Grand Jury Report Given

Following the September active session of the Tishomingo Grand Jury, sufficient evidence was found to warrant criminal charges with 17 true bill (indictments) being returned. The indictments will be reported when they are released by county officials.

Comes now the Grand Jury of Tishomingo County, Mississippi, being duly impaneled on the 9th day of September, 1987, for the September Term, 1987, of the Circuit Court of Tishomingo County, Mississippi, and submits this Report.

We were in Active Session for 4 days, on the dates of September 9, 10, 16, and 17, 1987. We examined 28 witnesses and are returning herewith into Open Court 17 True Bills.

We also examined the Tishomingo County Courthouse and the County Jail and submit herewith our findings and recommendations.

We found the Courthouse and its grounds to be generally in good condition, clean and well-maintained. We recommend, however, that the Circuit Court Clerk's Office needs more storage space, and the walls of the office need painting. Further, we recommend that a room be set aside for the storing of the elections boxes. We find that the Chancery Clerk's Office and the Food Stamp Office need painting, and we find that no Directory has been installed at the entrance of the Courthouse as recommended by this Grand Jury in April. We also find that a private conference room needs to be provided to the Tishomingo County Development Foundation and are of the opinion that the lack of a private meeting place deters industrial prospects from coming to this County. Further, we find that no fire extinguishers have been placed in the kitchen of the Co-Operative Extension Service as we suggested in April.

We found the Sheriff's Office and County Jail to be generally clean, well-maintained and sufficient for the safekeeping of prisoners. We would like to point out that this facility is in much improved condition since our last inspection.

Now having submitted this Report, we ask to be discharged subject to recall at a later date as circumstances may require upon further Order of this Court.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 22nd day of September, 1987.

Judicial Review Requested In Vote

The Tishomingo County Democratic Executive Committee is named defendant in a petition filed Monday, September 21st, by 1st District Supervisor, Lyonel "Cotton" Wade. Wade is requesting a judicial review of the Committee's findings of the Democratic primary election.

The petition of protest claims the Committee erred on their recount and certification of votes cast in the second primary. The ballots in question involve Wade and candidate, Frank Williams, Jr. Both men are seeking the position of 1st District Supervisor.

A report based on voting machine tabulations circulated election night showed Wade led the ticket over Williams by one vote. However, following a hand recount of ballots conducted by committee members on Wednesday following election, the Tishomingo County Democratic Executive Committee declared Williams had won the Democratic nomination by an eight vote margin. The Committee met again Saturday, September 19, and reaffirmed their August 26th decision.

Further action in the matter will continue as the Circuit Clerk must notify the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Mississippi. The Chief Justice will then designate a Circuit Judge or Chancellor to hear and determine the contest.

Rape Suspect Picked In Line-up

Sammy Ross, 32, of Booneville has been picked from a lineup by several women, including one Dennis resident, following his arrest in Union County last week on charges of attempted rape, according to Sheriff Bob Payne.

Joel Harris of Fulton, formerly of Belmont, was originally suspected and in some cases identified by the women who were victims of rape or attempted rape,

Payne said. However, Harris has maintained his innocence during the almost two year period spanning from the first reported incident.

"He (Harris) looks a lot like him (Ross)," Payne said. The sheriff said he accompanied the Dennis victim to the lineup.

Ross remains jailed in Union County, Payne said, and will be brought to Tishomingo County to face charges here. Ross faces similar charges in Tippah, Lee and Prentiss counties as well, the sheriff stated.

Fisherman's Body Recovered From Lake

The body of Lonnie Briggs, 33, of Ecu, Ms., was recovered in Bay Springs Lake last Thursday, September 17. Briggs had been missing since August 29, when family members reported he had gone on a fishing trip. Intensive searching has been conducted by rescue units from several area counties and the Air National Guard without success following Briggs' disappearance 19 days ago.

Reports state that a fisherman notified authorities after spotting the body floating on the southeast side of Piney Grove Island. The island is located about two miles north of the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway dam and about one mile north of where Briggs' empty boat was found.

Tishomingo County Medical Examiner Investigator, Dale White and Prentiss County M.E.I., James Horn attended the autopsy which was performed by acting state medical examiner, Dr. Hayne at the Mississippi Crime Lab. White reported the findings indicated no foul play was involved. Briggs death was termed accidental due to fresh water drowning.

GETTING STARTED WITH SAVINGS

The first step in getting started on savings is to think through your needs that require large amounts of money.

To be able to put money into savings and leave it there may mean trimming a little from your spending. How can you cut down on your spending enough to save?

One way is to stop carrying your credit cards. If you can't pay cash, postpone buying. Perhaps you will find you can get along without the article you wanted to buy or find a cheaper substitute.

Besides trimming your spending, make a deliberate effort to put money aside and save it. The most successful strategy for saving is "pay yourself first." If money never appears in your paycheck, it's easier not to spend.

You can usually arrange with your employer for a regular deduction from your paycheck to be automatically forwarded to your savings account at your bank, savings and loan or credit union. Another possibility is to have your employer or the bank buy U. S. Series EE savings bonds with money from your paycheck.

Putting money automatically into savings accounts and EE bonds makes it harder for you to spend it. And the money will be earning interest for you.

Interest rates paid on savings accounts vary from one thrift institution to another. In general, banks, credit unions and savings and loans pay less interest on their passbook savings accounts than the interest paid on the Series EE bonds. Some thrift institution

CARING FOR YOUR PET

WHEN A BONE BREAKS

Probably you are already aware that the majority of fractures or broken bones in dogs and cats are caused by accidents or falls from high places.

However, you may not be as certain about what to do -- or not to do -- if your pet is struck by an automobile or falls and breaks a bone.

The more you understand about your pet's bone damage and its repair process, the better the opportunity for you to give your pet the care needed after the accident, throughout the treatment, and during the recovery.

You might be surprised to learn that bone is really living tissue. Even though it may look hard and dead, it does grow and bend in response to muscles pulling on it. A living bone may become even stronger where it works the hardest. A broken bone occurs when it cannot absorb the force or impact of a car, or a high fall.

The signs of a broken bone are frequently obvious because a limb will be useless, unable to support your pet's weight. Other signs to watch for are the sudden onset of acute pain in a local area of the leg with swelling or deformity or even a grating when the limb is handled.

If you suspect a broken bone, keep the animal quiet and very still. Call your veterinarian at once.

Never attempt to set a fracture yourself. Do not touch a bone that protrudes from a deep wound. Prevent motion of the injured leg and its joints. Be as careful as possible as you move the animal to a veterinary clinic.

Remember that your pet is probably in pain and confused by it. The animal may attempt to bite anyone who attempts to handle the broken limb -- or even provide comfort. For this reason, a cloth should be wrapped around the animal's mouth to hold it shut and tied behind the ears.

