CHRISTMAS SEAL CONTRIBUTIONS

"Mississippians have traditionally been recognized as leaders in the crusade against TB and other crippling lung diseases," states Mrs. Gil Wimberly, chairman of the Tishomingo County Chapter of the Mississippi Lung Association, sponsored by the Lucy Rowe Study Club of Iuka.

According to a report by the American Lung Association, Mississippi ranks among the top ten nationally in fund-raising efforts and special events conducted to support lung disease prevention and control programs of the Christmas Seal voluntary health organization.

Your Mississippi Lung Association has 86 county and bi-county chapters with over 5,000 adult and 2,500 youth volunteers who conduct year-round programs of education and fund raising for "life and breath".
It is the dedication of Mississippi volunteers and contributors, young and old joining in the community effort, which has made the fight for lung health in Mississippi successful.

MLA programs in operation today are a direct result of the volunteer spirit and participation of lung leaders in Mississippi. Many Mississippi club groups sponsor lung chapters and special fund-raising events are conducted by youth groups. One popular event in Mississippi schools this year is "SUPERKIDS", a field day event for elementary students.

Mrs. Wimberly states that Mississippians are optimistic about lung health of the future, taking action against children's lung problems and educating parents to recognize early symptoms to help their children.

Mrs. Wimberly and other volunteers of the Lucy Rowe Club urge citizens of Tish-omingo County to mail your Christmas Seal gift today, if you have not already done so.

Mrs. Wimberly also requests that you use the convenient Christmas Seal return envelope. All contributions from Tishomingo County are credited to the Tishomingo County Lung Chapter and will be used to support programs that have life-long benefits for Mississippians.

Answer your Christmas Seal letter today and help keep Mississippi on top in matters of "life and breath".

FOUR KILLED IN ONE CAR CRASH

Anthony and Nalene Doles

A former Iuka resident, her husband, and two friends were all killed in a one car accident on U. S. Highway 45, four miles north of Booneville early Sunday morning, December 18.

The two young couples killed were John Anthony Doles, 26, and his wife, Nalene Dobbins Doles, 24; and Terry R. Mc-Daniel, 30, and his wife, Janice Rogers McDaniel, 26, all of Corinth. Nalene is a 1971 graduate of Iuka High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dobbins, of Iuka.

According to Highway Patrolman, Roger Barnett, the Mc-Daniels and Doles were killed between 12:30 and 1:00 a.m. when McDaniel's 1975 Datsun slammed into a bridge abutment on U. S. 45, north of Booneville.
Barnett said, "It's hard to tell what happened." He said there were no skid marks where the small car hit the bridge and then bounced back into the roadway. "It was crumpled like a tin can," Barnett said.

He said there were apparently no witnesses to the accident. It was found by two men as they were traveling to Rienzi. They stopped and sent for help and were flagging traffic, Barnett said, when the wrecked car was hit by another car.

Officer Barnett said Victor Smith, 52, Rienzi, was northbound on U. S. 45 in a 1974 Ford when he hit the car containing the four bodies.

Barnett said Smith told him he did not see the car in the road when he struck it. No charges were filed.

Barnett said the car was so severely crushed in the accident that one person could span the length of the crushed car.

Barnett said the four were apparently killed instantly in the crash with all suffering severe head injuries. "This is the worst wreck I've ever seen," he said.

Funeral services for Mr. and Mrs. Doles were held at 3:30
Monday at the West Corinth
Church of Christ with Minister Gilbert Howell and Rev. R.
Christy Morgan officiating.
Burial was in Forrest Memorial Park Cemetery.

Mr. Doles was a native of Colbert County, Alabama, and was employed with Pace and Isom Body Shop of Corinth.
Mrs. Doles was an employee of the Bank of Mississippi.

Surviving Mr. Doles is his mother, Mrs. Nylene Doles, of Corinth.

Surviving Mrs. Nalene Dobbins Doles are her parents,
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. (Chick)
Dobbins, of Iuka; a brother, William Milton Rorie, Charleston, S. C.; five sisters, Mrs. Frankie McGill and Mrs.
Fredda Sanderson, both of Iuka,
Mrs. Donna Doublerlie, Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. Donna Nelson, of Cherokee, Ala.; and Miss Deborah Dobbins, of Lubbock,

Texas.
Mr. McDaniel was a native of Alcorn County and was a vice-president and loan officer with Security Bank. Mrs.
McDaniel was a native of Alcorn County and was a secretary with the Bank of Mississippi. Terry is a brother to Charles McDaniel, of Corinth, who married the former Peggy Hamm, of Iuka.

ECONOMIST'S
NOTESMERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR!HOLIDAYS ARE FOR SMALL BIRDS, TOO!

Holiday meals may be for the big birds but, if you're preparing meals for fewer than six persons, consider broiler-fryers. You may save time, money and be free of leftovers.

Broiler-fryers are plentiful now, and a quick glance at the food ads should tell you they are selling at good prices.

When buying broiler-fryers, select fresh plump birds. Look for the tag showing USDA grade and inspection stamp. Your best buy is the whole bird unless you prefer special pieces. Any way you serve the whole or parts, broiler-fryers are excellent holiday fare.

Here are some good ways to prepare broiler-fryers for the holiday table:

SUNSHINE CHICKEN
FOR HOLIDAYS

- 8 broiler-fryer chicken thighs
- 8 broiler-fryer chicken drumsticks
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon basil
- 1/4 teaspoon freshly ground

- pepper
- 1/2 cup soy sauce
- 1/2 cup catsup
- 1/4 cup honey
- 1/4 cup vegetable oil
- 2 cloves garlic, crushed
- 1 recipe Poached Oranges

Sprinkle chicken with salt, basil and ground pepper. In a bowl mix together soy sauce, catsup, honey, vegetable oil and garlic. Place chicken in single layer, skin side up, in shallow baking pan. Baste with sauce. Bake in 350 degree oven, uncovered, basting frequently, about 1 hour or until a fork can be inserted with ease. Garnish with Poached Oranges. Remaining basting sauce should be mixed with sauce from Poached Oranges and served in a separate bowl. Garnish with watercress.

POACHED ORANGES

- 3/4 cup water
- 1-1/2 cups sugar
- 3 tablespoons slivered orange rind
- 6 navel oranges, peeled and cut in wedges
- 2 tablespoons orange liqueur

In a saucepan mix water, sugar and orange rind over medium heat. Cook until a slightly thickened, about 8 minutes. Place orange wedges in syrup. Reduce heat and cook on low about 3 minutes or until they are warm. Remove from heat; add liqueur and chill.

CRANBERRY BARBECUED
CHICKEN

- 4 whole broiler-fryer chicken breasts, halved
- 1/2 cup flour
- 1/4 cup cracker meal
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- 1/8 teaspoon paprika
- 1/2 cup vegetable oil
- 1 can (16 oz.) jellied cranberry sauce
- 1 bottle (12 oz.) chili sauce
- 1 teaspoon brown sugar

1 teaspoon lemon juice

Mix together flour, cracker meal, salt, pepper, paprika; coat chicken. Heat vegetable oil in frying pan over medium heat. Add chicken and brown on all sides. Place chicken in single layer, skin side up, in large shallow baking pan. In saucepan mix together cranberry sauce, chili sauce, brown sugar and lemon juice. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until cranberry sauce is melted and mixture is smooth. Spoon over chicken. Bake in 350 degree oven, uncovered, about 45 minutes or until fork can be inserted with ease.

the kick
It hid for us I'd say.

For if the guns ain't real,
And the dolls don't talk and sleep,
And the radio's get messages
From clear across the deep.

They feel that they've been cheated
"unluckiest kids in town" -
And if there is a Santa Claus,
He has certainly fallen down!

But me and Jim we still believe
We were the lucky boys,
To live in days where things were scarce

And toys were really toys.

We still believe kind hearts are more

Than "coronets" and things;

And "simple faith" is better far

Than blood of Norman Kings.

If this poem was written more than fifty years ago and it was - and we were thinking we had lots and lots of toys and things then - What would the poet say today?

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

SOYBEANS

Mississippi soybean producers should consider the possibility of holding their remaining soybean crops off the market in an attempt to improve soybean prices, marketing specialist Truett Bufkin of the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service said.

"I believe the best market strategy for improving soybean prices in the short run is to hold beans off the market," Bufkin said.

"Mississippi and U.S. soybean producers still own about half of their 1977 soybean crops. But holding soybeans off the market depends on having available storage, either on-farm or commercial," he said.

This especially true between now and next March and April when Brazil and Argentina soybeans will go to market to compete with the U.S. Drop, he added.

There are two ways farmers can hold their beans off the market and retain ownership, Bufkin explained. One method is by hedging in the cash market through the loan program or in approved commercial storage with a state warehouse receipt. Another is by hedging in the futures market.

Both these options require storage, he pointed out. If a farmer has on-farm storage, he needs only to check with his local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office manager to take advantage of the loan program.

By hedging beans in the cash market, either in the loan with a CCC receipt or in approved commercial storage with a state warehouse receipt, a farmer may go to the bank and borrow money on those receipts, the specialist said.

A farmer can reap similar benefits with a hedge in the futures market, he said. He can sell a contract and if prices improve, buy back the contract and sell on the cash market.

We have fields in the county that would increase in yield if lime was applied. Now is a good time to take soil samples before the laboratory becomes crowded. We have plenty of boxes for taking soil samples. Drop by the Extension office the next time you are in Iuka and get a supply of boxes.

It isn't too early to start thinking about soybean seed for next year's crop. Some soybeans will not have the quality for seed due to dry weather and then excessive wet weather. Seed should be tested for both germination percentage and vigor.

Something
OldBy:
Lela T.
Clark

It's that time again! The most joyous time of the year! The time to think of others and be happy. Are we? Are we giving and buying in the spirit of Christmas or because we have much more than we used to have, and "I want my children to have as much or more than my neighbor's children have."

Do you remember some special Christmas that stays with you through the years? I do.

Are cookies a special treat any more? I'd say store-bought ones are not. Try a tea-cake cookie like your mother used to bake. I remember the time Santa brought us a sack of store-bought cookies and it was something I've remembered all these years, for my mother kept the cookie jar filled with her tea-cakes and these were something different and we thought a real treat.

