Zoning Ordinance Rescinded

The controversial zoning ordinance for the City of Iuka was cancelled during the regular monthly board meeting on Tuesday night, March 3, at the Iuka City Hall.

Newly elected alderman, James Rice, made a motion that the Trailer Ordinance and the Zoning Ordinance be rescinded. In the absence of Mayor George Cutshall, Vice-Mayor James L. Dean asked for a vote. The motion was carried 2 to 1, with one board member refusing to vote.

The Zoning Ordinance was passed on September 2, 1980, by a vote of 4 to 1.

A complete report on Tuesday night's regular board meeting appears on Page 18 of this issue.

Burnsville Man Killed In Automobile Crash

A two-vehicle accident, west of Burnsville, Tuesday afternoon, March 3, claimed the life of one and injured two. Killed was Murriel Hubbard, of Route 1, Burnsville.

According to Mississippi Highway Patrolman Jerry Boyd, the wreck occurred on Highway 72 West, approximately 100 feet from the city limits, around 3:10 Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Boyd told The News that J.T. Kay, Route 1, Iuka, and Hubbard were traveling east in a 1971 Chevrolet and were attempting to pass another vehicle when they met Mrs. Lena F. Williams, who was traveling west in a '73 Oldsmobile. Mrs. Williams, of Route 1, Glen, in an attempt to avoid the collision, tried to leave the highway when the Kay automobile struck her right-front fender and threw her vehicle into a spin, causing the Kay auto to hit an embankment. Boyd said the accident is still under investigation.

Murriel Hubbard, 59, was dead on arrival at Tishomingo County Hospital. Kay was treated in the emergency room and released, while Mrs. Williams suffers minor injuries and remains a patient.

Funeral services for Murriel F. Hubbard will be held at 2 p.m. today (Thursday, March 5) at Cutshall Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Charles Moore officiating. Burial will be in the Burnsville Cemetery.

Bids Opened For Final Navigation Structure On Tenn-Tom Canal

Bids for construction on the last major navigation structure, known as Lock E, on the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway were opened by the Mobile District of the Army Corps of Engineers February 26. The apparent low bidder was Granite Construction Co. of Watsonville, California, with a bid of $48,505,439.

The lock, which will require an estimated 42 months to complete, will be located at the upper end of the waterway's canal section north of the town of Fulton, Mississippi.

A total of nine bids were received and Corps officials said they would need to study the bids before determining if they could proceed with the award of a contract.

Granite already has a contract for construction of the Aberdeen Lock and Dam on the waterway near Aberdeen, Mississippi.

The Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway is nearing 55% total completion and is scheduled to go into full operation in 1986. Construction on the 232-mile-long navigation link began in 1972 and navigation is already taking place on its southern portion.

Major navigation structures on the system include five locks and dams which are already completed or under construction and five locks of which four are under construction.

Lock E, like the other locks in the system, will be 600 feet long and 110 feet wide. It will have associated with it a concrete spillway and a lock control structure which will house the lock operations center and operating equipment.

Inflation-Fighting Ideas

You can do some things in home furnishings to help fight inflation. Some of these can help:

- Make the most of the space you have
- Thrift in practice

• redecorating can be a positive step toward cutting down on energy consumption.

- do-it-yourself decor
- sewing for the home
- new uses for items you own

• small touches that make a difference

- add a fresh look to furnishings

Surfaces with patterns are less likely to show wear than those with solid colors. Good quality padding underneath a carpet will extend its life, just as cups for furniture legs and runners for stairs and heavily traveled areas will guard floors and carpets. The best protection is a weekly once-over to remove the soil buildup that can wear down any protective surface.

Care of Furniture

Proper furniture care means more than casual dusting once a day.

For your wood furniture to be as beautiful through the years as it was the day you bought it, you need to take some precautions. For example, use pads to protect wood surfaces from rubber based lamps, telephones, or radios.

Keep lamp cords from wood surfaces. The sulfur in the reconstituted or synthetic rubber used in cords and lamp bases affects the finish of the wood. It may cause a yellowing of the finish where the rubber comes in contact with the wood.

Direct sunlight causes color changes in furniture wood. Some woods, such as cherry, are more susceptible to color change than others. All woods will change color when exposed to strong sunlight for a long time.

Remember: Dust is an abrasive. When you rub dust off wood and apply too much pressure in the motion, it can cause fine hairline scratches. You want to pick dust up with a cloth, not just push it around on a surface.

Chicken In The Pot

Boiling water

- 1 (4-pound) chicken, cut up
- Giblets from chicken (do not use liver or kidney)
- 5 cups (about) water
- 4 large carrots, halved and cut into chunks
- 3 celery stalks, halved and cut into chunks (reserve tops)
- 1 onion
- 1 small parsnip, halved and cut into chunks
- 1 tbsp. concentrated chicken stock base
- 1/8 tsp. freshly ground white pepper
- Minced fresh parsley (garnish)

Pour boiling water over chicken and clean well. Drain. Place chicken and giblets in 4-quart dish. Add remaining ingredients except celery tops and parsley, making sure water completely covers chicken. Add celery tops. Cover and cook on high 1 hour. Let rest 15 minutes. Remove celery tops. Strain broth if desired; garnish.

USDA Requests Comments on 1981 Cotton Loan Program Differentials

The public has until April 6 to comment on the U.S. Department of Agriculture's proposals for the 1981 loan program for upland and extra long staple cotton. Edward Hews, Acting Executive Vice President of the Commodity Credit Corporation, said public comment is sought on:

- Premiums and discounts for grade and staple length of upland cotton;
- Base loan rates by warehouse location for upland cotton;
- Loan rates by location for eligible qualities of extra long staple cotton;
- Micronaire differentials for both upland and extra long staple cotton.

Additional information on the proposed determinations will appear in the February 4 Federal Register.

Consideration will be given to all written comments received by the Director, Price Support and Loan Division, USDA-ASCS, Post Office Box 2415, Washington, D.C. 20013.

Comments will be available for public inspection at the Office of the Director in Room 3741 of USDA's South Building during regular business hours.

County Agents Notes

County Agent

Stop Gasoline Fires

Fuels like gasoline used extensively on the farm often are the culprits in an estimated 1.5 million fires that destroy $250 million worth of farm property each year.

Gasoline is especially dangerous because it is predictable, so much so that there is a tendency for us to take it for granted. When handling gasoline or any other flammable material, you need to be alert, know the properties of gasoline and be aware of every possible source of ignition.

