First Grand Jury Indictments Released

by Angela Lambert

The first indictments from the September session of the Tishomingo County grand jury, held Sept. 27, 28 and 29, have been released by Tishomingo County Sheriff David Smith.

According to Tishomingo County Circuit Clerk Donna Dill, the indictments will be announced as the persons being indicted are served with their warrants and are brought into custody by the Sheriff's Department.

The grand jury returned indictments on the following:

Gregory Kline Harris was indicted on the charge of felony phone harassment and had a $25,000 bond set. Smith noted, however, that Harris, who is being held at the Tishomingo County Jail, will be denied bond because of other charges brought against him while out on a felony bond.

Dale Farris, indicted on the charge of statutory rape, had a $25,000 bond set.

Michelle Byrom was indicted on the charge of capital murder. No bond was set.

Edward Byrom Jr. was indicted on the charge of capital murder. No bond was set.

Joey Dale Gillis was indicted on the charge of capital murder. No bond was set.

Johnny Odon Whitfield was indicted on two separate charges of possession of marijuana with intent to distribute and one charge of possession of cocaine. Bond was set at $10,000 each for the first two charges and $5,000 for the third charge.

The names of others indicted by the grand jury will be released as they are served.

An indictment is the legal process of bringing charges against a suspect after a jury—in this case the grand jury—finds there is sufficient evidence against them to proceed to trial in circuit court.

Suspects indicted will be arraigned on Nov. 4 by Court Administrator Mack Miller. At the arraignment, Miller will advise the suspects of their formal charges. They will then have to hire an attorney (or if they cannot afford to hire an attorney, one will be appointed for them). The next session of circuit court will be in January of 2000. The indicted suspects have the option of pleading on the official plea day, Jan. 5, or proceeding to trial.

Tishomingo Co. K-9 Unit Trains As Part of Mid-South Task Force

by Angela Lambert

In today's war on drugs, a well-trained K-9 unit is essential to law enforcement.

Several area law enforcement agencies, including the Tishomingo County Sheriff's Department, are making their decisions in this war even stronger by uniting with the Mid-South K-9 Task Force.

Tishomingo County K-9 Officer James Trimm and the Department's drug dog Kietchi train weekly with K-9 units from surrounding counties in order to keep their drug detection skills sharp.

According to Officer Trimm, most often, the Tishomingo County unit trains in Alcorn County at the Corinth Firing Range with members of the Alcorn County Sheriff's Department's and Corinth Police Department's K-9 Units.

Also training there are Alcorn County's K-9 Officer Dale Mullen and his 2½-year-old Rottweiler, Jake; and Corinth PD's K-9 officer, Daryl Hopkins and his 2-year-old German Shepherd, Barron, and Booneville's K-9 Officer Rodney Wood and his 4-year-old Czechoslovakian Shepherd, Caesar.

Other counties included in the Mid-South Task Force are Tupelo, Pontotoc County, Lee County, Union County, McNairy County (Tenn.) and Hardin County (Tenn.).

Trimm said that as part of the training exercises, the K-9 Officers take their dogs to search local schools and participate in T-CAP narcotics intervention on area highways. He explained that the K-9s are trained to detect substances such as cocaine, marijuana, heroin and crystal methamphetamine.

Both handler and dog must meet certain qualifications and must be certified in order to work as a law enforcement K-9 Unit. Officer Trimm and Kietchi have been certified through the Mid-South Police K-9 Association. Additionally, they have certification in narcotics detection, tracking, apprehension and handler protection.

Drug dog Kietchi is relatively new to the Tishomingo County SO, joining the Department only about a year and a half ago. Since that time, he has worked exclusively with Officer Trimm.

The team has been instrumental in numerous narcotics arrests in the county. They often attend community events and visit schools encouraging those present to remain drug-free.

Brought from Frankfurt, Germany by his trainer, Russell Gaines of Starkville, Kietchi was initially trained for four weeks using a foreign language, Trimm explained. He stated that this is a common method used for K-9s to ensure that the dog obeys only his handler. Dogs are chosen for the program based on their enthusiasm for learning, according to the officer.

Although most K-9s, including Kietchi, are generally affectionate, non-violent dogs, they will attack if they feel their handler is being threatened. For that reason, do not approach any K-9 without the handler's consent, Officer Trimm warned.

Happy Halloween!!

This weekend is Halloween—the holiday featuring pumpkins, ghouls, goblins and candy for trick-or-treaters.

Since Halloween falls on Sunday this year, trick-or-treaters are asked to observe the holiday on Saturday night, Oct. 30, only.

In Iuka, Chief of Police Amos Bates asks all youngsters to finish their visits by 7:30 p.m. Saturday. In Tishomingo, Mayor James Tennyson asks that trick-or-treaters start early and try and finish by 8 p.m. Belmont's Chief of Police Donald Reno would like to remind Belmont residents that trick-or-treat hours are from 5 to 8 p.m.

Seventeen-month-old Logan Tate Ryan (above) had fun helping his mom decorate their yard for this fall holiday. Logan is the son of Stephanie Ragan and Shane Ryan of Iuka. Grandparents are Karl Ragan of Iuka and Judy Ragan of Tupelo; Theresa and Daniel Leeth of Corinth; and Ricky and Paula Ryan of Iuka. Great Grandparents are George and Sally Oakes of Copenhagen, NY; Florence Parsons of Iuka; Opal Walker of Iuka and Chalmer White of Houston, TX. Great-great grandmother is Ola Mae Lambert of Iuka. Logan's aunts and uncles include Kristy and John Williams of Iuka and Briana Bailey of Corinth.

James Marschall, Independent Candidate For Justice Court Judge, North Half, Asks For Your Vote Nov. 2

Since I qualified March 1, I have been greatly encouraged by the reception I have been given by the voters and residents of Tishomingo County over the past months.

You have indicated to me a change is necessary. I take this last opportunity to personally ask you to go to the polls on Nov. 2nd and cast your vote for the candidate who stands for the following:

- ☑ God, my family and the people of Tishomingo County.
- ☑ Making a difference in your court system for all the North End residents.
- ☑ Making this part-time position my one and only full time job.
- ☑ Putting God back in the school and court systems.
- ☑ Getting bad checks collected for the small business.
- ☑ Maximum sentencing for drug dealers and violent offenders.

James Marschall

- ☑ The principle that "All men are innocent until proven guilty."
- ☑ Finding alternative sentencing for minor misdemeanors.
- ☑ Equal treatment under the law for all offenders.
- ☑ Citizens having a feeling of safety and well being.

Presently I live in Burnsville and have lived there since 1992. I have lived in Mississippi since 1967. I am personally financing my campaign and have accepted no contributions from special interest groups or individuals.

IF YOU WANT A CHANGE IN YOUR COURT SYSTEM, VOTE FOR JAMES MARSHALL

1999 General Election, This Tuesday, Nov. 2

by Angela Lambert

Voters will have the opportunity to make their final choices for their favorite candidates in this year's general election to be held Tuesday, Nov. 2.

Tishomingo County Circuit Clerk Donna Dill said polls will be open throughout the county from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. for voting on Tuesday.

Listed on the ballot will be state, district and county offices. Voters will have the option to vote for Independent candidates in some races, for the first time. This is because those qualifying as Independents go directly to the general election ballot and do not participate in party primary elections.

While some candidates are unopposed, others will have one or more opponents from different political parties.

Initiative No. 9—Term Limits

In addition to voting for candidates, voters will be asked to vote on Initiative Measure No. 9 concerning term limits for legislators.

A ruling by U.S. District Judge William Barbour, Jr. brought the term limits initiative to the November ballot.

A vote of "YES" to the initiative means you think that members of the Mississippi Legislature (both Representatives and Senators) should be limited to two (2) consecutive terms in office. A vote of "NO" means you do not wish a limit to be placed on the number of consecutive terms a member of the Mississippi Legislature (both Representatives and Senators) can serve.

Even if this initiative passes, a person could be elected to a third term provided that term is at least four years after the end of the second term they served. In other words, if they skip a term, they can then run for that office again.

Candidates With Opponents

Candidates (who have opponents) and the offices for which they are running are as follows:

For Governor—Ronnie Musgrove (D), Mike Parker (R), Jerry L. Ladner (Ref.) and Helen P. Perkins (Ind.)

For Lieutenant Governor—Bill Hawks (R) and Amy Tuck (D)

For Secretary of State—Eric Clark (D) and Nick Walters (R)

For Attorney General—Mark Garriga (R) and Mike Moore (D)

For State Auditor—Phil Bryant (R), Rod Nixon (D) and Carl Zimmerman (Ref.)

For State Commissioner of Insurance—George Dale (D) and Charles Ravencraft (R)

For District Attorney (1st Dist.)—Julian Fagan (R) and John R. Young (D)

For Tishomingo County Sheriff—David F. Smith (D) and Curtis (Boots) Lovelace (Ind.)

For Tishomingo County Attorney—Nicholas B. Phillips (R) and Mark T. Segars (Ind.)

For Tishomingo County Coroner—Michael Martin (R) and Mack Wilemon (D)

For Tishomingo County 3rd Dist. Supervisor—Charles D. Lambert (Ind.) and Danny C. Ryan (D)

For Tishomingo County Justice Court Judge (North Half)—J.R. Blakney (D) and James O. Marschall (Ind.)

Other candidates, without opponents, will also appear on your ballots.

Voters are reminded to please mark your ballots with care, making sure to complete the area between the arrows beside the person you are voting for.

Circuit Clerk's Office To Be Open On Saturday, Oct. 30th for Absentee Voting

Donna Henry Dill, Circuit Clerk, announces that absentee ballots are now available for the General Election for those who will be unable to go to the polls on Tuesday, November 2, 1999. You may come by our office Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. or on Saturday, October 30th, 8 a.m. to 12 noon, to cast your absentee ballot in the clerk's office. The last day to vote absentee ballot in the circuit clerk's office is Saturday, October 30, 1999.

All mailed absentee ballots must be received in the circuit clerk's office on Monday, November 1, 1999, to be accepted for the general election.

If you have questions regarding absentee voting, please contact our office at 423-7026.

Donna Dill, Circuit Clerk, encourages everyone to cast their vote whether it be an absentee ballot or at the polls on election day. Each vote makes a difference, and this is your way of voicing your opinion.

All Veterans Invited!

The Iuka Middle School Student Government Association will be presenting a program on Thursday, November 11 in honor of all veterans. The program will begin at 1:30 p.m. in Howard Auditorium at IMS and is sponsored by the S.G.A. It will include a special ceremony for veterans James Mars and Webb Robertson. This will also be our P.T.A. meeting for November, so all parents are encouraged to attend.

WANTED: Basketball Coaches For Burnsville Youth Basketball

Do you enjoy the game of basketball? Do you like children and want them to have a chance to participate in the sport of basketball? Then why not volunteer to coach a team of boys or girls in Burnsville's Youth Basketball Program.

There will be another meeting of parents and others who would like to volunteer to be a coach or assist coach for the program—which includes children in grades 1 through 6—on Monday, November 1, at 7 p.m. in Burnsville School's old gym. We need a lot more coaches in order to offer this program for our kids. We would hate to have to cancel this beneficial program because of a lack of response.

If you would like to help our kids or know someone else who would, please come or encourage them to attend this meeting. Don't let our children down. They need YOU. Let's support them.

For more information, call Carl Morris at 423-1497 or LeAnne Tucker at 427-9974.