Another remembrance of mine is that our daddy measured us on the side of the big oak headboard bed. He would still be in bed but had been up and built the fire and it would be burning brightly in the fireplace. Beginning with the oldest he had us come and he scratched or marked. As soon as the youngest member of the family could walk, he or she was given a mark. This was a Christmas morning ritual and we enjoyed it. It made us know our father really cared. If I had that oak bedstead now, I'm afraid I wouldn't let anyone "scratch" it.

Parents mean well in buying and buying for their children but sure there's something of yourself that they will remember because the material things are so plentiful now, it will be hard for them to find that "special thing."

Copied from a scrapbook that was made by a person in Iuka many, many years ago:

NOW IS IT?

Christmas ain't what it used to be
When me and Jim were boys;
We never had so many eats -
Nor half a hundred toys.

And as for oranges and grapes
And coconuts and limes;
We never knew that such things grew Except 'round Christmas Times.

And if we got a little horn -
Or, maybe just a sled -
A gun, a drum, a pair of boots,
Or a wagon - painted red!

My, my, we were the gladdest kids
That ever you did see;
And we would strut about the place
As proud as prod could be.

But kids these days, my, my,
I swan;
They have so much each day
That Christmas couldn't have

III By '83

The III by '83 Progress and Outlook Conference was held at Mississippi State University December 15, 1977.

Dr. W. M. Bost, Director of the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service gave the following information on Mississippi agriculture for '77.

Value of farm production from Mississippi farms rose to a record level in 1977 for the second consecutive year. Unfortunately, production expenses also rose and prices for major commodities grown in Mississippi declined, resulting in an estimated 13 percent decrease in net farm income from 1976.

The value of farm production this year was estimated at $2,203 billion, up from $2,122 billion in 1976, according to a preliminary report released by the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service at the annual III by '83 Progress and Outlook Conference December 15.

Goal of III by '83 is a value of farm production of $3 billion by 1983.

While value of farm production was rising, soaring production expenses (up 8.1 percent in 1977) forced net income downward. The results: a net income of about $350 million in 1977. This compares to $402 million in 1976, and $621 million in 1973, the record net farm income year.

"There's no doubt that this has been a very frustrating year for Mississippi farmers," said Dr. W. M. Bost, Extension Director, addressing the 1,000 persons attending the conference. "I know it is very disheartening for farmers to work hard all year to produce and market more products and still have less money in their pockets after paying their bills."

"Farmers faced drought, higher than normal insect outbreaks, higher prices for goods bought, and finally, lower selling prices this year," Dr. Bost added.

The weather warmed early in the spring following a long, cold winter. Prices of both cotton and soybeans were good. Farmers were optimistic. Only the beef cattle price situation remained unsettled.

Farmers again planted a big cotton crop (about 1.5 million acres) and soybean acreage hit a record 3.95 million. Prospects looked good in other enterprise areas such as horticulture, forestry, catfish and poultry.

However, three major factors dampened the hopes of Mississippi farmers. First, a May-June drought seriously affected all enterprises, from delaying soybean plantings to reducing yields of grazing crops. Second, the commodity prices that looked so promising in the spring began to decline because of large acreages and prospects for bumper crops. And, third, insects moved in and forced farmers to spend extra production money to control them in soybeans, cotton, grazing and pasture crops, and some horticultural crops.

Most farmers, hoping for further price increases, failed to contract at the most favorable prices in the spring. In spite of increased soybean and cotton production, total income from all enterprises in 1977 was up only slightly.

Tishomingo County farmers

also had the lowest yields less net income than in previous years. Cotton yields about 300 lbs. lint per acre. Soybean yields were about 30 bu. per acre and corn less than 50 bu. per acre.

Forage crops, hay and silage, were the lowest in a number of years. Cattle numbers decreased the county and hog and sheep numbers in some years.

Those attending the conference from Tishomingo County were: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Strickland, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bonds, Lois Norton, Horton, Leon Perry, Rainey and P. B. Selmer, Tenn.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Garlin of Pickwick Road, Tenn., were in Memphis Tuesday, Wednesday with Alma's sons and their families. A wonderful time was had at Cody's with a Christmas party, lots of refreshments and loads of fun. They also visited her sister

Hamilton, who spent many years pastoring churches in Tishomingo County. Eddie's wife was the former Dorothy Pennington, and they have one daughter, Stephanie. He is now pastor of the 1st Baptist Church of Summerall, Miss.

May the blessings of the Lord be upon Eddie as he goes on serving the Lord.

Sunday, Dec. 18, was the 25th wedding anniversary of Troy and Myra Dean, of Tishomingo. This was a complete surprise for them until they sat down for lunch after returning home from church. About 60 people came and others who could not come sent gifts. They received a very nice variety of gifts from members of their family and friends. Punch and cake was served by Renelda Grubbs, Nelda Mann and others who helped. The party celebration was from 2 until 4 p.m.

Mrs. Verna Crow, who spent several days last week in the Tishomingo County Hospital, is back home and is improving.

Bro. and Mrs. Eron Sharp, of Memphis, spent the weekend with Lu Vera and Gertrude Blissett. Other visitors were Turner Blissett, from Little Rock, Ark.

Sympathy to Mrs. Jewel Nixon, of Holcut, in the death of her husband, Fay Nixon, who passed away last week.

Leonard Phillips, who had surgery in Memphis recently, is improving and hopes to be home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Duncan, of Belmont, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Crow recently.

Bro. and Mrs. Bill Burcham, pastor of the Pentecostal Church in Tishomingo, have recently moved into their remodeled home, known as the Flora Paden Fugitt home in Tishomingo.

All the college students are home for the Christmas Holidays.

Bernice Hodgins is home from a Memphis hospital where she had test last week.

Bro. Eugene Tishomingo's mother has been in the hospital. We hope she is much better.

The Homemakers Club had their Christmas dinner at the home of Mrs. Ruth McDougal last Wednesday with eleven members present, and Miss Nellie Horton as a guest. Each member furnished a dish of food for the meal, and they also exchanged gifts. Ilene Thomas, daughter of Mrs. Alecia, made and gave each one present a handmade potholder. Everyone present enjoyed the meeting very much. So much food was left, they sent plates to the four members who could not attend.

Henry Wood, Jr. and his daughter, from Hot Springs, Ark., spent one night last week with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Crow.

Holts Spur

The mission meeting of the Judson Baptist Association at Rowland Mills Church, Saturday, December 17, from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m., had a good service and the attendance was good. Bro. James Wilson, pastor of the Mt. Glory Church, brought the 11:00 message.

Sympathy goes to the families of Bro. J. L. Burcham and Mr. Alton Marlar in their death. Bro. Burcham was a member of Rowland Mills Church and a former pastor.

Mrs. Inez Bryant was dismissed from the Tishomingo County Hospital Saturday.

George Stidham had back surgery on Wednesday, Dec. 14, at Eliza Coffee Memorial Hospital in Florence. He is doing fine and will be home soon.

We wish to express sympathy to the wife and other relatives of Mr. Fay Nixon. Those of this area who attended the Tishomingo County Retired Teachers Meeting at Tishomingo on December 9, were: Mr. and Mrs. Glen Williams, Morrel Hatcher, and Thelma Gray.

Frank Ross, of the Tishomingo County Hospital, will celebrate December 25, for two reasons - First because it is the birth of Christ and second because he was married to the late Hattie Whitfield Ross on December 25, 1904.

Bill Johnson was stopped at a red light at the intersection of Hwy. 25 and 72. A car from Booneville, going north on 25, struck his car in the side and damaged it badly. It was a complete total loss. Bill was not injured.

luka Library News

The following letter was received by the luka Public Library from Mr. Bruce Evans, Assistant Director, Northeast Regional Library, and is quoted here in part: "Please pass along my very special thanks to friends and patrons of the luka Public Library for their labors of love in assisting the Very Special Arts Fair in our area. Their hard work and talents are very much appreciated, and the public here is very pleased with the samplings which I put on display. These items will be sent as part of our exhibit to the Oxford Fair in January, and some will most likely be selected for exhibit at the state fair in Biloxi later in the year, after which they will be returned to the owners. All of the luka and Corinth people should be very proud of their work."

We at the luka Library also want to thank each one who participated in this Special Arts Fair. The point of the fair was to stress that neither age nor a physical handicap bar a person from expressing their talent in the field of arts.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS
Santa has already visited the luka Library. We were gifted this week with a nice large mobile utility table from Mr. Art Bonds. This is something we have been needing for our work room for a long time. Thank you so very much, Mr. Bonds!

All public libraries in Tishomingo County will be closed on December 23rd through December 26th for Christmas Holidays. And since New Years comes on Sunday, the libraries will observe that holiday on Saturday, December 31st.

We want to celebrate the blessings of the season by sharing with you this lovely Christmas prayer by Robert Louis Stevenson:

"O God our loving Father, help us rightly to remember the birth of Jesus, that we may share in the song of the angels, the gladness of the shepherds and the worship of the wise men. Close the door of hate and open the door of love all over the world. Deliver us from evil by the blessing that Christ brings, and teach us to be merry with clear hearts. May the Christmas morning make us happy to be thy children and the Christmas evening bring us to our beds with grateful thoughts, forgiving and forgiven, for Jesus' sake. Amen."

Robert Louis Stevenson

Homemakers

The Mt. Gilead Homemakers Club met in the home of Mrs.

Earline Whitfield on Thursday night, December 8th, for the Christmas party.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Earline Whitfield. Christmas carols were sung, and the hostess gave the devotion taken from the 1st chapter of Matthew. Each member was asked to tell what Christmas meant to them. The group played Bingo, and the following won prizes: Mrs. Lona Odom, Melvie Robinson, Lilla Davis, and Tressie Bonds. The secret pals were revealed and a gift given to them. The gifts under the Christmas tree were exchanged, and much fun was had by opening the gifts.

Delicious refreshments were served consisting of punch, potato chips, dip, cheese balls, cookies and pecan pie.

Those present, other than already mentioned were: Mrs. Beverly Barnett, Amy Walker, Blanche Woodruff and Cathleen Moore.

The January meeting will be held with Mrs. Cathleen Moore.

Halley's Comet will next be seen in 1986.

ONE GIANT LEAP FOR MANKIND
LUKE 2:12-19

BY CHARLES DAMPEER, PASTOR, IUKA BAPTIST CHURCH

Neil Armstrong, the first American to set foot on the moon, said on that historical occasion, "That is one small step for man; one giant leap for mankind."

