BIG CHRISTMAS EDITION IN THE MAKING

Editors of The Vidette and The Belmont News announce that a big Christmas Holidays Greeting Edition will be in the mails and will be distributed on Tuesday, December 24.

As is the custom with all the leading businesses in the county and surrounding area, this method is used to convey good wishes to all their customers and friends.

October Sales Tax Collections Given

A wide variation in sales tax collections for the months of September and October are due to new rates gradually going into effect.

The collections shown for each month is not representative of the revenue produced for the months. The State average for two months ($8,624,843.50 for September and October is, however, $1,230,236.69) is, however, a fair sample of what may be expected from the new rates and the other changes that became effective August 1, 1968. The full effect of the new law is, of course, several months away. After this transition period monthly sales tax revenues should be realistic.

For the month of October Iuka reported a collection of $8,360.93. Belmont had $4,283.73 in collections while Tishomingo had $1,218.87 in collections.

In neighboring cities, Baldwin took in $6,456.76; Booneville, $16,577.06; Corinth, $35,937.42; and Fulton, $9,597.27.

Compare the above mentioned figures with those for September and you can see the variations explained. September figures included Iuka $2,279.56; Belmont, $1,823.00; Tishomingo, $469.49; Baldwin, $4,528.57; Booneville, $5,945.64; Corinth, $17,154.47; and Fulton, $5,889.78.

E. F. "Chunky" Chambers Dies, Was Iuka Lawman 21 Years

Funeral services for Herndon "Chunky" Chambers were held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Iuka Methodist Church.

Chambers was 51 years old and was in Oak Grove, Tenn.

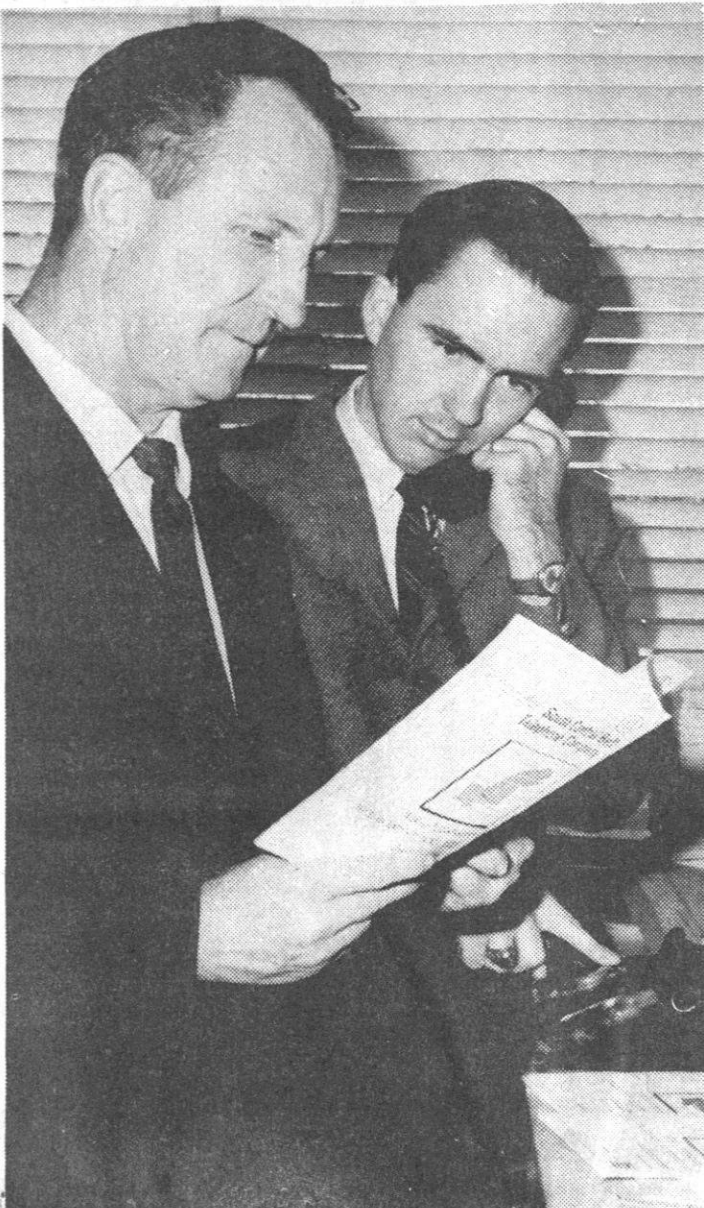

Chambers was affectionately known by all who knew him, and was a Sunday night in Baptist church in Memphis following a long illness. He was fifty years old.

