EPPELSON IS CANDIDATE FOR B'VILLE MAYOR'S POST

LUCIEN EPPELSON

Lucien Epperson today announces his candidacy for the office of mayor of Burnsville.

"For the period of time that I have lived in Burnsville, I have been active in a number of community activities and I have helped leadership positions in these activities," Epperson said. "I am also an overseas veteran, having served most of my time in the armed forces in Germany."

"As all persons in the area are aware, the Town of Burnsville is in dire need of a change for the betterment of our governing body and our community," he said.

"I am more than willing to work with the board of aldermen, other elected officials and concerned citizens of Burnsville to make our town a well respected place in which to live. I strongly feel that if I am elected to serve as mayor of the Town of Burnsville for the next four years, I will be a mayor that you will be proud of and I will definitely make a change for the betterment of the Town of Burnsville," he said.

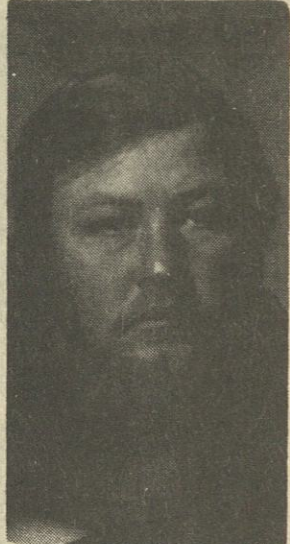

A native of Burnsville, Epperson has lived at Route 2 for the past 18 years.

"I am a member and deacon of the Burnsville Tabernacle," he said. "I am also a Mason and Shriner. The above mentioned affiliations with these respected organizations should certainly vouch for the soundness of my moral principle and character."

Epperson is married to the former Elsie Spoon, and they have one daughter, Teresa Epperson Till.

"Your vote and support in electing me to serve as your next mayor will certainly be appreciated by both my family and myself," he concluded.

BOBBY H. JOHNSON SEEKS OFFICE OF B'VILLE MAYOR

I am Bobby H. Johnson, candidate for Mayor of the City of Burnsville. I am married to the former Debbie Lopez, and we have three children, Lori, Brian and Heath, all students at Burnsville School. I am a lifelong resident of the Burnsville area.

I am seeking this office because I feel I can be an asset in the future growth and development of the city and the surrounding area. This is an office that needs strong leadership, and someone with the ability to get things done. I will work with the aldermen to do my best for the people of Burnsville.

I feel that with my past experience working with people in all phases, such as civic groups, Lions Clubs, etc. that I have worked with and been a part of, and my work experience qualifies me as the person to get things done. I've been in the construction business as a self-employed businessman for approximately 12 years. I have taken care of all steps of business from working labor to managing a crew of workers.

In my business I have worked with various government officials who are the ones you need to see to get control of the government grants the city is in such desperate need of a continued upward swing to growth and development.

I have taken care of the financing and bidding of various work projects in this area and along the Waterway. I feel this will be of great help in the office of Mayor, as I already have a good connection with the government openings, Corps of Engineers, wholesale suppliers, and other agencies needed to help get things accomplished.

I would like to see each of you personally between now and election day to discuss the water situation, employment in this area and other problems we are facing, and see if we can come up with solutions in order for my children and yours to have a better and nicer place to continue their growth.

There is no need for me to make you a bunch of promises, because all of you know me and know I'm the type person who will do all it takes to get the job done. If I miss any of you, please take this as my plea for your continued vote and support in the upcoming election. Vote for growth and progress - VOTE BOBBY H. JOHNSON, MAYOR.

RESORT PROPOSED AT BAY SPRINGS

The Tishomingo County Board of Supervisors signed a letter of intent with an Illinois developer Friday to construct a 250-room resort complex at Bay Springs. The resort, which is proposed by HALTECH, Hospitality and Leisure Technology of Cary, Ill., would include convention and banquet rooms, two 18-hole championship golf courses, a 500-boat marina, tennis courts, shops, restaurants and a night club. Additional facilities would include recreational vehicle park and necessary roads, water and sewer systems, and walking and bike trails.

The $25 million facility would be located on a 1,080-acre tract of land one mile north of the Natchez Trace Parkway, owned by the U.S.

Army Corps of Engineers. The land, on a peninsula extending into the Tenn-Tom's Bay Springs Reservoir, could be leased to the county for 50 years without charge, according to Corps officials. The county would then in turn sublease the land to HALTECH.

The materialization of the multi-million dollar project depends on the attainment of Federal grants to be matched by HALTECH. County officials agreed to seek Federal funding from several agencies, which would include the Appalachian Regional Commission, Corps of Engineers, Community Development Block Grant, UDAG and the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Bill Flynn, executive director of the Tishomingo County

Developmental Foundation, stated that this would be the largest recreational complex planned for the 234-mile Tenn-Tom. The Tenn-Tom has been promoted as a tourist attraction long before its official opening to commercial traffic in January of 1985. Flynn also stated that his organization has been recruiting a developer for the site for the past eleven months.

Gerald Parsons, President of the Tishomingo County Board of Supervisors, who signed the letter of intent Friday, said, "To get the full potential of the Tombigbee, we have to have the recreation - it works hand in hand with industry and will be good for the people of Tishomingo County, as well as other counties."

Officials have estimated that approximately 300 construction jobs and 700 permanent and part-time jobs (within the resort) would result from the project. An estimated $10 million would be pumped into Tishomingo County's declining economy annually, according to officials.

If a publicly funded feasibility study (to insure that the area is suitable) can be completed, construction could begin as soon as November of 1985, according to spokesmen.

"I think the county will be proud that this is going to be out there - clean recreational sites and jobs for the people. It will mean a lot to us," expressed Parsons.

Bill Flynn acknowledged that the proposed park will be the "keystone of recreational developments along the waterway. We were looking for a first class developer and we found that the HALTECH Corp. was involved with the construction and operation of a number of high quality resort/recreation facilities in northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin vacation areas, so they were a logical choice," said Flynn.

The structure of the proposed complex will accentuate the natural beauty of the heavily wooded, sloping peninsula that projects out into the Bay Springs Reservoir. An estimated 750,000 people would use the facility annually, according to Corps officials.

MAYOR BIGGS ACKNOWLEDGES SUPPORT AGAINST NUCLEAR DUMP

Petitions opposing the proposed DOE's (Department of Energy) nuclear dump at Yellow Creek have been pouring in steadily due to the combined efforts of Iuka Mayor, John H. Biggs, county officials, and many interested people.

"There are literally hundreds of petitions coming back to the city and county officials that are filled with signatures from concerned area residents," said Mayor Biggs. "People are coming by city hall and picking them (petitions) up as fast as we can print them." The petitions have been placed in businesses and offices throughout the county and are being circulated around by residents who are "stirred up" by the proposal.

"I urge everyone who has not yet signed one of these petitions to take time to do so. These petitions will be sent to various state and federal officials to make them aware of the strong opposition they are facing here. We will simply not sit still and allow our area to be tainted by their radioactive wastes and I personally will do everything in my power to prevent this from happening," declared Biggs.

