Reid Brothers Men and Boys Clothing Store in Iuka is celebrating its 50th anniversary with a gigantic sale.

Returning to Iuka after World War I, with nothing particular in mind, Mr. Clifton Reid and his brother, Houston, hit on the idea of a clothing business. They first located on the Massey block, where Bullard's Furniture and Appliance Store is now located in the Spring of 1919. During the first year their business burned.

In the Spring of 1920, the Reid brothers started a new clothing store at the present location.

reports on the club's activities for the past year, and then Mr. Martin presented the guest speaker for the evening, Mr. Benny Wallis. Mr. Wallis lives in Fulton and is a State Director for the Mississippi Jaycees. After his address, Mrs. Gail Wallis, Area B Vice-President, installed the new Jaycette officers. The officers-elect are as follows: President, Mrs. Margaret Byram; First Vice-President, Mrs. Quaye Yarber; Second Vice-President, Mrs. Barbara Moore; Secretary, Mrs. Lucretia Alexander; Treasurer, Mrs. Shirley Harrison.

Jaycee officers-elect were installed by Benny Wallis as follows: President, Jerry Martin; Internal Vice-President, Glen Harrison; External Vice-President, Wayne White; Secretary, Johnny B. Moore; Treasurer, Boyd Lee Tidwell. The Jaycee Directors for 1970-71 are Leon Cook, Bud Pardue, Carroll Ivy, Billy H. Tidwell, and Harold Sparks.

The Jaycee Creed was led by Jim Byram, Club Parliamentarian, and the benediction was said by Harold Sparks, Club Secretary.

In 1928, Mr. Houston Reid moved to Corinth and opened a Reid Brothers Clothing Store. He died about twelve years ago, and the present Reid Brothers in Iuka is independent of the Corinth store.

Throughout the years the store has offered high grade merchandise at low prices. The store's motto has always been "Quick Sales and Small Profits."

Mr. Reid states that the store still has a few customers that started trading with him when he first opened for business. This within itself speaks for the fine quality merchandise the store carries. He says he appreciates the good business of the customers who have traded with him throughout the years.

Sam Daniel, a son-in-law of Mr. Reid, began working at the store as a clerk twenty-three years ago when he and Lynn married. He and Lynn are now co-owners of the store, but Mr. Clifton still has his heart in the business and spends a part of each day there.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Reid have another daughter, Mrs. Thomas (Annette) Joseph of Round Rock, Texas. They have six grandchildren.

Throughout the years Mr. Clifton has maintained an interest in the affairs of the City of Iuka. He has been a member of the Iuka Baptist Church for the past 50 years and is a charter member of the Rotary Club, receiving a 25 years service pin about five years ago. Recently he received a gold recognition card for his 50 years in the American Legion and a 50 years service pin for membership in the Masonic Lodge.

During Reid Brothers 50th anniversary sale, sensational bargains are offered in suits, slacks, work pants and shirts are also drastically reduced.

Great savings will be found in men's sport coats, hats, shoes and many other items too numerous to mention. An ad in this issue of your newspaper gives further details.

The management and personnel welcomes you to visit the store and browse around through the many fine bargains offered during the Golden Anniversary Celebration.

Sample copies of this edition of Tishomingo County News are being sent to residents of Cherokee and Red Bay, Alabama, Booneville, Route 6, and New Site, Miss., through the courtesy of Reid Brothers.

Tishomingo County News salutes Reid Bros. for its many fine years of service to the people of Iuka and the surrounding area.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Southern States Industrial Council

EXIT MR. FINCH

In relieving Robert H. Finch of his Cabinet-level post as Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, President Nixon has taken long overdue action. Mr. Finch was more mindful of the opinion of holdover liberals in his department than he was of the wishes of an increasingly conservative electorate.

While Mr. Finch has been assigned to the White House, the presidential action clearly constitutes a demotion for Mr. Finch. He is likely to fade from public sight. Unable to manage the unruly HEW staff, his advice to the President surely won't count for much.

