Three Escape Jail Facility

Three inmates who escaped from the Tishomingo County Jail on Wednesday, October 11, were back in custody the following day.

Capital murder suspects Darryl Bannister, 18, and David Armendariz, 16, escaped from the county jail in Iuka around 11:30 p.m. Wednesday. With them was Lester Henley of Iuka.

Henley, who was serving time for charges of DUI third offense, was apprehended at his parents' home in Iuka shortly after the escape, a spokesman from the sheriff's department said.

A call to the sheriff's department Thursday afternoon alerted officers to Coleman Park road, where Bannister and Armendariz were found walking. Tishomingo County Deputy Mike Higginbottom took the men into custody at 12:50 p.m.

The three prisoners escaped by running past a trustee who was moving a telephone in the cell area for one of the inmates to use, jail authorities said.

Bannister and Armendariz are being held on capital murder charges stemming from the death of an elderly Tishomingo County man.

William Mitton Solomon, 91, was found shot to death in his home near Tishomingo on January 9. He had been beaten and robbed, according to reports.

This escape from the jail is a third for Bannister, who escaped last on July 17 when he and two other inmates burst a hole through the front brick wall of the jail. Bannister also escaped in March.

According to the sheriff's department, extra measures are being taken to increase security at the jail.

Until this week, Sheriff Richard Dobbs has had only one full-time deputy. A new full-time deputy began duty this week, which will increase the department's manpower.

The facility scheduled for completion in April, 1990, will have an approximate $7 million annual impact for Tishomingo County. Those attending the ceremonies were: Rick Nelms, Jimmy James, Clyde Dixon, Jester

Wood Chipping Plant Locates At Bay Springs

The site of a new manufacturing plant in Tishomingo County was announced Monday by company and local officials.

A wood chipper operation is under construction near Bay Springs Lock and Dam on the east side of the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway.

The facility is a joint venture of Scott Paper Company and Shuqualak Lumber Company, according to Steve Mauney, unit manager for Scott Paper. This is the second venture between Scott and Shuqualak Lumber Company. Shuqualak is located 40 miles South of Columbus, MS, and has been in the lumber business for over 100 years and produce over 70 million board feet annually of pine lumber.

Mauney said that

Bake Sale

The Unity Baptist Church will sponsor a bake sale, at Piggly Wiggly in Iuka, Saturday, October 21st from 8:30 a.m. until.

Shuqualak will hire about 7 workers and Scott Paper will start with 14, but about 275 indirect jobs would eventually be created by the industry primarily in the logging field.

The 23-acre plant site is located about 2 miles south of the Bay Springs Lock and Dam. The industry will use hardwood timber harvested in the area. After processing, the wood chips will be transported by barge down the Tenn-Tom to Scott's Port facility in Mobile, Alabama.

The company's 800-horsepower towboat will be stationed in Tishomingo County for transporting the wood down the Waterway. Production will be one barge per day and tow once a week to Mobile, Mauney said.

The plant's goal is to buy and transport 340,000 tons of hardwood annually, resulting in an approximate $7 million annual investment in Tishomingo County.

The wood chipping mill is projected to be completed by April of 1990 at an estimated cost of $6 million for construction.

Mauney said that Scott Paper considered several sites prior to choosing the Bay Springs location. Their decision was influenced most by the availability of resources and the cooperation of Tishomingo County Development Foundation Director Mack Wadkins and the Tishomingo County Board of Supervisors. Scott Paper Company is the leading manufacturer of sanitary paper products with sales exceeding $7 billion annually. They have 14 paper mills in the United States and 11 paper mills abroad.

House & Senate Agree On Funds For Rocket Plant

The proposed NASA solid rocket plant to be located in Tishomingo County got a boost Tuesday when House and Senate negotiators agreed on $156 million to start the construction next year.

According to Jamie Whitten, House Appropriations Committee Chairman, the conference committee had agreed to add $146 million to the $10 million allocated by the Senate for the rocket plant. The money was part of a $67 billion appropriations bill for the Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Veterans Administration and independent agencies like the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The next step will be for the conference agreement to clear the House and the Senate, then be signed by President Bush.

Iuka School Vandalized

School Vandalism-- Iuka High School secretary Teresa Cutshall and custodian Paul Brents examine paint poured by vandals who broke into the high school building sometime late Monday or early Tuesday. The paint was apparently taken from a janitor's closet and splattered along the walls and floors of the hallways. The initials "D.J." were found written in the paint. A VCR was discovered missing from one of the classrooms. Investigating police officer Robert Till reported that a screen was found removed from one of the windows where the intruders possibly pulled the VCR out. No leads on the identity of the vandals have been found, principal Aubrey Ray said Tuesday. The combined efforts of the janitorial staff, teachers, and others had almost completed the clean-up process by late Tuesday.

Amy Whitlock of the Mingo 4-H Club received the award for the best youth beef

County Agent who judged the livestock and her father, Paul Whitlock leading Miss Amy.

4-H Communicates

SENDERS AND RECEIVERS - MAKING THE CONNECTION

We come into contact with many people as we go about our busy days and we communicate with all of them in many different ways. Communication is the way we share our ideas and feelings with each other.

If we can communicate well with others, we can learn more about ourselves and the way others see us. We can also better understand the people around us and learn to like and enjoy each other. This will help us to act responsibly with other people without changing ourselves to try to please everyone.

There are two parts to any form of communication, the sender of a message and the receiver of a message. You have communicated well when the receiver understands the message in the same way the sender wanted it understood.

Listening is the receiving part of verbal communication, and talking is the sending part. Careful listening is like a sound mirror. A careful listener can be a mirror of the words, feelings and actions of the speaker. Being a good listener is a very important part of communicating well. There are several things we do as a listener that tell the speaker you're listening.

One of the most important techniques is to have eye contact. Another technique is to lean forward toward the speaker just a little bit. Also, if you sit or stand firmly in place so that it is obvious you're paying attention. You can also nod your head occasionally.

Think about how it makes you feel when others seem distracted while you're talking with them. If someone I'm talking to interrupts or walks away or starts looking through papers on their desk, I feel that what I'm saying isn't so important after all. Eye contact is very important when communicating with others.

Sometimes when we send messages they aren't received the way we mean them. When we receive messages, we are not always sure that we are hearing what was intended. We want someone to let us know if we have understood or been understood correctly.

A technique which can be used to help us understand is called "paraphrasing". This means repeating the message using different words. For example, the speaker may say, "It's seven o'clock. When are we going to eat?" The listener could reply, "You are wondering when we are going to eat because it is already 7 p.m." By using this technique, many misunderstandings and hurt feelings could be avoided. If you feel you have been misunderstood you should check with the receiver to be certain they got the message you sent. In addition, if you've received a message which may have hurt your feelings then you should check with the sender, rather than a third party. Only the sender and receiver of a message can clear up misunderstandings.

