I feel that my past service and record qualifies me to be a member of the board.

I am a life long resident of Tishomingo County and will act in the best interests of all Tishomingo County residents.

I would appreciate you casting your votes for James Red Thornton on Saturday, August 25, 1990.

Holcut To Register Voters Saturday

Register Now To Vote On November 6th

A voting precinct will be reinstated at Holcut for the upcoming November election. All residents of the Holcut area who have not received cards in the mail from the Tishomingo County circuit clerk will have an opportunity to register Saturday, August 25, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at the new community center in Holcut. Residents are reminded that they must be registered 30 days prior to Nov. 6 to vote in the election.

ASRM Information Line Available

A new ASRM Information Line now offers residents in the Tri-State region the current status on hiring for the Advanced Solid Rocket Motor (ASRM) program. A recorded message, which will be updated on a regular basis can be heard by dialing (601)423-2058.

County Residents To Vote On 911 Service

Tishomingo County residents will get a chance to vote on implementing the Enhanced 911 telephone service in the next general election which will be November 6, 1990.

The 911 system has been promoted by 1989 Leadership Tishomingo Team 4 which is composed of Steve Cain, David Moody, Cornelia Emmons, Willie Robinson, and Betty Young. The Tishomingo Board of Supervisors has established a 911 Commission which is made up of the Leadership Tishomingo Team plus Supervisor Ricky Cummings and Tishomingo County Fire Coordinator Jerry Bonds. This Commission has planned a publicity campaign to educate the voters prior to the November election. Members of the commission are available to present programs to civic groups. A video presentation is used for such meetings. Fire Coordinator Jerry Bonds will emphasize E-911 during Fire Prevention Week in October.

E-911 is a centralized computer answering service for emergency telephone calls. When a caller dials 911, he will reach a trained dispatcher who will view a computer screen with the dialer's address displayed. All the dispatcher needs to know is the type of assistance needed. The operator will then forward the information to the appropriate emergency response department which might be medical, fire, or law enforcement. The system is so simple that young children can be taught to dial 911 when help is needed.

An improved emergency communications system will improve a fire department's response time thus achieving a more favorable fire rating for the county. A better fire rating will result in lower homeowner's insurance costs.

To fund the implementation and operation of the E-911 system, a surcharge will be added to the telephone customer's monthly bill. The cost of 911 to Tishomingo County residents has been estimated to be $.75 per month. The majority of counties in Northeast Mississippi have previously favorably adopted the E-911 system by public vote.

Area residents are encouraged to contact any of the commission members for more information on this important issue. The commission is requesting donations to fund their publicity budget to cover such items as brochures, media advertising, and billboards. Individuals or businesses wishing to make a contribution may contact any commission member or mail their donation to: Leadership Tishomingo E-911 Project, P.O. Box 357, Iuka, MS 38852.

T.C.E.P.A. Run-off Election Set For Saturday, Aug. 25

Results of the election for the Board of Directors of Tishomingo County Electric Power Association held Saturday, August 18, 1990, require a run-off to decide the position for the board member for the third supervisor's district.

Millard Kent and James N. Thornton each received 107 votes and David Robinson received 97 votes. Kent and Thornton will be on Saturday's ballot. Cliff Daniel, Lucien Eperson, and Paul Whitlock were unopposed and re-elected to three year terms.

The following polling places will be open on Saturday, August 25, 1990, from 8:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m.: Belmont City Hall, Tishomingo Bank, Midway School, Tishomingo County Courthouse, and First American National Bank at Burnsville.

All members of the Association are encouraged to vote.

Environmental Quality Reviews NASA Permit

The state Department of Environmental Quality has completed a preliminary review of a permit submitted by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration to construct manufacturing facilities for the advanced solid rocket motor plant at Yellow Creek.

Dwight Wylie, chief of the department's air division, said that NASA's permit was received in July. An initial review of the permit has been conducted, and NASA would soon receive a response containing questions and requesting further information on the project, Wylie said.

NASA will then respond by providing the information, which the state will in turn evaluate. This type of exchange of information between both parties, which is customary, will take an indefinite amount of time to complete, Wylie said.

When all questions are answered, the division will formulate a draft permit, Wylie said.

Public participation will be invited before the permit is finalized. A public meeting will be held to explain the terms of the permit and hear public input on the project, Wylie said.

The division, a branch of the state bureau of pollution control, held a public meeting in May before the permit process had officially begun. Members of an environmental activist group expressed strong opposition to the ASRM plant during the meeting, which was held in Iuka.

