Freshman Registration Instructions

Frequently, students just out of high school ask the question:
"How do I register in college?"

The following is a step-by-step procedure worked-out for freshmen who will enter Northeast Junior College in September. If freshman who contemplate entering Northeast in September will clip these instructions from the paper they can easily follow
our enrollment procedure:

(1) Report to Dean's office, where you will be asked a few questions relative to your interests, your likes and dislikes. After this you will be given an entrance card and directed to a professor who will be designated as your advisor. (This professor will be a specialist in courses corresponding to your interests.)

(2) Your advisor and his assistants will make out for you a tentative class program.

(3) You will next carry this to the professors who teach the courses and get their signatures.

(4) Then with the signatures of your advisor and each of your professors, you return to the Dean's office for final approval.

(5) You next carry your program to the business office for settlement of fees. Here the business manager will detach the stub showing your courses, leaving you with complete schedule of your classes with names of your professors and room numbers for your classes.

(Similar instructions will be published next week for sophomores.)

Iuka Public Schools To Open 1952-53 Session On Friday August 29th

Every Worker Should Know Benefits Due From Social Security

Every worker or self-employed man or woman should make a special effort to understand what social security means to him and his family. There are two times when such action is very important, according to Ware Foster, manager of the Decatur office of the Social Security Administration.

Because every individual's case is likely to be different from any other, he should obtain information from his nearest social security office when he arrives at age 65.

The other important time for action is when a worker or self-employed person dies. Someone in his family should contact the social security office immediatly so that there may be no loss of benefits to his surviving family.

"Remember these two times for action," Foster summarized,
"by the worker or self-employed person when he arrives at age 65, and by some member of his family when he dies. This individual action will avoid any possible loss of benefits," Mr.
Foster stated.

Emory University, Ga. On Saturday, 2 to 4 p.m., there will be a reception and pounding at the parsonage. All are invited to attend.

Good revivals are being held a number of our rural churches.
There were four professions of faith at Camp Ground last week.
Two young people united with that church, two will join at Rocky Springs. The meeting at Rocky Springs is being well attended. Rev. G. R. Meaders is bringing fine messages and the singing is fine.

Methodist preachers will attend
the North Mississippi Pastors' School at Lake Stephens Camp next week.

All Methodists are urged to go to the polls next Tuesday and vote against liquor.

The study of the Christian Family was begun at Snowdown Sunday night. The other two sessions will be August 24th and 31.

Letters To The Editor:

"D DAY" AUGUST 26

On August 26 a vital matter comes to us for decision. The liquorites are making a desperate effort to crack the long standing safety Prohibition Law of Mississippi.

They have tried every device to repeal the state law against the sale of legal liquor. Now they attempt to open the door through deception and let the "Trojan Horse" in. Their plan is to abolish state prohibition by putting the law back fifty years to county option, which is to give a half dozen liquor soaked, lawless counties the privilege to bring the curse back into the state.

Their plea is to give the liquor forces opportunity to bring legalized liquor into any county in the state. No doubt their next plea would be to give any town in the state the opportunity to bring legalized liquor saloons into it. This is clearly a shrewd device of the lawless liquor interest to run rough shod over the good citizens of the state.

Mississippi with the stigma of the black market law and illegal sale of boot leg liquor still has with its prohibition law an enviable record in law enforcement and sobriety in comparison with legal liquor states.

Take the report of the FBI for 1951 per 100,000 population: Alabama: murder, 15.27; robbery, 32.7; auto theft, 175.1; Kentucky: 10.51; robbery, 35.9; auto theft, 269.4;

Tennessee: murder, 12.95; robbery, 45.9; auto theft, 191.9; Mississippi: murder, 8.12; robbery, 22.7; auto theft, 91.9.

Mississippi has only half the crime rate of our sister states where liquor is sold legally.

