Eating The Low-Salt Way

Table salt contains two necessary minerals, sodium and chloride. A high sodium intake is one of the factors known to affect high blood pressure. Since most of us consume more sodium than we need, it makes sense to cut down on foods that are high in sodium.

One way that we can reduce our intake of sodium is to add no salt to foods at the table. Another way is to cut down on the amount of salt added to foods during cooking. Use condiments sparingly. Bouillon cubes, Worcestershire and soyasaues, mustard, catsup, meat tenderizers, glutamate (MSG), pickles and relishes, and seasoning salts such as garlic salt, onion salt and celery salt all contain lots of sodium.

Reduce your intake of processed foods especially canned soups, processed meats and cheeses, and TV dinners. Use more fresh and plain frozen vegetables in place of canned or seasoned frozen vegetables with salt added. Also, limit your intake of salty snacks such as potato and corn chips, pretzels, salted nuts and crackers. Reducing your intake of sodium may reduce your chances of developing high blood pressure, and you will discover the natural flavors of foods that excess salt covers up.

Your Shopping Dollar

Look ahead to maximize your buying power. There is often a pattern as to when items go on sale. By being aware of trends and planning ahead, you can increase your buying power. If you follow the buyman'ship guidelines of Consumer Report, you can make your dollars worth 25 to 30 percent more. It is wise to analyze carefully the sale or special you are considering when you make your shopping list. Plan carefully for shopping throughout the year. You will want to consider weekend specials, monthly specials, seasonal sales and clearances. If you are making your shopping calendar for spring, you might want to consider that in April these items will be good buys - ranges, outdoor paints, ham, asparagus, eggs and after Easter clothing. May has Memorial Day sales. You will find these items good buys - jewelry, lingerie, wall paper, beef, blankets, lettuce and strawberries. In June, the bridal month, you will find on special outdoor furniture, sportswear, lumber, car tires, floor coverings, frozen foods, dairy products, canteloupes, beef and pork roast.

Check your spending plan for how much you can afford, and maximize your dollars with sharp shopping.

Crock-Pot Chicken

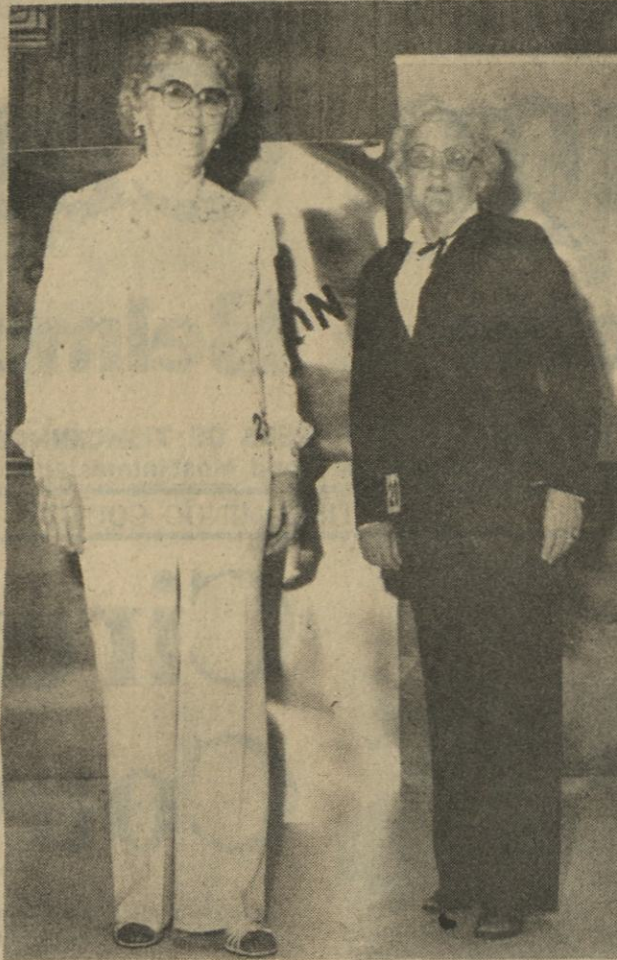

- 2 to 3 carrots, sliced
- 2 to 3 stalks celery, cut in pieces
- 1 medium onion, halved
- 1 tsp. chopped dried onion tops (opt.)
- 1 tsp. minced parsley
- 1 chicken bouillon cube
- 1 3-lb. chicken

Place carrots, celery and onion halves in Crock-Pot. Sprinkle with onion tops and parsley; add bouillon cube. Place whole chicken on top of vegetables; pour 1 cup water over chicken. Cover. Cook on low for 8 hours or to desired doneness.

