Economic Emergency Loans Available Through FmHA

A new Economic Emergency loan service for farmers (or, farmers and ranchers) who have financial problems caused by credit shortage or cost-price squeeze is now in effect through the U. S. Farmers Home Administration.

Herman E. Wood, the agency's District Director, for District Number 6, reports that FmHA is prepared to take applications at its county offices throughout the state.

A training meeting will be held in Ripley on September 20, for FmHA personnel in the following counties: Alcorn, Benton, Itawamba, Lee, Prentiss, Tippah, Tishomingo and Union.

Immediately following the training meeting of FmHA personnel, county supervisors will schedule meetings with other lenders in the area to review the guaranteed loan authority provided in this new bill. Mr. Wood stated that there was considerable interest in the guaranteed loan provisions of this new legislation from other lenders in the area.

Economic Emergency loans are authorized under the Agricultural Credit Act of 1978 signed by President Carter on August 4. They offer special help to farmers who are hard-pressed by recent shortage of credit from their regular lenders, or by debts accumulated during the recent period of low farm prices.

District Director Wood said the Economic Emergency loan program was enacted by Congress, with Administration support, in recognition of the fact that "economic conditions, as well as weather, are often beyond farmers' control." FmHA emergency credits have previously been confined to loans for recovery from natural disaster, or the guarantee of private lenders' loans to livestock producers affected by economic conditions.

Under the new Economic Emergency program, any established farm operator -- individual, partnership, corporation or cooperative -- experiencing scarce credit or an overload of debt coming due, may apply for up to $400,000 of credit through FmHA in order to survive in farming and continue their normal level of operation. Economic Emergency loans will not be made to expand a farm operation.

Loans made directly by FmHA will be at an interest rate equivalent to the cost of money secured by the government through sale of its securities to the public, plus an administrative add-on of up to one percent. The rate initially will be 8 1/2 percent. Guaranteed loans will be made at rates negotiated between borrower and lender, with FmHA providing the lender up to a 90 percent guarantee against loss.

Loans for operating purposes will be made for terms of up to 7 years, with loan consolidations and rescheduling for another 7 years permitted, and 20-year payment authorized under special conditions. Real estate loans may be made for up to 40 years. Loans for annually-recurring expenses will be repayable annually.

District Director Wood said initial inquiries about Economic Emergency loans can be made either through a commercial agricultural lender or the county FmHA office serving the county where the farm is located. The Act calls for decision by FmHA on individual applications within 30 days.

While introducing the new Economic Emergency farm loan, FmHA will continue all pre-existing services. They include various programs of non-emergency real estate and production loans to family-size farms, terms of which will soon be broadened under the recent Credit Act; emergency loans to farms damaged by natural disasters, and loans or grants for housing, community facilities and business and industry in rural areas.

Rate Increase Denied, TVA Freezes Employment

TVA Chairman S. David Freeman turned down a 4 1/4 percent rate increase proposed by the agency's Office of Power for the new fiscal year that begins on October 1.

Freeman's decision followed his review of reports from public hearings on Monday evening in seven cities across the region served with TVA power.

The TVA Chairman said it is time to give consumers a rest from rate increases and to intensify efforts to trim power system costs. Freeman is currently serving alone on the TVA Board of Directors while the other two Board seats are temporarily vacant.

The agency's power staff had made the rate increase recommendation earlier this month to cover a projected gap between TVA power expenses and revenues in the new fiscal year, plus the margin required for reinvestment in the power system.

Revised estimates are reviewed each three months through the year, and Freeman pointed out that rates could be increased next spring if necessary to meet the legal requirement that TVA operate in the black for the year as a whole.

Holding base rates to present levels in the meantime would avoid having consumers with electric heat face higher rates in the winter months, and would maintain pressure for cost savings in the power program, he said.

The decision does not affect the monthly fuel charge for TVA power, which rises or falls each month with trends in the actual cost of fuel and purchased power supplies. However, Freeman said elimination of the fuel charge is among approaches under study for new rate structures to be recommended when there is a quorum on the Board again.

Freeman also announced a freeze on TVA employment, which now totals more than 46,000 employees. Any steps involving additional employees will be subject to specific justification and approval, he said.

Power system officials said they will present a proposal to the TVA Chairman next week to include additional measures in TVA's energy conservation program aimed at helping consumers hold down electricity usage and bills.