In deftly sidetracking the unpopular Finch, Mr. Nixon also has created an opportunity for reform of that swollen federal department. Whether Elliot Richardson, the new nominee for the post of Secretary, is the man to institute the necessary reforms is another question. Mr. Richardson doesn't belong to the conservative wing of the Republican Party.

For many months Mr. Finch irritated parents and local school officials by his attitude towards the public schools. He seemed determined to follow in the path of his Democratic predecessor at HEW in trying to impose unreasonable formulas on school boards. It seems reasonable to suppose that Mr. Finch's arrogant and unreasonable attitude was a contributing factor in the recent Alabama election in which former Governor George Wallace won a term as governor. With Mr. Finch out of the way, the Nixon administration is in a better position to strengthen its position among the voters. What Mr. Richardson does will affect the political situation, of course. Hopefully, Mr. Nixon has instructed Mr. Richardson to pay greater heed to the voice of the people.

In recent weeks, Mr. Finch seemed to completely lose control of his department. Employees of HEW took part in protests and issued demands to their boss. They were rude and abusive because he did not accept their dictation. Mr. Finch suffered humiliation.

Thus one of the first tasks of the new Secretary of HEW is to restore authority within the department. Staff members must be made to understand that employment by the federal government is a privilege, not a right. A government department cannot be run by employee juntas. Nor should the taxpayers tolerate political agitation by federal employees. Those employees of HEW who won't act in the manner of respectable, responsible staff members should be removed from government service. As a matter of fact, a real housecleaning of the HEW staff is a priority item. Mr. Finch inherited a department packed with liberals antagonistic to the Nixon program.

Beyond that, however, the need is for dismantling of costly and hurtful programs. For example, the administration erred seriously this past winter when it declined to go along with the proposal of Senator George Murphy (R-Calif) to place the controversial Neighborhood Legal Services Program under state authority. The NLSP is part of the Office of Economic Opportunity, itself one of the most controversial HEW operations.

The kind of turmoil HEW is experiencing can be seen in the Neighborhood Legal Services Program. This program is supposed to aid poor people who can't afford lawyers. In actuality, NLSP lawyers engage in harassing suits aimed at local government agencies and private business.

Early in June a typical NLSP uproar took place in the Washington office of that program. Two lawyers in the program, who had been transferred to other posts, defied government notices to vacate their offices. One of the anti-poverty agency lawyers complained that there had been a memorandum from higher authority requiring NLSP lawyers to get "supervisory" approval before filing lawsuits.

What's really incredible is that bands of federally-funded NLSP lawyers should be turned loose, with taxpayers' money, to file suits indiscriminately. If Mr. Richardson wants to earn the respect of thinking citizens, he should move promptly to bring the NLSP lawyers under firm control.

In briefing Mr. Richardson for his new job, the President could do nothing better than quote from his speech of April 25, 1968. He strongly criticized federal welfare programs and said: "They create a permanent caste of the dependent, a colony within a nation." HEW, under Mr. Finch, has lavished favors on that "colony"—at taxpayer expense. The productive majority of citizens very clearly wants HEW to end favoritism towards the non-workers and to try to find ways to reduce, not expand, the department's operations. It is to be hoped that Mr. Richardson understands and intends to be responsive to the desires of the taxpaying public.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Who Is Guilty of Moral Bankruptcy?

Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, general secretary of the World Council of Churches, has been quoted as saying, "The United States is as hypocritical and self-righteous as the USSR and is proving itself morally bankrupt in the world scene."

If Dr. Blake believes that he is helping the cause of the church by charging that "the United States is as hypocritical . . . as the USSR" it is hard to understand why.

In the first place, no intelligent person who has any knowledge of world history will believe it. Russia's record—in Hungary and Czechoslovakia, to mention only two instances—is too well known.

