Perry Rather Announces Candidacy For Senate Seat

Perry Rather

Perry Rather is a candidate for Senate, District 5, State of Mississippi. This district includes Itawamba, Lee, Prentiss and Tishomingo. I am the 34-year-old son of the late Mr. V.M. Rather and Ruth Rather. I have been married to Pam Gillentine Rather, daughter of Kenneth and Mary Gillentine, of Dorsey for 18 years. We have two children, Alicia and Daniel. Alicia, 17, will be a senior at IAHS this fall and Daniel, 12, will be in the 7th grade at Fulton Junior High. I began working at the age of 13 at the Wigwam Restaurant in Fulton. Two years later I went to work at Walker's Big Star. I remained there until I turned 18, at which time I bought a milk distributorship from Jim Justic for Barbers and All Jersey Milk. I operated this distributorship in Itawamba and Lee county for 10 years. At the age of 28 I bought Kwick Kwik, a convenience store, which I still own and operate today. I have worked with the public for over 20 years. I would like the opportunity to represent those working people in Jackson. The only way we can have government "for the people" is when we have "government by the people."

I would also give the sportsmen a voice in government. I have hunted and fished since I was old enough to walk. I think some of the best quality time you can spend with family and friends is in the outdoors.

So many anti-hunting groups are attacking us. We need to stick together. We need someone who will stand up for our rights, someone who will protect our privilege to hunt and fish. I am that person.

As sportsmen, we also need to respect the rights of landowners and those who don't hunt. A few bad apples can spoil the whole bunch. We need to work with Game and Fish Officials to cull these bad apples.

I believe our young people are the future of Mississippi. I would like to see more and better jobs, so that our young people, who we work so hard to educate, can stay in Mississippi.

This office belongs to you. You should have your say. I will be your voice in Jackson. You need to be aware of what is going on before it happens, not afterwards.

Government spending is out of control. Your hard earned dollars should not be wasted. In order for businesses to survive, we have to buckle down. We have to cut waste. We can't just raise prices. We should run the state like a business, not just raise taxes every time things get a little tough.

I can not see everyone of you before the election. This is my personal plea for your vote and support. When elected, this office will be YOURS. You will always have a voice in State Government.

If you have anything you want to discuss, I will listen, call me at 862-2858 or 862-2827.

Celebrations Planned Throughout Area For 4th of July Holiday

The soaring temperatures of July can be uncomfortably hot. On this July 4, little Miss Bethany Carol Johnson plans to spend a pleasant afternoon sitting in the shade and enjoying one of her favorite things—a big, juicy slice of watermelon.

Bethany is the 15-month-old daughter of Brian and Robin Johnson of Burnsville. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby H. Johnson of Burnsville and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilkinson of Corinth.

Take time this Independence Day, like Bethany, to enjoy some of life's simple pleasures. Whether you choose to enjoy the day at a cookout with family and friends, watching fireworks at dark or just sitting in the shade, take a few moments to give thanks for the freedom that we have as Americans. Remember too, all those who have fought to maintain that freedom, beginning with our founding fathers who signed the Declaration of Independence in 1776.

Fireworks At Burnsville

The Pour House Restaurant parking lot, located on Highway 72 in Burnsville, will come to life on Saturday, July 4 with a magnificent fireworks display, sponsored by area businesses.

This first annual event will begin at dusk dark. Everyone is invited to come out and enjoy the evening.

Fireworks At Piggly Wiggly

A firework display will be held on July 4 in front of Piggly Wiggly in Iuka. The display, that is sponsored by Tim's Fireworks, will begin at 10:00 p.m.

This annual event is free and everyone is invited.

Eastport Over-The-Water

Fireworks Display

The annual Eastport over-the-water fireworks display, located at Bear Creek at the Tennessee River, will be held Saturday, July 4. The display can be viewed by boat and will begin at 9:30 p.m. It is sponsored by Eastport Marina. All are invited.

Independence Day Activities

At Jacinto Courthouse

A day of July 4 activities have been scheduled at Jacinto Courthouse including a political speaking, music, and games.

Events that will be held all day include arts and crafts displays, a flea market, political speaking, food, music, and various games for both kids and adults.

The political speaking will begin at 9:00 a.m. Music by groups including Joe Ackerman Band-bluegrass and country, Hilltoppers-bluegrass gospel, and The Returners-gospel will begin at 10:00 and continue throughout the day.

Also at 10:00, a checkers and dominoes tourney will begin. At 10:30 there will be train rides.

Guided Courthouse tours will be given periodically during the day by members of the Jacinto Foundation Board of Directors. The Chucalissa Indians will perform at 12:00 noon and again at 2:30.

There will also be a flag display, a wildlife exhibit and lots more.

Admission to the festival itself and the political speaking is free, however several of the events will charge a nominal fee to help the maintenance of the historic Courthouse.

Jacinto Courthouse is located east of Rienzi on Highway 365. For more information call 286-8662.

44th Annual Celebration

At Tishomingo High School

The Tishomingo High School Alumni Association's 44th homecoming celebration is planned for Saturday, July 4, 1992. This celebration is for anyone who attended Tishomingo High School, and all functions will again be held on the campus of the school.

Letters have been sent to those who paid dues the previous year and to all the members of honored classes celebrating anniversaries. The classes honored this year will be 1922; 1927; 1932; 1937; 1942; 1947; 1952; 1957; 1962; 1967; 1972; and 1982.

The Alumni Association has again this year undertaken a special project for the benefit of the Tishomingo school. This year donations will be used toward the purchase of another Macintosh computer for the school and other special needs such as playgrounds equipment; library books; and an outside water fountain.

Special committee chairmen have been appointed to work toward this year's celebration. They are: Decorating: Zora Lee Hill and Rilla Wiley co-chairman; Door Prizes: Eloise Southward, chairman; Campus Refreshments: Danny McClung, chairman; Registration: Margaret Wildes, chairman; Publicity: Margaret Wildes and Rilla Wiley, co-chairman; Banquet: Donette S. Nichols, chairman; Obituary: Lonette T. Southward, chairman; Nominating: Coy Dally, chairman; Special Project: Danny McClung, chairman.

Reservations for the banquet must be made by July 3, so that caterer can be notified of numbers. To be eligible for door prizes, reservations must be made before deadline. Reservations may be mailed to P.O. Box 474, Tishomingo, MS 38873. Dues remain $2.00 per person.

Make the plans now to attend the 44th Annual Homecoming on July 4th, 1992.

4th Of July Celebration At Bay Springs

Gunshot Wound Fatal To Former Iuka Woman

A Michie, Tenn. man has been charged with the murder of his wife.

David Scott, 39, of Route 1, Michie, was charged Monday with the first degree murder of his wife, Debbie Scott, 38, formerly of Iuka, according to McNairy County Sheriff Robert K. Lee. The Sheriff stated that the murder occurred around 2:00 p.m. Saturday, June 27 at the Scott's home in Michie.

Apparently the couple were alone in their bedroom when their children, who were in another room, heard a gunshot, Lee explained.

Deputy Medical Examiner Dr. Barton Chase pronounced Debbie Scott dead at the McNairy County General Hospital with the cause of death being a small-caliber gunshot wound to the stomach.

Scott was arraigned Tuesday at 9:00 a.m. at a bond hearing held in front of Judge Bob Gray, who set bond at $100,000. A preliminary hearing has been set for Thursday, July 2, at 9:00 a.m.

The shooting is still under investigation according to Lee. Scott's motive is not known.

Mrs. Scott was a seamstress for Action Apparel in Ramer, Tenn. (Obituary inside, pg. 8)

Appropriations Subcommittee Approves $480 Million For ASRM

U.S. Congressman Jamie Whitten, D-Miss., Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, said that $480 million for the Advanced Solid Rocket Motor project at Yellow Creek was approved by the appropriations subcommittee which handles funding for NASA.

Whitten, who attended the three hour closed-door subcommittee hearing, said that he was pleased to have the subcommittee's continued support for the project.

The Senate recently authorized $480 million for the rocket motor facility in fiscal year 1993, beginning October 1. The House of Representatives version of the bill is expected to go before the full Appropriations Committee sometime this week, according to officials.

The completed construction of the plant is slated for the summer. It is estimated that the first Mississippi-made rockets will be completed and ready for flight early in 1997.

Union Rejected At Schnadig Corporation

Employees of Schnadig Corp., the furniture manufacturing company located in Belmont, voted Thursday, June 25 not to join a division of the United Steelworkers Union.

According to reports employees decided, with a vote of 126 against and 55 for, not to become a part of the Upholsterers Division of the USWU. Schnadig opened in 1987 at their Belmont location and employ between 400 and 500 workers, according to industry records.

The plant uses advanced technology in its furniture manufacturing, including the use of robotics. The company is one of the first in Northeast Mississippi to do so.