TALENT WINNER - Miss Robin Gann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gann, of Iuka, took first place in the annual Talent Show held at the Tishomingo County Fair on August 31st. She sang "Medley of Smiles" and took home the winner's trophy. First runner-up was Marilyn Brosious, of Belmont, singing "Killing Me Softly"; second alternate was Tamara Grisham, of Iuka, doing an acrobatic dance; third runner up was Ken Moore, of Iuka, doing a dramatization, "Surviving the Seventies"; and fourth alternate was Beth Newman, of Corinth, singing "Everything Coming Up Roses". All five winners have been invited to participate in the Memphis Mid-South Fair, Sept. 22 thru Oct. 1.

HELP YOUR BODY TO USE IRON

Eating citrus fruits, such as oranges and grapefruit, and drinking citrus juices may help the body absorb iron in iron-rich foods. Citrus fruits and juices are high in ascorbic acid, commonly known as Vitamin C. Eating foods rich in this vitamin will help the body absorb iron.

This finding is especially important in Mississippi where many diets lack sufficient iron. Iron deficiency anemia is also a common nutritional disorder in the U.S. today. Inner-city youths and young women of childbearing age are more likely to suffer iron deficiency. The deficiency is caused by poor diets and the inability of the body to fully use a significant portion of the iron found in foods.

All Tishomingo Countians should eat at least one food rich in Vitamin C daily. This could be a glass of orange juice for breakfast, an orange or grapefruit for a snack or citrus fruit in a dessert or salad.

HOW TO STIR-FRY VEGETABLES

Add new interest to old favorites by stir-frying vegetables for your next meal. Whether the vegetable is prepared alone or with a combination of other vegetables, it is a flavorful, crunchy treat. Stir-frying vegetables also saves minerals, vitamins and flavor.

To prepare vegetables this quick and easy way:
* Cut vegetables in slices, shreds, slivers or on the bias.

* Heat two tablespoons of vegetable oil per four cups of vegetables. Add 1/2 tablespoon of salt and stir.

* Pour in vegetables and stir over high heat for a few seconds until they're well coated with oil.

* Add 1/2 cup liquid and stir a few seconds over high heat.

* Cover, lower the heat and simmer 3-5 minutes. The vegetables will have a crunchy texture.

PICNIC IN THE PARK

Monday, August 28, was a big day for the Timber Hills group. The Mineral Springs Homemakers Club provided hot dogs, potato chips, Kool Aid, watermelons, etc. - all the things it takes to make a great picnic for all the Timber Hills students and teachers. Everyone met in the park at 12:00 to fill up tummies and have fun, and everybody really succeeded. One of the students phrased it exactly right when she remarked she was "fuller than a tick and couldn't hold another bite" with still lots of food left. It was a perfect day with a cool breeze blowing beneath the trees and "nary" a pesky ant showing up. The nice ladies that prepared all this good food and served it with graciousness and smiles were: Mesdames Emogene Cummings, Gail Smith, Brenda Whitfield, Nancy Daugherty, Earnestine Randle, Edna Earl Tapp and Joan Parker. Cathy Presley helped also, but was unable to be present.

the infested items, and clean out all the storage areas. Then apply a spray to the cracks, corners, and surfaces of the shelves using 2% chlordane, 0.5% diazinon, or 2% malathion. Use caution by covering all food items which may be contaminated with spray. Allow the spray application to dry before replacing the food items. Aerosol sprays are helpful in controlling these infestations and will offer effective residual control. Be sure to remove and spray all drawers as well as the inside of the cabinets.

homes mentioned, the site at Shady Grove Cemetery where the soldiers are buried and any other sites. I found no place in Iuka to buy postcards about the battle. I know I would have spent money for things related to the battle and I'm sure other tourists would also.

The Battle of Iuka was well known among Civil War buffs as there have been many articles written about the battle. Just to name a few, Civil War Times, Confederate Veteran, and many diaries and books talk about the Battle of Iuka. It is well known and talked about. What a shame to let such a tourist attraction remain dormant.

I urge anyone concerned in Iuka to do something now about possibly forming a committee or some group and try to purchase some of the land at the battlefield site for the city. Although I'm from out of town, I still have a concern because a part of my own family fought on that battlefield so long ago.

