THE SMOLDERING remains of a log house located west of Tishomingo after a tragic fire claimed the lives of the two persons living in the house and their pet dog early Monday morning.

Mother And Son Die In Early Morning Fire

An early Monday morning fire, occurring about 2 1/2 miles west of Tishomingo, claimed the lives of a mother, son and their pet dog and destroyed their home, a log house, at about 4:40 a.m.

Effie Sanderson, 81, and her son, Herbert Sanderson, 59, died of apparent smoke inhalation, according to acting coroner, James Kirk.

David Hall, a resident of the area, noticed the fire while enroute to work and called the Tishomingo Fire Department. The Fire Department immediately responded to the fire alarm, finding the house engulfed in flames and the roof falling in.

According to Mr. Kirk, the body of Mrs. Sanderson was found in the east side of the kitchen near the rear exit, and the body of her son, Herbert Sanderson, was found in the north side of the kitchen. Mr. Kirk said the occupants were apparently trying to escape and were overcome by smoke. The coroner's jury ruled that the fire was of an unknown origin.

Mr. Kirk expressed a desire to commend the Volunteer Fire Department of Tishomingo for the outstanding effort and immediate response displayed in this tragedy.

Services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Cutshall Funeral Home with Rev. Cecil Stepp officiating. Burial was in Allsboro Cemetery.

Mrs. Sanderson is survived by a daughter, Mrs.

Ollie West, of Cullman, Al.; two sisters, Mrs. Eva Decker and Mrs. Edith Burgess, both of St. Louis, Mo.; three brothers, Benson Hodgins, of Fulton, and Frank Hodgins and C. H. Hodgins, both of Tishomingo; eight grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren; and seven great-great-grandchildren.

Herbert H. Sanderson is survived by a sister, Mrs. Ollie West, of Cullman, Ala.

TVA Board To Consider Power Credit For Area

The TVA Power staff will recommend that the TVA Board of Directors make a power credit to its 2.7 million customers because of especially favorable financial results of its 1979 fiscal year ending September 30.

Such a credit, the first in TVA's 46-year history, could be used to offset partially an electric rate increase expected to be needed for the 1980 fiscal year beginning October 1.

The TVA Power staff will present the possible credit and the need for an electric rate increase at the quarterly rate review during the Board meeting Thursday, August 16, at 2 p.m., at the Ellington Agricultural Center in Nashville.

Manager of Power Hugh G. Parris said unusually wet weather this spring and summer has provided unexpectedly higher amounts of hydroelectric power generation through TVA dams, at virtually no fuel cost. In addition the efforts to improve the performance of TVA's large power plants has begun to pay off.

The greater amounts of hydro power and lower cost steam power have permitted TVA to avoid using high-cost turbine generators, which burn fuel oil, and even some of the higher cost coal-fired power plants, saving some coal.

As these savings began to occur this spring, the TVA Board delayed a 6.5 percent electric rate increase in April to July 1, then cancelled it altogether in June.

Parris said financial estimates by the Power staff for the 1979 fiscal year show these savings could amount to more than $100 million of additional savings by the end of the current year September 30.

"We are having a very good year financially," the Manager of Power said. "We are getting more hydro power than we budgeted and expected to get, and good performance from our Browns Ferry Nuclear Plant and our larger coal-fired plants all summer. This has let us avoid running the combustion turbines and having to buy expensive purchased power."

Parris said the unusually heavy rainfall could not be counted on during the coming fiscal year. Furthermore, fuel costs, interest payments, and operating and maintenance costs will increase sharply in fiscal year 1980, thus necessitating a rate increase.

The detailed numbers and rate recommendations will be presented at the TVA Board meeting in Nashville on Thursday.

HOME ECONOMIST'S NOTES

HIGHER FOOD PRICES EXPLAINED

Higher farm values for food commodities and increased marketing costs were the main factors behind higher prices for food on the wholesale and retail levels, according to a USDA report. Retailers absorbed more of the price rise than at any other time since 1973. The report listed reduced beef supplies, severe winter weather and heavy rains in California, which disrupted crop production, as major reasons behind the cost increases, along with the sharp rise in energy prices.

Also, farm prices increased more than retail grocery store prices for the first time in five years despite rising costs for fuel, food containers and packaging materials, and hourly earnings of retailers' employees. The USDA report also cited higher costs for transportation, electricity and wholesale prices as major factors behind retail price hikes.

CARROTS ARE VERSATILE
If your family is stubborn about eating vegetables, tempt them with the versatile carrot.

Carrots are good served alone or in combination with meats or other vegetables. Fresh carrots are available all year and are a good source of Vitamin A. Current prices on carrots are attractive, also.

Most carrots are tipped (leaves trimmed off) and sold in one- or two-pound packages. Bunched carrots, with tops attached, are sometimes available in markets.

Packaged carrots are often labeled "U. S. No. 1". This U. S. Department of Agriculture grade means good quality. U. S. No. 1 carrots are firm and fairly well formed; few carrots in the package have defects.

The proper color of carrots is orange or orange-red, not pale orange or yellow. Most carrots in a package must be at least five inches long and between 3/4 and 1 1/2 inches in diameter, unless the package is marked otherwise. If the grade name is shown within the USDA shield, the carrots have been packed under continuous government inspection.

When you buy carrots, either in bulk or when the grade is not on the package, look for well-formed, smooth, orange to orange-red carrots. They should be firm with well-trimmed tops. Avoid flabby or shriveled carrots or those with large green areas (sunburn) at the top.

Carrots can be stored in the vegetable bin of the refrigerator for 3 to 4 weeks.

GRILL-TOP GARDEN POT-ROAST
3 to 4-pound beef blade roast or 7-bone pot-roast
1 package (0.6 ounces) Italian salad dressing mix
1/4 cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/8 teaspoon pepper
2 cups thinly sliced carrots
2 cups sliced zucchini, cut 3/4 inch thick
1/2 teaspoon salt

Combine salad dressing mix, flour, 1 teaspoon salt, paprika and pepper; thoroughly dredge meat on both sides. Place meat in center of a double-thick rectangle of heavy duty aluminum foil (twice the circumference and 8 inches longer than roast). Sprinkle any remaining flour mixture over meat. Bring 2 opposite edges of foil together over top of meat. Fold edges over 3 or 4 times, pressing crease in tightly each time. (Allow some air space). Flatten foil at one end, crease to form triangle and fold edge over several times toward package, pressing tightly to seal. Repeat procedure on other end. Place on grill and cook at low to moderate temperature 1 1/2 hours, turning after one hour. Remove foil packet from grill; open carefully and add carrots and zucchini. Sprinkle 1/2 teaspoon salt on vegetables. Close foil, sealing securely. Place on grill (vegetable side up) and continue cooking 30 minutes or until meat and vegetables are done.