Five months later in that eventful year of 1969, I watched a Christmas parade which gave great emphasis to man's conquest of space. Near the end of the parade, there was a float that conveyed an undeniable impression. It was a simple manger scene and the caption read, "One Giant Leap For Mankind." There can be no doubt that the birth of Jesus was a giant leap for mankind.

The birth of Christ was a giant leap for mankind because Christ brought God out where he could be seen. In the Old Testament, man thought of God as remote and obscure. Thus, His name was unspeakable because it was too holy to be spoken by lips of clay. His presence could only be felt by the Priest who in turn would convey to the people what God was like. Even the Shepherds were fearful when the angel of the Lord spoke to them about the birth of the Messiah. Luke 2:9 tells us they were "very afraid." In that instant their fears were intensified, but when they saw the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger, they lost their fears and began glorifying and praising God (Luke 2:19). Their fears were removed because of the presence of a person - namely, the Christ child. What a giant leap for man when he overcame his fears!

The birth of Jesus was also a giant leap for mankind because it revealed God's love. Deep down, man has always longed to know the shape of the Almighty and to see the shape of Mystery Himself. Yet how could they? The answer was that the Omnipotence would take the form of helplessness. The hands that made the world would become hands too small to reach beyond a crib. He graciously put Himself in a form that we humans could comprehend (Colossians 2:9). He became as we are that we might understand Him as He is. In other words, Divinity became humanity. "What is God Like?" Men have always asked. Because of Bethlehem we can answer, "God is like Jesus." For incredible as it may sound, this man was God - God in the form we could understand.

good will this glad Holiday season—

SUFFERING NEEDLESSLY
TRY 'CHIROPRACTIC'

PHASES OF RECOVERY

Once an individual has been restored to health through application of nature's healing power released by chiropractic adjustments, and once normal vitality has been restored, all of the essential ingredients for health and self repair are in the body itself.

To maintain this power within the body, normal nerve function must be maintained so vital nerve energy can be efficiently channeled to all parts of the body.

With recovery an accomplished fact, a "preventive maintenance" program must be put into effect to assure that proper function continues and that no further disorders encroach upon the body by way of the nervous system.

A systematic schedule of chiropractic examinations and necessary adjustments to maintain an efficiently-operating nervous system can, and should, be arranged to protect that rosy glow of health.

Periodic checks at regular intervals will lend assurance that nerve interferences have not returned to cause further disorder and disease. Chiropractic care will assure a continuation of that healthy, happy feeling.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

P. O. Box 792
Senatobia, Miss. 38668
December 13, 1977

Editor
Tishomingo County News
Iuka, Miss. 38852

Dear Editor:

As I read the article, "A Salute by the 1977-78 Students", I could not help but go back in my mind to the days of Iuka High School.

Many times I have wished I had said "Thank You" to the teachers I had while at IHS, but like so many other, I failed to do so. Now, six years after graduation, I would like to say, "Thank you for being a part of my life" to each one.

This letter goes especially to Mrs. Edna Murr, whom we all love so much. Everyone knew she cared for the students, because if she thought something was bugging you, she would take time from her very busy schedule, call you into her office and say, "Hey, let's talk", and as the article read, "that means a lot to a kid".

I saw Mrs. Murr last summer at our five-year class reunion, and she was the same wonderful person I had known six years ago.

I shall never forget my teachers, particularly Mrs. Murr. She's one of the greatest assets Iuka High School could ever have, and I feel I can speak for the entire Class of '71.

Sincerely,
(Mrs.) Carolyn Bonds Chalk

EMERGENCY FEED PROGRAM:

The Tishomingo County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee now has the authority to implement the emergency livestock feed program. The Secretary of Agriculture has delegated this authority to the county ASC committee to be administered as an "on-going" program. This new program can be applied to individual farms on an as-needed basis.

To be eligible for assistance, a livestock owner must have suffered a substantial loss (at least 40 percent) in the feed normally produced on the owner's farm(s) for eligible livestock and be required to make feed purchases in quantities larger than normal.

Under the new program, eligible producers may be reimbursed for up to 50 percent of the cost of feed purchased for their eligible livestock not to exceed two cents per pound of feed grain equivalent.

January 31, 1978, is the final date for filing an application for emergency livestock feed assistance during the current crop year which ends April 14, 1978.

Livestock owners who have suffered a substantial loss of livestock feed because of a natural disaster which occurred after April 15, 1977, may file an application for emergency livestock feed assistance at the Tishomingo County ASC Office.

Office, New Agricultural Building, 205 Eastport Street, Iuka, Mississippi.

OLENE'S CAFE

Mr. and Mrs. David Lambert, of Burnsville, are proud to announce the arrival of a baby boy. The little lad was born November 14, 1977, at Northeast Medical Center in Tupelo.

He arrived weighing 8 lbs. 5 ozs., and has been named Robin Lee.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Rollen Lambert, Burnsville; and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Chilos, Chicago, Ill.

Robin has one brother, Jessie, age 8.

Mt. Gilead Honors Member

On December 4, 1977, John Riley Glenn was 91 years old, and many of his friends contacted him at this time with visits, calls and cards. Many of the church members drove to Florence after the 11:00 service and had birthday lunch with him.

As the day advanced Matthew 25:31-40 was brought to mind. Christ put the sheep on his right to receive their rewards and heavenly home, because they clothed, fed, visited and gave drink to Him through His children on earth.

Our father is neither naked of clothes, nor thirsty or hungry of physical food or water nor is he a prisoner, shackled and chained behind bars, but through your Christian love and concern you supplied spiritual clothes, food and water for our lovely Christian father.

That day will remain in our memory forever, because you broke the shackles and the chains and you removed the bars from his prison of virtually a chair and a bed. Disease, age and time eventually sentences all.

His family thanks you and God will continue to love and reward you for your love, concern and respect of our father.

Matthew 25:40 "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Where there is injury,

Where there is doubt,
faith
Where there is despair, hope Where there is

And where there is

O Divine Master,
grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Christmas Customs of Far Away, Long Ago

Every nation has its share of delightful Christmas customs, and although today many of those traditions are no longer strictly observed, some of these quaint customs are still remembered.

In Czechoslovakia, for instance, the Christmas season signaled the time to end quarrels, so that the new year could begin in a spirit of love and friendship. Thus, there was a great deal of visiting back and forth as everyone sought to patch up any misunderstandings. Caroling was also a popular custom in Czechoslovakia and as the carolers went about singing, they carried miniature Nativity scenes with them.

In France, the holiday season was the occasion for a comic scene. A huge wicker figure known as Melchior, carrying a basket and wearing colorful attire, would be strapped to a donkey and taken door to door, collecting food. All the poor of the parish would then be invited to come to the local church, where these food donations would be given to them.

Wreaths and chains made of brilliant tropical flowers offer a great contrast at Christmastime in the Philippines. There children parade and sing after mass, led by a band. Instead of a Christmas tree, there are flags, palms, and flowers in the home and a candle is kept burning in the window all night long.

In Sicily, a procession follows Christmas Eve services. With a waxen image of the Christ Child at the head of the procession, the celebrants wind their way through the town, while church bells ring and rockets flare.

A beautiful Polish custom would be observed when the first star of the evening appeared on Christmas Eve. Straw would be placed under the supper table, along with dishes and a tablecloth.
One chair would be left vacant for the Christ Child, as the head of the family broke and shared a "peace wafer", a symbol of peace on earth.

Another lovely custom comes from Ireland. There, on Christmas evening, candles are lighted and placed in each window and doors are left ajar. This is to symbolize the offering of hospitality to Joseph and Mary and the Holy Babe. The candles are left aglow all night long and are finally snuffed out by those answering to the name of Mary.

In Switzerland, children wait for the arrival of "Sa-nichlaus" on December 5th. Wearing a jolly mask, he boasts a white flowing beard, a fur-trimmed robe and carries a gray sack and staff.

Why the Christmas Tree Wears Icicles and Tinsel

One of the most beloved stories is about the little spiders and how they helped trim the tree.

According to the old tale,
one Christmas morning after the tree had been trimmed, it reposed there in all its glory, awaiting the children.

Every old house (and many a new) has spiders; curious creatures that they are, they wanted to see the lovely tree, too... not just from the floor, but up close.
So they crept all over it until they had satisfied themselves completely that the tree was indeed a wondrously beautiful thing. But as they crept, they left cobwebs... beautiful, also, to Nature's eyes, but not so attractive to mothers'.

When the Christ Child came to bless the tree, he realized that the mother of the household would be dismayed. So He touched the webs... and they all turned to silver.

Ever since that time,

Christmas trees are hung with shining tinsel.

Shining icicles are also part of the pretty Christmas picture. Another old story gives a reason.

Here's an old-fashioned kind of Merry Christmas full of heart-felt wishes for you to share, in the good will of the season, with those you hold near and dear.
And we also offer an old-fashioned "thank you" for the patronage and consideration you've shown us.

ONE FOR ME AND ONE FOR THEE

There's a feeling of expectation in the air—hope—good friends—good cheer! What is a better way to share the sentiments of the season than with a gift from you—your kitchen.

This easy to prepare no rise yeast dough makes up six 9-inch rolls of tender "goodness", that are filled with a mixture of nuts and DROMEDARY Chopped Dates. All cooks, novice or gourmet, will be delighted to give this gift from their kitchen.

DATE-NUT ROLLS

2 (8-ounce) packages DROMEDARY Chopped Dates
1/2 cup water
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
1 1/2 cups butter or margarine
1 cup chopped walnuts
1 cup milk
About 6 cups all-purpose flour
2 packages active dry yeast
4 eggs
2 teaspoons vanilla extract
3 teaspoons baking powder
Granulated Sugar

In a saucepan combine first four ingredients with 1/2 cup butter or margarine for filling. Cook over medium high heat stirring until thickened, about 3 to 5 minutes. Stir in nuts; cool. Heat milk and 1 cup butter or margarine until warm (120 to 130°F.). Combine 1 1/2 cups flour and yeast in large bowl of mixer. Add milk mixture; beat at medium speed 2 minutes. Add next two ingredients and 1 cup flour; beat at medium speed 2 minutes. Stir in remaining 3 1/2 cups flour, baking powder and 3 tablespoons sugar to make a soft dough. Add an additional 1/2 cup flour if necessary. Divide dough in half; cover half. Divide other half into 3 equal pieces. Roll each piece in granulated sugar to make a 9-inch square. Spread about 1/2 cup filling thinly to within 1/2-inch of edges; roll up.