PANTRY & STORED FOOD PESTS

There are many species of stored food pests found at various times in our food pantry. Most of these pests are introduced into our home in infested food either loose or packaged. Some invade our homes through normal methods of entry.

Some of the common pantry pests are the grain weevils or beetles, flour beetles, meal or flour moths, pea and bean weevils, carpet beetles, mites, cigarette beetles, psocids, larver beetles, ants and several others.

Large populations of these food pests may develop in unused or undisturbed foods which are infested when purchased. The unwary housewife leaving the food package open and not tightly sealed after using can also lead to infestation. From the infested food packages the pests may spread to other exposed food. The only way the housewife knows of their presence is discovery of an infested and infrequently used food item or the encounter of flying or crawling adults coming from the pantry shelves.

There is hardly a food item in the kitchen or food pantry which can escape being infested by some pest if it remains unused and exposed in some dark corner or drawer long enough. All items are susceptible, including spices, hot pepper, ice cream cones, and even so-called sealed containers such as cereals, grits, cake mixes, etc. Dried flower arrangements and stuffed furniture and toys, though not foods, often harbor infestations.

Stored food pests are economically important and are responsible for millions of dollars of loss every year in stored foods and other products. Most of the stored food pests under Mississippi conditions can reproduce quickly and have several to many generations in a year. Many species are active the year around under suitable conditions.

CONTROL: The basic fundamentals in controlling stored food pests are exclusion, chemical treatment, regular inspections, and cleaning of shelves. Sometimes an infestation can develop on bread or cracker fragments or in some undisturbed, loose flour or meal or on corner of the shelf. Keep all containers tightly closed. Put susceptible items in tight containers or screw-top jars. Do not overstock shelves with products which will not be used frequently or in a short period of time.

When an infestation becomes apparent, locate the source, remove and destroy

LETTERS to EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I recently visited Iuka while on vacation. I went to Iuka hoping to see the Civil War Battlefield or some type of memorial or something telling about the Battle of Iuka. I did find a historical marker on Highway 25 telling about the battle. The sign is not really where the battle was, although it is close to the battlefield. I have done a great deal of studying about the Battle of Iuka since my great-grandfather, a member of the 17th Tenn. Cav., was wounded and captured at Iuka. As you probably know, the main battle was fought where the radio station is now located. At least I think it's a station out on the gravel road going to Woodall Mountain. I was very hurt to see the actual battlefield site taken over by homes. What a shame that such hallowed ground has not been preserved such as has been done with Battery Robbinette at Corinth or the Tupelo Battlefield at Tupelo or Brice's Crossroads at Baldwyn. There is still a good part of the battlefield that could be preserved and turned into a nice tourist attraction. I find it hard to believe nothing has been done in this area. For instance, very few people know that the Brinkley house is where Gen. Grant stayed. Very few people know that the house across from the old courthouse is where Confederate Gen. Henry Little was buried after the battle. There should be markers at both sites. A Civil War tour map could be made showing all points of interest such as the

Save a Tubful

Instead of a hot steaming tub bath, take a short cool shower. You'll use less hot water and save money on your electric bills.

You'll also save if you wash only full loads in the dishwasher and automatic clothes washer. And fix leaky faucets. A faucet dripping hot water will waste a tubful of energy and money before you know it.

Remember, when you save hot water - you are saving water and also the energy used to heat it.

The Bible Speaks

By: Rex Buford

SAY WHAT YOU MEAN!

Preachers have an unusual opportunity to listen to people. In the course of their conversations promises are given, statements made, excuses offered. Perhaps it is easy to see, then, that some people do not "say what they mean."

"THEY SAY" usually means, "I heard it from at least one source, but everybody must believe it."

"IT NEEDS TO BE DONE" means, "I'm not going to do anything about it, but the church ought to."

"I'VE HEARD SOME CRITICISM" usually means, "I'm against it but I don't have the nerve to state my belief."

"THE WHOLE CHURCH IS UPSET" usually means, "Two or three loud mouths have turned loose their venom."

"IT MIGHT BRING CRITICISM" means, "I know it should be done but it takes too much effort for me to do it."

"IF MEMORY SERVES ME RIGHT" really means, "I'm going to say something I'm not sure of, whether true or false, but if somebody discovers I'm wrong then I can always blame my memory."

