PHILLIPS AND JAMES OTIS VINSON WINNERS IN PLANT-TO-PROSPER

W. A. Phillips, R-2, Dennis, Miss., winner in landowners division and James Otis Vinson, R-1, Dennis, Miss., winner in tenants division, and no record was turned in on operators division.

There were 11 record books turned in out of about 35 contestants.

Mr. W. A. Phillips was placed first on practically every point. Judging of applicants are based on the following:

Forty per cent for living-at-home.

Twenty per cent for diversification.

Twenty per cent for soil conservation.

Twenty per cent for home improvement.

Mr. Phillips had considerable edge on the other four applicants in the land owners division on the live-at-home program and on home improvement. Mr. C. S. Cresap was following as a close second on live-at-home and on soil conservation.

The 10 record books turned in, in the land owners division, is evidence of exceptional good work considering the weather conditions for this year. Most of these farmers are making enough food and feedstuff to get by on this year, which is considerably more than the average farmer is doing.

We should like to see those who were in the Plant-to-Prospere this year come back and try it again next year because the records of these people who have tried in the Plant-to-Prospere contest this year speak for themselves regarding the value of Plant-to-Prospere contest to farmers.

Mr. James Otis Vinson was the only member who turned in a record book in the tenants division. Mr. Vinson has shown by his record that Plant-to-Prospere means something to him.

We do not know how far we are going in the State Contest. We hope we win the prize, but if we do not the work done by farmers in competing in this contest has been well worth the time and money spent.

COTTON GINNING REPORT

Census report shows that 3,070 bales of cotton were ginned in Tishomingo County, from the crop of 1939 prior to October 18, as compared with 6,769 bales for the crop of 1938.

and get good prices for it. But for the time being our farmers are in distress and we must give all the assistance possible to enable them to pull through.

Sincerely yours,

J. E. Rankin.

MISSISSIPPI PAVED ROADS INVITE TOURISTS SOUTH

Greatest invasion in history is forecast in the near future for Mississippi. Two huge motorized armies are expected soon to combine and move upon the state, bringing prosperity and goodwill.

War in Europe and deluxe paved roads in Mississippi mean those two great pleasure-seeking armies, tourists and annual migrants to the South, which previously marched in detouring directions to leave the state shunned in inglorious isolation now will converge here to enjoy attractions that before could not be seen for the dust, mud and bumps.

The first World War from 1914 to 1918 left American tourists nation-bound and created the slogan "See America First." It can be foreseen with certainty, therefore, that the present European chaos will cause rise of a similar condition. The long, smooth ribbons of new pavement that now span this state will be an irresistible magnet to the again nation-bound thousands.

Swiftly moving efficiency of the State Highway Department and carefully planned economy of the State Highway Commission in constructing modern paved highways second to none in the nation assures Mississippi of such popularity and recognition as she has never known before. The superb highway system being so rapidly and lastingly built is proving to be all the former wall-flower needed to transform her into the most sought-after and popular of the 48 sister states.

Rich in climate, natural resources, history and scenic beauty, Mississippians are already noting that paved highways are proving a big dividend paying investment in increased trade and tax collections.

Roads in Mississippi are being made all-weather highways that motorists from coast to coast are seeking. Many will now swing south through Mississippi to avoid hazards of northern snow and ice. Once traffic was diverted around the state. Now Mississippi roads are being recommended.

The greatest tourist year in her history is ahead, and Mississippi highways are ready. From the motorists' standpoint, Mississippi, through her expanding highway system, is rejoining the Union.

Hospitable welcome is now extended to the tourist coming to Mississippi by five north-south paved highways 11, 51, 61, 45, and 49 and 49W, and Highway 15 with but 30 miles to be constructed; and those routing east-west are pleasantly greeted by paved highways 78, 80, 82 and 90, and Highway 84 is fast being completed with but 22 miles to be placed under contract.

HERE AND THERE BY Wilmer Price

Here We Go Again!