Gasoline becomes a vapor at temperature down to 50 degrees. These vapors are much heavier than air and settle invisibly to the floor. They can travel unnoticed 200 feet or more to an ignition source and cause a flashback to the liquid.

The explosive volume of gasoline fumes is more than 15,000 times the original liquid volume. Just one quart of gasoline vaporized and mixed with the right amount of air can produce the same explosive force as 1 1/2 pounds of dynamite.

Most of us can smell gasoline vapor before it reaches the concentration needed for ignition. But don't depend on your nose to tell you how close concentration is to the danger level. At the first smell of vapors, check the source, control all ignition sources and ventilate the area.

Following safety rules when handling gasoline and other petroleum can stop needless losses from fire. Read and follow instructions on container labels.

Houseplants Look Sick?

If your houseplants begin to get the blues and look sickly about this time of the year, try these suggestions to put some life back into them.

Increase the humidity around the plants by grouping them or placing them on moist pebbles or sand.

Misting the plants frequently also will increase the humidity of the air around them.

If you have an extra room that isn't being used, cut the heat down to 55 or 65 degrees and increase the humidity by placing a pan of water in the room. If the plants aren't getting enough light, move them to a window. Or, consider getting a special fluorescent light designed for plant culture.

Legislative Report

By: Rep. Mack L. Wadkins,
District I

The week of February 9th through February 13th was a very busy week in the House of Representatives. Thursday, February 12th, was the deadline day on which original floor action on general bills introduced in the House had to be taken, or they died on the House Calendar. This included only those bills which had made it through committee and had been placed on the Calendar. In excess of 180 bills were considered by the House, most of which were approved. Only eight general bills died on the Calendar.

Due to the great number of bills passed by the House last week, there is no way that I can tell you about all of them, so I shall attempt to tell you about a few bills of general interest. If there are any individual bills that I do not mention, about which you would like more information, please let me know.

On Monday, the House passed a bill to increase the penalty for killing or injuring cattle; a bill to authorize the service of process by certified mail; a bill to allow appeals from orders for civil and criminal contempt; a bill to increase the amount of damages recoverable from parents of children destroying property; a bill to increase the amount school districts can pay for certain damage claims; a bill to amend the licensing and practicing requirements for architects; and a bill to authorize a left turn on red onto a one-way street.

On Tuesday, forty-five bills which had been placed on the Non-Controversial Calendar were considered by the House, which only two of these bills being sent to the bottom of the General Calendar for controversial bills. Some of the non-controversial bills passed included a bill to require that a physical examination report be provided to an insured person with an examination is required by an insurance company; a bill to allow members of corporate boards to serve at age 18; a bill to increase the penalties, primarily for traffickers in drugs, under the Uniform Controlled Substances Law; a bill to provide that switching price tags shall constitute the crime of shoplifting; and a bill to increase the penalties for stealing livestock and to require restitution to the owner. Also passed by the House on Tuesday was a bill to allow notaries public to serve in several counties.

On Wednesday, bills to require continuing education for pharmacists and to require insurance companies to furnish fire investigation information to the State Fire Marshall was passed.

On Thursday, there were forty-four bills left on the General Calendar. The House acted on thirty-seven of these bills, including a bill to prohibit hunting on Sunday within one-fourth mile of a church; a bill to create a State Medical Examiner Commission; a bill to authorize boards of supervisors and municipalities to pay claims not exceeding $1,000 without the necessity of Local and Private Legislation; a bill to increase the per diem and mileage for members of county boards of education and to reduce the number of days for which a per diem may be paid; a bill to provide protection from domestic abuse; a bill to increase teacher salaries, benefits and supplemental services under the Minimum Foundation Program; and a bill to create the punishment conspiracy under the Uniform Controlled Substances Act. On Friday, the House considered several bills on Motion to Reconsider Calendar, which were bills that already been passed by the House, as well as passing some twenty-two Local Private bills.

Sen. Bill May Reports

February 27, 1981

The Legislature has now completed its 8th week of the current 90-day session, with only about four more weeks left in this session. Most of the major legislation, with the exception of appropriation bills, has now been passed by either the House of Representatives or the Senate in some form and for the remainder of this session conference committees will attempt to work out the differences in House and Senate versions of these bills.

A large number of appropriation bills are still pending and will have to be finalized in the next two or three weeks. These bills usually do not create much excitement on the part of the general public, but probably make up the most important part of all legislation considered. Through these bills, over one billion dollars of the money is spent and all operations of state government are funded.

This year, as has been the usual procedure for many

Carr - Whitley Vows Exchanged at Cherry Road Baptist Church

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Whitley

Sandra Carr and Ronald Whitley, of Memphis, Tennessee, were united in marriage at Cherry Road Baptist Church in Memphis on Saturday, March 4, 1981, with Bro. Al Stinson officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Joy Cooper, of West Memphis, Illinois, and James C. Carr, of Alabama. She is the daughter of the late Mr. Will Pruitt, of Iuka; the late Mr. and Mrs. Carr, of Dennis.

The groom is the son of Mr. H.N. Whitley, of Memphis; and the grandson of Fannie Jones.

A huge fan shaped arrangement of blue silk sweetpeas, white Fuji mums and peach colored gladioli in a tall silver urn centered the back of the pulpit. On either side of this arrangement stood a seven-branched candelabra with white tall burning tapers. Ivy entwined the candelabra and fashioned on this was an arrangement similar to that of the larger one. Complimenting the decor was aisle markers of Fuji mums, glads and blue sweetpeas tied in large bows with soft beige lace ribbon.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. John Kent, of Iuka. She chose selections of "It Had To Be You", "Twelfth of Never", and "Till".

Miss Ladye Love Long, of Iuka, sang "Evergreen". "The Wedding Song", and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride was escorted to the altar by her step-father, Tom Cooper, of Westmont, Illinois; and brother-in-law, John Stormont, of Little Rock, Arkansas. She chose a candlelight gown of silk polyester featuring an A-line skirt. The bodice featured a yoke of Alencon lace outlined with seed pearls. The high neckline was also covered with seed pearls. The long full sleeves featured fitted seed pearl cuffs. She wore a Juliet cap covered with seed pearls attached to a fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a cascading bouquet of white Fuji mums, blue silk sweetpeas, baby's breath, and greenery, centered with a large white orchid attached to a soft beige ribbon tied in love knots.

