Australian Exchange Student Makes Home With Iuka Families

name Arthur Scriven go down in Iuka's

Iuka Rotary Club is spring, for the first time, exchange student, Arthur Scriven, from Muswellbrook Council Muscle Brook, South Wales, Australia arrived in Memphis on January 20. (Arthur Scriven he left Sidney, Australia at 11:00 a.m. on January 20 and arrived in Memphis at 5:15 p.m. the same day about 100 miles away and 24 hours later).

According to Arthur, he left Melbourne in the middle of winter. The temperatures in the summertime usually reach 104 degrees, and in the winter's are rather producing only frost. The town of Muswellbrook had snow once in its history. Arthur refers to Muswellbrook as his town, and actually lives in the area near the town of Muswellbrook, which has a population of 3,000 people. Arthur is from a family of eight, his father is a farmer, and is raising beef cattle. The Scriven farm is approximately 2 1/2 thousand acres (considered an average farm). The chief crop in the area is cotton. The area is irrigated with dams, grain and market gardens. A large industry is cotton ginning for export.

The predominant religion, Arthur says, is Roman Catholic, and the Church of England and the Anglican Church.

Recreation in Australia includes: sports such as Rugby (a form of football) and Cricket (similar to baseball). Both Rugby and Cricket are old English games. Soccer is gaining popularity and some folk enjoy skating. Movies are also a favorite. Arthur says just plain old getting together at someone's house is enjoyed by the young folk and everyone brings food and just has fun.

Arthur, an 18 year old, very handsome young man, has graduated from his high school. He says his first impression of our school is one that is not as hard as his Australian school, with less discipline and not as strict as what he is accustomed to.
The students, he says, "are very friendly, pretty much like home, a bit on the crazy side, just like home." Arthur plans to attend an Agricultural College on his return home.
He will be here for one year and will attend this semester at the Iuka High School, taking courses that interest him or courses that he has not had time to pursue before. The summer will hold in store, tours and getting acquainted with our country.
He plans to attend the 1980 fall session of school.

Another point of interest in the visit The Tishomingo County News had with Arthur was his Australian money: a one cent piece resembling our penny and bearing the picture of an opossum; a five cent piece looking much like our dime; a ten cent piece favoring our nickel; a twenty cent coin and a fifty cent coin. The paper money that Australians have comes in different colored bills in the amounts of $1, $2, $5, $10, $20 and $50, the fifty-dollar bill being the largest in denomination.

The rich English sounding accent in Arthur's voice made listening to him a pleasure.
When questioned about our Southern drawl, Arthur indicated that our manner of speaking was slow enough to
also said that he liked Iuka, "It is a well spaced town and not too crowded."

Arthur is currently living with the Bill Curtis family. He will spend part of his year with the Dr. Bobby King family and then the Rev.
Dudley Brown family. Arthur paid his own transportation to the United States, and the Rotary Club will give him an allowance and arranges the homes for him to reside in during his stay.

The Iuka Rotary Club was organized in the 1940's, according to club member Robbie Grisham, and still has one charter member, R. T. Hobson, Meadow Brook Circle, who attends the meetings regularly. Mr. Hobson is Past District Governor of this Rotary District, which includes Northeast Mississippi and parts of Tennessee. The Iuka Rotary Club is fortunate to have two Past District Governors, the other being W.
S. Brown. This is unusual in a club of this size.

The purpose of the Rotary Club, says Mr. Grisham, is to foster better relationships between businessmen, promote integrity in business and for fellowship.

Mr. Grisham stated that there was a strong student exchange program between the United States and Australia's Rotary Clubs and the students participating in this program had made application and were carefully screened and briefed in preparation for this venture.
The purpose of the exchange program is to develop understanding between nations and to give young people the chance to know the culture of other countries.

According to Bill Curtis, Rotary Club member, Iuka is planning to send an exchange student to Australia.

AFTERMATH OF TWO FIRES that destroyed six boathouses and seven boats at the Greenwater Marina on January 24 and 25. All the destroyed property was owned by private individuals and nothing belonging to the Marina Manager, George

Coleman, was destroyed.

State Line Marina Fire Leaves Boathouses, Boats Destroyed

Two fires, occurring just a few hours apart, destroyed six boathouses and seven boats at the Greenwater Marina, Highway 25, Pickwick Lake at the Mississippi - Tennessee State Line, on January 24 and 25.

The first fire was discovered by the Marina night-watchman, Brownie Smith, at about 8:00 p.m. on Thursday evening, January 24, while he was on duty, according to Marina owner, George Coleman, from Corinth.
The second fire broke out a few hours later at approximately 1:00 a.m. on Friday morning, January 25, again being discovered by Mr.
Smith.