December 1946, Chunky Chambers was elected Marshal Tax Collector for the Town of Iuka. He held this office until, and was in that capacity at the time of his death. In addition to his duties as marshal, he also served as deputy sheriff. He was a member of the Iuka Lions Club and served as president of that organization for one term. He was a Methodist and was a 32 degree Mason and a Shriner. He was a member of the National Sheriff's Association and the Tennessee-Mississippi Sheriff & Peace Officer's Association.

In the business life of the community which he loved, Chunky was owner and operator of Chunky Chambers Ford Sales, Inc. He was a willing contributor of his time for worthy causes and was generous of his means for community advancement. He was active in the Iuka Chamber of Commerce and his counsel was sought on many occasions.

He is survived by his widow, Marion (Nat) Chambers; his father, W. Y. Chambers of Iuka; 3 sisters, Mrs. Hortense Hayles, Mrs. Eron West, and Mrs. Judy Mars all of Memphis; a brother, E. F. Chambers of Dallas, Texas;

NEW SERVICE -- County Sheriff George Cutshall (left) and County Attorney Richard Clark show interest in the new telephone service that will go into effect in Tishomingo County this Sunday, December 15. These two county officials have reason to communicate each day with residents and business leaders all over the county and are anxious for the new service to get into use. "The time I lose going through the long distance operator to call Belmont is provoking," Sheriff Cutshall said. "With this new service we will get our party much quicker and won't be bothered with having to call 'operator' every time. The firm of Clark & Clark are attorneys for the Town of Belmont and they find it necessary to make many calls to that community. "We'll be glad to see the new expanded service go into effect," Richard said. "In fact, we believe every telephone user in the county will eventually benefit from this new service," he said. "It will help unify our county in many of the projects that are county-wide and require the cooperation of everyone," Mr. Cutshall concluded. The two are shown here as they inspected the new 1969 county telephone directory.

VESPER SERVICE

A Christmas Musical Program will be the 'highlight' for the Vesper Service at the Iuka Methodist Church Sunday night, December 15, beginning at 5:30. Special Christmas songs will be sung

RADIO ANNOUNCER CHET YARBROUGH UNDERGOES SURGERY

Chester Yarbrough, popular announcer on WVOM Radio Station, underwent surgery Wednesday morning in Baptist Hospital in Memphis. Doctors report that he will be confined to the hospital for 10 days to 2 weeks. His room number is 1131 Madison East. He will appreciate your cards.

County-wide Direct Phone Service Goes In Sunday

At bedtime Saturday night, to make a phone call from Belmont to Iuka or Burnsville will cost extra "toll" or long distance charge. When you get up Sunday morning you will be able to make that same call without extra "toll" charge or going through "long distance". Sometime during the night Saturday, Dec. 14, South Central Phone Co. crews will change the switching systems at the Iuka, Belmont and Burnsville exchanges so that direct dialing within the county will be in effect.

The installation of this service will bring to fruition several years of planning on the part of the phone companies and will up-date service in the county bringing it to a comparable basis with that of phone patrons in the Quad Cities areas in Colbert, Franklin and Lauderdale counties in Alabama, and Lee County and Alcorn Counties in Mississippi. The five-digit phone number will be in use in each exchange. In Burnsville the prefix will be "527" and numbers will be in the 6000 and 8000 ranges. In Belmont the prefix will be "454" and the numbers will be in the 3000 and 7000 ranges. Iuka exchange prefix will remain "423".

The phone expansion program including numerous underground cables from Belmont to Tishomingo to Iuka to Burnsville and to Corinth with the inclusion of additional circuits to carry the added anticipated load of calls and with the addition of complicated switching equipment in each of the exchanges will cost hundreds of thousands of dollars. Phone company officials state that this expenditure will substantially contribute to the growth of Tishomingo county. Phone patrons in all the communities will become "telephone neighbors" with this county-wide direct dialing service which is expected to unify the area's growth.

Installation of the improved direct-dial service will necessitate a slight increase in telephone rates, according to company spokesmen. Subscribers on the Burnsville exchange will realize a decrease in rates while patrons on the Belmont exchange will pay the highest increase. Tishomingo exchange rates will not be increased as much as the Iuka rates since patrons on that exchange are already paying the highest rates in the county.

Only Iuka, Belmont and Burnsville will be affected with the change-over that will take place Sunday. Tishomingo exchange is scheduled to join the group in March of 1969.

Telephone rates are set by the Public Service Commission.

Tishomingo Is Tourney Host

The Tishomingo Conference Basketball Tournament is being played this weekend at the Tishomingo school gymnasium. Admission is set at $1 and 50¢. Officials for the event are James Drury and Lynn Nash. Action began last night (Wed.) with Burnsville and Faulkner girls playing in the first game; Faulkner and Alcorn Central boys in the second game; and in the last game, Burnsville and Walnut boys.