Mrs. Sandra Stormont, of Little Rock, Arkansas, sister of the bride, served as Matron of Honor. She chose a soft blue gown of Quiana, featuring spaghetti straps and a matching capelet. Mrs. Kaye Stricklen, of Memphis, served as bridesmaid. Miss Shelley Stormont, niece of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid. They chose peach colored gowns similar to that of the Matron of Honor. Mrs. Stormont carried a bouquet of Fuji mums, blue silk sweetpeas, baby's breath and greenery fashioned on a soft beige fan, using beige ribbon. Mrs. Stricklen and Miss Stormont carried smaller hand bouquets, using flowers as that of the Matron of Honor.

Mike Whitley served his brother as best man. Mr. H.N. Whitley, father of the groom, served as groomsman.

Candlelighters were James Stricklen and Ralph Lamberth. They also served as ushers.

Mother of the bride was escorted by her son-in-law.

John Stormont. Mother of the groom was escorted by her son-in-law, Al Abrams, of Mesa, Arizona.

Mrs. Cooper chose a light green gown of Quiana. The princess style gown featured a high neckline with long split sleeves. Mrs. Whitley chose a medium blue Quiana gown featuring a fitted waistband, a high neckline and long sleeves.

Both mothers wore orchids pinned at the shoulder. Mrs. Fannie Jones, grandmother of the groom, wore a white carnation corsage. Mrs. W.R. Cooper, of Corinth, also wore a carnation corsage.

The reception hall was beautifully decorated. Centering the bride's table was a silver urn filled with peach gladioli, white Fuji mums, and blue sweetpeas. The table was covered with a peach linen cloth overlaid with beige lace. The corners were tied with beige ribbon and greenery.

Crystal bowls were filled with peach and blue punch. Compotes filled with peach, white and blue mints and mixed nuts complimented the table. The bride's cake was served from a round table covered with a lace cloth over peach. The three tiered white wedding cake was outlined with blue sweetpeas. Topping the cake was an arrangement of fresh flowers as that of the bride's bouquet. The large fan shaped arrangement was brought from the church and placed behind this table. The groom's table was covered in white and held a lovely chocolate cake baked by Mrs. Cordelia Martin, of Nashville, Tennessee, aunt of the groom.

Serving the punch was Mrs. Barbara Abrams, of Mesa, Arizona, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Tricia Whitley, of Memphis, sister-in-law of the groom. Ms. Sandra Whitley, of Memphis, sister of the groom, served the groom's cake. Mrs. Susan Thomas, of Magnolia, Texas, sister of the groom, was in charge of the rice bags. Mrs. Gail Mathas, of Hobart, Indiana, served the bride's cake.

Mrs. Brenda Robbins, of Birmingham, Alabama, registered the guests. A small flower arrangement and the bride's book were placed on a table covered in white.

Rice bags of white net and tied with peach and blue ribbon were distributed by Kathleen and Shannon Thomas, nieces of the groom, and Shelley Stormont, niece of the bride, and Jenny Mathas, of Hobart, Indiana.

Among out-of-town guests were Mrs. Edith Crawford, Mrs. Laura Frederick, and Mrs. Ann Jourdan, of Iuka, maternal aunts of the bride; Mrs. Gladys Linton, Mrs. Yvonne Long, Mrs. Martha Segars, Mr. and Mrs. John Kent, Miss Ladye Love Long, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bullard, all of Iuka; Mrs. W.R. Cooper, of Corinth; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cooper, Burnsville; Mr. and Mrs. Art Mathas, Kenny and Jenny, Hobart, Indiana; and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Nelson and family, of Cherokee, Alabama.

After a trip to Gatlinburg, Tennessee, the couple is at home in Memphis.

The bride chose a green silk dress piped in pink for traveling. She wore the orchid from her bouquet pinned at the shoulder.

A rehearsal dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. H.N. Whitley. The home was beautifully decorated throughout with white Fuji mums, blue silk sweetpeas, and gladioli. A variety of meat, vegetables and desserts were served the entire wedding party.

A bridal miscellaneous shower was given by Ms. Sandra Whitley and Mrs. Tricia Whitley. The home of Sandra Whitley was lovely, carrying out the theme. Many lovely gifts were displayed throughout.

Mrs. Kaye Stricklen honored the bride with a lovely tea. She used an arrangement of mums, glads and sweetpeas. Gifts were on display for viewing.

Mrs. Davis Honored

Open house honoring Mrs. Nellie Davis on her 90th birthday was held February 22, at the home of her daughter, Dorothy Hayes.

Family and friends called between the hours of 2:00 and 4:00 p.m.

Out-of-town guests included: Elmer Brewer, Jr., of Pensacola, Fla.; Elsie and Lloyd Parks, Mrs. Harold Davis, Judy and Byron, of Memphis; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hayes and Tracey, of Arab, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Harwell, Michael and Michelle, Earl Dean Carson and Mrs. Linda D. Wallace, of Cherokee; and Bobby Buchanan, of Booneville.

Country Music Radiothon

The National Kidney Foundation of Mississippi announces that the first Annual Country Music Radiothon will be held on WADJ in Corinth on March 7-8.

The purpose of the Radiothon is to increase the public's awareness of kidney disease and to raise funds to support the many programs of the Foundation.

The Radiothon will be co-sponsored by the Country Music Association, the major organization promoting country music in the U.S. This is the first time the Country Music Association has ever voted to support a nationwide event held by a voluntary health agency. Country music stars Charlie Daniels ("The Devil Went Down to Georgia"), Brenda Lee ("I'm Sorry") and Ralph Emery, host of the Ralph Emery Show will be the co-hosts. Country music celebrities who will participate are Barbara Mandrell, Johnny Cash, Kenny Rogers, Mel Tillis, and Oak Ridge Boys and many more.

Unfortunately, Mississippi has the highest death rate per capita from kidney disease than any other state. In fact, more Mississippians die each year from kidney disease than in automobile accidents.

Iuka Route 2

Mrs. Willie Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wood, of Sheffield, Ala., visited Sunday afternoon with her brother, Kenny Robertson, and the Hurchel Robertson family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Smith, of Birmingham, Ala., visited with Mrs. Ethel Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bonds last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Brian Taylor, of Memphis, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.M. Adams.

Woodruff - McGuire Announces May Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Woodruff, Jr., of Route 5, proudly announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Faye Woodruff, to Stephen Wayne McGuire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McGuire, also of Route 5.

The wedding is to be held May 18, 1981, at Short Creek Baptist Church on Coleman Park Road. All friends and relatives of the bride and groom are invited.

Homemakers Met

The Tishomingo Homemakers Club met Thursday, February 19, at 1:30 in the home of Mrs. Lois Norton for the regular meeting.

The meeting was called to order by the president giving the thought for the month. If you have your feet on the ground you can't fall very far.