In addition to the petitions, city and county officials have written letters to Congressman Whitten, T.V.A. officials, Governor Allain and President Reagan.

"I would also like to urge everyone to write letters to their Congressmen and, in addition, there are blank petitions available at City Hall in Iuka for those who would like to sign them or for those who would like to pick up some for circulation," explained the Mayor.

"I'd like to thank the people of Iuka and the surrounding area for coming forward, signing, and returning the petitions. Our people are definitely bannings together in a joint effort to defeat this threat," Mayor Biggs concluded.

Boat Motors Stolen From Marina

Details surrounding the Tuesday morning break-in and larceny of boat motors from the Greenwater Marina, which borders the Tennessee State Line on MS 25 North remained sketchy at press-time. The fact that no finger prints were left will make it even harder for local law officials to attain an arrest; however, Sheriff Bob Payne said he will continue to try to solve the alleged crime.

The report revealed that the theft of the three boat motors took place between the Monday closing hour and the 7:30 a.m. Tuesday discovery of the misdeed.

Subsequent investigation at the scene, conducted by Sheriff Payne, indicated the attempt made by person(s) to pry open the described double steel door were apparently futile and thus the glass panel was broken allowing entry to the business.

"It was equipped with a very sensitive burglar alarm system," the Sheriff made reference to the marina. There was no ready explanation as to why it wasn't set off during the occurrence.

"The alarm reacted at the slightest touch to the door or glass when we arrived," he said. "How anyone could have gotten past it is still unanswered," the official said.

During investigation, Sheriff Payne and Joe Wilhite, Jr. (apparently the owner or manager of the marina), could not understand why the programmed device failed to alarm and indicated that Wilhite's inquiry to the installer of the system found him to be totally perplexed concerning the matter.

"The serial numbers of the reported stolen boat motors have been recorded," Payne said. "We plan to do all we can to solve the matter," he concluded.

UNEMPLOYMENT RATE DROPS IN MISSISSIPPI

Mississippi's unemployment rate dropped to 10.7 percent in March, a decrease of eight-tenths of a percentage point compared to February's revised jobless rate of 11.5 percent, according to Mississippi Employment Security Commission Executive Director Cohen Robertson. The unemployment rate in March of 1984 was 11.3 percent.

The 10.7 percent unemployment rate for the state was higher than the 7.5 percent national rate for March, Mississippi Employment Security Commission figures showed 116,000 unemployed and 968,200 employed out of a civilian labor force of 1,084,200. The initial unemployment insurance claims totaled 19,032 in March.

Fifty-five of the state's 82 counties had unemployment rates above 10.0 percent in March. Of that number, three counties had unemployment rates in excess of 20.0 percent.

The counties having the highest unemployment rates in March were Kemper, with an unemployment rate of 20.6 percent; Sharkey with 20.3 percent and Jefferson with 20.2 percent.

Rankin, DeSoto, and Smith counties had the lowest jobless rates in March. Rankin had a rate of 5.2 percent; DeSoto, 6.1 percent, and Smith with 6.4 percent.

Seventeen counties showed an increase in their unemployment rates from February to March, while sixty-three counties reported decreases. The unemployment rates in two counties were unchanged.

VEGETABLE MARKET

The season is drawing near for producers to be preparing for the Fresh Vegetable Markets in Iuka and Belmont.

As a result the annual Vegetable Producers Meeting has been scheduled for Monday, April 29, 7:00 p.m., at Tishomingo County Fairgrounds.

A potluck supper will be served. We will have as our guest Dr. Mary Acock who is the new commercial vegetable specialist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

Be sure and take advantage of the good food, fellowship, and vegetable production information.

The Midway RCDC will hold their meeting in conjunction with this meeting.

CHOOSING SOYBEAN VARIETIES

Tishomingo County farmers should consider several factors before choosing a soybean variety that is best suited to their needs.

Many varieties are well adapted to Mississippi growing conditions. Although no single variety should be considered superior to all others, in some situations there are varieties that are better suited than others.

A study of the general characteristics along with disease, nematode, and herbicide reactions should help farmers select varieties that will maximize production.

Remember that adequate lime and fertilizer combined with good management are essential to produce yields of any variety.

Evaluate land and study yield performance at research stations with similar soil.

Don't totally abandon known varieties that are yielding well. Instead, switch to new ones shown by research to have advantages.

More information on herbicide, disease and nematode reactions, as well as yield comparisons, is available at our office.

USDA Reports On Agricultural Land Owned By Foreign Investors

Foreign investors reported owning 14 million acres of U.S. agricultural land as of October 8, 1984, compared to 13.7 million acres in 1983, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

CARING FOR YOUR PET

On Removing Ticks

Everyone has a different home remedy for getting ticks to release their bite and remove them. BEWARE! Most of these methods can be harmful to your pet. NEVER use burning matches or heated materials for this purpose. Nor should you use caustic substances, such as kerosene or lighter fluid. These can irritate a pet's skin and eventually lead to infection.

The simplest and best bet for tick removal is to spray it with an insecticide. This will cause the tick to die and fall off of dog. Should the head break off, try to get it out with tweezers. Even if left behind, it seldom causes any problem. Should an abscess form, however, you can try hot compresses or, preferably, take the animal to your veterinarian for treatment.

While this solves the problem of the adult tick, it does nothing to eliminate the thousands of offspring which they undoubtedly left behind. Your veterinarian can advise you on the best method of getting rid of these and preventing future infestations.

The 14 million acres represent slightly more than 1 percent of the nation's agricultural land. Foreign persons from Canada, the United Kingdom, Hong Kong, West Germany, and the Netherlands Antilles own 73 percent of the foreign-held acreage.

Foreign investors reported no change in tenancy or rental arrangements on 41 percent of the acres, some change on 31 percent of the acres and no response for the remaining 28 percent.

Of the foreign-owned acreage reported, 57 percent was in forest land, 14 percent in cropland, 24 percent in pasture and other agriculture, and 5 percent in nonagricultural and unreported uses. Corporations own 83 percent of the foreign-held acreage; partnerships, 9 percent; and individuals, 7 percent. The remaining 1 percent is held by estates, trusts, associations, institutions and others.

USDA officials say some land is held only in part by foreign investors. These partial interests reduce the 14 million acres of foreign holdings of U.S. agricultural land to an equivalent of 12.6 million acres.

Here in Mississippi, foreign-owned agricultural land totaled 347,783 acres for 1984.

Among the States, Main reported the largest number of acres - 15.5 percent - owned by foreign persons. This represents about one-fifth of all the reported foreign-owned land nationwide. Except for Main, foreign holdings were concentrated in the South with 36 percent, and the West with 27 percent. Rhode Island is the only State with no reported foreign-owned agricultural land, according to the USDA report.

CHANGING GLASSES

If you have regular eye checkups and have your glasses changed when needed, the transition to new glasses is usually comfortable enough. But if you've put off having your eyes checked and there've been some major changes in your vision, you may find the change to new glasses uncomfortable at first.

The reason for this is that usually a person's vision changes gradually, so gradually that you may not be aware of it until you begin to find your present glasses unsatisfactory. If you've waited three or four years to have an eye checkup, for example, the difference between your new lens prescription and the old may be considerable. Even though you can now see clearly again and without strain, the change is jarring and uncomfortable until you get used to it.

