IUKA, TISHOMINGO COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI

Thursday, October 4, 1984 No. 16

COUNTY BOARD SETS MILLAGE, ADOPTS BUDGET

The Tishomingo County Board of Supervisors recently set their county millage rate and adopted their budget for the upcoming year. The new budget, which went into effect Monday, October 1, was approximately 10% higher than last year.

According to Gerald Parsons, President of the Board of Supervisors, under the reappraisal, the county's assessed evaluation rose from $23 million to an approximate $44 million. A mill now is projected to bring in $44,000, compared to the $23,000 before the reappraisal.

According to information released from the Chancery Clerk's office, the First District, which includes the Iuka School District, will pay 59.75 mills in taxes, or $59.75 for every $1,000 assessed evaluation before homestead exemption. Residents in the four remaining districts with county schools will pay 50.53 mills, or $50.53 per $1,000. The county's general operating fund will get only 20.93 mills.

Other millage totals adopted for the county included: 1 mill for state special improvement tax; 16.45 for county schools and 25.69 for the Iuka System; 3.05 mills for Northeast Mississippi Junior College; and 1.65 mills for the Tishomingo County Hospital.

The jail building fund was set at .55 mills; 4.5 mills in each of the county's district road funds; 1 mill for the reappraisal maintenance fund; 20.93 mills for general county; and 1.375 mills for the Tombigbee River Valley Water Management District.

The total budget for Tishomingo County is $3,042,730. The five county road districts have been appointed $1,619,125, while $365,000 was designated for retirement of the county's bonded indebtedness. All other county operations, except for the schools, have been earmarked $1,058,605.

The county's garbage and sanitary landfill operations will receive $100,000. The County Health Department and Public Health was budgeted $21,481, while Region IV Mental Health Services will get $24,000. Other welfare services totaled $25,215.

According to Parsons, administrative county offices budgets, excluding salaries are: Board of Supervisors, $54,000; Chancery Clerk, $53,000; Circuit Clerk, $25,673; Tax Assessor, $105,045; fees for court appointed attorneys, $5,000; $30,000 went into a reappraisal maintenance fund required by law; $85,952 for computer services to be funded from tax millage; $41,800 for maintenance of county buildings; $23,000 for courthouse and jail repair; and $10,957 for the county purchasing agent.

The Sheriff's Department was earmarked $153,520 for its salaries and operations. The five fire districts in the county will divide among them $20,000. The amount of $4,000 was budgeted for operations of the five constables, and $20,000 was set aside for elections next year.

The Tishomingo County Court Systems will require $118,255 to operate in the upcoming year. The Chancery Court was earmarked $16,500; Circuit Court, $35,055; County Attorney, $9,000; Juvenile Court, $4,000; Lunacy Court, $1,200; County Coroner, $6,000; and the Justice Court System, $56,500.

The Yellow Creek Watershed Authority was designated $12,000, while the county library services are marked $45,000. The Northeast Mississippi Planning and Development District received $11,750 for their services. Economic Development was designated $23,500.

The road funds varied in each district from a low of $285,000 to $371,575. The differences in the variance include funds carried forward from the district, State Aid Road Projects to be done or incomplete, equipment purchase projections, and many other factors.

COCHRAN ANNOUNCES GRANTS FOR COUNTY

Senator Thad Cochran (R-Miss.) has announced approval of two Appalachian Regional Commission grants totaling over $360,000 for projects in Tishomingo County.

Cochran said ARC approved a grant of $350,000 to assist in providing rail access and wastewater facilities to the Yellow Creek Industrial Park.

A second ARC grant has been approved, Cochran said, for construction of a lagoon treatment system to serve the Town of Burnsville. The $12,663 grant will be used to replace an inoperable mechanical wastewater treatment plant.

The system will serve some 889 customers and the newly constructed Winfield Manufacturing Company.

"These two improvement projects certainly are worthy of Appalachian Regional Commission grants and I'm pleased ARC has recognized the need for these in this section of our state," Cochran said.

"Because of its deteriorated condition, the decision has been made that this building will be demolished and the property cleared. Therefore, the building cannot be offered for either sale or lease," Superintendent Montague replied.

It was further noted that the railway system was and had been losing approximately $40,000 each year maintaining the function of the building and services. Being that currently only two Iuka companies were subscribers to the local railway service and as a money saving alternative, it was decided to move the present agent (Davis) to Corinth.

Companies named as Winfield Manufacturing and Conalco were notified that the agent would either mail or carry the proper paperwork to them in order for them to remain users of the system.

The history surrounding the construction of the present depot is vague. However, it is believed to have been built in 1907. Prior to that, a wood building served the Town of Iuka, and according to earlier print, was located west of the present facility.

Formerly the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, one of the pioneer roads of the south, track was laid and full rail service came into existence in 1857 with the town incorporation act date being December 13, 1857. The name Danton was first given the town, but was later abandoned in favor of Iuka.

Traffic and the settlement of Iuka began to grow around the railroad as goods needed by the settlers were brought in. The rails also took out products which the settlers had to sell to the markets of the South.

With the establishing of the rail system, the depot became the center hub of the day. Out of necessity, the railroad passenger depot was born. Tishomingo County residents and towns people alike were ever ready for a joyride and quick to clamber aboard the new contraptions. Several drummers and many visitors were arriving on each of about six daily passenger trains.