The group sang "My Country 'Tis Of Thee", led by Mrs. Maxine Finch.

Mrs. Verna Greene gave the devotional in the absence of Mrs. Mabel Byrom, who is hospitalized. Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary. The club goals were reviewed, and also the date for the style show.

The Focus Topic, "The Quality of Life", was given by Mrs. Lois Norton. She also showed how she antiqued a mirror frame.

Miss Effie Greene gave a report of a meeting of Ag-Expo held at Natchez Trace Hall of Fame in Tupelo. Home Economist from the area put on a fashion show. Homemakers from Tishomingo County modeled garments they had made.

The demonstration was given by Mrs. Mae Casper on good health habits.

Developing good health habits at an early age will not only insure a more productive life, but it will also reduce expenditures for medical bills. One of the most important factors preventing families from being healthy as could be is stress. She gave ten points to do to help develop these habits that would pay a great dividend throughout life.

Numbers were drawn for door prize. Mae Casper was the lucky winner.

A very delicious plate was served by the hostess.

The meeting adjourned to meet next month.

In 1913 the highest building in the U.S. was the Woolworth building in New York City at 792 feet!

In the Bible, James 1:5-8 (NIV) says, "If any of you lacks wisdom he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him."

Wisdom in the biblical sense means knowing how to live, writes Dr. William Brownson, Jr., in his book, Applied Christianity: Studies in the Book of James. He goes on to explain this wisdom—and how to acquire it. Such helpful words on a number of subjects also can be found in Dr. Brownson's weekly messages on "Words of Hope," an international radio and television ministry of the Reformed Church of America. For a free copy of Applied Christianity, write to Words of Hope, P.O. Box 1706, Grand Rapids, Michigan 49501.

COME TO CHURCH

We all have times when things go wrong,
And Fortune's in reverse;
Yet we're expected to be strong,
Though things could not get worse...
A strength of which the Scriptures name
Examples plain to see:
Like Job, whose faith remained the same
Throughout adversity.
So why not go to Church this week,
Whichever one you choose,
And listen to the Bible speak;
There's not a thing to lose!
Then, what those passages command
You'll follow to the letter;
And let God take your life in hand,
To change it for the better! —Gloria Nowak

Can't Sleep?

Researchers are measuring brain waves during sleep. They have found that dreaming has a lot of importance in relation to a good night's sleep. Authorities in the field of Chiropractic have also measured the flow of energy over the nerve network, and have found that irritated nerves cause poor sleep. It has been found that nerves in some cases, have pressure on them because of a structural problem of the spine; thus creating NERVOUS TENSION causing hot, inflamed, irritated nerves to upset adequate functioning of the body sleep control center in the brain. If you can't sleep - it may be wiser to have a Chiropractic examination rather than a sleeping pill.

Homemakers Met In Bonds Home

The Mt. Gilead Homemakers Club met Monday evening, February 16, in the home of Tressie Bonds with the following members present: Lessie Newcomb, Lilla Davis, Kathleen Moore, Amy Walker, Mattie Faye Woodruff, Francis Linn, Brenda King and Tressie Bonds.

Brenda King, President, called the meeting to order and gave the thought for the month - "If you have your feet on the ground, you can't fall

Iuka's Finest

The 1939 Iuka High School basketball team was something to brag about! They traveled far and near playing on dirt courts in rain or shine throughout Mississippi, Alabama and Tennessee. The winning team consisted of, from left: Harry Grisham, Will Cresap, Dillard Enlow, Coach Dee Stricklin, Mitchell Bonds, Jarvis Glenn (now deceased), and Archie Walker. Mr. Cresap, who is sharing the photo with us, remembered one interesting trip the team took. Dee Stricklin, coach, had set up a game in his hometown, Lutts, very far." The secretary, Kathleen Moore, read the minutes of the preceeding meeting and called the roll.

The hostess played a recording of the life of Fannie Crosby, a blind composer, and a number of her songs were beautifully rendered.

Francis Linn reported on some activities in which she had participated recently. One included a visit to Timber Hills Mental Health Center. She served refreshments to the students there and enjoyed the association with the staff and students.

Two educational reports were given. Brenda King gave a very informative report on Tenn., to be played on Friday afternoon. Mr. Cresap said they rented a cab from Sid Ramsey, of Iuka, and the seven headed for Tennessee with Cresap at the wheel. The trip was going smooth until they reached the Tennessee River at Shiloh. Getting across was no problem, thanks to the ferry, but the obstacle was the steep bank on the other side, a real terror for the Chevrolet with governors. The six strong athletes found the only solution was to get out and push, and they did, arriving in Lutts on time to defeat their rivals. After the game, the team bedded down on "Baptist pallets" in the Stricklin home, preparing themselves for the tough game the following day with Waynesboro. The trip to Waynesboro on Saturday proved also to be a trial for the Iuka team. They came across a rain-swollen creek. Mr. Stricklin assured the driver it wasn't deep, but the cab just couldn't make it across. It stalled in the middle of the creek with water slowly creeping into the car. But high water could not stop the boys, they waded out, pulled the car out with the help of a passing truck, changed the oil, and continued to Waynesboro, where once again they were victorious. By Saturday night, the team was at the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville. Following the show they slept at a roadside park and returned to Iuka on Sunday.

Wilson's Honored

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Wilson honored their parents with a golden wedding anniversary celebration on Sunday, February 8, 1981, at the Tishomingo Church of Christ Annex.

Granddaughters, Wanda Wilson, Phyllis Wigginton and Tina Robinson, served the three-tiered golden wedding cake, nuts, mints, and punch. A niece, Lalla Kennedy, sat at the guest register. Another niece, Carolyn Austin, displayed the many beautiful and useful gifts. Over one-hundred friends and relatives came by to congratulate the couple between the hours of 2:00 and 4:00 p.m.

Sid, Ruby and children wish to thank everyone for helping to make the day a joyous occasion.

Their children and grandchildren all helped them celebrate: Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Wilson, Wanda and Melissa, New Site, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. Quitman Wigginton and Phyllis, of Booneville; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Robinson, Mitch, Tina and Heather, Tishomingo; and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Taylor, Warren, Mark and Crystal, Tishomingo.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

We are looking for any and all World War II Glider Pilots in Mississippi... also any Tow Pilots or Glider Mechanics are welcome.

There were about 6000 of us who wore the Silver Wings with the "G" on them. At this late date we have found about 2300 and would like to find more.

We are a unique and extinct group since there were so few of us and there will be no more of us.