A fractured bone in your pet is a matter of concern. But much can be done to provide excellent healing with minimum pain and inconvenience for your animal friend. Today, most fractures heal well when the advice of your veterinarian is followed and responsible nursing care is provided at home.

credit interest earned to your account daily so it compounds daily. This gives you an effective interest rate slightly higher than if the interest is credited and compounded monthly or quarterly.	FROZEN CABBAGE SLAW 1 medium heads cabbage, shredded 1 finely chopped bell pepper 1/2 c. finely chopped celery
Both Series EE bonds and "Thrift" passbook savings accounts are insured, and you can draw your money out with no penalties or loss of interest.	2 tsp. salt Mix all ingredients and set aside. 3 c. sugar 2 c. vinegar 1 c. water 1 tsp. celery seed 1 tsp. mustard seed
This can be a disadvantage if you want to avoid spending that money, but it's an important advantage in an emergency.	In a saucepan, mix sugar, vinegar and water. Bring to a boil and boil for 3 minutes. Add celery seed and mustard seed.

Squeeze water out of cabbage mixture. (The salt will have caused water to collect.) Pour the hot syrup over cabbage and let set a few hours or overnight. Put in containers and freeze. Will keep in refrigerator 2 weeks without freezing.

ASCS Says Control Weeds on ACR

One of the requirements to qualify for the 1987 farm program benefits, David Wilson, County Executive Director of the Tishomingo County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, said program participants must follow their contract regarding maintenance of land designated as acreage conservation reserve (ACR), or idled cropland.

"Once adequate protection is established on this acreage to prevent soil and water erosion, farmers are required to use normal control measures for weeds, insects and rodents," said Wilson. If these measures are insufficient, additional control measures are mandatory, Wilson indicated.

"Keeping the land free from weeds is a very important program requirement," said Wilson, "and farmers who fail to do so will be out of compliance and could lose program benefits. It would be unfortunate at this point for a producer to be found out of compliance because of failing to control weeds on acreage conservation reserve land." Provisions for maintenance and conservation management are part of the acreage reduction program contract.

About 1500 acres of cropland in Tishomingo County have been diverted from crop production to ACR through the 1987 farm programs. ASCS is checking farms to see that the acreage is properly maintained.

The ASCS official pointed out that most farmers want to do what is best for their land and many of them have made conservation practices an integral part of their farming operations.

The human body is built around a frame containing 206 bones. The whole works is linked together with 60,000 miles of blood vessels.

County Fair

The big event of the year for many Tishomingo Countians is coming up soon. We are referring to the Tishomingo County Fair which is scheduled for September 28 thru October 3rd.

There will be the usual Carnival Shows and Rides at the Fair, but equally important will be the livestock shows, the field crops exhibits and the displays which will be in the exhibitors building.

Fair catalogs are available at the County Extension office. If you are interested in being an exhibitor at this year's fair, stop by the Extension office in the courthouse and pick up a fair catalog. It contains all the information you need as to what can be exhibited, when to bring your articles to the fairgrounds, etc.

Of course, there will be entertainment each night. For a complete schedule of activities see the advertisement in this week's newspaper.

Crop Reports

County agents have access to a countless amount of information, both good and bad. Let me share some positive news I've just received on what our state farmers expect to harvest this year.

State soybean production is forecast at 56 million bushels. Our farmers will harvest their bean crop on 2.45 million acres (out of 2.5 million acres planted) and will average about 23 bushels an acre.

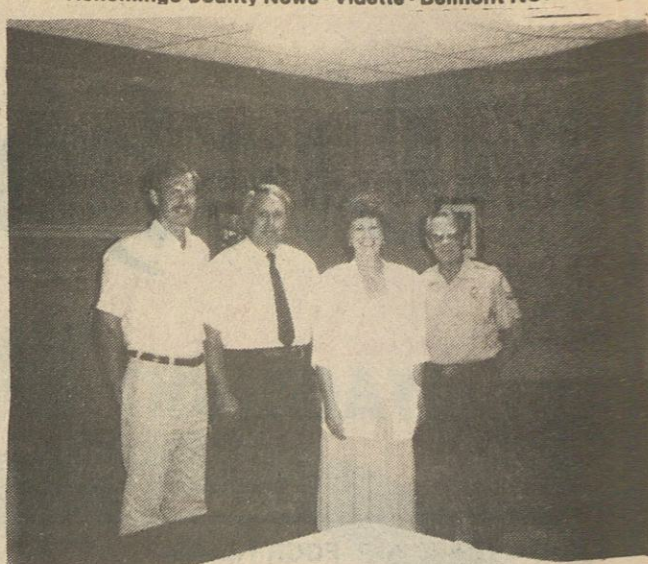

Cotton production is forecast at 1.7 million bales, with net weight of each bale at 480 pounds. Cotton producers will average a lint yield of 749 pounds per acre on about 1.09 million acres.

State sorghum farmers will produce about 9.4 million bushels of grain sorghum. Harvest acreage is about 145,000 acres and average yield per acre is expected to be 65 bushels.

Pecan production in the state is expected to be from 8 million to 8.5 million pounds. Mississippi has about 20,000 acres in commercial pecan orchards.

Hopefully we'll get some cooperation from Mother Nature as we harvest these important crops.

Letter To The Editor

Many thanks to Dr. Ben Kitchens and the many people, too numerous to mention, who worked so hard to make the re-enactment of the Battle of Iuka a successful event.

This event was publicized well; with special recognition on Tupelo T.V., and an editorial commendation of Iuka, for such an undertaking, on Huntsville T. V.; even an inquiry from New York City.

The nostalgia of the Old South was evident in all phases; especially when the uniformed men, with their ladies in long dresses and hoop skirts, lined up for the Virginia Reel at the Fairgrounds Building Saturday night.

As the last shot was fired, there was a feeling of regret that the week-end was over. This was good for Iuka and it should be repeated in future years. After all, this is a part of our history.

The occasion was a surprise, so the group entered Mrs. Leonard's home singing the birthday song. Gifts, flowers and cards were presented to her. The refreshment table was set up buffet style with a beautifully decorated cake made by Mrs. Emmaline Dilworth in the center of the table. A wonderful fun filled afternoon was spent by all.

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Stringer - Mills

In a very romantic candlelight ceremony, Miss Tammy Renee Stringer became the bride of John Sheldon Mills. The wedding was held at Little Brown Freewill Baptist Church on Friday evening, the fifth of June. The double ring ceremony was performed by Bro. Russell Clouse.

Tammy is the daughter of Sandra Stringer and Wister Stringer of Booneville. John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mills of New Site. Grandparents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stringer and Mrs. Louise Taylor and the late Rufus Taylor, all of Booneville. The bride's great-grandmother is Mary Bell Mayo of Booneville. The groom's late grandparents were Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mills, Sr. all of Warren, Ohio.

Miss Stringer was exquisitely beautiful as she entered the church on the arm of her father, who have her in marriage. She was dressed in a formal white gown from "Pricilla's Bridal Boutique" of Tupelo. The satin gown was overlaid with lace, formed in rose buds and encrusted with beads and seedpearls. The sweetheart neckline was enhanced by short satin puffed sleeves with lace roses that graduated into long lace points at the wrist. The full satin skirt swept into a chapel train edged in lace and ruffles. The bride's headpiece was designed especially for her dress by "Satin and Lace" shop in Booneville. The crown cap was made of lace and held a full bridal veil of net illusion falling to the satin skirt. The bride carried a lovely bouquet of blue and white roses with lace and net inserts and long blue and white satin streamers tied in love-knots.