Concerning the accusation that the United States is "proving itself morally bankrupt in the world scene," the reference seems to be to the war in South Vietnam.

Which Course Is Right?

The question is: Is it a sign of moral bankruptcy to help a small nation protect its people from being slaughtered—or would it be a sign of moral bankruptcy to refuse such help or withdraw from the conflict when it turns out to be more difficult than was first expected?

Many would agree that we should never have become bogged down in this war which has cost the lives of over 40,000 Americans. There is disagreement as to how we should have avoided this situation and as to what we should do now.

But for a church leader to call our actions there "morally bankrupt" is both unwise and unwarranted.

The charge of moral bankruptcy might properly be leveled at the Communists in that conflict.

The North Vietnamese government has consistently refused to allow any impartial inspection of its treatment of the Americans who have been captured and are being held as prisoners of war.

The American Red Cross has launched a campaign to try to get the North Vietnamese to improve their treatment of these prisoners.

In an advertisement sponsored by the Red Cross there is this statement:

"Right now hundreds of Americans are being held captive in North Vietnam.

"A few prisoners have made it back. They talk about bamboo cages. Vicious beatings. Malnutrition. Humiliation.

"But the North Vietnamese will tell us nothing. . . . For the families at home, there is no word on who's alive. Who's dead. Or even who's being held."

Write a Letter

The Red Cross suggests that we write to the president of North Vietnam, asking that he "release the names of prisoners, allow them to write to their families, and let the Red

Rev. O. L. Elliott And Family Honored Sunday

Members of Pleasant Hill Methodist Church honored Rev. and Mrs. O. L. Elliott and son with a farewell supper at the church Sunday night. All present enjoyed the delicious meal and fellowship. After supper the group assembled in the Sanctuary and joined in singing, "Blest Be The Tie." Mr. A. V. Deaton presented Bro. and Mrs. Elliott with a love offering from the church in appreciation for their work here. Best wishes were expressed by all for success and happiness in their new home and work.

Welcomed also, were Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Waggoner and son, Gary Bullard, and Miss Martha Carol Kitchens, and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Walker and son.

Sgt. Randle In Honored Unit

Sergeant James B. Randle, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Randle, Jr., Route 3, Blue Springs, is a member of the Tactical Air Command unit which was recently awarded the MacKay Trophy for the "most meritorious flight of the year" during 1969.

Sergeant Randle is a weapons mechanic in the 49th Tactical Fighter Wing at Holloman AFB, N. M. The wing maintains a commitment to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and was cited for its non-stop redeployment of 72 F-4D Phantom jet aircraft from its European home at Spangdahlem AB, Germany to Holloman in April 1969.

Cross inspect the prisons to insure proper medical treatment and living conditions."

If the church should talk about moral bankruptcy, let's talk about it where it really exists—and let the stress be laid on the inhumane treatment of prisoners of war by the North Vietnamese.

If you have not written to the president of North Vietnam, as suggested by the Red Cross, why not do it today? Your letter may help to secure better treatment for our men who are now being mistreated by their Communist captors.

Also on the program was Mr. Milam of Corinth with interesting facts about Boy Scouts. Special recognition was given Scouts Dennis Ross, Kenny Slack, Max Timbes, Jimmy Lowery and Junior Ticer.

The singing school was discussed and June 22nd set as the

SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions and Answers

Recently President Nixon signed a new law into effect called the Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act. One part of this law provides cash benefits for former coal miners and their dependents if the miner is totally disabled because of Pneumoconiosis, so-called Black Lung Disease, and for survivors of coal miners who died from this disease.

According to District Manager Hugh Tigrett, the Social Security Office is the place to apply for any benefits under this new law.