If you were a "GP" or know of one, call their attention to the fact that the 7th Wing covering Mississippi, Tennessee, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Missouri will hold a Mini-Convention at the Downtowner Motor Inn in Jackson, Mississippi, on April 24, 25, and 26, 1981. For reservations, call 601-948-6161.

Internal Revenue Service

Even though several persons may together contribute over half of a dependent's support, a dependent can be claimed as an exemption by only one taxpayer, the Internal Revenue Service says.

If no one person in a family contributes more than one-half of the cost of supporting an individual, the group should choose one of its members to claim the exemption. However, that taxpayer must have contributed more than 10 percent of the total support and must meet all other dependency tests, according to the IRS.

The remaining contributors in the group must complete and sign Form 2120,

"Multiple Support Declaration," stating that they will not claim the exemption that year. The forms are filed with the income tax return of the person claiming the exemption.

Additional information on dependency exemptions is contained in IRS Publication 501, "Exemptions." Taxpayers may use the order form in the tax package, or call the IRS Tax Forms/Information number listed in the local telephone directory.

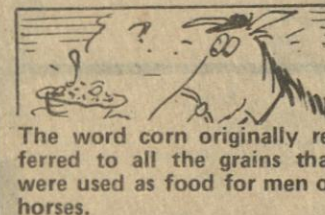

Job Service Info

According to the law a seasonal farm worker is a person who has had at least 25 days experience during the preceding 12 months working for wages in farmwork for a scheduled period of less than 150 consecutive days of farmwork at any one establishment engaged in agricultural production or agricultural services. Of course, a migrant farmworker is one whose farm work experience during the preceding 12 months required travel such that the worker was unable to return to his/her place of residence in the same day.

Charles Smith, Corinth Area Manager of the Mississippi State Employment Service, stated that migrants and other seasonal farmworkers and their families are provided a wide range of services by the Employment Service to help them find alternative job opportunities in year-round employment, or to improve their well-being if they remain in seasonal agricultural work. These services include education, training, job referral, emergency services, etc. Smith noted that the agencies providing these services may vary from area to area, but generally are private nonprofit organizations, state and local governments and universities.

National Library Week

Plans for National Library Week get underway at the Iuka Public Library with a county-wide meeting of the librarians, along with National Library Week Chairman, Nellie Horton. This year's slogan is "America, The Library Has Your Number". National Library Week will be observed April 5th - 11th. There will be special events and activities held in each library in the county during that week. As the librarians are making plans for this big week, we would like each of you to make plans to visit your library. Making plans are, from left: Fredda Sanderson, Iuka Librarian; Becky Ozburn, Belmont Librarian; Nellie Horton, County Chairman; Lonette Southward, Tishomingo Librarian; and Eunice Lambert, Burnsville Librarian.

Don't forget Viet vets

I have some things I would like to say, but first in front I want to say I am very happy the hostages are home and safe.

I am the mother of a VietNam veteran, a marine and I as a mother and I am sure so many other mothers of sons and wives of husbands who were VietNam feel the same as I do. I feel like the boys who served in VietNam are the ones to have had the celebration. I can't see the people who were hostages could be called heroes. They did nothing to be heroes. They all looked fine to me so I can't see where they were heroes. Sure they were held captive for 14 months but they look as if they have been on a nice vacation.

What about our boys who came back from VietNam with one or no legs and arms and so many other things that keep them from ever working again. What about the ones that died over there and the ones who are still prisoners there? I think this celebration has gone on much too long and too much of it and way too much money spent. I think the people should have been flown to his or her own town and if the town wanted have a big home coming celebration fine.

When my son was in VietNam he had a week off R + R and of course he couldn't come home so he flew to Hawaii and his wife flew there from Fremont to meet him. The government didn't pay her plane fare she paid it herself.

Talking about the hostages, our boys in VietNam were hostages in a way. If they would have tried to leave to come home they would have been caught in court martial. Maybe shot or surely would have been put in prison for the duration of the war or maybe longer and would have gotten a dishonorable discharge. So tell me what is the difference in the situations? Our boys were fighting in a war we should never have been involved in. I did a lot of crying and praying while my son was over there and thank God he came home all right. I remember the night he came home after 13 months over there, it was Dec. 19, at 9:30 at night, snow everywhere and snowing hard. He got off the Grayhound bus, a lonely soldier came home from war on a bus with no yellow ribbons, fancy limousine, no flags flying, no parade to greet him. I can't say the things I really want to say couldn't be printed, so I will just say thank God for Marine son.

Clean Up Morning

The children of the luka Head Start took advantage of the beautiful weather last week. All the children and teachers joined together in a "Community Awareness" project. Trash was picked up and pitched into seven giant trash bags in only a one block radius. The little workers were curious to know who was responsible for the mess. One child said, "The Litter Bugs." Cleaning up one block was only a start for the children. One group of children was taken over to the Ronnie King Ball Park to enjoy some exercise and play. Upon arriving at the park, they found it cluttered with trash and broken glass. Having been taught to be good "Community Helpers", the children again began the task of cleaning up. Even though the children worked very hard, it was easy to see how pleased they were with the results. A refreshing drink of water was next for the busy little workers. As the children lined up for water, they found the water faucet broken. They were unable to drink any water. The teachers then shared a short group discussion with the children. They talked about the importance of keeping the community clean. Especially recreation areas, such as Ronnie King Ball Park. The children understood the meaning of being "the future citizens" of luka. But do "the present citizens" of luka understand the importance of keeping our community clean. Areas such as Ronnie

King Ball Park should be kept safe and clean for everyone in the community. The ball park is a privilege and should be a place for all to enjoy. If children five and six years old are aware of how it is mistreated, then surely it is noticed by others. With spring coming up, now would be the best time for all of us, young and old, to become "Community Helpers". There are three enormous "pitch-in cans" at the park. Our "Little Future Citizens" ask that you join them, and pitch in. Keep our recreation areas clean and safe.

and then a movie.

"How could Harold forget that the last time I ate pizza I was sick all night and that the movie he wanted to go to was all about killer bees and I'm afraid of crawling and flying insects?" she asked the counselor indignantly. "So what did you suggest you do instead?" the counselor asked. "I just told Harold I didn't feel like going out and we watched re-runs on the Gong Show on TV," Joan answered.

She did not add the obvious: that she spent a very dull, angry and frustrating evening. So why had she not simply told Harold that she would prefer a burger place to a pizza restaurant and that "Kramer vs. Kramer" a movie she had been dying to see, was playing right near their home?