The bridesmaids all wore long pale blue satin crepe dresses with puffed sleeves and sweetheart necklines outlined with ruffles. They wore blue lace ribbons in their hair and pearl earrings and necklaces. They each carried long stem blue and white roses tied with satin ribbon. The maid of honor was Margaret McCoy of Burnsville. The Junior bridesmaid was Raelle Inskeep of New Site, niece of the groom, she carried a white wicker basket filled with rose pedals and tied with a blue satin ribbon. She wore baby's breath in her french-braided hair with a blue lace ribbon.

Mr. Mills wore a solid white tux with white accessories for his wedding. His attendants wore white tux with pale blue accessories. The best man was Kevin Wells of Booneville, and the groomsmen was Mike Davis of New Albany. Ushers were Chris Mills and Matt Mills, both brothers of the groom, from New Site.

The wedding music was provided for the guest, as they were seated, by Mrs. Janie Gale Clouse, organist. Katrina Akers, pianist, played the music for the wedding ceremony and the wedding march. Janenne Pharr and Gichelle Clark sang, "What A Difference You Have Made In My Life" as the ceremony started, and "My Only Love" as the bridal couple lit the Unity candle.

The wedding was directed by Mr. Joyce Stringer, aunt of the bride. The bride's mother, Sandra Stringer, was lovely in a french-blue crepe dress with a lace collar, long sleeves, and gathered at the hip with a sash and bow. Her corsage was of white roses.

The groom's mother, Virginia Mills, was lovely in a striped knit dress with a matching jacket. Her corsage was also of white roses.

Mrs. Louise Taylor, grandmother of the bride wore a royal-blue dress of crepe. Her corsage was blue roses. Mrs. Lois Stringer, grandmother of the bride wore a pale pink dress of crepe and wore a corsage of blue roses. Mrs. Mary Mayo, great-grandmother of the bride, wore a blue print dress with matching jacket.

Brenda Kendrick of the Eastgate Florist decorated the church with candelabrum, candles, fern, and greenery. The Unity candle was pale blue, flanked by two white candles. The family pews were marked by white lace bows, lace wedding bells and white flowers.

Reception

A wedding reception was held in the church hall after the wedding. The guest were served wedding cake, punch, nuts, and mints. The three-tiered wedding cake was prepared and decorated by Bobbie Saylor. The cake was lovely with blue and white flowers and topped by a wedding bell holding two love doves and two wedding rings. The cake was served by Terry Taylor, cousin of the bride, from Memphis; and by Becky McKinney of Booneville. The punch was served by Ann Taylor and Alice Horn, both Rice Bag girls were Abigail Clouse and Amy Tolon.

For travel, the bride wore a blue denim dress with a lace collar and a white rose corsage.

After a short honeymoon trip, the bride and groom now reside in Mooreville, Miss. The groom is employed by Delta International, and the bride is employed with Dr. Frank A. Nichols in Tupelo, Miss.

Rehearsal Dinner

After the wedding rehearsal, on June fourth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mills entertained their son, John and his bride, Tammy and the wedding party and guests with a supper at their home at the Bay Springs Marina. A delightful evening was shared by all in attendance.

Letter To The Editor

(Note: The following is a copy of a letter sent to the Editor of The Commercial Appeal in Memphis, Tn.)

Dear Sir:

The Commercial Appeal owes an apology to Iuka, Mississippi for the shoddy, insensitive coverage of the re-enactment of the Battle of Iuka by Norma Martin, Sunday, September 20, issue. It was an insult to the hard working people who organized the event, to the re-enactors who made it all possible, and to the entire town.

The Commercial Appeal is widely read in this area and I fail to see the business logic in sending a representative of your paper to Iuka to insult us. Ms. Martin's article is full of inaccuracies and put-downs. She seems to have completely failed to grasp what was happening with the re-enactment of the Battle of Iuka.

On this 125th Anniversary of the battle, the brave men of both armies who fought and died here were respectfully honored by this event. I realize the Civil War was a complicated and terrible time in our history. The seven and ten year children Mrs. Martin so generously quotes could hardly be expected to fully understand the meaning of the re-enactment, but judging from Ms. Martin's article, they seem to have a better grasp of it than she does. Ms. Martin with her trivial little put-downs insulted both the living and the dead, both the blue and the gray.

I feel we are due a personal apology from Norma Martin and that you should send an unbiased reporter to Iuka to do an article about the town to show that we are not an ignorant bunch of red necks sitting in the red mud as Mrs. Martin portrays us.

Respectfully yours,
Wanda Walker

Slain General..... Reliving the history of our proud town, spectators at the 125th Anniversary Re-enactment of the Battle of luka witnessed the death of Confederate General Henry Little, portrayed by Bill Parker of Corinth, which occurred on the bloody battlefield of luka, September 19, 1862. Little, Major General Sterling Price's "most trusted lieutenant", was killed three quarters of an hour after the fight began. He was conferring with General Price (Commander of the District of Tennessee) when a minie ball struck him on the line of the scalp. He died instantaneously. His body was taken to his headquarters, (now the Neil Davis home) and interred in a lot on the grounds. His remains were later taken to Green Mount Cemetery in Baltimore, Maryland. This piece of history is just one of the many interesting events which occurred at the battle. Dr. Ben Kitchens of luka has recently published the story of the Battle of luka, "Rosecrans Meets Price", a most informative account of the battle. It denotes an entire chapter to the death and burial of Little and is well worth the reading to anyone Interested in the history of luka's famous battle. Copies of the book which sells for $12.00 are available at luka Family Clinic, Super B Drugs, luka Public Library, and The Tishomingo County News office. Among those pictured in the above scene are Bill Rutledge, Jamie Vafeas, Mike Spoon, Bill Parker, Ted Vafeas and Jackie Dean.

Smoke from Confederate rifles filled the air as an uphill charge was made during the heat of the Battle of luka Re-enactment staged this past weekend. Union cannon shots cut through the air, injuring men on the battlefield and capturing the attention of spectators.

Thanks To You

The Re-enactment Committee was pleased with the outcome of the two day event. The rain put a damper on some of the activities at the Park in the morning, but things began to pick up as the sun came out.

The $500 that the city gave us, along with the $1500 that the supervisors gave us will be returned, with at least an additional $1500 going towards the Tishomingo County Development Foundation.

The Re-enactment Committee would like to thank everyone who participated and helped. Among those we would like to thank are the following:

Thank You
On behalf of the Tishomingo County Development Foundation, I would like to give a special thanks to the Tishomingo County Board of Supervisors, the mayor and board of aldermen of luka, the Battle of luka Re-enactment Com-

A group of Confederates led by General Price accompanied by General Little discuss attack strategy during the Reenactment of the Battle of luka at the fairground battlesite Saturday and Sunday. Large crowds of spectators gathered each day during the celebration of the 125th anniversary of the event which is a famous part of the Civil War.

