CAPITOL ACTIVITIES

By Walker Wood,
Secretary of State

The forest land in Mississippi is owned as follows: The Federal government owns 1,105,080 acres of commercial forest land; 1,822 non-commercial forest land; a total of 1,106,902 acres; State, County and municipal government in Mississippi own 878,500 acres of commercial forest land; 8,728 acres of non-commercial forest land; a total of 887,228 acres; 13,875,000 acres commercial forest land, 3,970 acres non-commercial forest land, a total of 13,878,970 acres are privately owned.

Mississippi contains 2,020,000 people—an average of 43 persons per square mile—21 per cent of the population is urban.

Mississippi produced $3,093,000 worth of minerals in 1935.

House Bill 525 introduced would create a State Laundry and Dry Cleaners Board to regulate and license laundries and dry cleaners in the state.

H. B. 550 seeks to reduce the homestead exemption on homes in municipalities from $5,000.00 to $1,000.00.

H. B. 552 seeks to provide for necessary medical, dental and other treatment for children up to 16 years of age, without funds or resources to produce same.

H. B. 523 seeks to establish scholarships in State owned colleges for young men and young women and to train them to act as librarians for State owned School Depositories.

S. B. 238 and 239 seeks to establish a state training school for negroes and appropriate $75,000.00 therefor.

S. B. 246 seeks to transfer the duties of the state tax collector to the State auditor, and abolish the state tax collector's office as of January 15, 1944.

S. B. 249 would lease to the city of Jackson certain state-owned lands in the city of Jackson for park purposes, and fix the rental therefor.

H. B. 55 approved by the Governor postpones the listing of lands for delinquent taxes from 15th day of February, 1940, to the 15th day of August, 1940 and from first Monday in April 1940 to the third Monday of September, 1940, after Boards of Supervisors have entered such an order on their minutes and furnished a certified copy thereof to the sheriff of the county.

Approved by the Governor is House Bill 219 which provides that a person convicted of receiving stolen neat or horned cattle may be sentenced for a felony or misdemeanor, regardless of the value of stolen cattle. A companion bill also approved is House Bill 66 which provides that larceny of neat or horned cattle may be treated as a felony or a misdemeanor by the trial judge regardless of the value of the cattle stolen.

Railroads in Mississippi under H. B. 24 approved by Governor Johnson, are required to have head lights on locomotives conform to the rules, regulations and requirements of the interstate commerce commission.

The legislature is speeding up. Up to Thursday morning, March 14, 104 bills had been passed and approved by the Governor. Of these 23 House Bills and 19 Senate Bills were of a general

SCOUTS HONORED WITH INSTALLATION CEREMONY

The Boy Scout troop of Iuka was installed in the Boy Scouts of America Sunday afternoon, March 3, at 3:30.

Mr. Carlisle, the Northeast Scout executive, made a very interesting talk on the 3 points of the scout oath, and the twelve scout laws.

Following this twelve tenderfoot Scouts received their pins and registration cards. They were: Jack Barnett, Morris Brunson, Shelby Counce, Auston E. Curtis, Clifton Curtis, Louis Gritz, W. H. Hanna, Jr., Frank King, Omar C. Nelson, Nathan Pack, Jr., Ellis Ray Perry, Dwen Weathers.

Our Scoutmaster is Mr. Walter Lazier, and very popular among the boys.

The troop committeemen are: Mr. Candler Oaks, chairman; Mr. Fletcher Oaks, Mr. Hiram Jones.

We appreciate these men's interest and all you people coming out to see the ceremony. We believe the Boy Scouts will be a help in the progress of Iuka.

March 11, 1940

We have had some real fine weather and some bad weather during the past week, but as a whole it was an improvement over the weather for a number of weeks.

No farming of any note has been done in this section to date, but we are hopeful that we may soon get to do something except get wood and make fires.

It seems that Gov. Johnson is having quite a job to get the legislature to help him put over his program. We rather guess that the big liquor interest is against him also the school book trust. Also a lot of old hangovers who have had their hands in the tax payers pockets lo, these many years.

Well it does seem to us that the little Finnish nation is about doomed and will have to surrender in the near future to those bearded hoards. It may be right, but we fail to see it that way.