Based on this first night the games tonight (Thurs.) show Walnut in the first game at 7 o'clock playing the winner of the Burnsville-Faulkner girls game and at 8:15 Tishomingo playing the winner of the Faulkner-Alcorn Central game.

Friday night beginning at 6 o'clock Byhalia will play Alcorn Central girls while the Byhalia boys take on the winner of the Burnsville-Walnut match earlier.

Saturday night the finals will start at 7 o'clock with trophies to be presented at the end of the last game by the host principal, R. C. Strickland.

Capacity Crowd At Open House

A very impressive crowd of teachers, students and parents gathered Monday night in Howard Memorial Auditorium for the PTA School Open House of 1968. John Lyles, president, opened the meeting.

First on the program was a play "Mother Goose Christmas" presented by the members of Mrs. Lela Clark's first grade. Afterwards Mr. Lyles explained the order of touring for parents of children in grades 1-6 and the order of classroom activity for the upper grades. The auditorium meeting was then dismissed.

A tally was taken of parents present and of the some 500 or so attending, 62 were parents of children in Mrs. Lela Clark's class. This group, therefore, received the top attendance prize. The president states that, due to the large crowd, a second place prize was presented to the second highest class in attendance. This prize went to the Mrs. Lorena Phillips class who had 42 parents present. Receiving honorable mention was Mrs. Alvis McRae's class with 34 parents present.

It was also noted that the teachers had 100% in attendance. A large number of parents expressed their thanks to the president for the association's fine planning of the event and expressed their pleasure in attending the play and making the tours of the classrooms.

"We're very pleased with the reception the Open House has received. We're planning another entertaining program for the January meeting which will focus on a gymnastic program featuring tumbling, balancing, exercises and trampoline exhibitions. This program is being worked up by Mrs. Lloyd Murrar and Bryson Mann, directors of the schools' physical education programs," the president said. Further details of this meeting will be given at a later date.

— TWO CONVENIENT LOCATIONS —

CHEROKEE

Beef standing rib roast, garnished with sugared grapes in pineapple rings, ushers in one of the festive dinners of the year with proper flourish. French-style green beans with slivered almonds and molded fruit salad surround the gala roast.

An elegant way to celebrate the holidays is to star a handsome roast. If beef is traditional in the family, there's a standing rib roast available in two, three, four or five rib sizes.

The ribs of this roast make their own rack, explains meat authority, Reba Staggs. The meat is simply placed in a shallow pan with the rib bones down on the pan. Roasting is done in a slow oven (325° F.), with a meat thermometer charting the way to doneness best liked.

For beef done rare, roast to 140° F. For medium, let the thermometer register 160° F.

Estimate approximate roasting time for rare at 18 to 20 minutes per pound for two or three rib roasts, 22 to 25 minutes per pound for roasts of the same size cooked medium done. Larger roasts require two to five minutes less per pound.

Most retailers now offer the beef standing rib in compact sizes which means that the length of the rib bones is shorter. This runs from five to six inches in this case to facilitate carving and give more meat per serving.

To prepare grapes for garnish, brush small clusters of green grapes with slightly beaten egg white. Sprinkle granulated sugar over the grapes and allow to dry. Serve on sliced, drained pineapple.

Beef standing rib roast may be salted before, after or during roasting. Salt will penetrate the surface only slightly, not more than a quarter of an inch.

SEVERE LOW BACK PAIN, FAINTING SPELLS, CORRECTED BY CHIROPRACTIC CARE

On her first visit to the chiropractor, he examined and x-rayed her and located the trouble that was causing all this pain. He showed and explained the x-rays to her and then started adjustments. After only three or four adjustments Mrs. Barksdale was relieved and her legs became free of pain. For several weeks she had adjustments three times weekly, then twice a week for a number of weeks, and then suddenly, she stated, she was completely free of pain-back to normal and feeling 100% better. She continues her adjustments once a month to be assured that she has no recurrence of this problem.

Mrs. Barksdale enthusiastically replies, when asked about chiropractic, "It has made me healthy and happy person. If you are sick and nothing else has helped you, I encourage you to see a chiropractor. It was chiropractic last with me, but not any more-now it's chiropractic FIRST!"

The Busy Woman's Buffet Party

The key to successful entertaining, especially if you are a woman with a job and a household to manage, is a detailed plan. A buffet dinner is usually easiest to prepare and serve. Keep the menu simple. Write down every detail of what to do and when to do it, and keep to schedule.

A main course that meets the requirements is Beef Bourguignonne with rice and tossed green salad. A good choice for dessert would be make-ahead Coffee Crunch Pie. For the filling, combine one package of vanilla flavor whipped dessert mix with one tablespoon instant quality coffee and prepare according to package directions. Spoon it into this crunchy crust and chill thoroughly.