We don't always agree with the ideas, feelings or actions of those around us. Some people avoid the conflict by ignoring their own feelings and pretending the disagreement doesn't exist. Some people do the opposite and attack or blame those who disagree with them. When either one of these responses occur, communication stops. We can express our interpretation of events, behaviors or verbal messages without threatening the other person if we concentrate on speaking for ourselves. We call this technique I-Messages. The three parts to an I-message are: 1) It states the unacceptable behavior or message 2) It tells the feelings about that behavior, and 3) It tells the effect of the behavior on the sender of the I-message.

Which of the following would you find less threatening: "When I come home from work and find dirty dishes all over the kitchen, I feel so tired and discouraged because I'm not able to cook supper around the mess. I would like you to help clean up the kitchen so we won't have a late supper." or "You make me so mad because you have messed up the kitchen again."

These are just a few techniques, which, if practiced, would help to reduce conflicts and increase open communications in all aspects of our lives.

Canada Geese Released Across Mississippi

Since June, approximately 4,200 giant Canada geese have been released across Mississippi, according to the Mississippi Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks.

The geese were given to Mississippi by wildlife agencies in Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Canada.

"The wildlife agencies in these states and Canada are cooperating with us in our multi-year project to establish resident flocks of giant Canada geese in many sections of Mississippi," said Richard Wells MDWFP chief waterfowl biologist.

During the last three years, state wildlife personnel released 7,000 Canada geese at Sardis, Grenada, Ross Barnett and Arkabutla reservoirs; the Mississippi River Delta; the Gulf Coast; and along the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway.

"In most areas, except at Sardis Reservoir, the hunting season on these geese has been closed until the birds can build their numbers into a viable population," Wells said.

Hunting Canada geese has been permitted on Sardis Reservoir for years. Each year a migrant flock of 4,500

Rebecca is also the County Winner. She receives $5.00 for her 1st place win

Canada geese winters on Sardis Lake.

"We have expanded the size of our Sardis Refuge to allow adequate protection for the resident flock of geese we are trying to build up," Wells said.

The Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks intends to continue acquiring Canada geese over the next three years to supplement local flocks already established and to set up new release sites across Mississippi.

"We have had nothing but favorable response and assistance from sportsmen in areas where we have put these geese," Wells said.

Wells was optimistic that, in the future, sportsmen will have good hunting in addition to the recreational opportunities afforded bird watchers and photographers by these large geese.

RANGE OF VISION

If you have normal vision, you should be able to see object clearly whether they are near or far away. When your eye doctor examines your eyes he will measure your vision at a distance as well as close up. The measurement for distance vision is usually taken at 20 feet. A test for near vision is usually taken at the normal reading distance or about 14 inches.

Near vision is used for reading, sewing, eating, and any other activity in which the object you are looking at is within arms length. Distance vision is considered anything beyond that point. This would include looking at television or at people across a room, even though the distance is relatively short. You need to be clearly wherever you happen to be looking. Straining your eyes to see objects close at hand can often cause headaches and other discomfort. If you wear glasses or contact lenses or have a lens correction, see your eye doctor for an examination.

Avoiding Credit Problems
In Two-Income Families

If you are a two-income couple, you may find you qualify for more credit than either of you did alone. Responsible use of credit can extend a couple's purchasing power, add flexibility to the monthly budget and bring more financial opportunities within reach.

Because you both are employed, you may have already established credit in your individual names. If not, you may want to establish individual credit identity. In addition, you may want to establish joint credit accounts.

When both of you are responsible for debts, try to agree on how you plan to use credit. Paying creditors promptly will help protect your individual and joint credit histories. Prompt payment also will help you qualify for credit and charge cards, car or furniture installment loans and home mortgages.

If you have difficulty paying debts on credit accounts, focus on repaying obligations before making additional credit purchases. There are several steps you may want to take to limit the possibility of a negative report on your credit records.

*If you think you may be late making a payment, contact your creditor immediately, preferably before your payment becomes overdue.

*If your payments are already late, ask the creditors to help you work out a repayment plan, and make sure you make future payments according to this schedule.

If you are offered a debt consolidation loan, carefully review its terms before signing it. Such loans may involve extra costs and may require you to put your home or another asset at risk as collateral.

SOCIAL SECURITY DIRECT DEPOSIT OF SOCIAL SECURITY PAYMENTS

If you receive monthly payments of Social Security and supplemental security income (SSI) benefits, you may want to consider having them directly deposited into your checking account.

Direct deposit of these monthly payments carry the same advantages as direct deposit of payroll checks. Advantages include:

*Convenience - there's no need for special trips to the bank to cash or deposit checks;

*Reliability - the deposit is made on a specified day each month, which makes it easier to plan purchases and meet bill payments;

*Safety - the transaction is electronic, so there's no paper check to get lost or stolen; and *Economical - for the government, it cost 4 cents to make a direct deposit payment compared to 29 cents to print and mail a paper check.

DENTAL PLUS

The touch of personal care

Injuries to Young Teeth

Tooth damage is a risk for youngsters who participate in rough sports. While it's possible for a dentist to repair damage after the fact, the best course is prevention. That means wearing a mouthguard in any kind of sport or play that can inflict damage to the teeth. This includes skateboarding, which now ranks among the leading causes of chipped or broken teeth in youngsters.

If a tooth is chipped, broken or knocked out, get the youngster to the dentist within 30 minutes, along with the broken pieces or the whole tooth. In the case of a knocked-out tooth, pick it up carefully by the crown, not by the roots. Transport the tooth, or the pieces, in a glass of water or wrapped in a damp towel. Don't try to clean it off; you may remove bits of needed tissue.

Sometimes a knocked-out tooth can be reimplanted successfully, and pieces might be bonded to a broken tooth. If not, synthetic materials are used to restore or replace the affected tooth.

who read the minutes of last year's meeting and the financial report was given by Evelyn Gurley Wheeler and Bonnie Gurley Bullard, 2nd vice-president and record keeper, assisted.

The crowd has dwindled somewhat from previous meetings but visiting, reminiscing and the delicious meal was enjoyed by all. Several have said this reunion was the best ever. The group was recognized by states and the record revealed 51 from Mississippi; 3 from Tennessee; 2 from Ohio and 2 from Kentucky.

Hearts were saddened by the loss of three immediate family members - Andrew Crawford, Harlyn Patterson and Daisy Patterson Hopkins. Other family members are Aaron Crawford, an only son of the late Andrew Crawford and Nellie; Edward Lee Crawford an only son of Oscar and Angie Crawford, and Sharon Patterson, age 19, the only daughter of Louis Patterson and the granddaughter of Raymond and Ruby Patterson who met an untimely death in an automobile accident caused by two cars driven by teenagers racing side by side.

Stella Crawford Gurley, age 91, the oldest member of the Clan was again unable to attend this being the second time she has missed in 30 years. However, she was well represented by off-springs, one being a granddaughter, Emily Gurley Green, who captured the attention of every one with her sermon, it was indeed a sermon, and was the high-light of the meeting. She stressed the importance of family love and endearment and remarked how precious it was for her children to be a part of this family gathering having been gone for three years with only her immediate family. Al Green, Emily's husband, spoke at Southwood Baptist Church and later joined our group. Al, Emily and children are here on furlough from Argentina where they are serving as missionaries.