"PREACHER, I'LL BE THERE IF I'M NOT PROVIDENTIALLY HINDERED" nearly always means "If I'm not there you can blame God for it."

"I'LL COME EVERY TIME I CAN" usually means, "If I do not have something better to do, I'll be there."

"I WON'T PROMISE, BUT I'LL DO MY BEST" means "Don't expect much out of me."

You can take it from there! Now what did YOU say?

Homecoming

Our hearts warmed once more with another homecoming with old friends and kindred embracing in hugging and kissing to greet loved ones. Some of the guests were outstanding, coming hundreds of miles for the occasion. Gifts were presented to those who traveled the longest distance, the youngest, the oldest, and the largest family group.

Dill Williams started the social gathering off prior to the big day for guests who arrived early. Remembered faces kept popping up as the party continued.

Hattie Pride's annual fish fry on Sunday night, August 13, was a great success. Such occasions fit well at Hattie's with her spacious yard where the grown-ups can mingle and the youngsters romp.

The last entertained were Betty Jordan and Annette McCullough, who had dinner with Cal.

Thank You

We, the committee of Iuka's Homecoming of the Blacks, was held at Booker T. Washington Center on Spring Street on August 12, 1978, was a well spent day and an overwhelming success.

The food and drinks were delicious. We wish to thank our mayor, G. W. Cutshall, and officials for such a beautiful welcome. Piggly Wiggly for catering the meats, the motels for their services, the families who prepared food, the S. S. Band Enterprise of Milwaukee, Wisc., and the fish fry held at Hattie M. Pride's residence on Sunday night, August 13th. The 300 present were from several states in the U.S.A.

This was a lovely affair, lots of happiness enjoyed by all. Thanks! May God bless.

SS News

Almost anyone who has a severe disability that has lasted, or will last, 12 months could possibly qualify for some type of payments made by the Social Security Administration.

According to Hugh Tigrett, Social Security District Manager, there are 5 types of disability payments currently being made. The oldest and the one most people are familiar with is the regular social security payment. A person must be disabled and have work under social security to qualify for these payments. Also, under regular social security, a disabled child can get payments on his parent's record in case of their death, disability, or if they have retired. The child must be unmarried and his disability must have occurred before age 22.

A more recent benefit applies to disabled widows and widowers. If a widow or widower is at least 50 years of age and disabled, he or she can receive disability payments from the deceased spouse's record, provided the deceased husband or wife has enough work under social security. (Note: The disabled widower no longer has to show that he was supported by the wife.)

Tigrett also stated there are two other types of payments which have only been made since January, 1974, and may not be familiar to everyone. They are supplemental security income payments. These payments depend on the income and resources the family has. Work under social security is not required. This means a disabled wife that has no work under social security can qualify for these benefits if her husband has limited income and resources. A disabled child that is under age 18 can qualify if his parents have limited income and resources.

At age 18 a child attains adult status, unless they are students. At that point, the parents' income and resources are no longer considered. Tigrett pointed out that this is probably the most overlooked factor and feels that there are still people who could qualify for payments that have never failed.

As a final reminder, Mr. Tigrett suggested that anyone who has a disabled person in their family should get in touch with the Social Security Office. They can call our office in Corinth, by dialing 423-6043, or they may meet our representative at the Courthouse in Iuka any Monday.

Conservation Notes

By: Phil Purvis

Five years of low beef cattle prices and increasing commercial fertilizer costs have forced many livestock producers to postpone fertilizing their pasture. But, with high cattle prices the times are changing. Fertilizing coastal bermudagrass is again a good investment.

Several hundred acres of pasture in our district have deteriorated in the past few years. The big reason was that from 1973 to early 1978, fertilizer prices doubled while cattle prices dropped.

It got to the point that you simply could not grow enough beef to pay for the fertilizer.

Low beef prices also caused cattlemen to plow up their pastures to grow soybeans and other cash crops. Some of this land is now eroding and either needs extensive conservation practices, or needs to be re-established to pasture. Hopefully, the improved cattle prices will help us get our steep land out of cultivation and back into pasture.

The Tishomingo County Soil and Water Conservation District is very interested in promoting pasture planting and management in the county. One way they hope to create interest in pasture management is by sponsoring a pasture and forage seminar. This seminar will be held Tuesday night, September 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the fairground building. All interested livestock and forage producers are urged to attend.