NASA must apply for and receive an environmental permit since it plans to burn waste solid rocket motor fuel at the plant site. This waste fuel is classified as hazardous waste.

NASA officials have said that the open burning of waste propellant will be the plant's largest source of air emission.

The application, submitted by the Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, was over 10 pages and contained lengthy supporting documents, Wylie said.

Contract Awarded For Site Development Of New Magnet School

D.B. Johnson Construction Co. of Iuka was awarded a $1,461,209.52 contract for the site development of the new magnet school to be located on highway 72 between Iuka and Burnsville.

The firm was the apparent low bidder and will be responsible for clearing the site, putting in all storm drainage, streets, curbs, gutters, parking areas and preparing the ground for the athletic fields.

D.B. Johnson Construction was awarded the contract on Tuesday evening, August 21, at the Iuka and Tishomingo County joint school board meeting.

The company was on the site at 6:00 Wednesday morning to begin the work.

Construction Planned For Condominiums

Construction is to begin this fall for a $10 million luxury condominium building at Pickwick Lake, on the Mississippi side of the Miss.-Tenn. state line in Tishomingo County.

Aqua Yacht Harbor Towers will offer about 66 units, ranging from studio units to spacious penthouses. Preselling for the six-story complex has recently begun, said Jim Baker, president of Sunbelt Financial Securities, Inc. of Memphis.

Baker is serving as project director for Aqua Yacht Harbor, Corp., Inc., developer of the condominiums.

"The structure is being designed to complement the lifestyle and growing demand at Aqua Yacht Harbor, one of the nation's largest inland yacht anchorages," said Baker. "With its amenities and location, we feel the project will offer the best of the carefree, relaxed lifestyle for which the lakeside community at Pickwick is known," he said.

Paul D. Callens Realty, which specializes in Pickwick Lake property, is the exclusive listing agency for the condos. Beth Davis, Iuka broker for Callens, said that "sales are brisk right now" for the proposed building.

Preselling prices for the condos start at about $68,750, Davis said. There are ten different floor plans available, ranging from the basic studio to a plush three-bedroom, two-bath penthouse with 1,395 square feet of living space, including the balcony.

"The building's concept, with little or no maintenance, and the amenities, should be appealing to people wanting an extension of their living space," Davis said.

Among the tower's features are a heated indoor/outdoor pool, weight training and fitness center, dining room, tennis court, and private club. Also available will be executive office services for business or personal needs including office machines, telephones, and message and paging center. Professional security will be provided, limiting access to residents and guests.

Individual units will be furnished with microwave, refrigerator and ice maker, and disposal. Optional features for the buyer include range/oven, trash compactor, washer and dryer, whirlpool tubs, steam showers, and handicap options. The units will be prewired for cable television, telephone, and intercom.

Owners who pre-buy will have some choices of colors and patterns in decorating their homes, Davis said.

The planned condos will be an extension of the present Aqua Yacht Harbor, which has about 600 boat slips, yacht sales, full service yard, and ships store. The harbor has undergone extensive renovation, refurbishing, and expansion during the past four years.

Baker said that the Aqua Yacht Harbor Corp., Inc. will have to presell a minimum of 60 percent of the units before construction will actually begin.