Mr. Coleman told The Tishomingo County News that many thousands of dollars of damage had been done by the fire, but he was unable to give an estimate of the actual amount. The destroyed property, he said, was not owned by himself but by private individuals residing away from the area. Mr.
Coleman expressed sympathy for the misfortune of the boat and boathouse owners and expressed thankfulness that he had not suffered any property loss in the fires.

The Burnsville Volunteer Fire Department was called at the time of the first fire and responded quickly to assist the night watchman and other employees, who had been called to the scene, including Mr. Coleman. At the time of the second fire, the Burnsville Fire Department was again called and responded, along with the First District Fire Department, who was summoned at this time. A minipumper from TVA was on the scene at the time of the second fire.

Junior Carroll, Captain of the Burnsville Fire Department, told The News that the Burnsville Department was called about 8:00 p.m. on Thursday evening to the Greenwater Marina for a fire call and one boathouse was on fire at the time of arrival.
The blaze was extinguished in a few moments but the Department stayed about one hour to observe the area for further outbreaks of fire. At about 1:15 a.m. on Friday morning, they were called back at which time about five or six boathouses were engulfed in flames. Burning boats were towed away from the Marina and other boats.

The Fire Department stayed until about 3:45 a.m. at this time.

Fire Department is made up of about 15 men who respond to fire calls 24 hours a day.
All the men work at other jobs for a livelihood and do this as a community service. The Burnsville Volunteer Fire Department was begun in 1973. Mr.
Carroll said, and they are there to assist the public.

According to Ron Harwood, J. P. Coleman Park Manager, the First District Volunteer Fire Department assisted in the extinguishing of the second fire, responding to the call they received at approximately 1:00 a.m. on Friday morning.

At the time there were approximately five or six boathouses engulfed in flames. The Fire Department set up a defensive line to protect other boathouses and boats. At this time about all they were able to do, said Mr.

Harwood, was to contain the fire to keep it from spreading.

The First District Volunteer Fire Department has seven men, including Jerry Bonds, Chief, in their department, which is on call 24 hours a day. They can be reached any time at one of these numbers: 423-6515; 423-3396; 423-3162 for assistance in case of fire in the First District. The First District Volunteer Fire Department meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month at the J. P. Coleman Park at 6:30 p.m. and the meetings are open to the public. The Department was chartered in December of 1979, and Mr.
Harwood states that to the best of his knowledge it is the only chartered volunteer department in Tishomingo County. Mr. Harwood says of the Department - "They are a good bunch of guys."

Betty Crawford Sees Hope For Better Future Following Kidney Transplant

10 years Betty Crawford drank three quarts of water daily in hopes of delaying kidney failure. When failure came five years ago, the 38-year-old mother and homemaker faced a lifetime on dialysis.

But because of the first Alabama kidney transplant of the 1980's, today the Muscle Shoals patient views the new decade from the University of Alabama Hospitals with a vastly brighter outlook.

Ms. Crawford, was the recipient of a kidney from a Montgomery accident victim on January 4. Her transplant surgeon, Dr. John Whelchel, associate professor of surgery at The University of Alabama in Birmingham and director of UBA's Alabama Organ Bank, believes the patient has an excellent chance of retaining the kidney, and that the next few years will see ever-growing numbers from Alabama and surrounding states living out similar happy stories.

Ms. Crawford's kidney problems dated from the mid 1960's, when she was checked for oxidoses, a disorder which had killed her brother. She was told to drink liquids copiously to keep tiny crystals from accumulating in her renal system. For 10 years she traveled from her Iuka home to New Orleans' Oschner Clinic every six months to monitor the development of the condition, all the while continuing to work as a cashier at the local power company and participating in vigorous outdoor sports.

"When my kidneys failed I was told I'd have to go on dialysis for the rest of my life because of the oxidoses," she said from her room at University Hospitals.

"For three years I commuted the 240-mile roundtrip to Memphis three or four times a week, spent one year on home dialysis, then a year ago started dialyzing in Colbert County at the Muscle Shoals center."

The dialysis -- a method of filtering impurities from the blood stream -- was a difficult adjustment for Ms. Crawford, whose husband, F. M.
Crawford, works with Southern Railway out of Shel-field. "I couldn't work, continually had headaches and high blood pressure, and had to count on my mother, sister and children for help at the house," she says.

But the kidney expert at the Muscle Shoals center, Dr.
Roa Bworgu, believed oxidoses would not bar her from having a kidney transplant. He referred his patient to Dr. Whelchel at UAB, who agreed, and because of the severity of her hypertension, said a special effort would be made to obtain a suitable kidney for her.

"Dr. Whelchel introduced me to a woman who had the same type kidney condition I have. She had received a transplant several years previously and was doing great," Ms. Crawford says.
"That made me feel like there really was some hope I could do the same."

Ms. Crawford returned to her dialysis regime for six months. On Friday, January 4, as she reported to the dialysis center, the good news came: The kidneys from a recent accident victim were a good match for her own tissues; she was expected in Birmingham for the operation that afternoon.

