Local Anti-Gambling Group Meets To Discuss Casino

by Angela Lambert

An afternoon rally Sunday in the gym at Tishomingo County High School focused on the possibility of a casino locating near Luka and ways to keep it out.

Reports indicated that between 300 and 700 people came out to the event organized by a group calling itself "Concerned Citizens Against Gambling."

Speakers, including some local government officials, spoke at the rally which was designed to set forth the evils of gambling.

Some area ministers, along with some local officials, are members of the committee.

A Native American pastor, the Rev. Calvin Gibson, of Philadelphia, spoke to the group concerning what he believed to be the down side of gambling in his hometown of Philadelphia where the Mississippi Band of Choctaws operate the Silver Star Hotel and Casino.

Officials speaking at the rally stated that the Jena Band of Choctaw Indians of Louisiana are considering buying 100 to 120 acres of land in the area. If purchased, they would then seek to have it declared a reservation in order to locate the casino there. This could take place under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act which allows the possibility for Indian tribes to open casinos in any state that allows gambling; however, they would have to negotiate compacts with the state where they hope to locate, as well as with officials at the national level.

Reports have indicated that if the casino does locate in Tishomingo County, it would open up approximately 1,500 local jobs. The Jena Band of Choctaws have inquired of local authorities what the local area needs are and have offered to help in any capacity.

The Coast Guard and our Boating Enforcement Division is committed to reducing boating accidents through increased education and attentiveness."

The involved agencies wish everyone a safe and happy extended holiday weekend.

Randy Stringer Announces Candidacy For Re-Election

To the Citizens of Luka:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the privilege of allowing me to serve as your Chief of Police this past year. It has definitely been an honor.

For those of you who do not know me, I would like to take this opportunity to tell you a little bit about myself. I am married to Rhonda Stringer and my parents are Robert and Eleanor Stringer of Midway. I am a native of Tishomingo County and have lived here all my life. I have over fourteen (14) years of law enforcement experience. I am a graduate of Tishomingo High School, Northeast Mississippi Community College, and MS Law Enforcement Training Academy. I am a Christian with strong moral values. My wife and I attend Luka Baptist Church.

Since being elected Chief, I have tried to do the best possible job that I can for the citizens of Luka. I try to apply good common sense when making decisions that will affect the police department and the entire community. In my campaign last year, I told you that professionalism would become a priority within the Luka Police Department. I believe that we are accomplishing that goal in the department. I am very proud of the department we are building. We have graduated three (3) new officers from the academy and have one (1) in training now. The department, as a team, constantly strives to develop new and better ways to serve the city.

This past year has been a very busy time for the police department. We have met many of our projected goals and with your continued support we will be able to accomplish many more. The success of the department is graded by the citizens it serves. With your continued support, your police department will strive to be one that makes you very proud.

Even though I am unopposed in the election, I do not take this for granted. While trying to work and campaign, I hope to see as many of you as I can. However, due to my work schedule, I may miss some of you. Please consider this my personal plea for your vote on June 5. Your vote matters to me!

Thanks and God Bless.
Randy Stringer

The students of Burnsville Junior High School were recently given the opportunity to step back 131 years to the Civil War era. Fifth grade students collected can pop-tops to represent one per Confederate dead. The students reached their goal with 265,000. A presentation was made before the student body.

To coincide with the events of study, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Spoon set up a Confederate winter camp and treated the students to open discussion, cooking techniques, and artillery. Fifth and sixth grade teachers also got into the act by dressing in period costumes.

Home Economics Tips

HYPERTENSION...THE SILENT KILLER

Hypertension, also known as high blood pressure, is very common in the world today. The stress of work, children, parents and the overall environment help to increase the chances of high blood pressure occurring in each of us. Another factor that many of us do not think about contributing to high blood pressure is extra weight. Our bodies have hearts that are designed to fit us individually. Keeping that in mind, we add extra stress to our hearts with extra weight. The heart must work extra hard to pump blood to the extra areas which we have added. The heart pumping harder and faster raises our blood pressure. High blood pressure is not what will kill us. Some of these problems include stroke, heart attack, hardening of the arteries, and congestive heart failure.

We can tell that our hearts are working harder by the blood pressure reading. A good blood pressure is one that is under 140/90. If the blood pressure is higher than 140/90, it is considered too high. Have you ever wondered what the top number and the bottom number means? The top number is the amount of pressure the heart puts on the blood vessels to get the blood to the needed parts of our body. The bottom number is the amount of pressure that remains in the vessels when the heart is at rest, which is why the bottom number is lower than the top number.

There are several ways that we can help prevent further problems because of hypertension. The first is to watch our sodium intake. Sodium makes our blood vessels constrict and if our hearts have to work harder for the extra weight, then we do not need to make it any harder for our hearts to push the blood through. Twenty-four hundred (2,400) milligrams of sodium or less per day is considered for a healthy goal by most health authorities. Yet, many people get significantly more than that. Foods that have large amounts of sodium are those with salt and preservatives. These foods include ham, smoked meats, olives, canned soups and vegetables, sauerkraut, sardines, packaged meats and ready-to-eat mixes/frozen meals. Learn to use less salt in cooking and at the table. It may be hard at first, but eventually you will learn to like the taste of less salty foods.