United States at large has 3,952 alcoholics per 100,000 population. Mississippi has 1960 per 100,000 population. Mr. Gladstone, England's greatest statesman, and Prime Minister, said "Alcoholic liquor is a greater curse than war, pestilence and famine combined." Don't let the robber of our good come into the back door.

If you vote for this law you give your endorsement to the liquor business and consent for them to make drunkards of Your children.

Let every good citizen go to the polls on August 26 and cast his vote against this repeal.

Faithfully yours,
(Signed) James H. Holder,
Iuka, Miss.,
Aug. 18, 1952.

FORMER LAW ASSOCIATION HEAD
CLARIFIES ISSUE FOR AUG. 26 VOTE

The August 26 referendum election "is not for" nor "against" liquor, and the question of how a voter stands, whether he be against the sale or against the consumption of liquor has nothing to do with the question to be voted on," writes Charles Engle in his column, "Occasional and Random," which appeared August 10 in The Natchez Times.

Engle, writing from a background of judicial civic and legislative leadership as well as from years of experience with problems in these fields, is particularly qualified to interpret the issues which Mississippi voters will decide in the August 26 referendum election.

Columist Engle is former Chancellor of the Fourth Judicial district, past president of the Mississippi State Bar Association and a former member of the Mississippi Legislature. His home area—Natchez and Adams county—is one of those most seriously afflicted with the problems which prompted the Legislature to authorize the August 26 referendum election.

Attorney Engle writes "What each individual voter should ask is 'Am I sufficiently democratic to be willing to let the people in each county settle this matter respecting what shall be done in that county? If I am not sufficiently democratic to be willing to have the proposition handled in this way, then I should make no more complaint when the National government interferes and tells me what I must do in the handling of certain matters which pertain intimately to my way of life.'"

Engle's words put the issue squarely before his readers. He warns that "What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander" in that the voters of Mississippi, if they fall victim to efforts to becloud the true issue, which is home rule and local law enforcement vs. an arbitrary enforcement of local laws and ordinances by a state secret police force, should "quit complaining" when the Federal bureaucracy usurps the constitutional rights of the states.

"We are supposed to be functioning as a democracy," Engle declares, "and one of the cardinal principles of democracy is the maintenance of local self-government in all matters which come under the general classification of police powers."

The Natchez attorney, civic leader and columnist believes that Mississippi voters, if they are consistent in their stand for local self-government and States' Rights, will vote for Proposition A—for home rule and local law enforcement—and will "let the voters in each county decide this question along such lines as the voters in any particular county may believe to be for the best interest of the people or the citizens of that county."

Bible Lesson
For The Week

By Roy L. Vaughn

In the short time since I began full-time work with the Church of Christ in Iuka, I have come to appreciate the hospitality that seems to be characteristic of all the people here. I would be an ingrate if I did not attempt, in some way, to express my deep feelings for the warm welcome I have received from all of you. I appreciate the warm reception and all the considerations shown me.

Many of you, no doubt, wonder why there is not a title of reverend or doctor connected with my name. Well, I shall try to tell you why:

FIRSTLY: The word reverend occurs only one time in the entire Bible; and that one time it does appear, it refers to God. In Psalms 111:9 the Psalmist exclaims, "Holy and reverend is His name," referring to Jehovah, God.

SECONDLY: Jesus said, "All ye are brethren," speaking of course of his true disciples. James warns, James 2:1 "My brethren, hold not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons." When Cornelius would accord the apostle Peter such respect as falling down before him, Peter refused to permit, saying, "Stand up, I myself also am a man." Acts 10:26. Paul and Barnabas would not permit the people at Lystra to pay homage unto them. They rent their garments and cried to the multitude, "sirs, why do ye these things? We are also men of like passions with you, and bring you good tidings." Acts 14:14,15. I would make it known that I have no quarrel with those who receive the title reverend, or any other.