"I was just dazed, I couldn't believe it," she remembers.
"My family got my things from home, picked me up after I dialyzed, and we got to University Hospitals early."

"After the operation and while I was still in intensive care, my son, Andy, who is 15-years-old, was just beside himself he was so excited at the changes he could see in me already."

The changes apparent to her son and to daughter, Ann, 18, were the clearing of chronically yellow and bloodshot eyes, better skin color, and a brightening of personality dimmed by the fatigue of years of dialysis.

"My family is still excited.
Andy is so proud of the organ donor card he carries, and a lot of the people we know have signed the cards too," she says.

The Uniform Organ Donor Card is a legal document available from medical and kidney groups. Signing it allows a person's organs to be donated in the event of his death.

For the next several weeks, Ms. Crawford and her doctors will combat efforts by her body to reject the new kidney.
But Dr. Whelchel is optimistic that the transplant is a success and that his patient will be able to resume a near-normal life after leaving the hospital.

"Ms. Crawford is lucky to have come into the care of a nephrologist who was aware of the kidney transplantation advancements made at our center and others like it around the nation," the surgeon said.

"Since The University of Alabama in Birmingham has become heavily involved in this type surgery in the past couple of years, the number of people receiving transplants has increased tremendously.
Organ donations have doubled in each of the last two years, largely due to the efforts of the Alabama Organ Bank, and the publicity achieved by it and the kidney support groups in the state."

AT UNIVERSITY HOSPITALS, Betty Crawford, center, receives knitting tips from her mother, Mrs. Bernice Thornton, of Iuka, and Candice Grimes, R.N.

Consumption Patterns

Information on diets of individuals was obtained in surveys of households in 48 states under the supervision of the U. S. Department of Agriculture as part of the 1977-78 Nationwide Food Consumption Survey (NFCS) and the 1965-66 Household Food Consumption Survey (HFCS).

In the 1977-78 NFCS, food intake information on individuals was obtained for three consecutive days (except for a special elderly sample) in four seasons. In the 1965-66 HFCS, food intake of individuals was collected for one day only in the spring of 1965. The interview -- in both surveys -- produced information on food used in the home and information on food eaten by individual members of the household.

Comparing the average nutritive content of the diets based on the preliminary data from the NFCS in spring 1977 with data from the HFCS in spring 1965 leads to the following conclusions:

1. Caloric intakes of all sex and age groups were lower in 1977 than in 1965.

2. Intakes of infants showed the sharpest drop of all groups from 1965 to 1977 for food energy, protein, fat and calcium, but a large increase for iron.

3. Intakes of energy, protein and fat have decreased the least in older men and women. Calcium, Vitamin A and Vitamin C intakes were higher in 1977 than in 1965 for this age group.

4. From 1965 to 1977, intakes of protein declined for all groups except men and women older than 65 years of age. Fat intake declined for all groups.

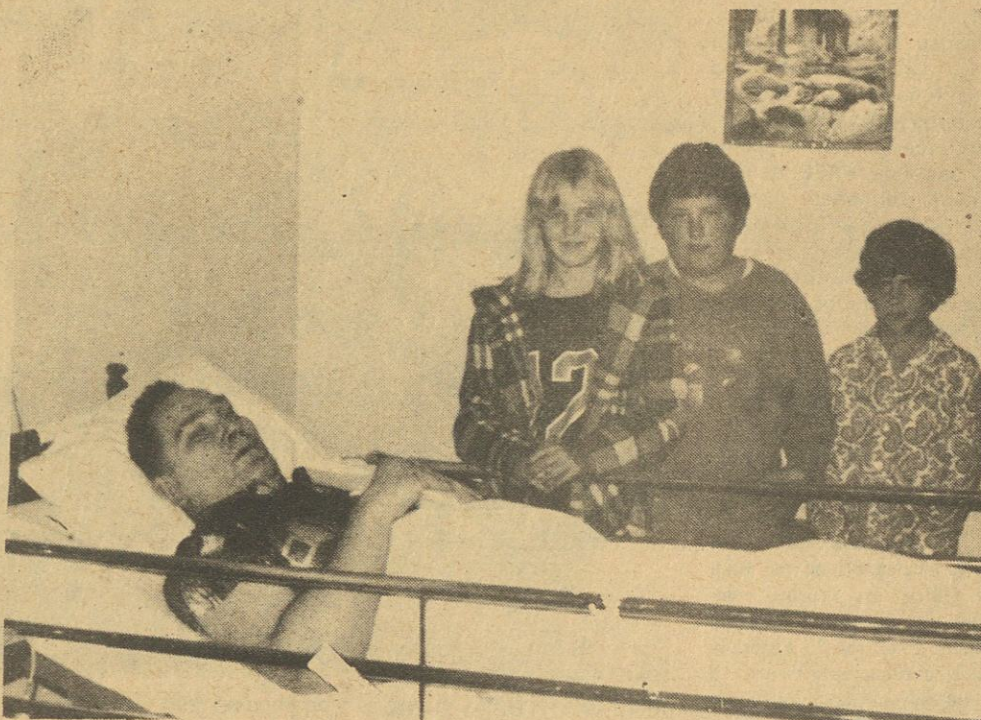

5. Calcium intakes in 1977 were lower than in 1965 for infants, children and teenagers but were close to or above 1965 levels for six of the eight groups of adults. Average intakes of females 12 years and older were 25 percent or more