Another way that we can help lower our high blood pressure is to lose a few pounds. It is surprising how just five to ten pounds can reduce the workload on the heart. Healthy ways to drop those few pounds are to begin any exercise program, and to watch those extra calories. Before starting an exercise program, check with a physician for recommendations. Watching those extra calories can come in simple steps. Eating smaller portions, using less fat, and substituting fruit for cake and candies at dessert time can all help to reduce calories. Make changes that you can live with over time.

Limiting caffeine intake is also another good way that we can lower high blood pressure. Caffeine speeds up processes in our bodies. This is why so many people like a cup of coffee in the morning; it helps them to wake up and get moving. However, if we have high blood pressure, our hearts are already working hard and we do not need to make the heart work any faster. Good substitutes for caffeinated beverages are decaffeinated beverages. Most teas, coffees and soft drinks come in decaffeinated versions.

We can help reduce high blood pressure and the problems it can cause by just making a few changes in our lifestyle. Do not let hypertension be your silent killer.

What Causes Bad Breath?

There's no single answer, but gum diseases - preventable by brushing, flossing and regular dental visits - is a primary culprit, because bacteria can gather in pockets that form around the teeth, releasing unpleasant odors. Even before serious gum disease sets in, poor oral hygiene can contribute to this social embarrassment.

Onions, garlic and similar foods can also cause bad breath by releasing oils into the bloodstream, which travel to the lungs and are exhaled. Also any kind of denture can trap food and plaque, leading to odors. Brushing your dentures daily and soaking them every night in a cleaning solution helps to avoid these problems. In addition, some illnesses, including diabetes, tuberculosis and kidney and liver disorders, may also lead to bad breath. We can determine whether the problem is of dental origin and, if not, we will direct you to a physician for further evaluation and treatment. If you have recurring bad breath and are concerned about it, give our office a call.

"Ana and Semma" Gardner-Harris' Early Onset of Allergies In Four-Legged Friends Part 2

What can be done to help reduce your pet's discomfort? The first thing is to take it to the doctor before it has an advanced skin disease. We sometimes see pets that have large bare patches from chewing and scratching their hair out. Think how you'd feel if your scalp itched so bad that you were literally yanking your hair out!

Your veterinarian will tailor the therapy to your individual pet's needs. Often several different therapies are used together to get an enhanced effect from the combination and avoid having to use strong corticosteroids for the itch.

The ideal approach leans on allergy testing to identify exactly what your pet is allergic to. Antibiotics, antihistamines, poisons, conditioners and nutritional supplements are all used to control the primary and secondary symptoms.

Note the use of the word "control," allergies really can't be "cured," but the pet can be made much more comfortable and can be returned to a healthy status with the right combination of therapies and dedicated owner.

The arrival of Frontline and Advantage in 1996 made control of flea allergy much more workable. This can be one of the most difficult allergies to treat. We have seen several patients that suffered from flea allergy for years get much better after the use of these new flea control products. The mass-market look-a-likes are not nearly as effective as Frontline and Advantage.

So if your pet is beginning to scratch and itch, take to your veterinarian now before secondary complications enter the picture.

CARPE DIEM

Our lives are lived in stages. The process of going from one stage to another is a transition. Transitions are sometimes formally recognized - with school graduations being an example - but often, we pass through them with little notice. If our lives are to be purposeful, however, it is essential that at each transition, we recommit ourselves to caring, daring, dreaming, loving, learning, and believing. As Mark Twain once said, "Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things you didn't do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover." Remember always: life is the trip, not the destination.

READ-TO-ME SUMMER LIBRARY PROGRAM

The Iuka Public library is extending a special invitation to the parents of preschool children to register your child in the Read-To-Me Program at the Iuka Public Library. Your child does not have to be able to read to be part of the fun and excitement happening this summer during "Orbit the World with Books." One phase of our program is designed especially for this read-to-me group. Parents, grandparents, older brothers and sisters, baby-sitters, and other care givers can share the fun of reading with the children.

By reading to your children, you are encouraging them to develop a lifelong love of books and reading. Introducing your preschool child to books and reading will have a positive effect on the level of reading readiness when your child enters school.

It is easy to join and the program is free. Reading to your child and sharing the magic of books is the only commitment involved with the program. Children can register on Wednesday, June 6th. Each child will receive a reading record to record the books that have been read to them. Children are invited to attend the final program on Wednesday, June 27 when they will receive certificates, coupons from the Sonic, and small prizes provided by the Friend of the Library.

Please visit the library or call 423-6300 for additional information.

GFWC-MFWC

Twentieth Century Club

The Twentieth Century Club met in the lovely home of hostess Zenobia Oaks at 7:00 p.m. May 10 to learn more about the resources available for home life in this area and to plan for the Mississippi Federation of Women's Club President Tommye Rosenbaum's visit to the club's Spring Social.

President Nancy Daugherty called the meeting to order. Hostess Zenobia Oaks led the club in the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag and she read "Mississippi" by Perrin Holmes Lowery for the devotional.

Secretary Fredda Sanderson then called the roll; there were fifteen members present. She then read the minutes from the previous meeting.

Afterwards, Treasurer Willadeen Thorne gave the financial statement noting expenses for a gift for Jewel Pruitt, candy eggs for the library Easter Egg Hunt, a wreath for Jewel Pruitt's funeral, District Three dues, and tickets for chances on the MFWC quilt. Deposits were made from the pecan sales and white elephant donations.