After scripture, prayer and grace for the table led by Emily, with Patsy Hester at the piano, Emily sang, "How Great Thou Art" in Spanish and led the group in singing the last stanza in English.

While the table was being prepared she had an exhibit of paraphernalia from Argentina and was happy and glad to explain the different objects on display and to tell about the culture of the Argentinians.

The door prize, a hand-made gift by Esther Crabb, was given to Jane Hester Smith and a gift, hand-made by Evelyn Wheeler, was given to Etta Crawford Hester, age 89, being the oldest member present. A small oil painting by Carlyn McHaffey was given to Elizabeth Patterson Garner, who had driven over 700 miles and whose husband, Robert Garner, was present for the first time and was heartily welcomed into the Clan.

After lunch pictures were taken of the different family groups for the scrap book and everyone seemed to greatly enjoy the day.

Mrs. Bonds
To Serve
On Committee

Susan Bonds, a teacher at Tishomingo Elementary, was one among 35 teachers in the state chosen to serve on the test item review committee for the 1990 Basic Skills Assessment Program. The meeting was held October 4, in Jackson, at the Research and Development Center Complex. The meeting began at 8:30 and lasted until 4:00. The objective of the meeting was to review test items, looking for misspelled words, incorrect punctuation, sentences, and answers too difficult, and the format of the questions to be used.

She was selected to serve on the written communication committee for third grade. Susan and two other teachers reviewed fifty experimental test items, modifying skills and distractors, and recommended changes on the test item plan. The test reflects everything a third grader should know in English and Spelling. I was very well pleased with the changes we made on the test. I feel like our students will benefit from these changes. The Basic Skills Assessment Program or BSAP test is given in the Spring to third, fifth, and eighth graders.

Susan is a graduate from Tishomingo High School, Northeast Mississippi Community College, and from the University of Mississippi with a Masters degree in Elementary Education. Susan taught one year at Senatobia, MS, and has been teaching six years at Tishomingo Elementary.

Susan was the only one chosen in northeast Mississippi to sit in on these meetings.

She is the daughter of Willis and Peggy Page and is married to Jeff Bonds of Tishomingo.

Grant Awarded

The BellSouth Foundation has awarded a grant of $300,000 to the Public School Forum of Mississippi. The grant will be awarded over a two-year period.

The FORUM is a non-partisan education policy research group whose primary concern is to act as a catalyst in the development of long-range educational policies and goals that will improve public education throughout the state, positively impact economic development, and improve the lives of all Mississippians.

"Prosperity and the vitality of the Southeast depend on improving the region's schools," said Kelly Allgood, vice president of South Central Bell operations in Mississippi, who also serves as chairman of the executive committee of the FORUM. "By promoting better education, we hope to address other regional issues such as property, unemployment, economic competitiveness, and personal and professional fulfillment of individuals."

"The goals of education reform require keen insight, innovation, and long-term resolve. Like the BellSouth Foundation, we at South Central Bell believe that these grants are a real investment in some of the most important educational issues facing our region," Allgood concluded.

This grant is the second awarded to the FORUM by the BellSouth Foundation. The first one was awarded earlier in 1989 to fund the two-month planning process to put together the FORUM. Past grant recipients in Mississippi include Mississippi State University, the University of Mississippi, and Delta State University.

The BellSouth Foundation was established by the BellSouth Corporation in 1986 to help improve education in the Southeast. The sixty-seven grants awarded thus far by the BellSouth Foundation total $9.8 million.

Other recipients in this grant cycle include Cumberland College, College, New Orleans Schools, University of Kentucky Research Foundation, Birmingham-Southern College, Florida State University/Florida A&M University, Kennesaw College, Consortium for Educational Access, Nova University, Andrews Presbyterian College, University of Illinois, and Wofford College. BellSouth Corporation telecommunications company whose subsidiaries provide telephone service in Alabama, Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee.

Rural communities under 10,000 population are eligible for the fund. The event the expected funds are not received. Forestry Commission applicants will be notified soon as possible.

Tourism Conference At Pickwick Inn

Top names in the recreation and tourism business have accepted invitations to address the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway Recreation and Tourism Conference, November 8-9, 1989 at Pickwick Landing Inn, on the shores of Pickwick Lake on the Tennessee River near Counce, Tennessee.

The Conference is sponsored by the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway Development Authority in cooperation with the Tennessee Valley Authority. The cost of the conference is $50.00. To register, please contact the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway Development Authority at (601)328-3286.

The Recreation and Tourism Conference will address ways the small entrepreneur and major investor can capitalize on the ready made recreation and tourism industry that is attracted to the new waterway.

Recreation and tourism opportunities are boundless on the waterway with over 6 million visits to the Tenn-Tom recorded in 1988. While federal, state and local authorities have constructed some recreation facilities, these do not meet the growing demand from tourist traffic. The conference will explore these opportunities as well as feature experts in the travel industry who will offer tips and insight into ways to package existing attractions, accommodations and other tourist services to tap this lucrative market potential.

Top State recreation and tourism officials from Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee and Kentucky will preside at the session.

Moderating a special "How-to" session will be Mr. Gale Trussell, Tourism Coordinator from Tennessee Valley Authority in Knoxville, Tennessee.

Topics to be covered at the conference include: "An Overview of Recreation & Tourism Potential", Ms. Sandra Fulton, Commissioner, State of Tennessee Division of Tourism, Nashville, Tennessee; "The Tenn-Tom as a Catalyst for Recreation and Tourism Development", Dr. Daniel Badger, Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, Oklahoma; "Economic Impact of Water Related Recreation and Tourism Investments", Mr. Gale Trussell; "Boating", Mr. Bernard Blasingame, Owner, Aqua Yacht Marina, luka, Mississippi; "Other Tourist Destinations", Tommy Walsh, Jr., Developer, Mill Outlet, Mountain City, Tennessee; and, "Hunting, Fishing and Other Sports", Ms. Jeanne Hartley, Wildlife Biologist, Mississippi State University, Mississippi State, Mississippi, and Dr. Lee Stribling, Wildlife Biologist, Auburn University, Auburn, Alabama.

Mr. Mike Mitchell, Assistant Director, Alabama Bureau of Tourism and Travel, Montgomery, Alabama, will preside at the Dinner Wednesday evening.