Alcorn County K-9 Officer Dale Mullen and his Rottweiler, Jake (left), and Tishomingo County K-9 Officer James Trimm and his German Shepherd, Kietchi (right), are among the several members of the Mid-South K-9 Task Force. In addition to Jake, Officer Mullen explained that he has a second dog in-training—a young German Shepherd named Buddy.

Kelly Lilly Visits IMS GEMS Class—The GEMS class at Iuka Middle School has recently been studying a unit on various handicaps. Blindness is one of the handicaps they have studied. Kelly Lilly came and spoke to the class about what it is like to be blind. She brought her Braille writer and stylus and slate and demonstrated writing in Braille. She also demonstrated walking with her white cane as well as walking with her guide dog, Sadie. She read from one of her books which was in Braille. She showed the students her Braille kitchen timer and talking clock. She told the students her very interesting life history and answered their many questions. The students really appreciated Miss Lilly coming to speak to their class. The GEMS teacher is Mrs. Cindy Pharr. Students pictured with Miss Lilly are Travis Rabe, Tyler Gillis, Kaitlin James, Chaz Akers, Nikita Corsbie, Callie Daniel, Andrea Davis, and Erin Wade. Other GEMS students who were present were: Abby Brown, Kristin Duncan, Seth Kennedy, Kaela King, Justin Maness, Jonathan Murrah, Jenni Nichols, Ashanti Puckett, Kelly Rone, Jake Segars, Ory Woods, Bri Barnett, Zack Bullard, Matthew Cook, Jenna Cutshall, Sally Glover, Dani McCabe, Haley McKee, Katie Strickland, Kelie Strickland, Lee Thorne, Ginny Wigginton, Dee Works, Marley Arnold, Whitney Bowling, Emma Clark, Eden Carson, Caroline Walker, Leslie Kirk, Ashley Brents, Megan Bullard, Sara Cobb, C.J. Cole, Douglas Deaton, Ashley Helton, Casey Phillips, Aimee Kirk, Josh Linton, Amy Lowrey, Rachel Smith, Corie Holt, Tyler Segars and Emily Yow.

Home Economics Tips

Halloween Safety Tips

Go only into familiar neighborhoods and stop only at houses that are well lit.

Carry flashlights and use reflective tape on clothing and bags.

Walk, do not run, on sidewalks, not streets. If there are no sidewalks, walk on the left side of the road, facing traffic.

Slow down when approaching driveways to avoid exiting or entering cars, and do not run out between cars.

Discard commercially produced candy if wrapper is loose or seal has been broken.

Examine outside of fruit for suspicious cuts or holes. Wash, and slice it into small pieces checking for inedible objects.

Report any suspicious treats to the police or other appropriate authorities.

WHEN IN DOUBT, THROW IT OUT.

Alternatives to Candy Treats

Reminders for Children's Parties

Choose foods that children will enjoy.

Furniture, food, and decorations should be child-size.

Have plenty of supervision. One adult can handle about 10 children; use two adults if the children are in a setting outside the home.

Remember that just because something is scary and fun for adults, it might not be fun for children.

Big Business In Children's Rooms

It's A Boom In Babyland

The ever-going interest in home decor and the trends toward having smaller families and starting them later in life means a proliferation of late-blooming nurseries and a desire to furnish them in style.

Children often get the smallest bedroom but that bedroom contains more toys, more electronics and more equipment than ever before. The natural pairing of kids and clutter has prompted several manufacturers to expand their lines of juvenile storage items. Closet extenders, wall racks, hooks, hanging baskets, over-the-door organizers and under-the-bed storage containers are available in cartoon character motifs and other designs that have high kid-appeal. Two basic color schemes - primary red, blue and green or pink and lavender - are often used to provide boy/girl differentiation to the same in-line assortment.

In the bedding area, one of the most interesting innovations is the Nordic Sac, a top-of-the-bed duvet cover that zips onto the bottom sheet of a twin bed. No more covers tossed off in the night or struggling and straining to make the bed in the morning. It unzips to double as a sleeping bag or a separate comforter - great for sleepovers at home or away. Matching bed ruffles and pillow shams are available.

Lighting comes in for some special attention with licensed designs featuring, among others, the gang from Peanuts, Looney Tunes and Disney, adorning table

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

OPTOMETRIST

Double Vision

Double vision can occur from a number of causes and is very disturbing. It can happen when you are overtired, after taking medication, or after too much alcohol. It can even happen without apparent cause when fatigue or over-drinking is not involved. Whatever the cause may be, it indicates that the two eyes are not pointing in the same direction. This occurs when something interferes with the brain's ability to control and coordinate the eye muscles.

A more serious matter is double vision which appears suddenly and continues to be present even after the brain is in complete control. The probable cause could then be a small stroke, hemorrhage, or pressure on the brain from another source. An examination at this time becomes very important because in most instances, proper treatment will restore normal vision. If the process of recovering normal vision is slow, temporary aids such as special glasses will keep the double vision under control.

Gates & Campgrounds To Close For Winter

The Corps of Engineers at Bay Springs Lake would like to announce that effective October 28, 1999 the gates will be closed to following areas: the Divide Overlook, Paden Overlook, Piney Grove Picnic Area, and West Damsite Picnic Area. Holcut Park gate will remain open to accommodate hunter access and parking on the hunting areas in the Divide Section Wildlife Management Area. However, the restroom at this area will be closed. Gates to all boat ramp areas will remain open.

Piney Grove Campground will close at the end of the day October 31, 1999. A portion of the Fulton Campground, containing one restroom, will remain open during the winter period.

If you have any questions, you can contact the Bay Springs Resource Office at (662)454-3481 or the Jamie L. Whitten visitor Center in Fulton at (662)862-5414.

A Dog's Plea

Treat me kindly, my beloved friend, for no heart in all the world is more grateful for kindness than the loving heart of me.

Do not break my spirit with a stick, for though I should lick your hand between blows, your patience and understanding will more quickly teach me the things you would have me to learn.

Speak to me often, for your voice is the world's sweetest music, as you must know by the fierce wagging of my tail when your footstep falls upon my waiting ear.

Please take me inside when it is cold and wet, for I am a domesticated animal, no longer accustomed to bitter elements. I ask no greater glory than the privilege of sitting at your feet beside the hearth.

Keep my pan filled with fresh water, for I cannot tell you when I suffer thirst.

Feed me clean food that I may stay well, to romp and play, and do your bidding, to walk by your side, and stand ready, willing and able to protect you with my life, should your life be in danger.

And my friend, when I am very old, and I no longer enjoy good health, hearing and sight. Do not make heroic efforts to keep me going. I am not having any fun. Please see that my trusting life is taken gently. I shall leave this earth knowing with the last breath I draw that my fate was always safest in your hands.

For The Whiter, Brighter Smile You've Always Dreamed Of!!

Tooth whitening is a well established procedure in cosmetic dentistry. Hydrogen peroxide, the active agent in Nite White has been safely used for many years in the treatment of gums and other oral soft tissue. The whitening process is effective on most discolored teeth. Darker stains such as those caused by antibiotics may take longer to respond to treatment. The degree of whiteness will vary from patient to patient, depending on the structure of the teeth, the number of applications or the duration of time that the whitening system is used.

Nite White is an advanced tooth whitening chemistry far superior to over-the-counter whitening products. It is more effective, better tasting and can be used during the day or evening for maximum convenience. Nite White is a mild solution containing a unique blend of natural soothers, conditioners and flavor enhancers. It is dispensed to patients by a dental professional, and applied by the patient at home using comfortable and inconspicuous tray.

Research and clinical studies indicate that whitening teeth with hydrogen peroxide under the supervision of a dentist is safe for teeth and gums. In fact, many dentists consider this whitening process the safest cosmetic dental procedure available today. Results are often seen after the first application. Ideal results generally occur when the process is continued for 10 to 14 days. Faster results may be obtained with more frequent applications and/or longer wear periods.

Some people experience temporary tooth sensitivity during the treatment. These symptoms always disappear within 1-3 days after interruption or completion of the treatment.

What's That Big Green Box?

Transformers aren't just on poles anymore. The large green boxes you see near buildings and in new housing developments are called pad-mounted transformers. They contain electrical equipment that serves as the distribution point for underground electrical lines.

This type of transformer poses little danger, but even a slight risk isn't worth taking. Never dig near these transformers and never plant or build anything within 10 feet of them. Also, teach children not to play on or near the transformers. Remember to always think safety around electrical equipment!

Mrs. Imogene Hamilton was buried on Wednesday of last week. So was W.T. Hearn. Mrs. Hamilton was at Tishomingo. Mr. Hearn at Bethlehem. Both families have our sincere love and sympathy.

Mrs. Opal Tidwell was buried at the Lindsey Cemetery on Saturday. She was the mother of Billy Howell and Hildred Parker Tidwell. They have our sympathy. Mrs. Betty Stormont passed away sometime early Sunday morning at Tupelo. Betty fought a hard battle of Cancer after her husband Candler Fay Stormont died. She will be buried on Tuesday the 26th at Belmont City Cemetery. Her family has our sympathy.

Mrs. Clarice Tennyson passed away Sunday night at the Manor Nursing Home in Iuka. She was a sister to Mrs. Ila Trimm. She will be buried at Forked Oak on Tuesday the 26th.

The Tishomingo American Legion and Auxiliary met last Thursday at the Rooster for a regular meeting.

The Tishomingo Homemakers thanks all that supported them at the dedication on the school campus on Saturday. The crowd was really low which we were all disappointed. It was rather cold though to brave against.

Sunday our family and Gail, Michelle & Chad motored to Lawrenceburg, Tenn. all enjoyed the trip. But the Amish country was all closed in no sales on Sunday!

Bro. Tim Spivey and Pam were at our house on Friday. Lindsey Lee and Chad was here on Monday. Velma "Beb" Ward Davis of St. Joseph, Tenn. was by to see us. Others were Shirley Thorne, Eva Mae and Louise Puckett.

Paula and Nathan Knox and children of Florence visited on Saturday with Paul and Letrece Byram.

Miss Eva Sparks is not doing well. We send our prayers and get well wishes her way, hoping she will soon be much better.

Mrs. Gail Strickland visited her doctor in Florence and got a good report. We were all proud to know Gails feeling better.

Jennette Thorn has not been feeling good recently. We send prayers and get well wishes her way.

Patrick and Jennifer Foret had their daughter, Michelle and her

Mrs. Warren Kennedy is home from North Miss Medical Hospital in Tupelo where she underwent heart surgery. She is up some each day but still having some pain. Remember to pray for the Kennedy's and we hope she's going to be better soon.

All children remember the big Halloween Festival at Crow's Neck on Saturday night. But we beg all to be very careful and ask a driver to watch for the children trick or treating on Saturday night. Make this a safe one while having a good time.

Error On Hunting Season Cards

Recently, the Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks distributed pocket-sized hunting information cards containing an error, according to an agency spokesman.

The printing error was an omission of one species of ducks that may be harvested during open seasons.

In addition to the ducks already listed on the hunter-orange-colored cards, the list should include scaup. The daily limit on scaup is three.

The DWFP regrets the error and confusion this omission may have caused.

Iuka Lions Club News

The Iuka Lions Club held its regular bi-monthly meeting on October 19 at the Country Squire. Ann Harvell, Director of the Department of Human Services for Tishomingo County and Jenny Perkins, Social Worker, presented a very informative program. Their presentation pointed out the various services provided by their department. These services are financial/economic support for children and families, investigation of abuse to children and elderly, placement of children into foster homes, and child abuse prevention through school programs. The school programs are presented to grades K-3 and consist of puppet shows depicting abusive situations. According to Mrs. Perkins, this program has had great results empowering children to come forward with reports of abuse. Also, both Harvell and Perkins emphasized the need for foster homes. If you and your family are interested in learning how to become a foster home for children in need, please contact the Department of Human Services located in the Tishomingo County Courthouse.