The railroad station saw area students off to college and whisked newly weds off to their honeymoons. It heard sobs of anguish in times of war and shared tears of joy when peace returned. When the telegraph came into use, townspeople clustered at the depot to learn the latest news. From the beginning, the buzzing atmosphere of the activity filled station was an important center of Iuka.

Many citizens of this northeast town still recall fondly the earlier days and the stories told by parents and grandparents.

The day Southern Railway begins the destruction and clearing away project will be a sad one indeed for area residents.

Load of Milo At Port
Yellow Creek Port workers were excited Wednesday,
September 26, as they observed the arrival of the first load of milo. The Yellow Creek Port is buying the milo from local farmers to be shipped to feed mills. The market for milo extends up the Tennessee River to the Gulf. The Port was opened in 1974 and is beginning to pay its way. It serves Northeast Mississippi as an outlet to river transportation.

YELLOW CREEK PORT FACES PROMISING OUTLOOK

Call it a turnaround, upswing, boom, whatever. But after years of trimming its sails in the face of economic uncertainty, the Yellow Creek Port, the first on the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway, is beginning to pay its way.

The idea behind the Yellow Creek Port, which opened in 1974 was to give Northeast Mississippi an outlet to river transportation near the soon-to-be-completed Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway, linking the Tennessee River to the Gulf of Mexico at Mobile, and provide more jobs for the people of Tishomingo, Iuka, Prentiss, and Swamba counties.

It paid its operating costs in 1983, giving its operator, the Yellow Creek State Inland Port Authority in Iuka, reason for optimism. But what is an even more promising sign is that the tonnage of freight moving through the port has more than doubled in the last two years, helped along by more than $6 million in badly needed capital improvements.

A roundup of improvements made at the port, which is located on TVA's Pickwick Reservoir at the northern terminus of the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway where Mississippi, Tennessee, and Alabama meet, including:

Approximately 140 acres have been cleared and graded for industrial use.

A new crane, lift truck, and portable conveyor have been purchased by the port authority to move more goods from dock to warehouse.

A 15,000-square-foot, humidity-controlled warehouse has been built where moisture-sensitive goods, like cold roll steel, can be stored.

Over a mile of industrial waterline has been installed.

And the port's dock unloading facilities have been expanded and upgraded to accommodate more barge shipments.

These and other improvements were financed with $2.5 million in TVA Jobs Bill funds and a $4.2-million capital improvement appropriation in TVA's 1983 budget.

Herb Smith, acting director of the port, says workers at the port built its grain hopper from scratch "for less than half the cost of a new one."

Such economies naturally please Smith, but not as much as the port's newfound prosperity. For instance, 16,000 tons of steel -- the port's "bread and butter" -- were received last June. This is quite an achievement, considering steel shipments during all of 1982 totaled just 22,000 tons.

Grain shipments are also picking up. They are expected to top the 100,000-ton mark in 1984, compared to 69,000 tons in 1983. Provided the momentum of that upswing is sustained, the pocketbooks of farmers in north Mississippi could benefit in a big way.

With the Tennessee-Tombigbee to open in 1985, it's still too early to tell how strong a drawing card the port will be to new industry. But since 1974, three industrial tenants have located at the port and negotiations are currently going on with a fourth, which would locate near the port on State-owned property and use the port for shipping.

Thus far, the largest single private investment is the $65 million Kimberly Clark Corporation plant, which is located on industrial property purchased by the state for the port project. Altogether, approximately $85 million in local State, TVA, other Federal and private funds have been invested at Yellow Creek, which is a joint venture with TVA, the Mississippi Board of Economic Development, the Tombigbee River Valley Water Management District, and the port authority.

"What I've got is a $12 million facility and more than $20 million in inventory," says Smith. "And I'd like to see it succeed. I think it will as long as the port is able to attract new industry."

And it looks like it's on its way, now that the State has developed an industrial district marketing plan and has set up a trust fund for industrial development, which will be run by the Water Management District.

Contract Awarded

Zack Stewart, Northern District Highway Commissioner, has announced the awarding of a contract to Worsham Brothers of Corinth, the low bidder, at a contract cost of $1,807,292.70.

Stewart explained that the contract is for construction of a truck scales facility on U.S. Highway 72 between Mississippi Highway 25 and the Mississippi-Alabama State Line.

Stewart said he is pleased funds have been allocated for construction of this facility in Tishomingo County.

The completion date is scheduled for November 18, 1985.

Bake Sale

The Women's Auxiliary of the Burgess Creek Baptist Church will have a bake sale on Saturday, October 6, at Helton's Trading Post.

Lots of homebaked items will be available.

Iuka is yet to lose another historic landmark... that being the town's train depot, owned and operated by Southern Railway System.

Only the empty whistle of time arrives and departs from the local depot now that ticket agent E.L. "Dick" Davis, has been assigned duties in Corinth. August 31 was Mr. Davis' last day to conduct business as usual from his Iuka office. He began working at the Corinth depot on Saturday, September 1.

A white sheet of paper remains nailed to the south ticket office door of the station proclaiming the message of the railroad company's intention to abandon the station.

In response to a recent inquiry made to George B. Montague, Superintendent of Southern Railway, the plan of the company for the one-story brick structure was revealed.