The Mississippi State Wagon was driven by Granville Hardin, a member of the Tishomingo County Wagon Train Association and was used during the two day Battle of luka Re-enactment staged September 19 & 20. Judy Walker of luka, and Laura Shaller of Atlanta, Georgia, re-enacted the roles of nurses in the celebration.

Ribbon Cutting

Ribbon cutting ceremonies were held at the old Tishomingo County Courthouse September 18th celebrating its re-opening following a fifteen year vacancy. Many hours of work and planning have been involved in the refurbishing of the historic structure. Initial plans are to locate the Tishomingo County Development Foundation of fice and the Health Department's Home Health Service offices in the building which will serve as a museum as well. Among those present for the occasion were from left: Betty Wilemon, Yvonne

NSDAR Celebrates Constitution Week

The week of September 17 through 23 commemorates the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution of the United States. This great document, the guardian of our liberties, established our Republic as a self governed nation dedicated to rule by law. Constitution Week provides an opportunity for all Americans to recall the achievements of our founders, the nature of limited government and the rights and privileges of citizenship as well as the responsibilities.

During constitution week study the constitution. The success with which Americans secured their liberties through representative government is unparalleled. Be informed and able to defend your constitutional rights.

This may be a crucial year with the call for a Constitutional Convention needing only two more votes, we find ourselves on the verge of a national decision which could alter our structure of government and restrict our freedoms.

The founders of the constitution believed in the right to live and work - free from tyranny. The members of the Chief Tishomingo Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, remind us that we must be vigilant to protect the freedoms guaranteed to us by our Constitution. Lost rights may never be regained.

Soil Conservation Notes

By: Bobby Manley
Soil Conservation Service

Tall fescue, a cool season throughout most areas of Mississippi. However, because of high temperatures and less water holding capacity in sandy soils of South Mississippi, good performance as a forage crop occurs only in the central and northern parts of the state. Mississippi beef producers have had good results from fescue, but it is not a good choice for grazing mild cows. Adding a clover does improve the quality of a fescue pasture.

Fescue begins new growth in late August or early September and continues growing through the succeeding months, maturing a seed crop in late May or June. When the seed are mature, the plant will go into dormancy until fall when the summer temperatures are cool and

The first growth of both fescue and clover provides good quality forage. You should crossreference your fescue pasture so you can practice rotational grazing. Three pastures are needed for adequate rotational grazing.

The ideal stage to graze a fescue-clover mixture is to turn on at a six-inch height and take off when grazed down to three inches high. This is, of course, not always possible but having three or more pastures will greatly benefit the grazing procedure, since three is usually an excess of growth in the spring.

Mrs. LaVelle Murrah Retires After 17 Years

Effective June 30, 1987 LaVelle L. Murrah retired from the Yellow Creek Watershed Authority after having served as secretary-bookkeeper for the past 17 years. During her tenure with the Watershed Authority, she served under Executive Directors W. C. Hamilton, Bobby R. DePoyster, Edwin R. Hunley, and Glen Goodwin.

In 1977, the Agency was reorganized and the geographic boundaries were extended to encompass the entire counties of Alcorn, Prentiss and Tishomingo.

Among the Agency's accomplishments was the organization of the Tishomingo County Museum and Cultural Center. In the three years 1979-81, YCWA received grants and operated programs that was responsible for bringing in over one million dollars that would not have been available had it not been for the Agency's initiatives.

Perhaps its largest project was the planning and implementation of the emergency response plans for Alcorn, Prentiss and Tishomingo counties. Under the project, several new fire departments were organized and equipped and their members trained in necessary skills.

The Agency operated from funds received from local, state and federal levels; however due to the depressed economy funds became inadequate to continue operation and Yellow Creek Watershed Authority closed its office June 30, 1987.

Prior to coming to the Watershed Authority, Mrs. Murrah was employed by the ASCS Office, Cooperative Extension Service and Tishomingo County Farm Improvement Association which constitutes a total of 47 working years.

Mrs. Murrah, a native of Dennis, attended school at Dennis and Belmont, where her father Mr. W. C. Lindsey was a teacher. She enjoys yard and garden work, needlework and crafts. She is looking forward to retirement life and hopes to visit and travel some, although, she stated she is not much of a traveler, and become more active in her church.

When NBC Looked For Help To Give New York City A New Country Radio Station, They Didn't Call Nashville -- They Called Iuka!

Iuka resident Sammy Darwin, President of "Rusty Walker Programming Consulting", has been signed to a multi-year agreement to provide consulting, guidance, and advice in the start-up and operation of WYNY-FM in New York City. The station is owned and operated by NBC, the National Broadcasting Company.

WYNY Vice-President, General Manager John Irwin stated, "When (NBC Radio - President) Randy Bongarten and I decided to seek expert help in getting 'Country 97 FM' started, Rusty was our first and only choice. He has produced several of America's highest rated country music radio stations and comes highly recommended by broadcasters from all areas of the United States. We're proud to have someone of Rusty's stature be a part of creating the world's most listened to Country Station. WYNY's coverage encompasses more than 20 million people!"

Darwin commented, "It's an honor and a pleasure to be working with NBC, and especially in New York City. It's exciting just to walk into the building. Our studio is the same room that President Roosevelt broadcast his 'Fireside Chats' from. In fact, the historical fireplace is still there. It's also where great radio stars like Jack Benny and Fibber McGee and Molly broadcast their network performances. With a heritage like that, we have to do a good job."

Darwin also consults country music stations in cities including Memphis, Jackson, Birmingham, Atlanta, Orlando, Tulsa, Little Rock, Philadelphia, Wichita, Salt Lake City, and others. He is married to the former Teresa Bryant, daughter of Jackie and Burnette Bryant. They have three children: Nikki, Beth and Jay.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank each of you for the great response you have given me and my family as we travel throughout the county during my campaign for sheriff.

It will be almost impossible to see each of you before the November General Election because time is quickly running out. But, take a minute and look at us both before making your decision.

I offer you experience, dedication, and leadership.

Let's put a Tishomingo County native, an experienced law enforcement officer, and your friend to work for you.

Thank you,

Iuka Test Scores: Above Average

Students in the Iuka School District scored higher than the state average on three achievement tests taken during the 1986-87 school year. According to the report of the Mississippi Department of Education's performance profile of the Iuka School District, students outperformed the state averages on all three tests.

The profile compares the average scores of the Iuka students with the average state scores of the Basic Skill Assessment Program (BSAP), the Standard Achievement Test (SAT), and the Functional Literacy Exam (FLE).

Following is a look at how the Iuka students tested in comparison with the state averages:

The BSAP was given to students in grades 3, 5, 8, and 11. It measures the essential skills of reading, math and writing and is used as part of the accreditation process for schools. The test results are reported based on the percentages of questions answered correctly and on scale scores for 1986-87. In the future, the results will be based on scale scores only.

The third graders who took BSAP scored 91.5 percent (385.3 scale score) correct in reading as compared to the state average of 89.9 percent (382.7 scale score). In math, our pupils scored 92.0 percent (385.7), compared to 87.7 percent (378.6) on the state average. The third graders percentage correct in writing was 91.0 (385.5) compared to the state average of 88.8 percent (379.2).

