ONE HUNDRED AND NINE YEARS

THURSDAY, JANUARY, 14 1993 NO. 32

Lawsuit Brought Against Board of Supervisors

A Lee County man who believes that he was wrongfully arrested in 1991 has filed a lawsuit against former and present Tishomingo County Supervisors.

The lawsuit, brought by Gary Young of Tupelo, December 11 federal court in Oxford, is against present Tishomingo County Supervisors Leon Cook, Ricky Cummings, M.R. Whitehead, Dale Price and Dan Ryan. Past members included in the suit are D.W. McKee and Frank Williams, Jr.

According to Young's suit, the board members, particularly McKee, is accused of swearing out a warrant for embezzlement property against him on January 2, 1991. Young was arrested on April 5, 1991 with a preliminary hearing more than one year later, September 15, 1992.

The charges against Young, after the preliminary hearing, were nolle prossed, meaning they were not pursued by the county prosecutor, but can be brought up again at the County's discretion.

The lawsuit claims that 1) Young's arrest violated his protection against unreasonable search and seizure; 2) The arrest violated his due process rights; 3) The amount of time between his arrest and his preliminary hearing constituted a violation of his right to a speedy trial; 4) His bail of $25,000 was excessive.

The suit requests a jury trial and asks that the bond companies of the county officials be held responsible for the full extent of their bonds. The companies are Western Surety Co., United States Fidelity and Guaranty Co., Old Republic Surety Co. and State Farm Fire and Casualty Co.

A total of $5 million in damages, in addition to attorney fees and expenses, is requested in the lawsuit.

The county is expected to make a reply within a week, according to a spokesman.

Local Patrolman's Family Murdered In Eudora

Eudora Man Arrested

An Eudora man has been arrested in Tennessee in connection with the murder of three members of a Eudora Community family.

According to reports, Sherwood Dewayne Brown, 24, of Eudora was arrested Monday, January 11, at a home in south Memphis. The arrest came after a warrant was issued by DeSoto County officials.

The three victims, Betty Boyd, 82; Verline Boyd, 49, and Evangela Boyd, 13, were found slain Thursday, Jan. 7, at the elder Boyd's home in rural DeSoto county by another 5-year-old granddaughter who came to the home to catch the school bus. The three were the mother, sister-in-law and niece of local Mississippi Highway Patrolman Jerry "Ten Speed"

Boyd, who has worked and lived in the Iuka area for many years.

Results from a preliminary autopsy stated that the cause of death was multiple wounds made by a sharp, heavy object.

Reports stated that the three females were last seen at approximately 9:30 p.m. Wednesday, January 6. Authorities estimated that the murder probably took place between that time and midnight.

Betty Alexander Boyd

Betty Alexander Boyd, 82, 3827 Boyd Rd., Hernando, died Jan. 6, 1993 as the result of a homicide. She was a retired DeSoto County teacher.

Funeral services were Wednesday, Jan. 13, 1993 at noon at the Pleasant Grove C.M.E. Church in Eudora with burial following in the church cemetery. Henderson Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include two daughters, Verlene Logan of Memphis, Tenn. and Betty Jean Boyd of Dallas, TX; three sons, Edward Lee Boyd, Sr. of Hernando, Willie Earl Boyd of Hernando and Jerry Louis "Ten Speed" Boyd of Iuka; one brother, Preston Alexander of Nesbit; one sister, Omelia Ross of Chicago, Ill.; 10 grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

An Individual Retirement Account is a personal savings plan that lets you set aside money for your retirement. If you qualify, you can use all or part of your contributions to the plan as a tax deduction in the tax year for which you make the contribution. Also, the earnings (such as dividends and interest) that accumulate in an IRA are not taxed until you begin withdrawing the money. This is true whether all or part of your contributions were taxable when you put them into the IRA.

Before 1987, IRAs were popular because any wage-earner, regardless of other pension coverage, could open and fully deduct an IRA. The Tax Reform Act of 1986 reduced the tax advantages of IRA's for some people.

Now IRA's are most beneficial for people with low to moderate incomes and people who do not have pension plans at work. While the income tax advantage of contributing to an IRA has been diminished for some, many more people qualify for this deduction than actually take advantage of it.

The Tax Reform Act of 1986 did not change the rules about who can open an IRA, how much can be contributed, or what happens to money already placed in an IRA. The income earned on allowable IRA contributions still accumulates tax-free until withdrawn, and many people still receive an income tax deduction for at least some of the money they contribute to an IRA.

If you are a wage earner under the age of 70½, you can open an IRA with a government designated IRA custodian. Into this account you can deposit your taxable compensation for the year or $2,000, whichever is less.

All income earned in the IRA will compound tax-deferred until the money is withdrawn. When the funds are taken out at the allowable age of 59½ or later, the earnings and any previously untaxed contributions will be taxed as ordinary income.

IRA contributions are 100 percent tax deductible for many people. If neither you or your spouse is covered for any part of the year by a retirement plan, you can take a full deduction for your allowable IRA contribution no matter how much you earn. If you are covered by a pension plan at work, then the phaseout begins, and partial deductions are allowed for single wage-earners with earned income or between $25,000 and $35,000 per year.

If you are one of a dual-employed married couple filing jointly with an adjusted gross income of less than $40,000 per year, you and your spouse will each be allowed to deduct your $2,000 IRA contributions. This will give you a combined contribution of $4,000 a year. This is true even if you or your spouse participates in a pension plan at work.

Partial deductions are allowed for married couples filing jointly who earn between $40,000 and $50,000 a year. Deductible contributions are fully phased out for dual-employed couples who together earn $50,000 per year.

Many other rules apply to IRAs. For example, IRAs are held by individuals only; they cannot be joint accounts. Also, a married person may not deduct IRA contributions if he or she files separately, has a pension plan at work, and has an adjusted gross income in excess of $10,000.

A slightly higher limit applies to single-earner couples than to a separate individual worker. If one spouse is essentially unemployed (makes less than $250 a year), the couple can contribute a maximum of $2,250 a year to their IRAs as long as no more than $2,000 is put into either person's IRA.

You can put a maximum $2,000 into your IRA only if your earned income for the year is at least $2,000, the most you can contribute to an IRA is the amount of your earned income. Except for the non-working spouse described above, a person who has no earned income is prohibited from opening an IRA.

Earned income includes wages, salaries, fees, commissions, bonuses, tips and self-employment income. Passive income, such as interest, dividends and profits from the sale of your house, does not count as earned income. Once you retire, your company pension and Social Security checks are treated as passive income.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

DR. PHILLIP GRAY, OPTOMETRIST

THE AUTO REFRACTOR

You look into a machine. You focus on a tractor in the middle of the field. Within seconds, the machine prints out your eye prescription. What we are talking about is a fairly new and innovative piece of diagnostic equipment. It is called an auto refractor and gives an OBJECTIVE test of what a person's prescription should be.

"Objective", in this case means that the eye doctor can make a determination without asking any questions. This is of particular importance when working with small children, retarded, elderly or deaf patients. The reliability of SUBJECTIVE testing with such patients is not as good. However, with the auto refractor, as long as the doctor can get them to look at the picture for a moment, there is a lot to go on.

This does not mean that optometry is now completely automated. Such machines will never take the place of a complete optometric examination. However, it's an excellent tool for better accuracy and reliability in special situations.

GRAZING SMALL GRASSES

When the weather has been mild with plenty of rain, be watchful of nitrogen deficiencies in your winter grass fields. If growth slows down or if plants show a yellow color then you may need more nitrogen. Excess nitrogen may promote winter injury, but seldom does the equivalent of 200 lbs. of ammonium nitrate per acre hurt plants that need nitrogen.