Eva Thorne Shares Vacation Experiences

Eva Thorne, of the Snow-don Community, recently returned home from an extended vacation to the Southwest. She had the exciting but unwelcome experience of being on a plane which received a bomb threat. The plane was evacuated and Mrs. Thorne spent two hours at the Tulsa, Okla. airport, then flew on to Phoenix, Ariz.

Mrs. Thorne spent May and June visiting her daughter, Angela Milligan, Ms. Milligan is Director of Nursing Resources for Indian Health Service on the San Carlos Apache Reservation. The reservation is approximately 100 miles east of Phoenix. It encompasses over 6 million acres. Mrs. Thorne participated in many Indian Health Service social events, such as cook-outs and ice cream suppers. She stated that her favorite part of the trip was seeing all the cactus in bloom. She visited the Whiteriver Apache, Zuni and Navajo reservations, as well as the Salt River Canyon. She went to Gallup, N.C., Phoenix and Tucson, Ariz., and collected many souvenirs of American Indian Culture.

REPORT TO MISSISSIPPIANS

Productivity in American business and industry suffered its sharpest decline in more than five years during the last three months, spelling more bad news on the inflation front.

Productivity -- the output of goods and services per hour of labor -- fell 3.8 percent in the second quarter of this year. The drop was the largest since a 6.9 percent decline in the first quarter of 1974.

As productivity decreases, the cost of producing goods and services increases, thus adding to inflation which is now running at an annual rate of between 13 and 14 percent. Inflation remains the number one problem confronting the American people. We must slow the rate of inflation which is posing a real threat to the standard of living of every American. The problem is a very difficult one for which there is no easy solution. The causes of the rapid rate of inflation have developed over a number of years, and cannot be rapidly reversed.

Many of the causes for the large increases in the cost of living are to a large degree beyond our control, such as the rise in imported fuel costs. However, some steps can be taken to solve the problem of declining productivity.

Stimulating productivity represents a positive approach to fighting inflation. Some stimulation has already produced favorable results. Reducing the capital gains tax, which the Congress approved last year, will allow business and industry to invest more of their profits in improved machinery and equipment and expansion of their facilities to provide more efficient production. Another recent action by the Congress exempts wage increases from wage-price guidelines if the raises are matched by productivity increases.

More legislation which would encourage research and development is needed so that business and industry can improve productivity and lower costs. The result will be more affordable prices on goods and services, and thus a lower inflation rate.

Meanwhile, we need to hold fast to the standard of giving a full day's work for a day's pay. That is the one thing that all Americans, on every level, can do to help boost productivity.

NEMJC - It Makes Cents

At a time when the consumer's eye sees only rising costs, Northeast Junior College is able to offer a most important service to its students - free transportation.

College owned buses, driven by Northeast work-study students, travel to and from the campus daily during the fall and spring semesters, according to Hal Hughes, Dean of Student Affairs.

This service, which began with the opening of the college in 1948, has proven beneficial to hundreds of students who desired quality education at the least possible cost.

Presently, nine buses are expected to make regular routes in the five-county area when classes begin on August 22. Making designated stops along the way, the buses will travel the major highways in each county.

Routes in Tishomingo County will originate in Luka, Belmont and Burns-ville.

For additional information, contact the Office of Student Affairs at 728-7751.

JESUS CHRIST - THE LORD
Criticism has been busy for hundreds of years now concerning every phase of the life and work and character of Jesus of Nazareth. Men of all faiths and of no faith have ransacked every possible source, with every conceivable hypothesis and critical suggestion. The advance in science and in philosophy and in historical methods of research has come to a focus in the study of Jesus Christ. It is now not possible to escape the fact that Jesus is real. Also, for a fact is heaven and hell. A remaining fact is that each of us will spend eternity in one of those places. Jesus is the one hope of man in the face of manifold and complex problems of modern industrial, social and political life. Jesus is your answer. You will spend eternity in hell without him.

Revival is in progress with Bro. Bill Moore, from Central, Miss., preaching. You are invited to attend at 7:15 p.m. nightly.

The Bible Speaks

BY: REX BUFORD

COUNT TEN!

When angry, count ten, a moment of reflection can often save years of regret. It was said of Julius Caesar, that, when provoked, he used to repeat the whole Roman alphabet before he suffered himself to speak. Squelch the tendency to "pop off" under provocation. "Anger" says the familiar Latin proverb, "is a short madness." And when one has lost control of himself, he is apt to say and do things rashly without considering the results. In the wake of anger is often found battered feelings and broken

Any fool can become angry... that's easy. But it takes a wise man to defer his anger, overlook a wrong, or practice patience and forgiveness. Ralph Waldo Emerson once spoke of a man whose "heart was great as the world, but there was no room in it to hold the memory of a wrong." What a glowing tribute to pay any man!

David, of old, had to contend with those who were constantly setting snares for him, speaking mischievous things about him and endeavoring to take away his life. What did he do? He said, "But I, as a deaf man, heard not; and I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth. Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs" (Psalm 38:13). Such self-restraint is admirable. David refused to give in to the boomerang of retaliation.

Abraham Lincoln said once to a friend: "You have more of that feeling of personal resentment than I have: perhaps I have too little of it, but I never thought it paid." He was right. It doesn't pay.

No provocation whatsoever could cause Christ to retaliate in word or action. On trial for His life, with false witnesses speaking against him, "Jesus held his peace." Peter points out His uncomplaining submission to unjust suffering by saying, "Who when he was reviled, reviled not again: when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously."

