ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY TWO YEARS

THURSDAY JANUARY 19, 2006 NO. 26

Mr. and Miss TCHS 2006 Named in Impressive Ceremony

Mr. and Miss Tishomingo County High School
Zachary Thomas Glover and Kirby Nicole Lambert

sister-in-law, Amy, and nephew, Benjamin, as his special buddies.

Kirby Nicole Lambert has also been a four year standout in her class making significant contributions to academic, extra-curricular and sports activities.

Sports have occupied much of Kirby's high-school career. She has been on the Slow-Pitch Softball team for four years. She was selected for the Hustle Award and Most Improved in this sport. She also played Fast-Pitch Softball for two years. Kirby served as a Diamond Girl for the Braves' Baseball team for two years. She played basketball during her freshman year and has been a bookkeeper for the basketball team this year. Kirby is also involved in Students Against Destructive Decisions and has served as vice president of that group. She is also active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Interact, serving as secretary, and Anchor, Student Council and the Foreign Language Club.

Kirby was selected as a Senior Class favorite this year, and she serves her class as vice president. She had been a TCHS Homecoming Maid for three years. An honor roll student, Kirby serves as the Brave Staff Editor. She was also named as a Sports Quest All American Award Nominee. Kirby was an honor guard member at the 2005 graduation. Kirby attends at Harmony Hill Baptist Church where she is an active participant in all their youth activities.

Kirby is the daughter of Lanny and Becky Cox. Her Grandparents are Jimmy and Betty Hooper and the late Josephine Hooper, Hazel Cox and the late Euel Cox, and Steven and Johnnie Croft. Kirby also has one Great Grandmother, Lois Hooper.

Both Zack and Kirby say that being selected as Mr. and Miss Tishomingo County High School is a wonderful honor for them and they are very thankful for the opportunity to represent their school in this coveted position.

In an impressive ceremony conducted by the Tishomingo County High School Brave staff, Friday, January 13, 2006, Mr. and Miss Tishomingo County High School were named. The Fame members, Honor students, and Who's Who selections were announced.

The special ceremony using this year's Brave theme "What's in a Name?" was held in the school gymnasium in the presence of the entire student body, parents, and friends.

Zach Glover and Kirby Lambert were selected by the entire student body to serve as Mr. and Miss Tishomingo County High School for the 2005-2006 school year.

Zachary Thomas Glover has been a model student during his entire high school career. Zach is made significant contributions to TCHS in academic, extra-curricular, and sports activities. He served as a 2005 graduation usher and was selected in Who's Who competition as Best All Around.

During his freshman, junior, and senior years, he represented his peers as their Class Favorite. Being named to the TCHS Hall of Fame was also a special honor for him. Zack was also the winner of the DARE Scholarship and the DAR Good Citizenship award.

Playing football for four years and serving as the team captain during his senior year were highlights of Zach's sports career. He played basketball in ninth grade, enjoyed running track, and was a four-year member of the golf team.

Zach is the son of Billy and Tammie Glover. His Grandparents are Billy and Kathryn Glover and Harold and Pat Cooper and L. W. and Gail Smith. Zack is blessed to still have his Great Grandmothers, Elsie Shaw and Mary Young.

Zack is an active member of the Burnsville Pentecostal Church, where he is involved in numerous community activities, including mission trips. Zack counts his brother, Ryan, his

TCDF board members and elected officials visit the Heil plant at Tishomingo

Tishomingo County Development Foundation Meets at Heil Environmental

The Tishomingo County Development Foundation Board of Directors held its January monthly meeting at Heil Environmental in Tishomingo. Board members toured the Heil facility.

General Manager Michael Johnson gave an overview of the company and its products. The Tishomingo plant produces dump truck bodies ranging in size from small lawn and garden to huge construction bodies. Heil ships its products all over the world. Heil employs 183. The company is investing in improving the Tishomingo operation, recently installing a new wastewater treatment facility and purchasing new equipment. Projected improvements and new equipment exceed $2 million. The Tishomingo plant has been named "Best in Company". Heil is a division of Dover Corporation. Heil needs welders and is willing to train quality workers.

Board Chairman Gary Walker moderated the meeting.

Board members heard a report on the status of the Pickwick Lake proposal from committee chairman Ken Cooley. The marina plans are being revised and submitted to TVA for approval.

Board members were updated on the status of Project Red—Skyline Steel. Construction on the $17 million facility is nearing completion and a ribbon cutting may be held in a few months.

Board members heard a report on a code named industrial project that is considering Tishomingo County for a new operation.

Board members heard a report on the proposed renovation and expansion of the county-owned industrial building leased to Whitfield Furniture. The project is funded by a $120,000 grant from the Mississippi Development Authority.

Construction is scheduled to begin soon.

Board members reviewed the new visitors guide and were asked to help get the word out about tourism in Tishomingo County.