Energy Credit

A tax credit of home insulation and other energy conservation expenses is available for homes built before April 20, 1977. Many taxpayers in Mississippi who have filed their 1980 tax returns and claimed the energy credit have failed to indicate on Form 5695 whether or not the house was built before the required date. When this happens, an inquiry must be addressed to the taxpayer. Extra processing is expensive to the government and can delay any refunds due the taxpayer for several weeks.

Taxpayers are urged to be sure that all necessary data is included when claiming energy credit.

Mr. John H. Biggs, Publisher

P.O. Drawer E
Iuka, Mississippi 38852

Dear Mr. Biggs:

The long-standing interest and support of the Tishomingo County News is a major reason why the Mississippi Affiliate of the American Heart Association has made such great progress down through the years in the ongoing struggle against our Nation's No. 1 killer and health enemy, cardiovascular diseases. I write you this day to express heartfelt appreciation for that interest and support.

In particular, we would like to thank you for the photograph and article on the Heart Fund Skate-A-Thon.

As President of the Mississippi Heart, I am very proud of the progress that has been made against diseases of the heart and blood vessels—particularly in the last decade. As a practicing physician, I apply on a daily basis techniques and treatment which were pioneered through Heart research and disseminated throughout the medical community by Heart professional education.

Your continued support will make it possible for a future president of the Heart Association to say that for the first time in the 20th Century, cardiovascular diseases no longer claim more lives each year than all other causes of death combined. We are on the brink of that development, with the cardiovascular death rate down to 51%.

Simply stated, great progress has been made and is being made, but much more must be done. Thank you for being an invaluable ally to the Mississippi Heart Association.

Sincerely yours,
Walter H. Rose, M.D.

Social Security
BulletinAnnual Report
Due April 15

Annual reports of 1980 earnings must be filed by April 15 by people receiving social security benefits who earned more than the annual exempt amount in 1980 Jerry Myatt, social security manager in Corinth said recently.

The 1980 annual exempt amounts were $5,000 for people 65 and over and $3,720 for people under 65 of last year.

People who received some benefits in 1980 who earned more than the exempt amount are required to file a report of those earnings by April 15. Those who received no benefits in 1980 are not required to file a report, but Jerry Myatt, said those people should file a report to make sure that any benefits that might be due for the year are paid.

A person who earned less than anticipated, for example, may be due some benefits. The only way these benefits can be paid is if the person files an annual report.

The general rule is that $1 in benefits is withheld for each $2 of earnings above the exempt amount. A person can have substantial yearly earnings before all benefits are withheld. For example, a 65-year-old person whose monthly benefit rate is $350 could earn $13,400 before all benefits for 1980 are withheld.

People who are required to file an annual report should have received a copy in the mail. If they have not, they should contact the nearest social security office to obtain a copy. Those not required to file, but who wish to do so, can also get a copy of the form at any social security office. The 1981 annual exempt amounts are $5,000 for people 65 or older any part of 1981 and $4,080 for people under 65 all of 1981.

More information about annual reports and the annual earnings test can be obtained at the Corinth social security office. The phone number in Corinth is 287-5241. Most residents of Tippah and Tishomingo counties can call the office in Corinth at no charge by dialing 837-3018 or 423-6042 respectively.

"I Wonder"

Do you ever sit alone
And let your mind go wild?
Do you ever think of people
From old ones to a child?

Do you ever wonder what it's like
To wake up cold and scared?
I'm never lonesome, I have friends
And someone's always there.

I met one time an older man
He had no one to love.
There was no one there for which he cared
May he rest in peace above.

He had no reason to live
His life had passed him by.
God finally called him to his home
A mansion built on high.

I should spend my life and use each day
To cheer someone who's down.
'Cause when I'm old and all alone
I'll want someone around.

I guess I shouldn't sit and think
As often as I do.
Tomorrow I'll think of better things
So I won't be as blue!

TERMITES?

Ah spring, when termites take you looking for a new home to eat.

For eleven months out of the year you never see them. They're busy tunneling back and forth from ground to your house, chewing away at subfloors, floors, structural timbers and other choice edibles.

But then along comes spring and weather. And suddenly the termites leave their swarms, sprout wings, and go fluttering into the looking for new worlds to conquer.

Soon they drop down, as burrow back into the ground and set up new colonies of ravenous little termites.

It's a fascinating ritual. But for homeowners spells nothing but trouble.

Which is why it pays to call Termitex to make a complete inspection of your building foundation, carefully check all areas of infestation or possible damage.

Then we place a chemical barrier between your home and the ground that kills termites on contact. Termitex is so sure we can stop termites that we guarantee your house and its contents from termite damage.

So give us a call. We'll keep those termites out of your house. And that's a promise.

Stop termites scientifically. Call Termitex.

be Wins diamond classic week's play of hard-baseball, the Diamond balled down to three. Corinth erupted for timely homers in the night finals, taking a 7-5 title win over Iuka Chieftains.

defensive MVP crown. However, it was number eight hitter, Britt Richards, that provided a game winning, three run homer in the top of the sixth inning for the marbles.