County Agents Notes

Fit Crops To Soil

Using Mississippi's 30 million acres of land properly is important to everyone. Fitting the right crop to the right soil will provide the best land use. Select fields now for cotton, soybean and grain crops for 1980. Test the soil now for lime and fertilizer recommendations. Follow test results to get the most from your crop investment.

Improve Forestland In Winter

Forest landowners should improve their land in winter. Thinning, timber harvesting and stand improvement can be done now. It's also time to locate and remove trees damaged by fire, insects and storms. Give healthy trees more room to grow and keep dead and dying trees from harboring tree diseases and harmful insects.

Crop Production Estimates Up

A U. S. Department of Agriculture crop production report has raised production estimates for Mississippi crops for 1979. The state's soybean production estimate is 118.9 million -- 46 percent more than the 1978 crop. The cotton production estimate is 1.4 million bales -- five percent more than the 1978 crop.

GARDENS

If you plan on growing your own vegetable transplants, don't start too early. Tomatoes need 5 weeks to reach the size for setting out, while eggplants and peppers need 8 to 10 weeks. Avoid spindly, weak plants by using a sterile potting mix. Temperatures of 60 to 70 degrees, and fluorescent lighting no more than 12 inches above the plant tops.

Be selective when buying cabbage, broccoli, and onion sets and plants. Cabbage plants with large, woody stems will generally flower instead of making a head. Broccoli plants that appear hardened or show a small center bud will not be productive. Large onion transplants and sets larger than a dime will flower rather than bulb. Use them for green onions.

ASCS Farm News

By: Henry L. Knox, County Director

Registration Begins January 28 For Beef Producers - Elmer A. South, Chairperson of the Tishomingo County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) committee, said all producers who plan to vote on the beef research and information program must register between January 28 and February 6. The referendum will be conducted by secret ballot February 19 - 22. "Registration and voting will be conducted by mail if producers request the information and ballots in advance," South said. Beef producers will approve or disapprove the USDA order authorizing the research and information program. The program provides for a board of up to 68 beef producers and five non-voting consumer advisors, according to South. Each state would be represented on the board in proportion to its share of the cattle industry. Funds for the program would come from assessments based on the value of cattle sold. A similar referendum was conducted in 1977 but failed to get the required two-thirds approval, although it was favored nationally by 56.4 percent of producers voting. Since that time, the Beef Research and Information Act has been amended so that a majority of producers will be sufficient for approval. Rules for registering and voting in referendums have changed. "Producers have 10 days to register and four days to vote. This procedure is more efficient and less costly," the ASCS official said. Contact the county office for additional details.

All Cotton Growers Eligible For 1980 Program Benefits, ASCS Says - "Upland cotton growers will not be required to set aside or divert acreages to be eligible for target price or deficiency payments on their 1980 crop," South said. The no set-aside decision was based on strong export demand, increased domestic use and adequate, but no excessive, supplies. "A set-aside or diversion program in 1980, coupled with bad weather, could result in very tight supplies and a sharp reduction in cotton stock," he said. The resultant higher prices would, in the long term, reduce both domestic use and exports because U.S. cotton would be less competitive with synthetic fibers and foreign grown cotton. The higher prices would also increase consumer costs and contribute to further inflation. Other upland cotton provisions include a seed cotton loan program and a 11,602,285-acre national program acreage. South said the target price for the 1980 upland cotton crop will be announced when final yield and cost estimates are available. He said it is likely to be between 57 and 61 cents per pound. The target price provides income protection to cotton farmers and serves as a base to determine deficiency payments. If the national average market price for upland cotton in 1980 falls below the target price, cotton growers will receive deficiency payments. Growers who voluntarily reduce their 1980 cotton acreage from that planted in 1979 by at least 10 percent will receive deficiency payments on their total planted acreage. Those who do not reduce plantings will receive deficiency payments subject to an allocation factor, times the planted acreage. More program details may be obtained from the local ASCS Office.

& Mrs. Walton Montgomery Died On Golden Anniversary

two piece effect dress with a gold and burgandy floral pleated overblouse with burgandy skirt. She wore a crescent design shoulder corsage of golden wave rosebuds and gypsophilla, a bow of gold sprinkled not tied with lace edged ribbons. Mr. Montgomery wore a golden wave rosebud on his lapel.