Board members heard a report on the expansion of a local industry and the start-up of a new industry.

Board members agreed to begin the annual membership campaign. Funds from memberships are used only for marketing Tishomingo County.

Board members were advised of welding classes planned by Northeast Mississippi Community College for the Tishomingo County Vocational-Technical Center in Tishomingo. Over 200 welding and fitter positions are currently open in Tishomingo County.

The next foundation board meeting will be Tuesday, February 14, 2006. The public is invited.

2006 TCHS Hall of Fame Named

Nine Tishomingo County High School seniors have been named to the prestigious Hall of Fame for the 2005-2006 school year. These students were chosen for their outstanding scholastic achievements as well as their involvement in extra-curricular activities. Named to the Hall of Fame during the annual awards ceremony held on January 13, 2006, were Kirby Nicole Lambert, Jordon Monroe, Brianna Jo Barnett, Jameson Randle Corye Jennings, Zachary Thomas Glover, Andrew Gatlin, Ginny Leigh Wigginton, Jenna Katherine Cutshall, and David Lee Thorne.

Visitor's Guide To Tishomingo County Now Available

The new "Visitor's Guide to Tishomingo County" has been printed and is available for distribution. The publication is a cooperative project of the Tishomingo County Board of Supervisors, City of Belmont, City of Burnsville, City of Golden, City of Iuka, City of Paden, City of Tishomingo, Tishomingo County Tourism Council, Tishomingo County Development Foundation, and the private sector. The 12-page, full color guide combines several brochures into one publication and includes a county map. 30,000 copies of the Guide were printed. The Visitor's Guide is provided to the state's 13 welcome centers, neighboring chambers and tourist agencies in three states, and motels, parks, and other locations frequented by visitors. The Guide is also mailed to potential visitors requesting information on the county.

900,000 visitor occasions to Tishomingo County are documented for 2004. A study performed by the Mississippi Development Authority entitled "Fiscal Year 2004 Tourism Economic Impact Study" revealed that every $1.00 spent on tourism advertising yields $13.00 return on investment. The study found that over $7,000,000 was spent by tourists in Tishomingo County in 2004 and that 150 jobs in Tishomingo County are tourism-related. $2.8 million was invested in tourism related construction in 2004 in Tishomingo County. A copy of the report can be downloaded or viewed at the Mississippi tourism web site at VisitMississippi.org.

Interested readers can obtain a free copy of the Guide at this paper or at the import or liquidation shops located throughout the county.

MSU EXTENSION SERVICE ...Some Things You Can't Control

It's a tough fact of life: there are just some things in life you can't control. You can't control the weather, you can't control your genetic makeup; and you can't control the reactions of others. You can control only your own reactions (some would argue with this statement). Looking back over 2005, we have seen a smorgasbord of sadness: the tsunami, the war, and the tragedy that hit our own homeland, Katrina. It is difficult at best to help children understand these great catastrophes. It is difficult to say why people hurt children, why they cheat or lie, and why "bad" things happen. In any tragedy, children have to first learn to understand their own feelings. Often, just putting a word to a feeling helps young children understand more. If a child loses someone they love, it is good to sit down with that child and tell them you are sad too, that people die, and that it cannot be controlled.

Telling the child it is OK to be sad and that it is even OK to feel angry may help them validate their own feelings. Children who are uncertain will often become clingy. Help your child by allowing them lots of "together" time. During this time, observe closely and look for cues to the feelings they are experiencing and be ready to respond. Children do not have the social or mental sophistication to understand the stages of grief and actually, they don't have to. You can help by listening, reassuring them, and showing them options. By giving homage to your child's feelings ("I understand that you are 'mad'..."), you tell him he is worthwhile and his feelings are OK.

Tragedies such as Katrina that have touched our lives are tough to explain to children...gosh, they're tough to explain to ourselves. It is hard to see friends lose everything they own and miraculously emerge with a valiant spirit and bright hope for "tomorrow." You see, my husband of twenty-five years, and honestly the smartest man I know, says "In the end, it all comes down to the basics." He's right. The things we may love more than we should (like pottery for me) suddenly seem so ridiculously vain and selfish, while the things that should and do matter most (like my family for me) have a new and heightened importance. Really, when it comes down to it, we need food, air, and water to live. We, who are so amply provided with these, move on to other needs such as shelter and transportation. Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs states that our needs are set in layers, the most basic (food, air, water) at the bottom of a pyramid-like structure. When those needs are taken care of, you "humanness" allows us to move on to the next set of needs.

So what does Maslow's theory have to do with teaching children about their feelings? It's simple, really. Teach children that their feelings and the feelings of others do matter and everyone responds differently to different things. Hopefully, by doing so, you will raise a child who will grow into a mature, unselfish, and giving adult. I'm not so sure America has hit the mark on this one. I'll never forget the words of a newspaper columnist who once said "The world is going to the dogs." She went on to explain that every generation since the caveman has said the same, support for the fact that everything is relative. It is all about perspective and attitude. Teaching a child that they cannot always control a given situation, but they can control their attitude and reaction comes to fruition in the form of early lessons about self-control, perseverance, and drive.