"We played three excellent games," countered a disappointed but not discouraged Johnny Bolen, of Iuka, we just didn't take advantage of our offensive opportunities to win the game."

Bolen referred to the bottom of the sixth inning when Iuka loaded the bases with one out, only to see Corinth hurler, Eric Lancaster, get off the hook with a strike out and an infield grounder. "That's when we missed our last chance," he admitted.

"I felt that the best two teams for the week made the finals," offered Corinth's John Smillie. "Outside of Ocean Springs and Germantown there aren't any better teams than Iuka or Ripley."

The Chieftains played up to their previously unbeaten billing. Falling to 8-1 with the loss, Iuka battled tooth and nail in what proved to be a classic showdown.

Corinth broke the scoring in the top of the second when John Mitchell singled then Charlie Curtis ripped a Bryant fast ball for a homer and a 2-0 Tribe margin.

Iuka countered in the bottom of the inning with two acts. Gus Sims provided the RBI single before the first of eight Corinth errors allowed a tie match.

The Chiefs came back with a 3-2 lead in the bottom of the third when superlative center fielder scored a triple and scored on Keith Wimberly's sacrifice fly.

However, Corinth recapcounting for three of the runs. After that, the clubs matched each other through the final five frames.

"We just aren't scoring a lot of runs," admitted Iuka Boss Johnny Bolen. "But we are playing good defense and we got good pitching when we needed it."

Iuka didn't waste many opportunities, leaving two runners aboard in seven innings of play. However, the Golden Bears stranded eight base runners including a base loaded jam in the very first inning.

"We made contact better, but we just didn't get the hit when we needed it," explained Central Boss Ronnie Crawford. "Iuka does everything that you are supposed to do to win."

Dennis Medley pitched the initial five frames for Iuka before yielding to Keith "Skeeter" Bryant for the finish. Together, the pair fanned eight Bears, walked four, and scattered five hits.

Chuck Seltzer was the loser for Central, fanning four Chiefs, while walking two. The sophomore gave up six hits. "I thought he threw a real fine game at us," offered Bolen. "They had some errors early that cost them."

Iuka got two runs in the first inning when Joey Dean and Skeeter Bryant put together consecutive singles, consecutive sacrifices by Jimmy James and Keith Wimberly brought the first run home before a Bear error on a pop fly allowed a 2-0 lead.

In the second inning, Iuka got a big break-through, strated by three consecutive hits. Mike Thomas, Keith Curtis, and Joey Dean powered base hits for the first two runs before another Central error gave Iuka a 5-0 lead.

Jimmy James, walking his way aboard, stole second base, then third base, before scoring on a Central throwing error for the 6-0 lead.

After that, the clubs settled down as Central's Seltzer gave up just one more hit the rest of the way. Medley and Bryant gave up just two hits for Iuka over the final inning.

Keith Wimberly, a Corinth legion stand-out that prepare for Iuka, ripped the other Iuka hit, a double in the bottom of the fifth. True to form for the game, the sophomore came around on a Central error.

The punchless Bears broke through on the game's final play, the most exciting play of the match.

After Ken Hardwick worked for a walk, Seltzer came on to rip a screaming triple to right field. Hardwick scored easily before the relay throw got by the catcher.

Seltzer went for broke by going to the plate and was thrown out in an eyelash play to end what turned out to be a good contest.

"I think Central is better than last year at this time," offered a gracious Bolen. "They will eliminate some of those mistakes before it is over."

"When we start hitting, then we will come around," offered Crawford. "But Iuka is an outstanding club that can beat you in a lot of ways."

Chieftains edged Ripley's Tigers 3-2 and moved into the final of the Corinth Invitational Tournament.

Keith Wimberly tossed a three hitter and struck out six to pick up the win, while Skip Benson was charged with the six hit loss, Benson fanned five.

Malcolm Brown had a double for the Chieftains, while Benson slugged a solo homerun in the first inning for Ripley.

15 Named To Classic Team

Capping the selection of the all-classic team was the selection of offensive and defensive MVP honors. The 15-man squad was highlighted by Charles Curtis, of Corinth, on the scoring side, while Ripley's Skip Benson got the defensive honor.

Randy Webb, Saltillo, Chuck Seltzer, Central, Skeeter Bryant, Iuka, Skip Benson, Ripley, Britt Richards, Corinth, Infielders; Doug Dickey, Saltillo, Barry Morris, Burnsville, Daryl Rogers, Ripley, Charles Curtis, Corinth, Jimmy James, Iuka, Outfielders.

Iuka Slips By Corinth 4-3

Keith Bryant and Jimmy James drove in runs in the top of the seventh as Iuka's Chieftains nipped Corinth's Warriors 4-3 Monday in a District One Class A contest.