The tea table was covered with an Army and Navy imported white linen and lace cloth. At one end of the table stood the traditional white, three-tiered anniversary cake, trimmed with yellow roses. The third layer was on top of a column and adorned with the numeral 50. Under the column was a tiny white sugar icing vase holding miniature sugar icing yellow rosebuds. On the other end of the table was a lovely arrangement of golden wave roses, gypsophilla and greenery in a brass four-branched candelabra holding golden tapers.

Mrs. Emily Hutcheson attended the tea table, cutting and serving the anniversary cake.

The coffee and punch table was covered with a gold linen cloth and was centered with a brass apertine holding a formal arrangement of fruit. The crystal punch bowl encircled with greenery holding golden fruit and banana punch with a floating fruit ring was at one end of the table with the silver coffee service at the other end. Silver trays held the cups.

Silver compotes holding mints and nuts on both tables completed the arrangements.

Attending the coffee and punch table were Mrs. Patsy Ponders serving the punch was Mrs. Charlene Whittington serving the coffee.

Mrs. Dexter Montgomery, a cousin, provided the appropriate background music, recorded and presented to the couple as his tribute to their fifty years together.

The floating hostesses were Mrs. Mabeline Yarber, Mrs. Opal Lee Ozborn, a niece, of Florence, Ala., Mrs. Mavis Hooper, Mrs. Alice Moore, Mrs. Rhea Senter and Miss Louise Northcutt. Other helpers were Mrs. Sarah Hammett, Mrs. Lula Tanner, Mrs. Ann Shook, Miss Frances Harris and Miss Teresa Harris. The hostesses were complimented with silk golden tone nosegay corsages tied with gold lace edged ribbon.

The son-in-law, Paul, served as the photographer and made many nice pictures throughout the afternoon. Also adding a special meaning to the honorees celebration was the presence of her only sister, Mrs. Sally Wilson, and his sisters, Miss Bessie Montgomery, of Belmont, and Bertice and Harold Daws, of Booneville.

It was with regret that the Montgomery's other three grandchildren, Bonnie Ellen, Allan, Jr., and Debra Montgomery, of Beaverton, Oregon, were not present, which would have made their day complete.

Perhaps "Dock and Bonnie" had not realized how many nice relatives and friends they had. More than two hundred people called during the appointed hours to help them celebrate their golden wedding anniversary and to make it a very happy and memorable day in their lives.

The Montgomerys have also received many calls, cards, letters and gifts from friends and relatives who were unable to be present.

Among those from out-of-town to attend were: Miss Tommie Mae Stanphill, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Ozborn, Mrs. Susa Stewart and Wendy, and Mrs. Houston Ivy, of Florence, Ala.; Mr. Alex Tiffin, Johnny Carnes, David Cleveland, Tim Horton, Sam Wooten and Freddy Waddle, of Red Bay, Ala.; Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Digby, Mr. P. DIRECTOR of SJH's Radiology School Carol Wyatt, left, presents Susan Luttrell, R.T. with the school's Achievement Award.

Susan Luttrell, R.T. Receives Award

On June 29th, five students of St. Joseph Hospital's School of Radiologic Technology received their diplomas. Susan Luttrell, R.T. was an outstanding member of the group in that she received one of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon a student in the school. Selected by her teachers and the physicians she worked with, Susan was presented with the school's Achievement Award. The award is presented each year to the radiology student who, in the eyes of those he or she works with, shows the most initiative and promise. Ms. Luttrell was presented with an engraved silver-plated tray the evening of the graduation.

"It was a real surprise to me," she says. "I had no idea they would call out my name!" Susan now works full time for SJH in the Radiology Department upon completion of the two-year program. Asked why she chose radiology as a field and SJH's school, she said that she had a friend who was in the school here and liked it. Susan was somewhat interested in some phase of the medical profession, so she decided to enroll at SJH's school.

"I really like the school and think it offers a good curriculum," she says. "Many of the courses are currently being upgraded, and I think the school will be even better!"