THIRDLY: Bible preachers were never called reverend, doctor, or any such name of exaltation. Listen to Job in the long ago: "Let me not, I pray, respect any man's person; neither will I give flattering titles unto any man. For I know not to give flattering titles; else would my Maker soon take me away." Job 32:21,22.

FOURTHLY: My job is to preach the Gospel of the Son of God, be your servant (the word minister originally meant a lesser person, a servant), "Do good unto all men, especially those who are of the Household of Faith"; to earn your respect to the extent that, when you feel so inclined you will honor me by calling me "Mister", and that will be title of respect enough.

SCRIPTURE: 1 Samuel 16: 18; 22:1-2; 23:15-18; II Samuel 1:1-2:43; 3:1; 5:1-5; DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 23: 1-7.

Making of a King

Lesson for August 24, 1952

ONE of the most romantic and heroic figures known to song and story is that of David, King of Israel. Even when Christ came to earth, his fellow-countrymen could think of no grander title for him than "Son of David."

Now David has been idealized almost beyond recognition. The whole story of his life (as seen in the Bible) reveals a man in whom strength and weakness, good and evil, were strangely mingled.

But that is not the main point here. The fact is, David made a strong and successful king; and if there was evil in him, it was more in the older man than in the young one. The story of how he became king is too long even to review here. Let us concentrate on that elegant little one-sentence portrait of him drawn for a description of him by one of his friends when they both were young. It is found in I Sam. 16:18.

His Family and His Run

THE ARGUMENT for strong David by his friend who was recommending him to the king, is that he was son of Jesse of Bethlehem.

A man's family is not an important fact. Men do not often reach high places merely on the reputation of their ancestors; but having the right parents will make a good start.

This is seriously true; for a man's heredity is what goes into the making of his bone and muscle, brain and nerves. The kind of place where a man lived as a boy, the kind of father he had, spells volumes about the man, even years later.

Can we forget that David was the son of a sheep-rancher, a boy who grew up working out of doors? That his parents were God-fearing people?

David's friend also mentioned his playing the harp. No doubt David did this as a recreation; he was no professional musician. But his avocation, his spare-time enjoyment, turned out to be the first rung on his climb to fame. It is important to know about any man: How does he spend his spare time?

His Brawn and His Brains
DAVID'S FRIEND, recommending him for a position in the royal court, spoke of him as a "mighty man of valor, and a man of war." This was an exaggeration, for David at that time had never seen military service, as the story in Samuel shows.

However, it was a good prophecy; and so far as the valor went, it had well been proved. A man who can take a bear by the beard and kill him, may be a bit rash but he is certainly no coward. And what muscles that young man must have had! Never think of David as a little boy when he killed Goliath the giant; he was an athlete better than most.

But David, unlike some athletes, did not need a manager. He was a "man of war," or at least the young friend who was describing him thought he was; and time proved him right.

Now it takes more than muscle to be a successful general. Almost anybody can be a private; and a man can rise somewhat in the ranks on sheer brute power. But when it comes to staff work, planning campaigns, handling large numbers of men and supplies, fitting everything together like a gigantic chess game with nations at stake,—that calls organizing ability, farsightedness, mental powers of a high order.

His Face, His Fluency, His Faith
THE UNKNOWN young man whose word-picture of David we are following, was like many young people in mixing together items that an older person would take up separately. Almost in one breath he reported that David was a good speaker, good-looking and godly.

But the best thing about him, his friend saved to the last: the Lord is with him. We make a mistake if we think that highly gifted, fortunate people can afford to get on without God. It is just these who need God most, if we can say that any one person needs God more than others.

Let us rather say that it is more important for the rest of us that the superior men and women among us be God-fearing, God-loving, God-obeying men and women, than that less important persons should be so.

