Second in a Series: New Year's Resolutions and Achieving them in Tishomingo County

Getting Your Financial House In Order for the New Year

by Pamela McRae

Are you tired of working hard for a paycheck and wondering where it all went? Of having more month left at the end of your money? Are you dreading getting the January bills for your fun-filled holiday spending spree?

"It is easy to get caught up in the excitement of giving during the holidays," said Suzanne Boas, president of Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Atlanta (CCCS). "But many overdo a good thing and then struggle to make even minimum payments on their credit cards."

Developing and sticking to a plan for your money can really help your peace of mind and give you a sense of control in your life and there are some resources right here in the county where you can get informed on how to make the first step.

Families First offers Financial Peace University (FPU), which many people have heard of on the Dave Ramsey Radio show that airs on Supertalk Mississippi (94.3, 1 p.m. daily). In this class you receive instruction on how to get on a budget, start getting out of debt, and generally get some control over your finances.

In the past year, Danny McClung, program educator with Families First, led about 30 students through two FPU classes in the county in 2007 and said that participants become more money conscious and develop a financial discipline that helps them gain control of spending, and their incomes.

"We will be starting a class before February," stated McClung.

"It is a 13-week class, but the commitment results in really learning not only the basics of money management, but also teaches investment and wealth-building strategies," said McClung. "Participants gain a financial discipline they didn't have."

For more information on taking a class, call the Families First Center at the TCHS campus, 423-7318.

Also available is one-on-one counseling through the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

"We have some information in our office on how to start better money management," said Robyn South, Family and Consumer Science Program Associate with the Tishomingo County branch of the Extension Service. "But we also have someone who can give you one-on-one guidance or help with a class."

Daily encouragement for setting your financial house in order can be found in daily radio shows that like the Dave Ramsey Show, and Money Matters on 88.3 at 8:30 p.m.

CCCS advises consumers to top their list of New Year's resolutions with a commitment to improve their financial outlook. To help consumers tackle what can be a stressful time, CCCS suggests following the following tips:

Know how much you owe. A common mistake is not keeping track of debt. The thinking is that as long as you can keep up with the payments, everything is fine. However, if circumstances change due to a layoff or other unexpected event, you could find yourself unable to make payments and in immediate financial stress. The only way to understand what you are facing is to have a realistic picture of what you owe.

Gather all your credit card statements and other bills and add up the total.

Create a spending plan. The easiest way to take control of your money is to set out a plan for how you will spend it. This is not glamorous and can be something of a task, but it gives you the power to decide where your money goes. The plan should be flexible and include monthly expenses such as mortgage or rent, utilities, food, transportation, entertainment, clothing, etc. Make sure your expenses are not more than your income. If they are, go back to the plan and make adjustments.

Pay off credit card debt. The average household has close to $10,000 in credit card debt and the interest paid on those balances can be as high as $1,800 a year. Just think of what you could do with an extra $150 a month in your budget! Stop charging additional purchases today and make a commitment to yourself that once you have paid off your debt, you will not charge any purchases unless you have the balance in 90 days or less. Sacrifices now will mean less stress and a better financial future.

Build a savings cushion. Once you have paid off your credit card balances, you should begin to build a savings cushion for emergency or unexpected expenses or if you lose your job. Your goal is three to six months of living expenses put aside in a savings account. With this cushion in place, when the refrigerator stops working, your car's transmission gives out or your mother-in-law moves in, you will not have to put those unexpected expenses on a credit card.

Develop a strategy for your financial future. Set aside time at least twice a month to manage your finances including paying bills, balancing your checking account and analyzing your expenses. Begin thinking about, and planning for retirement—consider when you would prefer to retire, how much money you will need to live the lifestyle of your choice and what you need to do now to get there. Establish a retirement fund and contribute to it on a regular basis.

All our best,

TCHS Students Send Christmas Decorations To Soldiers In Iraq

SPC Clint Whitfield opening packages of decorations from TCHS students.