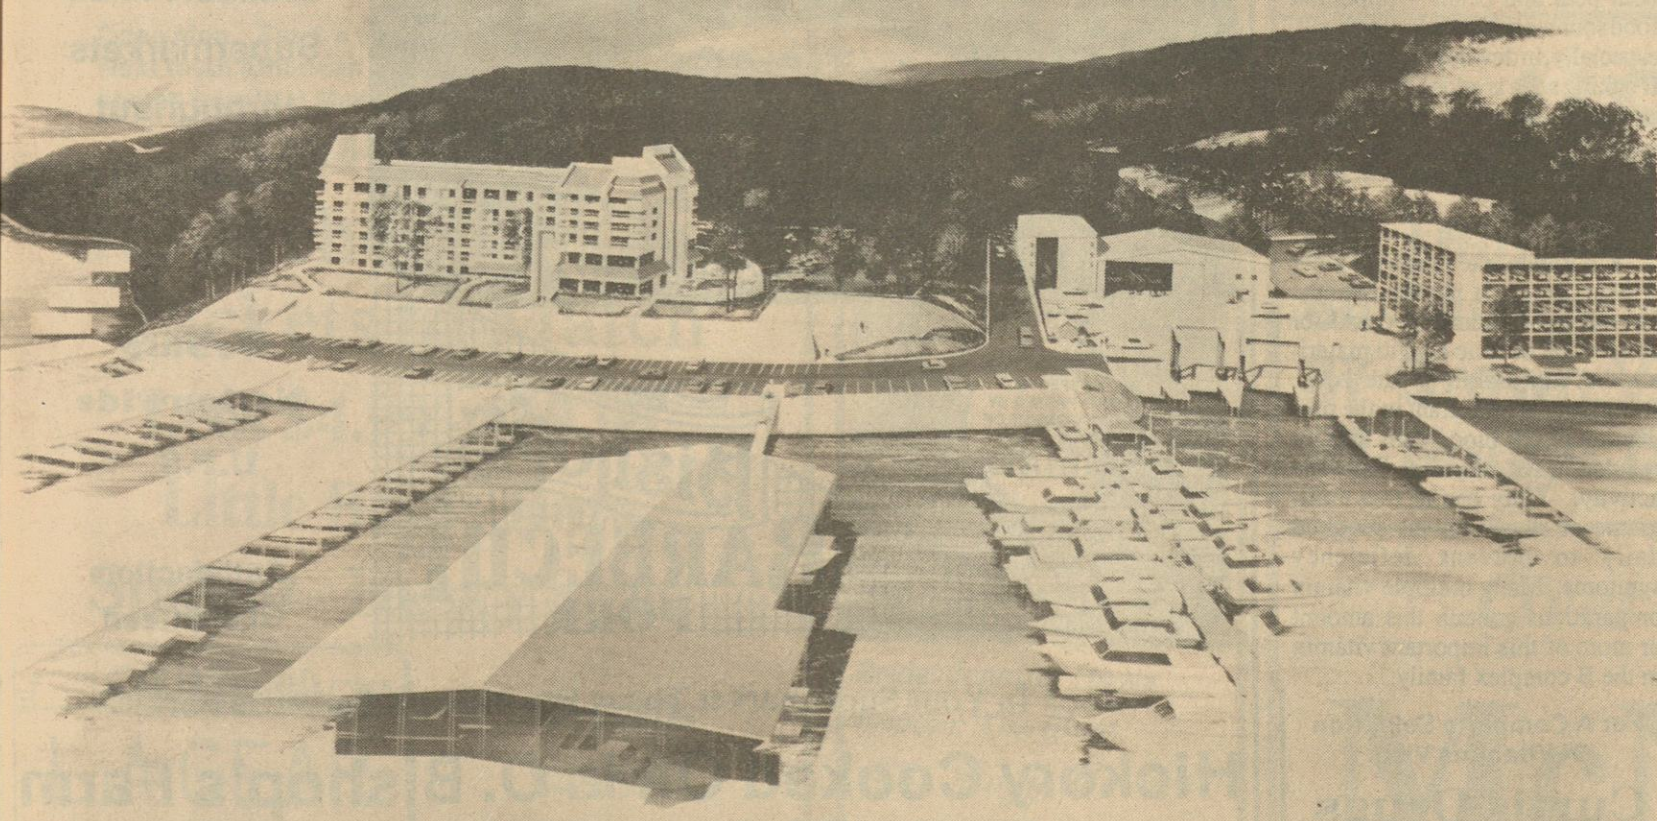

"While initial interest has been strong, the decision to proceed with the project will be based on sufficient pre-sales," said Baker. Construction should take nine to 10 months, he added.

The complex was designed by Archeon, Inc., a Memphis architectural and engineering firm specializing in resort, hotel, motel, and condominium projects. The resort development division of Kemmons Wilson Co. also assisted in the plans.

Potential buyers will be boat-owners, people who desire a second home and would enjoy a "magnificent water view," Davis said. Prime markets are probably going to be Memphis, Jackson, Tenn., Tupelo, and Alabama, she said.

Baker's firm, Sunbelt Financial, is coordinating construction, financing, marketing, and project development in cooperation with Aqua Yacht Harbor Corp., headed by Benard Blasingame, an Adamsville, Tenn. businessman.

Architect's models of the complex are located at the Paul Callens Real Estate's Hwy. 25 North location near Aqua Yacht, Davis said.

Vitamins, Minerals & Your Health

Spotlight on Vitamin B-2: Riboflavin

Symptoms of a mild dietary deficiency of riboflavin (vitamin B-2) include soreness and burning of the lips, mouth, and tongue; tearing, burning, itching eyes; and loss of visual acuity. Because the vitamin is abundant in dairy products and meat, riboflavin deficiencies are rare except in developing countries where these items are not included in abundance in typical diets.