— Miss Ellen Fullerton and Mr. Timothy Barker were married in a ceremony in the First Church of the Nazarenes, Kenedy, Texas, Saturday, August 9, 1970 at 7:00 p.m. The Rev. Robert Wimpee officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Fullerton of Kenedy. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. S. Barker of Kenedy. The bride wore a white gown with a full skirt and a long train. She carried a bouquet of white flowers. The groom wore a dark suit. The ceremony was held in a church with a large altar and stained glass windows. The wedding was a private affair with only family and friends in attendance.

chose a beautiful gown of white lace designed by Alfred Angelo. The bodice of the gown was accented with sequins and pearls. The Victorian style sleeves were fastened with dainty buttons at the wrist. Tiers of chantilly lace from the bouffant skirt extended into an elegant cathedral train. Her illusion veil was trimmed in matching lace and held by a band of flowers and pearls. The bride's bouquet was a cascade of pink roses, pink mini carnations, stephanotis and white German statice. It was placed on the white Bible that her Mother's wedding bouquet was carried on and held two detachable long stemmed pink roses which the bride presented to her mother and mother-in-law and a detachable corsage of pink roses and white german statice.

Maid of honor was Miss Judi Speake of Kenedy. The bride's two sisters, Miss Karen Sue Fullerton and Miss Diane Fullerton were bridesmaids.

Flower girl was Melissa Sue Williams of Crane, cousin of the bride. Cody Barker, nephew of the groom of Uvalde was ring bearer.

They wore pink picture hats and carried nosegays of pink roses, pink minis carnations and white german statice. The flower girl carried a white wicker basket filled with pink rose petals which she dropped as she went down the aisle.

Best man was the groom's brother, Mr. Jerry Barker of Cloudcroft, New Mexico. Mr. Joe Carl Barker of Uvalde, brother of the groom and Mr. Lyndal Harrison of Junction were groomsmen.

The mother of the bride chose a floor length gown of ivory Qiana accented with a chiffon floral cape. Her corsage was a yellow cymbidium orchid.

The groom's mother chose a formal gown of pleated turquoise chiffon accented with a sheer pleated capelet. She wore a yellow cymbidium orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony the reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride's table covered with a white floor length satin cloth, overlaid with white chiffon held a three-tiered wedding cake topped with white doves. The cake was beautifully decorated with pink rosebuds and the top layer stood atop four columns. Pink punch with nuts and mints were at the opposite end of the table which was centered with a candelabra arrangement of pink and white carnations, mums and white tapers.

The groom's table covered with a floor length brown cloth overlaid with beige net and lace held an arrangement of fuji mums. The double ring german chocolate cake decorated with a horse and carriage was served with coffee, nuts, mints and finger sandwiches.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:
Several citizens have asked me to comment on the latest street paving spree that the City has indulged in. I don't think anyone could argue that the streets paved were not in drastic need of paving. My own Mill St. is a succession of pot holes and ragged edges, and so are many more streets. What seems to be bugging the people I've talked to is the fact that one of the streets paved only extends to Cutshall Funeral Home and not a foot farther! Another question people have asked is; as any expenditure by the City, of any sum in excess of $500.00, must be published for bidding by the lowest bidder, and apparently the streets paved would cost in the neighborhood of $20,000 to $25,000. Why then were they not let by bid? Perhaps our good Mayor and Board would like to clarify this issue?

Who can bring down the high cost of financing a home?