One solution to the problem is to get a partial correction in your lenses to make the adjustment easier and more comfortable. The best solution is to have regular eye checkups and get your glasses changed as often as needed. When you hesitate when your vision is at stake?

ELECTRICITY
Get the most for your money

Wendell Jourdan takes a look at old structures and combines it with his artistic inspiration and talent to create earthy renditions of the scenes that he observes. "My drawings are not complex -- they are not meant to be -- but are as basic and natural as the original," explained Wendell. Wendell has done drawings of buildings in many areas including drawings of the Iuka Depot and the old Episcopal Church building in Iuka.

Love Of Heritage Shows In Work Of Local Artist

In a world of fast paced change and where change is visible, there are few who take time out from their hectic schedules to remember all of the venerable things of a time long since past. Wendell A. Jourdan, a Tishomingo County resident, takes that time and expresses his feelings for it through his artwork. Wendell has taken his remarkable talent as an artist and makes pencil drawings of barns and other structures that he feels will soon be dismantled. "The things that I draw are usually things that seem to be disappearing, such as old barns, for example. These were places that were built by farmers and their neighbors to house their livestock and other things that helped nurture their livelihood, but they are disappearing and I feel like they should be remembered. As I remember them, I think of their smell and touch and all of the memories of the "corn cob fights" that took place inside their weathered walls. In every drawing I do, there is my own "short story" of the way I perceive the structure. If I hear that an old building is going to be torn down or I drive by an old barn that catches my eye or hear that one is to be disassembled, I take a photograph of it, usually, and then draw a picture of it when I have the time and feel inspired to do so," Wendell explained.

Wendell attributes his inspiration to this deep feeling of loss that he experiences each time one of these timeworn relics of the past is destroyed. "People turn loose too easily these days," said Wendell, "I try and hold on to at least a part of these dying legacies for the young as well as the old who have lost sight of their significance and retentive value. My drawings are not complex -- they are not meant to be -- but are as basic and natural as the originals." Two of Wendell's drawings in Iuka are of the Iuka Depot and the old Episcopal Church.

Wendell is the son of Almond and Edith Jourdan, of South Crossroads. He, along with his brother, Randel, and his two sisters, Rachel Jourdan Hester and Celeste Jourdan McCoy, grew up in and around Iuka. Wendell graduated from Iuka High School in 1969. He attended Northeast Junior College in Booneville and later attended the University of North Alabama in Florence, Ala., where he majored in Psychology.

Wendell now lives in Corinth where he works as a Registered Nurse in the emergency room at Magnolia Hospital.

"I refuse to consider nursing as my full-time job," Jourdan, who works eight hours a day at it, said. "I have too many other things that I enjoy doing to consider my nursing job as 'full-time'."

Some of Wendell's other interests, besides his drawing, include his love for music. "Years ago I was in a rock band here in Iuka," said Wendell. "Together with Mike Curtis, Ricky White and Kerry Milligan, I played drums for our band called 'Spots'." "I guess I was remembered as the worst drummer to ever come out of Tishomingo County," laughed Jourdan. Wendell now plays guitar as does his wife, Janice Manker. "She plays classical and I play more of a country and western type of music, so we can never agree on the right way to play a song," said Wendell, who also writes songs.

Drawing has been a part of Wendell's life for as long as he can remember. He only had one art class, which he took while at U.N.A. "I could never seem to find anything that I enjoyed drawing until I began drawing old barns and this led to old buildings and other structures. The two things that I do not draw are people and ducks!" commented Wendell.

Wendell only began this type of drawing a few years ago and did it only for the aesthetic value and because he simply enjoyed doing it. He sold his first drawing this past Christmas. "It was a rewarding feeling to sell one of my drawings," said Wendell. "I had given many away to family and friends (as I still do) but this feeling wasn't the same."

Wendell's drawings are done primarily in pencil and are in various sizes. He explained that some are done in a short amount of time while he must struggle with others and sometimes never feels satisfied with the end result. Some of Wendell's work can be seen at the Iuka Flower Shop, which is owned and operated by his sister, Rachel Hester.

As the times progress and each new age creates and destroys structures, Wendell A. Jourdan adds his "whisper" to our history with his reminiscent drawings of the passing unnoticed landmarks that might otherwise be forgotten.

Miss Nixon Honored

Miss Denise Elaine Nixon, a sophomore of Chattanooga Central High School, was recently selected as one of 30 participants in this year's Leadership Conference sponsored annually by the Hamilton County Schools Department. Selection was based on essays written by the students, honors received, leadership positions held and clubs and organizations in which the student holds a membership and grades, achievement, test scores and gifted status.

She will spend a week at Sewanee, Tenn. in July. Denise also was recently inducted into Mu Alpha Theta, honorary high school and junior college math society. The induction ceremony was witnessed by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owens Nixon, of Chattanooga. She was elected this year as student council secretary. Other honors for Denise this year have been outstanding band student at Central, outstanding French student, all-county band member for five years, Star Honor Roll (all A's for her freshman and sophomore years), French Club, highest average in her sophomore class of 275, Society of Distinguished High School Students, and Academic All-American student. Denise is looking forward to travel to Europe for 15 days this summer through the American Council for International Studies along with 10 other members of her French Club and advisor. Cities to be visited are London, England; Paris, France; Lucerne, Switzerland; and Rome, Italy. Denise spent Easter vacation with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Robinson, of Tishomingo; and Mrs. Lila Nixon, of Paden.

Burnsville Homemakers Club Met

The Burnsville Homemakers Club met Wednesday, April 10, at 1:30 in the Burnsville Library for the regular monthly meeting. The president, Mrs. Ilene Graham, read the thought for the month: If you have knowledge, let others light their candles at it.

Dorothy Strickland gave an inspiring devotional. She read from I Timothy, Chapter 6, 8th verse. "Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud and that your brethren." She discussed that. Eleanor Richardson worded the closing prayer.

Linda Pittman gave the focus topic on "Evaluate Clothes For Quality." She said, "Learn to judge quality in the clothes you buy to get the most for your month." She mentioned 19 questions to look for before buying.

The demonstration on mental health was given by Linda Pittman. She based her talk on what Gene Tennison of the Mental Health Center told at the Iuka Library recently. The talk was on DEPRESSION. The causes are (1) Sadness the symptoms, weight loss, sleep or loss of it; (2) Loss of interest in sex; (3) Social Withdrawal; (4) Loss of self-esteem; (5) Feeling that I'm no good to anyone; (6) Feeling of hopelessness; (7) Feeling of suicide. She mentioned causes of depression -- Loss of status and chemical imbalance in our bodies.

Minutes were read by Thelma Gray. They were approved. She also gave the treasurer's report.

The hostess, Ann Strickland, provided the recreation. Dorothy Strickland won the prize in the contest. The door prize was won by Eleanor Richardson.

The hostess served delicious refreshments to the following members: Ruby Adams, Wilma Gilliland, Ilene Graham, Thelma Gray, Eleanor Richardson, Dorothy Strickland and Linda Pittman.