Eggs and green leafy vegetables are also important sources of riboflavin. Riboflavin is present in both peas and beans - important food sources in North America and, especially, in developing countries. If baking soda is added to the water in which peas or beans are soaked (to speed softening before cooking), much of the riboflavin tends to be destroyed.

Riboflavin interacts with other B vitamins. It is required for the activation of vitamin B-6 and for conversion of folic acid to materials that are usable by the body. Riboflavin is important in the production of red blood cells and for regulation of thyroid hormone activity. Only one to two milligrams of riboflavin are required daily to prevent deficiency symptoms. Many multiple vitamin preparations contain this amount or more of this important vitamin in the B complex family.

FOREIGN FARM OWNERS REMINDED OF 90-DAY REPORTING RULE

Phillip A. Horn of the Tishomingo County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service reminds foreign investors who acquire or transfer any interest other than a security interest in Tishomingo County's agricultural land to report the transaction within 90 days.

"The Foreign Disclosure Report is still required by law," said Mr. Horn, "and those who are late in reporting or who fail to report face possible penalties." The report must be filed if all or part of the agricultural land is sold, or the title is transferred to another person, he explained.

AGING AND CATARACTS

As people age, they become more prone to develop opacities or cloudiness of the crystalline lens of the eye. This condition is called a cataract. Although this condition does occur in younger people, those over 55 are most likely to develop cataract.

Like glaucoma, if undetected and untreated, cataract can lead to blindness. If detected early, adequate vision can usually be maintained with the help of glasses until the time when surgery may be required. After the cataract or cataracts are surgically removed, visual help in the form of implanted lenses, spectacles, or contact lenses may help the patient regain clear, efficient vision.

Except in very advanced cases, a cataract is very difficult to see with the naked eye. A doctor of optometry, using a special lighted instrument can detect a developing cataract in a thorough vision examination, so periodic optometric examinations are important in the early detection of a cataract.

County Agents Notes

ASTRONG WILL

Creating a will is a simple task usually ignored by many farmers and farm families. Two factors are responsible for their nonchalance: being uncomfortable talking about death and feeling there is nothing to be willed.

A will is essential. If a farmer dies without making one, the state of Mississippi decides how the property is to be divided. The legal action of the state may override the best interests of the widowed spouse and the children.

A simple "Mom and Pop will" allows the family to avoid legal conflicts and the cost of a court-appointed administrator.

When many farmers feel they don't have anything, they forget about the land they have. The land is valuable, regardless of whether the farm was making a profit or not. This value needs to be preserved for the benefit of the survivors; a will does this.

Our county office has Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service Publication No. 1379 - Estate Planning, Investment in Your Family's Return. The future of your family can be protected by picking up a copy.

ACREAGE UPDATE

Mississippi farmers planted just under 2.2 million acres of soybeans this year. In Tishomingo County, we planted 8,000 acres.

County farmers also planted 950 acres of upland cotton. Mississippi farmers planted 1.2 million acres, an increase of 150,000 acres from 1989.

Here are some other statistics to note.

Mississippi farmers planted 80,000 acres of grain sorghum, a cutback of 20,000 acres from 1989. They also planted 240,000 acres of rice and 190,000 acres of corn.

State farmers harvested 520,000 acres of wheat this summer, averaging 30 bushels an acre. This harvested acreage is up significantly from the 450,000 acres harvested in 1989.

Planting for sweetpotatoes is down nearly 500 acres, totaling 2,500 this year. The sweetpotato crop in the United States totals 94,500 acres.

Acreage to be cut for hay in Mississippi is estimated at 575,000 acres, a drop of 75,000 acres from 1989.

BAGGING THE "STRIPPERS"

Too often, homeowners in Tishomingo County wait until their ornamentals have been nearly stripped of foliage before they discover that bagworms are the culprits.

Bagworms cause much damage to ornamentals at this time of year. Control them with such pesticides as Sevin, Malathion, Diazinon or Cygon, or combinations of these chemicals.

Spider mites also prey on some ornamentals. They suck sap from the shrubs and trees, causing leaves to change their color from green to yellow and gray. These pests can kill young ornamentals in a single season; older trees may slowly die over several seasons.

Homeowners can hose down their ornamentals with water to break up spider mite webbing. Applications of Diazinon, Cygon or Malathion will control them.

WEEDY ISSUE

A few weed problems exist in some of the row crop fields in Tishomingo County. Many of those problems begin in turn rows and ditch areas. Ballonvine is a good example.