In our last news report, we invited an service-oriented male or female to come out to our meetings to learn more about Lions and our services. As always, everyone is welcome to visit our meetings or call for information about becoming a Lion or Lioness. With more members, we can achieve our ultimate goal or more service to those in need.

Do you have old eyeglasses lying around your home? Is the only use they now get when your children or grandchildren find them and use them to play dress up? Wouldn't you like to know those old frames are making a difference in someone's life? You can know this if you donate the old eyeglasses to the Lions Club. These old frames are refurbished and fitted with appropriate lenses for someone in need. Your glasses may help someone in our area, region, country, and worldwide. The Lions Club has collection boxes for your old eyeglasses at Piggly Wiggly, Iuka Discount Drugs, Rushing Drugs, and Fred's. You can drop off your eyeglasses at these locations or give them to any Lion you might know. We appreciate your contribution.

Our next regular meeting is November 2 at 6:30 p.m. at the Country Squire. For additional information about meeting times, place or Lions Club in general, you may contact Lion Bob Marshall at 423-3791. Iuka Lions Club, WE SERVE.

Kill A Bug This Fall - Get Your Flu Shot

Belmont Family Medical Clinic wants area residents to take their best shot against the flu by getting an $8 flu shot.

"Influenza is a viral infection that can lead to a much more serious illness like pneumonia or bronchitis," said Stephen Senter, M.D., a family practice physician with Belmont Family Medical Clinic. "Almost everyone 65 and older should get a flu shot. It's also important for those with lung disease or other chronic conditions, and for those who spend a lot of time around sick or elderly people."

The flu vaccine cannot give you the flu - you might get a sore arm from the shot or a mild reaction, but not the flu. "While the flu shot cannot totally prevent you from getting the flu, it will keep you from getting as sick as you would have without the shot," Dr. Senter said. "By protecting yourself, you avoid catching the flu and spreading it to family and friends."

Flu immunizations are one of the most cost-effective preventive steps you can take to improve your health. "Annual shots are recommended because the influenza viruses change," he said. "Your body takes about two weeks after the vaccination to develop antibodies, and the antibodies last about six months. One shot will take you through one flu season."

The flu shot will not be given to pregnant women or to anyone allergic to eggs.

Belmont Family Medical Clinic, located at 26 Third St., is one of more than 40 physician offices affiliated with North Mississippi Health Services offering low-cost flu shots throughout the region.

Coupons redeemable for an $8 flu shot along with free and low-cost health screenings are available in the Live Well Book of Health. The free booklet contains coupons that can be redeemed at different times throughout the year for:

Free blood pressure test (valid anytime)

Free behavioral health survey (valid anytime)

Free breast cancer risk survey (through Dec. 31)

Free heart risk survey and $8 cholesterol check (Jan. 1-March 31, 2000)

Free healthy cookbook and personal nutrition survey (March 1-April 30, 2000)

$30 prostate cancer screening (March 1-April 30, 2000)

Free osteoporosis screening (May 1-June 31, 2000)

Free "Feelin' Good" T-shirt with back-to-school physical exam (July 1-Sept. 30, 2000)

The booklet also contains health information on the warning signs and symptoms, and risk factors for blood pressure, breast and prostate cancer, heart attack, stroke and other health concerns. For more information about flu shots at a local clinic or to request a free copy of the Live Well Book of Health, call 1-800-843-3375.

WE'RE CELEBRATING AT DORAN FAMILY DENTISTRY!!!

We've got two great reasons to celebrate.
We've been in business for one full year and Bethany Franks, RDH, has joined us on a full-time basis. Bethany is a registered dental hygienist who lives here in Iuka with her husband, Mike, and son, Austin. She's a wonderful addition to a great staff of Tammy McAnally, Cindy Capasso and Donna Boyles.

In order to say thank you for a successful year, we will be giving away several oral-B 3-D electric toothbrushes. Simply stop by the office and register before the end of October.

There is absolutely no obligation to make an appointment and you do not have to be a patient of Dr. Doran's to register.

No one will call you to try to schedule an appointment. This is simply a warm thank you to a very welcoming community.

J. R. BLAKNEY Asks For Your Support

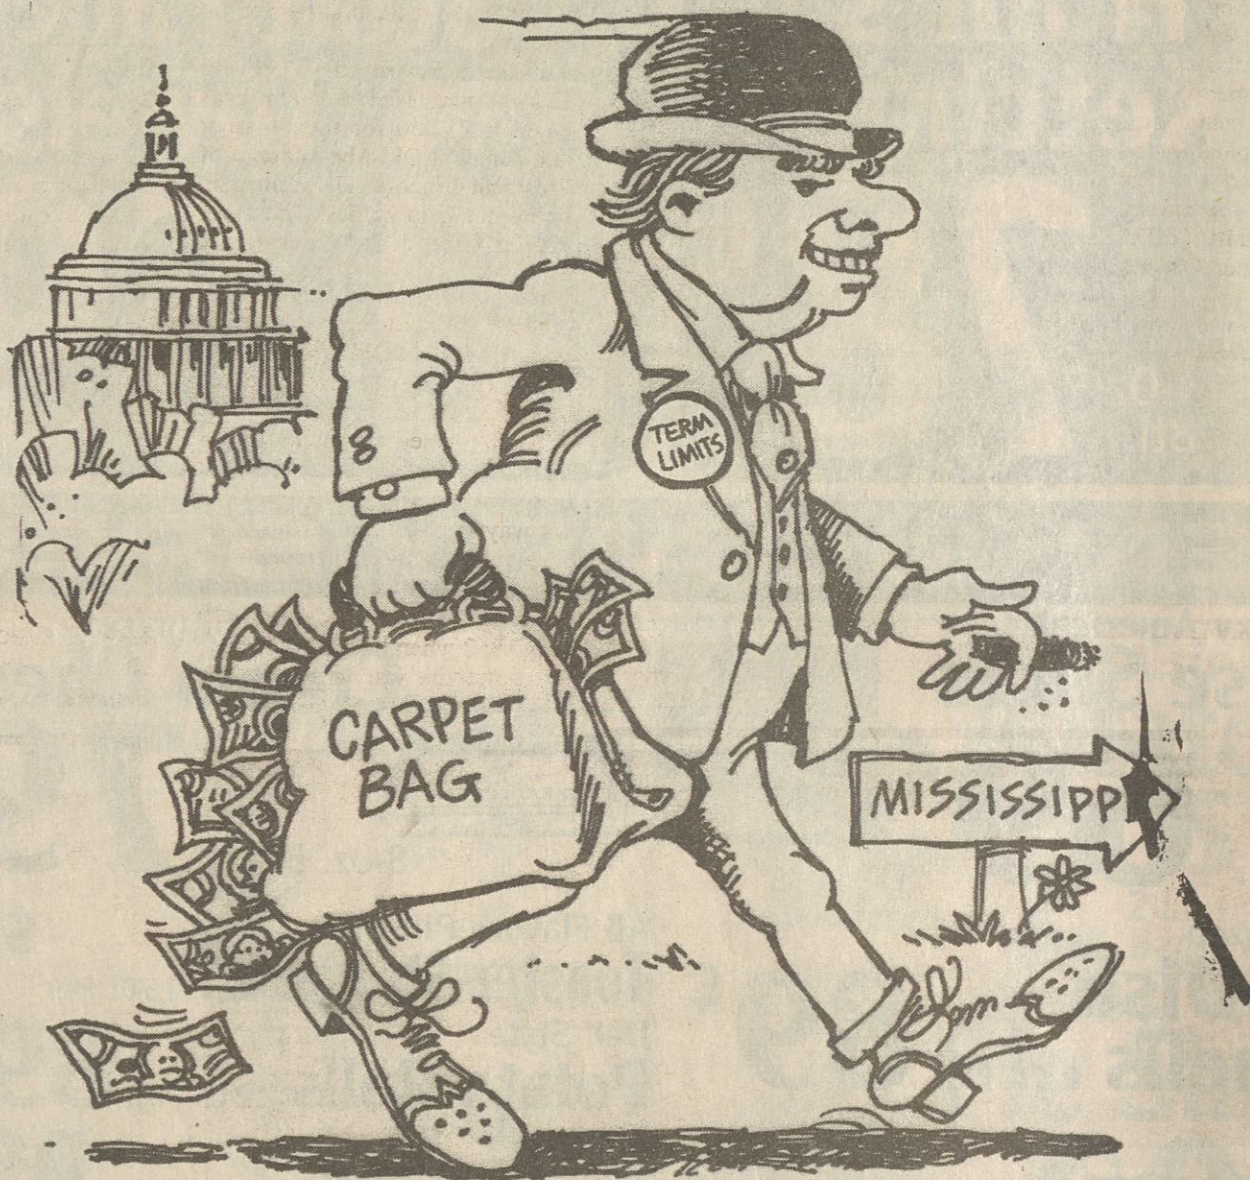

I want to thank all of you for the tremendous vote of confidence you placed in me on August 3 of this year, allowing me to be the Democratic candidate for the November 2, 1999 General Election.

I ask all of you to consider me as your candidate and I ask you to return to the polls and vote once again to keep all the experience working for you in the Justice Court office.

As I have an Independent opponent that will be on the ballot, it is very important that all of you return on November 2, 1999 and cast your vote and remember...

If It Ain't Broke, Don't Fix It!

Pd. Pol. Ad.

The Outsiders Are Back Again!

They were here shortly after the Civil War. They were back here in 1995, trying to sell Mississippi a bill of goods on "term limits" for all elected officials. Now they are back again! This time they are bringing with them over a million dollars they are spending to try and pass term limits for legislators.

They call themselves by many names, but nobody knows who they really are...and they are not telling! Nobody knows where the money is coming from...and they are not telling that either! As a voter, you have a right to know who is writing the checks!

What we do know is that the term limits initiative is NOT a Mississippi grassroots effort. More than 90% of their signature gatherers were paid, out-of-state professionals. (The outsiders felt that Mississippi did not have a sufficient number of well spoken petition circulators.) We also know that they have admitted that if this current campaign to limit terms for legislators is successful, they will go after our local elected officials again. (Sun Herald, September 14, 1999)

We already have term limits: the BALLOT BOX! If you don't like the way your state legislator is representing you, you can vote him or her out of office.

Would you switch doctors every eight years, even though they were taking good care of your family? Of course not. Nor would you fire a teacher who is doing a good job. Why change our state constitution for something that is wrong?

Don't Be Tricked!

Send a message to the outsiders trying to tell us how our government should be run.

Irene Barnes Speaks To UDC

The John Marshall Stone #394 of the United Confederate Veterans met at the Iuka Library at four o'clock on September 21, 1999.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Ahlstrom, President, officiated. The Pledge of Allegiance, salutes to the MS Confederate Flags, Ritual and the Lord's Prayer were said in unison. Mrs. Wanda Walker. The Scripture and Prayer were led by Mrs. Wanda Walker. The minutes of the May meeting and the call were read by Mrs. Jeanie

Secretary. Mrs. Walker, reported that the application for membership of Mrs. Mildred was being processed. Mrs. Ahlstrom was welcomed to the meeting and cordiality invited to meetings. Mrs. Marquita Ahlstrom, Treasurer, gave her report. Mrs. Ahlstrom attended the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Corinth Chapter at the lovely home of Mrs. Kathryn Sewell. She gave a report on this special and historic occasion. Each member received filler pages to update their yearbooks. Mrs. Ahlstrom.