SPC Clint Whitfield, Chaplain Assistant 2-1 AVN, graduated from Tishomingo County High School in 2003. After attending the University of North Alabama, he joined the United States Army. Clint is now deployed to Iraq where he serves as a Chaplain Assistant.

In November, Mrs. Peggy Whitfield, Clint's mother, contacted Tishomingo County High School and asked if the school would be willing to help send Christmas decorations to Clint. Students Against Destructive Decisions at TCHS collected money from the students during lunch for three days and were able to purchase $300 worth of Christmas decorations, stockings, and candy to send to Clint. Clint sent an e-mail to the school thanking the students for the packages. This is an excerpt from the e-mail he sent: "I am part of what is called a Unit Ministry Team (UMT) and I work in a chapel here so we do all kinds of events and programs especially around the holidays. But again I wanted to say thanks...these decorations are definitely going to give at least a little touch of home for some people...that's all that keeps us going."

Tishomingo County High School is proud of all our brave men and women who are protecting our freedoms, and we thank them for their dedication to service.

Special Guest At Bluegrass Music Show At VFW

The weekly bluegrass music show will be held at the Iuka Veterans Building on Friday night, 11 January. Often, we have a guest band to perform at our Friday night bluegrass show. Tomorrow night is one of those times. Champion fiddler and Grand Ole Opry performer (with Bill Monroe) Wayne Jerrolds brings his Savannah Bluegrass Band to the VFW building in Iuka, for the first time in three years. We need your continuing support to enable us to bring you a show of this caliber from time to time. Wayne's group will begin the show at 7:00 p.m., and be followed by The Heartland Band at 8:15 p.m. Bring a friend and come on out and enjoy a musical evening. There is no admission charge. Snacks, sodas, coffee, and bottled water will be available for purchase. No alcohol please.

Thank You

To The Citizens of the Town of Burnsville
I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for allowing me to serve as Alderman for the past three years. I look forward to serving you as your State Representative District One. If I can assist you in any way, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,
Bubba Carpenter

Nena Faye Holder

Nena Faye Holder, 89, died Tuesday, January 1st, 2008, at The Landmark Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Booneville after a long illness. She was born July 11th, 1918, in Tishomingo County to Samuel Powell McCutcheon and Callie Gipson McCutcheon. She graduated from Burton High School as one of the top two students of the class of 1936. In her work career, she was the executive housekeeper for the northeast Mississippi Hospital (now Baptist Memorial Hospital) in Booneville for 17 years. During that period, she served as president of the Mississippi Hospital Housekeepers Association, arranged and conducted both national and regional workshops, and was on the editorial board for the National Housekeeping Journal. Most of her training for the housekeeping field was through the University of Mississippi School of Medicine and the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta with some work done at the University of Memphis and Baptist Hospital in Memphis. After leaving the health care field, she was employed by Holiday Inn University in Memphis to write curriculum guides and conduct training sessions for the worldwide Holiday Inn training center. She also worked with several Holiday Inn franchise groups. While in the hotel business, she lived and worked in Memphis, Puerto Rico, Aruba, Panama, St. Thomas and Jamaica. She also conducted seminars in London for international housekeepers from European and African Holiday Inns. After leaving Holiday Inns, she continued consulting with hospitals, hotel, schools and private business. She also taught in the Northeast Community College hotel/motel program. In her later life, she returned to Northeast Mississippi Hospital as an administrative assistant to the dietitian and then held a part-time job through the Green Thumb organization working in the Prentiss County Superintendent of Education office's school lunch program. As an avocation, she wrote and published poems, short stories and professional articles in a variety of publications. She was a lifelong Primitive Baptist, serving as church clerk for Little Flock Primitive Baptist Church for several years. In all her travels, interaction with her family and in her various careers, she has always presented her faith in Christ.