Several years ago, one could find ballonvine growing along old ditches and turn rows. This persistent weed has now moved into many soybean fields in Tishomingo County.

There are a couple of measures producers can take to keep weeds under control. Cultivating turn rows permits the soil to settle prior to harvest. Clipping will prevent many weeds from producing a seed crop. Applying herbicides will kill them. Applications applied late season will increase your yields.

Key To Tasty Doves

September 1 is the opening day of the first dove season, and before the last of the three seasons closes on Jan. 12, 1991, Mississippi hunters are expected to have bagged an estimated 2 million mourning doves.

Some of the birds will end up on grills and in skillets within hours of the hunt; others will be frozen for serving later. Regardless of when the birds will be served, some simple steps can help make the hunt and preparation worth the effort.

Bob Griffen, research coordinator with the Mississippi Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks, said the secret to preparing dove is to dress the birds promptly and thoroughly.

"Hunters shouldn't kill the birds and then put them in a bag or vest and wait several hours before dressing them," Griffen said. "As soon as possible, preferably while still in the field, the birds should be dressed, rinsed with water and put over ice."

Griffen, an avid dove hunter, recommended his simple but tasty method of dove preparation.

"Remove only the breast from the bird, thoroughly clean it, marinate it for several hours, wrap it in bacon and put it on the grill," he said. "That is as good and as easy a way as you can fix them."

Nelda Starks, nutrition education specialist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service, said doves are a versatile meat for cooking.

Starks added that soaking the birds in a solution of salty water will insure thorough cleaning. If the birds are shot up badly, add about 1 tablespoon of vinegar per quart of water when soaking.

"After soaking, wash in cold water and dry well," Starks said. "If you don't plan to cook the game immediately, wrap in foil and freeze. But plan to cook the meat within three months."

The most popular methods of preparation are frying, roasting, baking, barbecuing and braising.

More information on nutritional and tasty methods of preparing dove and other wild game is available from local extension home economists.

ASCS Farm News

WEEDS MUST BE CONTROLLED

One of the requirements to qualify for 1990 farm program benefits is acreage conservation reserve (ACR) maintenance. ACR is cropland removed from production to meet acreage reduction requirements.

Program participants must follow their contract regarding maintenance of ACR land to be eligible for full program benefits. Once producers have established adequate conservation protection on these acres to prevent wind and water erosion, maintenance procedures must begin.

Producers cannot neglect ACR land and allow it to grow into weeds or to become a harboring place for insects and rodents.

Approximately 2500 acres of

SCHOOL DAYS 1963-64
JOYLAND KINDERGARTEN

Happy Birthday, Pam ????????????

Tishomingo County cropland were diverted from crop production under the 1990 farm programs. We are checking to see that these acres are properly maintained. Weed control is a very important program requirement and farmers who fail to do so will be out of compliance and could lose program benefits.

The acreage reduction program contract also prohibits harvesting ACR land. Grazing is not authorized between May and September 30, 1990. In disaster designated areas where severe weather conditions reduced normal hay production and pasture development, an exception to the haying and grazing rule may be made by the Secretary of Agriculture. Under such conditions, farmers must first obtain special haying and grazing permission from ASCS.

It would be unfortunate at this point for a producer to be found out of compliance because of failing to maintain ACR land. Most farmers want to do what is best for their land, and have made conservation practices an integral part of their farming operations.

LATE-FILED REPORTS WILL BE ACCEPTED

Phillip A. Horn of the Tishomingo County ASCS Office, said late-filed crop and land use acreage reports will be accepted as long as the farmer pays the cost of verifying the acreage report, and there is physical evidence of the crop or land's use.

Some producers have not filed a crop report this year, Horn said. July 16, 1990 was the deadline for farmers to report their 1990 planted acres.

Crop reports are used by ASCS to determine program compliance and to document crop acreage bases. Before receiving price support loans, deficiency payments and other benefits, farm program participants must report crops and acreages planted, the uses to be made of these crops, and cropland acres devoted to conservation uses.

"This report is mandatory for farm program participants because without it, they are not eligible for benefits on their 1990 program crops," ASCS official said. The acreage report governs the level at which farmers are eligible for program payments and other benefits.

Preliminary certification results indicate that 352 farm operators in Tishomingo County have reported their acreages and are eligible for 1990 farm program benefits.