1907 and which was the point of community pride for almost a decade. When contacted via phone conversation, company real estate personnel declined to elaborate concerning the proposed destruction of the facility.

Highway Safety During Harvest Season

Harvest season is well under way for many Tishomingo County farmers. Every farm and ranch depends on public roads to travel to and from fields, storage facilities or repair shops.

Before taking tractors, combines, cotton pickers and other farm equipment on the road, make sure tires, brakes, lights, wipers, defrosters and mufflers are in proper working condition.

Make sure the vehicle meets state and local requirements for lighting, load and dimensions.

Check truck beds before loading. Load the truck properly and secure the load so that nothing can fall or blow off onto the roadway.

Do not overload the truck or haul materials it was not designed to carry.

Farm machinery should be clearly marked with flashing lights, reflectors, slow-moving vehicle emblems or a lead car with flashing lights.

Drivers should be aware of slow-moving vehicles when driving early or late in the day when visibility is limited.

Slow Cooker Advantages

Slow cookers can be great year-round. Busy people are discovering the convenience of crockpots in planning and cooking ahead.

Year-round slow cooker recipes are limitless. Slow cookers are great for ham and scalloped potatoes, sweet and sour pork, tender flank steak, coq au vin, braised shortribs, barbecued meatballs and other savory meat, poultry and vegetable dishes that never go out of season.

A slow cooker tenderizes, so cheaper cuts of meat can be used. It saves energy dollars since the cooker can run all day for pennies. It retains nutrients in foods because the low cooking temperatures retain valuable proteins and vitamins that may be lost in stove-top cooking.

However, time lag is a problem with slow cookers. There is a danger period of up to two hours before the pot reaches a heat high enough, above 140 degrees Fahrenheit, to kill most common food poisoning bacteria. These include staph, salmonella and perfringes, the kind of organisms that cause mild to severe intestinal flu-like illnesses.

Because of the two-hour time-lag, cooks are advised to be extra careful in storage and care of foods, especially vulnerable meat and poultry products.

Refrigerate perishable foods as soon as you get home from the store. This keeps bacteria from getting a head start at multiplying to dangerous levels.

Avoid using frozen meat or poultry in the slow cooker. It takes longer to cook frozen ingredients, which lengthens the time for the crockpot to heat up to a bacteria-killing temperature. Using frozen meat can also result in undercooking because cooking times given in crockpot cookbooks are based on thawed temperatures.

Never overload the cooker. Any portion of meat or poultry sticking up above the cooking area may not be fully heated. This increases the chance of foodborne infection.

Avoid using the cooker to reheat leftovers. Refrigerate leftovers as soon as the meal is over. Reheat them later at high, stove-top temperatures before re-serving.

4-H Poultry Chain

Members of the 4-H Poultry Chain project will need to bring their chicks to the Tishomingo County Fair Friday, October 5, before 1:00 p.m. The chicks will remain on display that afternoon and will be sold Friday night at 9:00 p.m. Chicks will not be on display for the entire week this year because of the quarantine on birds.

Posture In The Classroom

Now that school has started, students will be spending three-fourths of their time sitting. Although many have spent hundreds of dollars on back-to-school wardrobes, they will ruin their look in seconds by the way they sit at their desks.

For many teenagers poor posture is a habit rather than laziness. Poor daily posture habits contribute to muscles that are trained and used in the wrong way. Youth in the 4-H personal development project offer these suggestions for good posture in the classroom.

When sitting, keep your feet flat on the floor and sit back so that your hips touch the back of the chair. Keep your chest out and your neck and head in line with your upper back.

The most frequent cause of poor posture is the position of the hips. The hips must rest squarely on supporting legs. If the hips are tipped either forward or backward, the body is thrown out of line.

When writing, lean forward from the hips, maintaining the correct alignment of the back, neck and head.

Remember to stand with your head high, as if balancing a book. Keep your feet parallel and slightly apart with your toes straight ahead. Keep your back as flat as possible and hold your stomach in. It is also important to keep your weight evenly distributed on the balls of your feet.

Good posture adds to good appearance while also adding to physical stamina. Good posture allows you to have good body alignment, an easy stance, good balance, and readiness of movement.

It will take concentration at first to develop good posture. Later it will come automatically whenever you sit or stand.

For more information on how you can improve your posture, contact the County Extension Office.

Farmers Are Asked To Make Nominations For The ASC Committee

"Farmers are asked to nominate candidates of their choice by October 29 to be on the ASC Community Committee ballot," says Howard R. Bridges, Chairman of the Tishomingo ASC Committee.

The ASC Community Committee election will be conducted from November 23 to December 3 by mail ballot. The three ASC communities in Tishomingo County are: Community "A", North Crossroads, North Iuka, North Burnsville and Doskie; Community "B", Iuka, South Burnsville, Midway, North Tishomingo and Paden; and Community "C", South Tishomingo, Dennis, Belmont, and Golden.

ASC Committees are responsible for managing government farm programs on the local level. To meet the needs of individual producers, ASC Committee members must be concerned and responsible individuals, Bridges said. Tishomingo County farmers have the opportunity to nominate persons they feel would best serve the farm community. Farmers have received petition forms by mail and are now submitting them to county ASCS office.