Seal bottom edge. Repeat with other 2 pieces of dough.
Place 3 rolls on greased baking sheet and bake in a preheated moderate oven (350°F.) for 25-30 minutes or until lightly browned. Remove from baking sheet and cool. Repeat with remaining half of dough. Makes 6 (about 9-inch) rolls.

Consider Holiday Food Use Before Purchasing Eggs

MISSISSIPPI STATE —
When special recipes for eggnog, cakes, pies and cookies are pulled from the files for holiday food preparation, it's time to consider the type of eggs you should buy, suggests Ann Rushing, Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service marketing specialist.

"If you plan to use eggs in uncooked or lightly cooked dishes such as eggnogs and meringues, it is important to use only fresh, odor-free eggs, with clean, sound shells," says Mrs. Rushing.

Also consider quality when buying eggs. There are three quality consumer grades for eggs: U. S. Grade AA or Fresh Fancy, A and B.

The official U. S. grade shield on an egg carton indicates the eggs have been graded for quality and size under federal-state supervision. USDA's Agriculture Marketing Service provides the grading service on a voluntary basis to those companies who request and pay a fee for it.

Higher quality eggs will have thick whites and high, firm yolks. Lower quality eggs generally have thin whites and flat yolks.

The higher quality eggs —
AA and A — are ideal for all purposes, but are better than lower quality eggs for frying or poaching, where appearance is important. Lower quality eggs are fine for baking or for use when appearance of the egg doesn't matter.

"When buying eggs, remember that the grade designation does not indicate size.
This is because size and quality are not related," says Mrs.
Rushing. "For example, large eggs may be of high or low quality, and high quality eggs may be either large or small."

Each size category for eggs has a minimum weight requirement. The sizes most often seen are: extra large

(minimum weight per dozen 27 oz.); large (24 oz.);
medium (21 oz.).

Buy eggs only from refrigerated cases. Refrigerate promptly at home, keep up, to help maintain quality. Variations in temperature while the eggs are in the house cause egg whites to thin.

The Story of St. Joseph

miles—and the time for her to give birth was drawing near.

Upon their arrival in Bethlehem, there was nothing but trouble. Think how disappointed Joseph must have been when he could not find a room for Mary to deliver her first Child. After hours and hours of searching, he managed to locate a stable, where she could at least have some privacy.

There, Mary gave birth to Jesus... and both she and Joseph must have been overjoyed. Imagine Joseph's pride when he showed the Child to the shepherds, and his awe at the visit of the Magi, with their expensive gifts.

According to nonbiblical accounts, Mary and Joseph remained happily in Bethlehem for about a year. But they were troubled by reports that the jealous King Herod was inquiring about their Son's identity and whereabouts.

An angel came to him in a dream again, saying: "Arise and take the young Child and His mother, and flee into Egypt and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him".

Trusting the dream, Joseph obeyed unquestioningly and led Mary and the Child to Egypt.

In light of all these early events, it seems that Joseph must have been an extraordinary man—one who was not afraid of responsibility, who confronted problems head on, who was unflinchingly devoted to his family, and obedient to the will of God.

who could not afford the fine wines of the nobility, used a mixture of hot ale, sugar, nutmeg and ginger. Later on, Spanish sherry fortified with brandy became a popular base for the wassail.

Early wassail bowls frequently had toast and fruit floating on the top, and so the custom of drinking to one's health gradually came to be known as a "toast".

The Yule Log

The Persians gave the Yule log its name. It was the custom in Persia to cut down a tree and cut a section from its trunk. The section was round, and marked off into four segments representing the four seasons of the year.

This "calendar" was turned like a wheel and was called a Yole. The log from which it was cut was known as the Yole log.

With every season, the wheel was turned and a great fire kindled. The Yole log was placed in this fire, as the people prayed for good fortune during the coming season.

ALMS-GIVING CUSTOM

Giving alms to the poor at Christmas originated in the belief that the Christ child, disguised as a beggar during the holiday season, went from door to door in search of those who were kind and deserving. His test was to plead for aid and, as it was feared that He might be turned away unrecognized, none were refused who so asked.

Legend of the Wassail Bowl

As you raise your cup of kindness on Christmas or New Year's Day, keep in mind that you are continuing a tradition that dates back hundreds of years.

According to legend, the wassail bowl and the Christmas toast started with the same gesture. At the reception for an early

Germanic chieftain in Britain, the daughter of the chieftain offered a gold cup filled with wine to the host and said, "Waes hael hlaford Cyning" or "Be of health, Lord King."

The practice of drinking a wassail quickly became popular. The common people of the Middle Ages,

Chanukah: A Time for Festivities

Not only is December a time of festivities for Christians, it also ushers in a very special season for those of the Jewish faith.

On December 5th, Chanukah, also known as the Feast of Lights, begins. This festival lasts 8 days and commemorates the victory of the Maccabees over the Syrians in 165 B.C.

after a three-year struggle. The victorious Jews held festivities in the Temple of Jerusalem after overthrowing the Syrians, rededicating their temple to God.

Each year the Jewish people celebrate the feast of Chanukah by exchanging gifts, giving to the poor, enjoying special dishes and lighting the 8-branched had it before then — thanks to her German settlers and the Hessian soldiers who fought in the Revolution.

Today it is one of the most popular Christmas symbols.

Here in the United States, popcorn and tinsel, ornaments and electric lights, artificial snow and icicles decorate trees in homes and offices.

In Italy, the Christmas tree is not really a tree;

rather, it is a pyramid of shelves, called a ceppo. At the base of this wooden frame, there is often a manger scene, a presepio. Other tiers in the pyramid hold candy, fruit, small gifts and gilded pine cones. Lighted candles are placed at the corners of these shelves.

Sending Greetings

The custom of exchanging greetings at holiday time is older than Christmas. The custom of the Christmas greeting card, however, is a relatively new one.

Christmas cards originated about 125 years ago, in England. Despite this recent start, printed greetings quickly caught the public fancy and are today one of the most popular forms of Christmas holiday traditions.

Chanukah menorah, a candelabrum used especially for the occasion.

On the first evening of the Chanukah season, one candle is lit and a traditional prayer is said. On each following evening an additional candle is lit, until all eight candles gleam on the last evening.

Chanukah is an especially joyful time for children; in addition to receiving gifts, there are traditional games to be played. Not to mention all the delicious food that is served during this season, including pastries and candies.

Chanukah (sometimes spelled Hanukkah) lasts for eight days, in honor of the temple lights that remained miraculously lit for eight days and nights after the victorious celebration of the Maccabees.

You can be sure that Jewish children are delighted their festival lasts so long!

Christmas Tree Is a Tradition In Many Lands

What would the holiday season be without a Christmas tree? Part of the enchantment of childhood memories is the recollection of the family tree, gaily bedecked and surrounded by temptingly mysterious packages.

It is thought that the Christmas tree originated with the Alsations. We know for a fact that Prince Albert introduced it to Victorian England but interestingly enough, America

So they crept all over it until they had satisfied themselves completely that the tree was indeed a wondrously beautiful thing. But as they crept, they left cobwebs . . . beautiful, also, to Nature's eyes, but not so attractive to mothers'.

When the Christ Child came to bless the tree, he realized that the mother of the household would be dismayed. So He touched the webs . . . and they all turned to silver.

Ever since that time, Christmas trees are hung with shining tinsel.

Shining icicles are also part of the pretty Christmas picture. Another old story gives a reason.

One wintry night the Christ Child was wandering through a forest. It was cold and he knew he must find shelter for the night. The trees were bare. But a pine tree with low-hanging branches offered some protection from the wind.

When the pine tree, with its prescience that is known only to God, realized it was caring for the Christ Child, tears of joy fell from its branches. As they fell, they froze into icicles.

In the morning the pine tree had been transformed into a vision of dazzling brilliance.

And that is why at Christmastime we trim the tree with icicles.

Many years ago there existed a custom among the farm people on Christmas Eve to "light the animals to the stable."

The farmer would light two candles . . . one for himself and one for the shepherd boy assisting him. They held their flickering candles for a moment in the corners of the animals' stalls. Then each stood at one side of the doorway, while the animals were herded in. The candles were snuffed out, and the animals were served double rations, for was it not their Christmas celebration, too? They had shared their shelter with Him that first wonderful night.

One Christmas Eve the farmer's family readied themselves for Mass at the great Cathedral as was their custom.

In the stable the well-fed beasts drowsed contentedly. At midnight they were roused by the joyful pealing of the cathedral bells. As if by signal, the animals stirred themselves.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

Christmas in the United States Today

Although people may bemoan the passage of such charming Christmas customs as chopping down the Christmas tree and bringing it home on a sled, nonetheless there are still many delightful other rituals being observed today throughout the United States.

In many a town and city, youngsters will be donning robes and cardboard wings to enact the Nativity story before friends and family in the annual Christmas pageant.

Many churches today hold candlelight services as a highlight of the holiday season, with sacred music and Christmas carols performed by their choirs.

Churches and organizations alike have made baskets of food for the less fortunate a Christmas tradition, and many make a practice of collecting toys for under-privileged youngsters.

And although Americans may not be able to trek into the woods to chop down their own trees nowadays, what many are doing is much more conservation-minded: displaying live Christmas trees in their homes for the holidays, then donating them to parks for replanting!

Speaking of displays, today's electric lights enable us to create dazzling outdoor decorations during the holiday season. Neighborhoods now vie with one another to put on the most colorful, imaginative displays that often attract sightseers from miles around.

And while we may complain about the increasing commercialization of Christmas, more and more Americans are taking the time and effort to make their holiday gifts.

Door-to-door caroling may not be the practice today, but there are many church groups and clubs that make it a point to go caroling at hospitals and convalescent homes, bringing holiday cheer.

BACH'S MUSIC ADDS TO JOY OF CHRISTMAS

Of all the inspiring music that is heard at Christmastime, none can excel the glorious sounds of Johann Sebastian Bach.

A deeply religious man, Bach through his music conveys to us all the rich heritage of his German background and the fruits of his genius are never more inspiring than during the holiday season.

Bach's "Christmas Oratorio" consists of six cantatas that feature a narrative of New Testament readings, interspersed with arias and chorales. This work was originally performed on six separate days: on three days at Christmastime, New Year's Day, the following Sunday and on the feast of the Epiphany.