RADON FACTS

The Environmental Protection Agency recommends that homeowners take action to reduce radon levels in the home if readings are 4 picocuries per liter of air (4pCi/L). The good news is that all regions of Mississippi average below 4pCi/L with 98% registering below 4pCi/L and only 0.1% above 20pCi/L. In some other states, readings have been much higher (152pCi/L in Washington State). Radon is the second leading cause of lung cancer behind smoking. A reliable home test kit is inexpensive and if the levels are too high, steps can be taken to reduce them.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

A 2-day Forestry shortcourse will be held January 27th and 28th at the Bost Extension Center on the campus of Mississippi State University. The cost will be $160 and will include materials, breaks, and 2 lunches.

All pigs must be from a pseudorabies monitored herd and have a negative test. A copy of the certificate from the veterinarian testing the herd must be brought to the sale or a copy must be on file with the Monroe County Extension Office. All pigs must be free of internal and external parasites. Tails must be docked, males castrated, and both healed. All pigs must be transported on clean bedding. Please let me know if you plan to bring pigs to the sale (423-7016).

Conservation Volunteers Needed For SCS

Would you like to help conserve the soil and water resources of your community?

Volunteers for conservation work not only will be doing good for their communities, they also will be getting something for themselves out of the effort.

Suzanne H. Pugh, state coordinator for the national campaign to recruit volunteers for the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service, said that young people and others without a lot of work experience often find that their volunteer work with SCS helps in their future careers.

"Both government and private employers consider volunteer work to be qualifying experience for comparable positions," said Pugh.

Pugh said volunteers often make highly visible contributions to the landscape in their communities and they always learn more about the places where they live. When volunteers assist teachers in working with pupils on outdoor classroom conservation projects, for example, they help give youngsters a head start in learning about resource conservation that will be needed in future years.

Those who want to volunteer work with SCS should call the nearest SCS field office. The office is listed in the telephone directory under U.S. Government, Department of Agriculture. Applicants should tell the SCS district conservationists or other staff work they already are prepared to do, or what type of work would like to do.

Or they can call a special free number, 1-800-THE-SCS to receive information from Soil Conservation Service America and be referred to SCS or other office that need their skills.

SCS offices will ask prospective volunteers to fill out application forms. Applicants notified as soon as they are accepted and accepted for work and duties in the office they want to work, Pugh said.

SCS is issuing a national call for volunteers to help the community become a far better than it is today.

TEXTILES

When we say textiles, it sounds like a big strange word. It really is not. The words textiles, fabric and cloth mean the same thing.

4-H members enrolled in the clothing project learn about fabrics and textile products and what they need to know before purchasing such products.

Textiles are made from fibers that are spun into yarns. Fibers come from two sources, natural and manmade. Common natural fibers found in clothing are cotton, wool, silk and linen. Common manmade fibers found in clothing are rayon, acetate, nylon, polyester, acrylic and spandex.

Yarns are made into fabric by weaving, knitting or felting.

Woven fabrics are made when the yarns cross over and under each other on a loom.

Knitted fabrics are made by interlocking loops of yarn. This process may be done by hand or machine. Knit fabrics do not wrinkle easily. Most knits return to shape after wearing or stretching.

Felted fabrics are made by fusing fabrics together by heat, moisture and pressure. Felt is made from wool fabrics. When manmade fibers are used, a bonding or glue-like agent is added to help hold the fibers together. The fabric is then called a nonwoven.

Finishes added to textiles will make fabrics act in different ways. Many chemical finishes have been developed to give special features to fabrics. A finish may make a fabric wrinkle-free, stain-resistant or water repellent.

It is important not to confuse a fabric fiber with the way the fabric was made. For example, polyester means the fiber content. It does not mean a knitted fabric.

Three important things to know when selecting a fabric are: fabric content, fabric construction and fabric finishes. Each one will make the fabric handle differently when you are sewing, wearing, or caring for it.

Batting helmets were introduced in major league baseball by the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1941.

(left) of the Midway Community. Montez used one of the stamps for postage on a letter to her daughter, Loritta Passmore of Griffin, Georgia. She said that she plans to keep the remainder of the stamps with all of her other Elvis collectables. The Iuka Post Office sold 6,000 of the Elvis stamps - completely selling out within an hour and a half. The Post Office expects to get more of the stamps this week.

November Unemployment Rate Hits 14-Year Low

Unemployment in Mississippi dropped to the lowest level in three years in November. At 6.1 percent, the unemployment rate is the lowest recorded since May 1990, and the lowest for a November since 1978.

The rate is lower by a full percentage point than October's 7.1 percent. This marks the fifth straight month of decreasing unemployment in the state. November's rate is also lower by eight-tenths of a percentage point than November 1991's 6.9 percent rate.

"This decrease represents a drop of 11,900 workers in the ranks of the unemployed since October. Clearly it's much more than just seasonal improvement," said Raiford Crews, Chief of Labor Market Information for the Mississippi Employment Security Commission.

"There were 17,300 more establishment based jobs and 35,200 more people employed this year than one year ago. This is a robust 3.5 percent growth rate since November 1991, which is outstanding in any labor market."

Growth in jobs from October was 2,600, more than expected in this season when many outdoor industries begin down-sizing, Crews said. Accounting for most of the gains from the previous month were the increase of 2,000 jobs in the service producing sector and an additional 2,000 in wholesale and retail trade.

Since November one year ago, service producing jobs have grown by 18,400. Some 14,600 new jobs were in the entertainment industry, which includes casino employment.

Manufacturing employment was a 248,400 in November, 700 more jobs than one month ago, but still 3,100 below the record level of 1991, Crews said. Durable goods produced 3,000 fewer jobs than last year. Four sectors--furniture and fixtures (-600), metals (-800), electronic equipment (-1,200) and transportation equipment (-1,100)--accounted for more losses than other manufacturers could overcome.

Nondurable goods only lost 100 jobs even through lost 2,400 from one year ago. Other industries, led by food processing (+1,000), almost overcame the downsizing by apparel.

As the economy moves further into recovery there should be continued improvement with only seasonal fluctuations.

American Funeral Assurance Company A "Big Winner"

American Funeral Assurance Company has been described as one of the "big winners" by a national funeral industry publication which reviewed the just released brochure evaluating pre-need plans issued by the American Association of Retired Persons.

The Funeral Service Insider, said that growth rates projected over the next decade show American Funeral in the top three. In all, 10 pre-need plans and sponsors were reviewed by the nation's largest seniors' consumer organization.

"Some of the nation's leading pre-need plans are not likely to keep pace with funeral costs over the next decade," Funeral Service Insider said, citing the AARP study. For purposes of comparison a $3,500 pre-need plan was used and inflation was keyed at 4% to 6% annually.

"For better or worse, this is the only independent evaluation of pre-need on the marketplace," AARP author Lee Norrgard said explaining that he used the same 10-year projections required by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners.

AARP has distributed about 250,000 copies of Prepaying Your Funeral since first publishing it in 1987.

The article cited American Funeral Assurance Company's plan where $2,900 of pre-need insurance was purchased in 1987 would be worth $4,736. This was the best performance of the six major pre-need insurance companies included in the study.

Based on growth with a $3,500 pre-need plan purchased today, American Funeral's plan would be worth $6,377 by the year 2002. This was second best among insurance companies considered.