A few basic considerations should be kept in mind circulating petitions, said. In order to be a nominee each, a petition must be signed by at least 3 farm voters in the ASC community, and must be in the county ASCS office by the October 29 deadline.

Farmers may circulate nominating petitions as many candidates as choose. Anyone who nominates a farmer to an ASC committee election must contact the county office for full details, including requirements for office holders.

"Farmers should be for and elect those individuals they feel would do a good job as a member of the ASC committee. The election of concerned farmers to positions on ASC committees is essential in the administration of programs," Bridges said.

Bridges further explained that the county ASCS welcomes all valid petitions. The opportunity to nominate is guaranteed to all farmers regardless of race, sex, age, color, or origin.

EYE FATIGUE

Fatigue can be an enemy of good vision. It may be beneficial to rest and relax your eyes if you feel fatigue setting in. There are also some simple routines which can eliminate mild eye fatigue. Keep in mind, however, that these exercises are designed for people who have no visual problem which needs correction. They are not exercises to strengthen your eyes or to get rid of spectacles. EYE EXERCISES ARE NOT SUBSTITUTES FOR VISUAL CARE.

Try the following: One, glance around to the extreme corners of the room without moving your head. Look slowly and rhythmically from one spot to another. Two, after a couple of minutes of these movements, close your eyes and rest for ten seconds, blink a few times, then rest for another ten seconds. Three, repeat the movements, but going in the opposite direction. Then close your eyes again.

If this provides relief, or if eye fatigue seems to be a chronic problem, you should consult your eye doctor.

The Ashley Fireplace Insert.

Converts your fireplace into an efficient coal or woodburning heater.

With its decorative, cast-iron doors closed, the Ashley Fireplace Insert becomes a true heat circulator, drawing air in through its bottom louvers heating it in a special chamber, and circulating it by means of a powerful blower through top and side outlet grills. Open or remove the doors, and it's an open fireplace.

Joint Effort By Iuka Clubs Reaps Rewards

Representatives of two of Iuka's civic organizations, The Twentieth Century Club and the Iuka Rotary Club, met Sunday, September 28, to unveil a plaque purchased as a joint project under the guidance of Iuka Rotary Past President, Mr. Tony Gaines, with the help of past president of the Twentieth Century Club, Mrs. Nancy Daugherty, and members. Members of these two organizations had worked together previously in the early '50's to build the Youth & Community Center in Iuka Mineral Springs Park. Most citizens of Tishomingo County have taken advantage of the Youth Center's facilities while attending club meetings, youth dances, family reunions, private parties or classes.

Members of the Twentieth Century Club donated a check for $10,000 toward the building of this center. This $10,000 had been a prize to them presented by the Kroger Co. on Iuka Day, July 6, 1950. As winner of the "National Build A Better Community Contest. Members of the Iuka Rotary sponsored numerous projects and worked untold hours to pay off the approximate $9,000 debt on the building at which time it was turned over to the City of Iuka for the good of all our people.

Everyone is urged to come by the Community Center and read the plaque, which is inscribed:

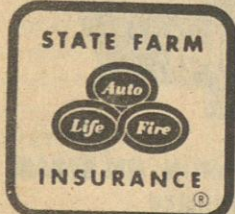

This Youth and Community Center came into being through the efforts of the Twentieth Century Club and the Iuka Rotary Club. Over 800 projects and contributions finalized in burning the mortgage November 30, 1964. This facility was then turned over to the City of Iuka to be used for the good of all our people.

Rainbow I

By: Lynette Rorie

Thursday, September 27, the Rainbow 4-H Club met in their headquarters and the shop to work on exhibits for the fair. Ideas were flying everywhere and all machines in the shop were in use. Excitement filled the air.

The members of Rainbow I and I wish to thank Mr. Donnel Timbes and Mr. Richardson for putting guard poles up around the park to prevent three-wheelers and cars from driving over the park area. They do not want people driving in that area, because it is dangerous for children to play.

Refreshments were served, and the group adjourned after their projects were finished.

New Iuka Telephone Directory To Be Delivered Soon

South Central Bell announced that delivery of the new Iuka telephone directory will begin by October 5, 1984. According to Tom Bailey, district manager, the directory will include complete listings for Iuka, Belmont, Burnsville and Tishomingo. This year's directory cover features a color photograph of the State Capitol. This historic building was completed in 1902 and houses the two chambers of the State Legislature, the offices of the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, the Speaker of the House and the Secretary of State.

To conserve paper and reduce cost, South Central Bell will continue its practice of distributing one directory per household.

Bailey asks that customers allow at least a week for completion of deliveries. Anyone who hasn't received his new directory by October 19 can arrange to receive one by calling the residence service center at 1+961-2288 or business service center at 1+960-3010.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE TISHOMINGO

We live here too. We're hometown bankers at First Bank. Sure, we're part of one of the bigger banking families in Northeast Mississippi. But each First Bank is your town's bank. The members of the board of your First Bank are your friends and neighbors. A loan officer might live next door. A teller lives just down the road. We meet you at church, Little League and the grocery store.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE FIRST BANK

You get big bank expertise right here. We can advise you on loans, investments, trusts—everything the biggest banks do. We can make big business loans, small business loans, car loans or a personal loan without a lot of red tape. Or, we can just say "hi," and cash your personal check.