4-H Communicates

By: Mary C. Baldwin,
Extension 4-H Youth Agent
THE 4-H GARDEN

It's fun to sow seed, set plants and watch them grow, and produce food for the table, canning, freezing, and storage. Everyone likes to help his family do more and better things. A 4-H garden project is one of the best ways to do this. A project that's more fun, educational, and profitable will be hard to find.

In this project you will learn to prepare the soil, use various kinds of fertilizer, and plant seed. You will learn to cultivate plants, control insects and diseases, and harvest vegetables properly. You will demonstrate improve garden practices, grade and score vegetables, and identify insects and diseases attacking the vegetables.

The 4-H garden project is truly a project where you can develop all of the 4-H's. You must use your HEAD to make the plan. Your HAND will be called on to plant, hoe, and grow the vegetables. Your HEART will feel the joys of success and must withstand the failures when they come in your garden work. The fourth "H", HEALTH, with develop through exercise in gardening and through eating fresh, canned, frozen, or stored vegetables from your own garden.

YOUR GARDEN - You should grow your own rows of vegetables. If you are in your first or second year of gardening, you may plant and care for the required number of feet of rows in the family garden. As you become more experienced, you may care for the family garden, or have a separate 4-H garden.

Make a garden plan and make the plan work. A good plan is a "must" for the 4-H garden to yield the most. Your plan will include what vegetables to plant, varieties, their location in the garden, and vegetables to follow for a second crop.

Every 4-H gardener wants to grow as much quality produce as possible with the least expense. To do this you must use good garden practices.

1. Prepare plot or rows during fall and winter for early spring planting.
2. Use fresh seed of recommended varieties.
3. Make double-row plantings of beets, carrots, radish, mustard, lettuce, turnips, onions, English peas, and spinach in the spring garden.
4. Use adequate fertilizer, both barnyard and commercial.
5. Sidedress plants with a nitrate fertilizer when 3 to 4 inches tall.
6. Prune add/or stake plants that require it, such as tomatoes, pole beans, sweet pepper, and eggplant.
7. Water, mulch, and harvest regularly to keep plants producing.
8. Cultivate when grass and weeds are small.
9. Grow two or more crops of certain vegetables on same row at same time.
10. Control pests.
11. Make at least two plantings of most vegetables for continuous production.

BOATING TIPS

Learn to boat safely and follow these rules recommended by the National Safety Council.

*Wear a U.S. Coast Guard-approved personal flotation device, or life jacket.

*Don't drink alcohol on boat.

*Check the weather and water forecasts before leaving shore.

*Limit the number of passengers in a small boat. Check the capacity plate and abide by it.

*Have and know approved visual distress signals.

*Use the "one-third" rule of fuel management: one-third of the fuel to go, one-third to get back and one-third for reserve.

*Tell someone where you're going and when you will be back.

Anyone interested in learning more about boat and water safety may call the Extension office at 423-7016.

ADVANCE-FEE LOAN SCAMS

If you're a financially-strapped consumer or small business owner in search for a loan, you should beware of a current popular fraud scheme known as the advance-fee loan scam.

How to Recognize an Advance-Fee Loan Scam. Solicitors of illicit advance-fee loan schemes either promise or strongly suggest that a loan will be provided in exchange for an up-front fee. While legitimate credit grantors may charge fees to process your loan application, they do not guarantee that you will qualify for a loan.

How To Protect Yourself. Before committing yourself to a loan agreement, consider the following precautions which may be indicators of an advance-fee loan scam:

*Be wary of advertising that claims that bad credit is no problem in getting you a loan. If money is not available to you through traditional lending institutions, it is unlikely to become available in response to a classified ad.

*Be cautious of lenders who use "800" or "900" numbers.

*Check out the loan company. Contact the Consumer Protection

Division of the Mississippi Attorney General's office to learn if they have received any complaints about companies offering advance-fee loans.

*Be careful about making any loan agreements over the telephone.

*Do not give your credit card, checking account or Social Security numbers over the phone unless you are familiar with the company.

What to do if you are a Victim. If you think that you have been victimized by a fraudulent advance-fee loan operation, contact the Mississippi Attorney General's office to report the company. You also may file a complaint with the FTC by writing to: Federal Trade Commission, Division of Credit Practices, Washington, D.C. 20580.

Although the FTC generally does not intervene in individual disputes, the information you provide may help to indicate a pattern of possible law violations requiring action by the Commission.

County Agents Notes

By: Danny Owen,
PESTICIDE RECORDKEEPING:
PROPOSED RULE

This is a proposed rule that is awaiting comments from the public before final adoption. If you have comments about the rule they should be submitted as soon as possible to USDA.

The rule proposes that all certified applicators keep the following records on restricted use pesticides (RUP):

1. Brand/product name, formulation, and EPA registration no.
2. Total amount and rate of application of the RUP applied.
3. Address/location, size of area treated, target pest, crop, commodity or stored product to which RUP was applied.
4. Month, day, and year on which RUP application occurred.
5. Name, address and certification number (if applicable) of the certified applicator who applied or who supervised the application of the RUP.

Information shall be recorded in a timely manner following application.

All records must be kept for two years from the date of application.

Commercial applicators must provide within 30 days the appropriate records to the person for whom the applications were made.

The records shall be made available upon oral or written requests and presentation of written credentials by an authorized representative of the Secretary of the USDA.

The applicator is to supply the records and any label information to a licensed health care professional who needs the records in providing medical treatment for a person exposed to the RUP for which the record is maintained.

The health care professional is not to release the information on those records to anyone else.

There is a $500 fine for not providing the records for the first offense and a $1000 fine for each following offense. These fines may

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

DR. PHILLIP GRAY,
OPTOMETRIST

HUNTING AND VISION

Each year 400 hunters are killed by accident and some 3,000 are injured. Why? Visual deficiencies are to blame for a fair share of the problem.

Hunters decide when to squeeze the trigger based primarily on what they see, or rather, what they THINK they see. If their vision is inadequate, then the chance of an accident happening increases substantially. Many hunters don't know they have a vision problem; they think they see just fine. Others who wear glasses often set their glasses aside because they, "get in the way."

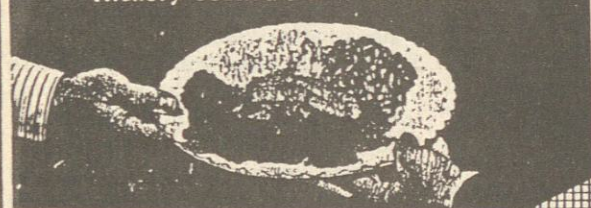

If your optometrist advises you to wear glasses, by all means wear them when hunting. Your prescription can be made up with plastic lenses, which are less likely to fog up, and also afford you more protection from flying shot, tree limbs, and other hazards.

There are many vision problems which could spell trouble during a hunt, therefore hunters should have a vision checkup every 12 months. Good vision results in more game...and it may mean the difference between life and death.

All friends and relatives of the couple are cordially invited to attend.

Parsons Reunion 1992

The Parsons reunion was held Sunday, June 14 at the Parsons Cemetery on Sardis Church Road. Everyone was happy to see Janie Parsons Ridge from Golden, MS there. She is the only child of Charlie and Mollie McCoy Parsons still living and she is 92 years young. Most of those attending were descendants of Richard Allen Parsons and Mary Stanford or Greenberry Parsons and Philadelphia Nunley. Richard and Greenberry were the sons of Johnathan Parsons and Lydia Patterson that came to Tishomingo County probably in the 1830's.

Those attending the reunion from the farthest away were James and Carol Johnson, Sanford, Maine; Faye Vesio, Brenda Carr and Paul Carr, Chicago, IL; and Linda and Gary Alstat, Evansville, IN.

Others from out of town were Othel and Bess Frost, Millington, TN; Jean and James Timbs, Millington, TN; Buddy Parsons, Geneva and Lindsey Newman and Bobbie Newman, Henderson, TN; Bobby and Penny Johnson, Tusculumbia, AL; Chris Johnson, Janet and Wayne Lawhorn and Jenilee Hamilton, Sheffield, AL; Lawrence and Eugenia Parsons, Ripley, MS; Donna and Dudley Shurlds, Starkville, MS; Charles and Barbara Ridge, Golden, MS; Earl Homer and Gene Ridge, Golden, MS; James, Wanda, Joshua and Kevin Ridge, Golden, MS; Rumelle and Charles Cude, Corinth, MS; and Sadie Mathis, Corinth, MS.

Many Parsons cousins still living in this area were also at the reunion. They were Ilene Smith, Ruby, Katie and Eric Crider, Vanessa and Amanda Smith, Majel George, D.L. and Leona Parsons, Helen and Buster Whittemore, Odis, Elizabeth and Mylinda Parsons, Nelda, Melvin, Kris and Christy Laster, Wanda, Gary and Stephanie Lambert, Dewayne, Betty and Hope Parsons, Vida Nichols, Jane Chastain, Jennifer, Sammy Joe, and Denise Wilson, LaNell, Amanda and Brandon Young, Daniel and Mackenzie Akers, Louise Barnes, Sandra Richerson, Tracie Spears, Teresa Hyneman, Lopez Marlar, Arlo Parsons, Harold Felks, Rebon Wilson, Velma Delaney, Lorena Fredrick, Christine Oaks, Kendrick Linton, Randy Linton and Shawn Wade.