4-H MEMBERS ARE WINNERS
Many of our County 4-H members spent several hours of several days working on their 4-H project record books. These record books represent the best of 4-H in Tishomingo County. After they are gathered and checked at the county level, they are sent to the state competition. There the books are read and judged to be blue, red or white ribbon records.
Tishomingo County turned in sixty (60) record books to state competition this summer including volunteer, 4-H Club, and Community Pride Records. The following is a report of the 4-H members who were blue ribbon winners from Tishomingo County.
Senior Records (ages 15-18 years of age): Rodney Alexander of the Carter's Branch Club placed first in the state with his Petroleum Power Record and will receive an expense paid trip to National 4-H Congress in Chicago during December. Tina Hendrix of the Midway 4-H Club placed second with her Clothing Record. Julie Wright of the Helping Hands 4-H Club placed third with her Dog Care Record.

Intermediate Records (ages 12-14): There were 324 total record submitted in this category. Wesley Hendrix of the Midway 4-H Club placed first in Conservation of Natural Resources. Jolene Wilkins of the Helping Hand 4-H Club placed first in Food Preservation. Freda Taylor of the Little Dough Bakers 4-H Club placed second with her Breads Record. Dana Mobley also placed second in Pet Care. Also receiving a blue ribbon was Joe Miller, Forestry.
Juniors (ages 10-11): There were

Are You Ready To Dance?--Registration has begun for the 1990-91 classes at Ms. Barbara's School of Dance. Classes will be offered in ballet, jazz, acrobatics, and tap, for ages 2½ and up. Dance is a way for children to express themselves, build their self confidence, and obtain great exercise. Ms. Barbara encourages her dancers to do their only best. Usually each child turns out to be a good dancer because he or she is progressing at his or her own pace and ability. To register, call Ms. Barbara at 423-1363 or leave a message at 423-5863. Classes begin September 4, 5, and 6. Registration for the first child is at full fee, and for the second child in a family is 1/2 fee.

232 records submitted in this age category. Receiving blue ribbons were: Alecia Carson of the Midway 4-H Club, Clothing; Josie Trim of the Rainbow 4-H Club, Dairy; Tommy Rutledge of the North Crossroads 4-H Club, Engineering (Bicycle); Pam Inlow of the Rainbow 4-H Club, Fashion Revue; Valerie Compton, an individual 4-H member, Forestry; Justin Wilkins of the Helping Hands 4-H Club, Gardening; Corrie Linton of the Rainbow 4-H Club, Recreation; Timmy Rutledge of the North Crossroads 4-H Club, Dog Care.

Juniors (age 8-9): There were 172 records entered in this age category. Casey Compton and Monica Inlow of the Rainbow 4-H Club and Butch Lambert and Greg Rutledge of the North Crossroads 4-H Clubs all received blue ribbons in the Dog Care project. Natalie Williams of the Rainbow 4-H Club also received a blue ribbon in the Child Development project.

Volunteer leaders also fill out record books on their achievements in 4-H. Volunteers submitting record this year were Gayle Inlow, Donna Burns, Margaret Hendrix, Kerry Trim and Margaret Taylor - all receiving blue ribbons.

4-H members and volunteers contribute to their families and communities. Completing 4-H record books gives them the chance to see how much they really do give of themselves. Congratulate all the record book winners when you see them.

New Telecommunications System Benefits Westinghouse, DOE

James Zuber

The following article was copied from the Savannah River Site News, Aiken, South Carolina. James Zuber is employed at Westinghouse in Aiken. He is the brother of Linda Zuber, Tishomingo, MS and Charles Zuber, Lincoln, Nebraska.

A recent success story from the Computer and Telecommunications Management (CTM) Section of Business Services and Finance shows us what can be done when employees transform good ideas into action.

SYSTEM REQUESTED

Some time ago, the Department of Energy asked that a proactive management system be designed and implemented to manage the review and approval process of telecommunication proposals. This wasn't an easy task, as the review and approval process is a lengthy, complex, interrelated and highly interdependent process.

The job fell to a project team made of up Jim Zuber and Mike Chitwood of the Computer and Telecommunications Management (CTM) Section of Business Services and Finance.

To deliver a satisfactory product on schedule, Mr. Zuber and Mr. Chitwood had to understand the complexities and the way each process depended on others. Only then could they design a new system.

The did it, though, and ahead of schedule.

Despite the complexity of the current system, they developed the new computer based system in less than two months. Usually a project of this size would require at least six months.

BENEFITS

The new online telecommunications proposal system provides several advantages for both DOE and Westinghouse. Since TPS was implemented, the quantity of time, effort, expense and paperwork associated with management of the review and approval process has been greatly reduced.