COUNTY AGENT NEWS

PAUL KELLER
COUNTY AGENT

annual Tishomingo County Tour was a big success during the extreme drought this year. Tour started at 8 o'clock, at the farm of Harvey near Burnsville. Mr. Davis used as a special study cooperation with the Extension Service and the Experiment Station at State College. The farm will be found at 20 grade Angus cattle feeder pigs. Practically the food used on the farm is grown. Only protein supplement and minerals are used. A few years ago Mr. Davis had about 25 acres to corn. His son, Harold, one of the first 4-H Club members in the state to produce 100 bushels of corn per acre. Mr. Davis said, "If Harold can produce 100 bushels on one acre, I can produce 100 bushels on every acre." So he did it. Now Mr. Davis plants 12 to 14 acres of corn every year and produces more corn than he formerly produced on twice the acres. That leaves more land to be planted to hay and pasture for more livestock production. Every year you will find supplementary grazing for cattle and rye grass and crimson clover or Fescue and Ladino for hogs to graze on.

We have corn spacing tests, variety tests and fertilized tests on this farm, also cotton fertilizer tests. Last year Mr. Davis produced 135 bushels of corn per acre on 14 acres but this year he will do well to produce 50 bushels per acre on account of the severe drought.

The next farm visited was the farm of Herman Childs, west of Burnsville. We saw there a good field of corn that was sinterplanted with soybeans. The beans were shoulder high and the corn looked like 80 bushels to the acre. This was planted on good corn land and had 500 pounds of 8-8-8 fertilizer under the corn with 200 pounds of ammonium nitrate used as a side dressing. With good seasons this corn would have produced 150 bushels per acre across the entire field.

The next farm visited was at W. L. McMasters south of Burnsville. Mr. McMasters has been in the poultry business for 24 years. He specializes in the production of fresh infertile eggs which command a higher price than the average eggs. He was getting about 160 eggs a day from his flock of 240 hens. He culls the hens every week. Mr. McMasters said, "When they stop laying and start to boarding with me, I sell them."

We saw 1000 white leghorn pullets on this farm. The older pullets were starting into production. These pullets were grazing on nice lush green sudan grass near the poultry house. The pullets were a bit crowded at present but we saw real up to the minute laying house 20 feet by 80 feet under construction which will afford ample room for the rest of the young pullets. When the new house is completed Mr. McMasters will have 1,000 square feet of floor space, including the houses he now has. This will be ample room for 1,000 layers.

From there we visited the farm of Bill Wildman, south of Burnsville. We saw two acres of Kudzu planted on a steep slope and five acres of sericea and three acres of fine fescue and ladino clover. This was a good example of land use or using the land for what it is best suited. That is one practice our farmers are doing better every year. We hope to soon see every acre on very farm producing a crop that is best adapted to that particular type of soil. Corn on good corn land, cotton on cotton land, sericea on sericea land, and trees on the thinnest land on the farm. We didn't take time to visit Mr. Wildman's timber but he has some good young timber coming on to furnish fence post and lumber for his farm buildings and timber for an additional cash crop.

The next farm visited was the farm of W. W. Honeycutt, north of Burnsville. We saw the best Fescue in north Mississippi or anywhere else on this farm. One block 3 1/2 acres had furnished an abundance of winter and spring grazing, 1,750 pounds of seed and a hay crop. This fescue is ready for an application of nitrate and plenty of fall grazing. That is not all the fescue he had and not all the grazing by any means. Mr. Honeycutt had won the first prize in the pasture contest, because he had not only fescue but sericea, dalis and lespedeza but some top rye grass and crimson clover in the winter and spring. He was disking his rye grass and re-seeding crimson fields to insure a good stand from the seed that had fallen on the ground after a seed crop had been harvested in the late spring. Mr. Honeycutt said, "I only fed my cows some hay for 60 days last winter, they got the rest of their feed from the pasture.

The last farm visited on Tuesday was the farm of Mr. J. A. Coker, in the Central community. Mr. Coker is testing out an irrigation system on his farm. He does not plant cotton but had some fine pasture that would carry a cow to the acre in dry weather because he could fertilize and apply water. Mr. Coker had some good corn on fairly thin corn land because of the water system. He did not get enough water during the dry weather and with the smaller size of his water system. He had fine peaches, water melons and vegetables that wouldn't have been produced without water. Mrs. Coker has not lost any time in putting up an abundance of vegetables and fruits for home use.