It is practically a foregone conclusion that the Arms Embargo is on the way out. This act which was almost unanimously agreed upon as a safeguard to keep the U. S. out of war is now about to be lifted. We shall start making arms and ammunition and all the machinery of war. France and England are our prospective customers. The French and English newspapers are naturally jubilant over this prospect. It means that sooner or later we will have a serious disagreement with Germany and use it as a rallying cry to rouse our young men to the point at which they will be ready to go to war to whip the Germans. Do we have a democracy? The flood of mail received in Washington has proved that the majority of U. S. citizens are anxious to keep out of foreign wars. And yet our representatives there are going to lift the Embargo against our wishes. The people who will benefit most from the repeal of this act are the makers of munitions, and they have money enough to organize any sort of Congressional lobby they wish. The excuse given by the law-makers for their action is that the implements of war will, (under the new law about to be substituted) have to be paid for in cash on delivery and be carried away in the buyers own ships. However there are number of modifications being introduced in the hope of offsetting the full effect of this bill. One modification is that, although under the Johnson Act, foreign powers may not borrow any money from the U. S. Government, if they have not been paying on their war debt to this country. Plans are being made by large private concerns to allow credit to purchasers of war supplies. Another modification proposed would allow us to trade with the foreign territories and possessions of the countries at war and to use U. S. Merchant Marine vessels in carrying on this trade. This school of thought contends that if we curtail our trade with the outlying possessions of the British Empire and with French colonies we will be seriously injuring our Merchant Marine. Common sense tells us that if we are to manufacture war supplies for one side in the conflict we must expect spies from the other side (Germany in this case) to put forth every effort to damage our manufacturing plants. We should expect this and not be surprised if and when an explosion occurs there in the near future. So far, on the Western Front in Europe very little fighting has been done. Apparently, according to report, Hitler is laying plans for a big push through Holland and Belgium. And yet Germany maintains that her fight is really against England and not the French. This leads some observers to anticipate instead a direct attack on the British Isles.

Oddity. I have heard of many odd names but I came across one of the strangest just recently. My father received a business letter from a ranch owner in Texas who signs himself "Brown Rainwater." I don't know, but I would guess that this man may be of some Indian blood since Indians often have curious names similar to this.

ORPHAN HOME GETS $30,000.00 BY SAVING COUPONS

Those not familiar with the various sources from which denominational Homes of our Southern States derive income, will be surprised to learn that a steady flow of cash comes from the modest soap coupons. One child-caring Home has received more than $30,000.00, others have gained substantially large sums, through this same source. Alert housewives of Mississippi were quick to visualize, in the saving of coupons, the unusual opportunity afforded them to help their favorite charities—without cost to themselves. With them, the saving of coupons has become a sort of daily ritual, performed to help unfortunate boys and girls in the Church-supported Homes of the State.

SNOWDOWN HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB RE-ORGANIZES

The Snowdown Home Demonstration Club met October 19, 1939 with Mrs. Matt Cornelison as hostess. The following officers for the year were elected:

President, Mrs. J. R. Wingo. Vice-President, Mrs. Ruby Curtiss. Sec.-Treas., Miss Evie Lee Threadgill. Clothing Leader No. 1, Mrs. Blanche Daugherty. Clothing Leader No. 2, Mrs. E. B. Medley. No program was planned, but a nice recreation period was enjoyed with a guessing game, "What Did She eWar?" Mrs. Carl Smith vistor was the recipient with a prize of P. & G. Laundry Soap. Three new members were enrolled. —Reporter.

PADEN HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

The Paden Home Demonstration Club held it regular monthly meeting on October 24th, in the home of Miss Beatrice Stephens.

Members answered to roll call with helpful household hints. We had scheduled for the month a demonstration on mattress making, which had to be postponed until a later date. However, a very interesting meeting was held, despite the disappointment. Mrs. C. Deaton gave an interesting article on the 1940 AAA Program.

A new Club year rolling around called for new officers, and the follownig were elected: President, Mrs. C. Deaton; Vice-President, Mrs. J. C. Wilson; Sec.-Treas., Beatrice Stephens; Nutrition Leader, Mrs. Lela Clark; Garden Leader, Mrs. S. M. Shackelford; Recreation Leader, Mrs. Ferrell; Clothing Leader No. 1, Mrs. H. O. Timbes; Clothing Leader No. 2, Mrs. Clara Sanders.

We are delighted to know our study for the new year will be clothing.

The club had as a viistor, the hostess' mother, Mrs. J. M. Timbes, of Tishomingo.

Following the social period,

GRAVE REGISTRATION PROJECT

The American Legion, through the Works Projects Administration has put on a Project to register all soldiers graves in Mississippi, and put markers to those who do not have them. This work is divided up by Counties. So far we have found four hundred and seventy-five (475); these include all wars. However there still lie in unmarked graves a larger amount of soldiers who have no markers, and who will be lost from the eyes of the public if they are not found.