The composite average scale score for all three test areas was 385.4 for the school district and 380.2 for the state.

The Iuka fifth graders scored 7 - 10 percentage points better than the state averages. Their score in reading was 88.6 percent (583.5) scale score while the state average was 81.9 (574.3 scale score). In math, our fifth graders got 88.1 percent correct (583.2), compared to a state average of 78.3 percent (570). In written communication, our students answered 87.0 percent (581.5) of the questions correctly while the state average was 80.4 percent (572.5).

The composite results of our fifth graders was a 583.1 scale score while the state average was 572.6.

The percentage scores for the Iuka eighth grade was also well above the state average. In reading, the students got 79.9 percent (872.9 scale score) correct against the average state score of 74.2 percent (865.5 scale score). In math the school district's average was 88.7 percent (883.9) compared to a state average of 77 percent (868.4). The students scored 85.2 percent (877.5) in written communication while the state average was 83.7 percent (875.2).

The composite scale score for the eighth grade students was 878.8 and the state's scale score average was 870.1.

Eleventh grade students in Iuka scored 88.9 percent (1,183.8 scale score) on the reading portion of the BSAP while the state average was 82.4 percent (1,175.1 scale score). In math, our students answered 82.3 percent correct (1,176.3) compared to 77 percent (1,169.3) in the state. In written communication, the district's average was 90.6 percent (1,184.6) compared to the state average of 86.4 percent (1,178.2).

The composite scale score for this grade locally was 1,181.5 compared to a state average score of 1,174.3.

The SAT Test was administered to grades K, 1, 4, and 6 as Mississippi's norm-referenced test (NRT). The NRT's are designed to give information about how students compare with national averages. The scores listed are normal curve equivalents (NCEs) which make comparisons. The national average is 50.

Our kindergarten level students scored 45 in reading while the state average was 45, both figures below the national average.

In math the Iuka students scored below the national average as our kindergarten pupils scored a 44 average. The state average in math was 45.

On the environment portion of the test, our students posted 60 compared to the state average of 49.

The Iuka first graders scored above the national average for all three test areas. In reading, the local district's pupils tallied a 56, compared to a state average of 52. In math, they scored a 68 compared to the state's 49. And in the environment section, the district's average was 60 while the state's was 49.

The district's fourth graders also topped both the national and the state norms. In reading, the Iuka students scored a 55 compared to the state average of 48. In math, our pupils averaged 54 while the state's average matched the national mark of 50. In total language skills, our fourth grade students scored 55 compared to a 52 average on the state level. In the environment section, the district's average was 54 while the state's was 50.

Sixth graders in Iuka scored extremely high considering it was their first year to take the SAT. In reading, our students averaged 50 compared to the state's 46. In math they scored 55 while the state mark was 50. In language, the sixth graders made 55 compared to the state average of 51.

The FLE Test was given to every 11th grader in Mississippi. Students who will be graduating in 1989 (this year's junior class) must pass this exam, plus earn 18 course credits.

The test measures functional literacy skills in reading, math and writing. The passing score is 699 with a student not allowed to score less than 211 on any one of the three subtests.

For reading skills, 87.6 percent of the 11th graders passed this subtest with their scale score being 272.4. On the state level, the percentage passing was 82.8 at an average scale score of 261.5.

In math, 86.1 percent of the county's students made a passing grade, compared to a 74.5 percent statewide. The average scale score was 269.0 for Iuka students and 243.1 across the state.

In written communication, 93.7 percent of the school's 11th graders passed this subtest with an average scale score of 268.7. The state average was 89.1 percent for passing with a scale score of 258.

The composite score on the state and school level was above the proposed passing mark. Iuka students had a composite scale score average of 809.7 while the state's average was 754.7.

The percentage of Iuka students who failed at least one portion of the test was 9.1 percent compared to 28.7 percent in the state.

The Performance profile listed Iuka student enrollment for last year at 1,104 compared to a total state enrollment of 484,479.

Of Iuka's students, 146 were in special education classes, 183 were in vocational education, and 38 were enrolled in gifted and talented programs. For the state, 54,482 students were in special education, 108,311 were in vocational education, and 14,145 were in gifted and talented classes.

Perhaps the most startling statistic listed in the state produced study was the dropout rates for both Iuka school system and state in general. The most recent figures are for the 1985-86 school year.

The study's statistics reveal that the percentage of students who enrolled in the ninth grade in 1982-83 who did not graduate in 1985-86 was a disturbing 40 percent statewide. In the Iuka School District the rate closely paralleled the state average with 30 percent of the Iuka ninth grade class of 1982-83 failing to graduate four years later.

On a brighter scale, the majority of students in the school system who do graduate apparently go on to attend a junior or senior college. In 1985-86, the school graduated 65 students. Of this total, 13 planned to enter senior college and 20 planned to enter junior college. Four students said they would enter a technical college and three said they would enter business college. That means that 62 percent of the seniors of 1985-86 made plans to further their education—the same as the state average.

Statewide, 25,134 graduated in 1985-86. Those planning to enter senior college numbered 6,154; another 7,790 planned to enter junior colleges; 1,088 said they would enter technical colleges; while 597 made plans to go to a business college.

Don't Let Food Poisoning Spoil Your Picnic!

More cases of food poisoning occur during the summer than in any other time of the year.

Staphylococcus bacteria are responsible for most food poisonings because they find a welcome environment in foods that have been left unrefrigerated, particularly high-protein foods and dairy products. Contrary to popular belief, contaminated mayonnaise is not a leading cause of food poisoning.

"Staph" bacteria are normally present in our noses, throats and open wounds. They find their way into food when we cough or blow our noses or when we touch food without washing our hands first. It's almost inevitable that staph bacteria will reach food from the hands of people preparing or serving it. The bacteria only becomes a problem when it multiplies in foods that aren't refrigerated properly.

Salmonella bacteria, which are carried by household pets as well as animals slaughtered for food, also are responsible for many cases of food poisoning. These bacteria are killed in foods that have been cooked at a minimum of 140 degrees Fahrenheit for at least 10 minutes. That's why undercooked pork are common sources of salmonella poisoning. The bacteria are also present in animal feces, and they can contaminate food by way of flies or the unwashed hands

Colonel O. C. Nelson, USAF (Ret.), on behalf of Secretary of State Dick Mopius, presented the Iuka Public Library with the state flag of Mississippi. The flag was flown over the State Capitol Complex on Monday, September 14, 1987, to commemorate the 125th anniversary and re-enactment of the Civil War Battle of Iuka. Librarian Freda Sanderson is shown accepting the flag on behalf of the library.

A committee to design the state flag was appointed by legislative action February 7, 1894, and provided that the flag reported by the committee should become the official state flag. The Canton Corner is a replica of the Confederate Battle Flag.

of people who've emptied the litter box or tidied up the lawn.

Time and temperature encourage the growth of bacteria that cause food poisoning. The danger zone for food poisoning is 40-140 degrees Fahrenheit. The more time that elapses between the preparation and consumption of certain foods, the greater the opportunity for bacteria to multiply. For example, family and friends at a backyard party on a warm summer day can get sick from eating barbecued chicken that has sat on a picnic table for only a few hours.