W.E. Pegues, AFAC President/CEO, said, "We've worked very hard to give the local funeral director the best possible product to offer his clients. Our great strength lies in each local funeral director. By helping make the local funeral director look good, American Funeral benefits."

"One of the primary reasons for our rapid growth has been the quality of our product," explained Pat Nunnelee, CLU, executive vice president for sales and marketing. "Funeral directors across the nation have told me they were looking for the best possible product for their clients. After evaluating their options, they chose American Funeral. This report simply supports their decision."

Free copies of Prepaying Your Funeral are available by writing AARP Fulfillment, 601 E Street N.W., Washington, DC 20049 or by calling 202/434-2277 and asking for product report D13188. A limited number of copies are available from American Funeral Assurance Company, P.O. Drawer 427, Amory, MS 38821 or by calling 1-800-833-1385.

American Funeral Assurance Company is a 36-year-old company whose home offices are located in Amory, Mississippi. It has almost $150 million in assets and more than $400 million of insurance in force. It is licensed in 25 states where it is represented by almost 2,000 independent funeral director agents.

Cutshall Funeral Home of Iuka is affiliated with this company.

County Unemployment Drops To 6.7 Percent

According to Charles Smith, Manager of the Mississippi State Employment Service, unemployment in Tishomingo County dropped to 6.7 percent in mid-November, the county's lowest rate of 1992. This compares to 7.8 percent in October and 8.3 percent in November, 1991.

The civilian labor force for the county numbered 8,370, 70 more than October, and 320 more than November, 1991. Approximately 7,810 Tishomingo County residents held jobs at mid-November while 560 were unemployed.

Manufacturing jobs in the county numbered 3,340, 70 more than October and 130 more than November one year ago. Non-manufacturing jobs numbered 3,610, approximately the same as October, but 110 more than November, 1991.

Private Landowners Need To Speak Up

Have you heard about the Tennessee valley Authority chip mill environmental impact study, the coast zone management act or the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service's recommendation's for red cockaded woodpecker habitat management on private lands? More importantly have you studied them and their impact on your timberland and its management?

The one common factor in all of the above proposed regulations or recommendations, is the requirement that the landowner request and receive permission before harvesting timber or implementing a forest management practice on his land.

California, often touted as the model for the rest of the country, has a stringent Forest Practices Act. It requires a forest management plan and has strict regulations on timber harvesting. It requires a written harvest plan, developed by a registered forester. The plan must then be reviewed by a number of state agencies and an opportunity for public comment (public hearing) before approval and harvesting can take place.

If any problems are found or local opposition is vocal about your plans, you can be denied permission to cut. Your recourse is to go to court. It's estimated that it costs a landowner $50 per thousand board feet of timber sold to pay for these regulations.

In many programs I have told landowners about this and been assured, "It will never happen in Mississippi!" Well, it's here!

A key centerpiece of each of the previously mentioned programs is prior approval and review by a government agency or agencies before management or harvesting can start.

That's the bad news; the good news is that as yet none of the programs have been finalized and are still open to public comment. The public often has left forestry's outcry against such issues to the "professionals" -- forest industries, agencies and organizations. The public has got to become more involved and vocal!

Our decision makers know these people, see and talk with them frequently about issues, and use their input. Yet they really want to hear from the voters, the public. It's time now for Mississippi's non-industrial private forest landowners to stand up and be heard on issues that affect forest management and the right an individual has to manage his land as he desires.

The 150,000 to 175,000 private landowners in Mississippi could be a huge voice for the landowner's right to manage his property as he desires. However, landowners must speak up and be heard, not be a silent majority.

The best way to be heard is to join and get involved with a county forestry association. It's the best way to find out about and get information on issues like these. If you don't have a county forestry association call your county agent or county forester to see about organizing one.

Sunday, January 10, was a gloomy rainy day outside but with spiritual brightness inside.

Bro. John read from Zechariah 13:1-3, his subject was: Coming Fountains of Redemption: verse 1: In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and uncleanness. Read the whole chapter for a better understanding.

Herman and I have been under the weather this past week, we want to thank all those that prayed for us. We know God answers prayers.

Those who attended the Judson associational and mission meeting Saturday at Oak Grove were: Bro. John and Burton Stockton, Kathleen McCoy and Lorene Hale. They were privileged to hear Dr. Ralph Brand from New Directions prison ministries at Satellite prison, Parchman, MS. He brought an inspiring message on Paul and Silas which will be found in Acts, 16:23-80.

The borrower is servant to the lender. Proverbs 22:7.

Do you believe you can do wrong and not be found out. Listen to Luke 8:17. For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest, neither anything hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

Weekly prayer: Lord, help one to sort the trivial from the consequential and show me what is important.

Thought for the day. God no longer lives in a Tabernacle; He dwells within the heart of every believer.

Thinking of you: This morning as I rose from bed and saw the sun above, I softly said, Good Morning, God, bless everyone I love". And right away I thought of you and said a loving prayer that He would bless you specially and keep you free from care. I thought of all the happiness your day could hold in store; and Make Sound Decisions To Restore Finances In 1993....

Did you get carried away with your credit cards during the holidays, or have you had an unexpected emergency that simply overextended you financially? The new year is the time to plan a realistic, yet workable, plan to decrease your debt load, says Dr. Mary Ann Boose, assistant professor of economics and finance at The University of Mississippi.

■ Cut up your credit cards, or put them where they won't tempt you. "Go to a cash-only basis. When you are having trouble making ends meet, don't rely on credit cards to get you out of the crunch. Paying cash makes you constantly measure the necessity of a purchase," Dr. Boose said.

■ Do not ignore any creditor. Every creditor needs to hear from you each month or it will be assumed that you are avoiding the creditor or defaulting on the debt. Try to negotiate lower monthly payments. If successful, keep up your end of the agreement by seeing that payments are made.

■ Decrease your cash outflow. Consider selling your car, truck or motorcycle to eliminate one of your monthly payments. Remember the price you can get for the vehicle should be as much or more than the money you owe on it. Find living arrangements that cost less. Give up anything you can live without - dining out, smoking, etc.

■ Increase your income. Many people get a second job on a part-time basis to supplement the family income. If you don't want to ask someone for this extra employment, come up with your own part-time business -- baby-sitting, lawn work, house cleaning, car washing, etc.

■ Write down every dollar and cent you spend for two months. Discipline will come from recording all expenditures, and you can recognize spending problems. Some families do this -- not because of financial difficulties but just as a means of identifying any extra money that could be added to retirement, vacation funds, etc.

■ Determine the reasons you spend as you do. In addition to knowing how you spend your money, know why you spend your money. If you spend money excessively to enhance your self-image, for instance, find another activity to make you feel good about yourself -- exercise or a lowcost hobby.

■ Sell an asset or explore other sources of extra funds. You might, for example, decide to give up that expensive stereo set. As for money sources, consider borrowing from another family member, taking out an equity loan or second mortgage, or borrowing against a life insurance policy.

If you determine that your financial problems are too complicated to solve by yourself, seek the advice of a credit counselor.

A Report From....
Senator John White

A renewed energy and much optimism established an environment for creative accomplishment as the 108th Regular Session of the Mississippi State Senate convened at the Capitol on Tuesday, January 5, 1993.

Following tradition, the fifty-two Senators stood together with raised hands to take their oaths of office. As elected officials of this state, the Senators accepted the duties as well as the privileges of leadership with an overwhelming sense of commitment.