In this "quick fix" world in which we live, we cannot teach these lessons in a single sit-down discussion. The lessons we as adults teach children come in small, easy-to-ingest doses that become heard, then practiced, then mastered. Parenting is not a one-night-stand; it is a long-term commitment actualized by words and, more importantly, by deeds. It is not a one-size-fits-all undertaking, and parents have to be ready to grab onto those "teachable moments" whenever the opportunity presents itself.

Children grow into skills, both physical and emotional, and parents need to remember to nourish those first efforts into extended lessons about determination. Children need and want guidance, unbeknownst to them, and it is our job to be on hand to offer that guidance in the form of a hug, an encouraging word, an understanding of mutual support, and a million other ways. These are the foundations, the beginnings of helping raise a caring, contributing member of society which is ultimately the goal of parenting. It all begins with love, and the possibilities are without limit. Commit yourself to it. Happy Parenting!

Bad Reading Hab
When reading, should be seated at a in a comfortable chair lying on your stomach, your side. Reading in a favorite pastime millions - is almost ne good idea. Your should have a normal of the spine, and no scrunched or propped with one arm. If conti long enough, especial children, the reposition in bed become normal one and sitting chair at a desk bec abnormal. The v system gets used operating from a dist perceptive.

Let's consider chair. It should permit feet to be flat on the floor. If the feet do not touch a book under them, lower back should supported. The desk table should be at level when the person seated. Working surface too high gives much distortion as viewing a movie from front far-side. You know uncomfortable that comes on your eyes. Be good your eyes. They're the two you'll ever have.

Mrs. Griffin's 1st Grade Class Participates In Caring Classroom Program

Mrs. Griffin's First Grade class at Iuka Elementary School recently participated in the Caring Classroom program sponsored by Scholastic Book Clubs. Our class read a total of 100 books during November and December. As a result of our reading, 100 books will be donated by Scholastic to children affected by Hurricane Katrina.

Andrew Whitfield read the most books with a total of 18 books.

Tishomingo Co. African American Council Organization Meeting Planned

The Tishomingo County Archives & History Museum (CAHM) is currently seeking members of the community to help set up an African American Council. Since the inception of Tishomingo County Historical & Genealogical Society (CHGS) and its museum, it has been our goal to provide county residents and people interested in our County with historical information. We would like to start a council that could help us work toward an important goal for more historical information, educational programs, and museum displays relating to Tishomingo County's African Americans.

CAHM would like to see the following accomplishments through this project:

1. Provide research information for African Americans.

2. Collect family histories, pictures, and County history and produce a book entitled "Tishomingo County African American History."

3. Include African American history in our education programs.

CAHM will pledge the following support to the African American Council to accomplish the goals mentioned above:

1. Provide a place to meet.
2. Attend all meetings.
3. Help gather information.
4. Provide any promotional aids needed, i.e., news articles, programs, special events.
5. Produce book
6. Help with grants or fundraisers for funds needed to help with projects.

We hope you feel this is as important as we do and will help to make this council possible. If you would like to assist in developing an African American Council of the Tishomingo County Historical & Genealogical Society, please feel free to contact the archives at 423-3500 and ask for Jan. You may also contact Cindy Nelson at 423-3500 or RaNae Vaughn at 423-2255, evenings.

Welcome Home Brian!

Welcome Home 155th!!!

Although we say "Welcome Home" with a heartfelt meaning, these words don't let you know all that we feel and want to say to you!

They don't let you know how a mother's heart just sank when e-mails stopped coming one day!

You can't know how every time that phone rang, that wife feared it was bad news.

You don't know how we watched the news and wondered are you OK? Are you going to be the one blown up today?

When we said the Pledge at school, that little girl stood so proud. She was thinking of her uncle who was fighting in Iraq.

When we had our Thanksgiving program and told what we were thankful for,

That little boy made us cry when he said "I'm thankful for my daddy who is a soldier. He's gone away right now!"

And when Katrina hit Mississippi we missed the defenders of our state. Our hometown troops without we couldn't feel safe. We wondered what could happen next?

This war has made us thankful for the job you do. It's made us appreciate you!!!

We know it must have been hard to leave your families and jobs. We know you faced dangers everyday.

You answered your country's call to keep us out of harm's way.

We've looked into the faces of your families and friends and we know many of the sacrifices you've made! (though we can't know all)

I know these words can't convey how proud we are of you! How glad we are to see you home again! How we missed you!

Just know that many prayers were answered when you came home today!

And that it is with much honor and pride, that we say,

WELCOME HOME 155th
THANK YOU!!