Crunchy Crumb Crust

1/4 cup finely crushed Post Grape-Nuts Cereal
1 cup fine graham cracker crumbs
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 cup butter, melted

Combine cereal, crumbs, and sugar. Stir in melted butter. Press firmly on bottom and sides of 9-inch pie pan. Chill 1 hour before filling. Or bake crust at 375° about 5 to 8 minutes; cool before filling.

There's Secret To Breeding Chops Well

"What makes the bread coating stick to some chops?"

This is a question which may plague homemakers who have spent a lot of time scraping the crumb coating from the pan in which they cooked the chops.

Veal chops and cutlets as well as pork chops and pork loin slices are often breaded which is refrigerated and then the crumb mixture. Reba Staggs, meat authority, says the secret to fix the coating more easily is to use a moderate temperature so browning takes place evenly and all over the chop.

Randolphs Have Family Reunion

The O. T. Randolph's had a joyous celebration recently.

Their son, Jimmy, returned home on November 18 after serving almost a year of active duty in Vietnam. He was engaged in driving a 2 1/2 ton truck hauling, various things.

For the past six months Jimmy had been stationed in Cau Tho, down in the heart of Mehong Delta. He made quite a few places while over there, 26 or more. He says that of all the places he prefers the good old USA, especially his hometown, Iuka.

The Randolph's other children and their families from Chicago came home to be with Jimmy, so it was quite a reunion.

Just To Keep History Straight: Jackson city plans, drawn in 1822, included the unique feature of reserving every other square block for public use. One of these was Smith Park (behind the Governor's Mansion), named for James Smith in honor of his gift of $2,000 to fence out wandering livestock. A native of Scotland, he came to Jackson at an early age and by 1838 was a prosperous tinsmith. He also served as city tax collector and an alderman.

New Federal Gun and Ammunition Laws become Effective December 16

Mississippi Game and Fish Commission officials reminded state sportsmen today that new federal gun and ammunition laws affecting the 40 million gun owners in America become effective Monday, December 16. The laws will be administered by the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division of the Internal Revenue Service. ATT, with Joseph F. Kelly as supervisor in charge of Mississippi, is now finalizing rules for buyers and dealers. Violations carry penalties up to the $5,000 in fines or up to five years imprisonment or both. Public Law 90-618, the act cited as the Gun Control Act of 1968, will require sportsmen to fill out forms with the purchase of a firearm or box of shells. Basically, the new regulations require all firearms and ammunition dealers to be licensed by the ATT and all dealers to keep accurate records pertaining to sales. Buyers will be required to fill out a form which includes: name, address, age, purchase date, amount of ammunition, date of birth and the means of proving identification to the dealer.

Among the more prevalent limitations on buyers are: A person under the age of 18 cannot purchase ammunition or firearms. A person under the age of 21 cannot purchase a handgun or ammunition for a handgun.

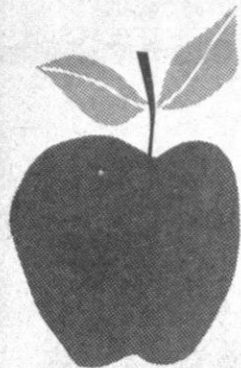

Dealers may not sell a firearm to a person with a conviction for a crime involving violence, a convicted felon, a person with a mental defect, a drug addict, or an incompetent person.

The new requirements make it difficult for a resident state to purchase a firearm because of a minimum period of seven days. There are no limits on the amount of ammunition a qualified sportsman can purchase or the amount of time he can keep it. The records kept by the ATT at any time, dealers, wholesalers are required to chase a license for the sale of firearms.

Ball Season Begins

Tonight opens a new season for the Independent League Basketball action as the Iuka Merchants play the Tishomingo team and the Jaycees play First National Bank.

According to a spokesman for the group this year's league appears to be well balanced and possibly stronger than last year's league considering two of the teams have already handed defeats to last year's champion, Genesco, who failed to enter this year.

It is planned to play most Thursday night games at the old gymnasium in Iuka and the Monday night games either at Tishomingo or Burnsville. Fans and supporters of the four participating teams tonight and those playing Monday night are urged to attend. Docket for Monday includes 1st National vs. Tish. and Jaycees vs. Iuka Merchants.

Tish Game Results

The Tishomingo Bulldogs Coach Danny McClung states that his teams have been in action twice already this week, meeting Biggersville on Monday night and Burnsville Tuesday night.

In Monday's action the B's game ended with Tishomingo 56 to Biggersville's 38. High scorer for Tishomingo was Frankie Howie, 19; Benny McClung 11, and Biggersville's Rancher with 12.

In the A game Biggersville boys won 61-55 over Tishomingo. Taylor of the winning team got 21. For Tishomingo Tommy Durham made 17 and Edmondson made 13.