Mr. and Mrs. Oled McDougal visited relatives northwest of Iuka last week end.

Mr. W. R. Wynn, who resides near Salem, was in our burg Sunday on business.

We learn that Prof. Clyde Bingham, who teaches at Pleasant Hill, has been on the sick list.

COUNTY COUNCIL MEETING

The county council of Home Demonstration Club met in the office of the Home Demonstration Agent Saturday, March 2. The meeting was opened by singing "Southern Memories."

Five members answered roll call. Miss Ethel Stormont was elected County Chairman of Better Homes Week. County contests were discussed by Miss Talbert.

A very instructive program was given by the Short Club on the "Health Situation of our County".

Miss Talbert served dainty refreshments to the members and several visitors.

nature, the others were of a local and private nature.

The House of Representatives has approved a bill to substitute electrocution instead of hanging for exacting capital punishment in Mississippi.

Official dedication of the Mississippi War Memorial Building has been set for the week of July 7th to 10th.

European Tangle.

Conditions in Europe are so balled up that no one can anticipate what will happen. On one side there are signs attempting to lead the way to peace. On the other side are more signs which point the way to the most disastrous war in history. President Roosevelt's investigator Mr. Sumner Welles has, without doubt, been learning a great deal but I do not think that he will be able to bring about a compromise peace. European diplomats have had too much experience in pulling the wool over our representative's eyes in the past. They, of course, would like to arouse sympathy for the Allies and Finland in order to get money, and possibly men, from us to fight their battles with. Nevertheless the best thing we can do is to mind our own business. Our own government has a national debt so large that it is unsafe and contrary to law to exceed the legal limit which we are now approaching. In spite of all this, however we go about scattering money in China, Finland and South America and have also set up an Export and Import Bank, by means of which we may lose many more millions or billions of dollars. It was reported the other day that Iceland was able to wangle a loan of several millions from the U. S. A., also. What are our Congressmen thinking about throwing our dollars around in countries which to us seem anything but good risks from an investment standpoint? Meantime our own taxes mount sky high so that our citizens can scarcely get by.

Poor Finland.

For the past several weeks the gigantic army of Soviet Russia has been gaining a slight advantage against the small but dauntless army of Finland. The Russians were able after fierce fighting and enormous losses to get around one end of Finland's famous Mannerheim Line of fortifications. The Finns have lost considerable ground and the demands made by Russia are said to be more severe than at the start of this conflict. Finland could probably obtain aid from England and France but Sweden refuses permission to march these troops across her territory since Hitler has warned Sweden that this would constitute a hostile act. In other words if Sweden permits this she may be dragged into the war herself.

At this writing there are discussions underway in Moscow between Finnish representatives and those of Russia. The talks have gone on there for several days and it is apparent that Stalin desires to set up a tiny puppet state between Russia and what would be left of Finland. In this way Russia would get the seaport she wants.

Anglo-Italian Relations.

It made quite a stir recently when England seized coal barges bound for Italy loaded with German coal. England had declared a blockade against both German exports and imports. It looked as tho' there there would be trouble between England and Italy because the latter country must import large quantities of coal from other nations. However the affair now seems peacefully settled with an agreement whereby England furnishes part of this coal in exchange for agricultural implements from Italy. The rest would probably be brought from Germany by railroad over the Alps into Italy.

SELLING UNCERTIFIED POTATO SEED ILLEGAL

State College, Miss., March 13.—Reminding all sweet potato growers that sales of uncertified potatoes for seed purposes are violations of the law, the State Plant Board warns that any such violations coming to its attention will be prosecuted. Uncertified potatoes may easily spread black rot and stem rot, two serious diseases of potatoes which live over in the soil for many years, even when potatoes are not grown on that particular land.

