His soul searching gospel messages and the gospel singing of Bob Lake Furgeson will undoubtedly be a blessing to all who attend.

WILMER PRICE DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Death came as a merciful relief to years of suffering to our young friend, Wilmer Price, who died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Webster Price, early Friday evening. He was buried in Oak Grove cemetery Saturday afternoon, after services at the Church of Our Saviour conducted by Rev. Aileen of Sheffield, assisted by Rev. Tucker of Iuka. Prayers were said at the grave by Mr. McVeigh of Sheffield.

Born in Baltimore, Md., July 25, 1915, the descendant of families distinguished on all sides for wealth and literary attainments he inherited in a marked degree many of these qualities and his grasp of world events, his knowledge of chemistry and other sciences, history—ancient, modern and local—were truly amazing. There was no subject mentioned with which he was not familiar and when it is remembered that only through others reading to him that he attained this knowledge his depth of learning becomes more remarkable. Even in the last few months of his illness his mind was occupied with an invention, which may be perfected some time; that is a machine which can by records read a book to those who are blind and helpless as he was. He had been in correspondence with the General Electric and similar concerns about it.

Coming from a family of collectors, he early in life displayed an interest in such things and his collection of firearms dating back to the 18th century is noteworthy. He also had a famous collection of Civil War material, maps, Confederate money, swords, guns, pictures and other things together with Indian relics found locally which has attracted the attention of experts.

By his writing, he had been brought in contact with people in various walks of life scattered all over the United States and England and many of those letters, some from celebrities, have been printed at different times in his interesting and informative column in The Vidette, which column will be sadly missed, giving as it did a digest of the world's events.

Through all the years of pitiful suffering his life was an inspiration as well as a rebuke to those who are prone to complain of hardships. No one ever found him anything but cheerful and animated, interested in all local happenings. No one ever loved Iuka more nor was more interested in the growth and cultural development of the town and his illustrated booklet on the town of his adoption was a worthwhile contribution.

ATTENTION—ALL LEGIONAIRES

Friday night, June 7th, is election night. All members are urged to be present.

2. Each member desires to be present at all meetings of the mated.

Those who are attending school at Henderson and have returned home are: Lois Lyle Seago, Ruth Felker, Inez Bishop, Maxine Belue and Doule Crane. Several from here attended the concert Saturday night and the singing Sunday at Iuka and reported a nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Phillips, little son, Laymon Wright, Edna Earl Henton and Evelyn Wade had a pleasant trip to the University at Oxford last week, where Mrs. Phillips will attend school this summer.

Mr. R. C. Strickland of Tishomingo, is spending the week with his cousin, Orville Helton. Miss Evelyn Wade spent the week end in Iuka visiting friends.

Miss Clyde Seago has just returned from an enjoyable visit with her sister, Lois Lyle, who is attending Henderson College.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene (Bob) Pannell on May 26th, a 10½ pound daughter. She has been named Annie Marcella.

We are happy to report our Saturday night W.P.A. singing school is progressing nicely. Come on folks and let's make it a real success.

PHILLIPS FAMILY TO REPRESENT FARMERS

According to a newspaper article in the Commercial Appeal the Phillips family of Dennis, has been selected to represent this district in Miss. Masters Farmers' Contest and in this connection they had as guests the editor of home department, Miss Sallie F. Hill and L. A. Niven staff writer both of the Progressive Farmer. Fred Hurst of the State Extension Service of Miss. State College and Miss May Cresswell, State Home Demonstration Agent. A recent article in the Jackson Daily News carries a picture of Ellis Phillips and a write-up of his life.

3. A saving of time, since four receive instruction in the period usually given to one member.

The program, entertaining as well as instructive, varied from simple melodies to classics for the more advanced.

Tishomingo is one of the 54 counties of the state having a W.P.A. music education unit sponsored by the State Department of Education.

The efficient instructors in charge of these units are constantly receiving further training in all branches of music under State supervisors.

The value of this project to children and adults who could not otherwise have musical training can not be over estimated.