THE BIG/LITTLE BANK

We've grown over the years by being big and little at the same time. Big—with professional expertise in every area of banking. Little—by being your bank with your friends and neighbors working for you.

Come in and see us to take some money out for a loan. Or, put some money in to grow and help our town grow.

ONE WHO CARES

Dear Nita,
I read your column, and I have a problem that I would like for you to warn people about.
I have always been a Christian and attempted to raise my children right. I have had many problems with my marriage, then with my children as soon as they became teenagers. During a very vulnerable time, a man came to me. Someone so easy to talk to, so understanding and supportive. He finally told me he had loved me from a distance for several years, and he is a married Christian, also.
I found that by then I loved him to. We started an affair, and because we both carry the guilt and know it is wrong in God's sight, we have again decided for the hundredth time to leave one other alone, but the love is still there. I have so many heartaches since that time, and I know the Lord is dealing with me for it. A river of tears have been shed.

I have prayed so hard for the strength to live right. I know I can have forgiveness as soon as I can give all to the Lord, but the turmoil is still there knowing neither or our home lives are going to get any better, and that time may pass without it ever being right for us to be together.
No one should have an affair, but Christians, who really want to be right for sure, must not give in to this. We have one of the two choices -- A Devil's hell for eternity or a river of tears of regret.
SOMEONE WHO HAS BEEN THERE
Dear Been There,
Well said! You have God's great wisdom in knowing right from wrong. Some people deceive themselves into condoning these things, and say they have good reason. God forbid!
But you are weak in one area. The FAITH that your homelife and marriage can become better. God can indeed work a miracle and help you. You can fall in love with your husband. Go back and remember the good things and times with your husband, even if they only happened once a year, and dwell on these.

Pray -- pray for God to give you understanding love for your husband and wisdom to keep your marriage.
If we are not careful, Satan can tempt us into thinking we have to have praise and appreciation for what we do (only if we are self-centered).
Please read Jeremiah 32:27 - "Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh: is there anything too hard for me?" I have cassette tapes on marriage, if anyone is interested.

President's Farm Credit Plan Could Help County Farmers

President Reagan's farm credit initiatives to reschedule portions of loans for some financially stressed Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) borrowers and to guarantee loans of some other borrowers may help farmers in Tishomingo County, FmHA County Supervisor Billy D. McClure said today.

Annual reviews of FmHA farm loans will soon begin, Mr. McClure said. A major priority of the reviews will be to determine which farmers in Tishomingo County will qualify for a rescheduling of part of their loans for up to five years.

The President's plan permits up to a five-year deferral, with no interest payments for as much as 25 percent of a loan, up to $100,000, for FmHA borrowers who are experiencing severe financial stress and who show promise of success with a temporary economic boost.

Under the new guarantee plan, FmHA will be able to guarantee a loan in severe difficulty if the lender is willing to write off at least 10 percent, up to the amount necessary to give the borrower a positive cash flow. The borrower must meet general eligibility criteria for FmHA farm operating and ownership loans.

Any Self-declared household whose gross income is below maximum level according to agency policy may complete or update an application in the Welfare Office and pick up a voucher for the surplus foods.

Iuka Junior High/Senior High PTA To Meet Oct. 11

The Iuka Junior High/Senior High PTA will meet Thursday, October 11, at 7:00 p.m. in the school cafeteria. The program will consist of committee reports and meeting the school board.

Health Department To Administer Influenza Vaccine

County health department staffs will again help Mississippians combat the annual appearance of a serious, sometimes fatal disease, influenza.

Beginning October 1, county health departments will administer influenza immunizations. Again this year, vaccine recipients will pay $4 per shot to help cover the cost of the vaccine and its administration.

The Tishomingo County Health Department has scheduled flu shots to be given in Iuka Monday, October 8, and Tuesday, October 9, from 8:30 - 4:30; and in Belmont Monday, October 8 from 9:00 - 3:30 and on Friday from 9:00 - 3:30, no appointment necessary. Some citizens may choose to contact their private physicians for protection against influenza.

Although the vaccine is available to all Mississippians, State Health Officer Dr. Alton B. Cobb emphasizes the special need for those at "high risk" to take advantage of this disease prevention opportunity.

"Vaccination has proved to be the most effective method of protecting those people at greatest risk," Dr. Cobb said. "High risk groups include those 65 years of age and older and people of any age who have such chronic illness as heart, lung, or kidney disease, severe chronic anemia, or diabetes."

This year, about 50,000 doses of flu vaccine will again be available through the county health departments. The vaccine provides protection from the current prevalent strains of influenza: A/Philippines/2/82, A/Chile/1/83, B/USSR/100/83.

"Even though we offered a similar protection program last year, Mississippi reported some 1,390 cases of influenza, compared to 561 cases in 1982," Dr. Cobb said. "In 1983, death certificates showed influenza the cause of death for three elderly Mississippians."

Influenza is an acute disease of the respiratory tract characterized by fever, chills, headache, muscle pain, tiredness, mild sore throat, and inflammation of the nasal passages. Cough is often severe and long-lasting. Most patients recover on their own in two to seven days.

The disease spreads by direct people-to-people contact through droplet infection.

Burnsville PTA To Meet

Burnsville PTA will meet Monday night, October 8, at 6:30 in the high school cafeteria.

Plans for the Harvest Festival will be made.