Tuesday night Burnsville was defeated by Tishomingo by the B Boys with a 51-45 final. Frankie Howie got 15 and Benny McClung 13 with Burnsville's McNutt scoring 17.

In the A game Tishomingo won again with a high 83 to 61. Bill Southward made 15, Ray Cox 23, Tommy Durham 17, Floyd Edmondson 14 and Jackie Pennington 10. For Burnsville Pardue was high with a fine 28.

A pre- or post-holiday tempter in a casserole has layers of pared, sliced apples with cooked or canned sliced sweet potatoes. Since all foods are cooked, except apples, use a moderate oven (350° F.) 30 to 35 minutes for heating a 1½-quart casserole.

Parents Ask For Help Of Public

Monday, March 18, 1968, began an ordinary day for Elizabeth Ernstein when she left for classes at Moore Junior School in Redlands, California. But this Monday on the 18th March was not to be an ordinary day.

Elizabeth's school day passed without incident. She attended her last class, then left school at 3 p.m. to walk home, a two-mile route through blossoming orange groves. She never arrived home. Somewhere along the lonely street, Elizabeth Ernstein vanished.

There are no clues to her whereabouts, or even to what happened to the 14-year-old girl, other than a report from a Redlands businessman who was driving through the area. He thought he saw a girl resembling Elizabeth walking toward the corner of a street on which she lives. Her parents, Norman and Elizabeth Ernstein, the months of uncertainty and anxiety over their missing daughter "are the deepest anguish a person can go through. It is a shock so deep you become wooden," the mother explained.

The Ernsteins are appealing nationwide for help in locating their daughter. Ernstein, a chemical engineer at Lockheed in Redlands, and his wife, a psychiatric social worker, have posted a $5,000 reward for information that will solve the mystery of their daughter's disappearance. They have vowed: "We will not rest until we know."

Neither parent has rested since that first long night when their young daughter failed to come home. They have tracked miles through orange groves, fields, foothills, and canyons in and around the Redlands area. They have followed every lead, no matter how slight, in the search for Elizabeth.

"I can face the daytime better than the night," the distraught mother said. "At night I find myself saying: 'Is she safe? Is she warm? Is she fed? ... and finally ... is she alive?'"

When Elizabeth, nicknamed "Liz" by her friends, left for school that March morning, she had only 25¢ with her. She was dressed in a blue dress with white flowers, tennis shoes and a dark-olive corduroy coat. Around her neck she wore a small gold chain with a pendant gold and blue star. Enroute home, she carried a red algebra book and a blue loose-leaf notebook. Neither has been found.

Elizabeth is five feet, five-inches tall, weighs 105 pounds and had brown hair and brown eyes. She is one of five Ernstein children. The family lost one of these, a son, to polio in 1952.

"This, the second tragedy in our lives, is even greater because of the uncertainty," the desperate father said in his appeal to end the nightmare. "I can accept anything, even the worst, which I'm resigned to, but I must know."

Any information concerning young Liz Ernstein should be reported promptly to this newspaper or to Capt. Charles Callahan, San Bernardino County Sheriff's Office, San Bernardino, California, phone (714) 889-0111.

Kelly Hester Endorses Production Of Lime

The Bear Creek Watershed's Agricultural Work Group members and cooperating high school students got the lime production campaign underway with a big bang. More than 1,000 signs were placed along roads, 60-life-size silhouettes of members were placed in prominent trading centers, and more than 800 bumper stickers were given to people of the area. The campaign is sponsored by the BCWA, TVA, and other agricultural agencies.

Nine newspapers and seven radio stations gave generously of their time in telling about the effort. Kelly Hester of Tishomingo County produces cotton, corn, soybeans, and swine. He has consistently made high yields on all crops and is known throughout the area for his high-quality animals. He states that his soil gets limestone applications regularly and that this practice makes his fertilizers more effective. He is very liberal with his praise for the value of limestone indicating that it returns $4 to $6 dollars for every dollar invested. "I urge all farmers of the watershed to use limestone to the extent needed on their farm," he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Whitehurst

Iuka Baptist Church Scene Of Wedding

Iuka Baptist Church was the scene for the impressive wedding ceremony when Miss Marcia Murrah became the bride of James Whitehurst.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Murrah of Iuka. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Whitehurst, Iuka.

Religious music was rendered by Bill Spencer, Music Director of Iuka Baptist Church, accompanied by Mrs. Spencer, Church Organist. Selections were "Walk Hand in Hand" and "Wedding Prayer." The exchanging of vows, the placing of the rings, and the placing of the bride and groom in the church were officiated by Rev. Harris Counce, pastor of the church, using the double ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage to her father, wore an exquisite gown of white peau de soie, embellished with chantilly lace and long bell sleeves finished in tiny scallops, and fastened with tiny satin-covered buttons in the back. The gown was complemented with a chapel train of chantilly lace finished with scallops, fastened to the bodice. The bride's shoulder-length veil of tulle was fastened to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, centered with a large white orchid. Mrs. Charlie Counce, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Mrs. Norman Hamm, a sister of the bride, served as bridesmaid. The brides' attendants wore identical floor-length dresses of blue crepe featuring empire waist lines, with lace yoke and sleeves trimmed with blue velvet ribbon.