If the public will cooperate with the committee on this project by giving them the names of unmarked soldiers graves, and history, this work will be finished one hundred per cent.

which was spent in a guessing contest, the club enjoyed sandwiches, cake, and punch for refreshment.

We adjourned to meet one month later in the home of Mrs. J. C. Wilson.

NATURE
By Rev. R. E. Pate

"I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding; and lo, it was all covered with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof; and the stone wall therefore was broken down; then I saw and considered it well; I looked upon it, and received instruction." Prov. 24:30-32.

By such allusions the Bible constantly shows us how much the generations of mankind resemble one another. In every age the sluggard and the fool have had a place, as well as the laborer and the wise man. Let us see if any modern experiences have not been anticipated by the dreary scene of the fools field.

The scene shows that if we will not have flowers and fruits, we shall certainly have thorns and nettles. We can not set aside the laws of nature. We can not say to nature, "I am going to sleep so you must stand still until I awake." There is a law of growth in the very ground. Though we sit down and fold our hands slumberously, that great law will go steadily on and thorns and nettles shall show how inexorably it proceeds. It is the same with the character of man. We can not simply do nothing. Life has its laws. We may pay them no heed, but they will assert themselves notwithstanding and show by painful proofs that neglect is crime.

A man may resolve not to cultivate his mind. What then?
Is his mind simply blank? No the weeds of false notions, thorns of foolish imagination, the nettles of prejudice will prove his intellectual indolence.
A man may neglect to cultivate his moral nature and lead his children, neighbors and neighbors children to do so. He despise religious services and exhortation, and all who have a part with them. He holds in contempt all ideas of self control. He derides the idea or suggestion that he should consider the religious aspects of the uncertain future. He says in one decisive sentence that he will have nothing to do with religion. What then, can he keep himself strictly in a negative condition? Is he at the end of 10 years the innocent man that he proposed himself to become? See his false ideas his superstitions, his want of veneration, his superficial judgments, and see how far he has succeeded.

If flowers and fruits are not sown, and cultivated, we shall certainly have thorns and nettles, is true with the soil, it is also true in the case of man's character. If the life is left idle, no good seed sown, no cultivation, then thorns, nettles, weeds, briars, and other hurtful things are sure to come from that life.

What are you doing about your own life and the lives of your children? Do you despise religion, religious people, and teach your children the same?
Do you expect this to give to you all the happiness, and fullness of life, God intended for you and your children to have?
Attend Sunday school and Church somewhere Sunday, with one purpose, and that purpose being to find God, worship Him, learn more of Him, seek His help, love, care and protection. If you do this you will find help at some Sunday school, or worship service any day you attend. Nature marches on.

MRS. J. H. ALLEN ENTER-TAINS THURSDAY CLUB

On Thursday October 27th at 2:30 p. m., the Thursday Club was entertained by Mrs. J. H.
Allen in her home on the Lee Highway. A very timely program on Americanism was presented by Mrs. R. J. Brown, which stressed the ideal, the cornerstone, upon which our nation, the United States of America is founded. This ideal, as we all know is Liberty, or the importance of the individual citizen. Roll call was answered with brief paragraphs having to do with the statesmen who laid the foundation of the great nation in which we live today Attacked as we are by foreign propaganda, there is need of reminding ourselves, that we possess a personal freedom which is the envy of the citizens of other countries, lest we forget our blessings and lose our birthright for which our forefathers shed their blood in the Revolution. This thought inspired the program which was as follows:

The Americans Creed.—Mrs.
Sam Allen.

What is Americanism.—Mrs.
Jones.

Lindbergh's Neutrality Speech.
—Mrs. Price.

Henry Ford on Neutrality.—
Mrs. Doan.

Senator Norris on Neutrality.
—Mrs. Copeland.

Senator Borah on Neutrality
—Mrs. Brown.

A quiz on current events which concluded the program revealed the fact that members of the Thursday Club are well informed on the news of today, received through the medium of newspapers and radio.

During the social hour which followed Mrs. Allen served delightful refreshments.

The next meeting will be held on November 9th in the home of Mrs. R. J. Brown.