In planning for the Spring Social, associate member Ruth Ellen Cox asked all members to meet at the Iuka Public Library no later than 10:30 a.m. on May 24 so that everyone will travel together to Crow's Neck and arrive there around 11:00 a.m. She advised all members to be prepared to pay their seven dollars for lunch. MFWC President Rosenbaum plans to attend. The club has made arrangements for a personal gift and donation to the President Rosenbaum's Special Project, the renovation of the MFWC Clubhouse in Jackson, in memory of Jewel Pruitt. The clubhouse was built in 1935, the same year that Jewel Pruitt became a charter member of the Twentieth Century Club.

In other business, President Daugherty asked members to be especially mindful of ways to help the disabled this month. Members discussed ways they could help. President Daugherty announced the Iuka Elementary School Art Contest is scheduled for May 17, and she appointed a judging committee for the club awards. The Yard of the Month judging committee for May reported that Mattie Lomenick's yard on Eastport Street had been chosen this month's winner. The club received a thank you letter from Mississippi State Hospital for their donations at dues time and Christmas.

Following the business session, program leader Fredda Sanderson presented her guest, Becky McNeely of the Families First program. Mrs. McNeely explained the origin and purpose of the Families First program. She noted that they had served 300 families since last September when the program began. They help train families to be more effective families and teens to be more effective teens. Their purpose is to help people and families get back on track when they get off track. They are located in the former NASA building at Tishomingo County High School and are operating on a year's grant they applied for and received from the Department of Human Services.

After the program, hostess Zenobia Oaks served delicious sandwiches, candied pecans, and peanut butter pie with a choice of coke or coffee.

The white elephant door prize was won by Fredda Sanderson. Club members will meet next on May 24 at 10:30 a.m. to travel together to Crow's Neck for the Spring Social.

Tishomingo County Singing Convention To Be Held

The Tishomingo County Singing Convention will be held in the courthouse in Iuka, Saturday evening, June 2 at 6 p.m. and Sunday, June 3 at 10:30 a.m.

Although this event has been held annually since 1917, we still meet people in the county who do not understand what it is. We would like to explain that it is simply an "All Day Singing" like used to be held in most of the churches in the county every year on "Homecoming Day." Convention song books, which contain songs similar to the ones heard on "Gauthier Videos" are used except most of the songs are new.

Most of the singers come from other places, where we attend singings. Some of them are song writers and representatives of music companies that publish the convention books.

This year our visiting group will be "Joe Hughes and Down South" from Alabama. There will also be other "specials" and a lot of good class singing.

We extend a warm welcome to anyone who sings, plays an instrument, or just likes to hear "good old gospel music."

Anyone who would like to contribute to the expense of the singing, may contact: Jesse or Bonnie Coke at (662) 427-8899 or Mavous Phifer at (662) 462-5602.

McVay-Branson Reunion

McVay-Branson reunion will be held Saturday, June 2, at the Iuka Youth Center. Door's will be open at 10:00.

Iuka Policemen Complete Academy

by Angela Lambert

Two Iuka police officers have recently earned the status of certified officers.

Iuka Police Chief Randy Stringer has announced the recent graduation of two of his officers from Basic Law Enforcement Class # 193 at the Mississippi Law Enforcement Officers Training Academy.

Graduating were officers Jason Rickman and Bruce Whited. Chief Stringer stated that he is very proud of these two men who both graduated in the top 12 of their class of 58. Rickman ranked 8th with an overall score of 92.18 and Whited ranked 12th with an overall score of 91.64.

Requirements for law enforcement officers have increased over the past few years. Graduates must now maintain an overall academic and physical training average of 70 percent or higher and a firearms score of 75 percent or higher. Also, in order to receive a diploma, officers must successfully complete training in CPR, first aid and defensive driving (with a score of 80 percent).

Another officer with the Iuka Police Department, Policeman Jay Moyers, graduated from the law enforcement academy in an earlier class. He, too, graduated among the top in his class.

"The requirements placed on police officers grow more demanding every day," Chief Stringer stated. "Please remember all law enforcement officers in your prayers each day. We need all the help we can get."

Space" Mrs. Vickey Shea, science teacher at Burnsville Elementary School, will introduce the children to the exciting world of space and astronomy.

June 27 - "Out of This World" Storytelling by William McMullin, librarian at the Northeast Regional Library. William will once again entertain the children with some of the best storytelling you have ever heard. The "Awards Party" with refreshments provided by the 20th Century Club will take place on this day.

Many games, contest, crafts and activates have been planned so children can see that reading is fun. We want to encourage children to read during the summer months and to start a life-long adventure with reading. The Friends of the Iuka Library, and Sonic Drive-In, Pier 57, Farm Bureau, and the 20th Century Club are sponsors of the program.

Iuka Hospital To Promote Senior Health & Fitness

Iuka Hospital's Wellness Center respects its elders, especially during National Senior Health and Fitness Day on Wednesday, May 30.

Iuka Hospital Wellness Center invites people 60 years and older to take advantage of a free car wash between 6 a.m. and 3 p.m. Seniors are also invited to join the Coffee Club at 10:30 a.m. that day for refreshments. The facility is offering free blood pressure screenings, health information and door prizes from 6 a.m. - 7 p.m. Participants can pick up a guest pass and treat themselves to a free Wellness Center visit anytime during the next 30 days.

"Today's seniors are much more aware of the benefits of physical fitness to their overall good health," said Emily Gates, exercise physiologist and supervisor of the local Wellness Center. "For this reason, a large percentage of our members are over age 60, and they are very dedicated to their fitness programs."