The first order of business was to adopt the rules for operation during this ninety-day session. The Senate organized and elected their presiding officers. A vote by acclamation was given to veteran State Senator Walter "Pud" Graham of New Albany as the President Pro Tempore. The Senate made history by electing E.J. Russell as the first black woman to serve as Secretary of the Senate. Former Senator Irb Benjamin was chosen Sergeant-at-Arms and Assistant Secretary of the Senate.

The Congressional District caucuses for the election of members to the Rules Committee selected Senator Roger Wicker, District 1; Senator Doug Anderson, District 2; Senator Rob Smith, District 3; Senator Dick Hall, District 4; and Senator Clyde Woodfield, District 5, to handle any questions concerning the internal rules for members of the Senate.

Lieutenant Governor Eddie Briggs released committee assignments, hoping to meet a crucial need to enhance the chances for success by the Legislative body. There is good reason to expect that the Senate will gain the commitment of the people to meet its present challenges. The chairman and members of each of the twenty-eight committees hope to bring into perspective what our state has achieved in the past and what roles need to be pursued in the future. Leadership is the catalyst needed to transform the Senate's vision into viable results.

There are a number of legislative irons in the fire. Over two hundred bills have already been introduced and the Lieutenant Governor has referred them to the appropriate committees for committee action. Senators have until Monday, January 18th, to have all general bills and constitutional amendments drafted and introduced for consideration during this session. These bills can make or break the Senate's effectiveness. The Senators desire to go forward with an historic reform for fairness, simplicity, and incentives for growth.

Senator John White will serve as Chairman of the Local and Private Committee and will serve on the following committees: Appropriations, Business & Financial Institutions, Constitution, Fees, Salaries & Administration, Highways & Transportation, Public Health & Welfare and Wildlife & Fisheries.

If you need to contact me during the session, my address is P.O. Box 1018, Jackson, MS 39215, or you may phone me at 359-3770.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of Supervisors of Tishomingo, Mississippi as follows:

Section 1. Title and Purposes of Ordinance

1.1 Title
This Ordinance shall be known as the Tishomingo, Mississippi Cable Television Franchise Ordinance.

1.2 Purposes

The purposes of this Ordinance are: a) to establish the terms and conditions under which a cable television system within the Town must operate; b) to provide for the payment of a franchise fee to the Town for the use of Town streets and other public rights of way and to compensate the Town for costs associated with administering and regulating the system; and; c) to grant a cable television franchise to Falcon First Southeast (hereafter referred to as either "Falcon" or "Franchisee").

Words used in the present tense include the future, words in the plural number include the singular number, and words in the singular number include the plural number.

2.1 "Cable Act" means The Cable Communications Policy Act of 1984, 47 U.S.C. section 521 et seq. and such future legislation as may amend or supersede it.

2.3 "Channel" is a band of frequencies, in the electromagnetic spectrum, capable of carrying one audio-visual television signal.

2.4 "Town" means Tishomingo, Mississippi in its present form or in any later reorganized, consolidated, enlarged or reincorporated form.

2.5 "Board of Supervisors" means the Board of Supervisors of Tishomingo, Mississippi.

2.6 "Falcon" means Falcon First Southeast, which may also be referred to as "Franchisee".

2.7 "FCC" means the Federal Communications Commission.

2.8 "Franchise" means the rights granted pursuant to this Ordinance to construct, own and operate a cable television system along the public ways in the Town, or within specified areas in the Town.

2.9 "Franchise Area" means that portion of the Town for which a franchise is granted under the authority of this Ordinance. If not otherwise stated in an exhibit to this Ordinance, the Franchise Area shall be the legal and geographic limits of the Town, including all territory which may be hereafter annexed to the Town.

2.10 "Franchisee" means a person or business entity or its lawful successor or Assignee which has been granted a franchise by the Board of Supervisors pursuant to this Ordinance.

2.11 "Gross Subscriber Receipts", as the term is used in calculating franchise fees, shall mean the revenues actually received, rather than merely billed, by the Franchisee from its cable television subscribers within the Town after deducting the following: a) any fees or assessments levied on subscribers or users of the system which are collected by the Franchisee for payment to a governmental entity; b) franchise fees paid by the Franchisee to the Town; c) state or local sales or property taxes imposed on the Franchisee and paid to a governmental entity; and d) federal copyright fees paid by the Franchisee to the Copyright Tribunal in Washington, DC.

2.13 "School" means any public educational institution, including elementary and secondary schools, junior colleges, colleges and universities.

2.14 "Subscriber" means any person who receives monthly cable television service provided by the Franchisee's cable television system.

Section 3. Franchise Applications and Criteria for Grant

3.1 Franchise to Operate Required

It shall be unlawful to operate a cable television system within the Town unless a valid franchise has first been obtained from the Town pursuant to the terms of this ordinance. A franchise granted pursuant to this Ordinance shall authorize the Franchisee to provide cable television services within the Town and to charge subscribers for such services. It shall also authorize and permit the Franchisee to traverse any portion of the Town in order to provide service outside the Town. Unless otherwise specified, the Franchise Area shall be the legal boundaries of the Town.

3.2 Application Procedures and Criteria

An application for a new cable television franchise shall be submitted to the Town in a form specified by or acceptable to the Town, and in accordance with procedures and schedules established by the Town. The Town may request such facts and information as it deems appropriate.

3.2(a) Any applicant shall furnish to the Town a map of suitable scale, showing all roads and public buildings, which indicates the areas to be served and the proposed dates of commencement of service for each area. The proposed service area shall be subject to approval by the Town. If approved, the service area shall be incorporated into any franchise granted pursuant to this Ordinance. If no service area is specifically delineated in a franchise, it shall be considered to be coterminous with the boundaries of the Town.

3.2(b) After receiving an application for a franchise, the Town shall examine the legal, financial, technical and character qualifications of the applicant. The Town may grant one or more non-exclusive franchises creating a right to construct and operate a cable television system within the public ways of the Town, subject to the provisions of this Section.

3.2(c) In the event an application is filed proposing to serve a franchise area which overlaps, in whole or in part, an existing Franchisee's franchise area, a copy of such application shall be served by the applicant, by registered or certified mail, upon the existing Franchisee. Such notice shall be considered a condition precedent to consideration of the application by the Town.

3.3 Competing or Overlapping Franchises

Any franchise granted by the Town shall be non-exclusive. However, while the Town may grant more than one franchise, nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to require it to grant more than one franchise.

3.3(a) If one or more competing or overlapping franchises are granted, the Town shall not grant such a franchise on terms or conditions which are either more favorable or less burdensome than those granted under any existing franchise or ordinance. Any franchise which may be granted shall require the new Franchisee to provide cable service to the entire franchise area then served by the existing Franchisee. Moreover, an existing Franchisee may, at its discretion, comply with the most favorable terms contained in any subsequent franchise granted by the Town.

3.3(b) Since competing or overlapping franchises may have an adverse impact on the public rights-of-way, on the quality and availability of communications services to the public and may adversely affect the existing operator's ability to continue to provide the services and facilities it is presently providing under this Ordinance, the Town may issue a franchise in an area where another franchise is operating only following a public hearing to consider the potential impact which the grant of an additional franchise may have on the community. In considering whether to grant one or more additional franchises, the Town shall specifically consider, and address in a written report, the following issues:

3.3(b)(1) The positive and/or negative impact of an additional franchise on the community.

3.3(b)(2) The ability and willingness of an applicant to provide cable television service to the entire franchise area which is served by the existing cable operator. The purpose of this subsection is to ensure that any competition which may occur among Franchisees will be on equal terms and conditions so as not to give a competitive advantage to one Franchisee over another.