"Harold should know me well enough by now not to make suggestions that will upset me," she explained. Of course, she had managed to defeat not only Harold, who was looking for a nice evening away from the TV, but herself. After all, one of her complaints was that she never got out of the house.

Joan would act in similar ways in other relationships. She would take on all kinds of extra tasks at the office and, if nobody praised her or complimented her, she would quit.

Obviously a much better solution would have been not to let herself be exploited in the first place. When someone asked her what she wanted for her birthday or for an anniversary, she would refuse to give a concrete answer.

She might be longing for a special new blouse or a radio for her bedroom or almost any other affordable present. But instead of coming out and saying that she did, she would tell relatives and friends that "anything would be all right."

Then, if she didn't get what she had set her heart on, she'd be disappointed and sulk. As a result, Harold was just giving her money as a present, and that, of course, she resented more than almost any other present he might have given her.

Joan's case was a fairly simple one. After she realized what she had been doing all along, she learned to communicate what she really felt and wanted verbally, instead of hoping that those around her would somehow pick up her wishes via some form of ESP or just plain magic. There are other people, who because they cannot or refuse to talk out what's bothering them, use their hostility to "get back" at their opponents (who usually turn out to be close relatives or friends) and end up hurting themselves worst of all.

The longer such self-defeating patterns persist, the more ingrained they become and the harder they are to break. So anyone who consistently finds that he or she is literally hurting themselves more than the person for whom the hurt was intended probably needs professional help.

Breaking that kind of pattern can be one of the most constructive ways of dealing with the increasing anger and frustration that self-defeat almost invariably brings about.

For information about services available at Timber Hills Mental Health Center phone 423-3332 or come by the offices on Whitehouse Road in luka. After hours and on weekends phone 1-286-9209 toll free for emergency counseling services.

Mississippi Tree Farms

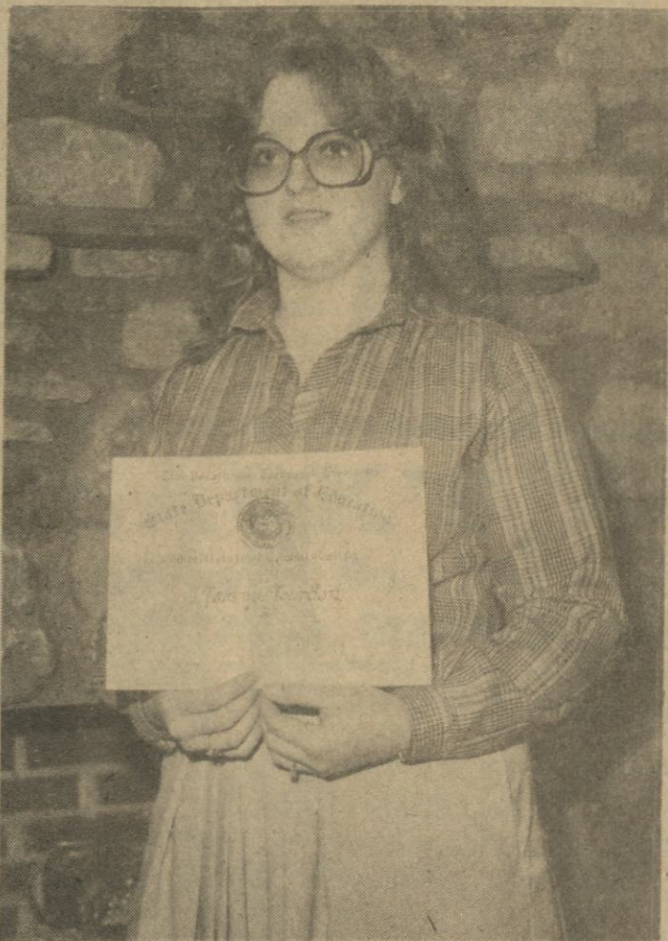

Mississippi timberland owners who would like to become certified Tree Farmers are urged to act now, says Bynum Meeks, Brookhaven, chairman of Mississippi Forestry Association's Tree Farm Committee.

Currently, Mississippi has slightly more than 5,000 Tree Farms, more than any other state in the nation. These farms total approximately 3,984,000 forested acres. This indicates that a large number of small landowners are included in the program, says Meeks.

Owners must apply for Tree Farm status and allow a qualified forester to inspect their lands. Minimum area is 10 acres. The owner must have demonstrated the desire and ability to manage his woodlands for the growth and harvesting of repeated crops of forest products.

A national program of American Forest Institute, the Tree Farm program in Mississippi is administered by Mississippi Forestry Association, 620 North State Street, Jackson. Tree Farm applications may be mailed to MFA or to a local county Tree Farm chairman.

Mr. Brendix Glasgow, MFC, luka, is Tree Farm chairman for Tishomingo County.

and Marketing classes to represent I.H.S. in state competition. Tammie received a certificate for her art work and ideas in the Visual Arts Contest, which was sponsored by the Educational Department in Jackson, Miss.

Sen. Cochran Sponsors Bill

Senator Thad Cochran (R-Miss.) is sponsoring legislation to expand the Tennessee Valley Authority's board of directors from three to five members and require that a majority be residents of TVA states.

He said the proposed change would make TVA "more responsive to people it serves" and the residency requirement will help "safeguard those most affected by TVA's actions."

In addition to expanding the TVA board of directors from three to five members, the bill would require three directors "at all times" to be residents of states using TVA power. These states include Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, North Carolina and Virginia.

Senator Cochran noted the regional development agency created in 1933 enjoys broad powers granted by the original TVA act, the recent policy decisions have brought substantial rate increases, increased indebtedness, and a massive construction program. He further noted that many of the TVA board of directors from board's actions are non-appealable under law.

"TVA has grown to become the nation's largest producer of electricity, serving about seven million people," the Senator commented. "The actions by its board of directors will have a profound effect on residents of TVA's service area."