While fitness is important at any age, the benefits are more dramatic as the body ages. If you're over 55 and considering a fitness program, Gates suggests the following considerations:

- Get a general evaluation from your physician. You should build an exercise program around known problems like an old injury or previous heart attack. your physician can also tell you how much exercise is enough.
- Define your goals. Do you want to do your own gardening? Travel abroad without fatigue? Enter a new sport or pick up an old one? Or simply have more energy and feel better? Knowing what you're aiming for will help keep you on target and reduce boredom.
- Decide where you want to work out. Exercising with other people may alleviate the social isolation many seniors feel as they grow older. You may even make new friends.
- Remember flexibility. As we get older, our muscles and tendons become less pliable. Add this tendency to arthritis and osteoporosis, and the result can disable you. Remember to stretch before and especially after exercise, and add more stretching as you build up your workout time.
- Increase the difficulty of your workout by adjusting only one factor at a time. If you're lifting weights, increase only your reps, sets or amount of weight. Once you've adjusted to one increase, increase something else. Be sure to keep a record of your workouts so you can track progress.

Find out what's available in your area. Iuka Hospital will open its Wellness Center this summer and offer a full array of aerobic classes, cardiovascular and weight equipment. members age 60 and older will receive a 10 percent discount off the membership fee at the new facility.

Iuka Hospital is affiliated with North Mississippi Health Services and sponsors Senior Health and Fitness Day activities as part of Live Well, the NMHS community health initiative. For more information on this or other Live Well events, call Iuka Hospital's Wellness Center at (662) 423-1980 or 1-800-843-3375.

For Tori

Her life wasted, the dreams that will never be fulfilled, the potential that will never be realized, the embraces and smiles and laughs and silly little stunts that will never be witnessed.

I think of her voice whispering to me of her hopes and dreams and all the thousand other things that have been stolen from her.

Only One PawPaw In Loving Memory of Paw Paw David

Stars in the pretty sky, many birds go singing by.
It's been 10 months that you left and went home.

We love you dearly in life,
In death we love you the same.

Nothing seems right, without you holding our hands.
Still we have those precious memories of you so dear,
And dewdrops still greet the dawn.

But only one Paw Paw, the wide world over - you.

By all your grandchildren,
Wesley, Jessie, Crystal, Cody, Eckri, Deanna, Allen, Santanna, Kathy, Jason and Josh

IF SOME ARE ELECT, WHY PREACH?

By C.H. Spurgeon

Captious and caviling persons will object, "You say that God loves His people, and therefore they will be saved; then what is the good of preaching?"

What is the good of preaching? When I say that God loves a multitude that no man can number, a countless host of the race of men, do you ask me what is the good of preaching?

What is the good of preaching?

To fetch these diamonds of the Lord out of the dunghill; to go down to the depths, as the diver does, to fetch up God's pearls from the place where they are.

What is the good of preaching? To fetch out God's elect from the ruins of the fall, and make them stand on the rock Christ Jesus, and see their standing sure.

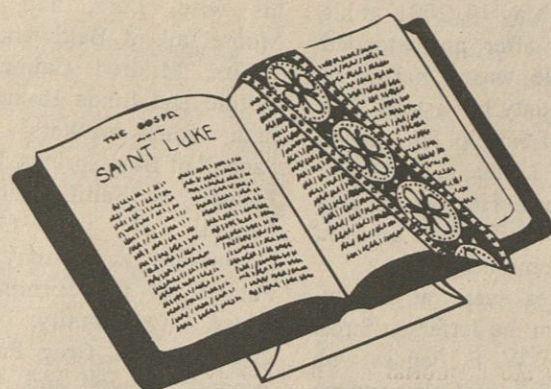

Ah, ye who ask what is the good of preaching; because God has ordained some to salvation, we ask you whether it would not be a most foolish thing to say, because there is to be a harvest, what is the use of sowing? There is to be a harvest, what is the use of reaping?

The very reason why we do sow and reap is, because we feel assured that there is to be a harvest.

The Apostle Paul says in II Timothy 2:10, "I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory."

LOCAL FUNERAL HOME SUPPORTS WWII MEMORIAL EFFORT

To commemorate the contributions and sacrifices of the generation who fought for their country during World War II, a local funeral home has committed to helping raise funds to build and maintain the World War II Memorial currently being constructed in Washington, D.C.

"For years, some of the most meaningful funerals we've arranged for families have been those honoring military veterans," said Greg Woodruff of Cutshall Funeral Home. "We are honored to help families create a personalized and meaningful tribute for loved ones who were military veterans." Here are a few examples of how military traditions carried on and through centuries, developed into very meaningful funeral customs that bring comfort to the grieving:

*Draping a flag on the casket began in 1806 during the Napoleonic Wars when the dead were covered with a flag and carried off the battlefield. *The gunfire salute is an ancient ceremony that led to the well known 21 gun salute in 1875 when the United States adopted it as an international salute.

*Emotionally charged Taps was composed in camp at Harrison's Landing in 1862 to replace Tattoo, signaling lights out. It soon became practice in both northern and southern camps and eventually used at military funerals.

* "Volleys over the grave" originated from an army custom of halting battle to remove the dead from the battlefield. Once each army cleared its dead, three volleys were fired to indicate they were ready to resume the battle. This remains a meaningful ritual today, symbolizing the battle of life is over for the person who has died, but the battle of life must continue for those living.