3.3(b)(3) The amount of time it will take the applicant to complete construction of the proposed system and activate service in the entire franchise area; and, whether the applicant can complete construction and activation of its system in a timely manner.

3.3(b)(4) The financial capabilities of the applicant and its guaranteed commitment to make the necessary investment to erect, maintain and operate the proposed cable TV system for the duration of the franchise term. In order to ensure that any prospective Franchisee does have the requisite current financial capabilities, the Town may request equity and debt financing commitment letters, current financial statements, bonds, letters of credit or other documentation to demonstrate to the Town's satisfaction that the requisite funds to construct and operate the proposed system are available.

3.3(b)(5) The quality and technical reliability of the proposed system, based upon the applicant's plan of construction and the method of distribution of signals, and the applicant's technical qualifications to construct and operate such system.

3.3(b)(6) The experience of the applicant in the erection, maintenance and operation of a cable television system.

3.3(b)(7) The capacity of the public rights-of-way to accommodate one or more additional cable systems and the potential disruption of those public rights-of-way and private property that may occur if one or more additional franchises are granted.

3.3(b)(8) The disruption of existing cable television service and the potential that the proposed franchise would adversely affect the residents of the Town.

3.3(b)(9) The likelihood and ability of an applicant to continue to provide competing cable television service to subscribers within the entire franchise area in the duration of the franchise.

3.3(b)(10) Such other information as the Town may deem appropriate to be considered prior to granting any competing or overlapping franchise.

3.4 Permits for Non-Franchised Entities

The Town may issue a license, easement or other permit to a person other than the Franchisee to permit that person to traverse any portion of the Franchisee's franchise area within the Town in order to provide service outside, but not within the Town. Such license or easement, absent a grant of a franchise in accordance with this Ordinance, shall not authorize nor permit said person to provide cable television service of any type to any home or place of business within the Town or render any other service within the Town.

Section 4. Grant of Franchise to Falcon

Pursuant to the terms of this Ordinance, a franchise is hereby granted to Falcon First Southeast (which may be referred to herein as "Falcon" or "Franchisee") to operate and maintain a cable television system in the Town for a period of fifteen (15) years commencing on the date of adoption of this ordinance.

Section 5. Renewal of Franchise

At the expiration of the initial or renewal term of this franchise, the Franchisee shall have the right to renew the franchise for an additional term of ten (10) years provided that the Franchisee shall then be in substantial compliance with the material terms of this ordinance and with applicable law. The Franchisee shall provide the Town with notice of its intent to renew the franchise at least ninety days prior to the expiration date of the then current term.

Section 6. Franchise Fee

6.1 Payment of Annual Fee

The Franchisee shall pay a franchise fee for the use the Town's rights of way to compensate the Town for all costs associated with administering and regulating the cable system. The amount of the franchise fee shall be three (3%) percent of the Franchisee's annual Gross Subscriber Receipts, as defined herein, and such fee shall be paid on an annual basis within ninety (90) days following the close of each calendar year. The Franchisee shall be entitled to list the franchise fee as a separate line item on monthly bills.

6.2 Reporting and Auditing of Fee Payments

At the Town's request, the Franchisee shall file a report showing Franchisee's Gross Subscriber Receipts for the calendar year and the amount of franchise fee due to the Town. Such reports may be requested once per calendar year. The Franchisee shall have an obligation to maintain financial records of its Gross Subscriber Receipts and franchise fee payments for audit purposes for a period of three years, and the Town shall have the right to audit the Franchisee's books and offices where such books are maintained.

Section 7. Subscriber Rates

7.1 All charges to subscribers shall be consistent with a schedule of fees and services offered and established by the Franchisee. Rates shall be nondiscriminatory in nature and uniform to persons of like classes, under similar circumstances and conditions, except where necessary to meet competition.

7.1(a) Franchisee may offer different or discounted rates at its discretion in order to meet competition or for promotional purposes. Franchisee may establish different rates for different classes of subscribers where appropriate, such as discounted rates to low income individuals or groups.

7.1(b) Franchisee shall inform each new subscriber of all applicable charges for providing cable television service.

7.1(c) Franchisee may, at its own discretion and in a non-discriminatory manner, waive, reduce or suspend connection fees, monthly service fees or other charges on a one time or monthly basis for promotional purposes.

7.1(d) This section shall not prevent a Franchisee from refusing service to any person because the Franchisee's prior accounts with that person remain delinquent or owing.

7.1(e) A Franchisee may offer service which requires advance payment of periodic service charges. A customer shall have the right, at any time, to have service disconnected with a refund of any pre-paid but unused service charges within sixty (60) days from the date service is disconnected.

7.1(f) The Franchisee will provide the Town with thirty (30) days advance written notice of any change in rates and charges whenever possible. However, the Franchisee is entitled to set its rates and charges as it sees fit without obtaining prior consent of the Town.

7.1(g) The Franchisee shall provide refunds to subscribers in the following cases:

7.1(g)(1) If the Franchisee fails within a reasonable time to commence service requested by a subscriber, it will refund all deposits or advance charges the subscriber has paid in connection with the request for such service at the time of the subscriber.

7.1(g)(2) If a subscriber terminates any service at any time and has a credit balance, the Franchisee will, upon notice from the subscriber and upon return of all of Franchisee's equipment, refund the appropriate credit balance to the subscriber. The subscriber will be responsible for furnishing the Franchisee with an address to which to mail the refund.

7.1(g)(3) If any subscriber's services is out of order for more than three consecutive hours during the month due to technical failure, damage, or circumstances within the control of the Franchisee, the Franchisee will credit the subscriber's account of that subscriber on a pro rata basis upon the subscriber's written request. The credit will be calculated using the number of twenty-four (24) hour periods of service is impaired and the number of channels on which service is impaired as a fraction of the total number of days in the month that the service impairment occurred and the total number of channels provided by the system in the absence of such impairment.

Section 8. Customer Service and Consumer Protection

8.1 Franchisee's Office Location and Telephone Service

Franchisee shall maintain an office in sufficient proximity to the Town to enable Franchisee's customer service and technical personnel to promptly respond to customer service requests or technical problems which may arise, as further described below. Franchisee shall maintain telephone answering service or an answering machine to receive service calls twenty-four (24) hours per day. A local telephone number or toll free (800) number shall be made available to subscribers for service calls. Corrective action shall be completed as promptly as practicable.

8.2 Customer Service Response Time

8.2(a) Calls requesting repair service shall be responded to the same day the call is received, whenever it is physically possible to do so. In the event this is not possible, repair calls notifying the Franchisee of a service outage shall be responded to no later than forty-eight (48) hours after receipt. If a service call is received after 3 p.m. on Friday, every attempt shall be made to respond within 48 hours.

8.2(b) In establishing response time to service or repair calls, the Franchisee may differentiate between service problems unique to a single household as compared to problems caused by a service outage which affects a large number of subscribers ("area outage"). An "area outage" is defined as an outage of all cable channels in four (4) or more residences in the same neighborhood or area which is caused by a problem with the cable system, rather than being caused by the subscriber or by a cause beyond the Franchisee's control, such as a loss of power from the local electric company.

8.2(c) All area outages shall be responded to as soon as possible after notification on a 24 hours a day, 7 day a week basis. Designated technicians shall be on call 24 hours a day to respond when notified by phone or paged by Franchisee or an answering service employee. Technicians are expected to repair the problem found and have the system operational as soon as possible. Except for circumstances beyond the Franchisee's control such as acts of God, weather, wars, riots and civil disturbances, the Franchisee shall be capable of locating and correcting system malfunctions promptly.