Our chapter was honored to have Mrs. Irene Barnes as our guest speaker. Her interesting topic was "Highlights of the War between the States". The pillaging and foraging through this area by the North caused almost total destitution of a very large number of women and children. The heavy drain upon the male population and the robbery and destruction committed by the enemy forces prompted county officials to petition Governor Charles Lynch for help. In July 1861

Commissioners were appointed to check the needs of soldier's families.

After the first year of the War the Confederate government of Tishomingo County was in shambles. It was the first county in MS in which the Confederacy had to suspend the collection of taxes.

Mrs. Barnes narrated numerous family histories and their plight during the War. One example was the fascinating accounts of the Jesse Biggs and Daniel Dexter families since many of our chapter are descendants including Mrs. Barnes.

Jesse Biggs and Daniel Dexter owned large grist mills and gins on Indian Creek. Every few days the Union soldiers would come and take charge of the mills for two or three weeks. Often when customers came to the mills, not knowing the Union soldiers had control, the soldiers would take the people's corn for themselves. Many times Mrs. Biggs and Mrs. Dexter begged the soldiers for bran to make a course bread for their children. Soldiers would shoot their fat hogs; just cut out the hams and leave the rest. Once just as Mrs. Dexter got dinner cooked soldiers came and took every bite from the table. Mr. Dexter put his money in a large iron pot and sank it in the creek so the soldiers couldn't find it. The army thought Dexter was aiding the Confederacy and threatened to hang him too.

The soldiers came to the Biggs place; stole the sweet potatoes and caught all the ducks. One man sitting on the back of their wagon laughed at Mrs. Biggs trying to save the last duck and said, "You're having a hard time trying to save that duck." She picked up a hand full of sand and threw it in his eyes. Mrs. Biggs said, "You'll have a hard time getting out of your eyes too."

Anthony T. Scruggs, the last Confederate veteran in Iuka, died November 18, 1933. He was buried in Oak Grove Cemetery. Mr. Scruggs was a private with the 17th MS Infantry.

The last Confederate veteran of Tishomingo County, John Fuson Grimes, died near Holcut in February 1940, at age 93. He was too young to enlist at the beginning of the war but served the last two years with Roddy under Forrest.

Many Confederate prisoners of war died in Federal prisons and are buried there. Mrs. Barnes counted 1,665 from MS regiments and there were many more who joined other regiments from AL, TN and other places. There were 50 who were buried in Federal prisons from the 2nd MS alone. Records show hundreds listed as unknown.

The Northern 8th Wisconsin Eagles purchased a giant bald eagle for $2.50 for their mascot and named it Old Abe in honor of President Lincoln. He seemed to enjoy being in battles. The eagle put on quite a show during the Battle of Corinth. Confederate generals ordered their soldiers to capture or shoot Old Abe. Once or twice he lost some feathers but Old Abe always managed to escape. He seemed upset at the sight of a Confederate uniform. If there was a Johnny Reb working his way through the Union lines, he would begin to scream. James McGinnis, a 19 year old boy from Wisconsin, carried Old Abe until May 1862 when he died at Iuka.

After the war was over, the weary and half starved soldiers found some military orders very irritating. For example, the "Button Order" prevailed the entire South. It prohibited a person from wearing Confederate buttons. If they didn't have plain buttons, the olds ones could be covered with cloth. Many soldiers, ignorant that such an order existed, were detained; had their buttons sheared off with a saber or were marched to the Provost's office to answer for their crime.

There are probably many letters still in trunks and attics that need to be documented to preserve our history. Originals or photocopies should be submitted to the MS State Dept. of Archives. This is a wonderful way to help preserve our history and confirm other facts about the War Between the States.

Mrs. McKee was the hostess. She served a variety of finger foods using the theme of fall. The door prize was won by Mrs. Walker.

The members attending but not mentioned above were: Mrs. Vicky Durham, Mrs. Sheron Coats and Mrs. Marquita Mathis.

Special Guests At September DAR Meeting

A Historical and Educational meeting was held on September 12, 1999 of the Chief Tishomingo Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the Iuka Library. Mrs. Vicky Durham, Regent, called the meeting to order at two o'clock.

The Scripture and Prayer were led by Mrs. Martha Dobbins. Casey Phillips led the Pledge of Allegiance. The America's Creed was read by C.J. Cole. Kelie Strickland read the Preamble. The Constitutional Minutes were read by Mrs. Mildred Hill. Mrs. Durham read the President General's Message. Mrs. Jeanie McKee read the National Defense Report and the minutes of the May meeting.

Mrs. Helen M. Nixon, Corresponding Secretary, reported that all correspondence had been given to the Regent. The Treasurer, Mrs. Barbara Sweeney, gave her report. Mrs. Dobbins presented the Chaplain's fund report. She reminded the members to turn in their soup labels for the DAR schools at the next meeting and to renew their magazine subscriptions. Several members of our chapter have been sick this summer but are improving.

Mrs. Dobbins was awarded a pin for her generous contribution to the State Regent's Project last year for Rosalie. She is a dedicated and loyal DAR member.

Mrs. Dobbins reported that Mrs. Fredda Sanderson, Mrs. Barbara Sweeney and herself would attend the meeting at Rosalie this year and encourage others to join them.

Mrs. Mildred Hill, Program Presenter, introduced a teacher, Cindy Pharr of the Iuka Middle School. The students presented the program "Bells of America Memorial Service" for the Constitution Week Celebration.

Cindy Pharr explained that September 20 thru the 24th is Constitution Week. And, the Constitution emphasises the supreme law of the United States. We are commemorating the 212th year of our Constitution. The school always observes this week with activities for the students. Her class also have been studying various handicaps including deafness. The students have been learning patriotic songs in sign language which they would be doing later in the program.

The "Star Spangled Banner" was sung by Whitney Bowling. Three students read selected Readings: Marley Arnold, Emma Clark and Emily Yow.

The teacher asked everyone to help sing while the children did the songs in sign language. "God Bless America" was signed by C.J. Cole and Casey Phillips; "America the Beautiful" by Erin Wade, Emily Yow and Marley Arnold; "This Land Is Your Land" by Kelie and Katie Strickland, Emma Clark, Whitney Bowling and Nikita Corsbie. The program was concluded with the children ringing bells for a minute in memory of our Constitution.

The students are to be commended for learning sign language. Also, they and their parents relinquished their Sunday afternoon to attend this patriotic meeting. Their program was enjoyed and appreciated by the members.

Those in attendance, that signed the registry were: Helen M. Nixon, Mildred Hill, Martha Dobbins, Anna Bonds, Morgan, Chuck, Lacy, and Emma Clark, Jeanie McKee, Cindy Pharr, Donna and Marley Arnold, C.J. Cole, Lessie Newcomb, Kelie Strickland, Debie and Whitney Bowling, Katie Strickland, Casey

Phillips, Jimmy Smith, Barbara Sweeney, Emily, George, Connie and Zachary Yow, Nikita Corsbie, Rhonda Flynt, Erin and Logan Wade, and Fredda Sanderson.

The hostesses were Mrs. Mildred Hill and Mrs. Martha Dobbins. Delectable finger foods were served enhanced by fresh flowers and scented candles. The door prize was won by Rhonda Flynt.

County Agents Notes

Waste Pesticide Program Scheduled For November 4

Farmers and others in Tishomingo County who have waste pesticides on hand are urged to take part in a waste pesticide disposal program November 4 at the North Mississippi Research and Extension Center in Verona.

The one-time program offers farmers, chemical dealers, and others a no-cost, environmentally safe way to dispose of these products through a licensed contractor, according to Danny Owen County Agent Tishomingo who is coordinating the program locally.

To take part, anyone with waste pesticides must bring them directly to the collection site from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. The program will be held on November 4 only and will not be repeated, Owen said.

Owen said there is no charge to take part in the program, but participants are responsible for safely transporting waste pesticides to the collection site. Empty, rinsed plastic pesticide containers also will be accepted, but no other waste products are eligible for the program.

A licensed hazardous waste contractor at the collection site will collect, analyze, and dispose of the products out of state according to environmental laws.

Waste pesticides include leftover, cancelled, suspended, or otherwise unusable pesticide products. Pesticides include insecticides, herbicides, fungicides, and plant growth regulators.

The disposal program is funded by the Tennessee Valley Authority and coordinated by the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce and Mississippi State University Extension Service.

Owen emphasized that anyone with waste pesticides should take advantage of the service, since no other disposal events are planned in the area. For more information, contact Danny Owen at 423-7016.

MSU Service Project Dresses Up Reading For Local Library Patrons....

Making edible insects of pretzels, licorice, marshmallows, and peanut butter is just one activity a Mississippi State graduate class has devised to help children enjoy reading.

During Read-Aloud Month in October, university master's level students are putting theories into practice with storytime sessions at the Starkville Public Library.

"Our goal is to promote reading by using books as the basis for shared activities and storytelling," said Diane Greene, associate professor of curriculum and instruction.

Greene teaches a reading issues class to 17 students, many of whom are teachers at area schools. Each has been asked to present a one-hour story session at the public library.

"The service project grew out of areas we've researched, including community partnerships, reading as success, and parental involvement in reading," she explained. "The library expressed a need for assistance with this project, and students helped develop the approach."

Each student develops a themed presentation that includes an arts, music, crafts, and writing activity. Each also wears a costume related to the presentation.

"The edible insect activity, for instance, related to a book titled "Miss Spider's Tea Party," and the presenter dressed as a caterpillar," Greene said.

Students also recommend additional reading and activities for parents and children related to the theme. At the end of the semester, they will give the library "big books" that contain all of their ideas.

"There's been great diversity in the presentations," said Donna Coughlin, SPL children's librarian.

"The activities have drawn a lot of participation from the community, including day-care, public school, and home-schooled students. All those who've participated have benefits from many creative perspectives to encourage reading."

Mississippi State student from our local reading area is Jessica D. Sanderson of Iuka.

The Stream

Somewhere near Eastport
In a valley that I know
There's a stream that whispers daily
of what happened long ago
And if you stand and listen
You'll be caught up in it's spell
And then you'll hear the story
That it's ripplin' waters tell

Of how a Chickasaw Nation
There on that valley floor
By the stream that whispers daily
Built their lodges on it's shore
Of how within that Nation
'Ole Iuka rose to power
To lead them into battle
And their Nations finest hour
Of when the battle ended
They homeward turned once more to the stream that whispers daily

To their lodges on the shore

On how upon returning
'Ole Iuka stopped to listen
To the stream that whispers daily
And watch its waters glisten
Of how turning to his warriors
He told them he must go
With the stream that whispers daily
To where its waters flow
Of how stepping from the banks
And biddin' them farewell
He walked into the water
And vanished "neath its swell

Of how they searched the waters
And all along the banks
But the stream that whispers daily
Hid Iuka from their ranks
Of how they said in question;
"To where its waters flow?"
By the stream that whispers daily
Of what happened long ago.

EIGHT YEARS IS TOO FAR TO TURN BACK THE CLOCK.

Daylight savings is one thing. But on November 2nd, let's not go back to the old liberal way of solving our problems.

I'm Mike Parker. We need a Governor who will work for the children of Mississippi, and not for the MAE. We need discipline in the classroom. And graduating seniors who can actually read their diplomas.

We need someone watching out for your money, and fighting for a tax cut. We need strong leaders with proven business backgrounds, who can keep our economy headed in the right direction.