Carol Wyatt, B.S.R.T., is the instructor at SJH's School of Radiologic Technology, and

From The Lone Star State Hillsboro, 6-29-'08

Ed. Vidette:

Please give me space in your valuable paper to give a short sketch of my trip back to our dear old home, near luka, Miss., on the night of 6-29-'08 via Houston, Galveston, New Orleans. Spent one named place. We were there to Pensacola. There was there met by our aunt, Mrs. Ellen Hill, who lives a short distance in the country and remained there two days and nights. Found all well and in good circumstances. Had everything good to eat that heart and appetite could wish. The watermelons sure were fine. We had quite a good time while there. We went from there to Birmingham, Ala. and took in the reunion. Found Birmingham a fine city. Went from there to the city of Paden in Miss. and there met with many of our old friends. We had the pleasure of spending Friday night with our old friends W. M. Belue and Rev. J. E. Shackelford and found them all well and doing well. We had such a good old time meeting. We were so kindly treated by all we met. On Saturday we went to J. J. Bruton's who is our uncle and aunt. There we spent a day and night and of course we had a good time while there. Sunday we gathered up a wagon load of those good people and went to Oak Ridge Church and heard a fine sermon by Bro. J. E. Shackelford and just such a handshaking we did have meeting with so many our old friends. We went from there to our old friend's Joe Smith, where we met so many of our relations and friends. We had such a nice time. We met the Shackelfords, Bellamys, Riddies, Carters and ever so many of our relations and old time chums. We shall ever have love in our hearts for those dear ones. We went from there to Old Palestine Church and there we reviewed the ground of our early childhood. We also went to Old Friendship Church and there looked on those sacred mounds of our dear ones and friends. Old Palestine and Friendship will ever be near and dear to us. We also went to our old home places. There

PIONEERS IN ENERGY

Half a century ago some 40 companies were consolidated under the name of United Gas Corporation. Thereafter, they went on to write an illustrious history of harnessing nature for human advancement.

The back-breaking days of swamp and bayou pipeline crossings are now legend. From the basic technology of early pipeline construction, the company has progressed to the point where it plans, engineers and conducts some of the world's most sophisticated onshore and offshore pipeline operations.

The product of these pioneering years is one of the largest transmission systems in the nation, supplying Gulf South homes, businesses and industries with natural gas, the premium fuel.

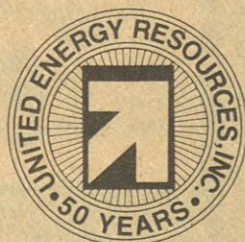

United Gas Pipe Line Company was the principal gas transmission unit under United Gas Corporation from the 1930's to the mid-60's. Following a merger, it had the same function under Pennzoil Company until 1974 when United Gas Pipe Line Company emerged as the independent, publicly-owned successor to the trail-blazing pipeline of yore.

In 1976, United Energy Resources, Inc. was formed as the parent company of United Gas Pipe Line Company and its subsidiaries. Today, some 20 United Energy Companies are working in most all phases of the energy business, helping to build a better energy future for us all.

United Gas Pipe Line Company, meanwhile, maintains an aggressive search for new natural gas for its pipelines, seeking supplies in Alaska, Mexico and Canada in addition to most major productive regions of the United States.

It's a long way from 1930, but as United Gas Pipe Line Company and the other United Energy Resources, Inc. companies celebrate our Golden Anniversary in 1980 we will be seeking new energy with the same vigorous spirit of our illustrious heritage.

Baddour Center Miracles at Iuka UMC

On Sunday, February 10, the Miracles of Baddour Memorial Center will present a musical program for the 11 a.m. worship service of the United Methodist Church, Iuka. Members of this talented singing group are all residents of Baddour Memorial Center, a village for mildly or moderately retarded persons, eighteen years of age or over. The Center, which has been in operation since December 1978, is located about one mile south of Senatobia, Mississippi, and is missioned to promote growth - mentally, spiritually, socially, physically, and vocationally; and to assist families and local churches in their ministry with retarded persons. A non-profit corporation, this unique ministry to mankind is an agency of the United Methodist Church.

Presently serving 58 persons, some of the campus facilities include nine group homes, vocational training workshop, chapel, 300-seat amphitheater, Country Store, gymnasium, heated swimming pool, two lighted tennis courts, lighted softball field, five greenhouses, animal care center, picnic pavilion, and three lakes stocked with catfish for fishing. A daily routine for the residents would involve work from 7:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., physical fitness and gymnastic classes, choir practice, and leisure time activities. Work situations offered are a sewing operation, producing bed and throw pillows, woodworking, kitchen and housekeeping aids, horticulture, and arts and crafts. All of the handcrafted items produced in the training program are sold in the Country Store on campus, and several of the items are sold in Fred's Stores throughout the South.

The Miracles, organized in June 1979, had made at least one hundred public appearances by the end of the year. Having traveled extensively in Mississippi as ambassadors for Baddour Center, the group is currently planning a trip to Washington to perform at a Roundtable meeting of religious and political leaders. While in Washington, the singers will be given a tour of the White House. In addition to their singing talent, several of the Miracles play various musical instruments such as the piano, guitar, tambourine, and melodica. Music department staff members who instruct as well as accompany the Miracles are Richard Hollie, on the piano and melodica; Thornton Chisom, on the guitar and soloist; and Audrey Chisom, guitar and tambourine. The Miracles are directed by Reverend and Mrs. Wyatt Hammond, previously associated with Sunshine Singers of Mexia State School, Mexia, Texas. Also joining the group in their performance at Iuka United Methodist will be Mrs. Sybil Reynolds Roberts, Director of Public Relations at Baddour Center, formerly of Iuka.