Trailing 3-2 entering the seventh, Iuka's John Hannon led off with a double, and another Chieftain reached on an error before Bryant and James delivered their clutch blows.

Keith Wimberly tossed a six-hitter and struck out eight to pick up the win. He also had a solo homerun in the fourth inning.

Tim Dixon gave up nine hits in a loss. Stan Pierce slugged a pair of doubles for the Warriors.

Forest Fire Season

The Mississippi Forestry Commission is asking Tishomingo Countians to increase their awareness of forest fire danger during the next several months. It's not an unusual request, since the woods and fields of Mississippi always become more vulnerable to wildfire through the winter and early spring months.

According to County Forester Brendix Glasgow, well-distributed, timely rains and the continuing cooperation of the citizens of Tishomingo County is preventing the reporting of wildfires will be necessary if the County is to avoid having a bad year for fire losses on valuable timberlands.

"We especially need the full cooperation of debris-burning landowners, motorists and others who historically start a high percentage of the accidental fires we have each year in Tishomingo County," he declared.

Glasgow added that local law enforcement people will be joining Forestry Commission investigators to apprehend woods arsonists and others who violate the State's fire laws. The County

Forester pointed out that increased public cooperation in the identification of incendiaries is urgently needed. He said several forest fire reward programs are helping, but much more could be done if the general public would report suspicious activity in and around woodlands the way they might do if the property being set afire was a house or barn.

"Each time a woods arsonist strikes he is taking money out of the pockets of every man, woman and child in our county," he stressed. Glasgow pointed out that timber is now number 1 in agriculture income in Tishomingo County - valued at nearly 3 million dollars last year.

How can individual citizens help protect against forest fire losses? According to the County Forester the following personal steps would be helpful:

1) Don't burn anything outdoors if there's the slightest chance your fire could escape.

2) Call the county dispatching tower for a permit to burn. Current fire danger information is available from the tower. (Giving the tower the location of your planned burn could save a lot of valuable gasoline expended by commission crews in checking unreported smokes.)

3) Report unattended field or forest fires you come across in your community to the local fire towers.

4) Suppress any small fire you might find if it's not too dangerous. Afterwards, report the fire to the local fire tower. Do not attempt to put out fires in heavy, dry vegetation on windy days. Get to a phone fast, and call for help!

5) Talk fire prevention to your neighbors.

Please help stop the needless waste of our forest resources in Tishomingo County. For more information or to report a forest fire call 423-5951 or 423-9070.

GOOD NEWS from the good neighbors at State Farm Life

First, State Farm is INCREASING DIVIDENDS for its life insurance policyholders! As a result of a newly adopted dividend scale, $154 million dollars have been earmarked for policyholder dividends in 1981. This represents a 40% increase, or an additional $45 million dollars over the amount which would have been provided by the former dividend scale.

But that's not all! Interest paid or credited to policyholders on dividends and other funds left with the Company has been increased from 6 1/2% to 8%. This increase is effective with interest paid or credited during 1981.

A dependable company... up-to-date coverages... prompt, personal service... and now increased dividends and higher interest... they're all part of life insurance the State Farm way. Call me for details.

Sen. Bill May Reports To The People

In writing weekly legislative reports, I seldom dwell on the many rules of procedure we have to deal with, because I know the people are not interested in the many technical rules and political maneuvering involved in the political process, but are interested in results.

I know no way, however, to make an intelligent report on the condition of things in the Legislature at this point without talking about the process which has brought these conditions and issues about. A brief summary of what has happened follows.

Since the Legislature started the current session last January, bills have been passed by the House and amended in the Senate, and Senate bills have been amended by the House. These bills after being amended went back to the chamber (or house) where they originated for concurrence in the amendments.

In some cases, there has been a simple concurrence in the other house's amendments and the bill has been sent to the Governor. A typical example of this is the truck weight bill. The Senate concurred in House amendments.

However, in most cases on bills of any importance, the House in which the bill originated has refused to concur in the other house's amendments, and the bills have gone to special six-member conference committees, with three members of the Senate appointed by the Lt. Governor and three members of the House appointed by the Speaker of the House. The only function of these special conference committees is to work out a compromise between the House and Senate on these bills.

As you might expect, the process causes a large number of bills to bottle-up for final action at the end of each session. The current session seems to have had an unusual number of bills in conference committees. There are at this writing approximately 107 appropriation bills and approximately 65 general bills in conference committees.

Next week, which should be the last week of this session, will be one of mostly meeting on conference committees and waiting for other committees to report. This, it seems to me, is one of the most tedious and unpleasant duties of all legislative functions.