WINTER

Here's how

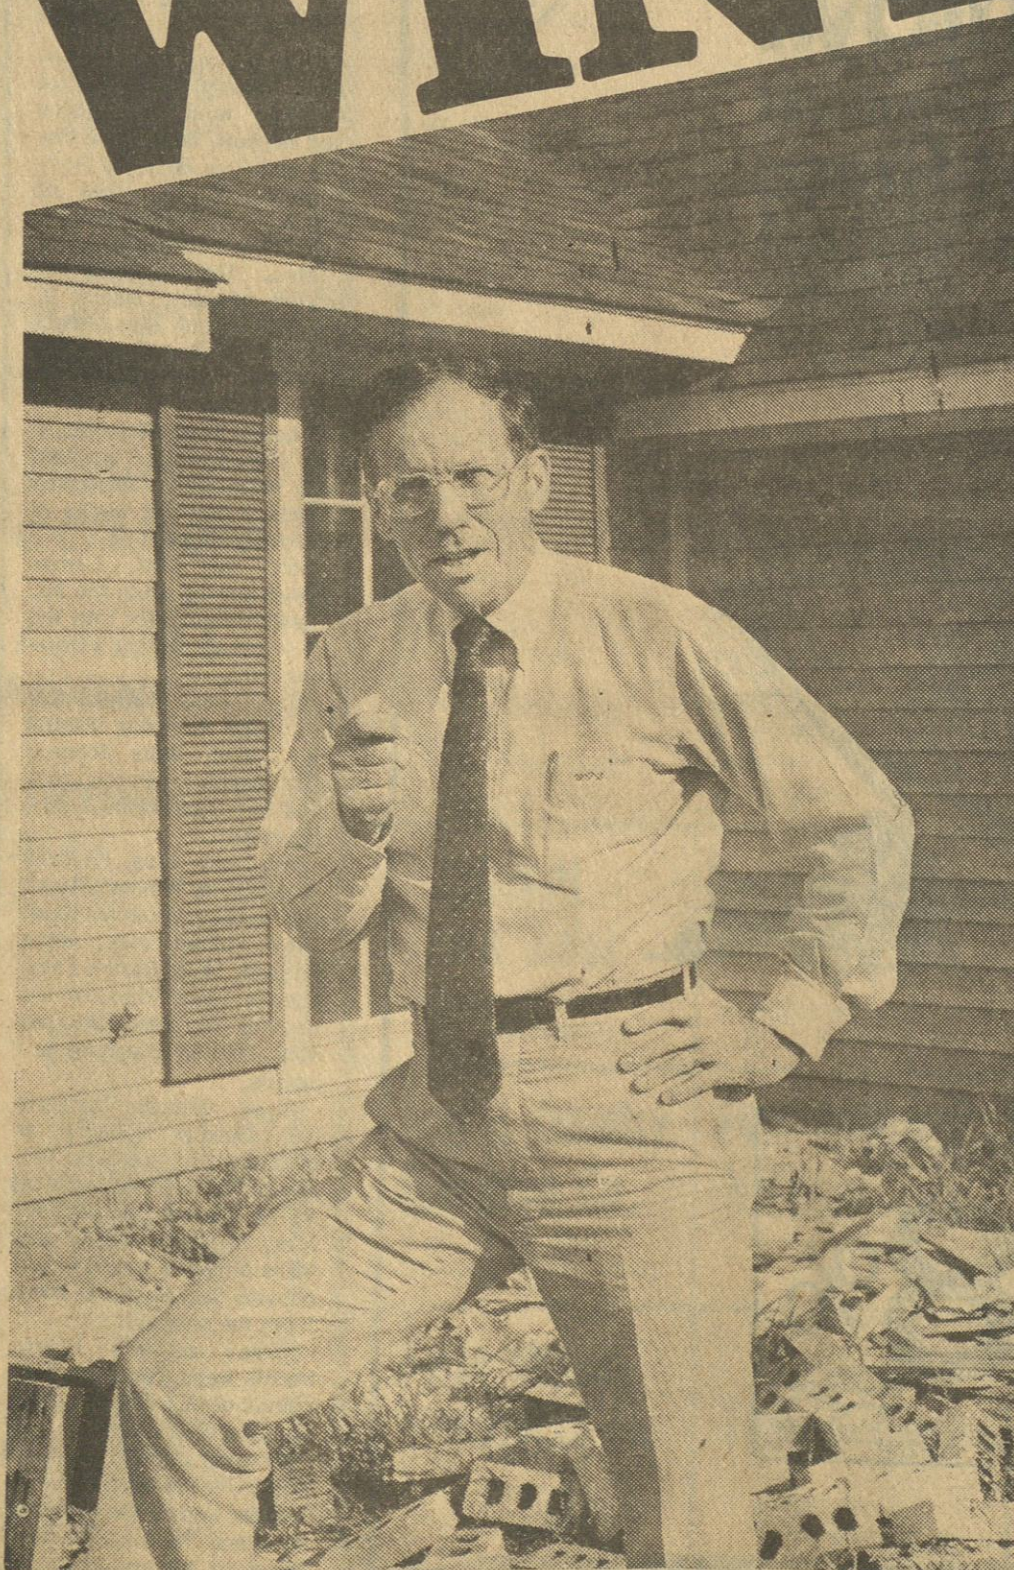

Mississippi is facing a crisis in housing. For many young Mississippians the American dream of owning a home is vanishing because of high interest rates and inflation.

William Winter's "Homes for Mississippians" plan would enable average, hard-working Mississippians to buy homes as much as 2% below the conventional mortgage rate. The average homeowner could save up to $100 per month on a house note. This would be made possible by authorizing the state or localities to issue tax exempt revenue bonds to provide money to private lending institutions for these low-rate mortgages. Winter will also continue to support federal and state programs which help low income families with housing needs.

William Winter has a forward-looking plan to get our state moving again. It's a tough job. And Winter can do it.

OFFICIAL LEGAL NEWSPAPERS OF TISHOMINGO COUNTY

COUNTY POLITICIANS EXPRESS APPRECIATION

John R. White Thanks Voters

TO THE PEOPLE OF TISHOMINGO COUNTY:

Thank you sincerely for the nice vote you gave me on August 7th. I am more convinced than ever that Tishomingo County folks are the best in the world. Although she was a few days late, my baby daughter arrived just as I promised she would. Ivy Ann Hoover White was born at 2:10 a.m. on August 12. She weighed six pounds and 15 ounces and has blue eyes. Her brothers, as well as her Pappy, are all crazy about her.

Thank you again for your kindness.
Sincerely,
JOHN R. WHITE

A. C. Ryan Gerald C. Parson

TO THE VOTERS OF TISHOMINGO COUNTY 3RD DISTRICT:

I wish to take this opportunity to thank each of you for the tremendous response you gave me on August 7th, and the confidence you expressed with that splendid vote. We now need to join hands and work together for the betterment of District 3 and Tishomingo County and work for the good of all. I can assure you that I will continue to work for you to the best of my ability.

Thank you so very much.
A. C. RYAN

Cager Hill Lloyd Yow

Thanks to everyone for the consideration you showed me during my recent illness. Thank you for the beautiful flowers, cards, phone calls, and each visit and especially for your prayers. A special thanks to Bobby and Virginia Jones for being in Memphis with me and my family during my surgery.

May God bless each of you.

Old Pleasant Hill, at N. Crossroads, is having a regular Saturday night singing August 18, at 7:30.

Benefit Singing

There will be a benefit singing at Rowland Mills, 5 miles south of Burnsville, Friday night, August 17, beginning at 7:30 for Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hardin, whose home burned recently. They lived about 2 miles south of Burnsville.

There will be four groups of singers. Everyone is urged to come and help in this worthy cause.

James R. Blakney Thanks Voters

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 2ND DISTRICT OF TISHOMINGO COUNTY:

I, James R. Blakney, would like to take this opportunity to gratefully thank each and every one of you who gave me the overwhelming support in the first primary.

To all of you who voted for one of my worthy opponents, I would like to take this opportunity to ask you to please consider me for this very important post. I feel that I am very well qualified for this position, but I cannot win without your help and support.

So, let's all go to the polls once again on August 28, and get together and elect James R. Blakney your next Justice Court Judge of the Second District. You'll never regret it, and I'll never forget it.

Thank you!
JAMES R. BLAKNEY

Elected Membership In American Angus Assn.

Thomas J. James, of Dennis, has been elected to membership in the American Angus Association, reports Dr. C. K. Allen, executive vice-president of the national organization with headquarters in St. Joseph, Mo.

The American Angus Association, with some 38,000 active life and junior members, is the largest beef cattle registry association in the world. Its computerized records include detailed information on nearly 10 million registered Angus.

The Association records ancestral information and keeps records of production on individual animals for its members. These permanent records help members select and mate the best animals in their herds to produce high quality, efficient breeding cattle which are then recorded with the American Angus Association. Most of these registered Angus are used by the U. S. farmers and ranchers who raise high quality beef for U. S. consumption.