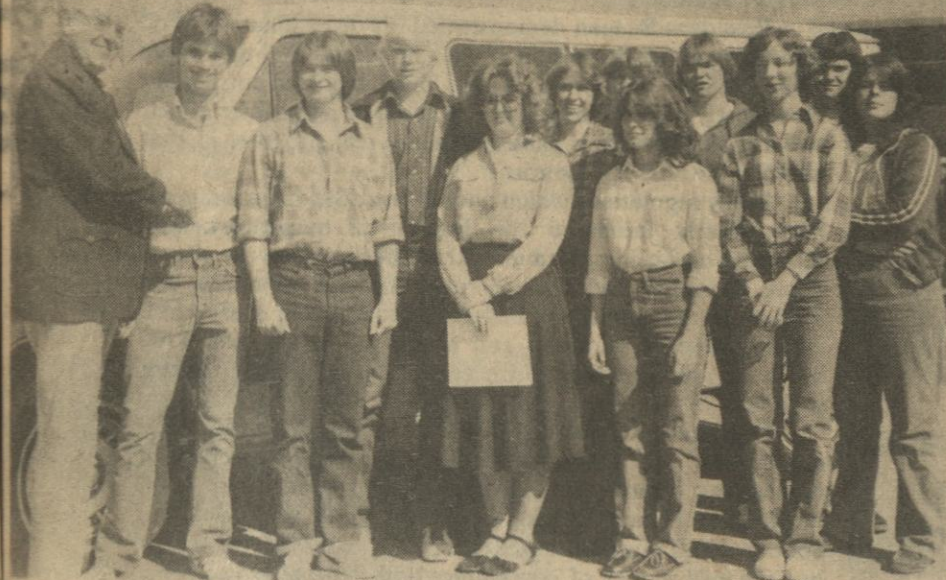

Considering the nation's energy situation, Senator Cochran said "the next several decades may turn out to be the most crucial and challenging in TVA's history."

Thank You

"Defeating Oneself -- A Grave Error"

Behavioral scientists and others addicted to various forms of jargon call it "counterproductive behavior."

People who use more picturesque speech would probably call it "cutting off your nose to spite your face".

And most of us would probably call it "ways to defeat yourself." At any rate staff members at Timber Hills tend to see a great many people who, in order to get back at someone else, managed to make quite a hash of their own lives.

Let's take 32-year-old Joan, for instance, who came to the mental health center because she said, "nothing ever went right" in her life. (Names and other identifying details have, of course, been changed to protect everyone's privacy, but the facts are correct.)

Joan did, indeed, seem to be getting very little fun and a great deal of trouble in her day-to-day existence, but as she discovered while talking to the counselor, she frustrated herself almost as much as she frustrated her husband, friends and her colleagues at work.

For instance, Joan seemed to expect everyone around her to be a mind reader, and if her mind was read incorrectly or not at all, she seemed to resign from her own case. As an example, she told of a recent evening when her husband had suggested that a night out on the town might be good for both of them. He then tentatively suggested going to a pizza restaurant

The Board of Aldermen had a general discussion regarding the Mineral Springs Park. It was noted that the springs need to be worked on so they will flow naturally again.

Another topic of discussion was the concession room in the log cabin. Several suggestions were made, but no final decisions were made.

Alderman James Rice made a motion to pay Howard Adcock overtime pay in addition to his regular monthly salary. He stated that other city employees were paid for their overtime hours. Alderman "Corkey" Smith seconded the motion. The Vice-Mayor asked for a vote; the motion was carried.

Alderman James Rice made a motion that city workers be issued raincoats, hats and boots. The suits should be stenciled for identification. The employees would be issued these accessories with the understanding that if lost or stolen that they would be responsible for the cost to replace the suits. The motion was seconded by Alderman "Corkey" Smith. The Vice-Mayor asked for a vote; the motion was carried. Mr. Omer Adcock will issue the suits.

Alderman James Rice mentioned complaints of trash being thrown out on the city streets, primarily the street around the elementary school.

David Smith, Chairman Citizen's Committee, brought the board's attention to the condition of the "newly" paved streets. He noted that the new coating was already deteriorating in spots.

Luther Junior Rice requested that something be done to the sharp hill on Mill Street. There have been several accidents there including a child being hit by a police car. He suggested that the hill be graded down. Vice-Mayor Dean stated that he would discuss this with Mayor George Cutshall.

Mr. Ray Curtis asked the Board to look into a long-range recreational program. He stated that surrounding towns such as Belmont and Savannah had more in recreational facilities for their youth than Iuka. He suggested that the city and county officials work together in applying for a government grant to supply such facilities. Alderman Leroy Dean stated that he could check with Charlie Spearman, Northeast Planning and Development, to see if there are any monies available for recreation.

Alderman James Rice made a motion that the citizens of the Municipal School District be given the right to vote on the School Board. Alderman Corkey Smith seconded the motion. Vice-Mayor Dean and Alderman Leroy Dean asked City Attorney, Steve Jackson, to check if this was written in the State Legislation before a vote was called. Mr. Jackson agreed to investigate the matter.

David Smith, Chairman, Citizen's Committee, asked the disposition of the petition that was presented to the Board protesting the Zoning Ordinance. Joyce Brumley, Recorder, stated that it was put into the minutes. He asked for a copy, but was told that the Minutes Book could not be removed from the City Hall.

Alderman James Rice made a motion that the Trailer Ordinance and the Zoning Ordinance be rescinded. He further stated that the major part of the Ordinances were unfair to the majority of the citizens. The motion was seconded. The Board sat in silence. Alderman James Rice asked Vice-Mayor again for a vote. Alderwoman Mamie Culver refused to vote. Aldermen Smith and Rice voted for the motion. Alderman Leroy Dean opposed. The motion was carried 2-1.

Alderman Corkey Smith made note to the Board that an act of injustice had been done to the citizens of Iuka by using monies made from the sale of city property to buy new furniture for the City Hall. He stated that the property was originally sold to pay for the garbage truck purchased by the city as agreed to by the Board. The citizens are now paying $1.50 on each utility bill to pay for the truck.

Alderman James Rice made a motion that each Board member be given a 24 hour notice before a "Special" Board meeting. Alderman Corkey Smith seconded the motion. Vice-Mayor Dean asked Attorney Steve Jackson to check on the By-Laws concerning this matter. The matter was further discussed and Vice-Mayor Dean asked for a vote. The motion carried.

Alderman James Rice made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Alderman Smith seconded the motion. The motion carried.

The meeting adjourned at 9:06.

John C. Stennis

REPORT TO MISSISSIPPIANS

The high cost of federal regulations is a big drain on our economy. Businesses and individuals alike are directly or indirectly spending a large portion of their income to meet requirements of federal regulations which are often unnecessary and sometimes counterproductive.

This burden must be removed if we are to restore our economy to a level where businesses and individuals can prosper again.

President Reagan demonstrated his determination to do something about this problem when he placed a 60-day freeze on new federal regulations. I have long advocated cutting out those costly regulations which have little or no positive effect, and I look forward to achieving some real progress in that effort in the next few months.

Many regulations which have been added in recent years have greatly increased the burden of paperwork and reporting on business and industry. They increase the cost of doing business, and thus increase the cost of goods and services to the consumer. Federal regulations of every kind, on shopkeepers, farmers, and major industries, add $100 billion or more per year to the cost of the goods and services we buy.