To further recognize the legacy of honor and bravery, Cutshall Funeral Home now offers a number of caskets with special features and unique services to honor those who served in the military. This includes custom embroidery on the casket interior, exclusive corners featuring a Bald Eagle on an American Flag, and the option of having the casket exterior engraved with the insignia of the veteran's branch of service. Loved ones can find comfort in knowing that the casket manufacturer will make a donation to the National World War II Memorial in the veteran's name when this casket is selected.

The World War II Memorial is a long overdue tribute to veterans who contributed to securing the freedom we all enjoy today. The World War II Memorial is being constructed between the Lincoln Memorial and the Washington Monument in Washington, D.C. Contributions to the memorial may be made through Cutshall Funeral Home, or directly to the National WWII Memorial.

Cutshall Funeral Home is honored to help families recognize the contributions their loved one has made during their lifetime. They believe the significant military rituals and traditions that are part of the ceremony are also an opportunity to somehow give back to those that fought for our country. For more information about the memorial, call 800-639-4WW2 or visit www.wwiimemorial.com or call Cutshall Funeral Home at 423-5222.

Little Angels

When God calls little children to dwell with Him above,
We mortals sometime question the wisdom of His love
For no heartache compares with the death of one small child
Who does so much to make our world seem wonderful and mild.
Perhaps God tires of calling the aged to His fold,
So He picks a Rosebud before it can grow old.
God knows how much we need them, and so He takes but few
To make the land of heaven more beautiful to view.
Believing this, is difficult, still somehow we must try,
The saddest word mankind knows will always be "GOODBYE".
So when a little child departs, we who are left behind
Must realize
GOD LOVES CHILDREN,
ANGELS ARE HARD TO FIND.

Baby girl it's been 6 hard months without you and we'll never stop missing you.

We got that beautiful marker down with the dancing angel just for you and I know you're dancing.
Thanks Steve Toth for that beautiful memorial to her.
I look forward to the day we'll all be reunited with you, Tori, and until then, Jesus will take care of you for us.

Sardis Church News

By: Louise White Family

We at Sardis extend a welcoming hand to all who wish to come together in the name of the Lord Jesus. We've been blessed with another week of life and the opportunity that goes with it of spreading God's word and enjoying good fellowship with one another.

VERSE OF THE WEEK:

"Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, jewels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long suffering." Colossians 3:12.

This lesson concentrates practicing purity. Colossians 3:5-17. With a boldness like that of Jesus, Paul listed specific challenges to apply to our lives. Anyone reading his message would be unable to miss seeing the evil inhuman nature and the necessity of crucifying it in order to walk with Jesus.

Paul listed evil tendencies which can never be tolerated in a Christian's life: all sexual sins and impurities such as premarital sex, impurity of thought, homosexual activity, and any other form of impurity are shown to be evils that do not belong in a believer's life. Colossians 3:5-7 Jesus also listed sins that defile people: Evil thoughts, immorality, theft of life and property, covetousness, "wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness." Such people described are not only bad but seek to make others bad as well. The evils Jesus denounced show that when a person's heart is evil, there will flow from within it a pride that holds everyone but self in contempt. Mark 7:21-23.

According to Paul there are some things which a Christian must strip away. Malice and evil talk must be stripped away as if soiled clothing and replaced with truthfulness and kind words. Paul suggested an entirely new wardrobe for an authentic Christian. Colossians 3:8-17.

Cortney's Community Chats

By Cortney Compton

A hero reveals the possibilities of human nature. We see heroes on television all of the time. Many heroes are everyday people who touch the lives of others. They may not be famous, athletic, or rich! A hero can be a compassionate teacher, understanding friend, or a supporting parent. Strangers often contribute to helping others, as a hero.

Heroes seem to plant magic that uplifts the heart and spirit. They sort of sprinkle stardust over the lives of people they daily meet. It would be a melancholy world without heroes. We can settle for ourselves, but in the eyes of others, a hero may be revealed. You never know if someone considers you a hero. If you have a hero in your life, just treat others fairly, be helpful, and possess a heart whenever you have an opportunity! A hero is very hard to find. Our world may be filled with problems, but a hero can always be found to save the day.

FSA Farm News

By: Phillip A. Horn, County Executive Director

GENERAL PROVISIONS WHICH APPLY TO 2001-CROP CCC COMMODITY LOANS

1. CCC loans are available in Mississippi for wheat, corn, grain sorghum, oats, rice, upland cotton, seed cotton, peanuts, and oilseeds (including soybeans).

2. For wheat, corn, grain sorghum, oats, rice and upland cotton, any production by a producer on a farm enrolled in the Agricultural Market Transition Act program (AMTA) is eligible for loan. For oilseeds, (soybeans) any production is eligible for loan, even if produced on a farm not enrolled in AMTA.

Also, for all crops listed in item 1, producers must annually certify and comply with the following:

a. Highly Erodible Land Conservation/Wetland Conservation provisions (HELC/WC).

b. Planted acreage reports must be filed.

c. Must obtain crop insurance coverage of an amount at least equal to catastrophic coverage for economically feasible crops, or provide a written waiver of all rights to emergency crop assistance in lieu of insurance.

d. Must not violate controlled substance provisions.

3. Producers must have 100 percent beneficial interest in any commodity pledged to CCC as loan collateral.

4. Marketing assistance loans (loans which may be repaid at less than principal plus interest, depending on the world market or CCC determined value) apply to upland cotton, rice, wheat, corn, grain sorghum, oats, and oilseeds (soybeans).

5. The commodity must be free and clear of all liens, judgments, or other encumbrances. If not, lien waivers must be obtained.