The good weather helped make it a pleasant day of visiting for all. Hopefully 1993 will bring even more of the Parsons family together for good food and fellowship on the second Sunday in June.

Sardis Church News

By: Ova Reno

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. II Timothy 3:16.

Attendance at church was very good Sunday. Thanks to all the visitors that came. May God bless you.

Our special visitors were Lora Mullenax and daughter Meghan from Fairmont, W.V. and her step-daughter Jennifer Mullenax from Cookeville, TN. Lora blessed our hearts with her special songs. They are spending a while with her parents, Bro. John and Burton Stockton of Belmont.

Six of Bro. John and Burton's ten grandchildren and step-grandchildren attended church at Sardis Sunday. What a nice bunch of young folks!

Phelma Stockton attended Wood Reunion at Golden City Hall Sunday afternoon.

Bro. John read from Psalms 51:1-19 Sunday morning, verse 5: Behold, I was shapen in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me. Read it all.

Sunday night he read from Romans 4:1. What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh hath found? Read the Whole chapter and find out what Abraham found.

Weekly prayer: God, help me to remember to thank you for what I do have rather than remind you of what I don't have.

What prayer did God refuse to let Noah pray? Read Deuteronomy 13:25-26. For whom was Paul's heart heavy?

Commandments to church goers: Thou shalt in every way be kind, compassionate of tender mind, and so, by all the spirits grace thou shalt show God within this place. (The End)

Thought for the day. When we see ourselves as we really are, we will bow in grateful humility for God's great love to us.

Prayer suggestion: Rejoice and be thankful for everything which the Lord gives you.

About some weather: Oh, what an awful uncertain thing this pesky weather is. It blew and snow and then it thaw, and now, by jing, its snow friz. (P Johnson)

A benediction: The Lord bless thee and keep thee, and be gracious unto thee: The Lord Lift up His countenance upon thee, and give the peace. Numbers 6:24-26.

Celebrating History At Heritage Day

Shortly after 10:00 a.m. the American Indian Dancers honored The Chief Tishomingo Chapter DAR with a very informative presentation concerning their heritage and everyday life. For the convenience of Red Bird, a Cherokee and organizer of the group, the Chapter members met in the park on Heritage Day, June 6, 1992. The theme for the day was, "Celebrating History".

Red Bird gave a short talk. She stated the concept that most people have about the skin coloring of Indians being all dark complexioned is false. The color ranges from very light to dark. She was born in Oklahoma and came to Alabama about 5 years ago. In her talk, she compared some of the Indian traditions to life in Alabama. She then introduced other members of the group, her husband, Jimmie White Wolf, a full-blooded Comanche, Three Fires, Wondering Fox, Laughing Rain, Little Rabbit, Flower and Louise Green. They are all Cherokee. Jim Green is Cherokee-Creek. Shane Kelsoe is Chickasaw-Creek and Star Eyes is non Indian. Red Bird thanked the DAR for inviting her group to be a part of our Indian heritage program.

After a dance performance, Jimmie White Wolf talked to us about some of the early traditions that had been handed down from generation to generation. Such as, it was more honorable to touch your enemy and leave him still alive than to kill him. It was a sin to kill in self-defense, and if one did kill he would be vanished from the Tribe. Only after the Europeans came to this country were the Indians allowed to kill.

Jimmie White Wolf was fully dressed in Indian attire. He described the male dress which included, the breast plate, bustle, buckskin leggings, moccasins, shawl, and choker. A long time ago the breast plate, made of bone, was used for protection from hostile arrows. The feathered bustle, worn on the man's back represented his bravery. For each act of bravery, a feather was added to his bustle.

He also told us that they no longer have chiefs but a democratic government. Their Chairman and Co-Chairman are elected to office for a four year term. They abide by the laws of the federal government but also have their own law and government inside the federal government. Once a year, his family gathers in Oklahoma for a Eas Rosa Pow Wow. Last year about 20,000 Indians gather representing more than 60 different tribes.

Laughing Rain, daughter of Jimmie White Wolf and Red Bird, described the Northern traditional female dress. She told what each item stood for long ago such as the choker breast plate, buckskin leggings, beaded belt, moccasins, pouch, and jewelry. She also described the Northern fancy dress that Little Rabbit (her sister) wore and how that dress came about. Long ago, the woman's part of the dance consisted only of a graceful move done over and over again. The women became bored, so they began dressing as the men and competing with them in the dances and winning. The men felt as if something had to be done, so they came up with the Northern fancy dress. This dress is very colorful with a loose shawl that flies out when the women twirl around. The Northern Fancy Dancing is a much faster pace than the Northern Traditional Dancing.

Wandering Fox, son of Jimmie White Wolf, described his life as a teenager today. He said he was like most teenagers. He liked rap music and liked to go to the movies. They attended the public school system. He explained how their dance team got started. There was little for teenagers to do in his small home town, Mt. Hope, AL, so his mother, Red Bird organized the Red Bird Americans Dancers to give the teenagers something to do. They practice regularly at scheduled times and travel almost every weekend performing their dances.

Shane Kelsoe, an 18 year old dancer told to us about tracing his Indian ancestors. He found that he is more than half Indian. His great-grandfather went on the Trail of Tears. Shane has always lived in Alabama because some of the tribes claimed to be Black Dutch and did not have to leave Alabama.

Even though the American Indians try to keep as many traditions as possible from long ago, they have chosen to modernize their life styles, walk habits, and government to survive in today's growing society.

Coffee was regarded as heretical until Pope Clement VIII "blessed" it in the 17th century.

management skills while baby sitting during Iuka Elementary School PTA meetings this school term. The IES PTA would like to extend its appreciation to these young ladies and to Mrs. Yvonne Long, Director of the Child Care/Management Class, for their time and effort.

Emergency Unemployment Compensation Expires

The Emergency Unemployment Compensation program is set to expire July 4, 1992.

This is the law which Congress passed in November 1991 to extend the number of weeks in which long-term unemployed persons could draw unemployment insurance benefits.

Emergency benefits will continue for persons who filed before June 13, although the length of time they can draw may be shortened for some claimants, according to Charles Ballard, director of unemployment insurance with the Mississippi Employment Security Commission.

The U.S. Department of Labor has issued the following guidelines for the phaseout of the emergency benefits program:

The Emergency Unemployment Compensation Act of 1991 provides that individuals who qualify for EUC prior to June 13 will continue at the 26 or 33 week level providing no break in weeks occurs. However, individuals who are at a higher level, and are not paid for either week-ending June 13, June 20, or June 27, will drop back to the 13 or 20 week level for any subsequent weeks filed.

The maximum number of weeks for new, additional or reopened EUC claims effective June 14 through July 4, will be at the 13 week level, minus any EUC previously paid, based on Mississippi's current Total Unemployment Rate (TUR).

Individuals who are in an EUC claim series the week of July 4 will receive benefits until they exhaust, provided they are paid consecutive weeks. If they are not paid the week of July 4 or after, benefits will terminate. New, additional or reopened EUC claims may not be filed on or after July 5, 1992.

The original name of the cartoon strip "Peanuts" was to be "Li'l Folks."

Fourth of July is here again, lets warn people to be extremely careful so we can keep the tragedies down. It's always a great time for families to be together picnicing and so forth but do be careful.

Glad to report that Miss Eva Sparks is home from the Baptist Hospital in Booneville after undergoing test for a week, she is better.

Mrs. Alma Morgan is home from the hospital in luka and is better.

Mr. George Harper is home from the hospital in luka. He is fair at times.

Jerry Ward Epps underwent heart test in Tupelo Monday and Tuesday of last week. He didn't get any serious reports. In which we're proud of.

Mrs. Rivers Hester had a accident last week in that she fell and broke her hip. Reports are that she is up trying to walk after surgery at the ECM Hospital in Florence, AL room 283. We don't want to forget to pray for all the sick that we know about and all of the shut-ins in town too.

Sorry about the accident that involved Bill Bates, proud he didn't get any serious injuries when he wrecked his car Thursday morning on the way to work at the park.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Berryman of Memphis spent last weekend with the Toni Barnett's family.

Lamar Bolton and Mrs. Jewell Thorn were Friday lunch guest of Mrs. Lois Bolton.

Always sorry to report deaths of our home boys. The Underwood Family have our deepest sympathy in the death of Blufford Underwood, brother to Mrs. Ursula Hood and it came as a shock to all relatives here.

Opaline Crouse, Shirley Thorn, Janette Maxwell and Eva Mae Strickland enjoyed lunch at the Paden Park along the bank of the Tenn-Tom on Monday.

Shirley Thorn spent Monday night with Opaline Crouse.