I am greatly concerned with the overall impact of federal regulations on industry and business. Government regulations impose an especially severe burden on small businesses. I have talked to many people who own and operate small businesses who are greatly troubled by the cost in time and money of compliance with federal regulations. Under the best circumstances, there is little enough profit for many small enterprises, and their situation is greatly worsened by the excessive paperwork required.

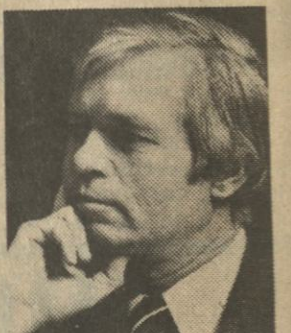

We cannot overlook this problem in our efforts to restore the economy to full strength. Many regulations which are now on the books must be withdrawn. The process of deciding which regulations are necessary and should be retained and those which should be dropped will require careful consideration. It is important that we move ahead with this process now.

President Reagan's action freezing federal regulations for 60 days was certainly a step in the right direction. Positive and forceful follow-up action is needed to reduce the burden of federal regulations. Such action will continue to have my strong and active support.

Senator Thad Cochran

SPECIAL REPORT:

President's Challenge

The President's economic message advocates the most sweeping change in direction for America since FDR and the New Deal in 1932.

For the first time in its history, the United States is being asked to support significant reductions in federal spending and corresponding cuts in taxes.

In his address to Congress and the nation, President Reagan has forcefully advanced the idea that about $50 billion be cut from the federal budget this year and next, and that tax cuts for individuals, families and business totaling about 30 percent be enacted over the next three years.

This is strong economic medicine, a massive combination of spending cuts and tax reductions, designed to cleanse the federal government programs of waste and inefficiency, and to stimulate the private sector to produce more jobs, goods and services.

Not only should the President's prescription help restore health and vitality to the nation's economy, but it should also help reduce inflation and create a better chance for those struggling to make ends meet.

Naturally, there will be some difficulties encountered in bringing about any economic recovery. This is particularly so when funding levels in so many federal programs are to be reduced. But, the plan as outlined in the President's message seems to be what we have needed for a long time.

The President's economic program has four basic parts.

One, of course, is the reduction in federal spending to help balance the budget and cool inflation.

Second are the series of proposed tax cuts to provide stimulus to the private sector by giving individuals, families and business more incentives for increased productivity.

Third, and I know many of you welcome this, is the administration's determination to restrict the harassment and costly burden imposed on the American people by over-zealous regulatory agencies. President Reagan has already taken steps to freeze hiring in the federal bureaucracy and to suspend the last-minute regulations issued by the outgoing administration.

Fourth, and last, the White House intends to work closely with the Federal Reserve to formulate a sound monetary policy that will help reduce interest rates and allow many sectors of our economy, particularly those such as construction, homebuilding, and automotive industries, to regain their momentum.

The Majority Leader, Senator Howard Baker of Tennessee, has pledged the Senate will move soon to expedite the President's budgetary program, and various committees are already planning hearings to determine the best ways of implementing his proposal. However, under our Constitution, the House of Representatives must initiate tax legislation, so the tax cuts and incentives must await action first by the House Ways and Means Committee.

The President has laid before Congress a big challenge calling for a real change in direction for our federal government.

The American people will, I think, support cuts in spending and restraint at the federal level.

I am hopeful that Congress will make a conscientious effort to cooperate with the President to implement his economic program.

He deserves a chance to make it work.

COPIED: The 1970 Census

Tishomingo County's official population in the 1970 Census was 14,940, up 7.6 percent from the 1960 figure of 13,889, the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce, reports.

The official population of the State was 2,216,912, up 1.8 percent from the 1960 population count, which was 2,178,141.

The 1970 Census counted 14,268 white persons in Tishomingo County, 95.5 percent of the total; 663 Negroes and 8 persons of other races.

The Census showed 1,082 children under 5 years. 3,662 ages 5 through 17; 8,230 people 18 through 64; and 11,966 who were 65 and older.

On the basis of returns of the 1970 Census, it appears clear that growth in the South has fallen short of what had been expected.

How about the 1980 Census?

The first Census of the United States was taken in 1790.

From the time of King David, when the Jews believed that the Almighty punished the nation because the king took a census of the people, nations were suspicious of rulers who sought to enumerate their subjects. If they were not afraid of the anger of God, they were afraid that the information would be used in extorting taxes from them. The people as a whole could not conceive of any useful purpose in a census.

Senator Cochran Reports

Senator Thad Cochran (R-Miss.) said federal agricultural officials have acted to help speed up processing of farm disaster loan applications in Mississippi.

The Senator said USDA notified him it has authorized the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service to assist the Farmers Home Administration in processing emergency loans.

Cochran, a member of the Senate Agriculture Committee, had asked USDA officials to seek ways to expedite the bottleneck in farm disaster loans.

He said USDA in Washington has informed him that effective immediately Farmers Home is authorized to work longer hours processing the loans, and ASCS is to offer personnel assistance wherever possible in the state to help out local Farmers Home offices.

Food Stamp Program

Senator Thad Cochran (R-Miss.) has released a special staff investigative report on fraud, waste and mismanagement in the Food Stamp Program.

The report was prepared by investigators of the Senate Appropriations Committee at the request of the agriculture appropriations subcommittee.

Senator Cochran, chairman of the subcommittee, has dispatched the report to Agriculture Secretary John Block for review and comment by the Department of Agriculture, which administers the program.

The Senator pointed out the Food Stamp Program provides assistance to over 21 million Americans, nearly one-tenth our population, and will cost about $11 billion this year, or half of USDA's total budget.

The Senate report documents a number of problems in administration of the program and recommends specific actions to curb fraud and close loopholes which have wasted hundreds of millions of taxpayer dollars.

Among the report's proposals were:
--tightening up on full replacement of coupons claimed to be lost or stolen.
--allowing states to undertake more comprehensive verification of income and assets reported by recipients.

--directing USDA to develop and implement a nationwide strategy to combat Food Stamp fraud.

--pro-rationing of first-month benefits so new recipients would receive only that portion of the monthly Food Stamp allotment claimed, a change the report says would save $250 million a year.

Senator Cochran noted that a number of changes recommended in the report have already been acted upon by Congress, or proposed within USDA, but have yet to be implemented. The Senator said he intends to pursue new legislative changes to make certain Food Stamp benefits are limited to the truly needy, and to insist USDA work to implement reforms.