6. Commodities must be stored in CCC approved on-farm storage or in warehouses approved by the CCC for the storage of the particular crop.

7. Loans must be requested before the final loan availability date for the crop, as follows: cotton, rice, soybeans, corn, grain sorghum - May 31, 2002; wheat, oats - March 31, 2002; additional peanuts - January 31, 2002; quota peanuts - March 31, 2002.

8. Producers are responsible for maintaining the storability and quality of commodities mortgaged to CCC and stored on-farm.

9. Producers MUST obtain permission from the County FSA office BEFORE moving, delivering to buyers, selling, or feeding farm-stored commodities mortgaged to CCC. Severe penalties apply for non-compliance with this regulation.

10. Loans on all commodities, except upland cotton and seed cotton loans, mature on demand but no later than the last day of the ninth month after the month in which loan is made. Cotton loans mature on the last day of the tenth month from the first day of the month in which the loan is made, or earlier if CCC makes demand for payment. Seed cotton loans mature on the last day of the second calendar month after the month in which the loan is made or March 31, 2002, whichever is earlier.

11. The maximum quality allowed in delivery of a commodity to CCC is 110 percent of the loan quantity. Seed cotton loans cannot be delivered to CCC in settlement of the loan.

12. Loan Deficiency payments (LDP) may be available for 2001-crop rice, wheat, corn, sorghum, oats, upland cotton, and oilseeds (soybeans) in lieu of loans. Eligibility requirements for LDP are basically the same as eligibility requirements for loans, as listed in item 2 above. Beneficial interest in the commodity must be maintained by the producer through the date the LDP is requested. Exceptions to the beneficial interest requirements were made for the 2000-crop. These exceptions do not apply to the 2001 crop.

13. There is a $75,000 per year per person payment limitation on the total of the following:

a. gains from marketing assistance loan repayments

b. loan deficiency payments

14. The Agricultural Market Transition Act (AMTA) prohibits loan extensions.

Rules and regulations concerning the commodity loan program are very vast, detailed, and complicated. Provisions listed in this letter are very general in nature. Specific questions concerning individual crops or detailed information should be addressed to the County FSA Office serving you.

CONSOLIDATED FARM AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT ACT AUTHORIZES DESIGNATION OF TISHOMINGO COUNTY TO RECEIVE FSA DISASTER LOAN APPLICATIONS

Emergency loans for farmers, ranchers, and operators are available through the Alcorn County Office of the Farm Service Agency, Harold Mills, FSA Farm Loan Manager, said today.

Mr. Mills said this authority is pursuant to Acting Administrator Little's declaration on March 16, 2001, of the major disaster in Mississippi, caused by tornadoes that occurred on February 24, 2001. As a result of this disaster, Tishomingo County as a contiguous county in Mississippi is named as an area eligible for Federal Disaster assistance pursuant to Section 321 (a) of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act.

Applications for assistance in the disaster-stricken county will be accepted by FSA through November 16, 2001.

Farmers qualifying for emergency loans may borrow up to 80 percent of their actual production loss or the amount needed to restore their operation to its pre-disaster condition, whichever is less. The new emergency loan and outstanding principal balance of any existing emergency loan owed by the applicant or any individual member of an entity cannot exceed $500,000.00.

FSA emergency loans cover losses from designated disasters and are made to qualified farmers who cannot obtain credit from other lenders in the local area.

The UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation.

2000 Annual Drinking Water Quality Report City of Iuka PWS ID #0710006

Is my water safe?

Last year, as in years past, your tap water met all U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and state drinking water health standards set for quality and safety. Local Water vigilantly safeguards its water supplies and once again we are very proud that our system has never violated a maximum contaminant level or any other water quality standard. This report shows the results for our monitoring for the period of January 1st to December 31st, 2000. Included are details about where your water comes from, what it contains, and how it compares to standards set by regulatory agencies. We are committed to providing you with information because informed customers are our best allies.

Do I need to take special precautions?

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer receiving chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. EPA/Centers guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbiological contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline at 1-800-426-4791.

Where does my water come from?

Our water source consists of four (4) wells; three that draws from the Paleozoic Aquifer and one drawing from the Fort Payne Chert Aquifer.

Source water assessment and its availability:

Currently, our source water assessment is being prepared by the Mississippi State Department of Health. When it is completed you will be notified and copies will be made available upon request.

Why are there contaminants in my drinking water?

All drinking water, including bottled drinking water, may be reasonably expected to contain at least small amounts of some constituents. It's important to remember that the presence of these constituents does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the Environmental Protection Agency's Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

How can I get involved?

Our board meets monthly on the first Tuesday night at 7:00 PM at the City Hall. We encourage all customers with concerns or questions to meet with us.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

CITY OF IUKA WATER DEPARTMENT
ATTN: Don McNeely or Jerry Long
Phone: 662-423-9879

The table below lists all the drinking water contaminants that we detected during the calendar year of this report. The presence of contaminants in the water does not necessarily indicate that the water poses a health risk. Unless otherwise noted, the data presented in this table is from testing done in the calendar year of the report. The EPA and the State requires us to monitor for certain contaminants less than once per year because the concentrations of these contaminants do not change frequently.

AL - Action Level	The concentration of a contaminant which, if exceeded, triggers a treatment or other requirements which a water system must follow.
T - Treatment Technique	A required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water.