Irrigation is becoming widely used where water is available. Mr. Paul Allen of Belmont tells us that he has irrigated 65 acres of corn on Red Bud Creek and that the increase in production this year will almost pay for his water system.

Mr. Abe Scharff at North Cross Roads has an irrigation system that has meant the difference between good grazing and poor grazing and will enable him to produce good silage on fairly thin soil. Mr. Allen's and Mr. Scharff farms were not visited on the tour.

On account of sad crop conditions the committee decided to cut the tour to two days. There are many farms we would have liked to visit if time would permit because so many are doing a good land use farming job.

We will give highlights of the second day of the tour in next week's issue.

Miss Billy Johnston of Columbus, Miss., and Miss Barbara Johnston of Beaumont, Texas, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Louise Johnston.

RE-ELECT

JOHN E. RANKIN TO CONGRESS

Father of T.V.A. and Rural Electrification

Champion of Rights of VETERANS AND THEIR DEPENDANTS

The REAL FRIEND of the Farmer

ATTEND RANKIN RALLY LEE COUNTY COURT HOUSE LAWN TUPELO. MONDAY, AUGUST 25, 8:00 P. M. OR TUNE IN -

Corinth - WCMA Kosciusko - WKOZ Macon - WHBC Starkville - WSSO West Point - WRCB Tupelo - WELO Aberdeen - WMPA Booneville - WBIP Columbus - WCBI

Mr. Rankin, an outstanding leader in Congress, has done more for the people of North Mississippi than any other man alive.

He was co-author of the bill creating the TVA, and led the fight to bring TVA power to the people of this section. He is known as the father of rural electrification, and a supporter of all farm legislation, including Soil Conservation, Extension Service, Farm Research, Home Demonstration, Future Farmers of America, 4-H Clubs, and all other measures calculated to aid agriculture.

As chairman of the Committee on Veterans' Affairs of the House, he has done more for the veterans and their dependents than any other man who has ever served in the Congress of the United States.

He recently won a great victory for the people of the South by getting rid of the one-way freight rate with which our people have been punished since the dark days of reconstruction. It will be worth untold millions of dollars to the people of Mississippi in the years to come. He was greatly aided in this struggle by his fight for the Tennessee-Tombigbee Inland Waterway, which is just as sure to be constructed as the night follows the day.

He is known as the leader in Congress in the fight against Communism, the most vicious influence the world has ever known. He created the Committee on Un-American Activities, which has been busy exposing these Communist traitors who have been trying to undermine Christianity, wreck our form of government and destroy the American way of life.

He is your real friend in Congress; and when re-elected he will continue the fight to promote the prosperity of our people, turn back the tide of Communistic fanaticism, protect our country, and save our Christian civilization from destruction at the hands of our enemies at home and abroad.

VOTE FOR JOHN RANKIN FOR RE-ELECTION TO CONGRESS

(Submitted to and Approved by Hugh Allen Boren, Campaign Manager.)

SEE FOR YOURSELF

WHAT YOU'RE VOTING FOR ON AUGUST 26th

On August 26, you will NOT be voting for or against the sale of liquor in Mississippi. This is not a "wet or dry" question - it's a HOME RULE election!

Approval of Proposition A will be a mandate to the Legislature to set up a legal process under which each of Mississippi's 82 counties will be given the right of Home Rule on the question of liquor sales.

This action by the Legislature will not make the sale of liquor legal in any county in the state.

Only upon petition of 20% of its voters, can a county hold a later local option election on this matter.

The result of such later County Option election will determine whether or not a county will operate under a legalized plan for the sale of liquor or continue under the prohibition laws.

A county need never hold a local option election unless 20% of its voters so petition.