On Thursday, November 9th, the Conference will continue with "Targeting Your Market", presided by Mr. John Horn, Director, Mississippi Division of Travel and Tourism, Jackson, Mississippi; "The Aging Population", Mr. W.R. ### Stress Line

SUICIDE

Dear Dr. Morris: Someone close to me recently committed suicide. I knew they were under a lot of stress but had no idea something like this would happen. I am not feeling guilty because I did not prevent the death, but wish I knew more about the behavior of people who might be a suicide risk. What kinds of background situations are most associated with suicide? Thank you! (identity withheld by request)

RESPONSE:

Suicide is one of the ten leading causes of death in this country. It has been estimated that one out of every 10,000 Americans commit suicide each year. The following are associated with higher suicide risk:

A history of a previous attempt, especially one involving a lethal method, such as a gun;

Divorced individuals have a higher rate of suicide than do single, widowed or married individuals. (The lowest suicide rate is found among married individuals)

The older the individual, the higher the risk of suicide - the highest rate of successful attempts are 55 to 65 years old.

Depression symptoms. The majority of suicides associated with depression occur within 3 months after the beginning of improvement in depressive symptoms;

Psychological disturbances - depression is associated with approximately 50% of all suicides and alcoholism with 25%.

Life stresses - interpersonal conflicts (for example arguments with family members)

Serious illnesses of close relatives and self are two of life stressors most commonly associated with suicide attempts.

I hope this answers some of your questions.

ASCS Farm News

1989 CROP DISASTER PROGRAM OPENS

Farmers who suffered crop losses because of adverse weather and related conditions in 1988 and 1989, may be eligible for 1989 crop disaster payments. The Disaster Assistance Act of 1989 authorizes USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation service to implement the 1989 crop disaster program. The Program compensates eligible farmers for crop losses caused by drought, excessive moisture and other perils. Payments will be made in generic commodity certificates. Farmers have from September 15, 1989 to April, 1990 to apply for 1989 crop disaster payments. They must submit production records no later than April 27, 1990 to qualify for disaster payments. In administering the program, ASCS will reduce the farmer's disaster payment by the value of any crop the farmer was able to plant for harvest in 1988 to replace the crop for which disaster payments are received. The replacement value will be determined by reducing the actual replacement crop production by 25 percent, then multiplying the result by an average market price. Crop loss payments for honey producers will be based on the difference between actual and historical production per hive. Farmers who were prevented from planting crops, or whose crops were planted and subsequently failed on land in a flood or flowage easement area will be eligible for disaster benefits even if the losses resulted from flooding. Farmers will not be permitted to use multiple peril crop insurance yields for determining losses under the 1989 disaster program, nor will additional disaster payments be made to producers on crops that suffer losses resulting from reduced quality other than on nonprogram crops which are considered unmarketable. In calculating disaster benefits, 70 percent of the production that is determined unmarketable will be excluded.

The 1989 crop disaster program also includes cost-share assistance for replanting commercial orchard and nut trees that died because of freezing weather conditions and for commercial seedlings planted in 1988 and 1989 that were killed by drought conditions.

In addition to these measures, ASCS is currently administering other emergency programs to assist drought-stricken farmers. These programs include haying and grazing of land designated as acreage conservation reserve and conservation use for payment acreage, the Emergency Feed Assistance Program, zero/92 deficiency payments and the Emergency Feed Program.

Further details of the 1989 crop disaster program and other drought-assistance information may be obtained from the local ASCS office.

Head North For Best Look At Fall Colors

If it's the vivid colors of autumn you're looking for, you had best head north, and soon.

While the northern counties of Mississippi experience the colorful changes of the landscape, central and southern counties usually only get a hint of fall's leaf colors.

"The most vivid displays of color can be found from Tennessee to Vermont, where there is a more definite change in the seasons than we have in Mississippi," said Dr. Andy Ezell, forestry specialist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

Some people believe the changing of leaf color is the result of frost, but leaves often begin to turn before the first frost. The Indians thought it was because the celestial hunters had slain the Great Bear, and his blood drippings on the forests changed many trees to red.

But changing leaf color is the normal chemical process of trees preparing for winter. During the spring and summer the leaves serve as factories where foods necessary for the trees' growth are manufactured. This food-making is carried on by small green bodies called chlorophyll--thus the green color of leaves.

As cooler temperatures arrive, the food-making processes slow down, chlorophyll stops dominating leaf color and other pigments show through--thus the reds, yellows and golds of fall.

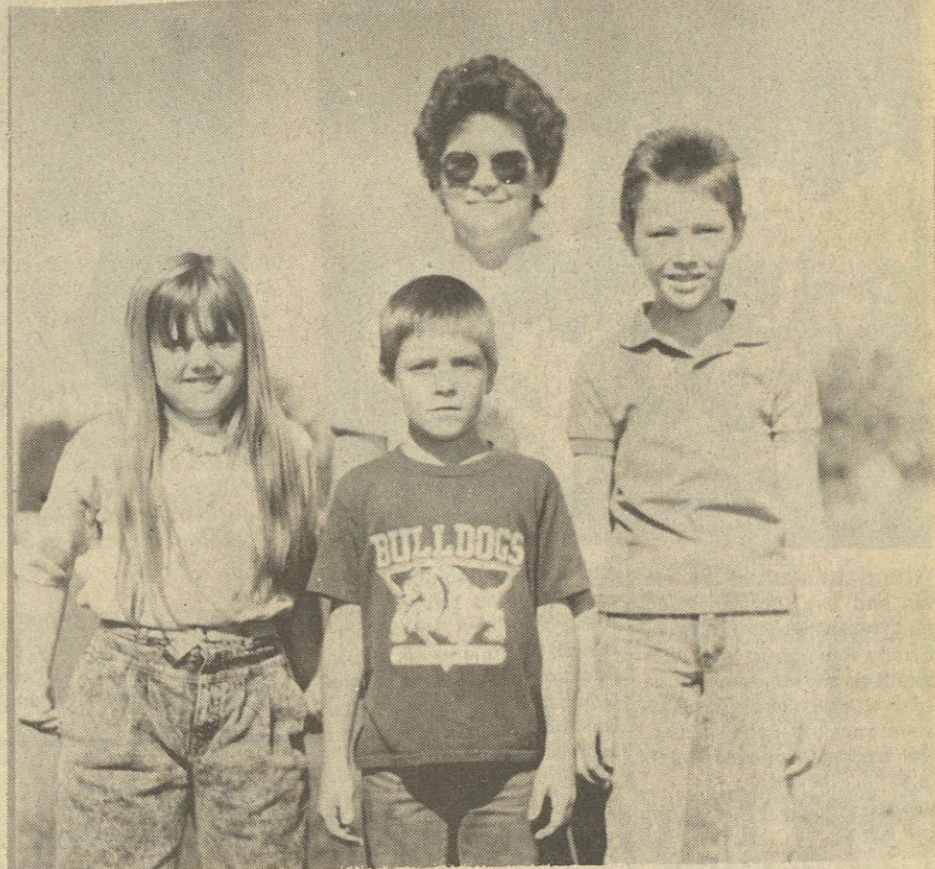

"A cool, moist fall will enhance leaf color," Ezell said. "And, early cool spells will push up the timetable for peak leaf color."

Ezell said leaves in north Mississippi should reach their peak this fall before October 21.

Some of the trees with the most brilliant display of color are black gum and sourwood, which turn a vibrant red; sweet gum, which displays a variety of colors including wine, red, deep purple and yellow; dogwood leaves turn orange and red; and walnut provides yellow in the landscape.