8.3 Consumer Protection
The Franchisee shall not, without good cause, fail to make available cable service to prospective subscribers nor shall the Franchisee terminate service without good cause. Service shall be provided to all interested customers where economically feasible and consistent with the line extension provisions contained in this Ordinance.

8.3(a) Unless a written contract exists between the Franchisee and a subscriber, service shall be on a month-to-month basis.

8.4 Protection of Privacy
The Franchisee and the Town will constantly guard against possible abuses of the right of privacy or other rights of any subscriber or person. In particular, the Franchisee shall comply with the privacy provisions of the Cable Communications Policy Act of 1984, 47 U.S.C. 551.

8.4(a) Franchisee shall not permit the transmission of any signal, aural, visual or digital from any subscriber's premises without first obtaining the informed consent of the subscriber, which shall not have been obtained from the subscriber as a condition of any service for which transmission is not an essential element. The request for such consent shall be contained in a separate document which enumerates and describes the transmissions being authorized and includes a prominent statement that the subscriber is authorizing the permission in full knowledge of its provision, and shall be revocable at any time by the subscriber without penalty of any kind whatsoever. This provision is not intended to prohibit the use or transmission of signals useful only for the control or measurement of system performance or used only for billing subscribers or providing basic or optional services.

8.4(b) Franchisee shall not permit the use of any special terminal equipment in any subscriber's premises that shall permit transmission from the subscriber's premises of two-way services utilizing aural, visual or digital signals without first obtaining written permission of the subscriber as provided in Paragraph A of this section.

8.4(c) Franchisee, or any of its agents or employees, shall not, without the specific written authorization of the subscriber involved, sell or otherwise make available to any party any list which identifies the viewing habits or responses of individual subscribers.

Section 9. Extension of Cable Service

9.1 Extension of Service

9.1(a) A Franchisee which is not already serving the entire franchise area shall provide service to all portions of the franchise area reaching a minimum density of thirty (30) dwelling units per linear street mile as measured from the nearest system trunk line within one (1) year after the grant of a franchise.

9.1(b) Franchisee shall provide aerial or buried drop lines to new subdivisions within the franchise area at the request of the developer provided that the developer contracts and agrees with the Franchisee to pay the cost of the extension of the service.

9.1(c) Franchisee shall extend and make cable television service available to any resident within the franchise area who requests connection at the standard connection charge if the connection to the resident would require no more than a standard one hundred and fifty (150) foot aerial or seventy-five (75) foot buried drop line. With respect to requests for connection requiring an aerial or buried drop line in excess of one hundred and fifty (150) and seventy-five (75) feet respectively, Franchisee shall extend and make available cable television service to such residents at a connection charge not to exceed the actual cost incurred by the Franchisee for the distance exceeding that distance.

9.1(d) In areas with less than thirty (30) residential units per proposed cable bearing strand mile, Franchisee shall offer a cost-sharing arrangement with residents. A dwelling unit will be counted for this purpose if its lot fronts a street. The cost-sharing arrangement shall consist of the following:

9.1(d)(1) At the request of a resident desiring service, Franchisee shall determine the cost of the plant extension required to provide service to the potential subscriber from the closest point on the cable system where it is technically feasible. The cost of construction shall be allocated based on the following formula:

9.1(d)(2) If a request for extension of service into a residential area requires the construction of cable plant which does not pass at least twenty (30) potential subscribers per proposed cable bearing strand mile, Franchisee and residents who agree to subscribe to cable service will each bear their proportionate share of construction costs. For example, if there are five (5) dwelling units per proposed cable bearing strand mile, Franchisee's share will equal 5/30ths or one sixth (1/6) of the construction cost. The remaining cost will be shared equally by each subscriber.

9.1(d)(3) Should additional residents actually subscribe to cable television service in areas where subscribers have already paid a proportionate share under the extension cost sharing formula, subscribers who have previously paid a proportionate share under the extension formula shall be reimbursed pro rata for their contribution or a proportional share thereof. In such case, the pro rata shares shall be recalculated and each new subscriber shall pay the new pro rata share, and all subscribers who previously paid a proportionate share shall receive pro rata refunds. In the event such subscribers (or prior subscribers) have been disconnected or has moved and owes the Franchisee money which has not been recovered, Franchisee shall have the right to first apply the refund to amounts owed the Franchisee and give the balance, if any to the subscriber. At such time as there are thirty (30) potential subscribers per cable bearing strand mile, the subscribers shall receive their pro rata share of construction costs. In any event, one (1) year after the completion of a project, subscribers who have paid a share of line extension costs are no longer eligible for refunds, and the amounts paid in construction costs will be credited to the plant account of Franchisee.

9.2 Free Basic Cable Service to Public Buildings

Franchisee shall provide, without charge, one service outlet activated for basic subscriber service to each police station, fire station, public school, public library and the Town office. If it is necessary to extend Franchisee's trunk or feeder lines more than two hundred (200) feet solely to provide service to any such school or public building, the Town or the building owner or occupants shall have the option of either paying Franchisee's direct costs for line extensions in excess of two hundred (200) feet or releasing the Franchisee from the obligation to provide service to such building. Furthermore, Franchisee shall be permitted to recover the direct cost of installing cable service, when requested to do so, in order to provide: a) more than one outlet, b) inside wiring, or c) a service outlet requiring more than two hundred (200) feet of drop cable.

Section 10. Insurance and Indemnification

10.1 Insurance

Within ninety (90) days following the grant of a franchise the Franchisee shall obtain, pay all premiums for and make available to the Town at its request copies of the following insurance policies:

10.1(a) A general comprehensive liability policy indemnifying, defending and saving harmless the Town, its officers, boards, commissions, agents or employees from any and all claims by any person whatsoever on account of injury to or death of a person or persons occasioned by the operations of the Franchisee under the franchise herein granted, or alleged to have been so caused or occurred, with a minimum liability of Five Hundred thousand Dollars ($500,000) per personal injury or death of any one person, and One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) for personal injury or death of any two or more persons in any one occurrence.

10.1(b) Property damage insurance for property damage occasioned by the operation of Franchisee under the franchise herein granted, or alleged to have been so caused or occurred, with a minimum liability of Five Hundred thousand Dollars ($500,000) for property damage to the property of any one person and One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) for property damage to the property of two or more persons in any one occurrence.

10.1(c) All insurance policies called for herein shall be in a form satisfactory to the Town and shall require thirty (30) days written notice of any cancellation to both the Town and the Franchisee. The Franchisee shall, in the event of any such cancellation notice, obtain, pay all premiums for, and file with the Town, written evidence of the issuance of replacement policies within thirty (30) days following receipt by the Town or the Franchisee of any notice of cancellation.

10.2 Indemnification

The Franchisee, by its acceptance of a franchise granted pursuant to this Ordinance, shall indemnify and hold harmless the Town, its officials, boards, commissions and employees against any and all claims, suits, causes of action, proceedings, and judgments for damage arising out of the award of a franchise to the Franchisee and its operation of the cable television system under the franchise. These damages shall include, but not be limited to, penalties arising out of copyright infringements and damages arising out of any failure by Franchisee to secure consents from the owners, authorized distributors or licensees of programs to be delivered by the Franchisee's cable television system whether or not any act or omission complained of is authorized, allowed, or prohibited by the franchise.