The Miracles offer tangible proof that the very special people who live at Baddour Memorial Center have a great contribution to make to our world.

The Bible Speaks

Hungry For Love
No one liked her. She was bad news. Never did anything right. A perpetual problem. Even the compassionate director of the orphanage where she lived was at the end of her rope. Convinced that the child should be in a mental institution rather than an orphanage, the director was looking for a solid reason to dismiss her. One day another resident told the director the girl had scrawled something on scraps of paper and tied them to the limbs of a tree in the yard. The director pulled one of the notes from the tree and read it...

"Whoever finds this - I love you!" the note read.

The child had a craving for compassion and understanding. A longing for love. She did strange and irritating things to gain attention.

Psychologists say an infant must be treated with warmth and tenderness. If that treatment isn't received the child may become a serious problem.

We all need love. Most of us receive an abundance of it from family and friends. We don't know what it is to be without it.

But all around us are people who have never been treated with genuine love and concern. They're slowly starving to death. God wants to dispatch his love to them - through us.

Today, as God's representative, will you look for an opportunity to speak a word of kindness, show interest in someone who is lonely, extend help to someone in need? It won't come naturally. You'll have to make an honest effort to find a need in someone's life and fill it. LWill you do it?

Message For Meditation

By: Terry L. Booker,
Pastor,
New Lebanon Church

What We Ought To Do?

There is not a day that goes by that many of us do not stop and think of things which we ought to have done. Call it a lack of self-discipline or whatever you want, but all at some point in time have failed to do some spiritual things which we ought to have done. The Bible speaks clearly about nine specific things which we ought to do. For additional clarification upon this word, refer to the Greek New Testament. It clearly defines Ought as an obligation, a duty, and a debt with regard to each passage of scripture of the following:

Acts 5:29 - We ought to obey God rather than men.

Luke 18:1 - Men ought always to pray, and not faint.

John 13:14 - If I then your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

Romans 15:1 - We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

Ephesians 5:28 - So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies.

Romans 12:3 - ... to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think.

Colossians 4:6 - Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

1 John 3:16 - We ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

1 John 4:11 - Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

the end the reward will make it all worthwhile. Even with the world crumbling around us, the Spirit filled Christian can know with joy that Jesus is still Savior to those who will allow Him into their lives.

Counce Makes Top 100 List

Dr. Shelby Counce, Huntsville, Ala., schools superintendent, has been cited among the top 100 school administrators in the United States and Canada in the February issue of an educational administration magazine.

Counce was deputy superintendent of Memphis schools before taking the Huntsville post in 1977.

He is a native of Iuka and is the son of John Counce, of Tusculuma, Ala., and the late Mrs. Pearl Counce.

The selections were made by a panel of editors and educators based on nominations made by readers of the magazine, The Executive Educator, and another publication, The American School Board Journal.

Surname Club To Hear Historical Tape

At the regular meeting at Iuka Library at 6 p.m. on February 2, the members of the Iuka Surname Club and any other interested persons, who wish to come, will hear a taped interview with former Sheriff of Tishomingo County, Mr. O. J. Bullen, by the late Dr. Wm. L. Coker. This is a very interesting recording of the highlights of Mr. Bullen's two terms as sheriff, including capturing moonshiners, a deputy shooting an escaped prisoner in self-defense, and the county's only legal execution.

In answer to many inquiries as to the origin and purpose of the I.S.C.: it was formed about six years ago by a few ladies who had become interested in genealogy for various reasons, mostly because it is fascinating to learn of one's family back to the first immigrants to America, and some back in England, Wales, France, Ireland or other places of origin.

In order to buy books, quarterly magazines on Genealogy from Alabama, Tennessee, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Maryland, Virginia and other states, there had to be funds, as these are very expensive. We set an annual membership fee of $7.50, all of which goes for research material and secretarial expenses. At first we met in the homes but as our books, etc. increased we had to have a central depository, so the Iuka Library was contacted and graciously allowed us to meet there and keep our books stored there, available at all times for use by members only.

Attendance at meetings is not required, but those who work or have family duties may check out the books or use them any day at the library. We have at present 30 members, less than half of whom are local. Others are people who have roots in the Iuka and perhaps several generations back but now live in distant states. They send us basic information and local members do their research for only the membership dues plus actual expense of copying machines or having court records made.

When someone finds all the information they need or all we have, they usually drop out, but ancestor tracing is really an endless task. Some of us have several lines as far back as ten or even fifteen generations. That is not so hard if one had forefathers prominent in colonial government or perhaps some who were knights and ladies, earls, etc. back in England or Wales.