The "Christmas Oratorio" is still performed by choirs here in the United States at Christmastime, although not in its entirety.

Another Bach favorite at Christmastime is his "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" from Cantata No. 147. The rich choral measures and melodic background of this beautiful work, together with the worshipful text, cannot but inspire devotion in the hearer:

"Jesu, joy of man's desiring, holy wisdom siring love most bright, through the way where hope is guiding, hark, what peaceful music rings!"

Bach died in comparative obscurity in 1750 and for many years his works were forgotten. But today his genius is recognized, and shines forth brightly before all men during the holy season.

PALESTINE
At Christmas time, thousands of pilgrims from over the world come to visit the birthplace of Jesus. They go to the Church of the Nativity which is over the sacred place. First they enter the old, then they descend the Grotto of the Nativity. There, a Latin mass is said on a silver star which says, "Here, of the Virgin Mary, Jesus Christ was born."

This is where Christmas began. And the many tombs around the world people of all lands celebrate this joyous event.

Noel is the term used for Christmas in France.

Advent Prepares Faithful for Coming Christmas Season

Advent is that period that begins four Sundays before Christmas, and in many churches it is observed as a time of preparation for the coming holiday.

In some homes, an Advent wreath is prominently displayed as a reminder of the coming event. It can be just a circular frame, entwined with fir branches or other greenery, but it always has four candles placed upon it. During the Advent season, three of these candles are violet and one is rose. The violet color symbolizes repentance and the rose symbolizes joy. Often matching ribbons are tied around each candle.

On the first Sunday in Advent, only one candle is lit, one of the violet ones. Families may pray together during this lighting ceremony. In some homes, the father offers this prayer after the candle is lit:

"God our Father, we pray that this wreath will be for us a sign that you are always with us and that you never leave us. We want to always be in your presence and never leave you because of selfishness or hate. Let your blessing be on us and may this wreath point out to us that you bless us every day."

On the second Sunday of Advent, two violet candles are lit. On the third Sunday, two violet candles and the rose candle are lit. This Third Sunday is known in church calendars as Gaudete Sunday, a day of rejoicing because Christ is approaching.

On the fourth Sunday of Advent, all four candles are lit.

There is much symbolism involved in the custom of the Advent wreath, which serves as a reminder to the faithful that Christ, the light of the world, dispels the darkness of sin, ignorance, and hate.

The circle, since it has no beginning nor end, symbolizes eternity and God.

The wreath is traditionally made of evergreen. Green is the color of hope, life, and growth.

A white candle may be placed in the center of the Advent wreath, to symbolize Christ.

On Christmas Eve this Christ candle is lighted, signifying that He who is the light, has been born.

Although the Advent wreath is not widely known here in the United States, it is an old Christian custom that is still observed in many homes and churches today.

The Legend of St. Winfred

A legend about St. Winfred, who was a missionary to the Scandinavians in the 8th century, explains the origin of the Christmas tree.

It seems that St. Winfred was cutting down a large oak tree, when suddenly a young fir tree sprang up in its place. The missionary declared this miraculous tree to be holy and gave it to the Scandinavians to commemorate the birth of the Savior.

in Barcelona gifts arrive on January 6

About the time when most westerners think about taking the tree down and "putting Christmas away for another year", across the ocean, in Spain, the season is reaching its height.

On January 6, Twelfth Night or King's Day, as it is called in Spain, gifts are given.

King's Day celebrates the first Christmas when the Wise Men or Three Kings brought gifts to the Child in Bethlehem.

The Kings are so important there that they take the place of Father Christmas.

Realism Reflected at Christ's Birthplace

In the Middle East, where Christ lived, Christmas has a touch of realism. The patriarch comes from Jerusalem with a troop of cavalry in gorgeous array. The service lasts from 10 p.m. until long after midnight.

After the reading of the gospel the clergy and congregation leave the church and journey to the Grotto of the Nativity.

Trimmed Christmas trees first appeared in the United States probably during the American Revolution. Hessian soldiers with the British forces started the practice

For Kissing

Secular and religious Christmas customs met in the old English "kissing bunch." This evergreen ball had mistletoe, for kissing, hung from the center.

But it also contained small dolls to represent Jesus, Mary and Joseph, as well as an array of fruits and colorful ornaments.

With fond hopes that all your holiday dreams come true, we send you our best wishes for a Merry Christmas.

"I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day..."

Silver bells, jingle bells, sleigh bells... it's hard to imagine Christmas without some sort of chiming or ringing. But bells were not initially part of the holiday celebration.

The first large bell for a Christian church was installed in Italy, about the 5th century A.D., and the custom of Christmas bell-ringing really didn't become firmly established until the Middle Ages, in England.

In that era, Christmas chimes began at vespers on the first Sunday of Advent and were repeated on successive Sundays. Then, on each of the last three mornings before Christmas, the bells announced the approach of the big day.

From sunset on December 24 to sunset on December 25, bells could be heard every hour. Occasional peals rang out in between hours for no particular reason.

But the most important part of the tolling occurred during the hour before midnight on Christmas Eve, when the bells were rung as if someone were dying. At midnight the death knell changed to a joyous peal, announcing the death of Satan and the birth of the Christ Child.

To the people of the Middle Ages, the sound of the Christmas bells recalled the song of the angels on that first holy night.

of another harvest.

Evergreens alone attested to the return of light and life and the revival of the sun god. The primitives brought them inside in tubs, to protect the spirits of the woods and to bolster family courage through the dark winter days.

St. Nicholas Precursor of Our Modern-Day Santa

Legend has it that the figure of our present-day Santa Claus is rooted in the personality of St. Nicholas, fourth-century bishop of Myra, Turkey.

According to reports, Nicholas was just a boy when he became bishop. He loved to give the poor gifts, but hated to be thanked for them. Many miracles are attributed to him, but during his lifetime he was noted primarily for his kindness.

Often he delivered gifts to the needy at night. One story tells of how he presented a bag of gold to each of three girls as a dowry. The girls' father was impoverished, and was about to give them up to a life of shame. Nicholas rescued them, and his good deed later formed the basis for the giving of gifts in secret on the Eve of St. Nicholas. The custom was eventually transferred to Christmas.

It was the Dutch colonists who brought the custom of Saint Nicholas and gift-giving to the United States. The tradition spread rapidly, but English-speaking children could pronounce the word "Niklaas", and the name to "Santa Claus".

Yuletide Tree Has Origins in Primitive Beliefs

How about decorating your tree with apples and round wafers this year? They may not be as colorful as the glittering balls and ornaments you normally use, but they're more in keeping with the early methods of tree-trimming.

The tree is a symbol of immortality, the apples stand for sin, and the round wafers mean redemption. That, at least, is the way Christians after the 15th century saw it.

They took the Paradise Tree (symbol of the fall of man in the miracle plays of the Middle Ages), brought it into their homes, and used it as a lesson in morality for their children.

Over the years, the religious aspects of the tree gave way to pure decoration. The apples were replaced by ornaments; the wafers, by stars, moons, men and animals.

The tree itself is steeped in traditions that date back to even earlier times.

In the cold North, primitive men watched the approach of winter with fear. They saw the sunlight dwindle, the days grow short and the fields freeze up. There seemed no hope

Decorate Your Entrance With Foliage And Berries

MISSISSIPPI STATE — During the Christmas season, decorations create a warm atmosphere for homes and offices. The entrance is an area that calls for attention, says Jim Perry, landscape horticulturist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

Choose a door piece to complement the entrance by enhancing the arrival area. A wreath or swag that is large, he warns. Home office doors are usually about three feet wide, so a 15-inch or 18-inch diameter wreath is in good proportion. Door swags for a standard door look best if the swag is no larger than 18 inches wide and 30 inches long.

In choosing plant materials, consider fresh foliage and berries, suggests the specialist. Among the most popular shrubs with colorful fruits are the Burford's Chinese holly, hybrid American hollies, pyracantha and nandina. This is an exceptionally good year for using foliage and fruits since plants in most areas have many berries, Perry notes.

If red berries won't fit your color scheme, cluster fruit of the Chinaberry (beige), cherry laurel or privet (black), barberry or waxmyrtle (blue gray), or the Chinese tallow tree (cream/white), suggests the horticulturist. Consider using pine cones, he adds.

Evergreen foliage are excellent for background and filler material. In Mississippi, available shrubs and trees which are easy to find and use are short leaf pine, spruce pine, deodar cedar, waxmyrtle (bayberry), cherry laurel, arbovitae, eastern red cedar, magnolia and viburnum. These are also good for a solid green wreath, Perry points out.

The traditional wreath of Burford's Chinese holly is a favorite. For an attractive wreath, clip holly from shrubs in the home landscape. Cut branch tips to three or four inches and wire to a three-inch wooden pick. Place picked holly in a straw wreath base. Picks and wreath may be bought from a professional florist. With proper care, picks and wreath base can be used for years by carefully removing the holly and storing the wreath base and picks indoors until next Christmas, Perry explains.

Two types of door swags may also be made with landscape plant materials, explains the specialist. The pine swag is accented with a cluster of brilliant red nandina berries and a red bow. To construct, simply tie pine boughs together with string or wire. Then tie berry clusters and bow onto the pine for the finishing touch. Another swag may be made from three small pyracantha branches, tied together beneath a bow. Choose a bow to complement the door coloring and the orange/red fruit.

BETHLEHEM'S STAR INSPIRES SPECULATION

"And, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was."

This description by Matthew of the Wise Men's visit to the Christ Child has caused speculation for centuries about the nature of that star.

While some believe that there is no natural explanation for this star seen "in the east" by the Wise Men, others have attempted to find an astronomical explanation for the phenomenon.

It is important to realize how much the people of Christ's time depended on astrology, scientists have pointed out.

A configuration of Jupiter, Saturn and Mars that occurred in February of 6 B.C. is considered as a possibility in searching for the star of Bethlehem. It is believed that such a massing of planets must have been quite spectacular, and of sufficient import to have caused the Magi to travel great distances. Since the exact year of Christ's birth is not known, (the year A.D. 1 was selected by Dionysius in the mistaken idea that Jesus was born in the 28th year of the reign of Emperor Augustus) this date is a distinct possibility.

Another explanation is that the "star" was in fact the glow caused by Jupiter passing Saturn in the year 6 B.C.