LANDMARK DRAWS LOCAL CONCERN

Enthusiasm is abundant in regard to the recent announcement of the possible relocation of the Episcopal Church in Iuka.

An organized group of townfolk, composed of those concerned with preserving the heritage of Iuka as their ultimate goal, met Friday, September 28.

The topic of the meeting was the proposed removal of the historic church from the town and the purpose for the meeting was to determine what, if any, alternatives there might be to cancel the recently announced decision.

It was voted on and decided at the meeting to form and circulate a petition in Iuka stating the concern of area citizens about the matter and the total opposition to such a move.

It is the belief of the group that the church, one of the original church buildings in the town, should remain in Iuka, and much effort is being projected to this end.

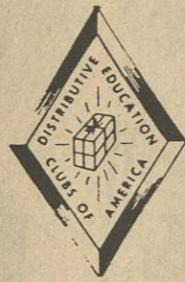

Representatives of the group plan to meet with Mississippi Bishop, Duncan Gray, next week in Jackson, Miss.

Presently several petitions are being circulated and placed with local merchants and businesses. Copies of the petition may be obtained by contacting John Castleberry. Signatures may be placed on the petitions, now located at First American Bank, Iuka Guaranty Bank, Piggly Wiggly (Janet Fulton), or North Crossroads (Lorene Morris).

A spokesman for the group stated that area folk will be kept informed via The News in regard to the outcome of the Jackson meeting.

Chieftains Take Win Number Four

The Iuka Chieftains took the Waterloo Cougars 48-6 for win number four.

After holding Waterloo on the first series of play, the Chieftains took the ball and marched it down the field. Matthew Walker scored from four yards out. Then minutes later, Walker scored again; this time for twenty-two yards away, making the score 14-0.

In the second quarter, Glenn Brown led the way with a forty-six yard scoring run. The Chieftain defense held the Cougars in check while Walker scored his third TD. Seconds before the half, Todd Davis threw to James Butler for a sixty yard touchdown pass taking a 35 to 0

LEAST EXPENSIVE

Studies recently conducted by the Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association show that "drugs generally are the least expensive form of medical therapy." Drugs were found to "substantially reduce health care costs." Results of nine different studies indicate that drugs often reduce or eliminate the need for hospitalization and, in some cases, surgery. Key examples of how drugs reduce costs are:

- The beta blocker timolol could save as much as $3 billion a year and prevent as many as 10,000 premature deaths.
- Use of the ulcer drug cimetidine resulted in 70% less expense than for ulcer patients who did not receive the drug.

In 1960 U.S. national health expenditures were about $29 billion. By 1982, expenditures had risen to more than $322 billion. In 1960, drugs accounted for about 14% of total health expenditures. In 1982, drugs accounted for only about 7% of expenditures — a 50% decrease!

For many, it seems that the cost of medicine gets higher each year. Yet medicine costs relative to other health care costs have decreased steadily since 1960 and are the least expensive form of medical therapy.

The vows were exchanged before a background of burning white tapers in a brass arch candleabra with fifteen branch spirals on each side entwined with fresh hanging ivy, along with double baskets of blue and white carnations, baby's breath and leather leaf fern. A bouquet of the same type flowers was placed on the piano, organ and on the unity candle, which completed the setting for the ceremony.

Escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of white silesta chiffon and silk Venise lace designed with a molded bodice overlaid with pearl beaded silk Venise lace and featuring a Queen Anne neckline in the front and a keyhole back. See-through lace inserts marked the full sheer sleeves, which were caught at the wrist with deep cuffs of lace. The full flowing chiffon skirt and the chapel length train into which it extended were hemmed with scalloped Venise lace. To complete her ensemble the bride wore a walking length veil of English illusion edged in scalloped Venise lace and caught to a bandeau of beaded lace. She carried a bouquet of pink and blue daisies accented with white roses, baby's breath and pink and blue streamers tied in love knots.

Miss Kristi Grisham, of Tuscumbia, Alabama, cousin of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Starla Phillips, Miss Jill Rushing and Miss Lisa Bryant. They were attired in floor-length gowns of light blue taffeta with fitted bodice featuring an off the shoulder mass of ruffles. They carried identical bouquets of pink, blue and white daisies with matching streamers tied in love knots.

Church. The Reverend Stanley Magill officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Paul (Buddy) James, of Iuka; and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Doyle Booker, also of Iuka.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Londee Kent. Mrs. Gail Cutshall sang "Theme From Ice Castles" during the lighting of the candles by Mr. Jimmy James, brother of the bride, and Mr. Gary Burcham. Miss Starla Phillips and Mr. Jeff Lewis sang "Tonight I Celebrate My Love For You" prior to the entrance of the bride and groom. After the vows had been exchanged they sang "We've Only Just Begun" as the couple lighted the unity candle. At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Martha Magill sang "The Wedding Prayer" while the couple

The mother of the bride wore a rose bud pink formal gown of silesta crepe and matching shoes. The mother of the groom chose a mauve gown featuring an empire waist with flowing length skirt and long sleeved jacket. Both mothers wore corsages of pink and white roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given in the fellowship hall of the church. A silver candle holder with pink carnations and blue and pink tapers served as centerpiece for the table. Fruit punch was served from a silver punch bowl, along with nuts and mints.