The May meeting will be in the home of Thelma Gray.

Senior Citizens Honored

Senior citizens were honored at the Iuka Public Library during National Library Week.

Wednesday, April 17, the residents at Pickwick Manor Nursing Home toured the library and enjoyed the many paintings on display. After the delightful music presentation from Harold Ellis and Steve Melton (standing in background), refreshments were served by the Friendship Homemakers Club.

Handcrafted Instruments Demonstrated

Wednesday, April 17, over 300 adults and students enjoyed music provided by Howard Ellis, left, and Steve Melton, right, at the Burnsville Public Library during National Library Week. Steve entertained the group as he demonstrated the handcrafted dulcimers and banjos he has made, telling of how he crafted them and then making music using them. The stringed instruments were carved from different types of wood and the craftsmen used walnut shells and ivory buttons for decorations. Howard accompanied Steve by playing the guitar during the show.

St. Jude Open Bass Classic

There is only one month left before the entry deadline for area anglers to participate in the $37,000.00 St. Jude Open Bass Classic at Sardis Lake May 26. Yet, the 13th benefit for the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is filling the 400 entry spaces

Iuka's First Librarian

Among the residents of Pickwick Manor Nursing Home, who visited the Iuka Public Library during National Library Week, was Mrs. Victoria Gravette, 93, who was Iuka's first librarian. In 1934, Mrs. Gravette began a survey of all of the schools in the Tishomingo County area to determine if there was a need for a library. There was indeed a need, and she began immediately to gather together all of the materials she could for the library. Mrs.

Gravette recalls vividly the room adjacent to the Iuka Guaranty Bank where she spent many long hours making books by cutting articles from magazines and gluing stiff brown paper to the front and back of the combined articles to make covers. Miss Carolyn Crawford was an artist and did the artwork for these covers. Many citizens throughout the county donated books and then the Tennessee Valley Authority, at Pickwick, donated 100 NEW books to the library.

th finders, graphs, etc.

The entry fee this year, which amounts to a tax-free contribution to the hospital is $75.00. Entries must be mailed with check or money order to: St. Jude Open Bass Classic, Box 12404, Memphis, Tennessee 38182 no later than May 11, or hand delivered to the partner pairing at the Fairview Restaurant at 975 East Parkway South on May 16th at 6:30 p.m.

Most pearls are silvery or bluish white but some are pink, yellow, copper-colored, smoky brown, gray or black. Light blue, purple and black pearls can be found in clams.

Girl's State '85

Girl's State is a practical application of Americanism and good citizenship. The entire program is a non-partisan, non-political attempt to teach and inculcate in the youth of America a love of God and country and a 100% Americanism.

The purpose of Girl's State is to provide citizenship training for girls of high school age in every unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, to afford them an opportunity to live together as self-governing citizens, to inform them about duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities of American citizenship, so they may understand and participate in the functioning of their government and to help them grasp the meaning of many of the responsibilities which they must assume when they become adults.

Eligibility is positively limited to girls in junior or third year of high school. It is this educational level which best fits this program, because each girl is expected to furnish leadership in her school and community.

The director of Girl's State says to keep in mind at all times the all "A" or "B" student does not always make the best girl stater. However, the student must not be falling in love with subjects. Outlets and interest in leadership actually more than make up for the year at the junior level out of Junior High School. Campus. The date is through June 15th. There will be 12:00 noon on Friday with permission to stay overnight on Saturday morning. They can be a Friday. Mrs. Lois Claitor, Chairman - 423-1112.

DECA UPDATES

Robyn Gann and her husband, Iuka High School Junior, and Lady Iuka DECA Advisor, will lead 30th for San Francisco. They will attend the 39th Annual DECA Career Conference of Distributive Education of America. Amanda, an Mississippi student, is expected to participate in the conference which is expected to help develop leadership for marketing distribution. Good Robyn and Amanda.

TCDF NEWS

The Tishomingo County
Development Foundation Board of Directors at the monthly meeting on April 9th, 1985, approved the role of the Foundation as a "central organization within the county" to lead in the response in opposing the Department of Energy proposal to place a nuclear waste processing plant in Tishomingo County at the Yellow Creek Nuclear Plant Site. Executive Director
Bill Flynn said that petitions have begun to circulate throughout the county as local residents and citizens recorded their opposition to the proposal by DOE. Towns within the county, church groups, local individual citizens as well as the TCDF staff, have begun the process of accumulating hundreds of signatures which will be sent to state legislators, the Governor and Federal

Congressmen, along with a resolution of the Tishomingo County Board of Supervisors, stating that there is total and adamant opposition to such a facility being considered for Tishomingo County. The roads and highways leading to the site are inadequate; the site itself is at the entrance to the Tenn-Tom Waterway and on Pickwick Lake where an accident could ruin forever major recreation and industrial investments by the private citizens as well as the public sector; there are no experienced personnel in the area; the existence of operating facilities at Oak Ridge, TN and Paducah, KY, as well as Aiken, SC/Savannah, GA closer to the source of the nuclear waste, any of which could process the materials; and finally, value of land rich in timber, agricultural products, and environmental attractions compared to thousands of acres of land in the Rocky Mountain states from which are now desolated by the mining of the uranium, which could be put to use as a site to process these materials.

"It is our goal to send the resolution of the Board of Supervisors along with the petitions with thousands of signatures, to our state legislators, Governor and Federal Congressmen in the next few weeks," Gerald Parsons, Tishomingo County Board of Supervisors President, stated. "We are working in coordination with the Alcorn and Prentiss County Boards of Supervisors, as well as Corinth, MS, since these neighbors would be effected by the nuclear waste materials coming into the area," Parsons concluded.

Iuka Lions

The April 16 meeting of the Iuka Lions Club was well attended, and two new members were initiated. Lions Leonard Watkins and David Moody repeated their vows to installer, Don Cowell, and were warmly welcomed.

This was an especially important meeting, as it was the traditional night for the nominating committee to announce their choice of officers for 1985-86. Actual installation will be later. A list of those receiving no opposition as nominees were as follows: 1st Vice-President, Bill Flynn; 2nd Vice-President, Elmer Hunt; 3rd
Vice-President, David Moody;
Secretary, Flint Steele;
Treasurer, Jim Freeman; Tail
Twister, L. Watkins; Lion Tamer, Charles Dean; Board of Directors, B. Childs and A.W. Mangum.

We also had visitors from the Burnsville Club, who were very welcome.

Rep. Mack L. Watkins gave a highly interesting soliloquy on the works and aspirations of his office. As always, Mack was very explicit on his stand on the in-lieu taxes that have been pirated from Tishomingo County.

"The safest way to double your money is to fold it over once and put it in your pocket."

Mercer - Reeves Vows Spoken In December

December 8, 1984, Bon-L. Mercer and Mrs. Christine Brister Reeves were united in marriage in the home of their children, Mr. and Mrs. W.O. Stanley, in Gautier, Mississippi.

The Rev. Richard White, pastor of the Cambridge Baptist Church, Gautier, performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Reeves was attended by her two daughters, Mrs. Clara Poteat, of Panama City, Florida, and Mrs. Cathy Stanley, of Gautier. She was given in marriage by her sons, Floyd S. Reeves, Jr. and Edwin C. Reeves, both of Amory.