Their headpieces were folds of blue ribbon bows attached to blue circular veils of illusion. They wore white gloves and their shoes were of blue peau de soie.

The bride's attendants carried cascade bouquets of white mums tied with blue velvet ribbons with long streamers.

Little Miss Nancy Hamm, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was identical to the bride's attendants. She also wore a headpiece featuring a circular veil attached to blue velvet ribbon bows. She carried a small white basket from which she dropped white petals as she was escorted to the altar by ring bearer, Bendall Murrah, nephew of the bride.

Shelby Whitehurst was his son's best man. Groomsmen included Sidney Whitehurst, brother of the groom, Charlie Counce, Gene Johnson, and Johnny Bivins.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Murrah chose a knit sheath dress of pink, with matching hat. Mrs. Whitehurst, mother of the groom, was attired in a blue knit suit with matching accessories. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages pinned at the shoulder.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple was honored by the bride's parents at a reception held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was overlaid with a lovely white crocheted cloth made by her grandmother, Mrs. E. F. Cox of New Albany. Centering the table was an arrangement of white rosebuds and mums amid a glow of white tapers surrounded by wedding bells. The 4-tiered traditional wedding cake was beautifully decorated with tiny blue rose buds and topped with bride and groom figurines.

Assisting in serving the cake and punch were Sue Harris, Brenda Parker, Jan Biggs, Mimi Gaines, and Brenda Milligan.

Mrs. Jimmie Gray of Columbus presided at the guest register. Distributing rice bags was Mrs. Buddy McAnally.

Following the reception, the bride and groom left for a wedding trip to the Smokey Mountains. For traveling, the bride chose a navy knit suit with light blue shell and hat. Her accessories were navy, and she wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet pinned at the shoulder.

Following their return, the bride is continuing her studies at Blue Mountain College. The groom is serving with the Armed Forces in Ft. Benning, Ga.

Among those from out of town attending the ceremony were Mr.

and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Murrah, Norma and Wanda, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Murrah and Tim, Mrs. Bobbie Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Counce of New Albany;

Terry Maxey of Starkville; Mr. and Mrs. Wade Dickerson and Johnnie of Shiloh; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Laster of Okolona; Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Phifer of Decatur; Mrs. James Gray of Columbus;

Miss Brenda Parker and Miss Sue Harris, both of Blue Mountain College; Miss Mimi Gaines of Memphis State; Ronald Glidewell and Mr. and Mrs. Danny Wilemon of Tupelo; and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Johnson of Huntsville.

Preceding the rehearsal on Friday night, the groom's parents were hosts to members of the wedding party and additional guests at a dinner party held at the Sands Restaurant.

A delicious meal consisting of turkey and dressing with the traditional side dishes, along with apple pie, was served.

In addition to members of the wedding party, those present included the groom's parents, the bride's parents, Mrs. Gene Johnson, Norman Hamm and daughter, Denita, and the Lloyd Murrahs.

MY FRIENDS OF THE CITIZENS COUNCILS

JOHN J. SYNON

Some weeks ago, I received an invitation to speak in Jackson, Mississippi, to the 12th Annual Leadership Conference of The Citizens Councils of America. I accepted.

On my way home I stopped off to pay hand-washing obeisance to one of the 300 publishers who run this column. My crusty friend asked what brought me to his part of the country. When I told him his eye-brows shot; he wanted to know if I were comfortable among "those people".

I thought about that a moment, then gave him an absolutely truthful answer. The Citizens Council people, as those like them, are the only people I know in whose company I am entirely comfortable. They are my people and my admiration for them is almost unlimited.

There were about 400 delegates in attendance, as I counted them, from 29 States, and if ever a group represented "middle" America, what I would call ordinary decency, it was this one. First off, there was not a trace of alcoholism anywhere. I didn't say, "alcohol"; I said, "alcoholism". There was the scent of soap and of shoe polish. Every coat had three buttons, their shirts were white and their ties, with an exception or two, were conservative. Except for the teenagers, of whom there were a surprising number, no lady's dress was cut above the knee, or below the neckline.

Every session opened with prayer and thereafter the business-at-hand was conducted with far more gaiety and wit than one would observe, say, at a national political convention.

True enough, these people are about a serious business. They mean to fight indiscriminate race mixing until their battle is won — none need ever doubt that. But they mean to enjoy themselves all the while. If the meeting had a common denominator it was this determination leavened with laughter and outspoken admiration for George Wallace.