It's okay to turn the clock back for daylight savings. But this Tuesday, a vote for Mike Parker is a vote to keep Mississippi moving forward.

Tishomingo Baptist Church To Hold Its Annual Fall Hallelujah Festival

This annual festival is our way of providing a positive alternative to Halloween Trick-Or-Treating. While it all may seem like harmless fun, did you ever notice how many things about Halloween celebrate death and darkness? Did you know many of the things we do today to celebrate Halloween actually started a long time ago in a time when people believed a lot of superstitions? Back then people believed that spirits of the dead rose from their graves for one night each year and visited the homes where they once lived. To keep the spirits content, a festival would be held on October 31, which came to be known as All Hallows Eve. It was the night before All Saints Day, honoring saints who had died. On All Hallows Eve (later shortened to Halloween), people were afraid if they didn't try to protect themselves by putting on scary costumes and leaving a treat at their door, the evil spirits would be angry and harm them.

There will be no evil spirits at our fall festival. Just lots of fun and prizes for all ages. The theme this year is "An Old Fashioned Harvest Festival". The doors will be open from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. October 30th at Tishomingo Baptist Church located on Jackson Street in Tishomingo, Ms. Instead of focusing on death and darkness, come join us as we celebrate light and life!

Luka Angel Tree
Applications Available

The holiday season is fast approaching, and in the true "spirit of giving", counting our own blessings and sharing with those less fortunate, it is time for the Angel Tree applications to be filled out and returned by Wednesday, November 17, 1999. The names collected will be given to groups, churches, organizations and individuals who wish to help "Santa's Special Children" have a Merry Christmas, and hopefully, in turn, make their own Christmas more meaningful. Forms can be obtained at Belmont City Hall, Burnsville City Hall, Luka City Hall, Tishomingo City Hall, Department of Human Services, Tishomingo County Health Department, Headstart, WIC, Burnsville Free Clinic and area Doctors' Offices. For additional information, contact Pam Brown at Peoples Bank in Luka or Linda Murrah at BancorpSouth in Luka.

Project Homestead

Project Homestead of Tishomingo County will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday, November 15, 1999 beginning at 12:00 noon at the Luka Hospital in Luka. Community partnership is our goal to reach more families and children providing for their safety, permanency, and well-being. Everyone is welcome. Parents are urged to attend. 20th Sign-Up Period

January 18 - February 11, 2000

The Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) is a voluntary program that offers annual rental payments and cost-share assistance to establish long-term resource-conserving covers on eligible land.

Annual rental payments are made based on the agriculture rental value of the land and cost-share assistance is provided in an amount equal to not more than 50 percent of the participant's cost in establishing approved practices.

The duration of contracts is from 10 to 15 years.

Sign-up 20 of the CRP will be held for a 4-week period beginning January 18 and ending February 11, 2000. This is the fourth general CRP sign-up since enactment of the Federal Agriculture Improvement and Reform Act of 1996.

To be eligible to be placed in CRP, land must be:

1. Cropland that has been planted or considered planted to an agricultural commodity 2 of the 5 crop years from 1995 to 1999 that is also physically and legally capable of being planted in a normal manner to an agricultural commodity; or

2. Certain marginal pastureland enrolled in the Water Bank Program.

In addition to basic cropland eligibility requirements, at least one of the following conditions must be met. Land must:

1. Be considered highly erodible land according to the conservation compliance provision or, if a portion of a field, have weighted average Erosion Index of 8 or higher.

2. Be considered a cropped wetland;

3. Be subject to scour erosion;

4. Be located in a national or State CRP conservation priority area; or,

5. Be cropland associated with non-cropped wetlands.

Under Sign-up 20, all eligible offers will continue to be evaluated and ranked using Environmental Benefits Index (EBI) based on the environmental benefits expected to accrue if the land is enrolled in the CRP.

The Sign-up 20 EBI is very similar to the EBI for Sign-up 18, except that the Federal or state-listed threatened and endangered species subfactor of the wildlife habitat component has been strengthened and clarified. The t-point category was eliminated. In some states water quality area designations have been modified, and a few additional state conservation priority areas may have been approved.

Use of the EBI ensures that only the most environmentally sensitive lands are selected and that all offers are considered fairly and equitably.

Data are collected for each of the EBI factors based upon the relative environmental benefits for the land offered. Offers are then ranked in comparison to all other offers, and selections made from that ranking.

EBI factors are:

- Wildlife habitat benefits;
- Water quality benefits form reduced erosion, runoff, and leaching;

- On-farm benefits of reduced erosion;
- Enduring benefits;
- Air quality benefits from reduced wind erosion;
- Benefits of enrollment in conservation priority areas where enrollment would contribute to the improvement of identified adverse water quality, wildlife habitat, or air quality; and
- Cost.

Maximum CRP payments will be determined based on the average of the past 3 years of local dryland cash or cash-rent equivalent rental rates adjusted for site-specific, soil-based productivity factors. CRP payments can include an additional amount, not to exceed $5 an acre a year, as an incentive to perform certain maintenance obligations.

The maximum CRP payment rate for each offer is calculated in advance of enrollment. Producers may offer land at that rate to increase the likelihood that their offer will be acceptable.

A producer must have owned or operated the land for at least 12 months prior to close of the sign-up period, unless:

- The new owner acquired the land as a result of death of the previous owner;
- The only ownership change occurred due to foreclosure where the owner exercised a timely right of redemption in accordance with State law; or
- The circumstances of the acquisition provide adequate assurance the Farm Service Agency that the new owner did not acquire the land for the purpose of placing it in the CRP.

Producers should contact their local USDA Service Center for more information.

The sign-up period begins Tuesday, January 18, 2000, and runs through Friday, February 11, 2000.

Offers are accepted only during that period at the local offices of the USDA's Farm Service Agency (FSA). These are usually listed in local telephone directories under "United States Government, U.S. Department of Agriculture."

Decisions on the EBI cutoff will be made after Sign-up 20 is concluded. The CRP is a highly competitive program. Landowners who have met previous EBI thresholds are not guaranteed a contract under this sign-up.

NOTE: The sign-up period does not apply to participation in certain high-priority environmental practices such as filter strips, riparian buffers, etc.

The demand to enroll land in the CRP is much greater than the amount that can be accepted (CRP enrollment authority is 36.4 million acres and there are over 350 million acres of U.S. cropland).

To be more competitive, consider only offering the most environmentally sensitive land, enhancing covers for the benefit of wildlife, and accepting a lower payment rate than the maximum amount FSA is willing to offer.

The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in its programs on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, disability, political beliefs and marital or familial status. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact the USDA's TARGET Center at (202)720-2600 (voice and TDD).

To file a complaint, write the Secretary of Agriculture, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., 20250, or call 1-900-245-6340 (voice) or (202)720-1127 (TDD).

USDA is an equal employment opportunity employer.

From a worldly point of view, there is no mistake so great as that of always being right.

The Quality Of Work Life-Employee Involvement Team for Tishomingo County United States Postal Service had a project that involved reunion of the Civilian Conservation Corps and the Postal Service. Ted Stanley, Postmaster Tishomingo, Mississippi was instrumental in bringing the project together. The team and Ted worked on a pictorial cancellation that would take place during the reunion. The cancellation would commemorate the CCC workers. The cancellation took place at the park. Those attending the reunion could buy stamps celebrating the century of the CCC and have the postage stamp canceled with the commemorative cancellation. The Post Office was set up inside the Loochapola Lodge. All members of the team were delighted to be involved with this project.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Cleo and Sally Moore; a sister, Quida Harris; and a brother, Marious "Jack" Moore.

Pallbearers were Doyle Moore, Lloyd Moore, Mike Deaton, Ed Green, Larry Harris, J. Carroll Ivy, Ralph Moore and Dr. Stephen K. Senter.

Cortney's Community Chats By Cortney Compton

What are prized possessions? I believe they are personal treasures that make our lives special. If I had to collect a few of my prize possessions, they would be very important items that made a difference in my life. As I narrowed down what items made the greatest difference to me, I remembered their importance in the past. My most prized possessions include my pictures of family and friends, old inspiring cards and letters, and my snuggly teddy bear that I've had throughout the best and worst times in my life. I couldn't imagine not having these special items in my life. They may never be worth lots of money, but they make my life rich with the memories they bring me.

My daddy and mother many years ago used a plain cassette tape to sing me and my sister our favorite songs including us singing and talking. It seems that every year more songs and messages were included. Now when I want to hear my daddy's voice, and smile I listen to my most prized possession a treasure filled with loving memories. Take a moment or two, and recall what possessions make you wealthy on the inside and out!

A Letter From Port Of Wilmington

October 5, 1999
 Mr. David Rice
 President, Tish. Co. Rescue
 P.O. Box 511
 Iuka, MS 38852

Reference: Hurricane Floyd

Dear David:

On behalf of the Port of Wilmington, the American Red Cross, and the citizens of Eastern North Carolina, I want to thank you and your group of volunteers for your thoughtful efforts to deliver paper supplies to Wilmington to be used for cleanup after Hurricane Floyd.

Our area got hit by flooding and many people lost everything and every bit of assistance is appreciated. The fact that your Rescue Squad took your own time and money to arrange for transportation to deliver these supplies is very neighborly and you are to be commended for your unselfish efforts.

I took a picture of your crew, when you delivered the first load, which I want you to have along with this aerial photo of the Port of Wilmington to hopefully find a place on the squad's wall.

Many thanks,
 Steve Jackson
 General Manager,
 Port of Wilmington

OBITUARIES

Funeral Services Held For Turner Williams

Turner Gene Williams, 55, of Corinth died Friday, October 22, 1999 at his home.

Turner was a native of Iuka and had suffered for several years with diabetes related ailments.

He was a 1962 graduate of Iuka High School and attended Northeast Mississippi Junior College. After college he moved to Memphis and later relocated to Corinth. He worked with Grimes, Baum & Samelson, Incorporated, food brokers, before his retirement. Turner was active in the Iuka United Methodist Church during his youth.

His witty personality and love for a good time made him a favorite among his many friends. He was an active member of the Corinth Elks Lodge and enjoyed watching sports on T.V.

Funeral services were held at 10:00 Tuesday at Cutshall Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. James R. Curtis officiating. Burial was in Oak Grove Cemetery.

Survivors include his mother, Ruth Daugherty of Iuka; one son, Jeff Williams of Corinth; one daughter and brother-in-law, Kathy and Bill Gurley of Huntsville, Ala.; one niece and her husband, Michelle and Joe Pettus of Birmingham; and one nephew, Jason Gurley of Huntsville.

Turner was preceded in death by his father, Turner Williams, who was killed in World War II; his step-father, Charles A. Daugherty; and his step-sister Joann Jones.

Pallbearers were David Coleman, Autry Emmons, Walter Green, Tom Robertson, Hayden George, Lewis Kemp and Sammy Parsons.

W.C. Mayhall

W.C. Mayhall, 68, died Sunday, October 24, 1999, at his residence in the Glen Community. He was born Jan. 10, 1931, in Hardin County to the late William and Cora Lee Byrd Mayhall. He served in the U.S. Army for 27 years, retiring as first sergeant. He served in Korea and received the BC (4th Awd), NDSM (1st OLC) and AFEM Medals and the Purple Heart. He served on the Corinth Police Force for 24 years. He was a member of the VFW and the American Legion.