Any grower may have his potatoes certified for seed purposes without charge by applying to the State Plant Board for the field and storage inspections on or before June 15. In spite of the recent freezing weather there is an abundance of high-grade certified seed potatoes in Mississippi this season, says the Board, and therefore, there is no reason for anyone to get uncertified seed. The number of growers applying for certification this season was 1437 with an acreage of about 4500, the largest in many years, according to the Plant Board records. A list of certified potato growers by counties may be secured by writing the State Plant Board at State College.

in New York Harbor the three largest passenger ships in the world. These vessels are tied up there for safe keeping during the war at dock charges of $1000 per day for each one. The impressive and the largest, is the new English liner "Queen Elizabeth," just completed and brought over in strict secrecy a couple of weeks ago on its maiden voyage. Nearby is the famous English ship "Queen Mary" and French rival for highest class passenger trade, the gigantic "Normandy."

LEGISLATIVE NEWS FROM JACKSON

Dear Friends:

Since the last letter I wrote to the papers back home there have been some hot times here in the Legislature and especially when the Revenue Bills began to come up before both houses.

The first Revenue Bill came up in the Senate when they came on the floor with a 2 mill increase in the Ad Valorem tax which would raise the tax to 8 mills. After arguing and discussing this bill for one day a vote was taken and the Senate killed the proposed tax by one vote, although a majority of the Senators voted in favor of this increase there had to be a three fifths majority which they did not get.

In the House they are having trouble getting any Revenue bills before the House as the Ways and Means Committee have not voted a favorable bill on the floor as yet, and from all indications it seems they are going to bring some bills on the floor this week on a majority report which will have a great deal of trouble getting a three fifths majority vote in the House.

The proposition has gotten down to this. The House and Senate have passed both the free text bill and an increase in the old age pension law, both measures I supported wholeheartedly and in order to get the money to support these measures that we have voted I intend to vote for most of the Revenue bills which are to be brought on the floor. There was no need for either House to vote for a bill and then not vote for something or some way with which to support these measures, that is my attitude and I intend to stick to this.

This past week we had up before the House the so-called Conservation bill which was debated on for two days in the house and on the second day was killed outright. This bill was a proposed measure to consolidate the different commissions into one including the Game and Fish Commission which is not supported by the State in any way as for the money problem is concerned and while in Iuka last Saturday talking to some good friends about this bill they asked me to vote against the Conservation bill unless the Game and Fish Commission was taken out. This I did do until an amendment was passed to strike out the Game and Fish Commission. From then until the bill was killed on the floor I supported the Conservation bill.

The Jackson papers and more especially one of the papers which is strictly an anti-administration paper have been carrying editorials in every issue about the spending spree which the Legislature is on and has been basing its argument on the so-called bill calling for an increase in the ad valorem tax from six mills to eight mills. This might be a very good argument if it wasn't for the fact that for the past twenty years there has not been a Legislature during its first session that has not passed an eight mill ad valorem tax and this is the first Legislature that has asked to pass this bill that has the burden of keeping the Homestead Exemption, Free Text Book Bill and an increase in the Old Age Pension. During the last administration when Governor White took his oath of office there was something like $3,000,000 in the State Treasury and during the first session of his administration both Houses passed an eight mill ad valorem tax. Then during the summer of 1938 a special session was called and they passed the Homestead exemption law which law exhausted the surplus of the State Treasury, but also left a deficit of $1,750,000.00 for which this Legislature has the responsibility of taking care of.

Under the Homestead Exemption law the land owners that qualify are receiving something like 40 mills from the State on their exemption and now the legislature in trying to get some revenue are asking that we get two mills which would not effect the small man but would get lots of Revenue from all Corporations existing in the State and you read that all this Legislature is trying to do in getting some Revenue for the support of the administration is the fact that we are on a big spending spree.

This Legislature is trying to be fair with everyone and hope you good friends will not take the attitude that we are down here just to see how much money we can spend, as this is not so.

A resolution was passed by the House Friday, the 8th setting March 30th for a day of Adjournment, but like we are going to the present it will be the middle of April before we can possibly adjourn.

I will try to keep you posted as to what is going on as often as I can.

Your friend,

J. O. (Click) Clark

RECORD COTTON CROP

Despite the very unfavorable crop year, Mr. G. E. Stringer of the Midway area reports that he harvested more than 2100 pounds of lint cotton from 5.6 acres. This is a yield of 375 pounds of lint cotton per acre, which is a good yield considering the season of 1939.