The Tishomingo County SWCD has also called on the Soil Conservation Service personnel to help livestock producers plan their pasture improvements. This might include fertilization, mowing, pasture renovation, reseeding, and other measures. For information and assistance on pasture improvements contact or call the Soil Conservation Office in Iuka, phone 423-6272.

Librarian Of The Year

Mrs. Mary McCord, librarian of the Rienzi Public Library, has been named Branch Librarian of the Year for the Northeast Regional Library System. The announcement was made at the semi-annual staff meeting in Iuka on Wednesday, August 30, by Walt Browne, Library System Director.

The evaluation is made by the headquarters administration staff, and the award is presented to one librarian each year on the basis of book circulation, attitude and enthusiasm, community service, new ideas, and team spirit. Mary has been with the library for almost four years, succeeding Mrs. John Lorick as Rienzi Librarian, and was a valuable contributor to the recently completed "Mysteries" Summer Fun Program conducted throughout the region. There are 15 libraries in the Northeast Regional Library System, which serves Alcorn, Benton, Prentiss, Tippah and Tishomingo Counties. Mary is married to Fred McCord, and they have two children, Lee Andrew and Christie Marie.

Examine Dogs For Heartworms

With the mosquito season well under way, dog owners should have their pets checked for heartworms, advises Dr. James Jarratt, entomologist, Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

"Heartworms are transmitted to dogs by carrier mosquitoes," explains Dr. Jarratt. "Larvae of the heartworm pass into the dog's skin and remain for about 90 days. Afterward, the larvae enter the circulatory system and move into the dog's heart, where they mature. In this area, the primary damage to the dog occurs."

can cause a chronic condition which is aggravated by exercise. Treatment for infestations of this parasite is extremely difficult, according to the entomologist.

However, an excellent preventive treatment is available for heartworm control. This drug must be given to the dog once daily throughout the mosquito breeding season and should not be given to a dog with an active heartworm infestation.

Miss Angela Enlow To Wed Roger Deaton

Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Enlow, of Iuka, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Angela Beth, to Roger Dale Deaton, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Deaton.

Angela is the granddaughter of Mrs. Haughey Enlow, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lealon Belue.

Roger is the grandson of Mrs. Lavada Smith and the late Jessie Smith, of Iuka; and Mrs. Hallie Deaton and the late Mr. Forrest Deaton, of Iuka.

The couple plan a September 16, wedding at Fifth Street Baptist Church in Iuka at 7:00 p.m. All family and friends are invited. If unable to attend, they request your presence in thought and prayer.

Watson-Bumpas Family Reunion

On Saturday, August 8, the Watson-Bumpas Reunion for 1978 was held in Mineral Springs Park in Iuka.

Those attending were as follows: From Muscle Shoals, Ala., Harold and Louise Harris, Patsy Harris and Bob Blount, Becky Harris and Susan Boothe; from Florence, Ala., Mrs. Mamie Gilliam; from Iuka, Colman and Frances Bumpas, Thurman and Imogene McCoy, Sonny and Donna Scott, and son, Scotty, Garner and Blanch Woodruff, Earline Whitfield, Velton Hannon, Wayne and Rickell Brumley and nephew; from Chicago, Ill., Gene and Mary Harris and son, Jim, James Watkins, Joyce D'Arco and daughter, Kim, and Etoile Harris; from Rogers, Ark., Oveda Feliks and daughter, Felicia; from Camden, Ark., Vivian Cunningham; from Burnsville, Doc Harris, Terry Boothe and son, John Daniel Boothe; from Middleton, Tenn., Clarence and Estalee Watson and son, Ronny; from Collierville, Tenn., B. L. Bumpas; from Memphis, Tenn., Cleston and Mabel Watson, Neil and Shirley Masner and granddaughter, Christy Cox, Gene and Betty Braden and daughters, Cyndi and Lori, Dennis Shea, Billard Sherrill Watson and sons, Chris and Lance; from Kensington, Md., Lora Woodruff.

At noon the table was filled with all kinds of good food, which all seemed to enjoy very much. Everyone remarked on the nice clean building and the clean white window curtains. Thanks to whoever has charge of the building now. Also, we very much enjoyed the air conditioning, as the day was very hot. Of course, the younger folks enjoyed the park, but the older ones mostly just stayed inside visiting with each other and comparing events in each part of the country represented, since last we met on the second Saturday in August, 1977. We appreciate all who came - several more than last year - and are now looking forward to next year. We missed the ones who for one reason or another could not be with us this year and hope they can be with us next year.