The Stanley home was beautifully decorated with the Christmas theme - red poinsettias, Christmas greens and a lighted tree. The bride's table bore a red and white cake, red punch and other delicacies. The groom's cake was the gift of Mr. Stanley's mother, Mrs. W.D. Goforth, of Aberdeen.

Mrs. Reeves is a retired teacher and has taught in Amory for 21 years, in Arkansas, Maryland and has been principal of Carib Christian School in Aquidilla, Puerto Rico. For the past three years she has substituted in the Pascagoula School System. She is now substituting in Tishomingo Schools.

Mrs. Reeves was founder of the Kappa Kappa Iota Teacher Sorority in Mississippi and Charter State President. She was chosen Mississippi Federated Woman's Club District III Teacher of the Year. She served for five years on the Board of Directors of the Classroom Teacher Department of the Mississippi Education Association.

Mr. Mercer's only attendant was his only son, James L. Mercer, of Hernando. Mr. Mercer is the retired Tishomingo County Superintendent of Education, Principal of Tishomingo High School and coach in several Northeast Mississippi Schools. He has for 18 years been President of Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation and is now serving as director on the State Farm Bureau Board and also of the Cattlemen's Association. He is Superintendent and teacher of Spring Hill United Methodist Church in Midway.

The couple had a wedding trip to Hawaii in January and a Washington, D.C. trip in February. They are at home both in Midway and in Amory.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. James L. Mercer, Hernando; Mr. and Mrs. F.S. Reeves, Jr. and children, Scott, Susan and Steven; Mrs. W.W. Reeves and children, Patti and Will; Mr. Edwin C. Reeves and children, Pam and Rose; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Poteat and daughters, Paige and Casey; and Mrs. Tommy Howell and daughters, Sue and Judith, and her son.

Mrs. Arra Belle Jourdan, program leader, presented her guest speaker, Mrs. Edna Earl Tapp. Mrs. Tapp, Tishomingo County Health Nurse, gave a very informative talk on "Wellness" and "Healthy Youth, Our Best Resource." She stressed the importance of "The health of our economy depends upon the health of our children."

After the very interesting program, the hostess served a delicious sandwich and dessert plate to members: Mrs. Nancy Daugherty, Mrs. Mildred Hill, Mrs. Arra Belle Jourdan, Mrs. Jewel Kitchens, Mrs. Zenobia Oaks, Mrs. Fredda Sanderson, Mrs. Edna Tapp, and Mrs. Maxine Wade.

RAINBOW II

The regular meeting of Rainbow II 4-H Club took place at their headquarters on April 11, 1985. Sherry Rorie, president, greeted the members and made announcements. Ciji Timbes led the Pledge to the U.S. Flag. Julie Wright led the Pledge to the 4-H flag, and Cindy Timbs led the 4-H prayer. The minutes were read and approved.

Ciji Timbes gave a report on "Panda Bears".

New business concerned bird houses. The Rainbow Clubs I and II have bird houses for sale at $5.00 each.

Mindy Belue reported on her family of bluebirds. Several others have families.

After refreshments, the club went to the home of Mrs. Blanche Counce and gave her a birthday cake and other gifts. She was 89 years old. She gave everyone a big hug. They sang two songs for her.

During refreshment time the birthday song was sung of her grandmother, Mrs. Alice Scruggs, after visiting her mother, who lives in Natchez.

Miss Katherine Woodall, who is employed in Birmingham, spent last weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Woodall, of Chattanooga.

Mrs. W.S. Adams, of Cherokee, was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barnett.

20th Century Club Met In Thorne Home, April 11

The 20th Century Club met Thursday, April 11, in the home of Mrs. Willadean Thorne.

Mrs. Thorne, vice-president, called the meeting to order and led the members in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mrs. Nancy Daugherty read the minutes of the last meeting and called the roll.

A discussion was held on the State Convention to be held April 25, 26 and 27, at Tupelo. The club was responsible for painting 60 wooden to Mr. Richardson, who had a birthday on Saturday.

When it was refreshment time, everyone went to Rainbow Park and picked up all trash from the grounds to make way for Rainbow I's to mow. Steven Bobo, Anthony Bray, Phillip and Dennis Bonds did mow the park on Saturday. They cleaned the restrooms.

Many children and their families have had egg hunts and birthday parties at the park. It is good to have a place to play. Everyone is welcome. To get the keys to the restrooms, see Richardson, Donnel Timbes or Charles Bray. Be sure to put all papers in the barrels.

The Midway RCDC Club will meet at the Tishomingo County Fairgrounds Building on Monday night, April 29, beginning at 7:00 p.m.

"Think On These Things"

By: Perry Taylor, Minister, Iuka Church of Christ

Don't we all love the Springtime of the year? The birds begin to sing and the flowers bloom. The bushes and trees seem to come to life again. What a marvelous world in which to live. We have so much evidence around us for the existence of a Creator God. It's no wonder that Paul wrote, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made." (Rom. 1:20). Not only in the Spring but in every season of the year, our faith can surely be strengthened by a look at the beautiful natural world. I believe you'll appreciate the following article:

IT'S THAT GLORIOUS TIME OF THE YEAR!

Solomon makes a beautiful reference to the spring time of the year in Song of Solomon, Chapter 2, when he wrote, "For lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth, the time of singing has come and the voice of the turtle dove is heard in our land."

In most lands of our earth it is a welcome relief when winter is past and the winter rains are over. Our seasons show the creative genius of God. What a wonderful variety our seasons have. This variety gives interest and spice to our everyday living. Each season has its own qualities and we always welcome the change. Ah spring! Spring has some unique qualities. As Solomon said, "The flowers appear on the earth." The wonderful, delicate nature of flowers - some blazoning with all kinds of colors, some with interesting shapes and textures. Flowers are universally loved and welcomed and only spring has the power to bring them with profusion and variety.

Solomon said, "The time of the singing has come." If ever there is a time when our whole earth says "sing!" it is now. It is the time to run and play. It is the time to eat out of doors. It is the time to open the windows and door and to let light and life into our houses and lives. It is indeed, that glorious time of the year.

He concluded, "The voice of the turtle dove is heard in our land." Flowers, birds, and all living things join in rejoicing over the face that winter is gone and spring is here. Darkness and death are dispelled by life and light. And as Christians we remember that this is the time of the year that our precious Lord Jesus broke the bars of death and sprang forth to life. The pagan world always at this time of the year had rites celebrating the rebirth of all things. Animals bore their young, trees leafed out, only in Jesus Christ was all that man had hoped for realized. He has given true meaning and substance to what spring has taught since the creation. He said, "I am the resurrection and the life." Yes, "It's that glorious time of the year!"

and recording artist, Paul Ott. Mr. Ott has appeared on several national TV shows as well as hosted his own regional show for the Mississippi Game and Fish Commission. He records for Monument Records, writing much of his own music material. His soft voice and guitar have become the spokesman for such public service groups as the National Wildlife Federation and the March of Dimes. Mr. Ott is an excellent speaker very much in demand.