Ezell said the oak varieties have less color than most other hardwoods and usually turn from green to brown with some orange color seen in the process.

The conifers--pines, spruces, firs, cedars and hemlocks--do not have a definite time for leaf shedding. Their green color takes on a slightly brownish tinge, which gives way to a lighter color in the spring.

Job Service Finds Jobs

Job Service offices around the state last year found jobs for 7,407 veterans, according to Linda Ross Aldy, executive director of the Mississippi Employment Security Commission. Of that number, 3,071 were Vietnam-era veterans and 331 were disabled.

"We take every measure to make sure no veteran who wants to work goes without a job or training and assistance needed to get that job," she said.

Every Job Service office in Mississippi gives veterans priority in counseling, testing, job development, referral and placement in job openings. A specially trained Local Veterans Employment Representative in each office in the state works directly with veterans.

Disabled Veterans' Outreach Program workers in 16 select locations in Mississippi provide disabled and Vietnam era veterans with special help to obtain employment and training. The staff develop networks of employer contacts and work with community groups and veteran organizations in their efforts to find jobs for clients. These outreach workers are assigned to areas to Mississippi with the highest populations of veterans.

Veterans who need assistance or program information should call the local

Breathing Isn't Always Easy

If you have ever been in a situation where you couldn't breathe, like under water just a little too long or in some kind of a smothering situation, you can begin to get an appreciation for what the sufferer of asthma, bronchitis, emphysema or pneumonia may go through when they can't breathe.

Under normal circumstances the lungs will excrete approximately two teacupfuls of water a day. If more than that amount builds up to the lungs, the lungs will tend to become congested and inflamed. Then the least bit of pollen or chemical irritation (including excessive congested foods) may result in symptoms of asthma, bronchitis, emphysema or pneumonia.

The body's eliminative system is composed of the lungs, skin, mucous membranes, kidneys and bowels and is controlled by the nerves from the brain down through the spine to the various organs of elimination. Any irritation or interference to these nerves would result in less than 100% function.

To insure proper elimination of the body's waste byproducts through all the organs of elimination, it is very important that the nervous system is functioning 100%.

If you know of someone suffering with breathing problems, please tell them to call our office now for an appointment. Normal breathing may only be a phone call away!

Iuka High School marching band, under the direction of Robert Bruce, spent many long, tiring hours throughout the summer months and into the fall, preparing the show that has been seen during half-time at football games. This presentation is the one band will use at various marching band contests across the state and in Alabama. The straight lines and boxy sets of the past have been replaced with the fluid, curving and movements that are characteristic of the latest trends in Drum and Bugle Corps. And Iuka's band is entertaining the crowd with dance steps, their sound effects, and their presentation of songs that are long favorites of the people. This year's show includes "Celebrate", "Born To Be Wild", "Heartbreak Hotel", and "Are You Gonna Stay Tonight". To add to the band's effectiveness in the field, they are sporting beautiful new black and white uniforms for both the band and the color guard. Under the field direction of Tammie McGee, Drum major, "the sound of Excellence", as the band is called, fields 61 members. Other than performing at football games and marching in parades, the band's most concentrated effort goes into the marching band competitions in which they enter. Last Saturday, October 14, Iuka's band traveled to Russellville, Alabama where the bands competed for Kings and Best in Class. Our band came home with an Excellent rating, along with an excellent rating for the drum major. This year's color guard and percussion section both were awarded Superior ratings. This weekend the band goes to Midfield, Alabama outside of Birmingham where they once again will compete in these areas. Their goal is to get eight superiors and to capture the Best in Class award. Band leaders for the 1989-90 year include Gerri Lea Bonds, flutes; Mandy Robertson, clarinets; Chris Trickey, saxophones; Laura Kitchens, trumpets; Mark Lambert and Leah Lambert, low brass; Eric Bonds, percussion; Pam Larson, color guard; and Tameika Welch, co-captain, color guard. Members of the band are: Flute - Gerri Lea Bonds, Cari Frye, Melissa Grimsby, Stacy Grisham, Clarinet - Mandy Roberts,

Iuka Tops Mooreville

It took a good defensive effort and one overtime period but the Iuka Chieftains came up with a big homecoming victory over Mooreville Friday night.

The first quarter saw the offensive units for both teams fail to move the ball.

In the second quarter following a Chieftain punt Mooreville drove to the Iuka 37. The drive was stopped when Corese Dilworth intercepted a pass at the seven yard line. But two plays later Iuka tumbled and Mooreville recovered at the Chieftain 17 yard line. This set up the first score of the game on a one yard run by Bubba Pomeroy. The PAT was no good and Mooreville led 6-0 with 2:45 to play in the first half. Iuka was able to move the ball to mid-field but again a fumble stopped the drive. Mooreville picked up a first down but then Richy Harrelson picked off a deflected pass and when the first half ended Mooreville took a six point lead to the locker room.

Iuka wasted little time getting the offense on track in the third quarter moving 61 yards in 13 plays for a touchdown. Anthony Walker ran 6 yards for the score. The PAT was no good and the game was tied at 6-6. Jason Cutshall came up with an interception late in the third quarter but the Chieftains were unable to take advantage and after both teams exchanged punts the third quarter ended.

The defensive battle continued through the fourth quarter. Iuka had a chance to take the lead with less than 3 minutes to play but a 30 yard field goal attempt was wide to the right. The fourth quarter ended sending the game into overtime.

In the overtime period Mooreville got the ball first at the 10 yard line. The Chieftains held on third down and the Troopers missed a field goal. Iuka was then given the ball at the ten and on second down Anthony Walker scored the game winning touchdown from 5 yards out. The final score was 12-6. This week Iuka travels to Belmont.

Tishomingo Falls To Walnut

The Bulldogs took the early lead when Shane Hill scored from 3 yard out. The PAT failed and Tishomingo led 6-0. Walnut was able to tie the score in the first quarter when Paul Carter snagged a 14 yard touchdown pass. The extra point was no good.

The Bulldog offense responded with a score putting together a drive that ended on a one yard run by Jeff Daniel. The PAT again failed and the score was 12-6. The only score of the second quarter belonged to Walnut after Carter scored his second touchdown of the night on a six yard pass reception for a score. The conversion made the score Walnut 14, Tishomingo 12.

In the third quarter the Bulldogs fought back to take the lead on an 11 yard touchdown run by Hill. The two point conversion made the score 20-14.

But in the fourth quarter Walnut added a pair of touchdowns to take the win 27-20 over the Bulldogs.

Waterloo Defeats Burnsville

Burnsville traveled to Waterloo, Alabama Friday night. They lost to the Cougars 46-23.

The Mustangs scored first taking the opening kickoff 80 yards for a touchdown and with the PAT held an early 7-0 lead.

The Cougars responded with two touchdowns on runs of 47 and 69 yards of Teddy Kavich. The first half ended with Burnsville trailing 18-7.