Tigrett further stated that any former miner disabled from Black Lung Disease or any widow or child of a miner who died from this disease should get in touch with the Social Security Office at once and apply for these benefits. If a person cannot visit a social security office he can apply by mail by writing a letter to the Social Security Office, P. O. Box 680, Tupelo, Mississippi. In the letter, state that he is applying for benefits for himself and his family under the Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act. The letter should show his name if he is the coal miner; or if the survivor, their name should be shown along with the name of the deceased worker. The social security number of the miner should also be shown if available. The name and age of any dependent children should be shown as they may also be entitled to benefits.

It is very important, Tigrett stated, that the letter be signed and mailed to the Social Security Office as soon as possible because no benefits can be paid for any period before the date the application is filed.

Q. Why do I have to pay social security tax on my earnings after I become entitled to monthly benefits?

A. As long as you have earnings covered by social security, you continue to pay social security tax.

If your earnings are higher in a year after filing than in a year we used in figuring your benefits, this will increase your monthly check.

Q. If a woman age 62 or over is receiving social security benefits on her husband's record and he dies, does she have to file a claim to get widow's benefits?

A. No. If the wife is drawing social security benefits along with the husband, we would only have to have proof of death, and we would automatically change the wife's benefits to widow's benefits. In this instance, you can call the Social Security Office and not have to come in.

Q. At what age can I earn all I want without losing any of my Social Security checks?

A. You may earn all you want at age 72 without losing any benefits.

Q. I've lost my social security card, but I remember my number. What do I do?

A. Call the social security office at 842-6211. They will mail you an application to replace your lost card. Don't trust your memory.

Q. I am disabled and receiving social security disability payments. Can I be covered under Medicare?

A. No, you cannot. Only persons age 65 and over are eligible for Medicare.

Q. I know I can earn $1680.00 per year and still receive my social security checks. Is my retirement income from my job figured in this?

A. No, the $1680.00 refers only to money earned from work performed. Your retirement income is not included.

If you have a question about your Social Security, write or call the Social Security Office, P. O. Box 680, Tupelo, Miss., 38801, or telephone 842-6211 for a prompt reply.

IHS Class Of '45

Has Reunion

The 1945 graduating class had their 25th Anniversary celebration Saturday night, June 13, at Coleman State Park Restaurant. Seven members of a class of fifteen were present . . . Sarah Carter Haines, and Estelle Hudson Lomenick of Iuka, Barbara Johnston Gilmore of Greenville, S. C., Louise Whitworth Berlin of Corinth, Louise McMahon Utley of Tusculum, Lauren Locke, Chapel Hill, Tenn., and Raymond Hamilton of Millington, Tenn., along with their husbands and/or wives. One teacher of this group was present, Billie Burke Whitehurst Thomas, and her husband, Ed. Mr. and Mrs. Billy Pace also attended. Various pictures of members of the class were displayed along with the play books, graduation announcement, list of classmates, and other items of interest.

The group was greeted by "Welcome Class of '45" in class colors of gold over maroon, mounted over the door of the banquet room. Silver Silettes were displayed throughout the room and the class flower-roses were used for decorations. The original class cards mounted on silver cards were used for the place cards. Raymond Hamilton acted as Master of Ceremonies and presented silver bowls to the person coming the greatest distance, and for the member of the class who was married the longest. Prizes were also given for the one with the most children, the one with the most grandchildren, and the one with the least hair.

This class recommends to everyone to not miss their class reunion. It was great fun for all!

Miss. Reservoir A-1

Vacation Center

As they plan their summer vacations, it is hoped many Mississippi families will take a tip and visit our fine reservoir which offer splendid recreational facilities for fun lovers of all ages. Mississippi has six major reservoirs increasingly popular with fishing enthusiasts, boaters and devotees of other water sports. These are the Barnett, Sardis, Grenada, Arkabutla, Pickwick and Enid reservoirs. These big man-made facilities provide unsurpassed vacation advantages, along with the more practical function of flood control and/or water supply. Pickwick Lake near Iuka offers camping, boating, fishing, beaches and nature trails. J. P. Coleman State Park nearby adds to the many attractions. Tishomingo State Park also provides a place for fun and relaxation. Tishomingo County is blessed with outstanding recreational facilities with a reservoir and parks which does much to enhance our reputation as a vacation paradise. The new vacation season at hand is a great time to visit Pickwick Lake and learn just how enjoyable it is.