The banquet is open to the public, and anyone who would like to share the evening with the youngsters being honored and hear Mr. Ott may purchase a ticket for $5.00 at the high school office. This will be a ticket only admission.

Three-Wheeler Returned to Owner

District Constable, Boyd Whitaker, Sunday located a $1,900 three-wheeler, which was reported stolen from the home of Mike Thomas, of Iuka, April 10th. Whitaker said he had been notified of the possible whereabouts of the vehicle, and, in fact, apprehended a suspect believed to be involved in the theft. Whitaker said the suspect had the bike in his possession when he took him in for questioning. The lawman said the suspect was released under the instruction of a justice court judge when he produced two bills of sale connected in the incident. According to Whitaker, no charges had been made at press-time; however, Mike Thomas, owner of the 1984 Honda 200X machine, maintains that he did not sell the bike. Whitaker further stated that Thomas' name was not on either of the bills of sale. The three-wheeler has been returned to Thomas. Investigation continues.

Eligibility Eased for Community Facilities Funding

More low-income communities will be eligible for reduced interest rates on loans and for grants to finance community facilities under changes being made by the Farmers Home Administration, Dan Mattox, FmHA State Director for Mississippi, said today.

"Some communities were inadvertently denied this eligibility when we changed our formula for allocating funds last September," Mattox said. Farmers Home can now make loans at intermediate interest rates and provide development grants for water and waste disposal systems to rural communities where the median household income is more than 85 percent of a state's non-metropolitan median household income, but still below the poverty line.

Interest rates are set at three levels. A 5-percent rate is available when the loan is required to meet health or sanitary standards and the median household income is below the poverty line established by the Office of Management and Budget.

Loans that do not qualify for a 5-percent interest rate may be made at an intermediate rate halfway between 5 percent and the market rate. The market rate applies to other loans and is established quarterly by FmHA based on current yields of comparable outstanding municipal obligations. "We were in a situation where some low income communities -- those below the poverty line -- were ineligible for intermediate interest rates, and if they did not need to remove a health or safety danger, could not get a 5-percent interest rate. If they could qualify for a loan it had to be made at the market interest rates," Mattox said.

Community facilities loans are made to finance water and waste disposal systems, fire stations, medical facilities, libraries, town halls, and other needed facilities. The loans are made to public entities, such as counties, municipalities, special purpose districts, Indian tribes and nonprofit associations.

Coffee For Area Business People & Professionals

The Iuka Public Library was the scene of a recent coffee

In honor of the many business and professional people in Iuka. The event was held in order to recognize these people and to let them know how much they are appreciated. The event, sponsored by the Iuka Pilot Club, was held on Monday, April 15, to kick off National Library Week. Attending this year's

Fisherman Lands Prize Bass

Kenneth "Rick" Nunley, of Iuka, had the proof to back up the fish tale he's been boasting of around town following last week's fishing trip. While he and his dad were "cat-fishing" along the edge of the banks below the Alabama State Line Wednesday morning, Rick got lucky and hooked a 23 lb. 4 oz. striped bass. Nunley said they were using rods and reels baited with minnows when the catch was made. Other than the bass, the fishermen brought in around 40 pounds of catfish. Commenting on the event, the excited angler said, "The fish were biting so good, we had to hide behind a tree to bait our hooks!"

Bluebirds Need Your Help!

The bluebird has been one of the best-loved North American birds since colonial times, because of its beautiful coloring, gentle disposition and tender beauty of its voice. No other bird is featured in more songs, poems and cards. No wonder the bluebird is an often-used symbol of love, hope and happiness.

Bluebirds were once one of our most common birds. But today few people, except in the most rural areas, have ever seen a bluebird. It is sad that this wonderful bird has all but disappeared from urban communities and has been drastically reduced in most rural areas. One cannot talk about the declining bluebird population without thinking about the fate of the passenger pigeon. In 1881, reported flocks of passenger pigeons in Colbert County, Alabama, numbered in the millions. In 1914, none were left on the face of the earth!

The causes of the decline in bluebirds now seems to be fairly well understood. By far the most important factors contributing to the decline is the competition for nesting sites between the bluebirds and the imported house sparrow and starling. Man, too, has sped the decline of the bluebird, which favors garden, orchard, and pasture habitats. Dead trees with cavities to provide nesting sites are cut for fuel wood, wood fence posts have given way to metal posts. The bluebirds also suffer from other detriments common to our feathered friends, such as declining winter food supplies, adverse weather conditions, and use of insecticides.

What a tragedy it would be to lose such a beneficial bird!

Man has put a lot of strain on the small thread that holds the bluebird in the complex ecological web of life. The experts have pretty much provided the answer to secure the bluebird in his little niche in our environment. The answer is in -- nesting boxes. It seems the early nest boxes were placed to entice these gentle birds closer to home and garden, since they are especially fond of cutworms that are troublesome to gardens in the spring.

From such a humble beginning comes the focal point of bluebird conservation - the bluebird trail. A bluebird trail consists of a number of bluebird nesting boxes, usually spaced a hundred yards or more apart in suitable locations.

The bluebird provides a unique example for amateurs to physically help a species increase its population and reverse its steady decline in numbers. Bluebird boxes and trails have proved successful in increasing population were established. If you are a landowner with suitable habitat, try some bluebird nesting boxes and the bluebird will become a valued part of your property.

Detailed instructions for making simple bluebird nesting boxes, for mounting, and selecting good locations for them, can be obtained from the Soil Conservation Service, Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service or Brenda Glasgow, Mississippi Forestry Commission, in Tishomingo County.

Reduction In Interstate Long Distance

AT&T customers in Mississippi and across the country are expected to enjoy a reduction in interstate long distance rates beginning June 1.

AT&T Communications spokesman Dan Daugherty said the company filed a request today with the Federal Communications Commission to cut interstate rates for AT&T Long Distance Service, WATS and 800 Service by 5.6 percent and to reduce rates to 87 international points by up to 6.6 percent.

The June 1 reduction coincides with the start of the FCC-prescribed $1-a-month local subscriber line charge that residential local telephone companies to help cover the cost of local customer connections. At the same time, the telephone companies will reduce the connection charges paid by long distance companies.

"We'll be passing along to our customers the savings we get from paying lower access charges," Daugherty said. "We're proposing to return to customers approximately $1.1 billion that AT&T will save when the local subscriber line charge goes into effect."

The reduction will apply to all interstate AT&T Long Distance Service and will apply to the Reach Out America pricing plan. Reductions ranging from .7 percent to 6.6 percent will be applied to 87 foreign points including the United Kingdom, Mexico, and many locations in the European, African and Pacific Ocean calling regions.

"Today's proposal would allow us to take another step toward ending the long-time practice of keeping long distance rates artificially high to subsidize local rates," Daugherty said.

AT&T reduced its rates 6.1 percent on May 25, 1984 when the subscriber line charge went into effect for business customers.

"As these subsidies to local service continue to be reduced in the future, AT&T looks forward to passing the savings on to its customers in the form of lower long distance rates," Daugherty said.