Firemen Attend Seminar

Three members of the District One Volunteer Fire Department underwent an extensive fire-training seminar this week at Northeast Mississippi Junior College. The three men, Chief Jerry Bonds, Ron Harwood, and Jim Burden, were trained on "P-W To Survive Your Next Alarm" a course offered by the Appalachian Regional Commission.

The District One Volunteer Fire Department meets every first and third Tuesday of each month. All interested persons may attend.

Richard Hayden Ables

To my friends who supported me for the office of Chancery Clerk, please accept my sincere thanks for the confidence you had in me, and I thank everyone who gave me support in any way. I have thought about you more than I have myself. Such friends as you make this a better place to live. I cannot express in words my feelings of your trust and generosity. I promised you I would be your friend if elected or not, and I meant it.

Several have called me about the close vote you gave me and expressed their feelings that maybe a recount should be made due to the close vote, that the narrow margin of ballots might change the results in our favor, but after careful and prayerful thought, I feel it best to accept the records as they stand, after all I worked hard to present myself as fair and honest as I could, trusting that everyone involved in holding the election would be also, and I would not change this trust now. I promise to always be your friend and will help in any way I can to help you select the best, fairest, and most honest people to fill the offices of our community. That is what Democracy is about. I hope the ones elected will give you their very best. I am and will always be your humble friend.

May God bless each of you,
RICHARD HAYDEN ABLES

Old Courthouse Fund Successful

by Emory D. Jones

The Tishomingo County Museum and Cultural Center, Inc. would like to extend its sincere appreciation for the public's response to the drive to raise the matching funds for the $20,000 renovation grant from the Mississippi Department of Archives and History. We have successfully met our deadline. To date, contributions have totaled approximately $7200.00. Of course, the project will need continued financial support from the public, additional funds going to the maintenance, repair, and operation of the Tishomingo County Museum and Cultural Center itself. Thus, although the fund drive itself is successfully completed, tax deductible contributions are still needed, and they will be needed for some time to come.

Mr. Ed Hunley, Director of the Yellow Creek Watershed Authority, presented the results of the drive to the proper authorities in Jackson. He reports that they were very favorably impressed with what has been going on in Tishomingo County this summer. We are assured of our $20,000 grant.

With the exception of a few anonymous contributors, the following is the up-to-date list of contributors: Miss Gladys J. Let me encourage you, if you have not yet contributed, to mail your tax deductible contribution to Tishomingo County Museum and Cultural Center, Inc., P. O. Box 275, Iuka, MS 38852. Control Fleas On Your Pets

MISSISSIPPI STATE — If your dog or cat spends part of its time in the house, you may have a flea problem. The best way to prevent flea infestations in the house, according to Dr. James Jarratt, Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service (MCES) entomologist, is to control fleas on your pet. A dust containing four to five percent malathion or Sevin is safe and effective on dogs or cats, but use it according to label directions. Be sure the dust is rubbed into the hair or fur, all the way to the pet's skin, he adds. As an added precaution, change your pet's flea collar often in warm weather. If fleas are already in your home, control them with good housekeeping and approved insecticides. Clean infested rooms several times with a vacuum cleaner. This includes vacuuming carpets, rugs, upholstered furniture and other places where fleas or larvae may hide. Surface sprays containing pyrethrums are usually effective. They are often found in household aerosol sprays and other ready-mixed household chemicals. Be sure to use a non-staining product on rugs, carpets and furniture, adds Dr. Jarratt. Insecticides like diazinon or Baygon can be used to treat baseboards and cracks in the floor. You may need to repeat the treatment after about a week, because a new batch of fleas may hatch. In using any pesticide, follow safety precautions. Don't let pesticides come in contact with food, utensils, dishes or items children may put into their mouths. Keep all pesticides out of reach of children at all times, he adds.

REPORT TO MISSISSIPPIANS

The SALT II Treaty now being considered brings into review the largest and most powerful array of military weaponry ever gathered at one time. This weaponry carries the most destructive force ever collected, with the possibility of affecting more nations and more human lives than any previous collection of weaponry in history. The array of weaponry is so vast that the United States and the Soviet Union have actually driven to the step of considering limiting such arms, lest each destroy the other.

The decision the Senate must make on ratification or rejection of the treaty is one of the most important decisions to come before the Senate during the time I have been here. Our duty as Senators is clear. We must get the facts, and then move forward on the basis of the facts -- void of partisan politics and every other consideration.

We are now in the process of collecting the facts on the treaty. As Chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, I am currently holding hearings aimed at bringing forth the true meaning of the treaty and its implications for our national security. I am centering on questions relating to our capacity to undertake a strategic attack with intercontinental ballistic missiles, submarines, and bombers, should we be found in a position where the use of such weaponry is the only alternative. We must get down to the real U.S. capacity in this regard, especially in light of development and deployment of the M-X missile.

Secondly, I want to determine from testimony in what way or ways this treaty would prohibit us from improving our strategic attack capability during the next five years and the next ten years.

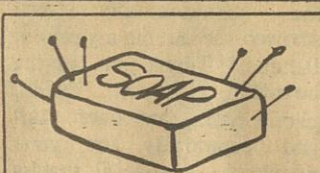

Thirdly, I want to pursue the questions of the similar Soviet capacity and the effect, if any, of the treaty on it.

Finally, I want to pursue questions of our capability to successfully keep adequate surveillance over the Soviets to the extent of being able to tell whether they are cheating or abiding by the terms of the treaty. I do not trust the Russians, and require full proof that we can adequately detect any cheating on their part. We must determine whether our capability for carrying out this surveillance will be absolute or just what is termed adequate. In other words, we should determine what we will know in full, what we will know with some uncertainty, and what we will not know at all.

I have not yet decided how I will vote on the question of ratification of this treaty. After hearing all the expert witnesses in testimony before the Armed Services Committee, and more study on my own, I will make this decision to the best of my ability. I pray that God will help us and all mankind to find a path that leads away from the use of weapons of destruction and toward a path of constructive usefulness.

The following officers were elected for 1980: Roscoe Bullard, president; Homer Bullard, Robert Bullard and Odell Bullard, vice

Bell System Helps State Economy

South Central Bell, Western Electric and American Telephone & Telegraph's Long Lines Department -- the three Bell Systems units which operate in Mississippi -- contributed some $275 million to the state's economy via payrolls and purchases last year, according to Bob Bartley, Local Manager.