PUBLIC COMMENT
SOUGHT ON 1979
FEED GRAINS, SOYBEAN PROGRAMS

The public is asked to submit ideas and comments on decisions that need to be made on the 1979 Feed Grains and Soybean Programs. According to Ray Fitzgerald, Administrator of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, most of the decisions are to be made by November 15.

Comments are asked concerning the following determinations to be made for the 1979 crops of corn, sorghum, barley, and oats:

Whether barley and oats should be included in the feed grains program (corn and sorghum are required equal to the amount of such land diversion);

If a set-aside or land diversion program is required, whether a limitation should be placed on planted acreage;

The amount of the 1979 National Program Acreage (the U. S. feed grain stock objective is set at 5.7 percent of world feed grain consumption, an amount judged to be our "fair" share of world feed grain stocks. Estimates of the national program acreage required to meet this objective are requested, together with appropriate explanatory material.);

The reduction required, if any, from previous year's harvested acreage to guarantee target price protection on total 1979 planted acreage (if the national program acreage for 1979 is less than the national harvested acreage for 1978, producers will be required to reduce acreage in 1979 to be eligible for full target price protection on 100 percent of their acreage.);

The loan and purchase levels for the 1979 crops of corn, sorghum, barley, oats, and rye, including commodity eligibility, storage requirements, premiums and discounts;

Estimated (target) prices; and Commodity Credit Corporation minimum resale price and other related provisions necessary to carry out the loan purchase and payments programs.

For soybeans, comments are asked on the loan and purchase levels for the 1979 crop. The determinations include commodity eligibility, storage requirements, premiums and discounts.

Comments should be sent to the Acting Director, Production Adjustment Division, ASCS, USDA, Room 3630 South Building, P. O. Box 2415, Washington, D.C., 20013. To be assured of consideration, the comments need to be received no later than October 7, 1978.

There are three cities listed in the record books as being the smallest in America, only 4 square miles in area: Belvedere, California, Bonne Terre, Missouri, and Montgomery, West Virginia.

The Iuka Special Municipal Separate School District serves delicious and nutritious meals for children. As an extra benefit to your children and a benefit to the school system, many children may be eligible for free or reduced priced breakfast and lunches.

The scale shown below may help you in applying for these benefits for your children. If you think you are eligible or have any questions, please contact

Mrs. Sharon Ledbetter, Cafeteria Supervisor at 423-9271.

Such changes may make the children of the family eligible for reduced price meals, or for additional benefits such as free meals and milk if the family income falls at or below the levels shown above.

In certain cases, foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals and milk for them, it should contact the school.

Baldwyn Checks Iuka

A couple of kickoff returns and a pair of fumble recoveries provided the scoring opportunities at Baldwyn Friday night as the Bears tripped Iuka's Chiefs 31-6 as the two teams opened Tombigbee Conference competition.

This outcome left each team with a win and a loss for the still young season. Baldwyn backs John Ragin and Randall Grice scored twice each for the Bears, while quarterback John Cunningham picked three extra points and a 31-yard field goal. Iuka running back Bobby Dooley got the loan touchdown for Iuka.

This Tombigbee encounter started off like gangbusters as teams scored back-to-back touchdowns on kickoff returns with less than a minute gone in the opening period. Iuka drew first blood when Dooley raced 93 yards on the opening kickoff and then Ragin evened the count with a 75 yard run on the ensuing kickoff. Cunningham kicked the first of three extra points to provide what proved enough margin to win. Baldwyn recovered an fumble at the Iuka 35 yard line in two plays Grice had a touchdown and the score was 14-6.

Defender Jackie Thomas gave Baldwyn another spring opportunity ahead of half with a fumble recovery at the Iuka 29. Ragin scored on the next play, but it was called back a penalty and Cunningham threw to Grice on the next try for the score. Cunningham converted. Ragin raced 78 yards for the third period kickoff for the final Baldwyn tally, although Cunningham was to add a yard field goal after a interception set up the to get an aerial offense going, although Finch and Cunningham did put the ball in the air frequently.