Mr. Stringer states that the cause of this yield no doubt was due to the turning under of two crops of vetch one in 1937 (which was very good) and one in 1939 (which was only a fair crop) and to the planting of good Stoneville No. 5 Cotton Seed.

His fertilization and cultivation practices were approximately the same as those in general practice by the farmer of the community.

The writer is of the opinion that Mr. Stringer's cotton land is above the average for the community. It is a very good soil.

ORCHARD SPRAYING AD-VISED

Plant Board Recommends
Materials

As spring approaches, orchardists throughout Mississippi are being advised by the State Plant Board to examine their trees for San Jose scale and spray if necessary. Trees, such as apple and peach trees,
are rough and scaly when heavily infested and the bark has an ashy-gray appearance. The small scales may be easily seen.
The spray should be applied in good weather when the temperature is above freezing and should not be delayed until blooming has started. The recent severe weather has undoubtedly killed many of the scales and spraying will be more efficient this year.

The Board recommends that government formula lubricating oil emulsion be used at the rate of one part of emulsion to 20 parts of water. The emulsion should be thick and creamy and orchardists are advised not to use emulsions in which the oil and water have separated or those which are thin and intended for summer sprays.

If peach leaf curl has been present in the orchard, a spray of one part oil emulsion in 15 parts Bordeaux mixture will control both scale and leaf curl.

Lists of firms handling oil emulsion and other orchard sprays may be secured by writing to the State Plant Board at State College.

SUGGESTIONS FOR PLANT
TO PROSPER

Part III

I—Remove From the Yard All Unattractive Objects.

1. Stumps.
2. Machinery.
3. Shrubby and flower beds
in open yard.
4. Planks, rocks, limbs, wood, beehives, coops.
5. Poultry should be fenced out of yard, if possible.
6. Clothes line and grindstone to back yard.
7. Shoe scrapers should be placed at convenient places.

Leave main yard clear of all rubbish, no dead grass or leaves, free of hummocks and holes,
and with a good stand of grass.

II Repair:

1. Dwellings, if needed.
 - a. Steps.
 - b. Porches.
 - c. Windows.
 - d. Weather boarding.
 - e. Screens.
 - f. Doors, hinges, etc.
2. Outbuildings.
 - a. Doors and hinges.
 - b. Boards.

3. Fences and gates—no broken or missing planks or pickets.
Gates to swing easily and with good fastenings.

III—Paint:

1. Dwelling—light color or white.
2. Outbuildings—same color as dwelling.
3. Fences—if plank (whitewash substitute on buildings and fences.)

IV—Plant:

1. Trees for shade, if needed.
 - a. Long-lived, as elms oaks, hard maple.
 - b. Use those that grow in locality, not peculiar or unusual ones. In as natural arrangement as possible.
 - c. Not in rows or directly in front of dwelling.
 - d. Avoid topping or pruning severely.
2. Shrubs.
 - a. At foundation of dwelling and outbuildings—to relieve boreness. (Use of natives recommended where possible).
 - b. Out far enough to permit growth in every direction, avoid planting under eaves.
 - c. Tallest ones at corners, lower in front of windows and by porches. Arrange to preserve a pleasing view from the porch or home.
 - d. To screen unsightly buildings or yards—poultry yards, barn lot, outdoor toilet, back yard from roadway—(wild plum, elderberry, wild gooseberry and vines are suggested).
 - e. In corners and along borders of yard.
 - f. Use native shrubs, especially for outbuildings, screening and corners of back yard.
 - g. Avoid straight lines as much as possible. Irregular plantings make a more pleasing line.

3. Vines (Use Native Vines):
 - a. To screen.
 - (1) On trellises.
 - (2) On fence.
 - (3) On unsightly old buildings.
 4. Flowers.
 - a. In front of shrubs and vines. Always a green background, if possible.
 - b. Use perennials such as Iris, Peonies, etc., to save labor.
 - c. Use annuals for bright color throughout Summer and Fall.
 - d. Flowers should be in mass plantings for best effect.
 - e. Set aside one area for wild flowers.