Frank Thomas
Touring With Lions
All State Band

Again this year Frank Thomas is a member of the 130 piece Mississippi Lions All State Band, and left last Sunday to start rehearsal with that group at Northwest Mississippi Junior College in Senatobia. Frank, in the first trumpet section, was to face further competition, to determine chairs, on Sunday evening. For his solo, he chose "Carnival of Venice."

The Mississippi Lion's Band will appear in concert at NWJC next Sunday evening, before leaving for Atlantic City, New Jersey, where it will compete with 40 other state bands for national honors at the National Lion's Club Convention.

This year's band itinerary includes breakfast Monday at the Holiday Inn in Bristol, Va.; lunch and sightseeing at Natural Bridge, Virginia; and dinner at Sholl's in Washington, D. C., before arriving in Atlantic City at 9:30 p.m.

After three days of convention activities, the group will tour historic sites of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, including a trip to see the Liberty Bell; and travel on to Charlottesville for dinner at the University of Virginia Cafeteria. The last stop on their return trip will be breakfast at Holiday Inn in Cullman, Ala. They will arrive at the college in the afternoon of July 4th.

The Mississippi Lions All State Band is sponsored each year by the local Lions Clubs of Mississippi. Tryouts for the 1970 Lions Band, held in Jackson last winter, attracted over 600 of Mississippi's best high school musicians.

J. W. Cromeans
On Honor Roll

John W. Cromeans of Tishomingo was among the 123 students at the University of Mississippi who scored a perfect 4.0 (A) scholastic record for the second semester of the 1969-70 session, according to Dr. Robert B. Ellis, Registrar.

Ole Miss regulations provide that a student must score a minimum of 3.50 out of a possible 4.0 to make the honor roll listing. Four-hundred-thirty-three students scored 3.50 and were also listed on the honor roll.

PERSONALS

Recent visitors in the home of Senator and Mrs. Cecil L. Summers were their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Currie, of the University of Virginia. After spending some time in Jackson, Miss., with Jim's parents, the couple, along with Miss Marion Currie (Jim's sister) returned to Charlottesville, after stopping by Iuka for Father's Day. While at home the couple also attended the weddings of two close friends, Miss Charlyne McNeer, of Starkville (in which Pat was a bridesmaid), and Miss Mary Helen McCostlin of Bruce, where Pat helped to serve at the reception.

Mrs. Evie Morris and Maggie Welch attended the wedding of their niece, Carolyn Sanders, on Sunday. Clinton Welch of Nashville visited in Iuka on Saturday.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

By Percie E.
Strickler
MSU
Extension Service

WATERING
drainage and controlling of water runoff is the best long range investment that a farmer can make. This is especially true in "pot hole" land.

Establishing a field to uniform
the soil for precise planning and professional help will be worth the cost.

For additional farm information, not bright, so the farmer plans ahead and prevents erosion and allow the precipitation will be able to
with a minimum labor

water management will water off the field uniformly at a rate fast enough to black in the field soon rain, but slow enough to erosion and allow the soak in.

For details of land forming, contact local county agent.

PASTURES
need time? If so, summer is the time to apply lime. Summer is a slack time for vendors so it is time for you to get your lime spread.

Areas that are to be for winter grazing have the lime spread before the following begins to get it mixed thoroughly with the soil.

If the area is to be flat broken and then disked during the summer, then apply the needed lime between flatbreaking and the diskings.

PASTURE WEED CONTROL

Weeds in permanent pastures not only compete with your grasses for moisture and plant food, they also take up space the grass could use and make a forage not as acceptable to the animals.