Opaline Crouse, Edward Thorn and Shirley Thorn were in Tupelo on Friday for Opaline's doctor appointment. She got a good report. They did some shopping while there and ate at Hardee's.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thorn and Shirley, Opaline Crouse and Eva Mae Strickland enjoyed lunch at Bonaza in Muscle Shoals on Sunday and then stopped by the Coon Dog Cemetery on the way home.

Bobby Thorn was supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thorn and Shirley on Sunday. Opaline Crouse and Eva Mae Strickland also visited them. Bobby was on his way home in Florence from the car show in Selmer, Tenn. where he placed 2nd, with his 79 Corvette.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thorn and Shirley Ann on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dickenson of Golden, Eva Mae Strickland, Stephanie and Jessica McNutt, Katie & Chad Strickland, Opaline Crouse and Bobby Thorn. Bobby was on his way from the car show in Nettleton where he placed again on his Corvette. Lucky you!

Reports were that Mrs. Ethel House was very sick Sunday. She is just not doing well at all. She makes her home with her daughter Mr. and Mrs. Billy Messner.

Eva Mae Strickland, Shirley Thorn, Opaline Crouse, Jr. Gail, David, Michelle, Michael, Chad & Katie Strickland were all guest of John B. & Willard Strickland & Jerry Epps Sunday evening.

Ronnie and Sandra Cox of Fulton were Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Cox and Stevie Robert Fedric were also guest.

Mrs. Ishbell Hill is a patient at the hospital in luka. She is the mother of Willa Dean Cox and Deloris Gasaway. Hope she has a soon recovery.

Guest of Mrs. Lois Bolton Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Pounders. Johnny Randolph of luka and Ann Lowery of luka.

Mrs. Mary Dobbs has not been well recently. Mrs. Shirley Ingram visited recent and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crow. Mary says she has lots of calls from the church members that she enjoys so much. And she speaks of Mrs. Janice Black, her neighbor that carries her hot food every day. How appreciative she is of her. We hope Mrs. Mary gets to feeling better soon.

People that have finished school at Tishomingo don't forget the Alumni Celebration on July 4th at the school. See you there.

The trip of a lifetime was recently enjoyed by Cladron and Tina Parker, Peggy Page and Vera White to the Hawaiian Islands. While there they stayed on the four main islands and enjoyed a Luau, followed by a show of hula dancers, a visit to the Polynesian Culture Center and the USS Arizona Memorial. They enjoyed touring a live Volcano with wispe of smoke and red hot ashes. The natural beauty was simply breathtaking. Viewing the landscape from the air was beyond words. The fun and excitement finally came to an end and they were glad to be back on Tishomingo soil.

Visiting Vera White recently were Veda and Carolyn Borden of Memphis. They attended the fiftieth wedding anniversary of luka and Christine Morgan. Lauren White also spent time with her grandmother. Vera accompanied Lauren home to Florence and spent the night and was happy to baby sit Brad and Lauren for a day. While in the area Vera also visited Mr. and Mrs. L.E. McDougale, Evelyn McDougale and Nancy Morgan Davis all in Tusculmbia. Liz Langley of Tupelo was in Tishomingo recently to visit her mother and welcome her home from her Hawaiian trip.

Cancer Research Awards $1.5 Million In Research Grants

Can the oils found in fish help reduce cancer risk? Can the calcium and vitamin D in milk lower colorectal cancer rates? Can a nutrient from the common onion help prevent esophageal cancer?

Those are but three of eighteen innovative new research questions in diet and cancer which have just won more than $1.5 million in new research grant awards from the American Institute for Cancer Research.

The relationship between diet and cancer has become a subject of increasing interest for researchers in recent years as scientists have found not only links between the foods we eat and some types of cancer, but also increasing evidence that some nutrients in foods may offer protection against cancer.

One of the newest research findings in this field came recently from Dr. Paul Talalay of Johns Hopkins University, who uncovered a chemical in broccoli which helps trigger an enzyme in cells that protects against carcinogens. Dr. Talalay's research efforts in this area were begun with an American Institute for Cancer Research research grant some years ago.

The American Institute for Cancer Research has awarded almost $19 million in research grants to scientists at universities, hospitals and research centers across the U.S. over the past decade. The Institute provides funding for research into the role of diet and nutrition in both cancer prevention and cancer treatment.

Additional information on the AICR research grant program, including a full listing of research projects, is available from the American Institute for Cancer Research, Research Department, Washington, D.C. 20069.

Words of Appreciation

The family of William Whitehurst "Doc" Murphy would like to express our thanks to our family, friends, and neighbors for your many acts of kindness at the death of our brother and uncle. Special thanks to Bro. Perry Murphy, Cutshalls, and the pallbearers.

May God Bless Each One

me alone."

How do we show our love? By words that soothe? Yes, but more by ways that serve.

It's good to say, "I love you." So say it. But also show it.

Love is a sacrifice. But it's also a satisfaction. Joy comes to the one who loves as well as to the one who's loved. You can't help another without helping yourself. So live love, won't you!

Calvinism

John Calvin, the great Protestant reformer, set forth five tenets which he believed framed the Christian religion. The tenets are easily remembered by the TULIP acronym: Total hereditary depravity, unconditional election, limited atonement, irresistible grace and Perseverance of the saints.

The city of Pella, Iowa celebrates an annual tulip festival along with its Dutch heritage; windmills, wooden shoes, and a street washing, along with the beautiful tulips. The religion in Pella is predominately the Dutch Reformed Church, which teaches Calvinism pure and simple. Calvinism is not taught quite so blatantly in North Alabama. But it has certainly had its effect.

From the tenets in the TULIP acronym, the ideas of Calvin are seen. According to this belief people are born in sin inherited from their parents. The elect, those chosen by God to be saved, are selected without regard for what they might or might not do - unconditionally. God sends His grace to the elect which cannot be resisted and which miraculously works to make them His children. Finally, those who are saved will persevere regardless of what comes their way - once saved, always saved.

Not one of these five tenets is true. While God is sovereign and can certainly save who He wishes to save, God has chosen to give man a say in whether or not he wants to be saved in the last day. "He that believes and is baptized shall be saved. He that believes not shall be condemned." (Mark 16:16)

Next week we will begin an examination of the scriptures on these five tenets of Calvinism.

Chautauqua Planned For Mineral Springs Park

Jefferson Davis and Abraham Lincoln are coming to Iuka. With a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, the Mississippi Humanities Council is bringing a Chautauqua to Iuka's Mineral Springs Park on Saturday, August 8. Sponsored by the Tishomingo County Presenting Arts Association.

In the late 1800s and early 1900s, Chautauqua traveled across America, offering authors, professors, and political leaders as speakers in tent meetings which have been described as a people's university. This program is offered in the same spirit as the original, as entertaining education.

Allen Dennis will portray Abraham Lincoln and debate Kit Carter as Jefferson Davis at 5:30. Dennis is a professor of history at Delta State University who has long impersonated historical characters for his students. Carter is professor of history at Mississippi University for Women where he was teacher of the year for 1992. Each character will introduce himself in a short biographical monologue and then debate. After the debate, the audience will be invited to question Davis and Lincoln "in character," as the historical figures would have responded. Finally, the moderator will introduce the professors to answer questions as scholars.

Participants will break for a picnic in the park. At 8:00, a second performance will feature two female journalists, Ida B. Wells and Eliza Jane Poltevant. Wells was born a slave in Holly Springs in 1862. When her parents died in a yellow fever epidemic in 1876, she took a job as a country school teacher to support her younger brothers and sisters. After attending Rust College while teaching, she moved her family to Memphis in 1884 to take a higher paying position in the public schools. The same year she successfully sued the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad for forcing her into a segregated railroad car after she had paid for a first class ticket.

Continuing to teach, Wells moved into journalism as editor of the Memphis Free Speech. Dismissed from her teaching position for criticizing the unequal provisions made for black schools in Memphis, she was subsequently run out of town for editorials about the lynching of one of her friends. She eventually settled in Chicago and continued her anti-lynching and black rights activities. Ida B. Wells was honored in 1989 with a commemorative postage stamp for a life of work for racial and female equality. Wells will be played by Marcia Berry-Diggs, who is finishing a MFA degree at the University of Mississippi. Berry-Diggs is a "non-traditional student," having reared five children before becoming an actress and starting college.

Elizabeth Sarcone, a graduate of MUW and professor of English at Delta State University, will portray Eliza Poltevant Holbrook Nicholls. "Pearl Rivers," as she signed her newspaper columns, was educated as a Southern "lady," to marry some "gentleman" and grace his home. Instead she wrote poetry and took a job on the New Orleans Picayune as literary editor. She shortly thereafter married the much older editor, Colonel Alva Holbrook. Upon his death, she was left to run the paper in an age when a female reporter was a novelty and a female editor unthinkable. She revived the paper, led many reform movements, and along the way helped to shape modern journalism, with sections for children and women, a society page, and an advice column by her fellow Mississippian Dorothy Dix. Later marrying her business manager, George Nicholson, and rearing a family, she never relinquished control of the paper.