And our customer, the Department of Energy, has expressed satisfaction with TPS.

A BETTER WAY

A recent study estimated that the system saved both DOE and Westinghouse approximately 15 labor-months, or $35,000 per year. The system improves the efficiency of DOE's and Westinghouse's operations, too. Average total time required to manage the review and approval process has been reduced from 2.25 years to 66 days; average time required for CTM to review a proposal is down from 31 to 1.75 days.

Since the system was designed for novice, or first-time, users of a computer-based system, end users value the new system for its simplicity and ease of use.

GIVE IT A SHOT

Other onsite personnel probably have similar ideas that could result in mutual benefits to DOE and Westinghouse. A success story like this should encourage us all to take action!

Child Find Publicity Campaign & District Confidentiality Letter

The Tishomingo County School District is participating in an ongoing statewide effort to identify, locate, and evaluate children through the age of twenty-one who are physically, mentally, communicatively and/or emotionally handicapped. Early identification of children in need of special education experiences is most important to each child. Furthermore, this information gathered from contacts with parents and other agencies will be used to help determine present and future program needs as progress is made toward the goal of providing a free appropriate public education to all handicapped children.

Information which could identify an individual child will be maintained by this agency and will be provided to other agencies only in accord with the Family Rights and Privacy Act and EHA-B. As a parent, you are guaranteed the right to inspect any such information about your child and to challenge its accuracy. Access to this information is forbidden to any unauthorized person without informed consent. If you have questions regarding the collection, maintenance and use of data about your child, please contact Betty Barnes, Child Find Director for the Tishomingo County School District by calling 438-7471 or 423-7055 or writing to her at the following address: Superintendent's Office, Tishomingo County Courthouse, Iuka, MS 38852.

The Child Find Director implements child identification, location and evaluation of children birth through twenty-two who are handicapped, regardless of the severity of their handicaps, and who are in need of special education and/or related services. The Child Find Director works with the local Headstart, Welfare, Health and Mental Health agencies, as well as local education agencies, physicians and other individuals to identify and locate children out of school and in school who may be in need of special education services.

Once a referral is made, it is the responsibility of the Child Find Director to insure that the Referral-to-Placement procedures are followed. The director works with Local Survey Committees at each school to implement this procedure. The following activities briefly describe the procedures.

Prior to evaluation, a copy of the Parent Information Pamphlet and Procedural Safeguards are given to parents. District personnel explain the Parent Information Pamphlet to parents and insure that they understand the Procedural Safeguards.

After parental consent for testing is obtained, a nondiscriminatory evaluation is conducted. Students are evaluated in all areas related to the suspected disability by qualified personnel.

Parents are notified when a student is ruled eligible for special education program. An Individual Educational Plan is developed for the student before the student is placed. Parents must sign permission for placement. Parents, teacher and students participate in this process. All students receiving special education services are reassessed at least once a year and reevaluated at least once every three years.

We now have fourteen special education classes in our district which serve students who have physical, mental, communicative and/or emotional handicaps.

It is the goal of the Tishomingo County School District to provide free appropriate education to all handicapped children through age twenty-one by the year 2000.

County Agents Notes

KNOCK ON WOOD

Forestry continues to be one of the most important crops in Tishomingo County this year. The markets for pine and hardwood have been usually strong since January, and that has put county landowners at a good selling advantage.

Wet weather continuing into late spring caused most of the lumber mills in Mississippi to run at below their normal log inventories. Fewer timber stands were harvested because of wet conditions, and producers with accessible tracts received premium prices for their wood.

There is yet another factor that could also help Tishomingo County timberland owners. Environmental limitations on timber harvesting in the Northwest are increasing, and these restrictions could increase opportunities for southern producers. FORAGE FODDER

August is the between-time of the year for planting many forage crops in Tishomingo County. It's too late to plant summer forages and too early to plant the fall-seeded ones.

It's never too early or too late to plan for planting time. County producers should be soil testing, liming, fertilizing, cultivating and securing seed right now.

Many pastures and hay fields to be planted need lime and fertilizer. Without a soil test, the producer has no way of knowing the amounts of these materials the soil needs. A good, random sample from fields will make soil analysis accurate and easier.

Check with the Tishomingo County Extension Office for soil sample boxes and information on sample-taking.

Most forages grow best at a soil pH of at least 6, and legumes used as forage crops do better at a higher one. Since many county soils are acid, at least 1 ton of lime per acre is often needed. If the producer doesn't correct the pH, forages will not grow well and won't efficiently use applied fertilizer.