Services were at 11 a.m., Friday, January 4th at Little Flock Primitive Baptist Church with Elder Bob Ward and Elder Roger Browning officiating. Burial was in Forked Oak Cemetery. Booneville Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Tishomingo County High School sponsored the first Annual Walk for the American Diabetes Association on Wednesday, November 7, 2007. The TCHS Student Council, the Future Business Leaders of America, the Foreign Language Club, and Students Against Destructive Decisions came together and raised $1363.90 in four days for the American Diabetes Association. All the students who participated worked very hard, and we especially want to recognize these four young ladies who collected over one hundred dollars in four days: Haylie Crum raised $300.00; Devon Hill raised $232.00; Kayla Thorn raised $100.51; and Skye James raised $135.00. The students asked for donations from classmates, family, and area businesses. A few of the area businesses that made donations were First American National Bank, Southern Air Comfort, Inc., Casabella Furniture, Inc., Bonds Company, Inc., and Luka Discount Drugs. Luka Methodist Church and Chapel Hill Methodist Church provided refreshments for the students who participated in the Walk for the American Diabetes Association. Tishomingo County High School wishes to thank all the students and community members who made this event such a success!

HAM Operators visit with Weeblos - On December 14, 2007, Mr. Ray Potts and Mr. Jerome Wright visited with the Weeblo I and Weeblo 2 Dens of Burnsville Cub Scout Pack 75. Mr. Wright has been a HAM operator since 1976 and Mr. Wright began in 1992. These men gave an informal talk about communication using HAM radio. Each boy had a chance to speak across the radio and some took advantage of the equipment to practice Morse Code. The boys were surprised to learn that during Hurricane Katrina, the HAM radio was the only way President Bush was able to communicate with New Orleans. The boys and their leaders greatly appreciate Mr. Potts and Mr. Wright for giving their time and knowledge to help them complete requirements for the communicator pin. Pictured above with Mr. Jerome Wright and Mr. Ray Potts are Jacob South, Walker Miller, A. J. Roaten, Nicholas Wiggington, and Austin Shiel.

Bill Saye to Speak at Revival at Tishomingo Baptist

Everyone is invited to a revival to be held February 6th at Tishomingo Baptist Church featuring special evangelist Bill Saye.

Services are at 11 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. Sunday, and 7 a.m. Monday through Wednesday.

Bill Saye, a revival speaker and prison evangelist, will be speaking each night and giving his testimony. Find out how God intervened in Bill Saye's life and delivered him from the electric chair to only one year in prison. Today, God enables him to preach at youth crusades, revivals, church services, and conferences, as well as jails and prisons and inner city streets.

Everyone is welcome.

Bill Saye

Letter To The Editor...

Baby Bottles

I remember when baby bottles were made of glass and had rubber nipples. My sister who was next to me in age, as a small child with teeth that she could bite off the end of the nipple, "threw a temper tantrum" and broke her bottle. One didn't break a bottle in those days because it might be two weeks before anyone would be traveling to Iuka. My mom had another bottle which was made a little different than the first and filled it with milk for my little sister. She wouldn't have such. She threw it down onto the floor and broke it to pieces. My mom found a third bottle. This bottle was also rejected. My mom turned her over in her lap, spanked her real good and never gave her another bottle. She was quickly weaned! This was not child abuse but simple discipline by my mom. My sister began to eat more food and made it fine without the bottle of milk, after all she had several teeth. She was accountable for her actions and received her punishment, which was a spanking. She grew up just fine under the hand of authority of our parents. There was no negotiation for disobedience at our house. Daddy spoke and we obeyed and there was no argument, sassiness or talking back to our parents. We were taught to say "yes sir and no sir" to all that were older than we. And by-the-way, we never had to "stand in the corner, have time outs" or any other inventions of discipline. One can learn early from the sound of a peach tree switch across the rear end. It taught us respect for our parents and for others. Looking back, I deserved every "whooping" I received and many more that I did not get. There is a proper way to correct a child, without it being child abuse.

In those days, when men entered the courthouse, or any other public building, they removed their caps or hats. When a woman entered a room, most men stood up and offered their seat. Men were real men and women were real ladies. We still have some real men and real ladies today. We witnessed respect in a time.