South Central Bell which serves about 750,000 Mississippi customers had a 1978 Mississippi payroll of $129 million. In addition, the phone company purchased $109 million in equipment, supplies and services in Mississippi last year.

Western Electric -- the Bell System's manufacturing and supply division -- paid out some $6.6 million in salaries and wages to Mississippi employees in 1978. The company's purchases in Mississippi totaled $19.4 million last year.

As the Bell System's main "purchasing agent," Western Electric makes nationwide bulk purchases for other Bell units, realizing substantial cost savings based on economies of scale. Such savings help keep down the price of telephone service.

Long Lines is the AT&T unit responsible for operating and maintaining the nation's interstate long distance telecommunications network, and also for providing Mississippi customers with international communications service. It pays to its Mississippi employees $2.8 million annually in salaries and wages. Long Lines' purchases in the state last year totaled $7.9 million.

In addition to AT&T -- the parents; South Central Bell and 22 other telephone companies; Western Electric; and Long Lines: the Bell System partnership also includes Bell Laboratories, the research and development arm of the system.

2	9,420	785	181
3	11,680	973	225
4	13,940	1,162	268
5	16,200	1,350	312

8	22,990	1,916	442
Each Additional Family Member, Add	2,260	188	43

Children from families whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for (free or reduced price meals). In addition, families not meeting these criteria but with other unusual expenses due to unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of thirty percent (30%) of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, and disaster or casualty losses are urged to apply.

Application forms are being sent to all homes in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

To discourage the possibility of misrepresentation, the application forms contain statement above the space for a signature certifying that all information furnished in the application is true and correct. An additional statement is added to warn that the application is being made in connection with the receipt of Federal funds, that school officials may, for cause, verify the information in the application, and that deliberate misrepresentation of information may subject the applicant to prosecution under applicable State and Federal criminal statutes.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals for them, it should contact the school.

Under the provisions of the policy the Food Service Supervisor will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official, he may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. If he wishes to make a formal appeal, he may make a request either orally or in writing to Dr. Jerry Stone, Superintendent, 507 W. Quitman, Iuka, phone 423-3206, for a hearing to appeal the decision. The policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure.

If a family member becomes unemployed or if family size changes, the family should contact the school to file a new application. Such changes may make the children of the families eligible for reduced price meals or for additional benefits such as free meals if the family income falls at or below the levels shown above.

In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, color, or national origin.

Each school and the office of the Superintendent has a copy of the complete policy which may be reviewed by any interested party.

Make School Lunches - With Careful Preparation

MISSISSIPPI STATE - If your child takes his lunch to school, pack a special treat in his lunchbox, suggests Ann O. Rushing, Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service marketing specialist.

Kids love lunches from home, especially when there is a treat or surprise inside. Be careful, though, to avoid packing a dangerous surprise in your child's lunchbox - food poisoning.

Packed school lunches can be dangerous if you don't prepare them carefully. Bacteria and germs, which cause food poisoning, grow rapidly at temperatures between 40 degrees and 140 degrees F. Warm temperatures in school lockers and desks provide a playground for growing germs and bacteria. Be sure you prepare safe lunches for your children.

Keep food cold. Freeze sandwiches containing meat and poultry products the night before and take them out of the freezer just before leaving the house. They will thaw slowly in the locker and be just right by noon. By keeping sandwiches cold, you inhibit the growth of germs and bacteria.

To keep school lunches cold, get a freezer gel device. Place one in each lunch bag. If you don't have one, make your own by taking a clean margarine container, filling it with water and freezing it overnight. Just before your children leave for school, place the device in the center of their lunch bags. It will keep lunches cold and safe.

You can keep liquid food products cold by pouring them into a vacuum bottle or other insulated container.

Keep foods cool and hot chocolate popular lunch items. Keep these foods in a vacuum bottle or insulated container. Boiling hot. Put immediately. Escaping from the help keep warm longer. Keep foods to clean and vegetables before packing. The key is to always wash your hands with soap before handling rubber gloves. Cut or infect hands. Make sure cutting boards and surfaces are thoroughly with hot immediately before you use them.

"Trading" practice among. However, this dangerous practice out. Discourage you from "trading" prepared with classroom. The way of knowing if child's food was stored safely.

Lunchboxes hold inside much better easier to keep clean if you prefer a sack bags to be used for this purpose. Clearly and store from your other bags which previously used to carry lunches, de-similar items. Use contain harmful bacteria and chemicals.

New Federal Tax Law Boost Capital Investment

MISSISSIPPI STATE - The new federal income tax law contains several provisions to encourage farm and other business owners to boost their capital investments, according to Dr. Johnnie Sartor, Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service economist.

For example, any cost incurred after October 1978 to rehabilitate a building used for production in business may be eligible for a 10 percent investment tax credit.

"There are several qualifications," says Dr. Sartor. "The structure - such as a hog house, barn, horticultural facility or general storage building - must have been in use 20 years or more. The improvements must have a useful life of five years or more. No more than 25 percent of the exterior walls may have been replaced. And, the building must not have been enlarged.

"Houses for people don't qualify under the investment tax credit," adds Dr. Sartor. "Neither do costs of buying, completing or enlarging a building."

Sartor gives this example of the rehabilitation credit. "Suppose you put $4,000 into replacing partitions and electrical wiring in a barn that has been in use at least 20 years. You would get a $400 credit against your taxes," he explains.

Farmers should check with a tax advisor or the local Internal Revenue Service office for answers to questions about when the improvement on ing will qualify for. There also is a ment tax credit instruction. It is for such as greenh confinement building parlors, pool and other facilities. To qualify for greenhouses must be specifically designed, used for commercial purposes. A structure must only for qualifying. If part of a building for storing feed or, for example, the disqualify it for the. If the building converted to a qualifying use, it recapture the credit earlier.

This credit was active to Aug. 15, ever, IRS regulations you to file an an return no more years after the death of you. If you have an "open year" after cause of a dispute and had waived your of limitations, you still claim a refund occurred more than ago.

Norris Reunion Held At Mineral Springs Park

On Sunday, July 8, 1979, a group of 64 relatives of the late Daniel Marion (Bud) Norris met at the youth center in Mineral Springs Park in Iuka for their 14th annual family reunion.