A good example of how this process works is the situation with House Bill No. 542, which is the bill to extend the life of the Department of Corrections. Our present law was enacted in 1976 with an automatic repealer on July 1, 1981. This makes it necessary either to pass a new law or to extend the present law for at least one year.

The highway funding bill and the justice court bill are also good examples of how this process works. Unless the differences between the House and Senate can be resolved in the conference committees on these bills in the next few days, we will be faced with the proposition of either extending the session or possibly being called back into special session.

Sometimes I wish I could improve this system, but the process has worked reasonably well over the years, and I, for the time being, will work with the system and try to make the system work for the people.

Conservation Notes

By: Bobby Manley

One of the most neglected forestry practices of our timberland ownership is that of selectively marking and cutting the timber stand. This practice is the key to our future timber supply.

Most people sell their timber on a "lump sum" basis. This is actually a poor way of doing business. If the landowner is not actually sure of what is on his land, he may lose money. The timber may be worth more by selling it for so many dollars per cord, unit or thousand board feet. Also, the cutting will usually take out the best trees and leave the undesirable and cull trees. This will eventually convert the stand to an area of worthless trees. Then, too, a lot of trees are cut just when they are beginning to make money for the owner. Some trees will double or triple in value if they are left growing for just a few more years.

Timberland is an investment. In a region of fast pine tree growth like this area, we can expect to collect on that investment by properly thinning a timber stand every five to ten years. In a fully stocked stand, the first thinning can be made when the stand is from fifteen to twenty years of age. Then thin every three years after that until the stand is thirty to thirty-five years old, then switch to a cut every five years. If the stand is well protected from fire, the end result will be a stand of high quality and valuable trees with a young stand coming on to replace these trees when they are cut.

If you would like to get more information on timber thinning, contact the Soil Conservation Service Office in Iuka.

In Memory

The following poem appeared in an October, 1944 issue of The Vidette. It is in memory of three of Iuka's men who were killed during World War II, and is being shared with us by Mrs. Grace Phifer, of Iuka.

In Memory Of

Sgt. Reeder (John) Kent, Pvt. Bill Lomenick And Sgt. Riley Joe Furniss

There are three homes in Pleasant Hill community, in a row, Where once lived John, Bill and Joe. Where they lived happy and gay, You would see them passing each day. With a happy smile, or a cheery hello - On down the road they would go. No three finer boys ever lived, But their lives they had to give. For they were sent across the sea; To fight for home and liberty. But in our lives, there will be woe, For we will miss John, Bill and Joe.

How To Go Nuts

COPIED:

Last Sunday we ran a little jingle about:

If b-o-u-g-h spells bough - I simply cannot figure bough. A c-o-u-g-h is cough, and so I simply laugh it out.

A reader writes in a letter of sympathy and points out Americans ought to be mighty slow to ridicule attempts of foreigners to read and write our English language for of the four major languages, it is by far the most difficult.

As the good lady says, English is taught for Englishmen and Americans not to mention those of foreign birth and education. Our correspondent also sends us this little comment by Gretchen Robinson:

"We'll begin with the box, the plural of which is boxes," but the plural of ox is oxen not oxes.

"One fowl is a goose, and two are called geese; but the plural of mouse is never meese."

"You may find a lone mouse, or a whole nest of mice; but the plural of house is houses, not hices."

"If the plural of man is men, why shouldn't the plural of

COME TO CHURCH

We all have times when things go wrong,
And Fortune's in reverse;
Yet we're expected to be strong,
Though things could not get worse...
A strength of which the Scriptures name
Examples plain to see:
Like Job, whose faith remained the same
Throughout adversity.
So why not go to Church this week,
Whichever one you choose,
And listen to the Bible speak;
There's not a thing to lose!
Then, what those passages command
You'll follow to the letter;
And let God take your life in hand,
To change it for the better! —Gloria Nowak

A Letter of Thanks

Last Saturday morning, March 28, a forest fire broke out on the north side of Indian Creek Road. A call was made to our Volunteer Fire Department, but in the few minutes that it took our men to arrive on the scene, the high winds had whipped the fire into a swirling wall of intense heat, some two hundred acres wide, that was moving rapidly northward.

We radioed for emergency assistance and the Belmont, Tishomingo, and Burnsville Volunteer Fire Departments arrived shortly. However, our combined efforts proved helpless in that the fierce winds tunneled the flames to the tops of the trees, sweeping burning debris sometimes 100-150 yards on beyond the main body of fire. Requests were sent out for heavy equipment and the Tennessee River Pulp and Paper Company, the Yellow Creek Tennessee Valley Authority, and the Mississippi Forestry Service responded most generously, not only providing bulldozers, water tankers, and fire extinguishers, but men to operate the equipment as well. Also, an observation plane and pilot was provided by the Tennessee River Pulp and Paper Company.