Whatever the explanation for the star of Bethlehem — natural or supernatural — the faithful will continue to follow its guiding light to find the Infant

Jesus, even as the Wise Men did two thousand years ago.

A Christmas Project for the Youngsters

Children love making decorations and Christmas-time is an especially good time to put that creative energy of theirs to work!

Here's a holiday project that they will enjoy, because it is so easy and afterwards, they will have a charming decoration for their room:

Start with two 9 x 12 felt squares, (these are obtainable already cut, if you like) one red, one green.

Construct a triangle for youngsters to use as a pattern, by drawing a 6" line on cardboard, then drawing another line in the middle of straight line at a right angle, to 6" height; connect the 3 points to form a triangle and cut out.

Have youngsters cut green felt to this pattern, also cutting a small square (about 1 x 1") to serve as tree stand. Using double-faced tape or glue, have them affix "tree" and "stand" to red felt. Now have them tape or glue the whole thing onto 9 x 12 cardboard. With a single-hole punch, let them punch holes around border of red felt (4 on top and bottom, 5 on each side will do) and then give them green yarn to draw through holes, with yarn tied into bow at the bottom. They can then tie a shorter piece of yarn to end holes on top, for hanging.

This simple little project will keep children amused for quite awhile and give them a feeling of accomplishment as they view their work of art.

The poor little drummer boy was very sad that first Christmas, for he had no gift to offer the Infant Jesus.

But then he thought, "Perhaps I can play my drum for the Baby Jesus." He played his very best and was rewarded with a smile from the Infant, for the gift he gave was the gift of love, and that is the most precious gift of all.

A Christmas Blessing

This poem, by the famed James Whitcomb Riley (1849-1916), of Indiana, starts with the conclusion of "The Christmas Dinner of the Cratchits."

"God bless us every one!" prayed Tiny Tim, Crippled and dwarfed of body, yet so tall Of soul, we tiptoe earth to look on him, High towering over all.

He loved the loveless world, nor dreamed, indeed, That it at best could give him, the while, But pitying glances, when his only need Was but a cheery smile.

And thus he prayed, "God bless us every one!" Enfolding all the creeds within the span Of his child-heart; and so, desiring none, Was nearer saint than man.

I like to fancy God, in Paradise, Lifting a finger o'er the rhythmic swing Of chiming harp and song, with eager eyes Turned earthward, listening —

The Anthem stilled — the angels leaning there Above the golden walls — the morning sun Of Christmas bursting flower-like with the prayer, "God bless us every one!"

CHRISTMAS IN MEXICO IS MADE FESTIVE WITH PINATA

In Mexico, the celebration of the holiday season begins in earnest nine days before Christmas. During this time the posadas are observed.

Celebrants form a procession behind figures representing Mary and Joseph, and go about from house to house, asking for posada or lodging. Inside the homes, other celebrants enact the role of the innkeepers who refused Mary and Joseph lodging in Bethlehem.

After being told that there is "no room at the inn", the celebrants are at last admitted to one of the homes, and the fiesta begins.

The highlight of this celebration is the smashing of the pinata by youngsters. A clay pot, filled with nuts and candies and other trinkets, and imaginatively decorated with paper-mache, is strung up on a rope; each youngster is blindfolded in turn and allowed to take a swing at the pinata with a stick. Since the rope can be pulled each time a youngster swings at it, many blows are usually required, with much shouting on the part of onlookers, before the pinata is finally broken and goodies cascade upon the delighted youngsters.

The tradition of the pinata was actually brought to Mexico during the 16th century by Europeans. Although it is no longer a tradition in Europe, the custom of breaking a candy-filled pot has flourished in Mexico.

Christmas in Mexico is a blend of both religious significance and merry-making, much as it is in the United States. And of all the Mexican customs currently enjoyed south of the border, none is merrier than the breaking of the pinata.

PERSONALIZED PACKAGES

Personalize your Christmas packages this year—with handmade salt sculpture "nametags."

To make the dough, combine one cup Morton® Salt and two cups flour. Mix them well. (Be sure NOT to use self-rising flour.) Next, add one cup water, a little at a time, mixing as you pour, to form the dough into a ball. Knead the dough for about ten minutes until it is smooth and firm. Place dough that won't be used right away into a plastic bag to keep it from drying.

Then—you're ready to sculpt! For nametags, roll out long piece of dough until it is about the thickness of a breadstick. Shape letters of name from one continuous piece on the cookie sheet for the handwritten effect. Or, make each letter individually, as in printing, joining letters by moistening both edges with water and pressing them together.

For more elaborate letters, braid or twist dough pieces before shaping, if desired. When name is completed, tiny aspic cookie cutters can be used to add further decorations—bells, stars or small flowers—to the letters.

To bake, set cookie sheet in the oven at 325 degrees. Allow them to bake for one half hour for each 1/2-inch thickness until hard and golden brown.

For a natural brown finish, brush the pieces with egg or milk during baking. Or, paint to match holiday wrapping paper after they are cooled. Be sure to finish up with a good coat of lacquer, varnish or shellac to seal all sides from moisture and humidity.

How to attach to the Christmas package? Just loop an extra piece of ribbon from the bow through one letter of the name. For more firm attachment, add tape to the back side to connect sculpture to the box.

And, when the packages are open, hang the name on the holiday tree!

For more salt sculpture ideas, send $1.00, check or money order, to "Dough-It-Yourself Handbook," Box 9067, Kankakee, Illinois 60901. Allow up to six weeks delivery. Void where taxed, restricted or prohibited by law.

Tradition Has It That Yule Tree Began in Egypt

The Christmas tree, now almost a universal symbol, probably came to America from Germany, although tradition has it that Christmas trees originated in Egypt. The palm tree is supposed to put forth a branch every month, and a spray of this tree, with 12 shoots on it, was used in Egypt.

German writers mention the tree as early as 1605. The German Emperor Albert, consort of Victoria, introduced Christmas tree in England when he had a tree for his daughter.

The Legend of The Very First Poinsettia

Have you ever seen a poinsettia? It's a beautiful, red flower with a yellow center, that people like to decorate with at Christmas-time.

There is a lovely legend about how the poinsettia came to be and it begins in Mexico, a country that is just south of the United States.

There was a young boy who was very sad one Christmas Eve. You see, in his little town it was the custom to offer gifts to the Christ Child. People would come to the church on Christmas Eve and place their gifts upon the altar.

But Manuelito, as we shall call him, was very poor. He had no gift to bring before the Infant Jesus.

Too shy to go inside the church without a gift, he knelt outside a window and began to pray. We don't know what Manuelito said, but perhaps he was telling the Holy Infant how sorry he was that he did not have a gift to offer. For that is what prayer is, you know; talking to God.

As he rose to his feet, he noticed a beautiful red flower growing in the very spot where he had knelt. Amazed, he bent down to examine the flower. He had never seen one like it before. Suddenly he realized that this lovely flower was a gift from heaven, an answer to his prayer!

Joyfully, Manuelito plucked the flower and carried it inside, to lay before the altar.

And that is why the poinsettia is known as "The Flower of the Holy Night" in Mexico.

Santa's Moving To Take Lead As Gift-Giver

More and more, Santa becomes the favored gift-giver in countries around the world, replacing a host of legendary figures who were said to bring gifts at this same season of the year.

Gift-giving time, too, is now more likely to be Christmas Eve, although the traditional date in European countries once ranged from St. Nicholas Eve, December 5th, to Epiphany Eve, January 5th.

Among the many who set the trend for Santa Claus is the German gift-giver, Kris Kringle. The name is a variation of Christkind—not the Infant Jesus himself, but his messenger who came to earth at Christmastime.

Christkind was represented by a child dressed in white robes, with a crown and wings of gold.

In Japan, the traditional gift-giver is a native god, Hoteiosho. Represented as a kindly old man with a pack on his back, he is much like visions of the traditional Santa.

He is said to have eyes in the back of his head, the better to see whether boys and girls have been naughty or nice.

In Yugoslavia, Grandfather Frost — "Dede Mraz" — replaces Santa Claus.

The Yugoslavian trend is to combine Christmas and New Year holidays, and celebrate them together with Grandfather Frost Day.

FETTUCINE DI PARMA — A CLASSIC DISH WITH A NEW TWIST

It is no wonder Italians love pasta! It's delicious, hearty, easy to prepare, and so very versatile. Two main types of pasta are found in Italy today. Pasta Bolognese, produced in the north, is generally flat and ribbon shaped. Prepared and cooked fresh at home, it is usually made with eggs. In the south of Italy the pasta resembles closely what we have in the United States. Pasta 'Napolitana is tubular, made without eggs and is purchased in a dried form.

One of the most popular forms of pasta bolognese is fettucine. Its classic preparation with butter, cream and Parmesan cheese is called Fettucine Alfredo. Create a sensational budget variation of this famous dish by adding chopped cooked ham, black olives and seasonings. Simple, yes, but what a flavor! Modernize too, by substituting spread for butter. Blue Bonnet Light, Tasty Spread adds a rich buttery taste that will make Fettucine di Parma one of your family's favorites.

A good crisp salad is a must with pasta. Add sliced cooked eggs for extra tastes, nutrition and eye appeal. End your meal the Italian way—with a selection of fresh fruit.

FETTUCINE DI PARMA

1 box (8-ounce) medium egg noodles
1/2 cup heavy cream

1 egg yolk
1/4 cup Blue Bonnet Light, Tasty Spread melted
1/4 pound (1 cup) freshly grated Parmesan cheese
3/4 cup (1/4 pound) chopped cooked ham
1/2 cup sliced pitted ripe black olives
2 tablespoons chopped parsley

Cook noodles according to package directions.

Meanwhile, beat together cream and egg yolk. Stir in Blue Bonnet Light, Tasty Spread. Drain noodles. Combine noodles, cream mixture, cheese, ham, olives and parsley. Toss gently until ingredients are well distributed. Serve immediately. Makes 3 servings.

growing uniformity in the ways that people everywhere choose to mark the holiday.

Yesteryear's customs, however, still have their place in modern celebrations. It's a case of "the more things change, the more they stay the same," as countries, communities and individuals seek to cherish and preserve their own special holiday traditions.

Some of these traditions, as treasured in memory or kept alive in holiday ritual, are compiled in the following paragraphs, according to information from the editors of Encyclopedia International.

In Denmark, lighted candles are placed on the tree along with Danish confections of colored paper, with hearts of candy tucked into the branches. Celebrants dance around the lighted tree, singing "First we'll look at the tree, later we'll eat it," a traditional Danish song.