Thank You

Le Roy Carman would like to thank those who helped to find our lost child, including but not limited to Bruce Whited and Tim Williamson of the Tishomingo County Sheriff's Department and those of the Burnsville Fire Department and Jack Tackett who found the child.

Fresh Touch Fellowship To Host 2006 Homecoming Tour Jan. 21st

New City Talent along Gospel Heritage Records proud to announce the return of the NewDay Quartet Homecoming Tour.

"We brought the tour to about a year and a half ago have been wanting to come for awhile," says Micah Albert, vocalist and Iuka native. "We had a good response last time we were here and are just hoping to build on it."

Since the last time the quartet was here many things taken place. The quartet a top five nominee for Female Male Quartet in the 2005 Gospel News/SGM Fan-Awards. They have also a major recording contract with Lamp Music Group of Whitesburg, GA.

"One of my associates was service with these guys and they knocked my door down next day."

That roster includes people like Naomi and The Ser-Ricky Atkinson and Common, Eva Mae LeFevre and more. The quartet also has a face in the line-up. Brad Eland of Starkville, MS has taken over the lead vocalist position for the quartet. "What a fantastic vocalist this guy is. He has such a big ole' voice and sings with power and conviction. He is a wonderful addition."

Pastor Heath Lovelace and the congregation of Fresh Touch Fellowship are gearing up to host this great concert event. "When we first contacted Bro. Heath about the possibility of them hosting the concert, he told us that the congregation was very excited about the concert coming to their church. We can't wait to get there. I'm just glad to be able to come back home again and sing to home folk," says Micah. "Our travels take us all over the United States and it is always good to come home."

The concert will be in the sanctuary of Fresh Touch Fellowship located on old Hwy. 72, just west of Country Squire Restaurant, and will begin at 7:00 p.m. There will be no admission charge but a love offering will be taken.

For more information, contact the church office at 662-423-6341.

15th. Other up-coming projects were discussed. The president reminded the members that the District 111 Convention would be March 4th in Calhoun City and urged us to make plans to attend. For our monthly action plan, members brought toilet tissue for the Samaritan Food Pantry.

The door prize was won by Linda Bonds. Members having January birthdays were Willadeen Thorne on the 4th and Thelma Haynes on the 19th. The next meeting will be February 9 with Nancy Daugherty as hostess and Zenobia Oaks program leader in Home Life.

A Message From The Tish. County Rescue Squad

Through the efforts of the squad and the many donors from surrounding areas, the squad was able to send 3, 2 ton truckloads of relief supplies to Mississippi Gulf Coast Hurricane survivors, which were extremely grateful. We will try to make at least one more trip to the coast with more much needed supplies the third week in January. If you wish to donate to this cause, we will continue to accept donations up to that point. Please no more clothing. Clothing is not needed at this time. Consider food and sanitary supplies, charcoal, and blankets and other warm items. The Tishomingo County Rescue Squad would like to express our thanks to all participants in these relief efforts and the many donations great and small.

Acrylic Class To Be Offered At NEMCC

Have you ever wanted to learn how to paint? Here's your chance! Northeast Mississippi Community College's Division of Continuing Education will offer a class in basic acrylic painting on Thursdays, February 2 - 23 from 6 - 8:30 p.m. in Hargett Hall. Brad Holley of Booneville is the instructor. Cost is $65.

Designed to show each participant the fundamentals of using acrylics as a painting medium, the class will cover the basics of paint colors, paint mixing, brush techniques, compositions, and other methods of using acrylic paint. Techniques creating still-life paintings and landscapes will be demonstrated.

Each participant will learn the basics to start their journey into the world of acrylic painting. Supplies must be purchased prior to the start of class.

Registration deadline is January 26. To pre-register, contact the Office of Continuing Education at 662-720-7249, 1-800-555-2154, extension 7296 or 7249 or e-mail adlangley@nemcc.edu or lmagan@nemcc.edu. Visit the Northeast website at www.nemcc.edu and go to "Office of Continuing Education."

All Proceeds Go To Resident's Christmas Fund

GFWC-MFWC Twentieth Century Club

The 20th Century Club met at the Iuka Public Library, Tuesday night, January 12, 2006. At 7 o'clock, President Russell called the meeting to order. The hostess, Ruth Ellen, led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and followed with a devotional by reading "Beauty Tips" by Audrey Hepburn and Joy Kitchens gave the education.

President Russell welcomed our new associate member, Vicki Frye and presented with a new member packet. Joy Kitchens, recording secretary, called the roll. The members answered with a name of a college or university. Members singing were Linda Bonds, Fredda Sanderson, Jo Russell, Zenobia Oaks, Joy Kitchens, Jewell Kitchens, Nancy Daugherty, and Ruth Cox.