Services were at 11 a.m. Tuesday at Corinthian Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Mike

Evans officiating. Burial was in Corinth National Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, Beverly Peters Mayhall of Glen; two sons, Jerry Mayhall and his wife, Christie, Kenneth Mayhall and his wife, Nona, all of Corinth; two daughters, Ciji Mayhall of Glen and Cindy Milender of Pickwick, Tenn.; one brother, Andrew J. Mayhall of Idaho; three sisters, Ruby Williams of Bridgeport, AL, Doris Hall of Burnsville and Devada Kuykendall of Corinth; three grandchildren, Sarah Mayhall, Madison Mayhall and Joshua Milender.

In Memory of My Brother Mack Cummings

On October 28, 1992, you spoke, "I am thine, O Lord" and in the "Twinkling of an eye", you claimed His great promise of John 14:2.

These long seven years, I have missed you.

But, I know and realize that you are home and waiting on me. Born on our Nation's Birthday, July 4, 1938, born twins, we were more than just Brothers. We were one in the same "Spirit of Love". Blessed with a family that loved us, we always shared this great love with them. Our Family "Always" came first with us and we always strived to honor them with honesty, integrity and our word was our bond in our daily lives.

This note is just a reminder to me, to Always Love You, to remember the great times we had growing up in Burnsville. You were always there for me and I for you. You didn't talk too much, but I will always remember when an uncle asked, "you don't talk too much, do you?" and your reply, "if you don't have anything to say, don't say nothing!"

Your understanding and quite demeanor, always set you apart.

Yes, I have always loved you, I will always love you for the high standards you set for yourself, an example for me and others to follow.

Studies in Isaiah 53

Today we will look at Isaiah's second question, "To whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?" Jesus and Paul use this question in the New Testament. The Lord Jesus Christ had performed miracles in the presence of the Pharisees, but they did not believe on Him (John 12:34-41). The apostle Paul quoted Isaiah's question as he addressed the Jews who were ignorant of God's righteousness (Rom. 10:1, 14-16). None believe except those to whom Jesus Christ is revealed. The Lord "...Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you" (Gal.3:1). The death of Jesus Christ means nothing to an individual until God by His Spirit reveals its significance to him. The answer to the first question "Who hath believe our report?" is that none will believe unless the Spirit reveals the death of Jesus Christ to his heart. Spiritual things are hidden from the worldly wise and prudent but revealed by the Spirit to babes. Therefore, "...no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him." Both questions are answered by the Lord Himself in Matthew 11:25-27. Do you believe in Jesus Christ? Then, thank God that His Holy Spirit revealed Him to you through His Sovereign Grace. If God's Sovereign Grace is precious to you, come join us at Little Flock.

Happy Birthday Jean!

In writing most of this article in honor of our children and in memory of our deceased one (Anna Jean), we were at this point in time still living south of luka, which is now known as Woodall Mountain Road. We had many friends, many good times & bad times. We had pulled our 3 ones through a difficult time of whooping cough, although I doubt there is a case that isn't difficult. The two older kids were recovering pretty good, but little Jean's legs looked like spindles. She had to learn to walk again. By now it was accepted by all family and friends as well, that she was a delicate sickly child although we never openly discussed or limited her capabilities to whatever she set her mind to do. We had them a big white sand pile fixed where she spent many happy hours reoperating.

At that time we didn't have TV's, so we found other means of entertainment for our children. She like to go with her dad every day or so to pick up our milk & butter from a neighbor. This particular day her dad was running late to go to Reynolds to work so he would get in the car to hurry with the chore but she (Jean) left her sand pile to rush to get in the car. Since he couldn't see her on the side she decided to go around to driver's side so her dad would see her, but as luck would have it, the car hit her from behind, knocked her down and we heard her screaming. We hurriedly carried her up to Dr. Bostick's & Mollie South. They assured us she was okay, but knowing her condition we decided we had better carry her on to Booneville to her beloved Dr. Anderson. He took the best of care for her this time and many more to come. We carried her on a pillow and help from a neighbor (also cousin) Vita Rae Parsons. We nursed her back to health again. At that time, Aunt Ethel & Sis were on their way to get Sis married, but she and all the family now had a bond that would last to her last day on earth.

The other two kids were nearing (4) and (6) and the older one Barbara Sue would begin her first year at Pleasant Ridge School. A wonderful lovely teacher Mrs. Amill (Moore) Walker taught her. She learned real fast continuing to sing. She and her sister now could sing good duets with little sister joining in. People were amazed at their talent God had given them. A lay-off came at Reynolds as defense was beginning to slow down. That was okay. Wilson was a good mechanic, so he would go to work for Mr. P.L. Sweeney whom he liked & idolized and we became life long friends with the Sweeney's.

After about a year, our kids were now 3 1/2, 5 1/2, & 7 1/2. We would be expecting our 4th and only son in April 1945. World War II was now winding down. My one and only brother would be returning home from 4 years of war. There was a wonderful time of rejoicing among friends and relatives. I had one visit with him when my third child was 6 weeks old and now I would have new baby to welcome his homecoming. I had been very close to my only brother and older sister. It would be a big load lifted from me.

Jean was now growing and thriving even though her illness was ever present to keep us concerned. My brother would be a big help to me. Wilson now was recalled to Reynolds, but it wouldn't last. The war was now over and as he was on defense work program. He was layed off for good. In the mean time, we had found us a house up on Hwy. 25 which we like so much and only a short distance from where I lived when I first moved to luka. We soon gained new and old friends and adjusted quite well. We found a new church (New Prospect) and our children would now attend Midway School. We were also a short distance from the bus line. We could now visit North Crossroads for extra transportation.

Sis had now returned home with her own baby son, a cute, lovable blond headed boy we loved very much, and still do. Later on he would spend many happy days with us and an idol to our own smaller son who loved Jimmy Charles.

Wilson found a new job which would last for many years. He decided to go to work for Mr. W.A. Ramsey in the trucking business which would take him to many places and lots of friends he held in high esteem. Our little boy was healthy with a good case of 3 month's colic which would last almost 4 months. My nerves would sometimes be on end. My older child who was 7 1/2 would sit in her red rocking chair and hold him tight while I could do many chores. I really had my hands full but two smart little girls were great help with their sister and baby brother.

Their singing was remarkable by now. Their dad would pick the guitar and they could really sing with little sister joining in. We had lots of friends with singers and musicians. As we both loved music & singing, Wilson & I both came from musical & singing families. We had a real good group from luka area who were making personal appearances & they asked if we would consider our two older ones joining the group. Mr. M.H. Castleberry, his son, Troy, who played the mandolin, Ms. Peggy Bullard, and we said why not since Troy and Omega were close friends. So by (7) and (9), our children were making personal appearances. They were now on their way to a singing career. Jean was now doing real well with her singing and won the community with her special loving way. People liked to give her money and she had her own collection jar. By the time she was (5), her illness had progressed, and she was having to stay in Booneville quite a bit.

As my mother was and had been working out of town quite a while, my precious sister would take on the job of keeping both her children & mine when I had to stay away a lot, but she had wonderful in-laws and my kids dearly loved staying in their home. My brother & wife, Clarene, had settled in Booneville which would be their home. Clarene was a teacher while my brother was gone to war, so they would have a future in Booneville. After trying out on big farm, my brother decided it best to open his own business doing what he had gone to school many years to do, McCoy Garage, a big white block building on Hwy. 45 North. He would eventually go into dealership & Clarene would stop teaching to help him for quite some time but my brother would work all day & when need be, he could carry me home to luka at night with my child. Wilson had so many buddies to work with to name a few, Sid & V.C. Ramsey, Gene Foote, Jimmy Ramsey, Didler & Jack Thorne, who he idolized as he was also kin to them. He boarded with Mr. Smokey Underwood for quite a while. Many others I'm sure. He would have great tales to tell when he got home.

My children were doing great in school and in spite of her illness, Jean had started & keeping her work up. She was also climbing in her singing and made her debut when she was 5 1/2 years old. The doctors now thought she would not live past 9 years of age. They knew she had a new kidney disease but didn't know for sure what. My brother & my family wanted us to change doctors because they thought this doctor might know more. I was leary but went along only to almost lose our child. He unknowingly gave her the wrong medicine and she was having convulsions. We flew (in the car) with her to Booneville. We called everyone possible for prayer. God and our wonderful Dr. Anderson together saved her life. She came home after quite a while & studied her school work & music right on.

Wilson drove his truck & began to slowly go big time. He was now also driving with Carlton Tucker on big trips & driving for Jack Thorne, Pinkie Pruitt & gaining a name for himself. His first trucking & good friend, Mr. Sid Ramsey, asked him if he would like to try out for 18-wheeler & a big company. He agreed & got the job for Hayes Freight Line which would take him many miles, many years & many states. He won many certificates for his excellent record which called for many qualifications. He was now big time and doing good.

For lack of transportation, we missed a lot of church which made me very unhappy as I've said before, I was raised by a very strict mother, sister & brother, who I still thank God for and I missed that part of my life. I had been listening to a preacher on the radio and I was much impressed by hearing him. I remarked if I ever had the chance, I would love to go hear him. To my surprise and probably an answer to prayer, he announced he would be in luka at a certain church at a certain time, so I wanted to go. I was in luka on Saturday and I asked my cousin Ruth Gortney Pannell if she knew the place. She did and they were attending. She said they would come for me and I would go. I did and I loved it. I found many wonderful people I learned to love including the Pannells, Marie (Pannell) Yarbrough who I had grown up with, the Hubbards (John & Montez) who were some of our first neighbors when Mama and I first moved to luka, the wonderful Helton family who were so good to me and at a time in my life when I needed help. When Wilson was on the road with his truck, I went on to go many years and met many wonderful people. Mrs. Mabel Cummings, who told me she was related to me, still being young and not taking it too serious. I found our many years later she was indeed very much so. She told me many wonderful things about my dad, who was a devout United Methodist. I made a remark to Mattie years later, I wish Ms. Mable had lived long enough for me to tell her I had found out my own grandpa (Jim Lobb) McCoy's brother Lewis had married Amanda Robinson & my dad had been a frequent visitor with the Robinson's as he was family (small world isn't it?) I had attended school with many Robinson kids, not knowing they were my own kin. Mattie remarked I didn't have to tell her she already knew.

My mom was now coming home more often and I was glad. She would soon be retiring but when she was home, she suggested I get out & work some for a change of pace which I was glad to do. I worked up town some at Elmore's five & Dime, also for Olen Beard & Gene Reynolds. I enjoyed it very much and made many new friends including Francene Whitworth & Betty Jean Hardwick who I worked with. I'll always remember Mama Beard's cobbler pies.

My little son was growing a bit, 2 or 3 years old, so my mom would have a job. My old organ had got laid by the way side and Wilson's guitar had played out. Sue was growing on up. She was beginning to sing solos and Martha & Jean were forming a duet. We would now sing family duet or solo. We were all together at this time and we were so happy. Another chapter will follow shortly.

School Board Meeting At Tishomingo Covers A Variety Of Topics

The beautifully decorated campus of Tishomingo School was the location of Monday night's meeting of the Tishomingo County Board of Education.

Following are some of the items discussed at the meeting:

*A parent addressed the Board concerning the shutting down of the football field at Burnsville School. He told the Board that he had researched the matter and that he could not find any regulations to back up the Board's and Superintendent Mullins' rulings that the field could not be used. He said he had checked with every state agency and there were no regulations concerning Junior High football fields. He asked the board to reposition their thinking and allow the volunteers and members of the Booster Club at Burnsville to make repairs, then let the game at the school's field resume.