Section 11. Franchise Violations: Procedures, Notice and Cure

11.1 Procedures In the Event of Alleged Violations

A Franchisee may be penalized by the Town only in the event of a substantial violation or breach of a material provision of this Ordinance. If the Town believes that such a breach has occurred and that there may be sufficient cause to penalize the Franchisee, the following procedures shall be followed:

11.2 Notice, Response and Opportunity to Cure Alleged Violations

11.2(a) The Town shall notify the Franchisee in writing of any alleged violation or failure to meet any of the terms or provisions of this Ordinance. The Franchisee shall be given thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of such notice to respond in writing, stating its explanation for the alleged violations and what actions, if any, have been or are being taken to cure such breach.

11.2(b) Upon receipt of the Franchisee's response, the Town may accept the Franchisee's explanation and/or remedy proposed. Alternatively, if the Town does not accept the Franchisee's explanation or believes that the breach will not be properly cured within a one hundred twenty day (120) period from the date of the original notice of violation, the Town may send to the Franchisee a notice of its intent to penalize the Franchisee.

11.3 Public Hearing Required

Prior to issuing a notice of intent to penalize the Franchisee, the Town shall hold a public hearing providing due process at which testimony and evidence shall be heard concerning the alleged violation. Representatives of the Town and the Franchisee shall be permitted to address the subject of the alleged violation(s) and related issues at the public hearing. The Franchisee may submit evidence to the Town that it is diligently pursuing reasonable actions to cure the alleged violation or that there are circumstances beyond its control (force majeure) which prevent the Franchisee from curing the alleged breach until some future date. Such showings shall be sufficient to relieve the Franchisee from an alleged breach of this Ordinance or its franchise. In such cases the Town may require the Franchisee to provide periodic reports updating the Town on progress being made to cure any unresolved problem.

11.4 Notice and Cure of Franchise Violations

If, following a public hearing, the Town believes that the Franchisee remains in breach, the Town may issue a notice of intent to penalize the Franchisee or revoke its franchise.

11.4(a) The Franchisee shall be given a period of sixty (60) days from the date of the issuance of the notice to cure any alleged violation of this Ordinance. If the alleged violation is not cured within the specified sixty (60) day period, the Town may take the appropriate steps necessary to penalize the Franchisee or revoke the franchise. Provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict the Franchisee's rights to appeal the Town's actions in any appropriate state or federal judicial or administrative forum.

11.5 Franchise Termination and Continuity of Service

11.5(a) In the event that the Town denies renewal or revokes the franchise, which denial or revocation is upheld by a final judicial determination, the Franchisee shall be afforded a period of one (1) year from the effective date of the final order denying renewal or revoking the franchise, including any appeal, within which to transfer or convey the assets of the cable system. Approval of such a transfer shall not be unreasonably withheld.

11.5(b) In the event the franchise is terminated, whether by revocation, expiration, or otherwise, the Franchisee may continue to operate the cable system pursuant to the terms and conditions of the terminated franchise, until the happening of one of the following:

11.5(b)(1) A new franchise or an extension of an expired franchise is granted;

11.5(b)(2) In the case of a revocation or a denial of renewal, a final judicial adjudication has been made, including any appeal, which has resulted in a finding or order that Franchisee is not entitled to a reinstatement, renewal or extension of the franchise and is not otherwise entitled by law to continue operation of the cable system.

11.5(b)(3) The passage of six months with no appeal to an appellate court.

Section 12. Assignment of Franchise

12.1 Pledge For Security Purposes or Assignment to A Related Entity

The Franchisee may secure financing or an indebtedness by trust, mortgage, or other instrument of hypothecation of the franchise, in whole or in part, without requiring the consent of the Town. Consent shall not be required to assign a franchise from one business entity to another which is operated or managed by the present Franchisee or manager of the system. In addition, so long as the manager and or general partner of the Franchisee remains the same, consent shall not be required to transfer interests of any limited partners of the Franchisee, who have no day to day operational control of the Franchisee or the Town system.

12.2 Assignment to an Unrelated Entity

A Franchisee may assign its franchise to another entity (the "Assignee") upon thirty (30) days notice to the Town. The consent of the Town shall not be required for such an assignment, provided that: a) the Town is provided with a reasonable showing that the proposed Assignee possesses the technical and financial qualifications to operate the cable TV system and, b) that the Assignee agrees to comply with the material terms of this Ordinance. In no event shall the Town unreasonably delay or deny the assignment or transfer of a franchise. The reasonableness of the Town's actions shall be subject to judicial review by a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

12.3 Procedures

12.3(a) If no action is taken by the Town within thirty (30) days following receipt of the notice of a proposed assignment by the Franchisee, the assignment of the franchise shall be deemed approved.

12.3(b) If, following a review of the information provided to it, the Town determines that the proposed Assignee may not be technically and financially qualified to operate the cable system, the procedures below shall be followed:

12.3(b)(1) Within thirty (30) days following receipt of the notice of proposed assignment from the Franchisee, the Town shall inform the Franchisee in writing by certified mail of its intent to hold a hearing, providing due process to the Franchisee and the Assignee, for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the Assignee's technical and financial qualifications. Such hearing shall be held by the Town within forty-five (45) days following receipt of the notice of assignment.

12.3(b)(2) Within fourteen (14) days following the date of the hearing, the Town shall make a formal determination regarding the proposed assignment and if it determines that the proposed Assignee is not qualified to operate the cable system or it determines for any other reason not to assign the franchise, it shall send a written explanation of its decision to the Franchisee by certified mail no later than fourteen (14) days after the public hearing has been held.

Section 13. General Provisions

13.1 Compliance With State and Federal Law

The Franchisee and the Town shall at all times comply with all applicable State and Federal laws and the applicable rules and regulations of administrative agencies. If the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) or any other federal or state governmental body or agency enacts any law or regulation or exercises any paramount jurisdiction over the subject matter of this Ordinance or any franchise granted hereunder, the jurisdiction of the Town shall cease and no longer exist to the extent such superseding jurisdiction shall preempt or preclude the exercise of like jurisdiction by the Town.

13.2 Notice to the Franchisee

Except as otherwise provided in this Ordinance, the Town shall not meet to take any action involving the Franchisee's franchise unless the Town has notified the Franchisee by certified mail at least thirty (30) days prior to such meeting, as to its time, place and purpose. The notice provided for in this section shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other notice to the Franchisee provided for in this Ordinance. All notices, requests, demands and other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if mailed by certified mail return receipt requested, addressed to:

Mr. Howard Gan, Vice President
Falcon Cable TV
10866 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 500
Los Angeles, California 90024

13.3 Street Occupancy

Franchisee shall utilize existing poles, conduits and other facilities whenever possible, but may construct or install new, different, or additional poles, conduits, or other facilities whether on the public way or on privately-owned property with the written approval of the appropriate government authority, and, if necessary the property owner. Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld by the governmental agency.

13.3(a) All transmission lines, equipment and structures shall be so installed and located as to cause minimum interference with the rights and appearance and reasonable convenience of property owners who adjoin on any public way and at all times shall be kept and maintained in a safe condition and in good order and repair. The Franchisee shall at all times employ reasonable care and shall use commonly accepted methods and devices for preventing failures and accidents which are likely to cause damage, injuries or nuisances to the public.

13.3(b) Franchisee shall have the authority to trim trees on public property at its own expense as may be necessary to protect its wires and facilities, subject to the direction of the Town or other appropriate governmental authority.

13.4 Access to Public and Private Property

13.4(a) Franchisee shall have the right to enter and have access to the property and premises of the Town or that of any subscriber for purposes of installing cable TV service or recovering and removing Franchisee's property and equipment when a subscriber's service is terminated and a subscriber refuses to return such equipment to the Franchisee.