We live in a time when society is the boss and the family structure is now reached a point that 51% of marriages end up in divorces. Marriage vows are no more than comic strips. Children have been cast aside to care for themselves; the elderly receive little respect in most places, and the care of people as a whole is growing less and less. I believe the family breakdowns in our nation are the result of sin ruling in the lives of people.

Sin brings forth an act and state that many people do not think about. It is the act and state of being selfish. It seems to me that it is more of "I" and "Me" that really matters to some folks these days. It is what "I" want and that's all that matters.

We live in a time when child abuse is rampaging. Little girls are hunted down by grown men like dogs after a fawn deer to fill their own lust. It is no wonder that our nation is going down, down ever so fast. Yet these things are not something new. It has been happening down through the pages of time. The differences are that in these days things are being brought to light more than ever before. The Psalmist David spoke of these things that existed in that day. He stated in Psalms 106:38 concerning a nation of people that they "...shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they SACRIFICED unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood." Was this not the sin of selfishness and turning from God? Sure it was. So what is the conclusion? It is simply that today selfishness still runs through the veins of mankind. I wonder how many "idols" exist that parents are not aware of as they uncaringly lay their children in the arms of these invisible idols of the world because they have only one thing in mind and that is "I and ME". God bless the little children.

A few months ago an elderly lady told me that as a little girl (over 75 years ago) along with other siblings, was given some money by their father to walk to a little country store to purchase a can of Pet Milk. Upon returning home, they being very hungry sat at the table where he was sitting. She said they, the children, thought for sure that he would add some water to the milk and they all would have a little to enjoy. He punched a hole in the can, poured the milk into a glass and drank it all himself. The children got up from the table and went away hungry while the father filled his belly. It is amazing, as I think about it, that as a very young boy I was by his bedside when he died, and moments before he died, he vomited up some peaches that he had eaten earlier. It seemed that "I" and "ME" is all that mattered to him.

And if you break your baby bottle, maybe it's time you were weaned from such a thing. Grow up! And by the way, "Grow that cookie alone, it is MINE!"

BIBLE QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

By Claude Wilemon

48. The city of the New Jerusalem will have twelve gates of pearl and on each gate is written a name of one of the twelve tribes of Israel. What three names will be written on the three gates on the north side?

(Last Week's Answer) 47. Name a man and wife in the Old Testament that had a son when they were old. Abraham and Sarah - Genesis 18

Thank You

We, the family of Dorothy Hubbard, would like to express our heartfelt thanks for all the kindness shown our family during this difficult time. There are no words that can express the appreciation we feel for the prayers, cards, visits, phone calls and food. A special thanks to the Iuka Church of Christ, Pleasant Grove Church of Christ, Bro. Ricky Fields, the pallbearers and Cutshall Funeral Home. Please continue to remember our family in your prayers.

Card of Thanks

The family of James (BuB) Starkey would like to thank you for the visits, words of comfort, cards, food and especially your prayers during our time of sorrow. Words cannot express how much we appreciate all that was done for our family.

May God Bless you our caring friends,
Linda Starkey, Terri Toni, Jessica, Jonathan,
Gregory, Aynsley, Kolby - Bevin

TISHOMINGO COUNTY AREA PROPERTIES FOR SALE

When prospects are looking to purchase a home in the Iuka area, they will almost always contact a local Realtor, not an out-of-town Realtor. For this reason, when listing your property, your needs will best be met by using a home town Realtor who has the knowledge and understanding of the local market. They can provide you with the service you need and expect.

LEGAL NOTICE*NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC AND ALL EXCAVATORS

The natural gas distribution system of Burnsville/Counce Gas Co. is committed to the prevention of damage to underground facilities in and around Burnsville, MS and Counce, TN. To that end, we ask that anyone planning to do any digging in those areas please call MS OneCall at 1-800-227-6477 or TN OneCall at 1-800-351-1111 before you dig. Our telephone number is 662-427-8287 and our fax is 662-427-8288. If you have an emergency (EMERGENCIES ONLY PLEASE), you may call 662-808-3093 for assistance.