Iuka mustered several defensive stands to thwart Baldwyn drives before a large turnout at Latimer Field.

B'ville Rips Tish.

The Burnsville Mustangs turned back Tishomingo 21-0 in Waterway Conference football action at Tishomingo Friday night.

Marty Barnes opened the scoring in the second period with a ten-yard burst and then booted the extra point.

Bebo Legion, Mustang quarterback, went in from 30 yards out for the next score.

Barnes scored again in the fourth period with a 12-run dash. Barnes also ran a two-point conversion.

YCWA Receives Grant

Truitt Stockton, Board Chairman of Yellow Creek Watershed Authority, announced at the August 15 meeting that the Authority had been awarded a $20,000 planning grant from the Farmers Home Administration's Area Planning Assistance Program. "The one year grant," Stockton said, "will pay for professional staff services to develop a coordinated emergency response system in each of Alcorn, Prentiss and Tishomingo Counties."

The program will develop a plan for equipment, communications, training, locating of response apparatus and increasing public awareness. The plan, to be developed jointly with local volunteer response organizations and the county supervisors, will define the systems and develop a proposed equipment and operations budget. The systems will be financed by county funds used to match substantial investments in cash and technical assistance to be made by the Tennessee Valley Authority and the North Mississippi Emergency Medical Services Authority.

"We would like to thank Senator John Stennis and Representative Jamie Whitten for their encouragement and support in helping us obtain this grant," Stockton said. "We hope that everyone who will be involved will share in the commitment to insure that the program is successfully implemented. This idea, if properly supported, can do more to help save lives and property in the tri-county area than anything else YCWA could sponsor."

Tax Receipts

Receipts for the month totaled $12.5 million, an increase of 1.65 percent over June.

For the 12-month period August 1977 through July 1978, total collections were up considerably over the corresponding 12-month period. The increase ending July 1978 over the same period ending in July 1977 was $6.1 million (4.38 percent).

STAFF MEETING OF THE NORTHEAST REGIONAL LIBRARY SYSTEM HELD AT IUKA — Mr. Bruce Evans, Assistant Director; Mr. A. W. Mangum, guest speaker; Mrs. Anne Byrd, Iuka librarian; and Mr. Walt Browne, Director of Northeast Regional Library System.

LIBRARIANS OF FIVE COUNTIES MEET AT IUKA PUBLIC LIBRARY Librarians and staff members of Northeast Regional Library System.

Library Hosts Regional Staff Meeting

The Northeast Regional Library system held its semi-annual staff meeting on August 30, at the Iuka Public Library. Librarians from 15 libraries in the five member counties attended the all-day conference (9:30 - 4:00 p.m.) during which discussions on a variety of library programs, policies, and projected goals were heard. Assistant Director Bruce Evans and system Director Walt Browne co-chaired the meeting, which was hosted by Iuka staff members, Anne Byrd and Shirley Calton. Among the many topics covered were next year's summer programs, county resource centers, school-public library cooperation, circulation statistics and procedures, long-range planning goals, policy changes, and possible themes for future library programs. Lunch was held at the restaurant at J. P. Coleman State Park, and the group heard Mr. A. W. Mangum, Iuka resident and author of DOWN MEMORY LANE: A HISTORY OF IUKA, MISS. 1900 - 1915 speak on the values of libraries to communities and individuals. Mrs. Marie Ramsey also entertained the group with a short presentation of piano music, including the favorites "Kentucky Babe", "Amazing Grace" and of course, "Dixie". Also at this meeting Mrs. Beulah Cathey was presented with a retirement gift for her work in Hickory Flat, and Mrs. Mary McCord was presented with the Branch Librarian of the Year Award for 1978 for her excellence in providing community service through the Rienzi Library.

IUKA LIBRARY NEWS

Mr. Jim Barnett has loaned to the Iuka Public Library three interesting displays. One display case contains miscellaneous Civil War items including an 1863 U.S. Springfield, 1st Series, 58 calibre gun. Most of the Indian Artifacts were found in Tishomingo County with the exception of a large black arrowhead found in Canada and a beautiful belt made by the Navajo Indians in the early 30's and presented to a Pawnee Chief at a tribal pow-wow. Another display case contains Japanese handblown glass floats of various sizes used to hold up the fishing nets. One very large float was found by Mr. Barnett in Gearhart, Oregon. Plastic floats are being used now

Things Pretty Dead In Your Store This Week?