13.4(b) The Town shall not permit any person who owns or controls a residential multiple unit dwelling, trailer park, condominium, apartment complex, subdivision or other property to interfere with the right of any tenant, resident or lawful occupant thereof to receive cable installation, service or maintenance from Franchisee, except as federal or state law shall otherwise require.

13.4(c) Upon request by Franchisee, the Town shall promptly exercise any rights it may have to permit or enable Franchisee to obtain or utilize easements with respect to any residential multiple unit dwelling, trailer park, condominium, apartment complex, subdivision or other property as required to facilitate Franchisee's use thereof for purposes of providing system service to the tenants, residents or lawful occupants thereof. In any such proceeding, the restitution to the Owner for the amount of space utilized by the system, considering the enhanced value to the premises resulting from the installation of cable television facilities, shall be a one-time charge of $1.00 per dwelling unit.

13.5 Nondiscrimination in Employment

The Franchisee shall neither refuse to hire nor discharge from employment nor discriminate against any person in compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment because of age, sex, race, color, creed, or national origin. The Franchisee shall insure that employees are treated without regard to their age, sex, race, color, creed or national origin.

13.6 Franchisee May Issue Rules

The Franchisee shall have the authority to issue such rules, regulations, terms and conditions of its business as shall be reasonably necessary to enable it to exercise its rights and perform its services under this Ordinance and the Rules of the FCC, and to assure uninterrupted service to each and all of its subscribers. Such rules and regulations shall not be deemed to have the force of law.

13.7 Severability of Ordinance Provisions

If any section of this Ordinance or the franchise, or any portion thereof, is held invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction or administrative agency, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the Ordinance or franchise.

Section 14. Effective Date of Ordinance

This ordinance shall become effective upon the date of its adoption by the Town. Any failure by the Town to follow proper procedures under state or local law in adopting this Ordinance or granting a franchise shall not abrogate the rights or obligations of either the Franchisee or the City under this Ordinance. If, following adoption of this Ordinance it is subsequently determined that proper legal procedures have not been followed by the Town, it shall be the responsibility of the Town to rectify any procedural defects and ratify the terms of this Ordinance.

Educated Guesses-- The Clinton Outlook

President-elect Bill Clinton is likely to disappoint, and be disappointed in turn, when he moves into the Oval Office, a Memphis State University professor says.

"The one difficulty he's going to have from the very beginning is that he's made contradictory promises," said Dr. Kenneth Holland, chairman of MSU's Department of Political Science.

The president-elect has promised to stimulate the economy with, among other things, a massive public works program that will increase government spending, Holland said.

"He's promised to create jobs, reform the health care system, provide national service as a way of repaying college loans and, on top of all this, he's promised to reduce the deficit," Holland said. "My own view of this is that he's going to have tremendous difficulty accomplishing these goals."

Holland said the traditional honeymoon for new presidents may be cut short for Clinton when his campaign promises but up against Washington reality.

Lyndon Johnson was the last president to achieve a budget surplus, Holland said. Johnson accomplished that feat, despite the expense of the Vietnam War and the Great Society programs, during a period of rapid economic growth, he said.

"If Clinton's lucky, he'll be able to increase spending and reduce the deficit," Holland said. "But if he doesn't succeed in stimulating the economy or the economy doesn't grow in the way it did for Lyndon Johnson, then we'll be seeing high rates of inflation and high interest rates and an increase in the deficit which altogether will require a tax increase."

"So he's really going to take a gamble...we may have a bigger budget deficit than we did before," Holland said.

The new president is going to find the problems of dealing with Congress will be far more complex than those he faced as Arkansas' governor, Holland predicted.

"He's going to encounter what we in political science call the 'Iron Triangle' -- the close link between powerful economic interests with committees in Congress and departments of the executive branch of government," he said.

"He didn't have to deal with these interests during the campaign. Now, as president, he will," Holland said. Senior congressmen who control powerful Congressional subcommittees, career bureaucrats and economic interests represented by lobbyists can quickly shred a president's program, he said.

It is this Iron Triangle that Clinton will have to deal with if he is to keep his promises to reform the health care system, block oil industry exploration on public lands, cut defense spending, lift the ban on military service for homosexuals and tighten environmental laws.

Perhaps the biggest battle will be over health care reform, Holland predicted.

"President Eisenhower warned Americans about the military-industrial complex," he said. "But actually, more potent now is the medical-industrial complex."

The health care industry, he said, is likely to block major reforms.

"The health care lobby will not oppose universal health insurance coverage," Holland said. "They want that, because that means they get paid. What they oppose is the cost-containment features of Clinton's program -- capping doctors' income, paying hospitals a single lump-sum each year."

Pharmaceutical companies will try to block legislation to cap payments for drugs and the insurance lobby will fight a proposed government takeover of health care insurance.

"Actually, that's one of the areas where we could make the greatest savings," he said. "We spend $130 billion a year processing health insurance claims."

Holland predicts that Clinton may have some success in cutting defense spending because his proposals are already close to those of the outgoing Bush administration.

"The major problem Clinton will have is in his promise to lift the restriction on service of gays in the military. He's already backed off a little bit. The Pentagon has decided to make a stand here."

Clinton may also succeed in passing a Family Leave Bill over the objections of the business lobby, Holland said. A so-called "rich man's tax" is also likely to pass. But Holland said Clinton will find the business lobby too potent to overcome in battles over limits on executive pay and labor law amendments blocking the hiring of strike breakers on a permanent basis.

Clinton will have to deal with 12 years of pent-up demands from liberal interest groups, Holland said.

"Jimmy Carter had this problem, and he found himself trying to meet these demands, and he got sidetracked from his legislative and foreign policy programs," Holland said.

"Organized labor, for example, is demanding revisions to the North American Free Trade Agreement...The National Education Association is opposing any school choice program. They also oppose a national service as a way for college students to repay federal student loans because NEA feels that this will take jobs away from teachers."

NEA will also demand billions of dollars for Head Start and inner-city school construction, he said.

"He's going to have a tough time turning down those demands," Holland said.

Clinton will also have a tough time dealing with environmental groups, he said.

"On the one hand, he wants to stimulate employment, but on the other hand, he has this commitment to the environmental organizations," Holland said. "I think probably we'll see a compromise. The net result will be a loss of employment, at least in the Pacific Northwest."

Women's organizations want Clinton's support for a freedom of choice law making abortion freely available.

"That's not likely to pass because there's so much opposition in Congress," Holland said. "Clinton's not likely to make a major issue of it because he can alienate a lot of Southern congressmen and he needs Southern Democrats to get his economic program and they won't support him on abortion."

White To Push For Lobbying Reform

Senator John White of Senate District 5 has announced he will co-author a proposal to reform Mississippi's lobbying laws.

"I want my constituents to know that I have nothing to fear from full disclosure of spending by lobbyists," said White, who supported a similar bill last year. "I believe that a more effective lobbying law will help to restore public confidence in state government."

White said he is joining with Meridian Senator Joe Clay Hamilton to present a bill to require lobbyists:

-To report all expenses while lobbying state government and

-To list the names of legislative and executive branch officials who benefitted from that lobbying.

The proposal, which clearly define who a lobbyist and what lobbying is, also is reported by Secretary of State Molpus. "I am delighted Secretary Molpus' support lobbying reform, and I hope our joint efforts will be successful so that we can bring the bill back into decision-making," said White.