Kavich provided more excitement in the third quarter taking the second half kickoff 85 yards for a score.

Burnsville narrowed the lead with a touchdown and a 2 point conversion making the score 24-15. Waterloo pulled a way late in the third quarter with a touchdown and 2 point conversion. Each team scored once more in the fourth quarter bringing the final score to 46-23.

National Fire Prevention Week

In an effort to promote National Fire Prevention Week October 8-14, Tishomingo County Fire Fighters visited all four county elementary schools. A film "Plan to get out alive" was shown to 4th-6th graders by Fire Coordinator

Jerry Bonds and members of the County's Fire Department.

Some of the safety tips mentioned in the film are listed below:

- 1) Choose only smoke detectors that are tested and rated by Underwriters Laboratories.
- 2) Locate detectors on each level of your home, and especially in hallways

Ceiling near the bedroom.

3) Maintain detectors by testing batteries and replacing weak ones as soon as possible.

Booklets on fire safety were given to each third grader. Special thanks go to Mr. Charles Monroe and Farm Bureau Insurance for providing these booklets.

In 1988 over 6,000 persons died as a result of fire related injuries nationwide. In Mississippi, 119 persons died from fire-related injuries. By promoting fire safety, this number could be 100 or less by 1990.

Prevention is the First Rule of Fire Safety!

Fire Fighting Program

The Burnsville Public Library was excited about presenting a program by the Burnsville Volunteer fire fighters on what a volunteer fire fighter really does and how he helps the community. A tour of the fire truck and how it operates was given by Rickey C. Cummings, Howard Ragan and Nicky Cummings.

Rickey Cummings and Howard Ragan gave a detailed description on the gear and equipment and how it is correctly used in a real fire. Mr. Ragan demonstrated how to dress in fire fighters gear. Rickey and Nicky Cummings also answered questions about the fire truck. Howard Ragan and Rickey Cummings answered questions asked by the Burnsville Elementary and Burnsville Headstart children.

The program took place at the Burnsville Public Library on the 11th and 12th of October. Four Hundred and fifty Eight students and teachers attended and took part in the program. Mrs. Donna Brown, Burnsville Public Library, wishes to thank the Burnsville Volunteer Fire Department for presenting the program and the Burnsville Elementary and Burnsville Headstart children and everyone who made this program

JONAH

By Lollie Castleberry

God spoke to Jonah, "Go to Ninevah, their wickedness is come before me."

But Jonah heeded not the word of God, from his presence did flee.

He hurried down to Joppa, a ship he found to ride.

Fleeing from the Lord he looked for a place to hide.

The Lord knows our every thought, each deed, each act, he will know.

Jonah was no exception, we reap just what we sow.

The ship was going to Tarshish, Jonah paid his fare that day.

He went down in the side of the ship and there asleep did lay. God sent a great wind and tempest. The mariner knew Jonah had fled.

He obeyed not the Word of God and now was causing great dread.

The storm raged, the winds high, the mighty waves did roll.

The mariner afraid, called on their God. The ship would wreck on the shoals.

The mariner took Jonah up and cast him into the ragin sea.

Immediately the storm ceased. They feared the Lord exceedingly.

Jonah knew as you and I that he had not done right.

He did not escape from God's wrath or his power in his flight.

A fish to swallow Jonah up was prepared by the Lord's hand.

Three days and nights, in the belly of the fish, then vomited on dry land.

The water rolled, and the depths closed around, seaweeds wrapped his head.

He went to the mountain's bottoms and earthbars were overhead.

Delivered by the hand of God, he spoke to Jonah the second time you see.

"Arise, go to Ninevah and preach as I bid thee."

Jonah went to Ninevah, a journey of three days away.

He made the trip, entering the gates in only a single day.

Jonah cried "The city of Ninevah shall be destroyed, yet in forty days."

The people believe on God and turned from their wicked ways.

Everyone Profits From Aluminum Can Recycling

From Trash to Treasure....

At first their novelty was convenience, then they became a nuisance along roads and highways. Now they represent cold, hard cash and one of the most successful recycling projects in the United States.

Every day millions of products are sold in aluminum cans, and more than half of the used cans are collected and returned to recycling centers.

Martin Fox, secretary/treasurer of Aluminum Recycling of Mississippi Inc. also known by the tradename the Can Man, said their recycling center in Jackson bought about 2 million pounds of aluminum last year.

Reynolds Aluminum Recycling Co., a national recycler of aluminum, has paid out almost $1 billion to recyclers since the late 1960s.

Fox said at the Can Man's prices for aluminum, empty cans are worth about 1.68 cents each, or 42 cents a pound. The national average is about 37 cents a pound.

Despite a persistent rumor that aluminum can tabs are worth from $70 to $100 a gallon, Fox said tabs, like the cans, are only worth 42 cents a pound.

"I checked with the aluminum tab manufacturers, I contacted the Kidney Foundation, and there is no special program to recycle the tabs," Fox said. "But I bet I get 150 calls a day from people wanting to know what their tabs are worth."

In an effort to dispel the rumor, Reynolds Aluminum entered a program where individuals can bring cans to a Reynolds recycling center and designate their profits go to the American Kidney Foundation.

Who are the typical recyclers? "Smart ones," Martin said. "There is a large variation in the people who bring cans to us, from the skid row bum to the people with cans in the trunks of their Continentals."

Martin said interest in recycling continues to increase as more people become aware of the need to recycle and of the money involved.

Dr. Carol Short, an energy program specialist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service, said by the year 2000, container manufacturers expect to collect 75 percent of the 50 billion beverage cans thrown away each year.

"Recycling saves energy and the fuels used to produce it," Short said. "Once produced, used and recovered, the aluminum can is completely recyclable. By recycling just one aluminum can, we save enough energy to keep a 100-watt bulb burning about three and a half hours."

For each pound of metal recycled, the aluminum industry saves the energy resources needed to generate about 7.5 kilowatt-hours of electricity.

"In 1986 the aluminum industry saved enough energy to meet the electric needs for about six years of a city like Pittsburgh, Pa.," Short said.

Can recycling also created about 30,000 new jobs at recycling centers, at aluminum companies and the transportation support industries. It also created jobs in the can-processing-equipment industries that support the recycling effort.

Short said numerous recycling centers are located throughout the state and are listed in the yellow pages of the telephone book.

Cans do not have to be smashed before delivering them to recycling centers. And, most centers take any quantities of more than one pound.

Pan, a Greek god, was believed to delight in frightening travelers. The word "panic," derives from his name.

Pre-Planning Provides Peace of Mind & Substantial Savings

Because some day, someone in every family will be faced with making funeral arrangements for a loved one, a Pre-Need Plan offered through Cutshall Funeral Home is designed to take unnecessary hardships out of a death in a family.

One big advantage of planning in advance is that a funeral is planned at today's values. While prices are escalating, your cost remains the same. You have greater flexibility than a pre-need trust or pre-paid funeral.