He mentioned that Tishomingo School's field was a "mini image" of Burnsville's and was well maintained. He said Burnsville's field could be fixed and used as well. The parent also asked that the Board reconsider letting Burnsville and Luka compete in sports. Presently, the schools are not allowed to compete because of a request by the former coaches. Mullins said the Board stated that they would take the parent's requests under consideration and get back with him.

*Asst. Superintendent Stan-ite Magill explained about the meeting which took place last week in the meeting room of the school which took place last week in the meeting room of the school which took place last week in the meeting room of the school.

*The Board approved a donation to Luka Elementary of $6,000, presented by the PTA, to be used to purchase new IBM compatible computers for the school's computer lab.

*The Board approved a donation of $1,150 to Luka Middle School from their PTA to be used to purchase science lab equipment and supplies and for auxiliary equipment for the school's public address system.

The next meeting of the Board will be at 5:30 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 8 at the Central Office in Luka. The second meeting of November will be at 5:30 p.m. on Nov. 22 at Burnsville School. Mark your calendars and plan to attend these meetings.

Initiative Measure No. 9 - Term Limits

Mississippi Law allows citizens to propose changes to our state's constitution through the initiative process. Under Miss. Code Ann. B23-17-45, the Secretary of State's Office is required to publish a pamphlet containing information about an initiative measure before it will appear on the statewide general election ballot. This pamphlet contains:

- the ballot title,
- the ballot summary,
- full text of the proposed initiative measure,
- arguments for the measure,
- argument against the measure, and
- fiscal analysis.

This legal advertisement contains the full text of the pamphlet.

BALLOT TITLE

Should state legislators be limited to two (2) consecutive terms in each legislative body?

BALLOT SUMMARY

This initiative would amend the Mississippi Constitution to limit the number of consecutive terms a person can serve in the state legislature to no more than two (2) terms in the house and two (2) terms in the senate after the adoption of this amendment with terms being deemed consecutive unless separated by a full four (4) year term.

COMPLETE TEXT OF THE INITIATIVE

An initiative proposing an AMENDMENT TO THE MISSISSIPPI CONSTITUTION OF 1890 to limit the terms of members of the Mississippi Senate and House.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

The Constitution of the State of Mississippi is hereby amended by amending Section 34 and Section 35 of Article 4; which sections shall read:

Section 34. The house of representatives shall consist of members chosen every four (4) years by the qualified electors of the several counties and representative districts. Any person elected to the house of representatives shall be eligible to succeed himself in office, but no person who has been elected to the house of representatives for two successive terms following adoption of the amendment shall be eligible to hold that office until four (4) years have intervened.

Section 35. The senate shall consist of members chosen every four (4) years by the qualified electors of the several districts. Any person elected to the senate shall be eligible to succeed himself in office, but no person who has been elected to the senate for two successive terms following adoption of the amendment shall be eligible to hold that office until four (4) years have intervened.

Fiscal Effect (supplied by the initiative sponsor)

This proposal does not require any revenue to implement. The proposal does not require a reduction in any source of revenue and it does not require a reallocation of funding from currently funded programs.

ARGUMENT FOR THE INITIATIVE

(Written by Randy Russell of Jackson)

This election day will offer the citizens of Mississippi an historic opportunity to change their state government for the better. Initiative No. 9 proposes to limit state legislators in both chambers to two consecutive terms. This simply means that after two consecutive terms each legislator would be prohibited from holding that seat a third time. It would not keep them from occupying that same seat after sitting out one term, nor would it prevent their running for a seat in the other chamber (House of Representatives or Senate) immediately.

This government reform proposal would help equalize the governmental powers in this state between the legislative and executive branches. We already have some term-limited offices in Mississippi. The governor is two term limited, lifetime; and the lieutenant governor is two consecutive term limited. This proposal for limiting the terms of state legislators is just like the current term limit on the lieutenant governor's office.

Eighteen other states currently have term limits on their legislators, including our southeastern neighbors Florida, Louisiana, and Arkansas. These limits have been credited with helping pass campaign finance and ethics reforms while electing citizen legislators with more varied backgrounds and experience than typical of career politician dominated legislatures. The process of government has functioned effectively in these states with term-limited legislators, while also lessening the influence of political careerism and big-money special interests on the legislative process.

In the last statewide election, 92.5% of incumbent legislators were re-elected due to the overwhelming advantages of incumbency. Let us, the citizens, resolve to take advantage of this opportunity to open this closed club to new ideas and people; citizen-legislators dedicated to doing what's in the best interest of all the people of Mississippi. Vote for Mississippi on November 2nd; vote YES on Initiative No. 9.

ARGUMENT AGAINST THE INITIATIVE

(Written by David Waide of Jackson)

The proposed constitutional amendment on term limits, Initiative Measure No. 9, is about more than just limiting Mississippi Legislators to two terms. As a citizen and a voter, carefully consider that:

- (1) it limits your freedom to vote for a person of your choice;
- (2) it limits your ability to re-elect your senator or representative who has been doing the job he/she was elected to do. It should be noted that the average years of service for current legislators is eight years or less. Under the existing law you have the choice of extending their service. Under mandated term limits, you lose that opportunity;
- (3) it limits the ability of a citizen, who would be otherwise qualified, to run for an office of his/her choice;
- (4) it limits the effectiveness of the very complex process of government with a substantial change every eight years in the composition of and the level of experience found in the legislature; and
- (5) it limits the accountability factor for second term legislators with them not having to answer to the voters at the ballot box.

This amendment is being promoted by the same group who, just four years ago, wanted you to limit the terms of virtually all elected and appointed officials. They failed in 1995, and now this group, who is funded primarily by U.S. Term Limits, a Washington D.C. based organization, is seeking to place term limits on members of the Mississippi Legislature. Who will they go after next? Why is a national organization so interested in trying to influence the rights and freedoms of Mississippi voters?

Don't limit your rights and freedoms as a citizen. Again say no to Term Limits and to those who would have you restrict your rights. Vote NO on Initiative Measure No. 9.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

(prepared by the chief legislative budget officer)

The Legislative Budget Office has determined that this initiative proposal will have no significant impact upon revenues or costs to the State General Fund.

PUBLIC HEARINGS

The Secretary of State's Office, in conjunction with the Stennis Institute of Government, will conduct a series of public hearings to discuss Initiative Measure No. 9. The dates and times of the hearings are as follows:

- October 11 Hinds Community College - Eagle Ridge Conference Center.
- October 12 Mississippi State University - Simrall Auditorium.
- October 13 Mississippi Valley State University - Jacob Aaron Student Center Annex.
- October 20 University of Southern Mississippi (Long Beach) - Gulf Park Conference Center. Hardy Hall.
- October 21 Itawamba Community College (Tupelo) - Technical Building Lecture Room.

All hearings will begin at 7:00 p.m. and conclude by 9:00 p.m. The public is invited to attend and discuss the proposed measure.

For a copy of this information in a pamphlet published by the Secretary of State's Office, call 601-359-1350 or consult the Secretary of State's webpage at www.sos.state.ms.us.

TC Lady Braves North-Half Runner Up 24-7 On The Year

On Saturday, October 16, the Lady Braves played Clarksdale in the North-Half Quarter final playoffs at TCHS. The Lady Braves won two straight games 7-3 and 23-9. Leading hitters in the first game were Brooke Gentsch, Kayla Nunley, Dusty Shackelford and Mollie Jourdan with 2 hits each.

In the second game, the Lady Braves beat Clarksdale 23-9. Bridgette Webb, Brooke Gentsch, Emily Smith, Jennifer Biggs, Mollie Jourdan, and Kristina Hemlinger led the team with 3 hits each. Amanda Akers, Valena Gonzales, and Dusty Shackelford were close behind with 2 hits each. This win advanced the Lady Braves to the North Half playoffs.

On Tuesday, Oct. 19th the Lady Braves played Pearl at TCHS. In the first game of the North-Half playoffs, the Lady Braves were defeated by Pearl, the defending 5-A State Champs 10-3. Leading hitters were Dusty Shackelford and Emily Smith with 2 hits each. Dusty hit a bases loaded triple. In the second game the Lady Braves were knocked out of the playoffs by losing to Pearl 12-1. this brought the Lady Braves' season to an end.

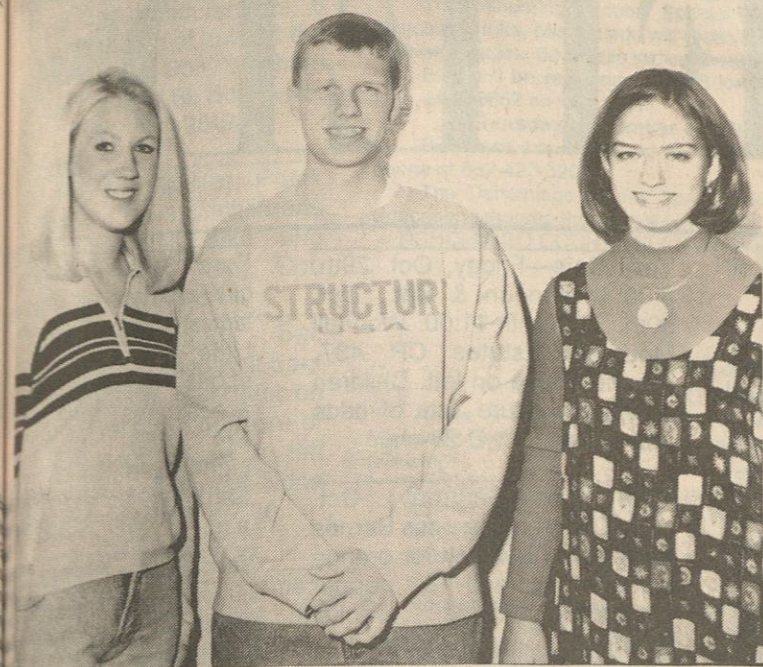

The Lady Braves had a GREAT season with a 24-7 record. They were the Ripley Tournament Champs, the New Albany Field 3 Champs, and they were the Class 4A District 1 Champions. Coach Jerry Long and his Lady Braves are to be congratulated on their wonderful season!

The Braves went to see the Chargers of Oxford last week. TCHS was coming off of their first win of the season hoping to keep on with a winning pace. The Braves defense was going to have to do something to stop the high octane running attack of the Chargers. At the beginning of the game the Braves had trouble moving the ball, turning it over on downs their first drive. On the ensuing drive the Chargers scored and did plenty of it the rest of the night. At the end of the first half the Chargers had a 35 point lead. The Braves were going to have to get something going to put some points on the board. The Braves offensive line stepped up and opened some holes up for Zach Whitlock who had two touchdown runs. But the Braves were unable to keep pace losing the game 49-13.

This week the Braves play their last home game against Itawamba. So come out and support the Braves.

Friday Night's Game Time Changed!

Seniors To Be Honored
TCHS's last home game of the year will begin at 7:00 this Friday night. Prior to the game (6:30) seniors in football, cheerleading, softball, and band will be honored. Everyone is cordially invited to attend our last home of the season.

TCHS Students Of The Month—Chosen as students of the month at TC were Sophomore Leslie Floyd, Senior Kris Lange, and Junior Lily McBride. Freshman Anthony Allred was at Vo-Tech when this picture was made and is not pictured. Leslie was selected because she willingly follows school rules, constantly strives to improve her grades and personality, and exhibits pride in herself, her school, and her work. She is attentive and eager to learn. Kris is an excellent role model for under classman. He is in an active participant in extra-curricular activities. He is an exceptional student. One of his outstanding qualities is his quick smile. He is always willing to go that "extra mile". Lily, too, is an exceptional student. She accepts assignments and tasks as a challenge and does her best to finish all projects in a timely, efficient way. Lily is in the TC band, and she is a member of Beta. She is a student council member. She is active in church and community activities. Anthony has a good attitude about school and work. He comes to class every day eager to learn. He is cheerful, friendly, and pleasant. He is on the ninth grade football team. Congratulations are extended to these students of the month by the TC Student Council.