In grass pastures use 2,4-D or Banvel D to kill broadleaf weeds. Weeds are much easier to kill before they get very large.

If you do not wish to use a chemical for weed control, then clip the pastures raising the clipper blade six to eight inches so as to get the weeds but not the good grass. Remember, pasture weeds control does not cost
.... it pays!

SUMMER GRAZING

If you have grazed your early planted temporary summer grazing crops down to a height of six to eight inches, then move the cows to another grazing area.
Apply nitrogen to the grazed down area and allow it to make new growth.

It is still not too late to make another planting of summer grazing. If you are broadcasting your seed, use 25 pounds per acre.
If you plant in rows, use 15 pounds to the acre.

VA NEWS

VA INCREASES BENEFITS TO CERTAIN CHILDREN

The Veterans Administration reported nearly 51,000 children will receive a 10 percent increase in benefits under a new law.

Administrator of Veterans Affairs Donald E. Johnson said these benefits, which become effective July 1, 1970, will amount to about $3.6 million the first year.

The law covers payments to widows, certain children and dependent parents of veterans and servicemen, if the death of the veteran or serviceman was caused by a service-connected disease or injury.

Johnson said the law provides dependency and indemnity compensation to children (where there is no widow entitled) at increased monthly rates of $88 for one child, $127 for two children, $164 for three children, with an extra $32 added to this rate for each child in excess of three.

Monthly supplementary dependency and indemnity compensation payments are raised from $29 to $32 for children under 18 who are permanently disabled and incapable of self-support.
Benefits for these disabled children above 18 will be increased from $109 to $120 monthly.

The VA Administrator added that if the child is a student 18 to 23 years of age (and the mother is entitled to widow's compensation), the payment will be increased from $41 to $45 monthly.

"HEALTH PAYS DAILY DIVIDENDS"

Testifying to the unlimited value of chiropractic is the great interest in, and the attempts of many European M. D.'s, to try to use it.

In Germany especially, where science reaches a lofty pinnacle, the medics are quite eager to accept and adopt it. And the chiropractors are busy.

Week-end courses in spinal manipulation for M. D.'s have been going on in England.

In France a medical physician personally escorted a patient into a chiropractor's office for the purpose of emergency adjustive care.

In Switzerland chiropractic is making rapid progress and Swiss chiropractors are included in the National Health Program, which pays liberal sums for dispensing their services. (Ahead of our USD)

Lack of space forbids going deeply into the burgeoning ramifications of chiropractic throughout Europe.

In the healing arts, chiropractic has proven by far the greatest forward step in health progress.

FLOYD'S FUNLAND ROLLERCADE

Highway 25 South — Iuka, Miss.

Dear Tishomingo Countians:

During the past few years more and more emphasis has been placed upon healthful recreation and people now realize that adults as well as children must play in order to stay physically and mentally fit.

Citizens of Tishomingo County and surrounding territory have an unexcelled opportunity for recreation in a healthful atmosphere for the Funland Rollercafe is conveniently located in their midst. Skating is not only a delightful diversion and a relaxing exercise, but it develops the sense of balance and rhythm. It is a skill that young people wish to develop and yet is not too strenuous for older folks as well. Nothing can ably dispel the tension of a busy day as an evening spent in gliding gracefully over the floor to inspiring music.

The Funland Rollercafe is a good place to send the children, too, for here they get the exercise they need among congenial companions and in the right atmosphere. Ray and Ruth Green, Managers, see that careful supervision is provided and that beginners receive proper assistance and equipment. If you are not already a steady customer of the Funland Rollercafe, we suggest you drop in soon to see what you've been missing.

Harry Cosby also pitched a two hitter, but eight errors by the Genesco team were more than Cosby's pitching could overcome. Cosby struck out seven and walked four. Scotty James had a double and Greg Puckett a single for VFW-American Legion. Ben Burns and Danny Bivins had singles for Genesco.