Example: A person pre-planning a $3,000 funeral at age 65 would pay $2,223, saving $777.00. At age 50 that person would pay $1,771, saving $1,229. (These figures are for example and funeral of different price and for persons of different ages would reflect similar savings. This pre-need plan offered through American Funeral Assurance Company is available from age 0 to 100)

Remember the Cutshall Pre-Need Funeral Plan offered through American Funeral Assurance Company guarantees future values at today's prices, regardless of the rate of inflation.

Find out how easy and beneficial a Pre-Need Plan provided through Cutshall Funeral Home can be. Mail this coupon or call for an appointment with one of our professional planners.

County Agents Notes

IMPORTANT FOREST PRODUCT
Most people in Tishomingo County don't think of water as a forest product, yet our forests collect, clean, regulate and recycle water we drink and use every day. The average person in Tishomingo County can use more than 180 gallons of water a day.

Forests are natural water regulators. Forest soil can absorb up to 18 inches of water from rain or melting snow and then release the water back into natural channels and courses. It cleanses water too by removing impurities.
That's why the closer water is to the forest, the cleaner it is. Many municipal reservoirs are located as close as possible to forests because of their cleansing properties.

BEEF MANAGEMENT TIPS
Things have been rosy in the cattle business for the last several years. Prices have stayed up, and many producers have been able to pay off debts and recoup losses.
What goes up must come down, and this includes cattle prices. Fall would be a good time to get cattle operations in order so they can remain profitable when prices drop.

Don't "poor-mouth" the cattle business and complain about lack of profit if your operation is not in good order. If you insist, however, on being unsuccessful, here's how to do it:
**Let the bull run with the cow herd year-round.
**Never cull a poor producing cow.
**Never plan a year-round feeding program.
**Never provide cattle with salt and minerals.

The Vo-Tech Morning Section of the FBLA Club is proud to announce their election of officers for 1989-90. Serving as President-Kristie Starkey; Vice President-Shannon Selman; Secretary/Treasurer-Kim Ponder; and Reporter - Tisha Wanner. Mrs. Donna Hester is the Club Advisor.

To help the Club get a headstart in the business world, plans are being made to have many guest speakers throughout the year. Also, the club plans to show its gratitude to the community through a Service project.

The Club plans to take some educational trips including the Northern District FBLA Leadership Conference to be held on February 1, 1990 at Itawamba Community College, Tupelo Campus.

In order to finance these activities, the club has successfully completed one fund-raising project. Other fund raising projects will be planned as needed.

We look forward to having a successful and active year.

paratrooper drop, static display aircraft and a performance by the Air Force Academy sabre drill team.

The day begins with a five-kilometer run at 8 a.m. Registration will be taken at the base athletic center starting at 7 a.m. The top three runners in each age group will be awarded prizes. All runners will receive T-shirts and be eligible for door prizes.

A remote controlled model aircraft demonstration will begin at 9 a.m., followed by a T-37 fly by at 10 a.m. At 10:10 a.m. the Academy's sabre drill team will give their first performance of the day, followed at 10:30 a.m. by a fly by of the vintage Pitts Special, a world renowned barnstormer aircraft.

At 10:46 a.m. a seven-man combat control team from the 1st Special Operations Wing at Eglin AFB, FL, will jump out of a World War II C-47 aircraft. The team will free fall until they reach a low altitude and then open their parachutes -- a maneuver used to drop behind enemy lines.

A series of aerial demonstrations and fly bys will begin at 11 a.m. First, a C-130 Hercules will perform an assault takeoff and landing, which would be used to avoid ground fire. A T-33 Shooting Star fly by begins at 11:30 a.m., followed by an F-111 fly by. The T-33 is a jet trainer version of the F-80 jet fighter aircraft and the F-111 is tactical strike aircraft that can fly at supersonic speeds and operate from tree-top level to altitudes above 60,000 feet.

At noon, a single vintage aircraft will perform aerobatics maneuvers to give visitors a preview of the vintage aircraft show at 2 p.m.

At 12:20 p.m. the Mississippi State University glider aircraft club will give a demonstration, followed at 12:55 p.m. by the Academy's sabre drill team's final performance.

The A-10 Thunderbolt II close air support aircraft airfield attack demonstration begins at 1 p.m., followed by a MiG-15 demonstration at 1:16 p.m.

The MiG-15 is one of five Russian fighters acquired from the Peoples Republic of China in 1986 by the Combat Jet Museum in Chino, Calif. The aircraft were modified for flight in North America and marked in English. However, the Russian paint scheme and some Russian markings have been preserved.

A Navy F-18 fighter will demonstrate its flying capabilities at 1:26 p.m., followed by an Air Force F-4 aircraft in an airfield attack demonstration at 1:36 p.m. The F-4s and a KC-135 will perform a mock aerial refueling at 1:50 p.m., followed by the Army's 82nd Airborne Division's mass paratrooper drop at 1:55 p.m.

At 2 p.m. the Valiant Air Command of Titusville, FL, will take to the skies with an hour-long air show saluting the Air Force heritage.

VAC is a chartered, non-profit, aviation museum organization dedicated to finding and preserving historic military aircraft. About 20 of these historic "warbirds" will recreate World War II aerial combat displays with realistic low-level bombing and explosions, dogfights and strafing.

At 3 p.m. the VAC will conduct a drawing for a free ride in the Pitts Special. Only visitors who make a donation to the VAC are eligible for the drawing.

Numerous military aircraft and hardware will be on display throughout the day, including Army helicopters and tanks, Navy trainer and fighter aircraft and one of almost every aircraft in the Air Force inventory.

Throughout the day an Air Force band will provide music on the flight line and a German oompah band will perform from 1 to 5 p.m. in hangar No. 2 near the flight line. Beer and German food also will be available in the hangar. Additionally, food and beverages also will be available at flight line locations throughout the day.

Visitors may enter the base from Highway 45 by the east gate and from Highway 373 by the south or north gate. Handicapped guests and those arriving by bus should use the east gate. Handicapped people also should identify themselves to the security police to be directed to special parking areas.

During the Middle Ages, the year began at various dates in different times and places. In England it was not until 1751 that January was restored to its place as first month, as it had been during the Roman era.

New Salem Club

On Thursday, October 12, 1989 the new Salem Homemaker's Club met in the home of Faye Barnes. President Marie Lynch called the meeting to order with the thought for the month - at every moment of our lives we should be trying to find out, not in what we differ with others but in what we agree with them. The devotional was given by Faye Barnes - Mark 4:23-39.

The demonstration on lowering cholesterol was given by Marie Lynch. She gave six steps to follow in lowering cholesterol:

1. Eat fewer foods high in fat and cholesterol.
2. Eat more low-fat, high-fiber foods.
3. Use less fat in cooking.

4. Eat less saturated fats, read labels.
5. Eat fewer sweets use artificial sweeteners to lower triglycerides.
6. Exercise more, in open air if possible.