NOTICE TO THE CUSTOMERS AND NON-CUSTOMERS LIVING IN THE VICINITY OF
THE BURNSVILLE/COUNCE GAS SYSTEM

Natural gas is an odorless gas. An odorant is added to make natural gas detectable to the human nose. This odorant is what a person would smell if there was a leak. The odorant we use is called Captan. Captan is put into our systems at odorization points called odorizers. If you smell anything or think you may have a leak, please give us a call at 662-427-8287. We will be glad to investigate any complaint or concern you may have. If you have an emergency (EMERGENCIES ONLY, PLEASE) please call 662-808-3093. If you need more information, please do not hesitate to call us at our office. Burnsville/Counce Gas Co.

Tishomingo County Archives And History Museum Prepares For Future Events

The Tishomingo County Archives & History Museum (TCAHM) is preparing for some special events in 2008. TCAHM plans to celebrate January as National Hobby Month and February as Black History Month together with a specialized worship on beginning genealogy. TCHAM wants to appeal to African Americans to use the historic courthouse museum and its genealogical library to become involved in one of the nation's fastest growing hobbies - to research their heritage and compile their family tree.

With great eagerness and anticipation, the historic museum is delighted to announce a Saturday workshop/presentation by Earnest Edward Lacey of Oakland, Tennessee. His presentation on "African American Research" will be held at 10 a.m. on Saturday, February 2, 2008. The presentation will be followed by an opportunity to purchase one of his books and receive an autograph by the author himself. Membership in the historical society is not required; the workshop is free of charge to everyone that desires to attend.

Earnest Edward Lacey is the great-great-grandson of Joseph H. "Free Joe" and Fanny Harris, pioneers of West Tennessee who arrived in Eads, Tennessee, in 1831. He began researching his family history 23 years ago while a resident of Chicago, Illinois. Mr. Lacey was born and raised in Memphis, and attended college in Chicago. He earned an M.B.A. in University Park, Illinois. He taught business and general educational courses at various colleges and is a former Director of the Tennessee Small Business Development Center at the University of Memphis. He is the host of the television talk show, "Small Business Review."

Mr. Lacey has authored four books. The biographical novel, Free Joe: A Story of Faith, Love and Perseverance, The Search for Free Joe: Researching a Family's History: Actual Account, Genealogy Made Simple, and Self-Publishing Made Simple.

Mr. Lacey has presented workshops on genealogy in Chicago, Illinois; Carbondale, Illinois; Richmond, Virginia; St. Louis, Missouri; and Washington, D.C. His topics range from genealogy in general to more specific topics on African-American genealogy. He has served as a speaker on African-American genealogy for the Memphis/Shelby County Library, and has been a featured speaker to elementary, high school, and college students. He serves as a consultant to historical groups and individuals on research techniques and publishing family histories.

Mr. Lacey has been a recipient of a number of awards over the years, including "Community Leader and Noteworthy American," "Outstanding Young Man of America," "Citation of Merit," "You Are First Award," and the "Dr. Carter G. Woodson Award of Merit."

The historical society is honored to have Earnest Edward Lacey as a guest, and everyone is encouraged to attend the workshop at 10 a.m. on Saturday, February 2nd. Bring a friend. The museum is located in the old historic courthouse at 203 E. Quitman Street in Iuka, Mississippi. Although pre-registration is not required, please try to contact the museum if you expect to attend so that adequate seating will be prepared in advance. For more information, please contact the historical museum at 662-423-3500, e-mails maybe sent to tcarchives@nadate.net.

Library patrons are now using the library's WI-FI. You are able to access the library's computers from anywhere in the building or outside in the parking lot, 24-7. You will require a laptop or similar device to do this. The service is DSL and quite fast.

The free GED classes run every Monday and Tuesday at the Chamber of Commerce building starting at 8:00 a.m. An instructor is present and everything is free including the test fee.

The library has free encyclopedias to give away to anyone who is interested. A leather-bound complete set of 1992 Encyclopedia Britannica is for sale at $10.00

Call For Help - Through The 20th Century Club Program Recycles Old Cell Phones To Help Domestic Abuse Victims

Iuka's 20th Century Club is collecting old cell phones and chargers to help abused women through a program called Call For Help-Through the 20th Century Club.