Unit Descriptions

Old Tishomingo Traces

By: June Bullard

Thursday, February 21, 1895:
IUKA'S OLDEST INHABITANT

Mr. Editor - It would probably interest your readers to have a brief sketch of the oldest person in the county and one among the first settlers of Iuka. I allude to Mrs. Eccles, wife of one of our best citizens, Mr. A. Eccles. On the 14th inst. she celebrated her 91st birthday. She was born February 14, 1804 in Fairfield District, about two miles from Weinsboro, South Carolina. Her maiden name was Garbrough. She first married Hugh Smith and moved to Georgia, while near the present town of Cartersville, Ga. Mr. Smith was accidentally drowned in Etowah River. By him she had quite a number of children of whom three are now living. Mr. Thomas B. Smith, who is and has been for a great number of years one of the most trusted and efficient employees of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, and two daughters, both widows and citizens of Iuka, Mrs. Millsaps and Mrs. Hughes. Mrs. Eccles has now living in Iuka four of her generations. Her daughter, granddaughter, great-granddaughter and great grandson, who is Paul, the little son of our hotel man, W.B. Leatherwood. Mr. D.R. Hubbard, who bought from the United States the land on which Iuka is located, married a granddaughter of Mrs. Eccles.

Her mind is still remarkably clear and strong, and she can give you the details of many things which happened 75 years ago. She remembers distinctly when war was declared in 1812 between the United States and Great Britain and she tells of many incidents of that war. She lived in Iuka all through the late war between the States, and while her husband was in the Confederate army she remained at home and was all the time a red-hot rebel, a real "chick of the old blue hen." At one time a Federal soldier attempted to enter her house and take her money when she put herself in front of him and defied his power, and it is said gave him a good rebel cursing, when he struck her across the head with his gun and gave her a big scar which today she is as proud of as a boy of his first breeches.

Mrs. Eccles is a prominent member of the Hard Shell Baptist Church, and she very seldom misses the meetings of her church which is two miles from town, though she often walks to attend. There is one thing though that the writer has often seen her do and that is to dance - not the indolent, languid dances of the present day; but the good old break downs of the olden time. But course, Mr. Editor, you will keep this part a secret.

On the 14th, her 91st birthday, she got up at her usual early rising time and cleaned up her room and made up her own bed - things which she has never allowed anyone else to do for her, and it is said by her close neighbors that she sometimes gets after her granddaughters and hurries them out of her way when they seem to her to be too slow in doing their work.

I could tell you of many amusing incidents of this remarkable old-young lady, but for fear I will make the story too long, I will stop. But Mr. Editor, if you want to be entertained, and can't go sooner, suppose you call to see her on her next birthday and she can give you many things for the good of your readers. As a neighbor there is none better; as a friend there is none truer; as a woman there is none more remarkable for physical and mental activity. Old Timer.

March 10, 1910:
A TRIBUTE OF RESPECT
The subject of this sketch, Rev. J. Skinner, died at his home February 23, 3:55 p.m. 1910 with cancer and laid to rest in New Salem Cemetery February 14th followed by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. The burial services were conducted by Rev. W. W. "Fred"

Whittaker. Bro. Skinner leaves a dear companion, 5 sons, 43 grandchildren and 43 great-grandchildren to mourn his death. Bro. Skinner was born in Franklin County, Alabama, January 24, 1824, making him 86 years and 26 days old at his death. He moved to Tishomingo County, Miss. in 1850 where he resided until his death. He professed faith in Christ as the age of 17 years and joined the Missionary Baptist Church in Franklin Co., Ala. at 18 years of age. In 1844 he was happily married to Miss Martha Reeves a daughter of Rev. W. A. Reeves. There were 7 children born to this union, 6 boys and 1 girl, of which the girl, Mrs. W. W. Whittaker and J. Henry Skinner are dead. Bro. Skinner was a licensed preacher for several years and in 1859 he was ordained to preach and during his long ministerial life, it is supposed he has baptized between 1500 and 2000 persons. He was in the organization of the Tishomingo Baptist Association in 1860. There is only one minister living now who was present, Rev. W. M.

Henderson, of Kossuth, Miss. Bro. Skinner preached all during the Civil War and was never interrupted upon but one occasion by the Federals. He preached at Harmony Church 13 years in succession. He has preached all over Tishomingo County. The children who are living now are W. H. Skinner, Route 1, Burnsville, Miss.; I. N. Skinner, Rt. 1, Iuka, Miss.; Jno. Skinner, 1901 South 7th St., Waco TX; Dick Skinner, Petty, Tex; Walter Skinner, Dawson, Texas. Bro. Skinner has been deprived of attending to his church from ill health for about 8 months but he and companion held family prayer and asked God to pour out blessings upon all until Bro. Skinner died off. He never struggling a particle passed off as though he had in a sweet sleep. He was long and useful life and was greatly missed in community, at the church in sickness.....P. H. Robinson

Recent research shows that eating lots of saturated fat found in chocolate, can reduce the risk of blood clots in men.

Lillian P. McBride Named As STAR Student For 2000-2001

Lillian P. McBride has been named as a STAR (Student-Teacher Achievement Recognition) Student for the 2000-2001 school year by the Mississippi Economic Council's M.B. Swayze Educational Foundation, sponsor of the STAR program.

The Tishomingo County High School senior will be honored during the 11th annual Education Celebration on April 27 at Mississippi College in Clinton. This prestigious event is co-sponsored by Entergy.