SPLITTING YOUR RISK

Cut your risk for cancer in half with proper diet and daily supplements, says Dr. Heinrich Wrba, head of the Cancer Research Institute at the University of Vienna, Austria. Dr. Wrba, Dr. Raymond Shamberger (of Cleveland Clinic, a top research facility), and Dr. R. Lee Clark (of the famed M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute in Houston) recommend four supplements every day:

- 5,000 to 10,000 units of vitamin A
- 1 gram (1,000 milligrams) of vitamin C
- 100 units of vitamin E
- 100 micrograms of selenium

These nutrients appear to reduce cancer-causing agents in foods and/or enhance the ability of the body's immune system to fight disease.

Just as important, say cancer researchers, is to reduce fat consumption by half and eat more fiber. This reduces chances of developing cancers of the colon, breast, uterus, ovary, prostate, and pancreas. And, of course, if you smoke, stop. If you don't, don't start.

The staff of the WVOM-WTIB Radio Station made an extra special effort to show the children of the Iuka Baptist

Local Pilot Club Members Attend District Convention

The Pilot Club of Iuka, under the direction of President-Elect, Diane Ables, was among the 48 clubs represented at the Louisiana-Mississippi District Convention of Pilot International April 12, 13, and 14 at the Ramada Inn North in Jackson, MS.

"Enthusiasm - Key To Success" was the theme of the three-day event, which attracted 350 members and delegates from the LA/MS District. A highlight of the convention was the naming of the LA/MS District Handicapped Professional Woman of the Year, Shawn Barrett, of the Jackson, MS. Pilot Club. This program is co-sponsored by Pilot International, the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, and Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Ms. Ann Adams, of Hartwell, GA, Executive Committee Representative of Pilot International, addressed the convention body Saturday morning. The Saturday night banquet featured entertainment and the installation of Johnnie Kelso, of Mantachie, MS as the 1985-86 LA/MS District Governor.

Also on the agenda were Division Workshops that covered each Division of Pilot activities. Rilla Wiley, of the Iuka Club, presented a part in the Outreach Division Workshop, which covered the Public Relations area. She was assisted by Diane Ables, who is president-elect of the Iuka Club.

The Club of the Year Award was presented to the Grenada, MS Pilot Club. Officers of the LA/MS District for the year 1985-86 are: Johnnie Kelso, of Mantachie, Governor; Hazel Garlington, of Monroe, LA, First Lt. Governor; Addie Taylor, of Brandon, MS, Second Lt. Governor; Mary Lightfoot, of Mansfield, LA, Treasurer; and Karen McFerrin, of Mantachie, Secretary. New officers of the Pilot Club of Iuka will be installed at the May meeting of the club. They are: Diane Ables, President; Sheila Cooley, First Vice-President; Grace Long; Second Vice-President; Olivia Jones, Treasurer; Lana Harrelson, Recording Secretary; Fay McKissack, Corresponding Secretary; Directors: Barbara Blakney, Margaret Gray and Margie Chaffin.

The Club noted with thanks the success of the recent barbecue carry-out dinner. Plans are now underway to participate in the satellite program for the dedication of the Tenn-Tom Waterway on May 27, at Yellow Creek Port, where the club will man a food booth for the celebration.

Pharr Wins Bass Event

Dwight Pharr outfished 30 Tri-State Bass Master club members to finish first with four fish weighing 6 lbs. 3 ozs. in the club's April tournament. James Davis and Jerome Mims tied for second place with 4 lbs. 10 ozs. each. Tom Jenkins landed theunker with 2 lbs. 12 oz. large mouth. David James, Dwight's partner, finished just 7 ozs. out of the money trophy bracket. According to Dwight, they caught fish on worms and crank baits in 20 foot depth water near rock walls, but suspended about five feet deep.

The point race is now becoming interesting, and Doug Wiley, the current point leader, will be challenged again when the Iuka Club holds their May tournament on Pickwick Lake on May 18th. As a side event, the club voted to have an open Buddy Tournament on May 4, at Coleman Park. Contact Ray Underwood at 423-5364 or James Davis at 423-6092 for details.

Each year the Tri-State Bass Masters presents to a senior high school student, who excels in academics, has high moral character, and a love for the outdoors, the Jimmy Curtis Memorial Scholarship. The I.H.S. faculty nominated three candidates, and for the first time the club has a club member as a candidate. The award will be made May 3 at the Awards Day Program.

Phone Bills A Little Thinner

South Central Bell customers in Mississippi will find their bills a little thinner starting in April, according to District Manager Tom Bailey.

"We're making some minor changes that should make it easier for our customers to understand their bills, and at the same time, we'll be saving money," said Bailey.

The payment card that customers have returned with their payment in the past won't be there any more, he said. Instead, the customers will return the top page of the bill.

"By letting the customer return the top page of the bill rather than the card, South Central Bell will save on postage, because the contents of the envelope will be lighter. And, of course, we won't have to pay for the cards either," he said.

He said the company expects to save a total of $600,000 a year -- $350,000 of it in postage alone -- by eliminating the card. The change will not require any additional pages in the bill.

The redesigned front page of the bill will fit into a window envelope which customers will use to return their payment.

Parent's Day

In the everyday affairs of school and home, it seems to be all from visiting with the ones as often as we like. To make a small toward solving this the Tishomingo Elementary School recently through six invited their grandparents to school to have lunch with them. Fifty-nine proud grandparents took advantage of the opportunity to see the school, to visit in the classrooms, and to share lunchtime with their grandchildren. Grandparents always delight in showing off the accomplishments of their little ones, and this time the "showing off" went both ways. It was hard to determine who was more excited, the children or the grownups! Many grandparents have been active in previous years with school functions and support organizations; the school, the parents, and the children would welcome their continuing help and encouragement.

MAGNOLIA HOSPITAL in Corinth proudly announces the addition of three paramedics to its staff. Randy McDuffy (left), Dorothy Holder and Jerry Ervin recently passed the National Registry examination. Paramedic Dan Leeth (rear) served as the principal instructor for the two-year training program which produced the three new paramedics. Paramedic is the highest level of certification for emergency service personnel.

THREE PASS PARAMEDIC COURSE IN CORINTH

More lives saved is the expected benefit of intensive training and certification of three Magnolia Hospital employees.

Nurse Dorothy Holder and Emergency Medical Technicians Randy McDuffy and Jerry Ervin recently gained certification as Paramedics. The three join Dan Leeth, another Magnolia Hospital staff member, as the only four such qualified emergency responders in North Mississippi. Paramedic is the highest certification attainable for emergency service personnel.

McDuffy, Ervin and Holder successfully completed written and applied examinations in emergency techniques. The National Registry examination was staged recently in Jackson, MS. The examination was the final phase of a two-year training program conducted at the local 148-bed medical center. Leeth, who gained certification in 1982 following a similar program, served as the principal instructor for the recent course.

"The success Jerry Ervin, Dorothy Holder and Randy McDuffy experienced in completing the program further enhances the capabilities of Magnolia Hospital to meet the pre-hospital emergency needs of this area," said Dr. Ernest Apple, the emergency room physician, who, along with Dr. J.T. Davis spearheaded the hospital's drive to found the program. "Many months of hard work and study were required. We extend our congratulations to these people upon achieving this mark of excellence in emergency response techniques."