Join these characters at Mineral Springs Park on August 8, bring a picnic supper, and prepare for an evening of entertaining education. Other Chautauqua presentations will be held in Whynot on August 9 and 10, Picayune August 11 and 12, Biloxi August 13 and 14, Crystal Springs August 15, and Mathiston August 18 & 19. For further information, contact Dr. Cora Norman, Executive Director, MHC, at 601-982-6752.

NEMCC Orientation Scheduled

Two full days of fun and excitement are in store for participants of Northeast Mississippi Community College's freshman orientation program scheduled for July 30-31 and August 3-4.

Making the transition from the high school environment to that of a college campus is what Northeast Mississippi Community College's summer orientation and pre-registration program is designed for.

Open to incoming freshmen and transfer students under the age of 20, Orientation '92 is conducted in two sessions based on a student's chosen major. A $35 fee covers meals, housing for one night and all orientation and advanced registration activities.

The schedule begins with registration in Estes Hall where dorm assignments are made from 11:30 a.m. until 12:45 p.m. From 1:00 through 6:30 p.m. of the first day, students will participate in orientation and advanced registration activities. Dinner will be served in the Frank Haney Union. From 6:30-11:00 p.m., students will be free to enjoy a movie, skate/dance party, swimming, tennis, and video and arcade games.

Students should come prepared to pay tuition and other registration fees in order to complete registration during the orientation sessions.

For information about orientation and advanced registration, contact the NEMCC Counseling Center at 728-7751, extension 313.

Mulberry School Reunion

On June 20, 1992, Fay Reynolds of Corinth, MS, Durless Skelton Smith of Chicago, Ill., former students of the old Mulberry School, 3 mi. N. Burnsville Rd. 365 N. were instrumental in arranging for a wonderful reunion. Students from many states gathered, Miss Dorothy Garrett a former teacher, Mrs. Otha Johnson placed a huge U.S. Flag on New Church which has replaced the old Mulberry School, which was built on old ball court, all pledge allegiance to flag. All enjoyed singing old school songs.

Fay Reynolds read the history of Mulberry School which came from a Mulberry Tree.

The church house was equipped with modern furniture, heating, cooling, water, musical instrumental, same as in larger schools all former students were amazed and glad and appreciated what had been done to preserve old Mulberry which was dear to their heart.

Each person were required to register giving new addresses.

Namonia Reynolds Army Retire returned thanks, an abundance of food and drinks were enjoyed by all under beautiful shade trees, long folding tables used for lunch where they once played. Many visited old cemetery talked of those who had passed away. Remembering old spelling bee, programs, plays.

Many took addresses from register to keep in touch with friends who lives far away and made plans for another reunion next year also took pictures.

Frank Lynch was present, he had spelled in old Iuka Court House in Iuka, MS where the best speller in County got a prize. At the close only 2 students were left out of large number.

This was the first school to start serving hot lunches every day. Food donated and served by parents.

This school was moved to Holloway later years, now a beautiful church stands well-equipped for people who want to attend Mulberry Church.

The same brass bell that was used long ago, was used again at this reunion. Calling people to lunch.

All went their different ways home planning next year reunion.

Cellular Telephone Users Report Emergencies On *HP

Calls coming into the Mississippi Highway Patrol on the *HP number from cellular telephone users range from real emergencies to people "just seeing if it worked."

Col. Jay Clark, Highway Patrol director, said since its May 1 inception, about 50 calls a week have been coming in on the *HP number. "Most of the callers have reported actual emergency situations including speeders, drivers believed to be under the influence of drugs or alcohol, trees blocking the roadway, a tire in the middle of the road, etc.

"Probably the most unusual call was from a man who reported seeing a flying saucer. Fortunately, he was calling from outside the patrol's jurisdiction so we forwarded the call to the agency having jurisdiction," Clark said.

Earlier this year, the primary providers of cellular telephone service in Mississippi joined together to allow their users a quick and free connection to the Highway Patrol by dialing *HP (47). Cellular One of Mississippi, MCTA and Cellular South provide the service to enhance the safety of their customers.

Clark reminds cellular telephone users that *HP should be used to report emergencies occurring on state and federal highways.

Barbara Sweeney Retires

A reception honoring Mrs. Barbara Sweeney was held on June 9, 1992, at the Iuka United Methodist Church Family Life Center. After 29 years of service with the Tishomingo County Department of Human Services, Mrs. Sweeney's Retirement was effective June 30, 1992.

Mrs. Sweeney's career with the department began on July 15, 1963, with her appointment as home visitor. The agency was then known as the Welfare Department. She served in various positions, being promoted to the position of social worker in January, 1975. The position that she held until her retirement.

Mrs. Sweeney will best be remembered for her dedication to helping those that she served. She was always ready, day or night, to help those in need, especially children. Her efforts have been tireless and Tishomingo County is a better place because of her dedication and work.

ASCS Farm News

CROP CERTIFICATION DEADLINE NEARS

Tishomingo County farmers are asked to certify their 1992 crop plantings, land uses, acreage conservation reserve and other program acreage with the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service as soon as possible.

The final certification date for all spring seeded crops including CRP (10 year program) is July 15, 1992.

Certification is how farmers report their acreage to establish their eligibility to receive the benefits of price support, deficiency payments and other farm program benefits. Acreage reports are required for all participating farms.

Growers not participating in the 1992 programs should also report their acreage to establish planting history, ensure future benefits and protect crop acreage bases.

After certification, ASCS will select farms at random to verify that acreage reports are accurate. Aerial photographs are available for farmers to help identify their fields.

Certification is particularly important to producers of quota crops such as tobacco and peanuts. In addition to these crops, however, all other crop acreage must be accurately reported.

Spring seeded crops may be certified at any time between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday at the local ASCS office.

The club took application from seniors at Tishomingo County High School and awarded the scholarship on the basis of scholarship, extra-curricular activities, citizenship and need. Club representative, Joy Kitchens, presented the award.

Fireworks

Dazzling & Dangerous

For millions of Americans the Fourth of July means picnics, barbecues and time with family and friends. It is also the time of the year for fireworks. According to the National Council on Fireworks Safety, more fireworks are used for America's celebration of independence than for any other holiday in the world. For every commercial display, many more fireworks are exploded by people in backyards, fields and streets. Unfortunately, these festivities can lead to tragedy.

The Consumer Product Safety Commission estimates that approximately 11,200 people were treated for fireworks-related injuries in 1991. Children under age 15 are the most frequently involved. Fireworks usually cause burns to the eyes, face and hands. These injuries typically occur when a firecracker either explodes in someone's hand, is dropped on a foot or explodes in a pocket. "Unfortunately, some people will live with a reminder of the Fourth of July for a lifetime," notes Christy Gilliland, Director of the Division of Disabilities Prevention, of the Department of Rehabilitation Services. According to Gilliland, "fireworks-related injuries can result in permanent disfigurement, hearing loss, or vision impairment."

In many locations, ordinances restrict the use of fireworks. Before choosing to use fireworks, be aware of local laws and develop a plan to safely use fireworks. Establishing rules for fireworks before the Fourth of July is a good way to reduce the threat of injury. Children must be taught that fireworks are not toys. Even seemingly harmless fireworks such as sparklers can cause serious injury. For all age groups, firecrackers and sparklers were involved in 58 percent of the injuries. Sparklers are also the leading product involved in injuries to children under age 5."

"By discussing fireworks rules early, you can go over them several times with your children before the excitement of the holiday takes over," suggests Mark Smith, Mississippi SAFE KIDS Coalition Spokesperson. Although the safest way to enjoy fireworks is to attend an official fireworks celebration, many people will choose to purchase and ignite fireworks. Reduce your risk of injury by establishing safe firework practices.

The Mississippi SAFE KIDS Coalition recommends the following fireworks safety plan:

- *Attend official fireworks celebrations.
- *Establish a safe viewing area outdoors.
- *Discuss guidelines with your children, and review safety rules together.
- *Establish emergency procedures. Teach children to "stop, drop and roll" if their clothes catch fire and make sure they know how to contact your emergency medical system.
- *Never give fireworks to a small child.
- *Always have an adult present.
- *Read labels and follow all directions.

tions.

- *Never use fireworks indoors.
- *Never aim fireworks at another person.
- *Never carry fireworks in your pocket.
- *Never re-ignite a firework that has failed to go off.
- *Have water handy - especially if children are using sparklers.
- "Children need guidance," remarks Smith. "Parents must take a leadership role when dealing with fireworks in order to make the holiday both festive and safe."

For more information contact the Mississippi SAFE KIDS Coalition (1-800-852-8328) which is part of the National SAFE KIDS Campaign, a long-term effort to prevent childhood injury-the number one killer of children.

Old Bridge Beach Opens With Celebrate America Festival

On the long, warm Summer days ahead, more and more people will be seeking refuge from the heat. And what could be more inviting than swimming and relaxing at a sandy white beach. Old Bridge Beach may be just what you need for a relaxing day.