Educational notes on fireworks safety, given by Faye Barnes. Discuss guidelines with your children. Review you safety rules together before the celebration begins. Demonstrate how to extinguish fireworks by using water or an extinguisher. Read labels and directions carefully. The best plan may be to replace home fireworks with annual outings to professional displays.

Educational Notes House Cleaning, by Willie Mae Robinson. Good organization is one of the keys to easy cleaning. Stock up on the necessary cleaning supplies. Check the household inventory for items such as dustpan, broom, sponges, dustclothes, scouring brushes and rubber gloves. Begin a thorough cleaning in the storage areas. Start with the major areas such as basement, garage, workshop, maybe even the attic. Avoid fatigue by taking rest breaks. Everyone has a different energy cycle. Some people need a 5 minute break every hour; others can work well with 15 minutes "off" every two hours.

Plans were made to start working on things for the Christmas fair and toys for the hospital.

The minutes and report read and approved.

Marie Lynch will host the next meeting November 9, 1989 at 1:30.

The meeting adjourned and refreshments were served.

districts also will receive plaques recognizing their achievements in presentations at a meeting of the Mississippi Association of Conservation Districts. In addition, plaques will be presented to the outstanding cooperators selected in all of the competing districts in the state.

Retirees To Meet In Corinth

L.D. Phifer, a former County Game Warden and longtime state employee of Iuka and County Chairman of Organization and Membership of the Mississippi Retired Public Employees' Association, announced a four county meeting of Public Employee retirees at the Holiday Inn in Corinth at 10:00 o'clock A.M. on Tuesday, October 24th. Counties included are Tishomingo, Alcorn, Prentiss and Tippah.

Phifer in a statement urging a large attendance and active participation called this "a most important meeting to protect the interests and well being of present and future retirees of the Mississippi Public Employees' Retirement System and an opportunity to obtain information vitally needed to safeguard their interests and concerns."

Aldridge and Bivins in a joint statement said: "Our trust funds have reached over four billion dollars, and the temptation is great to borrow or reach into these funds and use them for purposes contrary to the intent of the system and to the detriment of present and future retirees. We must not allow this to happen. The Constitutional Amendment, Resolution 518, proposed by our association and adopted by Mississippi voters in 1986 by an 85% approval vote will aid materially, but of itself will not fully protect our funds. Over 40 bills were introduced in the last legislative session affecting us. We need an increased membership and more viable County organizations to help us defeat the bad proposals and to pass needed legislation. Our legislative agenda will be ready for submittal to the 1990 Legislature. We urge all public employees to join in our membership efforts, and our doors have been opened to all city, county, and state employees covered by the system to join as associate members. Your membership and activity are the best safeguards we have."

Friends Of The Library Hold State Meeting

Iuka resident Bill Stahl has been selected to participate in the ideas in Action program scheduled to take place during the statewide Friends of Mississippi Libraries meeting in Natchez. The Friends meeting is being held in conjunction with the annual Mississippi Library Association conference, October 24-27.

The show and tell program features exhibits manned by volunteers throughout the state. Presenters such as Stahl will share ideas with participants on ways to support community libraries.

Stahl, a member of Friends of the Iuka Library, will contribute to the "Junior Friends of the Library" section of the workshop. Other topics include literacy programs, how to organize junior friends of the library, book sales, fund raising parties, unusual fund raising ideas, history-related programs, newsletters, membership, scrapbooks and displays, plus numerous others.

Service Center Open Longer Hours

South Central Bell's residence service center is now open longer hours.

This should make it easier and more convenient for many customers to take care of their telephone service needs, according to Tom Bailey, District Manager.

The new office hours will be 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, he said. The office was previously open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Bailey said the company is extending the office hours to offer customers greater flexibility in doing business with South Central Bell.

"Research has shown that our traditional hours no longer adequately meet today's customers needs for handling home telephone service," Bailey explained. "There are an increasing number of single households and dual-career households, where working people may find it difficult to call the business office during their own working hours."

"We're trying to respond to the changing needs of our customers and give them the quality of service they deserve."

Customers can call the service center to establish, transfer or disconnect home telephone service. Service representatives will also assist them with billing questions or place orders for additional features such as Custom Calling Services or RingMaster (R) service.

In addition, 24-hour service is available for certain transactions through an automated business office service called RightTouch(R) service, Bailey said. By pushing the buttons of a touch-tone telephone, residence customers can get account information, order duplicate bills, make payment arrangements, order Custom Calling Services, or disconnect service. To use Right-Touch service, customers should dial 1+577-7777, toll-free.

The telephone numbers for local residence service centers are listed in the Customer Guide pages in the front of the South Central Bell telephone directory.

Customers Get First Ballot

South Central Bell customers in Iuka can now choose which long distance company they want to carry most of their "1+" and "0+" calls.

This month Iuka customers whose numbers begin with 423 will receive ballots to use in choosing which long distance company they want.

The effort to get customers to choose is part of the plan to provide "equal access," which gives customers their choice of long distance companies for "1+" and "0+" calls.

"The whole idea of equal access is to give customers a choice. It's important that customers take advantage of that choice," said Tom Bailey, district manager.

Each customer should return the ballot to make sure he is signed up with the company he wants to use, Bailey said.

Any customer who does not select a long distance company will have one tentatively assigned to him on a random basis, but he will have a chance to change that assignment.

South Central Bell will send a second ballot to every customer who fails to return the first one. Accompanying the second ballot will be a letter telling the customer which long distance company he has been assigned. By filling out the second ballot and returning it, the customer still may choose a company. Otherwise his long distance calls will begin to go through the company he had been tentatively assigned.

The percentage of customers assigned each long distance company will be based on the percentage who selected it on the earlier ballot. For example, if 60 percent of the customers returning the first ballot selected a certain company, 60 percent of those who did not select would be assigned that company.

Five companies are offering "1+" and "0+" long distance service in Iuka. They are: SoutherNet, MCI, AT & T, LDDS and US Sprint. No matter which long distance company the customer selects as his "preferred" company, South Central Bell will continue to carry "1+" and "0+" calls inside its geographic service areas, or calling zones.

Wildlife Initiative Launched

The Northeast Mississippi Initiative was launched today by the Mississippi Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks in an effort to bolster deer and turkey populations in a seven-county area.

Agency game biologists and administrators say the program was started because of the low deer and turkey populations that have existed for years in the Northeast Mississippi counties of Itawamba (north of Highway 78), Tishomingo, Prentiss, Alcorn, Lee, Pontotoc, Chickasaw.

Experts say illegal game populations in counties.

Agency officials say that the key ingredient in improving deer, turkey and game populations in any area, is to change attitudes of hunters and downers in the affected areas.

Biologists say hunters must be more education-minded and more of the wildlife work before this initiative work.

The wildlife department is taking steps to meetings with all personnel in the target areas and explain to them parts in the initiative.

Workshops will be created interest and ideas from area hunters.

The department will begin working to other resource agencies such as the Conservation Service, Cooperative Extension Service, and the Mississippi Forestry Commission new wildlife initiative.