"The training we have received can be the difference between life and death for some emergency patients," said Holder. "I feel having more paramedics available will be an asset to the community."

"The big difference is in time," added McDuffy. "With the training we have received, we are now able to begin treating emergency patients under the direction of a physician at the scene of an emergency. This reduces by at least one-half the amount of time between the ambulance call and the start of treatment in the emergency room."

"The training we've received allows us to carry the emergency room to the emergency," said Ervin. "That can be particularly critical in cases of heart attack, drowning and trauma."

The paramedic course consisted of over 1000 hours of classroom and clinical instruction. The materials covered in the program included intensive training in cardiovascular incidents, emergency drug use, anatomy and physiology, medical emergencies such as diabetic coma and emergency obstetrics.

"Having Dan (Leeth) teach the course was a big help," said McDuffy. "He had passed the certification and knew what we were going through. His being able to share his experience with us was invaluable."

Paramedics are capable of performing specified medical techniques under the direction of a physician. Magnolia Hospital paramedics are linked with emergency physicians through a special radio system. The VHF system is the only one of its type in the state.

"The efforts of these individuals toward attaining the highest level of emergency training is most commendable," said Winston C. Whitfield, Magnolia Hospital Administrator. "It is only through providing both highly trained, dedicated personnel such as these and the latest medical technology can we achieve our goals of serving the citizens of Alcorn and surrounding counties."

Attention, R.N.'s!

K.K.I. Met April 16th

The April meeting of Kappa Kappa Iota was held Tuesday, April 16, at the Dennis Restaurant. President Effie Aldridge called the meeting to order, and Eleanor Richardson gave the devotion based on the Biblical story of the wise and foolish virgins.

Proposed changes in the sorority constitution were discussed. These will be voted on in Columbus when the State Convention is held on April 29th. Final approval will be made in Omaha, Nebraska, in June during the National Convention. Plans for attending both meetings were discussed by the local group.

The program consisted of short talks on two subjects: Commandments of Daily Living, given by the president; and Enrichment of Life Through Travel, given by Mary Williams.

The members were served tea and coffee and invited to the salad bar by hostesses Mildred Hill and Eleanor Richardson. Also present were Lois Bostick, Leighella Bostick, Verna Crow, Christine Mercer, Havis Short and guest, Willard Nixon.

SMOKEY BEAR VISITS CHILDCARE — Children and students at the Northeast Junior College Child Care and Development Center were visited recently by none other

Duncan, of Baldwin, a student teacher in the child care program; Cattle Kline, luke; Smokey and Thornton. Cattle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kline, of luke.

PEEP Plans Book

may have seen or heard these boys and girls in the past weeks in the courthouse, at the bank, on the radio, at the hospital, even at the Vidette. They are involved in a big project in their third grade PEEP class. They are collecting information to include in their book entitled "Our Town". Their efforts have uncovered many exciting things about their own town. When the book is completed, it will be located in the luke Elementary Library, as well as the luke Public Library. Back

Fredda Sanderson, Librarian

National Library Week at the luke Public Library was a great success. Over 500 people visited the library during the week. I would like to thank the community for making this such a great week and for showing their continuing support of the library.

We had several people who visited during the week. These books were donated by Nellie Horton, County Chairman for NLW. Mrs. Scatena, Mrs. Edith Howell, Mrs. Lois McKee, Shirley Hubbard, and Ruth Hunt were winners of the books that were given away daily. Dr. Jerry Stone was the winner of the book given away at the professional and businessperson's Coffee. Michelle Robinson was the winner of the book given away at the Senior Social. Ms. A. Stone was the winner of the book given away at the Teacher's Tea.

There were several other winners during the week. Mrs. Lillian Page won the painting given away by Mrs. Lila Hamm. Darlene Embrey and Lela Clark were winners of the jelly-bean contest, and Mary E. Johnson was winner of the circulation contest. A special appreciation goes to the local clubs for donating the different events to the library. The luke Pilot Club, the Harmony Homemakers, the Surname Club, the Friendship Homemakers, and the 20th Century Club are deeply appreciated, for without their help and support we would not have had such a successful week.

A presentation was recently presented to the library. Carl J. Claunch, of Walnut Creek, Calif., states, "It gives me great pleasure to present Synchronological, Political, Historical Chart to the luke Public Library on behalf of the luke Surname Society, in honor of my father, Carl D. Claunch, and my mother, Lillian H. Claunch, residents of luke." The chart will be displayed in the library in the near future.

4-H News

TISHOMINGO COUNTY 4-H'ERS ACKNOWLEDGE 4-H VOLUNTEER WEEK, APRIL 22-28

Youth all over the county are busy thinking of ways to thank their volunteer leaders. Some of the things that have been planned for Volunteer Week are: a Volunteer Leaders' Appreciation Tea, radio spots of 4-H'ers acknowledging Volunteer Week, and an essay contest titled "Why I Have the Best Volunteer Leader in Tishomingo County". The winner of the essay contest will be published in the paper next week.

VOLUNTEERS VITAL TO 4-H PROGRAM

The 4-H volunteer staff is an important part of the total county 4-H program. Volunteers are those adults who give their time, energy, and talents to serving youth through 4-H without monetary compensation. Although they are not paid in dollars, 4-H adult volunteer leaders receive many benefits through their work. The immediate benefit is the feeling of being appreciated for doing something important.

These volunteers also receive recognition and acceptability among their peers. They are recognized publicly for their service rendered. Privately they are recognized by the individual 4-H member who learns a skill or accomplishes a goal through the help of his leader.

Through 4-H, volunteer leaders have the opportunity to travel in the county, in the state, and out of the state. They meet others with similar and different roles and backgrounds.

Besides teaching 4-H members new skills, adult volunteer leaders also learn skills which help them in other areas of their lives.

Volunteers can be involved in one or every phase of the 4-H program. The roles may be recruiting, organizing, advising, teaching, judging, and evaluating. Volunteers may also serve in organizational, project, activity, or advisory roles.

National Volunteer Week is April 22-28, and Tishomingo County salutes the following 4-H adult volunteer leaders who are serving as club advisors: Margaret Hendrix and Teresa Stanford, Action 4-H

DRUG ALLERGIES

The chances of having an allergic reaction to a drug are less than 3 in a 100 for most drugs, and no chance at all for some of the drugs. In order for the reaction correctly to be called allergic, a compound called a haptan must be formed. For example, when penicillin interacts with certain body proteins, a haptan is formed. There are several different types of allergies involving drugs. Some of the more common include:

1. FIXED ERUPTIONS - Some oral drugs such as the barbiturates and tetracyclines cause an eruption at fixed or specific sites on the body.

2. CONTACT DERMATITIS - Some topical drugs sensitize the skin so that redness, blisters, and itching occur. The preservatives in some of these medicines actually cause the allergic response.

3. HIVES - Drugs which produce hives include penicillin, hydantoin-type seizure medicines, phenylbutazone, and some tranquilizers.

4. ANAPHYLAXIS - This is the most severe and potentially life-threatening type of drug allergy. In severe cases, the victim may experience asphyxiation. This reaction is rare.