The groom's chocolate cake, topped with a miniature car, reposed the lace covered groom's table, featuring light blue bows on each corner.

Guests were entertained by Miss Beth Booker, sister of the groom. She wore a lovely white formal gown of white taffeta overlaid with chiffon and lace.

Miss Tracy Osborn, cousin of the bride, presided over the register in the foyer of the church and at the reception. Rice bags were distributed by Allison and Andrea Osborn, cousins of the bride.

UNEMPLOYMENT RISES IN TISHOMINGO COUNTY

Mississippi's unemployment rate rose to 11.1 percent in August, an increase of two-tenths of a percentage point compared to July's jobless rate of 10.9 percent, according to Mississippi Employment Security Commission Executive Director Cohen Robertson. Last year's August unemployment rate was 12.2 percent.

The 11.1 percent unemployment rate for the state was higher than the 7.3 percent national rate for August. Mississippi Employment Security Commission figures showed 120,900 unemployed and 963,700 employed out of a civilian labor force of 1,084,600. The initial unemployment insurance claims totaled 17,475 in August.

Fifty-five of the state's 82 counties had unemployment rates of 10% or higher in August. Of that number, four counties had unemployment rates above 20%.

The counties having the highest unemployment rates in August were Clarke, with an unemployment rate of 27.1 percent; George, with 23.9 percent; Kemper, with 21.8 percent; and Jefferson, with 21.1 percent.

Rankin, Union, DeSoto, and Pontotoc counties had the lowest jobless rates in August. Rankin had a rate of 5.6 percent; Union, 6.5 percent; DeSoto, 6.7 percent; and Pontotoc, 6.9 percent.

Waco and Lyda Parsons have returned home to Iuka following an early autumn vacation to the Great Smokey Mountains. The couple enjoyed staying at the Opryland Hotel while on the road in Nashville, then motoring on to Georgia to attend an Atlanta Braves baseball game. The Parsons are fans of this particular baseball club and were presented tickets to the game as a recent anniversary gift. Pigeon Forge, Gatlinburg and the Cherokee Indian Village were all toured by the two on their journey while in the mountains. Also included during their travels was visiting in the homes of son, Lyn, and Julia; and daughter, Barbara Bishop, both of whom reside in Hartselle, Ala. Bow Season Begins October 6th Mississippi bowhunters will soon be in the woods hunting the state's most popular game animal - the white-tailed deer.

Always the first hunting season on deer, the archery season this year opens on Saturday, October 6, and extends through November 16. Only longbows, recurves, or compound bows are permitted during the archery season.

The bag limit on deer during this period is one antlered buck per day, but no more than five during the entire deer season. During the archery season, the bag limit on antlerless deer is one per day, but no more than three per license year.

This means that if a bowhunter took his five bucks and three antlerless deer all during the archery season, he would have killed his bag limit on deer for the remainder of the year, and would be unable to harvest deer during any of the other gun or primitive weapon seasons.

Hunters should know that any person operating a deer camp during a deer season must obtain a camp permit from the Department of Wildlife Conservation before beginning operation. An application for a permit may be obtained by writing the Department at P.O. Box 451, Jackson, MS 39205, or call 601/961-5300.

New this year is the requirement that all field dressed deer with no visible means of identification by sex must be tagged with the name, address, and license number of the person harvesting the deer, sex of the deer, and the county where it was taken. All this must be legibly written on any material and attached to the deer or its parts.

Nonresident bowhunters must remember that they are not permitted to harvest antlerless deer except on the lands to which they hold title, or on lands where they are valid hunting or fishing rights leaseholders.

Also, deer transported by nonresident bowhunters must be accompanied by an appropriate hunting license and the deer must be identifiable by biological evidence of sex.

Letter To The Editor

It has been brought to my attention by this newspaper that in order to hunt on Tennessee River Pulp & Paper Co. lands this year, I MUST purchase a $10.00 permit. For what? Maybe it is to help pay their taxes. It surely is not to plant food plots to improve hunting and help feed wildlife.

I have only observed Tennessee River Pulp & Paper Company planting solid stands of pine trees. This may be the best trees for profit; but surely isn't the best to furnish food for wildlife.

My wife and I own 297 acres in Tishomingo County, also, but I do not charge anyone to hunt on it. It has always been open to public hunting. What good will it do me for the game to die of old age? I would much have someone harvest keep it from going to waste. In the past, I thought Tennessee River Pulp & Paper Co. as "one of the good boys", and sold a major portion of my timber to them because I could hunt on timberlands. Perhaps now on I should sell to their competition, because they are passing out permits to hunt on the lands.

Oh yes, Tennessee Pulp & Paper Co. will give you maps of adjoining lands showing their land $1.00 each. I saw one of maps and 25 cents worth big price to pay for one will need to purchase magnifying glass to read I hope that management of Tennessee River Pulp & Paper will consider this issue. They could do would be senior citizens (65 and children (under 15) free of charge.

I am only the tip of iceberg in expressing view in this newspaper.

Thank You

We would like to thank our friends and loved ones for the food, flowers, prayers and kind words comfort during the death of our loved one. Our thanks to Dr. Steve Smith, Dr. Don Ratliff, and the Bay Hospital staff. A special thanks to Bro. Jerry Williams and Bro. Gerald Clark. Words cannot express appreciation and kindness.