Food poisoning caused by staph isn't usually serious, but it can be a miserable experience. Between 30 minutes and eight hours after eating contaminated food, you suddenly feel very sick and experience vomiting, headache and extreme weakness. You may not attribute these symptoms to food poisoning at first, since contaminated food often doesn't taste unusual. Your discomfort will last a few days at most, and unfortunately, there's not much you can do except to drink a lot of clear liquids. Allowing the body to use its own defense to eliminate the staph bacteria seems to be the best treatment for most people.

Salmonella, on the other hand, can cause more serious trouble because diarrhea and fever are commonly seen. This bacterial poisoning may require attention in the emergency room of your local hospital.

If you're hosting an outdoor party, you can keep noxious bacteria off your guest list by planning the menu carefully. Avoid ham and other salt-cured products, which account for many outbreaks of food poisoning. The safest meats are those cooked at the time of eating, not ahead. Crackers, hard cheese, raw fruits and vegetables are always safe bets for outdoor parties. Serve dry desserts such as brownies and cookies. Avoid creamy cakes and pies.

Keep cold foods cold, hot foods hot, and all food covered. Don't allow meats and other protein foods to remain at room temperature. After cooking, don't cool foods on the stove or counter. Serve or refrigerate them immediately. Keep your hands clean and handle the food as little as possible before it is served. Make sure your guests use serving utensils.

As a guest at an outdoor party, avoid meat or egg dishes and creamy desserts that have been left out for several hours. Keep your hands clean and use utensils.

If you're preparing a picnic, use a basket for bread and dry foods and a portable thermos, cooler, or insulated carrier for cold foods. Don't overstock your cooler, since the food will remain at a lower temperature if there's plenty of air to circulate around it.

Kappa Kappa Iota Met

The first meeting of the 1987-88 year of Kappa Kappa Iota was held in Tishomingo on September 15, in the Baptist Pastorium with president Christine Mercer presiding. After the devotion, given by Leighvelia Bostick, reports were heard from secretary Lois Bostick, Treasurer, Mildred Hill and empathy chairmen Jewel Nixon. Mary Williams and Christine Mercer reported on the National Convention of the sorority held in June this year in Evansville, Indiana. Delegates from twenty-four states attended the five day assembly.

Plans for the coming year were made. These included a schedule for programs and hostess assignments, the assembling of material for a yearbook and responsibilities of the local conclave regarding the state and national Kappa organizations. During the business session three officers were installed: Yvette Helton, vice president; Havis Short, empathy chairmen and Geraldine McGill, parliamentarian. The other officers had been installed previously.

Refreshments were served by hostesses Effie Lois Aldridge and Yvette Helton. During the social hour, members enjoyed "catching up on the news" and adjourned to meet next on October 20th at the Dennis Restaurant.

Belmont 28
Mooreville 0

Last year when the troopers and cardinals met at Mooreville it was for a district championship on a rainy Friday night, but something was different this time - the score - Belmont 28! Mooreville - unlike last year's upset - this one was all Belmont.

On Belmont's opening series, Chris Moore took the ball right through the trooper defense for a 2 yard TD. PAT Good. Belmont 7. Mooreville 0.

A few plays later Belmont got the ball back, and marched it down field to the two yard line, from their Joey Hall, Belmont's versatile quarterback took it on for a TD. The PAT was good making it 14-0 Belmont's favor. It looked like that would be it for the first quarter, but Belmont recovered a Mooreville fumble on the 14 yard line. The next play saw Kevin Deaton go off tackle for a 14 yard TD and a remarkable 21-0 Belmont lead at the end of the first quarter.

Both teams swapped the ball around the entire second stanza with neither team scoring. Belmont took a surprising 21-0 halftime lead. The third quarter was a defensive struggle to the end. Neither team scored. Scotty Moore returned an interception some 80 yards for ATD. That would be nullified by a clipping penalty.

The Belmont Cardinals scored their final TD with 5 minutes left in the game, as Kevin Deaton returned an interception 25 yards for a TD. The PAT was good making the final score 28-0 Belmont. The 1-0-3-0 Cardinals have their hands full this Friday as out-of-state arch rival 2-2 Red Bay, Ala. come to town.

T.H.S. 38
Blue Mt. 7

The Tishomingo Bulldogs took over the lead in District 1

Class A Division, after a 38-7 thrashing of the Blue Mt. Cougars, Friday night. Tishomingo started the scoring off in the first quarter on a 1 yard Bobby Brock run - the PAT was no good (6-0). The Dogs scored again in the first on another Bobby Brock run, this time from 19 yards out. The PAT was no good. 12-0.

The air attack showed well in the second when, quarterback Brad Howie found the Bulldogs leading receiver, Bryant Southward, for a 27 yard TD. The PAT was no good again. (18-0).

Blue Mt. scored its only points of the game on a 2 yard run by Joey Waldrop. The PAT was good, making the half-time score Tish - 18 Blue Mt. 7.

The Bulldogs came out flying in the third, as Brad Howie found Bryant Southward with a 48 yard bomb. The PAT was no good 24-7. Tishomingo scored again in the third, as once again Bobby Brock scored on a run, this time from 5 yards. The PAT was good making the score 31-7. The Bulldogs scored their last TD on another Brock run. This time he took the ball dashed and darted for 12 yards - 6 points and his 4 TD of the night. The PAT was good making the score 38-7 in the Bulldogs favor. The win gave Tish a 2-0 District record and 2-1 overall.

Tishomingo has an open date next week before hosting Coach Willie T. Jackson's explosive Thrasher Rebels in a District 1 Class A game.

Biggersville 54
Burnsville 0

The Biggersville Lions of Class-2A proved to be too much for the Class 1A Burnsville Mustangs last Friday night. As the Lions took a lopsided 59-0 victory home.

Biggersville's offense came out smoking and never cooled off as the Mustang's defense just couldn't handle the quickness and size of a much bigger Biggersville. The Mustangs could not get anything going on offense either as a monstrous Lion defense was everywhere. The Mustangs drop to 0-1 in District and 0-3 overall. Iuka 1-2 comes to town Friday night for a non-division-county rivalry.

Saltillo 39
Iuka 0

The Saltillo Tigers got a District win over the Iuka Chieftains 39-0 last Friday night.

The Chieftain defense looked sharp in the first quarter as they allowed no score, but Saltillo starting scoring in the second on two quick TDs, giving the Tigers a 12-0 half-time lead.

Stir-Frying: The Only Way To Fry

from the American Institute for Cancer Research

Frying can be a delicious way to prepare many foods, but the fat added by this cooking method can be a real problem. The strong link between dietary fat and health problems, such as cancer and heart disease, have led most health and nutrition authorities to recommend limiting fat in our diets. The American Institute for Cancer Research, for example, in its Dietary Guidelines for Lower Cancer Risk, recommends reducing fat intake from the current average of 40 percent of calories, to 30 percent or lower.

One method of frying, however, which uses very little oil and is extremely effective in preserving nutrients in food is stir-frying.