Fallow any weedy land to destroy weeds and give them time to decay before fall seeding. A large amount of tilled-under weed growth can tie up nitrogen and harbor grubs if it isn't destroyed well before planting.

Check on seed supplied and varieties before seeding time arrives. Dealers who don't have a particular variety in stock still have enough time to order and get it her befor planting.

Caring for Diarrhea in Children

Untreated diarrhea in infants can become a serious problem. Parents may not realize that water is a large percentage of infants' total body weight. If part of this water is lost through vomiting or acute diarrhea, dehydration and electrolyte imbalance can result. According to the Handbook of Nonprescription Drugs, after 8 to 10 bowel movements in 24 hours, a 2 month-old infant could lose enough fluid to cause circulatory collapse and renal failure.

If infants or small children experience diarrhea for 18 to 24 hours with six to eight watery stools, they should be taken to a clinic or physician's office for evaluation. With less severe diarrhea, commercial or homemade electrolyte solutions may be helpful in preventing dehydration. If the child is old enough and can tolerate a bland diet, apples and/or bananas are recommended.

Nonprescription medicines (containing kaolin, pectin, and/or carbophil) for older children may be useful in relieving acute diarrhea. According to a recent report in American Pharmacy, the non-prescription medicine loperamide is best for children because of its action on the electrolyte transport of chloride. Recommended doses are based on age and weight of the child. Do not use loperamide for more than 48 hours if diarrhea continues.

Pre-Planning Provides Peace of Mind
& Substantial Savings

Because some day, someone in every family will be faced with making funeral arrangements for a loved one, a Pre-Need Plan offered through Cutshall Funeral Home is designed to take un-necessary hardships out of a death in a family.

One big advantage of planning in advance is that a funeral is planned at today's values. While prices are escalating, your cost remains the same. You have greater flexibility than a pre-need trust or pre-paid funeral.

Example: A person pre-planning a $3,000 funeral at age 65 would pay $2,223, saving $777.00. At age 50 that person would pay $1,771, saving $1,229. (These figures are for example and funeral of different price and for persons of different ages would reflect similar savings. This pre-need plan offered through American Funeral Assurance Company is available from age 0 to 100)

Remember the Cutshall Pre-Need Funeral Plan offered through American Funeral Assurance Company guarantees future values at today's prices, regardless of the rate of inflation.

Find out how easy and beneficial a Pre-Need Plan provided through Cutshall Funeral Home can be. Mail this coupon or call for an appointment with one of our professional planners.

Teachers Luncheon--Each year before school opens, teachers are busy preparing their classrooms for the first day of school. On Friday, August 17, the Iuka Elementary School P.T.A. Officers hosted a luncheon for the elementary faculty. Fifty-six teachers and aides gathered in the cafeteria to help themselves to a delicious buffet. The meal was catered by Peggy Wadkins and the Chuck Wagon Restaurant of Iuka. Mr. Charles Evans, Principal, welcomed everyone, and encouraged communications between teachers and parents. P.T.A. President Mike Cooke, welcomed everyone to a new exciting school year. He introduced the different programs supported by the P.T.A., and gave an update on the new computer lab opening soon. The P.T.A.'s objective is to bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the education of children and youth.

Hunters must have a valid hunting license signed and on their person before going afield.

Annual Turkey Shoot

The Jacinto Hunting Club will hold its annual Turkey Shoot on Saturday, August 25, beginning at 9:30 a.m. All proceeds from the event will be used for wildlife conservation in north Mississippi.

Divisions of competition for the shoot are: .22 rifle (target shoot, no scopes), shotgun (target shoot) youth and adult, shotgun (skeet shoot), muzzle loader, and archery. Winners will take turkey or ham for each division. Entry free is $2 for each division.

A concession will be open to provide cold drinks and food. Also, drawings will be held for a Thompson Center "Hawkin" 50 cal. black powder rifle and a Person "Spiller" compound bow with quiver and sights.

The Jacinto Club encourages all interested competitors to come out Saturday, enter the shoot, and help support a worthy cause. To reach the shoot, take Hwy. 365 east, turn right onto Field Rd., and follow the signs for 1/4 mile to the pasture.

Dove Season To Open Soon

With the opening of dove season coming soon, South Central Bell's district manager, Tom Bailey, is asking hunters to be extremely careful when they shoot. Doves often perch on telephone lines and poles, Bailey noted, and bird shot can puncture cables and cause out of service