Fredda Sanderson, program chairman of Education, read "If Books Have Smell, Have Sounds and Give Light." She stressed the importance of reading for ourselves and above all, urged to read to our children and children to promote a love of reading. She read several excerpts from GRITS (Raised in the South) by Sarah Ford and "What Women Know That Every Woman Should" by Rhonda Rich. These brought many smiles and laughter as we identified with the quotes that depicts our southern heritage.

Before continuing with the business meeting, we enjoyed a period of fellowship and refreshments. The buffet table was decorated with an education theme using old school books and school music boxes. The delicious buffet consisted of delicious croissants, various meats, chips and dip, drinks and wonderful chocolate pie.

Back to business, Joy Kitchens, recording secretary, presented written minutes and corresponding secretary, Fredda Sanderson read the correspondence. Ruth Ellen Cox, treasurer gave the financial report and the final report on the pecan sale.

The Christmas decorations were beautiful at the park as well as were many homes. We wish to thank The Friendly Florist and the Iuka Flower Shop for participating with us in "Christmas Under the Stars" by donating the beautiful poinsettias for the homes chosen.

It was reported that the club reports were in progress and the scrapbook committee is underway. These are due February 1st and February

We Need Your Recipes!!!

The Helpful Samaritan Food Pantry is having a fund raiser. "The Pantry" is now planning on publishing a cookbook to give to our clients and to sell as a fund raiser.

Here is where you can help. We need your recipes for the cookbook, but we also are asking that you pay to have your recipes published. By doing this the cost of the cookbook will be covered and no funds from "The Pantry" will need to be used.

The cost to have your recipes published is only $2.00 per recipe up to 5 recipes, after 5 recipes the cost will be a flat fee of $10.00. Recipes can be from individuals, clubs, Sunday School Classes or in Honor or Memory of your favorite chef.

Please join us, we plan to have the cookbooks ready in time for the Heritage Day Festival. To meet publication date we need your recipes (and your money) as soon as possible.

Please send your recipes to:

Relay for Life Committee Hosts Kick Off Party With A Silent Auction Planned For Tuesday, January 24

Terry Martin, Event Chairperson for the 2006 Tishomingo County Relay for Life, sponsored by the American Cancer Society, is pleased to announce that the relay kick off party will be especially entertaining this year. A silent auction will be held, giving guests an opportunity to bid on items donated by area businesses, civic clubs and individuals. Terry states that of particular interest are items from various writers and artists who have special ties with Tishomingo County. The party will be held at Cafe' Memories, in downtown Iuka, on Tuesday, January 24th, at 6:00 p.m.

Martha Houston Reid Hammond, the author of "Mama Said...", has donated a signed edition for the auction. The book is a delightful collection of wisdom, humor and common sense she gave to her daughters as they grew into adulthood. Martha and her husband, Doug, reside in Corinth, Mississippi, but she lived in Iuka during her early childhood and continues to return quite often to visit friends and relatives. She is proud to be a 3-year cancer survivor.

Iuka's Thomas brothers, Frank and Eddie, have donated Vol. 1 - "Memphis to Clack's Store", of their "Angels on the Backroads", CD collection of blues and jazz. The brothers spent five years recording and filming along Highway 61. In 2005, Frank and Eddie donated their talent to a benefit held for victims of Hurricane Katrina.

Terry Martin and Anne Holtsford with gift basket to be given as door prize at Relay for Life Silent Auction canvas has been donated by artist Amanda Davis Ryan, of "Amanda's Baby Canvases", located in Louisville, Kentucky. The canvas is a creation of Amanda's, which is a personalized birth certificate featuring appropriate colors for newborns. Upon completion of the auction, Amanda will personalize and paint the canvas for the winning bidder.

Mrs. Ryan, formerly of Iuka, and her husband currently reside in Louisville.

Rheta Grimsley Johnson, a syndicated columnist with King Features, has offered a copy of her book "America's Faces". The autographed, vintage (1987) collection of Rheta's columns recasts her early work from The Commercial Appeal, and is now out of print. The stories, set primarily in the South, include many from Tishomingo County and the surrounding counties. Rheta and her husband, Don Grierson, reside in Iuka.

Of interest to local people is a matted and framed photograph, donated by Anne Holtsford, of the old wooden Wilmuth Street Bridge. The photograph is by her sister, Judy H. Green, Ocala, Florida, who grew up in Iuka. The bridge bears special meaning, as the Holtsford family residence was near, and the bridge was a neighborhood landmark in the 50's, 60's and 70's. This particular photograph is the result of a series of bridge photographs by Judy, during a visit in 2005, and in a collection that she hopes to share in exhibit someday. Anne and Judy thought this photo appropriate for the auction benefiting the Relay, as their sister, Bennie McBride, is a 12-year survivor.