This cooking technique originated in the Orient, but has become popular around the world. Stir-frying involves cooking foods quickly over high heat with just a small amount of vegetable oil, either in an oriental style wok, a heavy frying pan or even an electric skillet. In addition to holding nutrients, stir-fried foods maintain their flavor and color as well, making them a favorite of gourmet cooks.

The key to successful stir-frying is to chop the vegetables and/or meat you are preparing into very thin or small pieces. Cutting vegetables on the bias or in julienne strips provides more surface area that speeds cooking. For optimum tenderness, meat should be sliced very thinly across the grain, which is easier if you freeze the meat until just firm (about 45 - 60 minutes) and use a very sharp knife.

Since stir-fry food cooks so quickly, be sure to have all your ingredients ready before you start. Some vegetables may need to be steamed for a short time before you can stir-fry them. The usual order of stir-fry cooking is: first, pungent seasonings (such as garlic or ginger root); next, slower cooking vegetables (such as carrots, broccoli or green beans); then, quick cooking vegetables (such as mushrooms, pea pods or cabbage); and finally, meat.

fish or chicken.

Broccoli And Beef Cantonese

This delicious stir-fry dish exemplifies good nutrition in two ways: lean cuts of meat are used in small portions to keep fat content low and lots of vegetables are included for vitamins and low-calorie volume. Some brown rice is all you need for a complete meal.

1 lb. boneless top round steak
1/2 cup water
1 1/2 tsp. cornstarch
4 tbsp. soy sauce
1/2 cup dry sherry
1 1/2 tsp. ground ginger
1 tsp. garlic powder
2 tbsp. salad oil
1/4 lb. mushrooms, sliced
2 10. oz. pkg. frozen broccoli, partially thawed
1 cup water chestnuts, sliced
2 cups bean sprouts (1 16-oz. can, drained)
1 cup green onions, sliced

Trim all fat from the meat, then freeze slightly. When firm, slice the meat across the grain into strips 1 to 2 inches long, 1/8th inch thick.

In a small bowl mix the water with cornstarch until smooth. Mix in the soy sauce, sherry, ginger and garlic powder.

In wok, heavy skillet, or electric skillet, heat 1 tablespoon oil until very hot. Add half the meat, stirring constantly, until it is lightly browned. Remove it from the pan and cook the second half of the meat, without adding more oil.

Remove second batch of meat from the pan, add 1 tablespoon of oil to the pan, if needed, and add mushrooms. Brown lightly, then return meat to the pan. Add broccoli, water chestnuts, and cornstarch mixture.

Bring to a boil, while stirring. Continue cooking and stirring until sauce is thickened and clear. Stir in bean sprouts and onions, allow them to heat, and then serve immediately with brown rice.

This will produce 6 servings, each containing about 266 calories and only 5 grams of fat.

Ricky Skaggs At NEMCC Sept. 27

In what Northeast Community College's Campus Country Director Shirley Taylor likes to call the group's "first really big break, the program's bluegrass group will warm up for Ricky Skaggs at the Natchez Trace Hall of Fame Sunday, September 27 at 3 p.m.

Skaggs was named the Country Music Association's Entertainer of the Year recently. When Joe Faries, head of Virginia-based JF Productions, saw an article about Northeast's unique Campus Country group, the fruit of the Country/Western Music Curriculum, he got in touch with Taylor. Taking into account Skaggs' bluegrass roots, Faries requested the bluegrass performance group comprised of long-time fiddler and Northeast instructor Marlon Grisham of Ripley and students like banjoist Steve Butler and mandolin player Brandt Tarr of Amory, bassist Bill Richardson of Jumpertown and guitarists Richie Wright of Meridian and Britt Young of Tupelo.

"We've been performing since the program began four years ago," Taylor said. "I'd say we've done an average of 60 shows during each school year and we've gotten fantastic exposure in places in the state as well as places like Washington, D.C., Arkansas, and of course, in Tennessee."

"I think, though, this is the biggest step we've ever taken toward being recognized as a quality training ground for those pursuing careers in the Country/Western music field. This is the first performing affiliation we've had with a major Country recording artist, and we're all thrilled."

Taylor said tickets, $10 in advance and $12.50 at the door, are available in Northeast's Hines Hall, Booneville's Sound Stage, Sound Stage II and Album Alley in Tupelo, The Video Store in Ponotoc and WWZQ in Aberdeen.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

My friend does odd jobs at night and on Saturdays for extra money. But he refuses to work on Sunday, except as he says, "for the Lord."

A cynic asked, "How much do you make when you work for the Lord?"

"Not much now," he answered, "but you can't beat the retirement plan."

Everything you do out of love for the Lord is recorded for your reward.

There are two tracks of truth, which, while they run alongside of each other, must never be allowed to run into each other. These are eternal life, and reward. Eternal life is given to those who have faith. But rewards are obtained by those who are faithful to the Lord.

But look at the retirement plan. You have a home in heaven that is debt free. You will live in a beautiful land where there are no diseases, no storms, and no tears. And you will enjoy a congenial society that is filled with happiness, love and perfection.

You can't beat that, can you!

Wal-Mart Foundation Aids Effort To Assist Endangered Children

In an expression of support for the work of the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, the Wal-Mart Foundation has presented a gift of $10,000 to further the wide-ranging efforts undertaken by the Center to deal with the plight of children at risk.

After examining the services provided to families of endangered children and the assistance to law enforcement agencies seeking to locate missing children and protect exploited children, the Wal-Mart Foundation made the commitment this month to support the various technical assistance and prevention activities of the National Center.

The recognition by Wal-Mart enables the National Center to be cited with a number of other outstanding organizations to which the Wal-Mart Foundation has provided support, including the American Cancer Society, American Heart Association, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Easter Seal Society, March of Dimes, Muscular Dystrophy Association, National Arthritis Foundation, St. Jude Hospital, and United Cerebral Palsy Association.

Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. began in Rogers, Arkansas in 1962, and currently operates more than 1,060 stores in 23 states.

"We are grateful to have earned a place in the company of those distinguished national organizations that have merited the confidence and support of this respected Wal-Mart Foundation," states National Center President Ellis E. Meredith.

Speaking for the Wal-Mart Foundation, President and Chief Operating Officer David D. Glass said, "We are proud to contribute corporately to the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, knowing the concern and problem solving abilities this very worthwhile organization has for our nation's children and their families."

"By contributing, Wal-Mart desires to aid the quality of life for the general public. At the same time, we allow our Wal-Mart stores and divisions to raise funds for charities and organizations that are local in nature and thereby directly meet needs at local community levels."

As a result of some three years of Congressional activity, the passage of the Missing Children's Assistance Act, and the development of a cooperative agreement with the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention of the Department of Justice, the National Center was established in June of 1984. Its mandate from Congress was two-fold: to decrease the incidence of crimes against children, and to assist law enforcement agencies in handling such cases when they do occur.

In its first three years, the National Center has handled 14,735 cases of missing children, of which 7,967 have been located. Tragically, 90 of those children were not found alive.

In addition, 1,208 cases of child victims of sexual exploitation were reported to the National Center for appropriate follow-up. These cases included child pornography, child prostitution, and child sex ring activities.

