Elderly Iuka Man Shot; Suspect In Custody Hezzie Whitlock, Father of County Sheriff and Tax Collector, Killed

by Pamela McRae
Two Tishomingo county families are reeling with disbelief following the Friday afternoon shooting of an Iuka man in his home.
Shortly after 3 p.m., June 20th, Hezzie Whitlock, 91, was shot in the chest with a .22 pistol while sitting beside his wife, Jean, in their Ash Street home.
According to investigators, Mrs. Whitlock identified the shooter as her great-nephew, Josh Vandiver, 28, of 206 CR 169, Iuka. Officers immediately went to his home and took him into custody without incident.
Vandiver was charged with murder by the Mississippi Bureau of Investigation. In an initial appearance Monday morning, Tishomingo County Justice Court Judge Billy Glover set bond at $500,000.
Mr. Whitlock was administered resuscitation efforts at the home by emergency responders and at the hospital, where he was pronounced dead. The body was sent to Jackson for an autopsy, which is routine for deaths in which criminal action is suspected, said Tishomingo County Coroner Mack Wilemon.
Hezzie Whitlock was the father of both Tishomingo County Sheriff Glenn Whitlock, and Tishomingo County Tax Collector Paul Whitlock.

Hezzie Whitlock

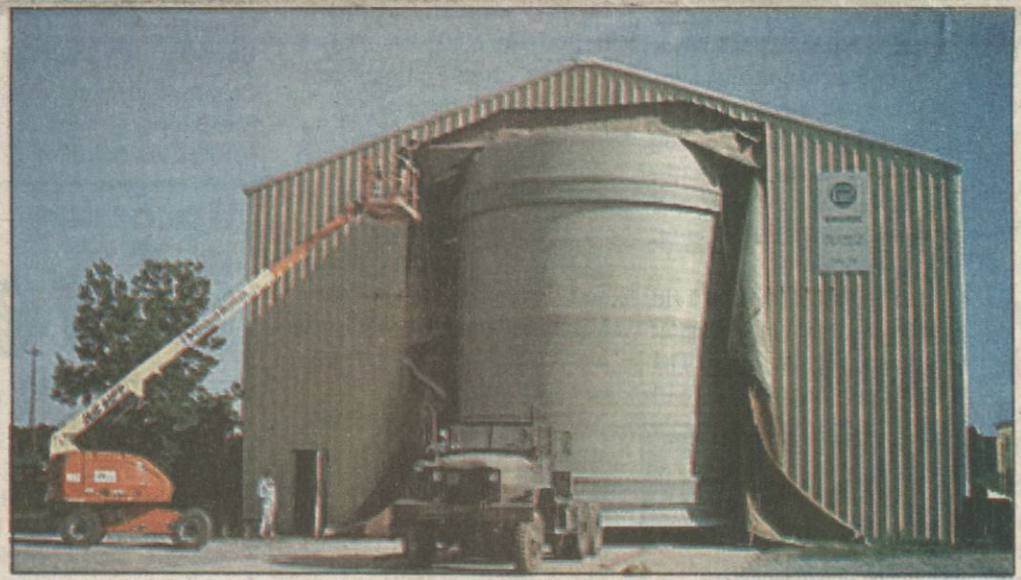

The investigation has been handed over to the Mississippi Bureau of Investigation Division of the Mississippi Highway Patrol, due to the relationship of the victim to the sheriff, not because the suspect lives outside the city limits, as has been reported elsewhere. Vandiver is being held in Lee County for the same reason.
No Motive Known
Iuka police investigators spoke at length with the suspect and he has indicated no motive for the shooting, said Iuka Police Chief Randy Stringer.
Whitlock family members and investigators have verified that Vandiver's grandfather is the brother of Mrs. Jean Whitlock, and there was a peaceful purchase and pickup of an automobile from Hezzie Whitlock earlier in the day last Friday. Both Josh Vandiver and his grandfather, Junior Horne, visited the home to pick up the vehicle, investigators said.

Contrary to rumors, Mr. Whitlock and young Josh had no known conflicts.
"We are just perplexed, to say the least," said Hezzie's son Paul Whitlock on Monday. "Daddy was a farmer all his life, and he never met a stranger," said Paul. "He refused to say anything bad about anyone."
Two Families Affected
The Vandiver family is similarly puzzled over the behavior of Josh, who they think may have been affected mentally by a series of wrecks, and the deaths of his father and his grandmother. They have recently observed an increasing imbalance in his behavior, said his mother, Barbara Vandiver.
They said they were in the process of seeking help last Friday in getting treatment for the young man, who has had no history of violence or conflict with the law, and didn't have any personal conflict with Mr. Whitlock, according to family members.
Hezzie K. Whitlock died June 20th. He was a member of Pleasant Hill United Methodist Church and was a friend to many.
Services were at 11 a.m. Monday with