Terry, along with Anne, Chairperson for the Survivor's Group, is shown in the photograph above, holding a gift basket that the committee is offering a lucky guest as a door prize. The basket, donated by a local artist and designed especially for the kick off party, is packed with various Relay items, including several 2006 t-shirts and of special interest, a book "Angels and Monsters", a child's eye view of cancer. Reading through the book, one is invited to enter the world in which a certain group of children lived as they underwent treatments. Jeff Foxworthy wrote the foreword, "Old Souls in Little Bodies". This is a heart-warming book that will create a strong desire in any human to help battle cancer.

Everyone is invited to attend this special event and to join Tishomingo County's Relay to be held, Friday, April 28th at 6:00 p.m. Anyone interested in donating to the auction, is encouraged to contact Terry Martin at 423-1989.

I DID NOT COME TO STAY

I did not come to stay, YES' I did not come to stay; So you can treat me almost any old way. YES' Really, I am only here for one day. I am only here for this day, So what more can I do or say, For I did not come to stay. YES' Since I did not come to stay? I did not come to stay, YES' I did not come to stay, I will be leaving after only one day. YES' So, what is my name anyway? I am determined to go on my way,

YES' Oh, my name? Why it's "Today", For I did not come to stay. For I did not come to stay. I did not come to stay, So you may use me for work or play. For this one time you may have it your way, For I did not come to stay. I did not come to stay, So there's no need for either great joy or dismay. Soon I'll be up and on my way, For I did not come to stay. I did not come to stay, So perhaps little attention to me you will pay. You too still live in a house of clay, For you too did not come to stay. I did not come to stay,

Just twenty-four hours will bring my decay. Perhaps it is really better this way, For I did not come to stay. I did not come to stay, So I must not deceive or betray. I am as a blank page recording what you do and say, But I did not come to stay. I did not come to stay, My doom is sealed into just one day. Either way, my debt I am bound to pay, For I did not come to stay. I did not come to stay, So you may simply waste me away. You may use me to your gain or dismay, For I did not come to stay. Written by J. Briggs King on December 31, 2005 concerning the importance of the days of the new year.

Stew/Chili Supper At Southwest Burnsville Baptist...

Southwest Burnsville Baptist Church, located on 365 S.

Burnsville, is AT IT AGAIN! They will be having a stew/chili supper on Saturday, Jan. 21st (noon until supper). Cost is $5.00 per plate or $15.00 per gallon.

We are so excited...see you there!

Are You Interested In Learning to Play Banjo or Guitar or Joining A Band?

Mr. Clyne Wilemon is looking for banjo or guitar students to teach, and then to form a band that plays rock and roll, country and blue grass music. Students should have some music experience—more than beginner ability. Students must also furnish their own banjos or guitars. For more information, contact Clyne Wilemon at 662-728-2561.

Cemetery Meeting...

A meeting has been called on Thursday, Jan. 26th, starting at 6:30 p.m. concerning Hubbard Salem Cemetery. The meeting will be in the church.

We urge everyone with family buried in the cemetery and church members to be present at this meeting.

Thank You...

Dear Family & Friends of Lila Hollis, Thank you for your love and prayers. God's love and grace to you all. Joe Hollis, Kim Crowe and Linda Abernathy

Sardis Church News

By: Louise White Family

We at Sardis extend a welcoming hand to all who wish to come together in the name of the Lord Jesus. We've been blessed with another week of life and the opportunity that goes with it of spreading God's Word and enjoying good fellowship with one another. We are located at the end of CR 169 and we encourage you to visit with us anytime. VERSE OF THE WEEK "Confess your faults to one another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." (James 5:16). In this lesson we are to pray in faith and good will result. James 5:13-16

Raymond White

THANK YOU

We would like to express our appreciation for all the prayers, cards, calls, food, money and support shown over the past few months.

We want to thank each and every person as well as the area churches for all the acts of kindness shown to us during this time of sickness.

Difficult times are made easier by loving, caring friends and family like ours.

God bless each and every one of you.

Harmony UMC Ladies Retreat January 27th And 28th

Mark your calendars for the Harmony United Methodist Church "Promise of Peace" Ladies Retreat Friday and Saturday, January 27th and 28th, 2006. We will begin Friday evening's session at 5:30 p.m. with a meal followed by our featured speaker, Martha Hawkins from Montgomery, AL. Saturday morning's session will begin with breakfast at 8:30 a.m. followed by testimonies from Tonia Robertson of Iuka and Myra Strom of Corinth.

Tonia Senter Robertson resides in Iuka and is a member of Mount Evergreen United Methodist Church. Tonia's family is an active one and consists of husband, Joel, Noah (10), Andee Jane (3), and Isaiah (1). She is employed at Iuka Elementary School where she serves as a teacher's assistant and she also works part-time at the Country Squire Restaurant. Robertson's presentation will feature her testimony "Life after the Loss" in which she will speak of the loss of her second child, Sydney at the age of 3 months. Tonia will share how the strength drawn from heaven propelled her through this devastating tragedy.