It is located just off of Highway 4 near the Prentiss County line, and it will be opening on the 4th of July.

If your looking for recreational fun, this is definitely going to be a "hot spot" for you this Summer.

Fully equipped with a sand volleyball court, this beach will appeal to today's sports-minded individuals. For parents with children, you may be interested in checking out the tot lot located on the beach. There is also a double pavilion available for picnics and those who are simply looking for shade.

Other features added for convenience are outdoor showers, waterborne toilets, and paved parking.

The best news is that the Old Bridge Beach is opening just in time for the 1st annual "Celebrate America" festivities which will be held on site there.

The days events will begin at 8:00 a.m. with the opening of the beach. At 12:00 noon Wizard 106.7 will arrive on the scene. From 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. there will be a model airplane show. From 3:00 - 8:00 p.m. live entertainment will be provided by local artists. A children's fishing rodeo will be conducted from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. The rubber ducky regatta will begin at 7:30 p.m. and a boat parade starting at Bay Springs Marina and going past Old Bridge Beach will also start at this time.

The Rubber Ducky Regatta will benefit the American Cancer Society. Ducks may be adopted by making a $5.00 donation at one of these adoption centers: Deposit Guaranty (main branch) and Spice of Life Bookstore-Alcorn, Unisouth Bank and Bank of Mississippi - Itawamba, Unisouth Bank, and Jim Bain Pharmacy - Lee, First National Bank and People's Bank - Pontotoc, People's Bank and Bank of Mississippi - Prentiss, People's Bank and 1st National-Tippah, People's Bank and Western Auto and Grisham's Menswear-Tishomingo, and Bank of New Albany - Union.

The winner of the regatta will receive a 1992 Swift GA Automobile provided by Suzuki of Tupelo. This event is sponsored by radio station Wizard 106.7, WTVA news and the American Cancer Society. For more information concerning this event contact The American Cancer Society 1-800-227-2345.

The grand finale will be a fireworks show shot off from Mackey's Point which can be viewed from Bay Springs Lock, Old Bridge Beach, and West Damsite Picnic Area. The fireworks show will begin at 9:00 p.m. and wrap up the day's events. The Corps of Engineers, Bay Springs Marina, the cities of Burnsville, Booneville, Belmont, Dennis, Iuka, Marietta and Tishomingo as well as the Prentiss and Tishomingo County Development Authorities invite you to join them for fun packed 4th at the beach.

For further information contact the Bay Springs Resource office at 454-3481 Monday thru Friday 7:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

NASA's Tri-State Education Initiative Receives Recognition

In a conference Tuesday, June 9, NASA's Tri-State Education Initiative (TSEI) impact area of Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee was officially designated as the first America 2000 community to cross state lines. Five remote sites were linked together via interactive televideo conference satellite and were all able to participate in this historic occasion.

Roger Moore, the elected chairman of the TSEI Consortium, opened the conference at 9 a.m. CDT from a televideo site at the University of Alabama, Huntsville. Moore welcomed all the participants, then he introduced the governors of Alabama and Mississippi and Tennessee's commissioner of education.

Mississippi Gov. Kirk Fordice, along with the Alabama Gov. Guy Hunt, Tennessee's Commissioner of Education Charles Smith, NASA Administrator Daniel Goldin, U.S. Secretary of Education Lamar

Alexander and Tri-State Education Consortium Chairman Roger Moore actively participated in the document signing.

After brief statements, the two governors signed a copy of the America 2000 tri-state region resolution, and Commissioner Smith presented the signed copy on behalf of Tennessee Gov. Ned McWherter. Gov. Fodice, who was participating in the conference from the Institutions of Higher Learning in Jackson, was very excited about the new resolution, stating, "I'm enthusiastic over the role of NASA to facilitate a systematic change in education. Furthermore, I look forward with great interest to the opportunity to take some nuggets that work in this tri-state area and transpose them to other areas of Mississippi...Improvement for the area is not a job to be left to a few. It is a responsibility to be shared by all."

After the resolution was signed, it was presented to Alexander. The U.S. secretary of education commented, "Just as our prior innovations in space and in the military took an extraordinary commitment, putting aside the old way of doing things and innovating and changing...will have to be done with our schools, too. But it can't be done from Washington. It can't even be done from the state capitol. So, we're doing it state by state, community by community, with America 2000."

Goldin then spoke about the significance of the event, saying to the governors, "I salute you. You're providing leadership for America and our young people. As leaders of the country, we must offer our young people inspiration, hope and opportunity. And what greater opportunity can we offer them but outstanding education."

In closing, Goldin declared, "We are proud to have helped facilitate the first America 2000 tri-state community."

Moore closed the conference with his comments about the future of the Tri-State Education Initiative. "The actions you have taken today will serve to encourage us as educators, administrators and citizens to renew our efforts to pursue the educational strategy set forth in America 2000," Moore said.

Under the leadership of NASA's John C. Stennis Space Center, a national demonstration program, the Tri-State Education Initiative, was implemented in 1991. The TSEI is a cooperative effort between NASA and state, local and other federal agencies to work toward accomplishment of the National education goals outlined in America 2000, President Bush's bold education strategy.

TSEI encompasses an area within a 50-mile radius of Iuka, MS. TSEI advocates total community involvement in the education system and programs appropriate for people of all age groups. The program originated at the end of 1991 and has already experienced exceptional growth under the leadership of Dr. David Powe, TSEI's program manager.

The televideo conference was made possible by MCI, CAE-Link, Video Telecome and Digital Access.

Waterway Festival July 10th & 11th

Officials of the Burnsville Area Chamber of Commerce are now finalizing their plans for the third annual Waterway Festival. The two-day event will be held Friday, July 10 and Saturday, July 11 on the Burnsville School Campus near Highway 72.

There will be a beauty pageant on Friday night, July 10 for girls vying for the title of 1992 Waterway Festival Queen. The five divisions participating will include ages 2 years through 18 years old. Long formal will not be worn since the pageant will be an outdoor event. Girls entering the pageant are being asked to wear a dressy dress of their choice.

Each division will have one winner and two alternates. Trophies will be awarded to the overall winner in each division. There will be two alternates in addition to the first place winner.

Interested persons wishing to enter their daughters in the pageant, please contact Barbara T. McElroy, 427-9366, Kathy Skelton, 427-9526, Tim Nash, 427-8809. Entry forms will be picked up at Mid-Town Jewelers in Iuka, 423-2023; Body Works Tishomingo, 438-7085; Belmont Journal in Belmont, 454-7196; and in Burnsville: Burnsville Discount Camp, 427-8809; First American National Bank, 427-9545; and Burnsville Hall, 427-9526. There will be an entry fee and the deadline for entering is Friday, July 3.

On Saturday, July 11, 1992, from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., Segars Clinic Mobile Unit will be at First American National Bank doing free glucose or cholesterol and blood pressure tests.

Festival officials are also asking those interested persons to contact the following: 5-K Run-Harvey Dergrast at 427-8419; Arts and Crafts Displays and Food & Drink sessions-Kathy Skelton at 427-9526 or Tim Nash at 427-8809; and Entertainment-Donna Burns at 427-9526.

Gene Campbell Celebrates 82nd Birthday--Tuesday, June 30, marked the 82nd birthday for Gene Campbell of Iuka. He celebrated this special day at Tishomingo Manor in Iuka where he is now a resident. Gene is the son of the late Mrs. Lou Daily and Mack Campbell of Iuka. He worked in Memphis, Tenn. for 20 years or more as a fire fighter. He retired as Lieutenant on the lead fire truck and then moved back to Iuka where he served as custodian at the Iuka Methodist Church for seven years. Gene loved his job at the church and loved everybody there. He also worked at the Iuka City Hall as custodian. Gene is a Mason and belongs to the Snowdown Methodist Church. He has been married to his wife, Lonette Barnes Campbell, for 55 years.

Teacher Of The Year

The Iuka Elementary School PTA, at a staff meeting on May 28, 1992, recognized Becky McNeely as the 1991-92 IES PTA Teacher of the Year. Each year the IES PTA recognizes a teacher at the Iuka Elementary School who has made valuable contributions to the Iuka Elementary School and to the IES PTA. Mrs. McNeely was given a plaque with the inscription: For every dream, for every aspiration a student holds, there is a teacher who helped turn those ideas into realities. Mrs. McNeely will also receive a check in the amount of $100.00 from the IES PTA to be used for purchasing classroom material and teaching aids.

Mrs. "Mac", as the children call her, has taught grades 1st through 5th and currently teaches 1st grade at the Iuka Elementary School. She has twenty-two years experience in the Iuka/Tishomingo County School System, and 2 years in Lafayette County. She is a member of the Mississippi Professional Educators and has been recognized by the Who's Who in America's Teachers for the years 1990-92. Mrs. McNeely is a member of the IES PTA and has served as Vice-President of the PTA for three prior terms.