They are certainly proud of The Little Judge. Proud on three counts: They are proud of him because he represents so well their own belief (freedom of choice), because he stood four square on this principle throughout the campaign, and because he polled so many votes. The Citizens Council people look upon the 9.7 million votes Wallace garnered as the potential membership of their organization. And they may be right. Though they come from all sections of the nation, it is fair to speak of them as Southerners simply because they reflect the traditional Southern position on the race question: Never. They deeply believe both races do better when neither is forced to rub noses with the other. And so do I. That is why I think of them as my people, why I am entirely comfortable, and comfortably proud, when in their midst.

Last night my television carried a feature on Vietnam and the dirty work our Green Berets are engaged in at the moment, digging the enemy out of granite burrows. The reporter fellow gave us a picture of the grizzled major in command and said he came from Greenwood, Mississippi. He gave his name, too, the same as that of a man, old enough to be the major's father, whom I had met while in Jackson. He hailed from Greenwood, too, and the reason I don't identify them is because I don't know, for sure, that he is the major's father. Though he must be; Greenwood is a mighty small town.

I do know this: Both the "Laura" presented by the Corlath Theatre-Arts last week revealed some marvelous stage talent. Several men in the cast interpreted their parts exceptionally well, which I anticipated, but in the female roles Mrs. Maury Whitfield (Ann) got my bouquet. Her serious portrayal of the landlady in the mystery was perfect.

Following the play Friday night there was a buffet dinner at Lloyd's, with the cast present to meet the public. It was nice talking with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simmons, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Liddon McPeters and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heyer, with whom Johnny Ross, David Coleman and I shared a table.

Two younger Iukans were seen at the play, Pat Daniels and Lon-dee Long, guests of the Doug Hammonds. Also there was Mary Jo Bennett, just as smiling and happy as back in the days of summer camp with the clan from Iuka. She's now working in Corinth.

Gene Milligan is working down in Tippah County now training a Labor Survey staff. They're headquartered in Ripley.

Cathy Boren is another one of the pretty local girls who competed in the NEMJC Pageant. She's officially from Pickwick, but her dad, Jim, has had charge of the Goat Island campsite here since last spring.

Coach Larry Jobe of Burnsville is a life saver on the ball scores as is Mrs. Ernest Jones, who helps me keep up with Iuka. Most of all I imagine that the players appreciate the results.

While I'm tipping my hat, Bobby Walker and Shorty Deaton who are with TCEPA really came in handy with helping the ladies decorate on the corner of Fulton and Front in downtown Iuka. At the same time, there isn't a decorating job that could go in Iuka without the able assistance of Waco Parsons.

Melvin Maxwell's mother, Mrs. Hafford, was in Friday and said that even though the holidays were getting nearer she didn't have the Christmas spirit, mostly because she knew Melvin would be in Italy this year. More than one family will be missing one from the fold. Still, those away will be there in spirit. Like the song: "I'll be home for Christmas, if only in my dreams."

Down at the local Post Office

the other day Ray Curtis cut me off short. I was trying to haggle with him over the cost of mailing a parcel to Memphis. I said, "Now, Roy the Grinder just had to pay this much to get this blade down here!" and his reply was "Yes, but that was down hill." Roy's not the only sharp fellow. (Oh yes, the price is the same up hill and down hill, regardless of the weather.)

A very dear friend of mine, a roommate from college days, sent a Christmas package this week. (She and her husband, Dave, are busy raising a family — and I'm just busy, but we try to stay in touch.) Anyway, the gift, which I couldn't wait to open, is a wall plaque varnished blonde with a hand painted whole apple and an apple core lying near by. It was done by one of the local Colorado Springs, Colorado artists and Sharon picked it up at a shop known as "The Unique." (The name alone makes you want to browse there.)

Sharon doesn't know it yet but she's getting a present from the church bazaar.

Several people will receive Christmas gifts this week that will give them a lot of enjoyment for a full year. Friends and relatives here are sending The Vidette and The Belmont News for Christmas. Those added as Christmas gifts this week included subscriptions to Billy Rice in Guntown; Mrs. Grant Jackson, 16221 Edgewood Cr., Maple Heights, Ohio; Mrs. Steve Molnar, 2965 East 128 Street, Cleveland, Ohio; and Mrs. Gertrude Boffone, Route 2, Dover, Colorado.

Mrs. Ludie Miller, who's visiting with relatives in Chicago, was the first to send a Christmas card this year.

Sunday morning I enjoyed a visit in the Clovis Bolton home out east of Midway. Mrs. Bolton (Ruby) is such a nice person. She showed me pictures of her grandbabies, four girls and a boy, if I remember correctly. Two of the girls are twins, living up North. All of them are expected home for Christmas and she says she can hardly wait. Her daughter, Lanelle, works in Detroit and right now Mrs. Bolton is hoping that Lanelle's holidays are going to be long enough to provide a few days at the old home place with the family at Christmas, too.