May God bless each and every one of you.

South Champions To Perform At Fair

The Cotton Patch Cloggers, an exhibition clogging group, under the direction of Danny Bennie McBride, will perform at the Tishomingo County Fair this Saturday night. There will be two performances, one from 7:00 to 8:00 and again from 8:00 to 9:00 in the inside arena. This will be their first performance returning from the Mid-South Clogging Championships held at Libertyland in Memphis. The Cotton Patch Cloggers won four trophies at the 1984 championships. Five youngsters from Red Bay, all members of The Cotton Patch Cloggers, won 1st place in the Junior Precision category (ages 7-12). Two members of this group also won 2nd and 3rd place trophies in the Junior Style Solo category. The Cotton Patch Cloggers brought home the 3rd place trophy in the Adult Precision category. The Cotton Patch Cloggers have spent the past summer traveling performing in the tri-state area of Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee. They have performed at Bluegrass festivals, political speaking engagements, benefit shows, conventions, community festivities, and organizational meetings. The performance they are most proud of is the three shows they did at the Mississippi World Fair in late September. After Saturday night's performance at the fair, the group will next be performing at the Midway Volunteer Fire Department's stew supper, the afternoon of October 13th. They then will travel to Russellville, Ala. to perform at the Franklin County Fair on October 16th. Their final appearance in October will be at Booneville on the 27th, where they will help kick off the Northeast Junior College Homecoming festivities at 12 noon. The directors of the Cotton Patch Cloggers state that the entire group is very excited about their performance at the Tishomingo County Fair. Although most of the group is from Iuka, this will be only the second time for them to appear in Iuka this year. So, be sure and come to the fair Saturday night and watch what should prove to be an exciting performance by the Cotton Patch Cloggers.

Making Prescription Drugs More Affordable

By Congressman Trent Lott, 5th District, Mississippi

On September 24 President Reagan signed major drug legislation which will make cheaper versions of many widely prescribed drugs available to consumers.

The new law is designed to make inexpensive "generic" copies of many brand-name drugs more widely available to consumers. At the same time, it would grant pharmaceutical firms added financial incentives to develop new drugs, a process that requires years of costly research and regulatory review.

The generic drugs are estimated to retail for 50 to 80 percent less than their brand-name counterparts. But in order for patients to benefit from the low-priced versions, their physicians will have to indicate on the prescription that the generic version can be used.

The passage of this law collective minds to it.

The impact of the legislation could be felt before the end of the year if the Federal Drug Administration, as expected, approves pending applications for generic versions of more than 100 drugs whose patents have expired.

The law directs FDA to expand its use of a fast-track procedure for approving generic drugs which heretofore have not been eligible for the expedited approval.

Currently, a substantial majority of the prescriptions filled in the United States are paid by individuals without substantial assistance from the government or insurers.

As a result of this new law, price competition will drive down the price of many prescription drugs and save the consumer significant amounts of money. In addition, the government as a health care provider - both through medicare and medicaid and more directly to government employees and military personnel - will save millions through the increased availability of generic drug substitutes.

It is not surprising that this legislation was endorsed by most senior citizen groups who bear the heaviest burden of high-cost medical care.

All too rarely the Congress has a chance to enact legislation as beneficial as the Drug Price Competition Act. I am pleased to see this measure become law.

In Service

Army Private Roy E. Savage, son of Luther E. and Effie J. Savage, of Golden, has participated in the U.S. Central Command exercise Gallant Eagle '84, in the deserts of California and

Kroger Co. Is Good Customer Of Mississippi

The Kroger Co. is one of Mississippi's good customers in addition to being a leading merchant in Mississippi. The retail food company issued its annual report of expenditures by state, and it shows that Kroger spent $69 million in Mississippi for goods and services last year.

Largest portion of the total, $32,974,874, was spent for Mississippi products to be sold in the 27 Kroger supermarkets in Mississippi as well as in other states. Included are $896 thousand for dairy products and eggs, $12 million for canned foods and other grocery items, $241 thousand for fruits and vegetables, $14 million for meats and poultry, and $4 million for non-food items.

An additional $36 million went for such items as the $24 million in wages paid to the 2,442 Kroger employees in the state, advertising, rent (most Kroger stores are owned by local landlords), and other goods and services purchased in the community.

DIETER'S DILEMMA

About 20 percent, or 40 million, Americans are on weight-loss diets. Commendable? Yes - obesity is a major health risk. But if the dieters are eating less than 1200 calories a day, they have a hard time getting all the vitamins and minerals they need.

A study of 10 popular weight-reduction programs found that none met the U.S. Recommended Dietary Allowances for all nutrients. Those most likely to be in short supply were vitamins B1, B6, and B12, calcium, iron, zinc, and magnesium.

One remedy is to combine exercise with dieting. Instead of reducing calories by 600 a day, eat 350 less calories and expend 250 with a brisk three-mile walk. Every six days you will accumulate a 3600 calorie deficit, for a one-pound loss. This kind of slow, steady program preserves lean muscle tissue, improves heart function and circulation, and actually reduces appetite because it reduces boredom and frustration.

For most dieters a multivitamin and mineral preparation is a good idea. Probably all persons eating less than 1600 calories a day - which includes many women and elderly people - should take a supplement.