Furthermore, there were employees from the J.P. Coleman and Tishomingo State Parks, the Department of Wildlife Conservation, the Yellow Creek Public Safety Department, the Sheriff's Department, the Highway Patrol, and approximately one hundred and fifty local men and women who voluntarily fought to help bring the fire under control. The Ladies Auxiliary of the First District Volunteer Fire Department and the American Red Cross provided food and drinks for the firefighters.

It was 3:00 Sunday morning before the fire's progress was completely stopped, leaving approximately four thousand acres of burned out woodland to mark its path. Thankfully, not one life was lost, nor one occupied home destroyed.

To all of those who gave of their time, effort, and equipment, we humbly thank you, for if the fire had not been contained to a certain area and eventually subdued, numerous homes would have burned and additional hundreds of acres of beautiful woodland destroyed.

Our deep appreciation, also, to all of those who support the Volunteer Fire Departments by their monetary donations and their volunteer help, for without those donations of money, time, and service, there would be no Volunteer Fire Departments.

Members of the 1st District Volunteer Fire Department J.P. Coleman State Park

Card of Thanks

KKI Met March 16

The March meeting of Kappa Kappa Iota was held on March 16, at the Belmont Steak House.

The meeting began with the devotional reading and prayer by Jewell Nixon. President Effie Lois Greene conducted the business session assisted by Jewell Nixon, secretary; and Ruth Fulton, treasurer. Much of the time was taken up in plans for reaching goals and finishing projects to be completed before the end of the school year. A nominating committee was named to recommend officers for the coming year beginning in September. Reports were given of the annual spring luncheon in Jackson last month, and several announcements were made regarding the state convention to be held in Ripley next month.

Hostesses Arah Ivy and Jean Lambert served salad and dessert to the above and also to Lois Bostick, Verna Crow, Marie Edwards, Barbara McNeil, Havis Short and Mary Williams.

Easter Seals At 62

As a national voluntary agency, the Easter Seal Society begins its 62nd year of continuous service to disabled Americans this spring.

There's no celebration planned, no fanfare. The hundreds of affiliated societies around the country are quietly going on about their business which is providing a broad range of rehabilitation services to people with disabilities of all ages.

The fact that they've been doing this longer, and have helped more people than any other voluntary agency in the world speaks well of Easter Seals' stability, determination and dedication in meeting community service needs.

The grassroots, community-based character of Easter Seals is further substantiated by the fact that more than 95 percent of all revenue is retained within the state in which it is raised. And 70 percent of each dollar raised is used for direct services to clients.

These observations are worth considering, when you choose a charity for your support. The Easter Seal campaign is now underway. We urge you to give generously so that the Society can continue delivering vital rehabilitation services to people with disabilities.

Report Wheat Planted

The first requirement for a farmer to receive benefits under the 1981 wheat program is to report acreage planted to wheat by May 1, 1981. Any wheat acreage that fails because of a natural disaster should be reported to the county office before any disposition is made of evidence that the crop was planted.

County Agent's Notes

By: Percie B. Stricklen,
County Agent

Choose Varieties Carefully

What do you look for in a soybean variety? Obviously, yield is a major consideration. But other factors should influence your decision.

First, consider your soil's capabilities and problems. Then select the varieties that fit your farm situation best. Look for varieties that have pest resistance, resist lodging and don't shatter.

Study yield performance at research stations similar to your own soil and location. Look at several years' research; don't depend on one year's results.

You'll want to check on herbicide reaction, too. Some varieties are sensitive to Lexone or Sencor.

Don't abandon known varieties that are yielding well. Gradually switch to new ones that research has shown to have more advantages.

Planting different maturing varieties will lengthen the harvest season and let you harvest more acres per combine. It also gives you some insurance against unfavorable weather. A good guideline is to plant 30 percent early, 50 percent mid-maturity and 20 percent late maturity varieties.

No matter what varieties you plant, you won't get the best results without lime, fertilizer and good management.

Food For Thought

You might want to keep the following information handy for your friends who live in town:

Agriculture is the nation's number one inflation fighter. Farm productivity growth has five times greater than non-farm industry in the past five years. One farm worker supplies enough food and fiber for 68 people.

Agriculture is the nation's number one exporter. Agricultural exports were a record $40 billion in 1980, by far the leading positive factor in the U.S. balance of trade. These exports make it possible to pay for imports like oil, automobiles and electronics.

American agriculture is the most efficient in the world. According to the latest figures, we're spending 16.5 percent of our income for food. Russians spend 45 percent; West Germans, 27 percent; Japanese, 28 percent; British, 31 percent; and Italians, 35 percent.