It's Easy To KILL YOUR BUSINESS

Just pretend you don't have anything to advertise this week. Forget the thousands of items you have on the shelves of your store, or the service you have to offer. . . don't let potential customers know about them. IT'S A GOOD WAY TO KILL YOUR BUSINESS!

Say you don't have the time to fix up an advertisement this week. Just let opportunity after opportunity to promote your business pass by—it will take less of your time. And you'll be less busy serving customers if they don't know what you have to offer. IT'S A GOOD WAY TO KILL YOUR BUSINESS!

Assume everybody in the trade territory knows what you have for sale, that you've been in business so long you don't need to advertise since the customers will come to you without it. Forget that there are new potential customers coming into the community, that you have new and better products to offer. Forget that you have to keep reminding your established customers to trade with you. Forget you have Big City competition trying to attract more customers. IT'S A GOOD WAY TO KILL YOUR BUSINESS!

Tell yourself it costs too much to advertise—that you don't get enough out of it. Overlook the fact that advertising is an investment in selling—not an expense. Be sure you don't provide for an adequate advertising budget for your firm. IT'S A GOOD WAY TO KILL YOUR BUSINESS!

South Central Bell Announces Promotion

John M. Mobley, vice president in charge of South Central Bell Telephone Company's operations in Mississippi, has been named vice president - operations staff at the company's headquarters in Birmingham, effective Sept. 1.

N. Frank Edmonds, an assistant vice president for the company in Mississippi, has been elected vice president and will succeed Mobley.

In his new position, Mobley will be responsible for four major areas of companywide operations -- marketing, customer and facility services, engineering and network services, and corporate plans and services. He will report to South Central Bell President W. R. Bunn.

Mobley, a native of Memphis, has directed South Central Bell operations in Mississippi for nearly eight years. He began his career with the telephone company as a lineman in Memphis in 1946 following five years of meritorious service in the Navy during World War II. He worked as a lineman and an installer until 1950 when he became a commercial representative and later a customer service representative and customer service engineer.

He later served in Knoxville and Nashville in various responsible sales management jobs until 1961 when he transferred to Jackson as a general sales manager for the company's operations in Mississippi.

A year later he was promoted to general marketing manager for Mississippi. In 1968 he was appointed general commercial manager. From 1968 to 1971 he was responsible for both commercial and marketing operations in the state. He was elected vice president in 1971.

Mobley has long been a leader in business, civic, religious and cultural activities in Jackson and throughout the State of Mississippi. He is a director of the First National Bank of Jackson, First Magnolia Federal Savings and Loan Association, First Capital Corporation (holding company), and Lamar Life Insurance Company.

He is a founding director of the Magnolia Chapter of the Pearl Harbor Survivors Association, and serves as a director, officer, trustee or advisory board member of the Mississippi Baptist Medical Center, Keep Mississippi Beautiful, Junior Achievement, Boys Club, and Andrew Jackson Council of the Boy Scouts of America. He is a member of the Mayor's advisory committee for the International Ballet Competition and is president-elect of the Mississippi Heart Association.

Mobley is also a member of the Jackson Rotary Club and Broadmoor Baptist Church as well as numerous other organizations.

Edmonds began his 30-year Bell System career as a student engineer with Southern Bell in Nashville, serving in various management jobs there and in Union City, Tenn., until August, 1960, when he was made district sales manager, Memphis. Subsequently, he was promoted to district manager, Memphis, division sales manager, Nashville, and marketing staff supervisor, Nashville. He served as administrative assistant for both Southern and South Central Bell in Nashville until August, 1970, when he moved to Jackson.

Edmonds presently is a director of the Mississippi Bank and Jackson Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Mississippi Economic Council and Mississippi Manufacturers Association. In addition, he is president-elect and director of Goodwill Industries in Jackson, and a director or governing board member of the Red Cross, Colonel MIM Association, Jackson Symphony Orchestra Association and Mississippi Trade Mart.

He is a past president and present executive board member of the Mississippi chapter of the Arthritis Foundation. Long active in scouting, he is a recipient of the "Silver Beaver" award from the Boy Scouts of America and presently serves as vice president and a member of the executive board of the Andrew Jackson Council.