Those who favor Proposition A, including this Committee For Home Rule and Local Law Enforcement have based their statements squarely on these facts supported by a ruling of the Attorney General's office and the law itself.

Below is the actual law enacted by the 1952 session of the Legislature setting forth the August 26 election. See for yourself what you're voting for on August

MISSISSIPPI LEGISLATURE REGULAR SESSION 1952 SENATE BILL NO. 565

(As Approved by the Governor)

AN ACT TO REFER TO THE ELECTORATE AT THE FIRST DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY ELECTION IN AUGUST, 1952, THE QUESTION "FOR" OR "AGAINST" THE LEGALIZED SALE OF INTOXICATING LIQUOR OF AN ALCOHOLIC CONTENT OF MORE THAN 4% BY WEIGHT IN THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI ON A COUNTY OPTION BASIS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI:

SECTION 1. At the first Democratic primary election to be held in August, 1952, there shall be an election held throughout the state in which the qualified electors and all persons who are qualified to vote may vote, said election to be governed in all respects by laws governing primary elections, and upon ballots used in such election shall be printed the words:

A. For allowing counties upon petition of 20% of the qualified electors to vote for or against legalizing the sale of intoxicating liquor of an alcoholic content of more than 4% alcohol by weight.

B. Against allowing counties upon petition of 20% of the qualified electors to vote for or against legalizing the sale of intoxicating liquor of an alcoholic content of more than 4% alcohol by weight.

The voter shall indicate his choice by putting a cross (x) or check (✓) mark opposite the words expressing his choice.

Provided, however, that if a majority of the qualified electors voting vote for the proposition as submitted, said vote shall be a mandate to the legislature to set up a controlled system for the whole state. Provided, further, that if a majority of the qualified electors voting vote against the proposition as submitted, said vote shall be a mandate to the legislature to set up a sufficient enforcement agency to carry out the provisions of such mandate.

SECTION 2. The county election commissioners of each county shall, within ten (10) days after the election, transmit to the secretary of state said election on the proposition submitted, the number of votes cast in the proposition submitted, and the number of votes cast against the proposition submitted, and the secretary of state shall tabulate said returns and the next regular or special session.

SECTION 3. It is the purpose and intent of the legislature to provide herein the means whereby the qualified electors of this state may vote for or against the proposition submitted in section 1 of this act. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed as suspending or repealing any laws now in force prohibiting the possession, sale, transportation, or distribution of intoxicating liquors within the State of Mississippi.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Proposition A will allow the people of each county to decide the question for themselves

This provides for legal process under which each county be given the right Home Rule and County Option on the question of liquor sales

A vote for Proposition B is a vote for a statewide police force will take over law enforcement seriously endanger Home Rule.

A vote for Proposition A will in no way suspend or repeal laws now in force that is why we repeated so often this is NOT a "wet or dry" question - it's a HOME RULE election

Vote (X) FOR Proposition A

PROPOSITION A - FOR ALLOWING THE PEOPLE OF EACH COUNTY DECIDE THE QUESTION OF LOCAL OPTION FOR THEMSELVES

a good sign for Mississippi

Across the nation, the big orange disc Gulf station stands for the best in petroleum ducts and service. But in Mississippi, it has a meaning.

To more than 5,000 Mississippians, Gulf name means rentals and royalties from sound, progressive development of Mississippi and gas resources. More than 2,000 other Mississippi men and women count Gulf as a good employer and as a source of job opportunity for youth of Mississippi.

And to all other Mississippians, the Gulf means the benefits that come from Gulf's expenditure of more than 13 million dollars in taxes, payrolls, rentals and material purchases an economic contribution that is playing a role in the state's continuing prosperity!

The big orange disc is a good sign for Mississippi—a sign that points toward increasing hope for all Mississippians from the sound development of the state's oil and gas resources.

you getting that fall garden started? There's still plenty of time to get a variety of vegetables in the ground. Just think of the fresh and crisp vegetables you take them from the jars, freezer and or storage.