Plant Intentions Report

The Department of Agriculture released its planting intentions report last week. Extension Economist, Dr. Bob Williams says the report shows Mississippi farmers will plant three million 850-thousand acres of soybeans. This is four percent below the 1980 soybean acreage. Nationwide, farmers intend to plant 69-million 800-thousand acres of soybeans. Dr. Williams says this is slightly below the 1980 U.S. total of 70-million 100-thousand. Because the changes in acreage were slight, Dr. Williams doesn't expect them to influence soybean prices.

Winter Wheat Crop Could Set Record, USDA Says

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's first winter wheat forecast indicates the 1981 crop could total 1.98 billion bushels, 86 million above last season's record.

Department officials say there are always uncertainties until the crop is harvested but past experience shows that chances are two out of three that this estimate will not differ from final production by more than 160 million bushels.

The report shows that farmers seeded the largest acreage ever to winter wheat last fall - 63.9 million acres. This tops the old high of 61.2 million in 1949 and exceeds last year by 6.5 million acres.

"With record wheat production a strong possibility for 1981, expanded demand will be required if current market prices are to be maintained," the report stated. Although some increase in domestic use is likely, the key element will be foreign demand.

Large wheat supplies continue to dominate the market. January 1 stocks totaled 1.9 billion bushels, 10 percent larger than a year ago and one of the highest January figures since the early 1960's. Wheat stocks stored commercially were 20 percent larger than in 1980. A similar increase was noted in producers' control and ownership of these supplies. The large storage capacity on farms is being used heavily, especially for holding grain in the farmer-owned reserve program.

By late January, wheat stocks isolated from the market included about 200

Carson Is Candidate To Head Veterans Administration

State Rep. Lane Carson, of New Orleans, is among the top candidates for appointment to head the Veterans Administration, sources in Washington said recently.

Lane is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Carson, of New Orleans. He is the grandson of Herbert Carson, and the nephew of Mrs. Austin Curtis, both of Iuka.

The sources said Carson's chances to land the top VA post improved recently when two other candidates were apparently disqualified for undisclosed reasons. However, the sources cautioned that the Reagan administration's appointment process is unpredictable. They said they think Carson's prospects are good, but added they have no clear idea of just how good.

Carson, 33, the conservative Democrat-turned-Republican who served as Reagan's campaign chairman in Louisiana's 1st Congressional District last year, is a former Army 2nd Lieutenant and combat platoon leader who was wounded seriously in Vietnam.

Carson said in a telephone interview from New Orleans that he was contacted by the White House about two weeks ago, was asked if he was still interested in the VA position, and then was told to renew his application for the spot because two of his major competitors had been disqualified.

Carson said the call from the White House was the first he'd heard on the subject since notifying Reagan officials in November that he was interested in the post.

Describing himself as "someone who's seen the system from the inside" through his experience as a wounded Vietnam vet who went through VA hospitalization and rehabilitation, Carson said he has the "expertise, experience and legislative know-how" to handle the job.

He claimed additional credentials as a "hardcore Reaganite" in whom the president could have complete confidence. He also claimed significant experience in veterans affairs through his membership and activity in the Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, Disabled American Veterans, AmVets, the VA's Vietnam Veteran Advisory Council and a veterans affairs subcommittee in the Louisiana Legislature.

If he is chosen as VA head, Carson said, he will "try to dedicate my main efforts to making sure the Vietnam vet is brought back into the mainstream of society."

He pledged support for the Reagan budget-cutting initiatives, including the proposed postponement of construction of the extension to the VA hospital in New Orleans.

Carson said he has had no indication from the White House as to what his prospects are. "You never can tell - you throw your hat in the ring and you hope for the best," he said.

TCM&CC Activities

The weather was perfect Saturday, March 28, for the Star Gaze and Rocket Shoot, sponsored by the Tishomingo County Museum and Cultural Center and the Northeast Mississippi Museum Association.

The NEMM Rocket Club of Corinth performed a public rocket display at the Brinkley Farm in Iuka. Forty-five adults and children including twenty from Tishomingo County gathered to watch the boys launch their rockets. Under the supervision of Mr. Doug Fleury, Director, the students in the rocket program launched rockets ranging in size from 8 inches to 4 feet long. Some rockets reached heights of 1,000 ft. A special thrill was when a couple of rockets were carried off by the wind and got stuck in trees.

A rocket club is easy to start. It takes from one to three hours to build a rocket. Interested persons, young and old, can purchase materials for $5-$10 and a group can go in and purchase a launcher for $15-$20. Rocket launching is safe and provides good scouting activity.

A picnic supper followed the rocket launch. Afterwards, Mr. Jack Frost, assisted by Del Ashcraft, of Corinth, set up an 8" reflector telescope. Star gazers were able to view Jupiter and four of its moons and Saturn with its rings.

Among those attending were the Burnsville GEMS, class for the gifted, a group from Tishomingo Elementary School, and some youngsters from Iuka School.

"This is only one of the varied activities that can be coordinated through the museum," said Mrs. Juanita Tice, TCM&CC President.