Although the Christmas tree may vary from country to country, wherever it is used, it is a symbol of hope and expectation.

News of Christ's Birth First Told to Shepherds

"And there were in the country shepherds watching over their flock by night."

So begins the scriptural account of the most thrilling announcement ever made to mankind: the birth of Jesus. It was not made, interestingly enough, to the rich and powerful or even to one of the many prophets that the tiny country of Israel seemed to produce in such abundance during biblical times.

The "good news" that the Messiah had at last come to a waiting world was first announced to a group of shepherds tending their flock through the night, St. Luke tells us. Even though Christ was probably not born during the winter, when we traditionally celebrate his birth (scientists believe that it actually occurred in the springtime) the shepherds were probably doing their best to keep warm in the chill night air; one can imagine them huddled around a fire, perhaps making the lonely hours pass with occasional conversation.

Suddenly, there is a dazzling sight; so dazzling that, St. Luke tells us, "they were sore afraid". The angel that appeared in the midst of them sought to reassure them, saying "Fear not; for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people".

The angel describes the Christ Child to the awestruck shepherds and soon they see an even more dazzling sight... a multitude of the heavenly host praising God.

With the words of the angels echoing in their ears - "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men" - the amazed shepherds decide that they will go into Bethlehem and see this wonderful event for themselves. And so they went to Bethlehem "with haste", the scriptures say, to find Mary and Joseph with the Christ Child lying in a manger.

No further mention is made of those shepherds in the scriptures... they appear on the horizon at a momentous time in history, only to disappear.

form of snowflakes are hexagonal columns and long, slender, needle-like columns.

Tabular forms are the most varied and beautiful snow crystals, assuming delicate, starry, branching forms. It is these crystals that have drawn the awe and admiration of scientists and lay persons alike for centuries.

Naturalists have attempted to draw these fragile patterns in earlier times and more recently have made photo-micrographs of the crystals. Perhaps part of the fascination of snowflakes is their fleeting nature, enhancing the ethereal quality of their beauty.

Although we understand the process through which snowflakes are formed, thanks to science, we can never lose that sense of wonder and admiration at the first snowfall.

SNOWFLAKES AROUSE AWE, ADMIRATION

Among the many delights of Christmastime are those wondrous bits of crystal we call snowflakes. Is there any pastime more pleasant than watching the first snowfall of the season?

While scientists may describe snowflakes as water vapor in the air that has crystallized into geometrical forms, most snowflake fanciers prefer a term such as "snow blossoms". Although two snowflakes are rarely alike, they do fall into two distinct categories, columnar and tabular. Most of them are transparent, with brilliant facets that reflect light, giving them a white appearance when massed.

Poster Girl Proves There's Hope for Children with Birth Defects

by Arthur J. Salisbury, M.D.
Vice President for Medical Services
The National Foundation-March of Dimes

The disfiguring disease rickets was finally conquered more than 50 years ago with the discovery that vitamin D brought about striking cures. Under this regimen a child's distorted and softened bones would strengthen and straighten.

But gradually doctors noticed that while the vast majority of children with rickets were cured by this treatment, others weren't. Not until 1937 was it found that some patients needed at least 100 times the normal dosage of vitamin D. Then it was clear this type of rickets was due not to a deficient diet, but to some other problem.

Researchers learned that these children had vitamin D-resistant rickets, an inherited disorder, traced to a defective gene on the X chromosome.

Patients with this birth defect of body chemistry do not retain calcium or phosphates from foods. Because these minerals are necessary for normal bone formation, rickets result.

Denise's fight
Denise Nankivell, 1978 March of Dimes National Poster Child, has vitamin D-resistant rickets. Her father, uncle, and grandmother also have it. When Denise was six months old, her legs started to bow. Tests at The Milton S. Hershey Medical Center in Pennsylvania confirmed vitamin D-resistant rickets.

At age two Denise had surgery to straighten her legs. She wore casts and braces to prevent her legs from bowing. Initially, doctors thought she would need to wear braces through adolescence, but Denise responded to treatment so well that her braces have been removed for a four-month trial period.

Denise takes large doses of phosphate and vitamin D daily. This treatment allows correct bone formation and also seems to be important in assuring normal growth.

Finding the right dosage of phosphates and vitamin D requires sophisticated skill. Too much phosphate causes diarrhea. The high dosage of vitamin D needed is nearly toxic and can cause weakness and weight loss. Overdosage can cause kidney damage and eventually death. Denise's calcium and phosphate levels are checked monthly. The doctors also monitor her growth. So far, it is normal.

A puzzling inheritance

When doctors first investigated vitamin D-resistant rickets, it wasn't clear how it was inherited. An examination of the patient's family tree often failed to reveal any ancestors with rickets. Not until doctors began using blood phosphates as an indicator did a clear inheritance pattern emerge.

Family studies indicate that vitamin D-resistant rickets is caused by an abnormal gene on the X chromosome. According to the laws of heredity, if a man has the disorder all of his daughters will also be affected, but none of his sons. If a woman has the disorder, all of her children—boys or girls—have a 50-50 chance of receiving the faulty gene.

Problems and outlook

Most children with vitamin D-resistant rickets never grow to normal height for several reasons. Often diagnosis and treatment is started after deformities and growth retardation have become serious, especially for children with no clear family history of the disorder.

Also, it is very difficult to maintain medication in the growing years. If vitamin D overdose occurs, treatment may have to stop and not be reinstated until active rickets reappear so that the benefits of therapy are lost. In severe cases, patients show little benefit from doses of vitamin D high enough to risk kidney damage.

Through its birth defects research program, The National Foundation-March of Dimes supports scientists who are trying to pinpoint the flaw in body chemistry that interferes with the body's absorption of minerals. Their findings may lead to new methods of treatment that will benefit children who cannot yet be helped.

Understanding Children

GIFTS FOR ALL AGES

Getting Christmas presents for children is a matter of understanding what THEY really want and need—and not only what YOU think they enjoy.

For grandparents the problem sometimes seems extra tough. There has to be a different gift for each child, everyone has to get equal treatment and the presents Mom and Dad already bought should not be duplicated.

GIFT OF BOOKS—Children enjoy and learn at the same time.

A lot of problems can be solved, however, by giving books, since knowledge is perhaps the most precious gift of all. There are two book collections that children find especially enjoyable. Childcraft—The How and Why Library is a unique collection of books designed to make learning fun for 3 to 10-year-olds. And parents enjoy it, too. World Book, the world's largest selling encyclopedia, gives the whole family an instant reference library. It's easy to use, timely, authoritative and filled with thousands of colorful illustrations.

For information on either collection or both, you can call a representative in your neighborhood. They're listed in the Yellow Pages under "Encyclopedias."

With a gift of knowledge you'll be giving a child something that will last a lifetime.

It's fresh cranberry time and those plump, ruby hued, native American berries are in markets now and raring to be scooped up and cooked. These crimson berries of the bogs can be used in so many ways, in soups and stews, relishes and sauces, breads, buns and pies.

With fresh cranberries at their peak of color and flavor, it's a fine idea to buy a good quantity now and freeze what you don't use for later. To freeze, simply pop the unopened containers into the freezer. When ready to use frozen cranberries, just follow the directions for any fresh cranberry recipe. Here's a splendid one for a delicious pie which is as pleasing to the taste buds as to the eye. It will make a perfectly marvelous finale to a family dinner or a festive company occasion.

CRANBERRY ALMOND APPLE PIE

(Makes one 9-inch pie)

6 medium green cooking apples, peeled, cored and sliced
1 cup Ocean Spray fresh or frozen fresh cranberries rinsed and drained
1/4 cup flour
3 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
Dash salt

1 unbaked 9-inch pie shell with a high fluted edge
1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1/4 cup flour
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup chopped toasted almonds
Whipped cream for garnish
Cranberries for garnish

Combine apples, cranberries, flour, butter, sugar, nutmeg and salt. Pour into pie shell. Combine remaining ingredients and mix until crumbly. Sprinkle crumbs over top of pie. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350°F.) for 50 to 60 minutes, or until apples are tender. Cool thoroughly before cutting into wedges. Garnish pie with sweetened whipped cream and cranberries.

Holiday Hints

There are three things you should keep in mind when buying presents for young people between the ages of 5 and 9.

1. Be sure the gift is safe. Avoid toys with knife-sharp points.
2. Look for something a child can learn from. Some gifts can make education entertaining.
3. Present a present that will please the parents too. Don't give something too large for the house or too noisy for the neighborhood.

A TOY THAT TEACHES

can keep many youngsters—and their parents—happy for a long time to come.

One gift that seems to make sense is an educational calculator. More than a toy, it's an entertaining electronic flash card that poses about 16,000 mathematical problems on four levels of achievement. It's easy to use. The child just pushes the button of the answer he thinks is right and the calculator tells him if it is, or what the right answer should be.

It comes in child-pleasing colors with a big bonus activity booklet called "Fun with Math" that includes puzzles, pictures and activities for children, plus comprehensive instruction and helpful hints for parents. Called the "Little Professor," it comes from Texas Instruments, makers of top quality products, and even has its own carrying strap.

It all adds up to a good gift for the little professor who's number one on your list.

"He that can endure all can dare all." Vauvenargues

HANDY GIFT—Hand tools are a present just about anyone can use.

Can Christmas Trees Produce A Wheeze

They can, according to Dr. John F. Busey, of the Mississippi Lung Association. For the two million children under 17 who have asthma, the Christmas season harbors a number of allergens that can bring on an attack.

First is the seemingly harmless Christmas tree. Mold often begins to accumulate on the branches, especially if the tree has been cut several weeks before. When the tree begins to dry out, the mold spores are released. The spores are an allergen for many people, says Dr. Busey of the Christmas Seal organization.

"Be sure to pick your gifts for the asthma sufferer carefully," Dr. Busey adds. "Pets often are poor gifts, since their skin flakes and dandruff are highly allergenic. Stuffed toy animals, too, can produce an attack. They retain dust and can become a home for the house dust mite."

The Mississippi Lung Association warns that all clothing should be washed before it is put on for the first time. The finishing materials used by the manufacturer can be a potent allergen.

"Even colognes, perfumes, scented soap and other such products can produce an allergic reaction in the severe asthmatic," says Dr. Busey.