GUARANTY EDGES CONALCO 1-0
Johnny Butler and Joey Adams locked horns in a pitching duel Tuesday night, June 16, and when the dust settled Butler had pitched a no-hitter. CORINTH THEATRE ARTS PRESENTS ARSENIC & OLD LACE

"Arsenic and Old Lace," the wellknown comedy of murder and madness, will open in Corinth Thursday, June 25, for a series of three performances. Corinth Theatre-Arts, directed by Miss Sylvia Beasley, will produce the lively farce.

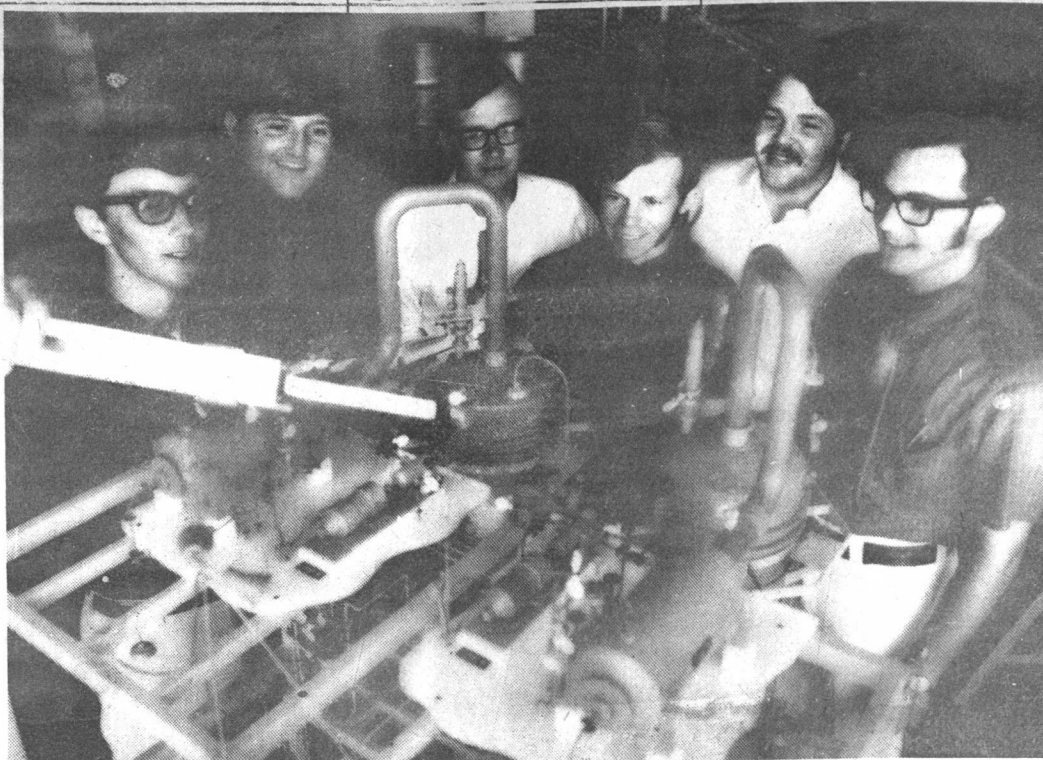

"Arsenic and Old Lace" is the fantastic tale of two old ladies who have murdered twelve men. There is also Jonathan Brewster, their nephew, who has also murdered twelve men.

Then there's "Teddy," who confuses himself with Theodore Roosevelt, to say nothing of Doctor Einstein whose profession is disguising underworld characters through plastic surgery.

When all these people get together on a September afternoon in a quiet brownstone house on a quiet Brooklyn street, the repercussions almost unhinge Mortimer, the one sane member of the Brewster family, and completely demoralize the Brooklyn police force.