Throughout both sessions, door prizes will be given away as we share the wonderful time of fellowship with our sisters in Christ. Please call (662) 424-0209 and leave a message on the voice mail of the number attending. Watch this newspaper for further articles with detailed information on our upcoming speakers. We look forward to seeing each of you this year at our second annual ladies retreat.

1,000 Copies Of History Of Old Tishomingo County Will Soon Be Ready For Shipping Or Pickup...

Fan Cochran's review of a section of country in Mississippi Territory, namely Old Tishomingo County in the Sunny Southland, from the date of its surrender by the Chickasaw Indians to the year 1870, covering the period of 34 years - long and eventful years is in its fourth printing.

The Tishomingo County Historical & Genealogical Society has been granted full copyright permission by the executors of Fan Cochran's estate for the reprint of this book. The 1,000 copies being printed were originally slated for Christmas delivery; however, they are now at the printers and are scheduled for a delivery time of early February.

Financial Peace University...

On Thursday night, February 2nd at 7:00 p.m. the First United Pentecostal Church of Iuka located at 608 N. Main St. will be hosting Financial Peace University (FPU) a 13-week program taught by the popular national radio personality Dave Ramsey who is also the author of the best-selling book The Total Money Makeover.

The program is made up of 13 life-changing lessons taught by Dave in a fun and entertaining way. After each lesson the group will meet to help each other plan budgets, discuss successes and encourage and support one another in avoiding financial temptations during their journey to beat debt and build wealth. Topics covered include:

- Saving for emergencies
- Budgeting
- Relationship and money issues
- Buying big bargains
- Getting out of debt
- Understanding investments
- Understanding insurance
- Retirement and college planning
- Buyer beware
- Real estate mortgages
- Careers and extra jobs

The church invites anyone interested in this program to join in on a short orientation session to be held on Saturday, January 21st at 4:00 p.m. at the church. This session will be an opportunity to learn more in detail about the program and to join the classes that begin in February.

For any further information, please contact Blake Melton at 279-2304 or call the church at 423-6801.

TCHS Smoke Signals by Jenni Nichols

"Let us not wallow in the valley of despair, I say to you today, my friends. And so even though we face the difficulties of today and tomorrow, I still believe a dream is within our grasp. It is a dream deeply rooted in the American dream." Martin Luther King, Jr. was an inspiration and role model for those of his generation and those of the generations to follow him. This past Sunday marked yet another year of observance of the passionate man who taught us all valuable lessons in life. The

Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday celebrates the life and legacy of a man who brought hope and healing to America. At a time when America was quickly advancing technologically, she was still so far behind in the equality of all human beings. Dr. King's inspiring words filled a great void in our nation, answering our collective longing to become a country that truly lived by its noblest principles.

We must not forget the precious lesson that Martin Luther King, Jr. shared with us at the greatest expense - his life. Free education, reliable government, and freedom of speech mean nothing to America if we forget the principle Dr. King fought so intensely for - equality for all.

- Congratulations to all the seniors recently selected as TCHS's 2006 "Who's Who"!
- Congratulations to the boys' basketball team on their win over West Point, and congratulations to the girls' team on their win over New Hope! Be sure to come support your Braves and Lady Braves every Tuesday and Friday night!
- Brave baseball and Lady Brave softball will soon be beginning so be sure to mark your calendars and support them all!
- Tutoring is offered Monday - Thursday in Ms. Key's room (233) from 3-4. Feel free to stay after school for some extra help.
- Student Council meets every Tuesday morning at 7:30 in Ms. Jones' room.
- FCA meets every Friday morning at 7:30 in the auditorium; all are invited to attend.

Iuka Middle School Basketball News

The Iuka teams closed out the regular season last week by hosting the Burnsville Mustangs and then traveling to Booneville to play the Blue Devils.

Versus Burnsville - The Chieftains and Lady Chieftains were able to sweep all four games against county rival Burnsville last Monday night in Iuka. The 7th grade girl's game was close all the way with Burnsville leading at halftime 5-3. After a low scoring first half both teams began to find the basket more often but Iuka found it just a little more often than Burnsville as the Lady Chieftains won the game 17-14. Coach Malcolm Brown said, "We did a good job not turning the ball over much, had only four turnovers." With the win, Iuka secured the number 1 seed for the county tournament which begins next week. Leading Iuka was Taje Philamlee with 6 points and 2 steals, Jasmine Shannon had 5 points, 6 rebounds and 2 steals. Kelsey Rone had 4 points, 6 rebounds and 2 steals and Miranda Parsons had 2 points, 2 rebounds and 1 steal.