Asthma victims also should be careful what they eat during the holiday season, says the Christmas Seal Association. Many people are allergic to milk, eggs, nuts, wheat or artificial coloring.

Proper medication and avoidance of the irritating substances can help defuse or prevent most asthmatic attacks. Additionally, education on asthma can help parents and asthmatic children understand the disease. "Willie and the Wheeze" and "The Strange

Case of the White Rabbit" are two booklets recently added to the Mississippi Lung Association education program, and are available free of charge, upon request.

The Mississippi Lung Association and more than 200 other lung associations throughout the United States fight asthma and other lung diseases; Christmas Seal contributions are a major source of this important work, Dr. Busey said. He urges you to answer your Christmas Seal appeal promptly and generously. If you wish more Christmas Seals or information about asthma, contact the Mississippi Lung Association, P.O. Pooh's Party Special

First, Pooh Bear sings a happy tune about all the yummy ingredients — brown sugar, peanut butter, chopped nuts and vanilla pudding and pie filling. But because his culinary talents are generally thought to be limited to removing the top from a pot of honey, he'd be sure to overlook the enriched self-rising flour, milk and eggs.

More experienced bakers would recognize the convenience of using enriched self-rising flour with its premix of salt and leavening. They'd also note the goodness of the B-vitamins — niacin, thiamin, and riboflavin — plus the minerals, iron and calcium, packed into every bag of self-rising flour.

The 65+ Waiting Game Affects America's Elderly

MISSISSIPPI STATE — If you are over 65, you have exited from what society calls "productive living" and entered into the waiting game — waiting for life to end or begin!

In the past, American society in general has been somewhat callous toward its elderly and has been prone to push aside its 65+ citizens, said John Lovitt, program specialist, Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service. Many elderly persons have been discriminated against by fixed pensions or social security benefits coupled with rising costs in housing, hospitalization, drugs and transportation. It is true that some elderly have been secluded and segregated in nursing homes and in the community. Younger Americans live at such a fast pace that most can find little time for an aging aunt or retired grandfather. It is no wonder that many older citizens feel unloved, unwanted and consumed with loneliness — eager for the waiting game to end.

"Times are changing though, and this just tolerant attitude is become an attitude of the past," said Lovitt. "America is slowly recognizing the fact that older citizens are one of our most influential, powerful and essential resources."

This year there are more than 20 million Americans age 65 and over. That is 10 per cent of our total population. More and more towns, cities and counties are developing multi-purpose centers where opportunities for recreation, fellowship, arts and crafts are provided. Individual churches are organizing to meet the basic needs of their own 65+ members by providing such things as food, clothing, and transportation. Every day more businesses, small and large, are offering "specials" for senior citizens like lower prices for tickets to movies or dinners in restaurants. These examples prove that America does care — the elderly are no longer outcasts, but are very important persons.

Our communities are beginning to realize the important gifts older persons offer in terms of service. Elementary and high schools are effectively using the talents of senior citizens for tutoring and reading aides. Youth courts are supervising situations where foster grandparents are providing warmth, love and guidance to juveniles in need. "America has just begun to tap the resources of the talents and experience of our senior citizens — and that's exciting," exclaimed Lovitt. "For those participating, this waiting game is a new beginning," he said. "For the first time, there are ample hours to pursue personal interests and hobbies or activities that the job did not allow before. For the first time, there are minutes to spare for an inquisitive youngster or an ailing friend. For the first time, energies can be channeled into areas that truly offer fulfillment in the realm of human relationships."

"It has been explained Lovitt, 'that time and talents are not into something bigger and far more exciting yourself. The waiting provides just a little time, a little experience, and some immeasurable reward — a challenge — to the waiting game and the winner,' concluded."

Christmas...! Time for remembering

As a year for nostalgia, the drama, in the way we wear, in many of our modern life. Christmas time we are with the tides of time. We tend to go back to our old memories — the childhood children, the postman who brought us gifts — our little when we thought we were the center of the Universe and that we were immortal. Throughout most of European history, the custom of celebrating the Nativity scene spread. Often the scene was delicately carved of wood, precious to owners and handed from generation to generation. A tender link of devotion.

The first crèche, according to earliest records, was made in 1223. In Italy presepe is the name for the crèche. There have been many wonderful presepi. In Rome there is one in the Church of Ara Coeli containing a Bambino said to have been carved from an olive tree from the Mount

Come, Follow Me

Long ago three Wise Men
Were gazing at a star
That glistened in the Heavens, Outshining all by far.

And so the Wise Men pondered
What could its message be,
For it somehow seemed to beckon
And say, "Come, follow me!"

So they readied for a journey,
And chose their gifts so rare.
Then they climbed upon their camels,
And turned them toward the star.

Long days and nights they traveled
With trials along the way,
Until they came to Bethlehem
Where now the Christ Child lay.

And there the holy Magi Knelt before this tiny King;
They gazed in adoration
While hearing angels sing.

And then along with shepherds
They learned the reason why
They were beckoned by a message
That came out of the sky.

And they gave it to the ages
So that all good men might be,
Just as joyfully rewarded
By the words, "Come, follow me!"

and farmlands and villages in living, realistic panorama that actually reflect the customs of the 17th century. Hundreds of wooden figures have been hand-carved by famous artisans. In Spanish, posada means an inn or lodging place, but it has come to mean more specifically the inn of the Nativity story.

this legend, when the Vikings of Norway celebrated the Yuletide or winter solstice in their great halls, a festive feature of the occasion was the appearance of the goddess Hertha in the fireplace. As her name indicates, Hertha was goddess of hearth and home.

Why Pick Chimney? St. Nick Has Reasons

Why does Santa come down the chimney?
Of all the traditions connected with Santa, his unconventional mode of entry might seem the most puzzling. Surely the magical gift-giver, who has the power to drive reindeer through the skies and who can cover the earth in a single night, could find an easier way to enter a house.

Christmas, Santa's choice of the chimney has several explanations. For instance, legend has it that the original Santa, St. Nicholas, presented three maidens with gifts of gold for a dowry. Modestly concealing his generosity, he tossed the gold down a chimney, in secret.

Another theory claims that Santa copied a goddess, who was the first to deliver gifts via a chimney. According to

HOLY NIGHT

The stars are brightly shining,
It is the night of the dear Savior's birth.
Long lay the world in sin and error pining
Till He appeared and the soul felt His worth.
A thrill of hope, the weary world rejoices,
For yonder beams a new and glorious morn.
Fall on your knees! Oh, hear the angel voices!
O night divine! O night when Christ was born!
O night divine! O night, O night divine!

O TANNENBAUM! This Year Choose A Living Christmas Tree

This Christmas most of us are concerned with the environment, the ecology on which all living matter depends.

If you want to extend the joys of Christmas for years ahead, environmentalists recommend that you choose a living tree, set in a pot of earth, as a Christmas tree, and later put it in the ground outside your home.

Among the best varieties are the Douglas fir, balsam, spruce, cedar, hemlock and a host of pines. Probably the most popular Xmas tree is the Douglas fir, with its dense green and blue-green needles.

A fresh tree is usually darker, and one way to test its freshness is to tug gently at the needles. If they come out readily the tree is not at its best for several weeks' "imprisonment" inside a heated house. In a young tree, needles are about 3/4 inch long.

Another popular tree called the Silvertip is really the Red Fir. Silver-gray and green needles grow straight from its symmetrical branches making it a formal, stately tree. The bark is gray-white while that of other Christmas trees is usually brown.

The long needled Scotch Pine is a handsome tree, although its foliage is not quite so thick as other Christmas trees. Young Scotch Pines hold their pyramid shape, but as they get older become more irregular. Blue-green needles reach three inches in length and give a soft look to your living room.

Invest in a living Christmas tree, bring it inside during the holidays and enjoy its evergreen splendor in your garden for the rest of the year. Walk through the nearest nursery and check the Ponderosa Pine, which is very hardy Colorado Spruce, and loves containers. Austrian Black Pine, a fine small tree for table-top; Monterey Pine, more irregular; and Alberta Spruce. The Aleppo and Japanese Pines are also recommended.

After Christmas, when you are ready to plant your tree outdoors, check your local nurseryman to see what procedure is best for that particular variety. And then give it all the love it deserves.

Carols Express Yule Joy, Echoing Across the Ages

Voices rise in songs of joy and praise. As the joyous season arrives, the vibrant sound of carols is heard in churches, at family gatherings, in groups going from house to house to celebrate with song.

Carols are as much a part of the Yuletide as the tree, gifts and Santa himself.

It all began with the first carols in the 13th century, says the Encyclopedia Americana.

The earliest English carols were composed anonymously, perhaps by clergymen or court musicians. Simple tunes and strong rhythms were characteristic, and the musical form featured a refrain, to repeat before and after each stanza.

Words were written, generally, in the English vernacular or in "macaronic" form — a combination of English and Latin.

The first printed collection of carols appeared in 1521. It included the "Boar's Head Carol," still sung during Christmas dinner at Queen's College, Oxford, England.

Even then, however, the practice of passing on carols orally, from generation to generation, continued. Among these were carols in ballad form, such as "I Saw Three Ships" and "The Cherry Tree Carol."

Caroling fell into disrepute in the 17th century, and carol singing was forbidden by the English Puritans. Those who colonized America carried this disapproval with them.

After the Restoration, in 1660, caroling was once again permitted and the custom slowly revived.

Some of the most popular carols date from the 18th and 19th centuries. These include "Adeste Fideles," possibly by Francis Wade; "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing," with words by Charles Wesley and music by Felix Mendelssohn; "Joy to the World," with words by Isaac Watts, music by George Frederic Handel.

Probably the most popular of all carols is the 19th century "Silent Night," with words by Joseph Mohr, the village priest of Hallein, Austria.

Many stories are told about the way this carol came to be written. One legend says that on a snowy Christmas Eve in 1818, Father Mohr went to bless the newborn baby of a poor parishioner.

On that night, inspired by the mother and he wrote the poem "Silent Night."

The history of the Avocado is traced back to the Spaniards. Avocados are best for eating when they yield to light pressure on the outer rind. They may be purchased slightly under ripe and ripened at ordinary room temperatures. Ripening time can be shortened by placing the fruit in a paper bag slightly closed and held at room temperature. After cutting the Avocado, the exposed surfaces should be coated with lemon or lime juice to retain the green-gold color of the interior. They are very tasty in salads.