Starring in the Corinth production are Margaret Rogers and Kathryn Chapman as the Brewster sisters, Bill Orr as Jonathan, Bill Henson as Teddy and Larry Cox as Mortimer.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday on the Theatre-Arts stage located off Highway 72 East across from the

V A News

Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q. I was released from active duty for hypertension after serving only two months. This condition was supposed to have existed prior to service. Since I am still within my 120-day period since release, may I convert my Servicemen's Group Life Insurance (SGLI) to a private policy to avoid paying a higher premium?

A. Yes. If you served more than 30 days on active duty and are still within 120 days of separation, you have the privilege of converting your SGLI.

Q. My father was killed while in military service. I am now in the Armed Forces. I am eligible for benefits under the Dependents' Educational Assistance program. May I attend school under this program while in service?

A. No. A person eligible under the Dependents' Educational Assistance program may not enroll while in service. However, he may be entitled to benefits in his own right as a serviceman.

Q. My husband, who was a World War II veteran, died in 1960. My application for a widow's pension was denied at that time because we had been married less than five years. May I now reapply for a pension on the basis of my inability to work because of a disability?

A. Yes, you may reapply for pension, but your disability would not in itself be a consideration. However, a 1967 law liberalized the five-year marriage requirement which was in effect at the time of your husband's death. Now, a widow must have been married to a veteran only one year before his death to qualify for pension.

You may obtain further information and assistance in reapplying for a pension from the nearest VA office.

CHRISTIE ELOISE BISHOP PLEDGED WEDDING VOWS ON JUNE 6th

Adding much loveliness to the early summer season was the wedding of Miss Christie Eloise Bishop and William Brent Wade. Vows were exchanged on June 6. Nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. John Holcomb, organist, and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Lovellette, vocalists.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Bishop, 217 Harding Road, Chattanooga, Tenn., formerly of Allsboro.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wade, 511 Harwood Drive, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length wedding gown of organza and Peau D'Angl lace featuring empire fitted bodice of lace with long Bishop sleeves with bridal point and high neckline. The tubular train was attached to the a-line skirt. Scalloped lace flowed at the Empire waistline with lace appliques on the skirt and edge of the train. A chapel length Mantilla of illusion edged in lace and held in place by lace petals framed the bride's face.

The bride carried a cascade of white Marguerite daisies, stephanotis and cattleya orchids highlighted with seed pearls. With her bouquet she carried her grandmother's 24K gold locket watch, which her grandmother wore in her wedding.

Miss Janice Brown of Chattanooga was maid of honor. Mrs. Linda Bishop of Henderson, Ky. was matron of honor for her sister-in-law. Bridesmaids were Miss Jan Reid of Cherokee, Ala. and Miss Paula Hyden of Memphis, cousins of the bride. They were attired in floor length gowns of maize karate featuring a sheer yoke and long bishop sleeves of polyester, edged in daisy lace. The fitted empire bodice featured an a-line skirt with long streamers and a designers bow at the back. They carried nosegays of white Marguerite daisies accented with maize gypsophila.

The groom's father served as best man. Groomsmen were Terry Wade of Chattanooga, brother of the groom; Don Bishop, Henderson, Ky., brother of the bride; Ronnie Rogers and Gerry Sanders, both of Chattanooga.

David Roberson of Birmingham served as ring bearer. Rice girls were Kathy Mabry and Marsha Loy, both of Chattanooga.

Serving as flower girl was Holly Bishop of Henderson, Ky. She wore a floor length gown of maize karate with a neckline edged in daisies. The a-line skirt featured long streamers and a designers bow at the back.

The bride's mother wore a silk and wool lime green coat and dress ensemble with a collar of crystal beads and rhinestones.

with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of white cattleya orchid.

The groom's mother wore a French blue ensemble of medallion lace and crepe with matching accessories. Her corsage was a white cattleya orchid.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a trip to Atlanta. For the trip the bride wore a red, white and blue suit with matching accessories. They will make their home at 2807 Dayton Blvd., Apt. 3, Chattanooga, Tenn.