Mrs. McNeely graduated from the Delta State University Center in Hattiesburg, Mississippi. She attended Mississippi State University, Midwestern University and Ole Miss. Upon graduation, Mrs. McNeely received her Masters of Education degree.

"This year has been the most fun ever", Mrs. McNeely indicated. She attributes much of her enthusiasm to the Whole Language program which she incorporated into her classroom this year. She commented that the children have been very responsive to the program and have been very eager to learn.

Mrs. McNeely is married to Don McNeely, self-employed Plumber and Electrician and is involved in church at Snowdown Methodist Church. She has four children: Grant Jones, age 21, a student at Southern; Lee Jones, age 15, a student at Tishomingo County High School; Keith McNeely, age 11, a student at Iuka Middle School; and Gwen, age 6, a student at Iuka Elementary School.

Kappa Kappa Iota Sorority Meeting

The Kappa Kappa Iota Sorority met at the home of member, Mrs. Mildred Hill to assemble for departure of their meeting June 9, regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Hill and president Mrs. Marquerita Nixon drove their cars to transport club members to Pickwick Lake Hotel.

Mrs. Mary Williams, secretary was unable to attend the previous meeting, so no minutes were read of the last meeting.

Ms. Nixon gave the devotional thought, reminding the club of God's great gift of beauty in spring time outdoors.

The election of officers for 1992-93 was discussed but election was postponed because of the absence of several kappas.

After a delicious luncheon the sorority chose a delegate, Mrs. Christine Mercer to represent Theta Conclave, the State Mississippi at the national convention in Asheville, North Carolina June 25-28.

The three great essentials of happiness are something to do, something to love and something to hope for.

Tomato Virus Reaches Epidemic Proportions

Home gardeners are in the battle for their tomato plants' lives as tomato spotted wilt virus escalates to the worst outbreak ever -- reaching epidemic proportions across Mississippi.

"We've gotten a tremendous number of calls recently and anticipate a continued increase in reported cases of tomato spotted wilt virus," said Dr. Frank Killebrew, extension plant pathologist at Mississippi State University. "This is very early in the year for this number of reported cases."

While symptoms vary with the strain of virus, tomato plants typically display a blackening on the tops of the leaves. The fruit will have a poor appearance with yellow blotches and an off flavor or the yield will be non-existent.

The virus over-winters on weeds such as chickweed, bindweed, nettle and others. Thrips larvae feed on the infected spring weeds, and as mature thrips, transmit the virus to tomatoes, peppers, peanuts and other plants.

Dr. Pat Harris, area pest management specialist in Decatur, said the virus is primarily spread by the Western flower thrips, which are prevalent in cotton-growing areas such as northern and Delta counties in Mississippi. Harris anticipates the virus incidence will get worse before it gets better.

"Reports across the state are steadily increasing," Harris said. "The outbreak was more intense in North Mississippi and the Delta where cotton is prevalent because of the high numbers of Western flower thrips. Because the thrips are so tiny (smaller than a gnat), the wind carries and spreads the insects easily."

Harris speculated that the lack of heavy spring rains could have contributed to the increased thrips population.

"A good rain will beat the tiny insects out of the plant," Harris said.

Killebrew said control is the best prevention method since plants cannot be cured.

"At this time in the growing season, insecticides can reduce the thrips population, but they still have limited value," Killebrew said. "Weed control in and around the garden can reduce the sites that harbor thrips, but that only gives nominal help since wind can carry the thrips a great distance."

Killebrew recommended removal of the plants when they show signs of the virus. Infected plants can be replaced with new plants since the virus is not passed through the soil.

The plant pathologist said because of the large number of reports this early in the season, Mississippians could anticipate the magnitude of the virus to surpass 1986, one of the worst years for tomato spotted wilt virus.

"The earlier the virus shows up, the more widespread the losses," Killebrew said.

Tougher Penalties Face Drunk Drivers

Drunk and drugged drivers in Mississippi will face up to 25 years in prison, forfeiture of vehicles, up to $5,000 in fines and the loss of drivers' licenses under a revision of the state drunk and drugged driving laws which becomes effective July 1.

"Each year, drunk and drugged driving accounts for nearly half of Mississippi highway fatalities," said Donald O'Carin, director of the Department of Public Safety's Division of Public Safety Planning. "Our state already has some of the nation's toughest drunk and drugged driving laws, but this 1992 revision should make it even more clear that Mississippi is very serious about getting these drivers off our highways."

Any person operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs, and causing the death or serious injury of another person, faces up to 25 years in prison. Prior to the revised legislation, the penalty was up to 10 years in prison.

The new act provides for the discretionary seizure and forfeiture of a motor vehicle being driven by a person convicted of a third or subsequent violation of the Mississippi Implied Consent Law. For any such conviction within a period of five years, the driver is deemed guilty of a felony, fined not less than $2,000 nor more than $5,000 and will be imprisoned not less than one year nor more than five years in the state penitentiary. The individual also faces the prospect of having his or her driver's license suspended for five years.

It is illegal in Mississippi to drive with a blood alcohol content of .10 percent or more. The revised legislation broadens the definition of "driving under the influence" (DUI) to include driving under the influence of any drug or controlled substance, the possession of which is unlawful under the Mississippi Controlled Substances Law.

Still another feature of the new legislation is that out-of-state DUI convictions will be counted for purposes of determining if a Mississippi conviction is a second or subsequent conviction.

Persons convicted of a second DUI offense within a period of five years from the first conviction will be fined not less than $600 or more than $1,500, be imprisoned not less than 10 days nor more than one year and sentenced to community service work for not less than 10 days nor more than one year.

First offenders also will face tougher penalties. They will be fined not less than $250 nor more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than 48 hours or both. They also face the prospect of having their drivers' licenses suspended for a period of not less than 90 days. All first offenders must complete a state-approved alcohol safety education program.

A loophole in other recent DUI legislation was closed by the requirement that the DUI charge will not be reduced to a lesser charge for any person driving with a blood alcohol content of .10 percent or more.

University Of Mississippi Awarded Federal Grant

The University of Mississippi School of Pharmacy has been awarded a $15,639 grant from the National Institute of Allergy & Infectious Diseases, according to the state's U.S. Senators.

U.S. Senators Trent Lott and Thad Cochran, both R-Miss, said that the grant will be used for the Small Instrumentation Grant project.

"This grant will help the University of Mississippi to purchase modern and better instrumentation for pharmacy studies and research," Lott said. "It is important that we provide our institutions of higher learning with adequate equipment and supplies for learning applications."

The Small Instrumentation Grant project is designed to help grovns replace obsolete biomedical rese a instrumentation.

The project and budget oods both are from June 1, 1992, June 30, 1993. The National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases is a branch of the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services.

Trucking In Mississippi Tells All

Which industries in Mississippi are dependent on trucking? How many people in Mississippi work in the trucking industry? What does trucking mean to the state's economy?

These and dozens of other questions about the economic benefits of trucking are answered in "Trucking in Mississippi."

*More than 63,700 people were employed in Mississippi's trucking industry in 1990 -- one of every 12 workers.

*Mississippi's trucking industry generated an annual payroll of $1.6 billion in 1990.

*Mississippi's trucking industry paid $160 million in state and federal highway taxes in 1989 -- $3.1 million a week.

*Even though trucks accounted for only 1.5 percent of all vehicles registered in Mississippi in 1988, their operators paid 55 percent of all state and federal highway taxes.

Published as a joint venture between the Mississippi Trucking Association, the American Trucking Association Foundation and Associates Commercial Corp., the brochure describes the trucking industry's contribution to employment and economic vitality.

Similar publications have been created for other states.

"Trucking is sort of a 'hidden' activity that a lot of people take for granted," said Harold D. Marshall, vice chairman of Associates Commercial Corp. "This information program was designed to share the measure of trucking's contribution to jobs, productivity and our standard of living on a state-by-state, grassroots basis."

Associates Commercial Corp. is the leading source of financing for heavy-duty trucks and truck trailers in the United States. It is a subsidiary of Associates Corporation of North America, a part of the Financial Services Group of For Motor Company.

Individuals interested in obtaining a copy of the brochure or more information about trucking can contact Dean Cotten, general manager, Mississippi Trucking Association, 767 N. President Street, Jackson, MS 39202. Telephone: (601)354-0616.

Fourth Of July Revelers May Pay New DUI Fines

Too much Fourth of July frolicking may result in revelers being the first to encounter the state's new penalties for driving under the influence of drugs or alcohol (DUI). The 78-hour holiday gets underway at 6 p.m. on Thursday, July 2 and ends at midnight on Sunday, July 5. During last year's Independence Day observance state troopers cited 172 drivers on DUI charges.

Mississippi Highway Patrol officials said the revised Implied Consent Law, which becomes effective July 1, eliminates plea bargaining in DUI cases and makes the third or subsequent DUI conviction a felony.

"What should be of major importance to a drinking driver," said Lt. Col. Billie Hughes, chief of the patrol's uniformed division, "is that upon conviction of the third or subsequent DUI offense within a five-year period the Department of Public Safety (DPS) may seize the violator's vehicle."