There is only one survivor of the family of 12, Mr. Earnie Norris, of South Bend, Ind. Since the 1978 meeting, Mrs. Myrtle Hale passed away in March of 1979.

Those present this year included: Mr. and Mrs. Earnie Norris, South Bend, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. John Hinkson, Sam and Jake, Mr. and Mrs. Arvil Norris and

Mrs. Aliene Goldinger, of Little Rock, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hinkson, Dutches and Kelly, Miss Shelly Hinkson, of Gassville, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. Randal Ford and daughter, of Bald Knob, Ark.; Mrs. (Homer) Jennie Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Norris, Judsonia, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lowery, Mrs. Jeanie Foster, Nettie and Becky, Gentry, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. Edd Childers, Tracy, Tammy, and Todd, Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Lori Lovelace, Mrs. Patti Weston and Brandi, Waterloo, Ala.; Mrs. (Lennie) Lauerce Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Moore and Terri, Mr. and Mrs. David Nichols, Andy and J. J., Fulton, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brown, Greenville, S.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Delbert Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Norris and Mr. Wayne Norris, Collierville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Troy Norris, Ricky, Benny and Stanley, of Booneville, Ms.; Mr. and Mrs. Gene McCoy, Miss Annie Mae Norris and Mrs. Reba Wood, of Iuka; Mr. A. J. Norris, Corinth; and Mr. Floyd Norris, of Burnsville.

It was the first time for the Willie Kindsons, the Edd Childers and Mrs. Goldinger. They are of the Rome Norris family.

Mr. John Ford, of Bald Knob, Ark., sent a nice letter to greet the family since he and his wife, Jimmie, were unable to attend. Thanks, John. Mr. Steve Hickson, of Little Rock, Ark., sent greetings by way of film made in his home on which he also sang a song. Good singing, Steve. Thank you.

John Hinkson showed the pictures he had taken in the past and took pictures at this year's gathering to be shown at the 1980 reunion.

Delbert Norris was surprisingly honored with gift from the John Hinksons for being the one who started the Norris Family Reunion when he and his wife, Betty, invited and entertained and prepared a good dinner for the first one at their home in Memphis in 1965. The Norris family has been a scattered people. Many of the cousins have met and enjoyed getting acquainted since that time and would never have met otherwise. Since 1965, they have come from ten different states to the Bud Norris reunion held in Iuka. These states include Indiana, Kentucky, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Oregon, Colorado, Alabama, Tennessee, South Carolina, Michigan, and other parts of Mississippi.

A bountiful dinner was enjoyed by all present and the family looks forward to meeting at the same place in Iuka the second Sunday in July of 1980.

ASCS

CORN, SORGHUM AND SOYBEAN COMMENTS DUE SEPTEMBER 18:

Corn, sorghum and soybean farmers and others have until September 18, to comment on proposals for the 1980 corn and sorghum programs and the soybean loan rate. Elmer South, Chairperson of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee, said, "although Secretary Bergland is not required to make most of the program decisions before November 15, he is asking for early comment in the event that weather and other conditions justify making an announcement prior to the deadline." Written comments are requested on the amount of the national program acreages; the reduction from the previous year's harvested acreage required to guarantee established (target) price protection on the total 1980 planted acreage; whether there should be a set-aside requirement and, if so, the extent of the set-aside; whether there should be a set-aside requirement and, if so, the extent of the set-aside; whether there should be a land diversion program and, if so, the extent of such diversion and the level of payment; whether a limitation should be placed on planted acreage if a set-aside or land diversion program is required; the target prices, and the loan and purchase levels for 1980 crops of corn, sorghum and soybeans. Comments are also invited on the Commodity Credit Corporation minimum sales price, commodity eligibility, storage requirements, premiums and discounts, and other provisions necessary to carry out the programs. Comments should be mailed to the director, production adjustment division, U. S. Department of Agriculture, ASCS, Room 3630-S, P. O. Box 2415, Washington, D. C. 20013.

SOYBEAN LOAN RATE REMAINS UNCHANGED:

The loan and purchase rate for Tishomingo County's 1979-crop soybeans remains unchanged from the 1978 rate, Mr. South said. He said the premium and discount schedule is also unchanged from that used in the 1978-crop program. The rate is based on the national average loan level of $4.50 per bushel for 1979-crop soybeans as announced Nov. 11, the ASCS official explained. This $4.50 loan level is for soybeans containing 12.8 to 13 percent moisture and graded not lower than No. 2 on the factors of test weight, splits, and heat damage, and No. 1 on all other factors. Copies of the rates may be obtained from the Mississippi State ASCS Office, or by writing to the price support and loan division, U. S. Department of Agriculture, ASCS, P. O. Box 2415, Washington, D. C. 20013. Farmers who have questions concerning the rates should contact the Tishomingo County ASCS Office.

Summer Ills Named

Winter is the favorite time for colds and flu and sneezes, but there are some health and accident hazards that do their worst in hot weather.

Sun strokes and heat strokes are more likely to occur in July and August than in January.
Too much exposure and too much exercise in hot sun may produce sun stroke. Prolonged excessive heat, either in or out of doors, can cause heat stroke.
The symptoms are similar and in either case it is important to keep the victim cool and call a physician at once.

Sunburn has hospitalized
many a vacationer, the American Medical Association reminds. Everyone should know that gradual exposure to the sun, beginning with a few minutes a day, is the recommended course. But many of us forget to watch the clock and take precautions against sunburn in the ex-

by injections of tetanus toxoid
If your family hasn't had tetanus boosters recently, get your shots before going to the country.
Flies, roaches, mosquitoes and ticks are troublesome in hot months. Insecticides and screens usually can keep them under control. In tick country it is essential to make a close examination after disrobing to remove all ticks.

FRED RICHARDSON, visiting evangelist, feels the excitement that flows through the members of the softball team of the New Salem Baptist Church and their coaches. The New Salem team was one of the six church teams to participate in the Church League that was formed this year. New Salem placed 2nd and ended with a 11-4 record. The youth are working as hard this week in promoting their revival and Fred Richardson as they did in winning second place in the Church League. Young people are a priceless asset to their church, their home and their country. Pictured are, front row, left to right: Keith Puckett, Jeff Hazelwood, Danny Ham, Tim Puckett, Darrel Hazelwood, John Puckett, coach, Bro. Fred Richardson, evangelist, Mike Puckett, Marvin South,

T. C. Parnell, Ed Puckett, coach. In back, left to right: Jay Moyers, Jeff Moyers. Not pictured: Kan Hazelwood, Roger Lambert, Terry South, Maxey South, Gaylon Lovelace.