Most of the earliest American records were kept by church parishes, such as marriages, births, deaths, land claims, etc. Court records later have wills, deeds and other legal proceedings. We have many of these as well as later books of family Bible records, tombstone inscriptions, applications for pensions, for service in the Revolutionary War, Civil War and other conflicts, pension lists, census reports, ships passenger lists of immigrants, etc. We have many books that contain fairly complete histories of hundreds of families, which can be traced to recent generations, and collected by the best known genealogists.

One member mentioned an unusual family name and was immediately shown her line back several generations in our compendium of American Genealogy, which is recognized by the U. S. Government as the authoritative source for background on servicemen. Several club members have found information allowing them to join the D.A.R. or U.D.C.

For a small fee of $2 any non-member may use our books for one day at the library. Let me clear up one point here: someone passing through Iuka wanted to find genealogical information and remarked upon being told it would cost $2, that it was the first time she ever had to pay to use library books. Well, these do not in any way belong to the library system but to the club. We merely store them there through the generosity of the library commission so as to be available for members.

We welcome new members and promptly order more books as enough funds are collected. The price range is from $18 up, with most good ones costing $25 or more each. Individual members may own a book by personally paying for it as some do, but our collection at the library is for all members.

Cappleman's Antiques recently donated a very nice chair for use with the library microfilm reader through the club, which is greatly appreciated by those reading census records of the county for 1850, 1860, 1870 and 1880, and some north Alabama counties for 1830.

A list of our material will soon be available at the library. They have a list of members and anyone wishing to join may leave the dues with the librarian or mail to Mrs. J. A. Coker, Secretary, Route 2, Iuka.

For information on what families are being researched, look for a list of the members and their family interests to be published soon. You may find that someone has already done most of your research. For any other information call 423-6930 or 423-9023.

I hope this article explains the purpose of the Iuka Surname Club, which is a non-profit organization, open to all interested people. Right now there are members in eight states and all are seeking information on early settlers of the area, many related to you. Come to a meeting on each first Tuesday night and let us show you our material. Also discuss your wishes and see if you would like to join. Our meetings are for working, but are fun too, especially when our two oldest members get to reminiscing on Iuka's early citizens and who lived where, who married whom, where they were from and perhaps where present descendants are. A planned project is to tape this in the form of a panel discussion.

Genealogy can be fun and also take you to many other libraries, some of the best are at Russellville, Ala., Corinth, Booneville, Columbus and Aberdeen. One member has been to sixteen libraries and the state and national archives, but you will be sure to find a lot right in our own books in the Iuka Library. Come and see and help your local club grow.

"The busy have no time for tears."

Byron

One of the Little Women

One of the little women Came up to Heaven's gate, And seeing the throng was pressing She sighed that she fain would wait.
For I was not great nor noble, She said, I was poor and plain,
And should I go boldly forward I knew it would be in vain.

She sat near the shining portals And looked at the surging crowd, Of those that were kings and princes Of those that were rich and proud.
Then suddenly she trembled greatly,
For one with a brow like flame, Came to her and hailed her gladly And spoke to her using her name.

"Come in thru the jeweled gateway," He said, "For the prize is thine, The work that you rendered in life Is work that was fair and fine.
To come while the rest stand waiting, Come enter in here and now, A crown of life eternal Is waiting to press thy brow."

Then trembled the little woman And said, "It may not be I, How wait they that wrought with greatness To how may I pass them by?"
"I carved no wondrous statues, I painted no wondrous things I spoke no tremendous sayings That rang in the ears of the kings."

"I toiled in my little cottage, I spun and I baked and I swept,
I sewed and I patched and I mended, Oh lowly the house that I kept.
I sang to my little children I led them in worthy ways, And so I might not grow famous I knew naught but care worn days."

"So was it by night and morning, So was it by week and year, I toiled with my weary fingers, Through days that were bright, or drear, Now I have grown old and wrinkled, And I have grown gray and bent, I ask not for chants or glory Now that I have found content."

"Arise," cried the waiting angel, "Come first of the ones who wait, For you are the voices singing,
For you do we open the gate."
Then He gave the little woman The Glory of the Lord.

HEALTH NEWS

Neuritis and Sciatica

Neuritis is a painful inflammation of a nerve, with impairment of power and sensation to the parts supplied by the nerve. The term is most frequently employed when there is an involvement of nerves going to either arm. Sciatic is a neuritis of the sciatic nerve, one of the longest nerves in the body, the small of the back down the entire length of the legs. It is extremely painful and frequently renders the patient bedridden.

Of all conditions which respond to Chiropractic, it may be said that neuritis responds most readily to adjustments. The reason is that most cases of neuritis result from a disturbance of body mechanics and displacement of spinal vertebrae creating irritation of the involved nerve.

Any sufferer from neuritis should avail himself of Chiropractic without delay.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic.