For Proven Leadership, Re-elect John R. Young.

DEAR VOTERS OF THE FIRST CIRCUIT COURT DISTRICT,

AS YOUR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, I have successfully prosecuted defendants indicted for felony offenses for over 24 years. I am the only candidate with extensive experience in successfully prosecuting felony cases such as capital murder, manslaughter, armed robbery, rape, child abuse, burglary, drug offenses, and other felony cases, and I am the only candidate who prosecutes felony cases in Circuit Court.

AS YOUR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, I have carefully chosen a well-qualified staff, including experienced assistant district attorneys. We successfully prosecute thousands of serious felony cases each year. Our strong record against crime stands for itself.

AS YOUR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, I will continue to support law enforcement and advocate longer sentences for violent offenders, habitual offenders, and drug dealers.

AS YOUR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, I have always supported victims' rights, and I will continue to treat all victims with compassion, dignity, and respect.

AS YOUR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, I want to continue the ongoing fight against crime. Thank you for your vote and support.

SINCERELY,

John R. Young

A vote for John R. Young is a vote against crime.
On Tuesday, November 2, re-elect John R. Young.

Wicker Votes To Give Local Schools More Authority

This week the U.S. House of Representatives will consider legislation to remove restrictions on the use of federal education dollars and give local school officials more authority over how those funds are spent. I support the bill which allows schools greater flexibility in exchange for meeting higher student performance goals.

The Academic Achievement for All Act, also called the Straight A's Act, continues our education reform efforts focused on shifting power out of Washington and into the hands of parents, teachers, and local leaders.

The bill would give states and local school officials the chance to redirect federal education funds from ineffective programs into initiatives which work in their school districts. Instead of the usual limitations on the use of funds and burdensome paperwork requirements, the Straight A's Act frees teachers and administrators to develop their own programs to meet the needs of their students.

In return for this new flexibility, school districts would be required to set academic performance goals and to meet those objectives over a five-year period. Under current law, states receive federal dollars each year regardless of whether their students' academic performance improves. Under the Straight A's Act, states must produce higher academic standards or lose the freedom this program offers.

The achievement gaps in our schools are closing today because of the innovation by teachers and administrators at the state and local levels, not from federal programs coming out of Washington.

I believe education policy would be more effective if more of the decision-making authority is taken from the faceless bureaucracy in Washington and given to the school administrators and teachers who know their students' names and their educational needs. Passage of the Straight A's Act is another positive step in that process.

Grover Cleveland was the only president who served two nonconsecutive terms of office. He was our 22nd and 24th president.

Local College Student Attends Nashville Songwriters Association International Conference And Showcase

Lisa Marshall of Corinth, Mississippi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald L. Marshall attended a songwriters conference presented by the Nashville Songwriters Association International at the Holiday Inn in Muscle Shoals, Alabama on Friday, October 15. She was one of the 200 from this area that were invited to attend this event. This was for potential or future songwriters from this area.

Those attending from Nashville were songwriters such as Chuck Jones ("Your Love Amazes Me"), Tim Nichols (Heads Carolina, Tails California"), Mark D. Sanders ("It Matters To Me"), Mark Alan Springer ("Two Sparrows In A Hurricane"), Craig Wiseman ("Where the Green Grass Grows") and Gary Baker, who writes for LeAnn Rimes and the Backstreet Boys. Arista Records representative, Steve Williams, also attended. The performing rights organizations ASCAP, BMI, and SESAC representatives were also present. A buffet dinner was served. Several local Muscle Shoals talent performed for the group, as well as the Nashville writers performed their own hit songs.

Lisa is a sophomore at Northeast Mississippi Community College, and her future plans includes a Bachelor of Music degree in Music Industry with a minor in Music Business and a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance with a minor in Real Estate both from Middle Tennessee State University in Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

stepping up and playing really well. Tamica Pierce (5'10") of Decatur, Ga. has stepped in and she is going to be a good post player, and she has the ability to step out and play outside also. So, that makes her a double threat.

"Of course, we have returning post players Jill Goolsby (5'10") of New Albany and Kerriane Ashley (5'10") of Ingomar from last year. We're looking for them to play the same rolls they played last year. They're both going to be big factors in our play this year."

Although players come and go from year to year, the Lady Tigers continue to win, and despite the youth of this year's team, Coach Ford believes that tradition is in good hands.

"When you've only got four returning players, that means somebody's going to have to be ready to play when the season starts," Ford laughed, and like I said I think we'll have seven or eight of our freshmen that will be ready. We're looking for a big contribution from Nekoeha Taylor (5'9") of Atlanta, Ga., Tamica Pierce, Holly Bedwell (5'7") of Adamsville, Tenn. We feel like those freshmen will be able to step in and be effective immediately.

"Leslie Lewis (5'7") of Corinth is going to be a good player for us," Ford continued. She's a very smart player and a good shooter. She'll be one of the guards in our rotation. Christy Sims (5'3") of New Site is a sophomore guard and we're looking for a lot of leadership from her and I think she will respond to that.

"After Christmas they'll all be sophomores," Ford concluded. This is a good, coachable group. Everyone seems to want to learn the system. They have good attitudes and good work ethic and those things will make good players. So, we're looking for great things from this team."

The Lady Tigers open the '99-2000 season Monday, Nov. 1 against the Meridian Lady Eagles in the Northeast Tip-Off Classic. Tip-off is set for 6 p.m.

Young Lady Tigers Look To Continue Winning Tradition

Since the inception of The Northeast Mississippi Junior College in 1948, Lady Tiger basketball has always been about winning. When Coach Ricky Ford arrived in 1981, however, he raised the mark.

Last season Ford picked up his 400th win as the Lady Tiger coach on the way to an 18-5 record and his 17th straight appearance in the Region 23 Tournament. He also led his Class of '99 sophomores to a career 19-0 mark in Bonner Arnold Coliseum. Yet Ford insists last year's milestones are not about him.

"(Last season) was satisfying for me to see the players achieve what they were able to achieve," Ford said.

"Winning 400 games really didn't mean a whole lot to me, but to see this group accomplish what they accomplished with the amount of physical ability that they had, I think, was more satisfying than anything because they had less ability than a lot of teams I've coached, but as the old saying goes you can't measure how good a person is by how big they are. They all had tremendous heart."

Eleven freshmen dominate the 1999-2000 Lady Tiger roster, and despite lacking in some fundamental skills, Coach Ford believes this team has the qualities to carry on the Lady Tiger winning tradition.

"We'll probably go with the same six-guard system we've always used. Some of them have got to improve their ball handling and some have got to learn to move both ways off the dribble, but I can see us putting six guards on the floor that can play."

In the post only one player returns with experience in the starting lineup, but according to Coach Ford, the inside game is probably in better shape this year. Again the number is the key.

"We usually have two or three post players, but this year we've got five or six post players," Ford said.

"Kamiya Thorne (6'1") of Tishomingo is back and is our leading post player, but we have some younger players that are

Veteran Tigers Look For Big Things In New Millennium

At the end of last season, the Northeast Tiger basketball team found itself in familiar territory. The Tigers, under the direction of Coach Lewis, went into the North Division Tournament as the number two seed and advanced to the final round. They played in the State Tournament and the Region 3 Tournament. Their overall record, however, was a very familiar 16-14.

"Record wise we didn't end the way we wanted to or the way we thought we would at the beginning of the season," Lewis said.

"I thought last year's group was going to be as good a team as we've had. The difference, I think, was a lot of freshmen and not enough sophomore experience. We really didn't have a starter coming back. We've had teams in the past with as many freshmen, but we've always had a starter or two coming back and I think that makes a difference."

"We ended up 7-5 and second in the division. In years past 7-5 would have been down in the back. So, I think that speaks highly of what the other coaches in the league are doing. The opposition is tougher. Things are a little different, however, going into the millennium. The competition may be just as tough or tougher, but Coach Lewis will not be short on sophomores. Eight upperclassmen decorated this year's roster and not only do they bring experience to the table, but talent as well."

Of the returning players Eric Batchelor (6'6") of Memphis, Tenn. brings the most impressive statistics. He led the team in scoring (22.1 ppg), and three-point shooting (42 percent) last year and was second in free throw shooting (84 percent), third in assists (2 apg), and pulled down 4.5 rebounds per night. As a result Coach Lewis acknowledges that a big year for Eric and the other sophomores such as Deltorio Campbell (6'5") and Demario Watson (6'8"), both of Memphis, Tenn., Guy Gardner (6'2") of Baldwin, Nick Coln (6'4") of Corinth, Thomas Gentsch (6'6") of Iuka, Roy Lee Lowery (5'10") of Baldwin, and Mitch Howell (6'0") of Booneville could translate into a big season for the Tigers.

"The big thing with Eric is that I can see he's worked very hard during the summer on some things we thought he needed to improve on," Lewis explained.

"We feel if he plays harder on the defensive end and works harder to get himself open offensively, that will allow him to continue to put up the type numbers he had last year. If he can put up the type numbers he did last year in addition to what we think these other people are going to be able to do, we will be harder to defend and as a result, harder to compete against."

"I don't think he has to put up the same kind of numbers this year, however, for us to be successful. There are other ways he can help us and I do see him doing some of those things."

As for the youngsters, Coach Lewis believes this class will enable the Tigers to be just as balanced offensively as last year with the scoring totals inching upward a bit, but he seems most impressed with its commitment to the team and to doing what it takes to win.

"As a whole, as far as attitude and ability, this group of freshmen is a solid group," Lewis said.

"There's two or three that could really step it up and play this caliber of basketball and be able to contribute to us this year and be good sophomores for us next year. Kendrick Alloway (6'7") of Montgomery has the tools as far as body, size, and skill for him to be a really nice player for us as well as at the next level. Rod Carruth (6'2") of Ripley has some things that could make him a good player on this level. Raymond Craven (6'3") from Thrasher High School plays with a lot of enthusiasm. Paul Washington (6'5") of New Albany, Eli Kennemur (6'5") of Corinth, Trent Adair (6'3") of Ingomar, and Alex Wamsley (6'6") of Corinth are doing a good job and will figure into our plan more and more as the season progresses.

Burial Services For Thelma Carroll

Thelma Ilene Carroll, 99, of Paris died Tuesday, Sept. 13, 1999, at Henry County Healthcare Center.

Services were at 2 p.m. Thursday at Ridgeway Funeral Home, with Lynn King officiating. Burial was in Memorial Cemetery.

Chosen as pallbearers were Roger, Mike, and Bryan Carroll, Jimmy Johnson, Chad Wagner and Mike Snow. Great-grandchildren and nephews were honorary pallbearers.

Born May 18, 1900, in Commerce, Texas, she was a daughter of the late Timothy and Cassandra Lindsey Enlow. She was married July 28, 1921, to Leonard Bryan Carroll, who died March 30, 1978.

A homemaker, she attended West Paris Baptist Church. She also worked as a Red Cross nurse in 1914.

She leaves two daughters,

Ruth Carroll and Lucille Hughes, both of Paris; nine grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild.

She also was preceded in death by a son, James Leonard Carroll; three sisters, Hazel Claunch, Mattie Morris and Amy Shields; and four brothers, Albert, Claude, Arvin and Curtis Enlow.