Technical training in the detection, identification, and investigation of cases of missing and exploited children has been provided to 19,610 law enforcement and juvenile justice personnel in 40 states.

Assistance is provided in cases of missing children from infancy through age 17. At the National Center, all categories of missing children -- runaways, parental kidnappings, and those abducted by unknown individuals -- are worked equally aggressively, due to the knowledge that all these children and you are at risk for victimization and possible death.

Much of the work done by the National Center must be supported by the encouragement of the private sector if desired goals in child protection are to be attained.

"Therefore," says National Center President Meredith, "this evidence of approval on the part of Wal-Mart is not only a program-enabling measure, but a reassurance to the staff and the public that our efforts are being recognized and appreciated."

"We take our charge from Congress and the people very seriously, and work diligently to keep faith with the trust placed in our ability and our endeavors."

Display For Fair
The members of the Midway Extension Homemakers Club are getting ready for their exhibit for the Tishomingo County Fair. All Home Economics exhibits will be entered on Tuesday, September a list of items for exhibit by calling Nellie R. Horton, Extension Home Economist at 423-3616.

Graduates of 1987 were Tonia Maxwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Maxwell of Middleton, Tn.; Robert Lyles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Lyles of Pleasant View, Utah; both are great-grandchildren of Mrs. Isom.

Mrs. Helen Isom Carlile of Granger, In., granddaughter of Mrs. Isom, was listed as the person who traveled the farthest to attend the reunion.

Before the close of the afternoon, the door prize was drawn with Mrs. Clyde Isom of Corinth and Richard Carson of Florence, Ala. each winning a prize. Afternoon shadows began to lengthen as the group began to prepare to part. Fond farewells of a family, once again united as a group, were said with lasting memories of a wonderful day to carry with them and warm feelings of looking forward to next year.

Those present included the following: Mrs. Lillie Isom, Mrs. Clyde Isom, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Isom, Louis Isom and guest, Lynn Emmons, Howard Isom, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Switzer, all of Corinth; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Thompson and Autumn, Deneen and Amber Ferrel, all of Jackson, Tn.; Mr. and Mrs. William Carson, Richard Carson, Howard Carson, Grace Ann Thomas, Mrs. Burt Isom, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Isom, Jay Isom, Mrs. Phil Baker, of Florence, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Isom and John Paul from Normandy, Tn.; Mr. and Mrs. Joel Pierce from Scottsboro, Tn.; Mrs. R. POW Crusade - Thomas Clift who was a prisoner of war in Southeast Asia for 7 years is along with 11 other ex-POW's walking through different parts of the United States in a nationwide attempt to call attention to prisoners and men listed as missing in action in Asia. Six years have been set aside to accomplish this mission. The goal is to talk to veterans of all organized communities and ask them to contact elected leaders of the state and nation to renegotiate for the believed 1,441 men still as missing. Clift, a native of Oregon, has completed 3 years and 5 months of his journey. He arrived in Iuka on Thursday, September 17, and left on Saturday, September 19. If anyone is interested in helping Mr. Clift they may contact Sonny Montgomery in Columbus, MS. Rev. Frank Burton of the Iuka United Methodist Church is shown with Mr. Clift in front of the memorial monument at the Tishomingo County Courthouse.

Five Generations Gather For Family Reunion

A crystal clear stream gently flowing over moss-covered rocks, then cascading downward into a waterfall; a log cabin with untold stories of over one-hundred years, nestled on the bank amid early summer wildflowers and lush trees; all part of the beautiful scenic drive through Tishomingo State Park where another Isom Reunion is the focal point of the afternoon on Saturday, June 13th.

Mrs. Lillie Isom arrived at two o'clock to be with her immediate family members and their families--a representation of five generations. She was met by her sons Frank and Leon; Leon's wife, Gleneal; and her daughter, Mary Presson, to be escorted to the porch of Locapoolsa Lodge. Already the sounds of laughter of small children, the gentle competition of games between the groups, and the buzz of "catching up" on the past year, set the afternoon for a time of relaxation for everyone present.

Lis Lambert, granddaughter of Mrs. Isom, greeted the guests at the registration table. Scrolls written in script, welcomed the group to "Isom Time"; The program for the afternoon and the activities calendar depicted interesting plans for the afternoon.

Soon the traditional family games of "silver dollar pitching" was in full swing with the pros looking forward to the competition. Leon Isom, Sr., and grandson, Jimmie Isom, proved to be grand champions in the play-offs.

Volleyball was of great interest to all age groups, while swinging and playing in the sand under the massive oaks kept the little ones busy. Locating the huge family tree wall canvass and adding the new additions took top priority for many. Visiting with Grandmother Isom by each and all present was a time-about enjoyable moment for everyone.

The much-looked-forward-to family dinner with all the favorite recipes was served around four o'clock. Martha Lambert, daughter of Mrs. Isom, welcomed the group and read a greeting to the family dictated by Mrs. Isom. Paul Isom, grandson of Mrs. Isom, reported on the health of his father, Burt Isom, son of Mrs. Isom, who was not able to be with the family and was greatly missed by the Paul then gave the benedic-

TVARA meets

The Pickwick Dam Area Chapter of the Tennessee Valley Authority Retirees Association (TVARA) held their Quarterly Meeting at the Pickwick State Park Inn September 10th. The main feature of this meeting was a talk given by Rheta Grimley Johnson about her writing and travel experiences. Rheta is an award winning syndicated columnist. Her column appears in 170 newspapers in the United States including the Commercial Appeal. She has just recently had a book published entitled "America's Faces".

The Pickwick Chapter of TVARA is one of 26 chapters located in the Tennessee Valley. It has an assigned area of four counties surrounding Pickwick; Alcorn and Tishomingo in Ms. and Hardin and McNairy in Tn. There are 175 TVA Retirees residing in these counties.

The TVA Retirement System is serving about 10,000 persons at this time. The TVARA is also serving them through communications and negotiations with TVA Management and the Retirement System. TVA recognizes the TVARA as the responsible spokesman for retirees in matters of economic and social interest. Another important purpose of TVARA is to provide social and fellowship contacts for retirees and their families through activities of the local chapters and the valley-wide association.

At the present time the Pickwick Chapter has 62 members. The newly elected officers for the Pickwick Chapter in 1988 are: Mrs. Willard (Bertha) Newcomb, President, Iuka; Mrs. Ray George, Vice President, Corinth; Ms. Wilbur (Ethel) Goodman, Secretary, Savannah; and Ms. Garvin (Jessie) Jones, Treasurer, Savannah.

Iuka Lions

Iuka Lions met in regular session, on September 15, 1987, at "The Lion's Den", in Circus Burgers Restaurant. After the invocation, we enjoyed a good meal, provided by the restaurant, and Lion President David Moody called the meeting to order. Uppermost, was the "Civil War Battle of Iuka", re-enactment. I was unable to attend the activities, due to family illness, but I understand the two day event, was a huge success!

We were honored by the presence of Lion H. A. Jenkins, Dist. Governor, 30-6, and he proved to be a delightful speaker.

Many committees were appointed by the Directors, to fulfill the duties, assigned to them.

The president, Mr. Thomas