V—Care:

1. Grass should be kept mowed. Clippings left on yard.
2. Yard free of weeds and poorly placed beds or other decoration.
3. Shrubby and flowers cultivated conserves moisture.
4. Dead leaves, blossoms and branches removed.
5. If watered, soak ground after sundown, then mulch.
6. Yard furniture located preferably in rear or side of dwelling adds to the appearance of the yard and to the comfort of the family and guests.

In working out a long time program for Home Ground Improvement, it is suggested that individuals read the above suggestions and check the items or groups that are possible for the first year, and work out a plan so that all work will fit into a satisfactory finished result.

Girls Are Advised To Build-Up For Relief

Lack of knowledge causes many a weak, undernourished girl a lot of suffering!
Many others, however, know how the headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition are helped by the proper use of CARDUI.
Some take it a few days before and during "the time," to help ease periodic distress. But CARDUI's principal use is to help increase appetite; stimulate the flow of gastric juice; so aid digestion, assist in building up physical resistance and thus help reduce periodic distress. Women have used CARDUI for over 50 years.

MRS. LAURA BRINKLEY DIES IN MEMPHIS

Mrs. Laura Little Brinkley, widow of the late W. J. Brinkley and member of a prominent Southern family, died at 11:45 a. m., March 7th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. I. McRee of 176 Humes Place, Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. Brinkley lived in Iuka and was visiting her daughter in Memphis at the time of her death. Her home in Iuka, "Dunrobin" was built by her husband's late father, R. C. Brinkley.

A native of Tusculumbia, Ala. Mrs. Brinkley was the daughter of the late Capt. and Mrs. B. F. Little. Her father was a captain in the Confederate army.

Mr. and Mrs. Brinkley moved to Memphis from Iuka in 1921, living there until 1930 when they returned to Iuka. Mr. Brinkley, a real estate dealer, died six years ago.

In addition to her daughter Mrs. Brinkley is survived by a son, W. J. Brinkley, Jr., of Iuka; two grandchildren, Betty Mhoon McRee, Memphis and W. J. Brinkley, III, Iuka; two sisters, Mrs. H. L. Bruce, Tusculumbia and Mrs. B. R. Darrow, Montgomery, Ala., and two brothers, H. O. Little, Iuka and B. F. Little, Tusculumbia.

Funeral services were conducted the day following her death at St. John's Episcopal Church, Tusculumbia, Ala. Burial was at Tusculumbia.

Active pallbearers were: I. M. Jackson and R. A. McRee of Iuka; Dr. C. R. Whitman, John Johnson, James Isbell, R. E. Hyde, A. C. Carmichael, Sr., and Walter Hugh Glenn of Tusculumbia.

The following were honorary pallbearers: J. B. Williams, Iuka, and Dr. W. L. Williamson, Dr. W. C. Chaney, James Jackson, J. L. Kennedy, G. R. Page Leroy Taylor, Amiel Brinkley Brinkley Snowden and J. Bayard Snowden of Memphis.

STUNT NIGHT

Stunt night as given by the pupils of the Iuka High School Friday under the direction of Mr. Strickland and Miss Oakley was a rare treat. Seldom is an amateur performance given when each participant plays his part to such perfection as was this entertainment—each one was an artist in his line, and the large audience was enthusiastic in its response. Among the features were tap dances, Indian skits, amateur bands, vocal and instrumental solos and duets, mock wedding, beauty revue, living pictures, burlesque of Thursday Study Club, impersonation of High School faculty etc.

Standing room was at a premium early in the evening and a nice sum was collected which will be used in commencement exercises.

Vegetable Laxative Makes Happy Friends

Here's a laxative that usually acts thoroughly as harsher ones, but is a gentle persuader for intestines when used this way: A quarter to a half-teaspoonful of spicy, aromatic BLACK-DRAUGHT on your tongue tonight; a drink of water. There's usually time for a good night's rest, with a gentle, thorough action next morning relieving constipation's headaches, biliousness, sour stomach, bad breath.

BLACK-DRAUGHT is a splendid combination of vegetable ingredients, chief of which is an "intestinal tonic-laxative" that helps impart tone to lazy bowel muscles. It's economical. 25 to 40 doses: 25c.