Mrs. Lela Clarks first grade has turned out to be the real source of stage talent. The youngsters presented the short play "Mother Goose Christmas" at the PTA Open House on Monday night of this week. Every-one of the nursery rhyme characters were adorable.

Jim Hanes had a time with his Peter Pumpkin Eater body in the shape of a big pumpkin. His can-cans kept shifting so that by the end of the skit he was more oblong than round. His sidekick was Ken Moore. Little Ritchie Yarber was the Santa whose bag proved to be a real handful when he got ready to distribute his presents.

Jimmy James, Buddy's little boy, got a big kick out of using the microphone. He and his Little Boy Blue partner Lamont Borden, gave the audience some real stereophonic sound.

All these boys provided some light hearted humor with their childlike antics. Of course they all together made the evening a most enjoyable one for those at the Open House play.

Now you're wondering why I haven't mentioned all the rest, especially some of the girls. This would take pages and pages since their little costumes would certainly need description. You missed a real treat if you didn't get to attend the play. I think the audience's applause included praise, not only for the students and Mrs. Clark, but for the mothers who worked up the costumes, stage decorations and helped the little people learn their lines.

Christmas Seal Campaign Reaches Mid-Mark; Contributions Urged

The 1968 Christmas Seal Campaign, being conducted currently by the Tishomingo County Tuberculosis Association, has reached the half-way point according to a report released by Mrs. Paul Edmondson, chairman.

"The Christmas Seal letters were mailed approximately three weeks ago to the residents of Tishomingo County. Total contributions to date amount to some $533, reported Mrs. Boyd Phillips, member of the Lucy Rowe Club, sponsor of the annual seal sale drive.

"Since many residents have not yet responded to their Christmas Seal letter, the association will follow its usual routine of mailing a reminder message to those who have not yet contributed. These reminder messages are mailed solely as "memory boosters." It is entirely possible that the original Christmas Seal letter has been misplaced and the return envelope provided in the original letter could not be found. We know that all citizens will appreciate the reminder they will receive and will use the return envelope portion of this reminder to make a generous contribution," continued Mrs. Edmondson.

Ninety-three cents (93¢) of every dollar contributed for Christmas Seals is used in Mississippi for programs of health education, case-finding, treatment, patient services, rehabilitation and research in tuberculosis control activities. In addition, the association's expanded program into the field of respiratory diseases is requiring more and more financial support for programs of education and research. One of these new activities will start this coming year with the establishment of a much needed Professorship of Pulmonary Diseases at the University of Mississippi Medical School.

"The colorful 1968 Christmas Seal, designed around the 'Partridge in a Pear Tree' idea, actually represents 'the breath of life' to many of our citizens, since the contributions made to your Tishomingo County Tuberculosis Association are used in so many different ways to solve problems created by tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases. Additional contributions are needed in order to provide funds to carry on the association's 'breath of life' programs. All citizens are requested to respond promptly and generously."

In the event you did not receive Christmas Seals, please contact Mrs. Edmondson, phone 423-4821 and a supply of the colorful 1968 seals will be sent to you.

Medicare Signers Should Check Program

Hugh Tigrett, Social Security District Manager in Tupelo, today urged everyone signed up for the doctor bill insurance part of Medicare, to spend some time between now and the end of the year in reviewing whether the program owes them some money.

He said that this is most important for those older people who incurred expenses for covered medical services between October 1, 1966, and September 30, 1967. If a claim isn't made for reimbursement of these expenses by December 31, 1968, it will not be possible to make a payment.

Tigrett pointed out that, in the past, some Medicare beneficiaries postponed making a claim because they thought that if the doctor declined to take an assignment, the patient had to submit a receipted bill with his application. Unable to supply evidence of having paid the doctor or the medical supplier, they failed to file a claim, he added.

"These people are in danger of shortchanging themselves," Tigrett said. "Recent changes in the Medicare law eliminated the requirement that a bill submitted with a claim must be receipted to show that it was paid in full or part. Starting in 1968, an itemized bill showing the services or medical goods received and the charges for these, even if unpaid, became sufficient." He reminded all older persons in Tishomingo County who have signed up for voluntary medical insurance that Medicare pays for 80 percent of the reasonable charges of the covered services and medical goods, less an annual $50 deductible that the patient must pay. If the expenses of the last 3 months in any year do not come up to the amount of the deductible, they can be carried over to the following year to reduce the deductible for that year.

The Social Security Office is prepared to help people make claims for doctor bill insurance payments. The Social Security Representative who comes to the City Hall in Iuka every Monday morning is also prepared to assist you in making these claims.