First Year For Church League Successful

A Church Softball League involving the Luka area was formed earlier this year and was successful in their beginning. Six churches participated in the league, providing recreation in a Christian atmosphere for both adults and youth, participants and spectators. Each church team had 15 scheduled games with the last game played on July 16. The season will officially end in the near future with a trophy presentation, but, in the hearts of the people who were involved in this venture, plans will immediately begin for a '80 league. The six area churches participating in the league were: Luka Baptist, New Salem Baptist, Fifth Street Baptist, North Charge of Methodist Churches, Luka Church of God and Luka Church of Christ.

The places and scores earned by these teams were: Luka Baptist, first place with a 13-2 record; New Salem Baptist, placing second with a record of 11-4; North Charge of Methodist Churches finished 3rd place and a 9-6 record; Fifth Street Baptist, earning 4th place and having a 5-10 record; Luka Church of God, placing 5th and Luka Church of Christ placed 6th.

The two men responsible for developing the idea of a church league are Harold Oliver, assistant coordinator, and Frank Samples, coordinator. They felt this would be an excellent means of promoting fellowship and sportsmanship between our churches. The hopes and plans are to make the league a permanent form of recreation and to have more churches participating in the future.

A trophy presentation is being planned for the near future, where all teams will meet, play a few fun games and then - well deserved trophies will be awarded.

Much to the librarian's avail little information was found and plans are currently being made to formulate a committee for the purpose of writing a history of the town.

Crane Operating At Yellow Creek Plant

Operating a crane at a nuclear power plant is different than reeling in a prize from a toy crane at a fair.

Crane operators here at the Tennessee Valley Authority's Yellow Creek Nuclear Plant are highly competent individuals especially trained to handle the controls which can lift hundreds of tons.

However, very few persons realize that good crane operators are a rare breed. That is what makes fellow workers realize how important men like Ron Dickson and Johnny Morrow are in day-to-day operation at the "hole," as the nuclear island area is called.

Ron Dickson, 35, is one of 50 crane operators employed at the plant and is considered by Ironworker Foreman John to be "one of the best on the job." Crane operators are involved in a highly skilled occupation which requires much tension and must constantly be aware of their surroundings.

They have enjoyed working here better than any job they have previously been on," noted Dickson.

Crane operators must accurately judge distance and manipulate a number of heights, and operate a number of buttons, levers, and pedals in proper sequence to hoist and place material. The controls of the crane, raise and lower its boom and load or open and close attachments such as steel brackets for lifting dirt or clamps for lifting materials. At times, operators may not see either the pickup or delivery point and must follow the hand, or radio signals of another worker.

Ron Dickson, who resides in Parsons, Tennessee, was one of two crane operators responsible for lifting sections of the unit 1 reactor building tower crane erection, which is at approximately 250 feet from base to top, a versatile structure that can lift and maneuver in a 360 degree radius.

The most important person to an operator is the crane, says Dickson. "He must be able to help in 'blind spots', or area where we cannot see from the cab."

He added that good flagmen are hard to keep with an operator for any length of time. Dickson notes that the flagman's decisions are very important every day. Most TVA flagmen are trained extensively in a classroom about the proper hand signals utilized to notify operators about raising and lowering loads. Mistakes can result to workmen or valuable equipment being destroyed without proper cooperation between the two.

Ron Dickson, who operates a Manitowoc 3900 crane, "popped out" (became a journeyman) in 1971, and his experience before coming to TVA included crane operation on the erection of the Cook Convention Center in Memphis, Blount Brothers Construction Co. of Birmingham, and Chicago Bridge and Iron Company of Birmingham. His TVA work experience includes work as a road roller operator, pan scraper operator, and crane operator here beginning in May 1978.

Another of several crane operators in "the hole" is Johnny Morrow, of Florence, Alabama. Morrow, 29, comes from a family of operating engineers and inherited the trade. His father is a general equipment foreman at TVA's Bellefonte Nuclear Plant.

Currently, he operates a Manitowoc 4100 crane in the unit 1 reactor building area. Recently, he was responsible for helping to erect the tower crane which is located between unit 1 and the waste management building. Morrow is one of the youngest operating engineers on the project, but according to a fellow crane operator, "knows his work as well as anyone."

"Being a crane operator is no different than driving a vehicle after you learn how," remarked Morrow. "Both have controls and braking the rig is nearly the same as braking a car. Everyone thinks it looks easy, but there are many possibilities of error occurring with a rig this large."

Morrow began working for TVA in June 1970 as a drill helper in the Construction Services Branch. In 1973, he became a crane operator at Browns Ferry Nuclear Plant, now the world's largest operating nuclear plant. Morrow then moved to Yellow Creek with construction as a crane operator three years later. He came to Yellow Creek in June 1978.

"They are two of the best operators we have got on the job," said John "Red" Hayes, Assistant Construction Superintendent. "Both men have been consistently good workers and take pride in their jobs."

Bursitis Brings Pain in Joints

Sometimes it's "housemaid's knee." Or "policeman's heel."

By any other name it's still bursitis. It is one of mankind's most painful and disabling ailments.

Bursitis, says the American Medical Association, means inflammation of a lubricating sac about a joint. The sac, called a bursa, is similar to a collapsed balloon with some fluid inside. It is located at various places in the body where joints or tissues touch and rub. Without cushioning there would be friction.

Bursitis can hit many points in the body, but most often occurs in the shoulder, elbow or knee.

In almost every case bursitis follows unaccustomed strain or overuse of a limb. By taking a little time to warm up to your physical condition, and especially by training the muscles that you plan to use in any repetitive motion outside your normal activity (strengthening your wrist and arm before starting to paint the house, for instance) you can probably keep clear of this common and painful ailment.

If you get bursitis, no one need suggest that you see a doctor. The pain is so acute that you will be the first to seek relief.

There is much your doctor