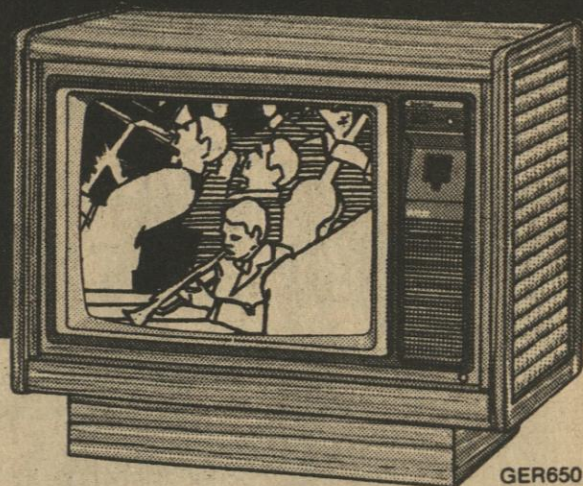

"We need the people in the county to get behind our efforts and support us by joining our membership or making donations so that we can complete the restoration of the old courthouse and open the building to the public. If each resident of Tishomingo County would give us just one dollar each that would open our museum. We will be having a flea market at the old courthouse in the near future to raise funds to help complete this project. So each of you can clean out your attic and closets and donate the articles to us. This will be one way that everyone can help."

"We are very fortunate to have the Northeast Mississippi Museum Association and its director, Mr. Doug Fleury, interested in our program. They will cooperate with us and advise us when needed."

Anyone interested in making a donation to the TCM&CC, please send it to Tishomingo County Museum and Cultural Center, P.O. Box 26, Iuka, MS 38852.

Back Injuries

Thousands of working men know what Chiropractic can do for back injuries. They know that when other methods fail to give them relief, Chiropractic was successful.

It is important for employees, compensation insurance carriers and the public in general to recognize this fact. Actual studies have been made of injured workers cared for by systems of therapy. Chiropractic brings the worker with less cost to the insurance company, less insurance coverage to the employer, as well as less time in the production line.

Several large industrial firms are now employing chiropractors on a full time basis to care for the workers.

One of a series of articles published in the public to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic.

Women's Seminar April 7th

"Opportunities, Challenges and Solutions" has been selected the theme for the second annual Women in the 80's seminar at Northeast Mississippi Junior College. Debbie Strickland, Program Coordinator said.

Featuring Marge Thrasher, hostess of Channel 13's daily talk show "Straight Talk with Marge Thrasher," the two-hour seminar will be 7 p.m., Tuesday, in the Mississippi Room of Frank Haney Union. There is no pre-registration or fee for attending. A much-sought after speaker at positive thinking rallies around the country. Ms. Thrasher will be speaking on the subject "Growing as a Secure Woman."

Quite compatible with her topic, Ms. Thrasher is president of her own promotions agency, Marge Thrasher and Associates, Inc., is a TV spokesman for many local, regional and national firms, and serves as the first woman appointed to the Memphis Area Transit Authority.

In addition, she was given the National Catholic Communications Award, received the Outstanding Public Figure Award from Phillips College and Dyersburg College, and named Public Citizen of the Year by Professional Social Workers and was selected one of the Outstanding Women Who Work in Memphis.

Juggling a growing career and family of four children, Ms. Thrasher, the wife of Dr. Charles White, a Memphis plastic surgeon, explains that the key for one's self-improvement lies within the realm of successful communications.

The seminar, which drew some 200 participants last year, is designed to be of interest to all ages.

Added features include entertainment by the Northeast ensemble and the showing of fur coats made from animals native to Mississippi. The showing is presented by Ralph Redditt, chairman of the Mississippi Beaver Cooperative's board of directors.

For additional information, interested persons may contact Ms. Strickland on the Northeast campus by calling 728-7751, or (toll free within the college district) 1-728-7759, ext. 315.

Lothenore Steps Down As Coach

Harold T. White, president of Northeast Mississippi Junior College, announced today the resignation of Millard Lothenore as head coach for the Lady Tigers.

Lothenore, who has completed two coaching stints totalling five years, will remain on staff in the capacity of classroom instructor in physical education and will also assume new duties in the athletic department, one of which includes coaching the newly formed women's softball team.

Carrying a record of 60 wins and 48 losses, Lothenore said that he felt he could better serve Northeast through these new duties.

"We are looking for outstanding things to happen in women's athletics during the next few years," he said. "There is a great deal of athletic ability within our own area."

"Coach Lothenore is to be commended for his cooperative spirit in giving direction to the total athletic program," White said.

"I appreciate the support that President White and the Athletic Department have given, and I look forward to working with the new coach and sharing information about the athletes," Lothenore said.

Applications for the position will be accepted in the Office of the Dean.