The 8th grade girl's game was an important Tri-County Conference game with Iuka trying to secure the number 1 seed in their division. Iuka took an early lead in the first half taking a 15-10 advantage at the break. Full court pressure and strong rebounding allowed Iuka to stretch the lead out and take the game 38-28. Coach Brown commented, "It was a great game, we did a job rebounding and pressing. We did a great job passing the ball to the open player and finishing the shot and had a season high eight team assists." Shelby Bonds continued her string of good games scoring 14 points, 7 rebounds, 9 steals and 1 assist. Bailey Bullock had 11 points, 3 rebounds, 1 steal and 1 assist. Tiffany Flynt had 7 points, 5 rebounds, 1 steal, 1 blocked shot and 1 assist. Carlee Puckett had 5 points, 1 rebound and 4 steals and Pazlee Walker had 4 points, 2 rebounds, 2 steals and 3 assists.

The 7th grade boy's game was a tight game as both teams got after it in the first half with Burnsville leading 15-14 at halftime. Iuka came out in the third quarter and played tough defense and was able to stretch out a lead to go on and win the game 31-24. Coach Shannon Edmondson stated, "Our defense didn't allow a point in the third quarter and we were able to make some big shots late in the game to pull out a win." Leading Iuka was Luke White with 14 points and Jake Walker with 10 points.

The 8th grade boys tipped off the last game of the night and the first half was a close one with Iuka leading 21-19 at halftime. Iuka was able to turn it up a notch in the second half and took control of the game as they got the victory 46-34. "This was a good all-around game. We played well and everyone was able to get some valuable playing time. We are playing well heading into the season ending tournaments" said Coach Edmondson. Daniel Aday had 17 points for Iuka and Jordan Bonds had 6 points.

Versus Booneville - The 7th grade girls had trouble getting things going in the first half of the game against the Lady Blue Devils. Iuka struggled to score and found themselves trailing 13-5 at halftime. Things improved for Iuka the second half but not fast enough as the Lady Chiefs lost the game 20-18. "Free throw shooting killed us, we were 6 of 19 from the line and we must do a better job shooting if we want to win some games" said Brown. Kelsey Rone had 7 points, 1 rebound, and 1 steal, Milli Brown had 6 points, 4 rebounds, 2 steals and 1 blocked shot, Jasmine Shannon had 4 points, 4 rebounds and 1 steal and Marlee Tigner had 1 point and 2 rebounds.

The 8th grade girls completely dominated their game against Booneville. Iuka came out strong from the tip and never looked back as they led 17-2 at the half and won the game 33-7. Coach Brown stated, "We played good defense and did a good job hustling after loose balls". Shelby Bonds had 8 points, 6 rebounds and 3 steals, Courtney Tigner had 7 points, 3 rebounds and 2 steals, Bailey Bullock had 6 points, 7 rebounds and 2 steals, Marcey Anne Sykes had 6 points and 4 rebounds, Tiffany Flynt had 4 points, 3 rebounds and 1 steal, Ryan Ozment had 2 points, 2 rebounds and 1 steal and Victoria Tait had 7 rebounds.

The 8th grade teams are in the Tri-County Conference Tournament this week in Biggersville and all four teams will be in the Tishomingo County Tournament next week at Iuka.

Iuka Stands To Lose $1.1M Under Tax Plan

The city of Iuka stands to lose more than $1.1 M over the next decade if a tax bill passed by the Legislature becomes law. An analysis of Senate Bill 2310 shows that this city would lose revenue it now uses for such services as paying city employees and operating city government.

The legislation was presented as an increase in Mississippi's cigarette tax and elimination of the sales tax on groceries. Overall, however, with grocery sales growing at the historical statewide average of 5 percent, municipalities would lose an estimated $166 million in future revenue and state revenue will be reduced by more than $1.5 billion over the next nine years as the legislation is implemented.

Supporters of the bill, however, may not have calculated its full impact on sales tax revenues that fund many aspects of local government. When voting for this proposal, Legislators did not have all of the information about its potential effects on Mississippi's State budget and cities.

According to the Mississippi State Tax Commission, the original estimate of the amount of grocery tax collected in municipalities was incorrect, likely by 20 percent. Therefore, even the proposed fund set up to reimburse the municipalities is not funded at a high enough level in the legislation. Yet, Legislators were told that cities and towns were protected from a loss of revenue. Even if that estimate were corrected, this demonstrates the lack of information on which this proposal was based.

Furthermore, the Tax Commission's estimate on potential new revenue from an increased tax on cigarettes failed to take into account the reduction in smoking which is occurring both in Mississippi and across the nation. This will reduce revenue from this higher tax.

Also, increasing the cigarette tax by 455 percent would give Mississippi the highest cigarette tax of all our surrounding states. Such a drastic increase would inevitably lead to bootlegging of cigarettes across state lines and entice more people to purchase cigarettes from the Choctaws, which are not taxable.

The Tax Commission's estimate on potential new revenue from an increased tax on cigarettes did not take either of these likely effects into account, and both would reduce the new revenue from the higher tax. Clearly, any increased revenue from a higher tax on tobacco will not come close to offsetting the decreased revenue from reducing the grocery tax.