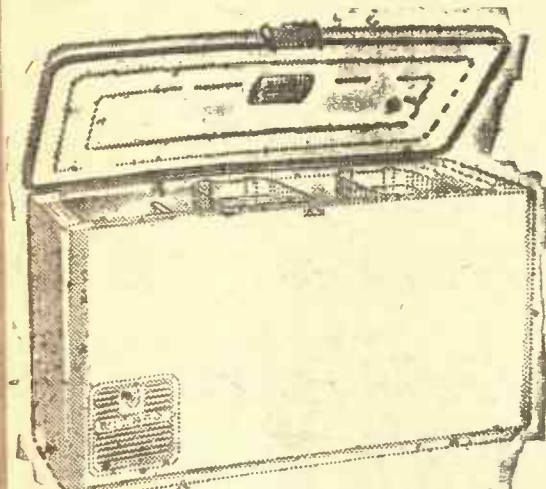

Latest Garden, Flower and Guide, which gives you tips on fall gardening, is available for the asking at the agent's office. So is a copy of "The Year Round Home Garden," Extension Publication 161. These two printed guides will give you plenty of pointers on how to go about preparing and planting a full fall garden. There are other publications on freezing, canning and storing foods that will help you conserve every ounce of available food for winter use. The drought wrecked havoc with the summer gardens. But you have what you might call a second chance now.

Get busy. Let's set a record of a full garden on every farm in Tishomingo County.

conversation of farmers, gardeners, flower growers and others often these days. There are a dozen or more of these advertised for sale by as many companies.

Some of the soil conditioners are sold in dry form, others in liquid form. A few include fertilizers, others do not. The prices vary a great deal. So do the claims of the manufacturers.

Practically all of the soil conditioners are made from the same chemical, but according to chemists, that does not mean much, for some are made much more cheaply than others. The problem to most of us then, how are we going to tell which are good and which are not so good?

If the materials are good, they will have been tried and tested by an Agricultural Experiment Station—either a state experiment station or the federal experiment station at Beltsville, Md. The advertiser will be able to make the statement that his product has been found to be a good soil conditioner at one of these stations. If not, he will be such institutions.

The chemical soil conditioners stick together the many fine particles of the soil so that the soil is made of coarser and larger units. This permits an easier flow of air and moisture and easier growth of roots through the soil. There is not a substitute for organic matter, as peat moss.

As the present price they are not cheap. So unless you just want to say you have used the chemical soil conditioner, you will probably decide that mulches are good enough for your shrubs and garden.

A word of caution about the fly-by-night companies that are trying to take advantage of the gullible garden public: Their claims are much more spectacular than the claims of the honest and legitimate companies who are putting out reliable soil conditioners.

Size of Sheet
The most important thing to think about in buying sheets is the size of the sheets. Yes, put size even before quality. The main reason for this, is that sheets are used to protect

BARBARA NELL KING HONORED WITH WEINER ROAST

Mrs. J. B. King honored her daughter, Barbara Nell with a wiener roast, held in Mineral our bedding and to cover us. If you are selecting a bottom sheet, it should be wide enough and long enough to tuck under the mattress and not pull out.

A top sheet should be long enough to fold back several inches over the blanket and wide enough to tuck in at the sides.

In this way, we are protected from the madding and the bedding is protected from us. Nobody likes the feel of wool around his neck and face. And quilts and blankets are soon soiled by having sheets too short. It is much easier to launder a sheet than a blanket.

WHO WILL PAY THE BILLS?

Mississippians will be called upon in the immediate future to issue bonds and pay greatly increased taxes in order to pay for—

- An estimated $100,000,000 for extra school facilities under an equalization program
- or $12,000,000 every two years to pay off a construction bond issue.
- An estimated $13,000,000 every two years for increased teachers' pay under the same equalization program.
- Additional millions for increased old age benefits and for maintaining and operating our expanded hospitalization program.

The chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, in a newspaper interview last week, said: "Mississippi will need an additional $25,000,000 every two years to pay for segregated school facilities."

THIS MEANS $12,500,000 EVERY YEAR IN NEW TAXES to finance these programs.

Where is this money coming from?

Who is going to pay these bills?

YOU ARE—unless you and the other voters of Mississippi seize the opportunity on next Tuesday to place Mississippi's $30,000,000 a year illegal liquor traffic under a system which will allow County Option and legal control, regulation and taxation!

—Approval of Proposition A next Tuesday will be a mandate to the Legislature to set up a legal process under which each of Mississippi's 82 counties will be given the right of Home Rule on the question of liquor sales.

—This action by the Legislature will not make the sale of liquor legal in any county in the state.

—Only upon petition of 20% of its voters, can a county hold a later County Option election on this matter.

—The result of such later County Option election will determine whether or not a county will operate under a legalized plan for the sale of liquor or continue under the prohibition laws.

—No county need ever hold a County Option election unless 20% of its voters so petition.

—But approval of Proposition A will, through the above County Option system, produce millions of dollars in new tax income on the present $30,000,000 illegal liquor traffic for the benefit of all of the people of Mississippi—and without raising anybody's taxes!

FOR EXAMPLE

In Tennessee:
Only 9 of Tennessee's 86 counties have placed liquor under legal control and taxation — and THE ANNUAL REVENUE INTO THE STATE TREASURY FROM THIS SOURCE, for the benefit of ALL the people of Tennessee, IS OVER $6,000,000 A YEAR.

In Alabama:
Only 21 of Alabama's 67 counties have placed liquor under legal control and taxation — and THE ANNUAL REVENUE INTO THE STATE TREASURY FROM THIS SOURCE, for the benefit of ALL the people of Alabama, IS OVER $10,000,000 A YEAR.

Mississippi, with an annual illegal liquor traffic of over $30,000,000 — which is comparable to both states, now receives only slightly more than $1,000,000 a year in Black Market taxes. Mississippi could get millions more. A vote FOR Proposition A will do the job.

RE-ELECT

Mississippi's Friend of Agriculture

TOM ABERNETHY

TO

BECAUSE HE IS...

1. Mississippi's ONLY VOICE on all-powerful House AGRICULTURE Committee. He is the FARMER'S REAL FRIEND!
2. A REAL FRIEND of the VETERAN and consistent supporter of all veteran backed legislation.
3. An ardent WORKER FOR TVA and REA RURAL ELECTRIFICATION -- Abernethy's old district has more TVA and REA Rural Electrification than does his opponent's old district.
4. A vigorous and successful fighter for interest of not only farmers and veterans, but also the WORKING MAN, BUSINESS MAN and AGED.
5. A leader in defeating socialized medicine, socialized farming and socialized business.
6. An energetic supporter of National Defense and States' Rights Legislation.
7. A vigorous ADVOCATE of ECONOMY, EFFICIENCY and HONESTY in Government.
8. Rendering valued help in securing fair freight rates and other equalities for the South.
9. Pledged to WORK FIRST for FLOOD CONTROL to relieve FARMERS of the Tombigbee River and tributaries, including people of City of Columbus; and then for Tennessee-Tombigbee inland waterway.
10. Equipped with TEN YEARS' EXPERIENCE IN CONGRESS and, also is the RIGHT AGE to give his life's best possible public service.
11. Closely tuned to and gives IMMEDIATE ATTENTION and SUPPORT to the INDIVIDUAL PROBLEMS of the people of his district.
12. A TIRELESS WORKER for the interests of Mississippi . . . and GETS THE JOB DONE.

YOUNG ENOUGH -- -- OLD ENOUGH -- EXPERIENCED ENOUGH!
"Abernethy is On His Way Up NOT ON His Way Down!"