C. D. ADAMS

Iuka mourns again over the death of one of its most popular and beloved former citizens, Mr. C. D. Adams of Sheffield, who died early Sunday morning and was buried in Oak Grove cemetery in Iuka Monday afternoon with services at the grave by the Iuka Masonic Lodge, of which Mr. Adams was Past Worshipful Master. Earlier services were held at the Sheffield home by Revs. Reeves and Guthrie of the Sheffield Methodist and Baptist churches.

He was a native of Alabama, but moved to Iuka in early manhood and was a citizen of the town for more than thirty years. About five years ago he moved to Sheffield. During those thirty years Mr. Adams was one of the most progressive and most popular men of the town—identified with every movement for the good of the town and county and serving in many official capacities, in both town and church. He was a devout Christian, an unusually devoted husband and father, a loyal friend and one of the most popular railway mail clerks on the Southern Railway, having served in that capacity for about 37 years.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Lelia Bostick Adams, one son, Melville Adams of Sheffield, one daughter, Mrs. Melvin Harris of Margerum, Ala., one sister, Mrs. Mack Striplin of Heflin, Ala., and three brothers, Messrs. Lovie Adams and Jack Adams of Birmingham and Benton Adams of Heflin.

Among the out of town relatives and friends who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Hardcastle, Margerum; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Lovie Adams, Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Benton Adams, Heflin, Rev. and Mrs. Reeves, Mrs. Madison, Sheffield; Mr. and Mrs. Parham, Cherokee; Berry Lee Martin, Chattanooga; Geo. Barnett, Margerum; Mrs. Clarence Palmer, Muscle Shoals; Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Huddleston, Mr. and Mrs. Whitfield, Mrs. A. L. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Winston, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Watson, Sheffield; Mrs. Mark Stricklin, Heflin, Ala., and others whose names could not be learned.

The many beautiful flowers which came from loving friends all over the three states showed the love and esteem in which he was held.

Mr. Adams was about 59 years old. He had been ill in the Colbert County Hospital, the Methodist Hospital in Memphis, and at his home in Sheffield for many months.

G. W. Cutshall Funeral Home was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Girls Are Advised To Build-Up For Relief

Lack of knowledge causes many a weak, undernourished girl a lot of suffering!

Many others, however, know how the headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition are helped by the proper use of CARDUI.

Some take it a few days before and during "the time," to help ease periodic distress. But CARDUI's principal use is to help increase appetite; stimulate the flow of gastric juice; so aid digestion, assist in building up physical resistance and thus help reduce periodic distress. Women have used CARDUI for over 50 years.

GRANDMA WAS RIGHT

Some of us need a laxative medicine in the Spring

Grandma went to the woods in the Springtime and procured roots and herbs to make a Spring Tonic for the whole family. Maybe you need a Spring Tone-up too.

Colds of winter, dry foods, lack of exercise often leave one's system in a run-down condition. Possibly a touch of Malaria left over from last fall, or a temporary constipated condition due to lack of green foods in your winter diet, has added to your distress.

If you have no organic trouble, you no doubt, like thousands of other Southerners, will be benefited by taking Nash's C. & L. Tonic and Laxative. Nash's contains two good Laxative Ingredients—Mayapple and Phenolphthalein. It also contains Quinine and Cinchonine to combat the type of Malaria most prevalent in our Southland.

Mr. Nash, the drug manufacturer, says he does not want one penny of your money if Nash's C. & L. does not satisfy you. He says, "Try it for one week, and if you are not satisfied your druggist is authorized to refund your money. Call for Nash's C. & L. Price 50c.

Vegetable Laxative Makes Happy Friends

Here's a laxative that usually acts thoroughly as harsher ones but is a gentle persuader for intestines when used this way: A quarter to a half-teaspoonful of spicy, aromatic
BLACK-DRAUGHT on your tongue tonight; a drink of water. There's usually time for a good night's rest, with a gentle, thorough action, next morning relieving constipation's headaches, biliousness, sour stomach, bad breath.

BLACK-DRAUGHT is a splendid combination of vegetable ingredients, chief of which is an "intestinal tonic-laxative" that helps impart tone to lazy bowel muscles.
It's economical. 25 to 40 doses: 25c.