"We are accepting any kind of cell phone, with its charger if possible, and they will be reprogrammed to dial 911," said Vicki Frye, a representative of the public service club in Iuka. The club is working with SAFE, Inc. of Tupelo.

SAFE (Shelter and Assistance for Family Emergencies) helps women who are victims of domestic abuse by providing them with the resources to get out of a situation that is hurting them or their children.

"Clear any personal information or photos off the phones," said Frye. But they will additionally clear the phones, and block them so they can only dial 911.

Locations for turning in the phones include the Tishomingo County High School Office, Iuka Library, Wellness Center and the Tishomingo County News Office.

If you have any questions, contact Vicki Frye at 423-1669 or Jo Russell at 424-0298.

OUT THERE by Tita B

When was the last time you were at the top of Woodall Mountain? Yesterday after church I asked Larry to drive up to the top of Woodall Mountain. I was so disappointed with what we found there. There were paper cups, papers strewn about and beer cans, pop cans, water bottles, logs that appeared to be ready for making a bonfire, a cement bench was overturned and broken, evidently by vandals. A far cry from the memories I have of Woodall as a teenager.

As a teenager, in the late 1950s, on long hot summer days, if our moms did not have us breaking a tub of green beans or shelling a mountain of peas, friends from the area: Vernell, Juanita, Shirley, Mae and I, would get together and walk all the way from our homes (all near Bethel Church) up to the top of Woodall Mountain. We were allowed to do this because our Uncle, Tab Whitfield, would look out for us once we arrived there. Talmadge Whitfield was the keeper of Woodall Mountain for almost 30 years. We youngsters would climb to the top of the old wooden tower and see what a big beautiful, green world was out there.

Uncle Tab lived in Holcut, MS. He married Mary Vandiver, and raised his family of six sons, and one daughter there. They had one of the first telephones in Holcut, necessary because of his job. It was a big old wooden wall phone with operator assistance. Tab also drove the fire truck.

Woodall had lovely grassy areas and wonderful views back in those days. There was no litter or vandalism evident. The old wooden tower - now in the hands of one of Tab's sons, was not surrounded with fences and barbed wire. There was a lovely sign. I found a strange comment about this sign when I looked up Woodall Mountain, MS on the Internet. Along with all the statistics: "Woodall Mountain is the highest point in Mississippi, 860 feet high. It played a central roll in the Civil War back in 1862 during the battles of Shiloh, Iuka and Corinth." There is a photograph with the comment, "This is what the summit sign is supposed to look like."

Tishomingo County is an amazingly diverse area with many wonderful points of interest. How can we let one of our treasurers be left in this condition.

I admit - as someone who roamed Tishomingo Park as a child, sat in front of the old courthouse to watch couples coming to get married there, and remembers Iuka when there were lots of stores other than Wal-Mart such as Mrs. Brown's Dress Shop, Reed's Men's Store, the hardware store, the movie theatre, the Cotton Gin, the Hadley Hotel - I know things will not stay the same, and life is full of constant changes.

Was the library in Jay Bird Park at one time? And now the entire main street of Iuka looks like it is competing with LaSalle Street in Chicago - one attorney after another. Back then there were a few, two I vaguely remember were Click Clark and Cecil Summer(son?).

Take a drive up to Woodall Mountain. The directional signs are there but we need to find a good reason

GOD'S ANSWERS Does Man Consist Of Two Parts?

(1) Body: 1 Cor. 15: 44, 47 There is a natural body. The first man is of the earth, earthy. Gen. 2: 7 And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and unto dust shalt thou return. Eccl. 3: 20 All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again. Luke 24: 39 A spirit hath not flesh and bones.

(2) Life-principle, or breath of life, spirit of life: Gen. 2: 7 The LORD God...breathed into his nostrils the breath of life. Gen. 6: 17 I do bring a flood...to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life. Eccl. 3: 19, 21 For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts.