HALLOWE'EN CELEBRA-TION

The big Hallowe'en celebration under the sponsorship of the Community Council and directed by the WPA Unit Recreational Supervisor, Miss Billie Burke Whitehurst, assisted by Miss Lucille Pace and the Tish-omingo County Recreational Leaders at the Leatherwood Hotel Monday night was a complete success. Every minute from the time of entering until the last guest departed was packed full of fun and frolic.
Fifteen booths, consisting of fortune telling, bobbing for apples, wheel of fortune, rifle range, Blue Beard's wives and other things made the midway a source of mirth as well as adding a nice sum to the treasury —the money for which will form a nucleus for building a much needed recreation center in the town, and by the way, do you know of anything which the town needs more?

All those who participated in making this party the success which it was are to be congratulated on their first effort and when other affairs are offered they too ought to be given the heartiest support and the whole town should work towards the building of a Community House now while WPA labor might be available. Let's have a Community building.

Women: "Build-Up" To Relieve Pain

A weak, run-down, undernourished condition calls for attention!

Such a condition often enables functional dysmenorrhea to get its foothold. That's one thing which leads to much of women's suffering from headaches, nervousness, those cramp-like pains. A good way to relieve such pains, women by thousands have found, is by the proper use of CARDUI. It stimulates a lagging appetite, assists digestion and assimilation; thus helps build physical resistance to periodic pain. Taken just before and during "the time," many women also report that CARDUI helps to ease the pain and discomfort of the period.

KEEP YOUR RED CROSS READY

THIS striking painting of a Red Cross nurse keeping the symbol of mercy flying is the keynote of the 1939 appeal for membership in the American Red Cross. Faced with the need for strengthening daily Red Cross services in 3,700 Chapters, and with its chartered obligation to aid in some measure in meeting the distress of the men, women and children refugees in war-torn countries across the sea, the Red Cross asks every man and woman in the nation, able to do so, to join as a member this year and support America's official voluntary relief agency.

Ruskin Williams, a distinguished artist, is creator of this ideal conception of the nurse heroine.

The roll call for members will be held November 11 to 30—join through your local Chapter. Help your Red Cross help others by becoming one of the millions who will add their names to the roll of mercy.

FORESTRY AND T. V. PHOSPHATE

Farmers who are interested in getting pine or locust seedlings from the nursery transplanting are urged to their order in as soon as possible. The nursery department has asked us to get our applications in by November 15, possible. We are in position to take applications for trees the County Office and Mr. L. Edwards, Vocational Teacher, Tishomingo, and Mr. Joe Brown, Vocational Teacher, Mont, will also take your application. If ordering trees from the nursery it will be necessary to put up the $2.00 thousand to go with the order. If you are ordering trees from the T.V.A. it will be necessary for you to come to the County Office to make your application. Those people who are interested in buying phosphate through AAA to enable them to fully earn their soil building payment should begin making their applications immediately as sufficient applications have to be turned in to make a car load of 30 tons before a photo can be ordered.

If sufficient number of men from Belmont would order a car could be shipped to point and save transportation. The same is true of Tishomingo, Iuka or Burnsville, but sufficient applications are necessary to justify shipping a car. These different points it is necessary to just handle all from one point.

Farmers, in general, are urged to take advantage of opportunity of earning a full building allowance by using Triple Superphosphate their legumes and pastures.

The Mississippi State College for Women observed the fifty-fifth anniversary of its founding on the twenty-second of October with Dr. A. B. Butts, Chancellor of the University of Mississippi, as guest speaker. The College opened its doors for the first time on October 22, 1885, as the first publicly supported institution of higher learning exclusively for women to be established in the world. At that time 341 students enrolled, representing 62 counties. Today the college enrolls 1200 students, with every county in the state represented. The plant comprises thirty modern and well equipped buildings; the faculty is composed of ninety scholarly men and women; the eight curriculums and varied enough to meet the needs of most Mississippi girls. In addition to its liberal arts curriculum there are vocational curriculums, providing specialization not only in dramatics, music, and dancing, but also in teaching, home making, commerce, laboratory technicians, social service, and the like, as well as pre-professional preparation in medicine and law. Over 17,000 girls have attended this institution and are now located in all parts of the United States and in many foreign countries. It is gratifying to read their records of achievement in varied and advanced fields. All Alumnae celebrated Founder's Day last week, and are calling attention to the continued progress of their Alma Mater.