STAR students are selected on the basis of academic excellence. Both American College Test scores and scholastic averages are compared to determine the school's STAR Student, explained Peggy Howard of Jackson, chief operating officer of the Swayze Foundation. "The STAR program encourages and promotes academic achievement among Mississippi's high school seniors," she said.

Each STAR Student is asked to designate a STAR Teacher, the classroom teacher who has made the greatest contribution to the student's scholastic achievement.

Lorrie Nanette/Dean Brown was designated STAR Teacher.

All 500-plus STAR Students and STAR Teachers will receive recognition from MEC's Swayze Foundation at the Celebration. The top 20

STAR Students - The All-Star Scholars - and their STAR Teachers will be presented scholarship awards provided by the Kelly Gene Cook, Sr. Charitable Foundation. The highlight of the Education Celebration will be the naming of the Mississippi STAR Student of 2001, winner of the prestigious $24,000 Cook Foundation scholarship.

Additional local support for the STAR program is provided by MEC members in communities across the state.

MSU Announces Dates For New Student Orientation Sessions...

Five orientation sessions will be held at Mississippi State during June for freshman and transfer students enrolling this fall at the university.

Three two-day programs for freshmen and two one-day programs for transfer students are scheduled. In addition to advance class scheduling, students - and their parents - will have the opportunity to meet faculty members and administrators, as well as students already enrolled.

Last year's total attendance of more than 4,500 set a campus record for the orientation program.

Dates of the two-day 2001 freshman sessions are June 9 and 10, 14 and 15, and 23 and 24. Transferring students should plan to visit June 8 and

22. Parents attend separate, concurrent sessions on these days.

"We strongly encourage all new students to take advantage of orientation," said Kristi V. Brown, assistant director of enrollment services.

Local Named All-American Collegiate Scholar...

The United States Achievement Academy announced today that Micheal Powers of Burnsville, MS, has been named an All-American Collegiate Scholar.

The USAA has established the All-American Collegiate Award Program to offer deserved recognition to superior students who excel in the academic disciplines. The All-American Collegiate Scholars must earn a 3.3, or higher, grade point average. Only scholars selected by a school official or other qualified sponsor are accepted. These scholars are also eligible for other awards given by the USAA. These are awards few students can ever hope to attain.

Micheal, who attends NEMCC, was nominated for this national award by Mr. James Drown. Micheal will appear in the All-American Collegiate Yearbook which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. Certainly, winners of the All-American Collegiate Awards should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Executive Director of the United States Achievement Academy.

Micheal is the son of James E. and Laurie Powers from Burnsville, MS. The grandparents are Roy Powers and the late Letha Powers of Burnsville, MS and Phyllis Pulset and the late Shelby Dye of Stronghurst, ILL.

NEMCC Students Initiated Into International Honor Society

One hundred fifty-three Northeast Mississippi Community College students were initiated into the college's Iota Zeta chapter of Phi Theta Kappa (PTK) for the spring 2001 semester.

Founded in 1918, PTK is an international honor society composed of 1100 chapters at colleges in the United States and Canada. PTK's international headquarters are located in Jackson, Miss.

PTK seeks to foster the development of leadership and service, to provide an intellectual climate for the exchange of ideas, and to encourage the establishment of scholarships for advanced education. Approximately 48,000 new members are initiated each year. Recognized by the American Association of Community Colleges, PTK is the official honor society of two-year colleges.

Northeast's Iota Zeta chapter is a "Five Star" chapter, the highest rating given any chapter, and has been recognized as an exemplary model. It is open to students enrolled full-time who maintain a 3.5 grade point average on a 4.0 scale.

Joshua Williams Receives 1st Place In 45th Annual High School Competitive Chemistry Examination

Joshua Williams, of Tishomingo County High School, received first place in the 45th annual high school competitive chemistry examination sponsored jointly by the Student Affiliates and the Wilson Dam Section of the American Chemical Society (ACS).

Over 300 students from 15 area high schools in three states took part in the examinations. Williams was presented with certificates, a nameplate, and a check for $300.

His chemistry teacher, Malcolm Brown, was honored as the outstanding high school chemistry teacher of the year.

These awards and others were presented during a banquet held at the University of North Alabama.

CLUB have joined Miss America 2001 Angela Perez Baraquo, who is an elementary school teacher and middle school coach herself, and the Miss America Organization to recognize and reward U.S. teachers who have distinguished themselves as leaders and mentors. In support of Baraquo's character education platform, Wal-Mart and SAM'S CLUBS this year are expanding the local Teacher of the Year program to recognize 50 state winners and a National Teacher of the Year.

"Teacher of the Year does more than recognize outstanding leaders in our schools," said Baraquo. "It also encourages every educator to continue the crucial work of preparing our nation's young people to become our nation's leaders."

Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. began recognizing outstanding teachers at the local level in 1995. Last year Wal-Mart and SAM'S CLUBS associates raised and donated $8.8 million to education through the Teacher of the Year program, scholarships, and local giving through stores and clubs. In total, the company contributed nearly $27 million last year in support of education.

Each year the Miss America Organization makes available more than $40 million in cash and tuition scholarships assistance to young women competing at the local, state and national levels of the Miss America Program.

Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. operates more than 2,600 stores and more than 470 SAM'S CLUBS in the United States, as well as more than 1,000 units internationally. The company employs more than 1.2 million associates worldwide. Last year the company raised and donated more than $190 million to charitable and educational organizations nationwide through the Wal-Mart/SAM'S CLUB Foundation.