"By going through a procedure of giving notice to all parties involved, including lienholders, the law gives DPS the discretion to seize the motor vehicle if the owner was driving the vehicle at the time the DUI offense was committed."

The new law also revises penalties for certain drunk driving violations to include any drug or controlled substance considered unlawful under the Mississippi Controlled Substances Law.

"Increased penalties should get the attention of drinking drivers. One section of the new law increases from 10 to 25 years the prison time that must be served by persons convicted of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs and causing the death or serious injury of another person. This should be especially significant since 49.3 percent of the deaths resulting from motor vehicle crashes in Mississippi last year were alcohol and/or drug related," Hughes said.

Seven motor vehicle crashes resulted in the death of 11 persons during the 1991 Fourth of July holiday. This was the highest number of deaths from motor vehicle crashes on Mississippi roads during the Fourth of July since 1986, when 11 people died. Hughes said the use of safety belts is a major preventative of serious injuries and death for motorists involved in motor vehicle crashes.

"Any time a person sits down in a vehicle or gets into a vehicle with a child, they should use every means available to be safe - this equates to using safety belts and child restraint seats," Hughes said.

He said a federal grant paying 80 additional troopers to be on duty for 640 extra manhours will allow the patrol to utilize all available methods to apprehend violators of the law.

In addition to diligently enforcing the state's DUI law, troopers will be checking vehicles for expired license plates and inspection stickers and checking for drivers with expired licenses.

"We are pleased to say that drivers who use radar detectors to circumvent the law will find their detectors ineffective against our new laser speed detection device," Hughes said.

"These laser speed guns are the most accurate and reliable speed enforcement tools available to law enforcement today. The detection gun can target one specific vehicle out of a group of vehicles because of its narrow beam width. The officer sights the target vehicle through a scope much like that on a rifle and pulls the trigger. In three-tenths of a second, the vehicle's speed is displayed on a digital readout."

Keith Broadway, formally of Iuka, MS will be performing in the annual 4th of July Parade in Atlanta, GA. The parade will be televised on Saturday, July 4th on ABC. Keith is currently employed as a singer and dancer at Six Flags in Atlanta, GA. He is the son of Charles and Phyllis Broadway, Jr.

Ribbon Cutting--On June 23, 1992 the Burnsville Area Chamber of Commerce held a ribbon cutting ceremony to welcome the Burnsville Dry Cleaners and Laundry to Burnsville. The chamber extends its best wishes to the owners, Brian Rowland and Robert Bevis, and to Elaine McNutt, manager. We wish them much success and we are pleased to have them as a part of our community.

Midway Homemakers Meeting

The June monthly meeting was held June 9 in the community building at Midway.

President Mrs. Syble Hodge presided at the meeting.

Mrs. Christine Mercer presented the devotional thought on "The Beauty of Nature using 121 Psalm as background. She reminded the club of God's great gift of beauty in all nature and how His creations should enjoy and appreciate this gift.

Mrs. Hodge and vice-president Mrs.

Montez Bryant led the educational program on the proper and necessary "Conservation of Natural Resources and the disposition of waste." These leaders also distributed helpful materials on the above subjects.

Mrs. Frances Goldsmith, secretary called the roll and read the club's minutes from last meeting.

Several members were absent because of illness in the family. We pray for quick healing of these loved ones.

The next meeting will be a family picnic or dinner at Pickwick Lake July 13th.

Hamilton-Ryker Recognizes Employees

Dedra Walker, Northeast Mississippi area manager for the Hamilton-Ryker Company, recently received a silver tray for five years of dedication and service at Companies Annual Retreat in Jackson, TN.

"Dedra is a great asset to the company," said Wayne McCreight, President and CEO of the 21 year old complete human resource company. "She has played an important role in making Hamilton-Ryker successful."

Walker began at Hamilton-Ryker as a temporary and has since held several company positions including corporate receptionist, bookkeeper/payroll clerk, accounting supervisor and coordinator, and operations director. She assumed her duties as area manager in 1991.

A native of Corinth, Walker is active in her community where she is a Jaycee, a member of the Downtown Association, and a Rotarian. She is currently serving on several of Corinth's Chamber committees including the Existing Industry and Tourism Committees. Attended The University of Tennessee at Martin, Walker graduated from Alcorn Central High School and attended Northeast Mississippi Junior College. She and husband, Max have a daughter, Lauren and a son, Luke.

Lynda Shannon, Hamilton-Ryker's Sales and Marketing Director, was also the recipient of a five year service award.

With 12 offices conducting business in 35 states, the Hamilton-Ryker Company offers temporary, contract, professional placement, payroll, consulting, and training services.

Tenn-Tom Today

In earlier years, American hearts filled up with pride at the vision of a Bald Eagle soaring above as its pure white head and tail feathers glistened in the sunlight. In 1782 our forefathers chose to name the American "Bald" Eagle our national emblem. Today, the Bald Eagle is symbolic of the power and valor of this country.

The American Eagle is by nature a monogamous bird. It will choose a life mate and remain with the same mate until one dies. Only then will it choose another mate.

A prime nesting site for an eagle in this area might be a pine tree. Eagles generally build nests in trees at about 30 to 40 feet in height. Usually, an eagle will lay two eggs. Sometimes, however, they lay up to four. The eggs are pale blue or dull white in color and are amazingly small. Consequently, eaglets are slow to develop. The incubation period for the young is about 35 days. During this time both parents care for their young.

A young eagle will eat about the same things as a mature eagle except in smaller quantity. Some of the choice food for these birds is mullet, duck, rabbit, squirrel, turtle, catfish and bass.

Features that characterize the eagle are its white head and tail feathers and its yellow eyes. However these features are not evident until sometime after the fourth year of molting. For this season the average person may have trouble recognizing an immature bald eagle. Immatures may resemble other birds of prey such as the Turkey Vulture. Flight patterns of the eagle and the vulture may also appear similar to the average observer.

Today, eagles are considered to be an endangered species in 43 states in America. Because of illegal shooting, pesticides, and loss of habitat, the American Eagle was facing extinction only a few years ago. Although extinction is still a possibility, the future of the American Eagle is looking brighter. With the banning of DDT in 1972, strides made in public awareness through education, and appropriations for research and restoration, the American Eagle has a good chance for survival.

Recently, an eagle restoration project has been started along the Tenn-tom Waterway. Eagle hacking towers have been placed at strategic points along the waterway in hope of bringing the American Eagle back into the area.

Researchers have found that in future years eagles will return to their release site for nesting. If this is the case, area residents should be enjoying the incomparable pride that comes from seeing America's National Symbol circling above them. Unfortunately, unless the public will cooperate with researchers' efforts, these birds do not have a great chance for survival.

The eagles must be cared for by humans at the release sites until they are able to survive on their own. Catching prey is learned through experience. A timid eagle may choose not to return to the site for food if it fears seeing something unfamiliar. Areas around the waterway have been posted for the purpose of keeping people away from the eagles until they are self-sustaining.

If an area is marked by buoys or posted with "keep out" signs, stay away from the area. Curiosity is natural, but no excuse. Any person who sees someone disobeying these warnings should report the incident to the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers at (601)454-3481 or 327-2142. Harassment of an endangered animal is a crime. If a person is found harassing the eagles, he/she is subject to a $10,000.00 fine.

The killing of an eagle is a violation of the Endangered Species Act and the Migratory Bird Treaty Act. Plain and simple, it's against the law.

Social Security Earnings Records

Getting What You Deserve
Have you ever checked your Social Security earnings record? If not, you may want to make a note to do so. It could mean more money in your pocket down the road.

Few people know that between 1978 and 1984, more than $58 billion in wages were not credited to the Social Security records of an estimated 9 million working Americans and beneficiaries. Additional errors between 1984 and 1988 raised the total to about $68 billion.

These errors are important because how much workers earn and how long they work are key factors in determining the amount of Social Security benefits they receive. Inaccurate records mean a possible loss of benefits.

The findings came from a General Accounting Office report that prompted the National Committee to Preserve Social Security and Medicare to sue the Social Security Administration and the Internal Revenue Service to correct those records and implement proper procedures to make sure they don't recur.

Finally, after a four-year battle, the fight is over. The lawsuit has been settled. The Social Security Administration and IRS have agreed to implement procedures that will go a long way towards ensuring accurate and timely crediting of employee wages. Equally important, the government also agreed to make it easier for present and past workers to correct incorrect records and apply for any retroactive payments. For example, the agency also will accept a claim if the government has a record of a person's earnings in the year immediately before or after the year in question, and the claimed earnings are consistent with the worker's earnings history.

Currently, correcting an earnings error can be difficult because it requires all kinds of paperwork and records that may be difficult or impossible to obtain.

I strongly urge all working Americans and Social Security beneficiaries to call or visit their Social Security office every few years to request a Personal Earnings and Benefits Estimate Statement and check their earnings record.

A little effort now could save you a lot of unnecessary headaches in the future.