Bro. Doug Christie officiating. Burial was at Oak Grove Cemetery and Cutshall Funeral Home was in charge of all arrangements.
He was preceded in death by his first wife, Rhoda Walker Whitlock, his parents, Charlie and Dosie Whitlock; two sons, James and Gene Whitlock; and infant daughter; nine brothers; and a granddaughter Kimberly Whitlock.
He is survived by his wife, Jean Whitlock, two sons, Paul Whitlock and wife Phyllis, and Glenn Whitlock and wife, Paula; a daughter, Barbara Hathcock and husband Gene; and a daughter-in-law, Myra Whitlock, all of Iuka; ten grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.
Pallbearers were Jon Paul Whitlock, Zach Whitlock, Jacob Whitlock, Bobby Whitlock, Wayne Whitlock, and Terry Bullard. Honorary pallbearers were Eric Hathcock, Brian Moore, Dylan Drinkard, Alex Hathcock, Dr. Jim Perkins, Richard Hathcock, Dr. Ben Kitchens, Amos Bates and Clayton Craig.
In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, Memorial and Honor Program, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, Tennessee 38105; or online at www.stjude.org/donate. ## School Board Eyes New Policy for High School Student Checkout

by Pamela McRae
The Tishomingo County School Board met Monday night and heard a proposal from the superintendent for changing the current policy that allows high school students to be checked out by a parent's phone call.
"We have examined similar policies in eight other regional districts, and all but two have eliminated it," said Superintendent Malcolm Kuykendall. At another district, a student was hurt during a falsely executed early dismissal.
The current policy allows a parent to call the school and tell officials to release the student, explained the superintendent. The widespread, but forbidden, use of cell phones by students may have contributed to the proposed change.
After graduation, a student in the county actually let his principal know that he had called on his own behalf to be dismissed multiple times, and that his parent had never called, said Kuykendall.
What the superintendent proposes is for a parent, or their appointee, to sign out any student in person. Additionally, the school can ask that person for identification.
"Our only goal is to protect the students," stressed Kuykendall. Any parties with concerns or suggestions are asked to call the superintendent's office at 423-3206 before July 9th, so that they can be addressed at a discussion on the subject at the July 14th school board meeting.
In other business, the board made some changes to address the increase in fuel costs. Cost of fuel in the mostly rural system was $255,000 last year, and is projected to be at least $400,000 next year.
The activity trip reimbursement fee was raised from 50 cents a mile to $1.50 a mile.
A bid from Fisher Oil of Corinth was approved to furnish bus fuel through use of diesel tanks at Belmont, Tishomingo and Burnsville.

Nearsightedness Not A Disease...

Nearsighted children often become more nearsighted during the years of their most rapid growth. It is not unusual for them to require stronger glasses as often as every six months, outgrowing their prescriptions with every inch they gain in height.

This is not a happy situation, but is certainly no cause for alarm. A child's nearsightedness will NOT progress indefinitely. Rather, since it seems to be connected with growth in some way, the nearsightedness will generally level off when a person reaches adulthood.

Years ago, myopic children were encouraged to avoid reading. In extreme cases they were actually kept out of school. That was rather medieval. Today the opinion is that ordinary reading or schoolwork is ok as long as the child has the proper visual correction. Please remember that myopia (nearsightedness) is not a disease - it's a visual deficiency that can be corrected.

Feb. 3, 1977 - June 26, 2002

It hasn't gotten any easier since that tragic day six years ago, time stood still, family and friends with tears and disbelief and wanting and needing answers to why God took you so fast and sudden. God knew you were tired. He needed you more in Heaven with all your crazy, fun, witty ways that gave your family and friends so much laughter. It was just so hard to have to give you up, the most amazing beautiful soul, best son, brother, husband, friend, and father a person could ever hope to have. I know you're proud of your sons and the way they are growing up, and play sports you loved to play and showoff that amazing talent you had for basketball. We are so honored to have those memories. There isn't a day that goes by that that crazy, crazy fun grin doesn't cross our mind and heart. That helps us to get another day closer to you, Bill, and Barry in Heaven.

We love and miss you,

Jonathan Cutshall with Cutshall Logging of Iuka attended the Mid-South Forestry Equipment Show in Starkville June 6-7, 2008 along with most of the members of his family. He entered the Prentice Knuckle Boom Loader competition and won first place receiving a cash prize of $300 and a very nice trophy.

Jonathan also entered the Skidder Competition winning second place and was awarded a $200 cash prize. I would say Jonathan's attendance and participation "paid off" - aside from learning about all the new equipment available and the continuing education classes for professional loggers.

Mid-South Forestry Equipment Show

The Douglas Cutshall family of Iuka attended the (2008) 25th anniversary of the Mid-South Forestry Equipment Show which was held June 6-7 in Starkville, MS.

The show is the oldest indoor, live logging demonstration in the nation. Here equipment manufacturers are allowed to operate their equipment in actual field conditions. It has long provided a grass-roots technology transfer between loggers, landowners, foresters, and equipment manufacturers.

The base site for the show is 10 acres in size and is permanently located seven miles south of Starkville on MS Highway 25 on Mississippi State University's 8500-acre John W. Starr Memorial Forest. The site includes a 60x100 foot pavilion which was erected in 2003 and is being funded with monies generated from the show itself. A 40-acre live demonstration site and a 10-acre parking area are adjacent to the base site.

The show has changed and improved with time. This year it featured a greatly-expanded live demonstration area and continuing education activities for loggers, landowners, and foresters. It remains a "family show" where spouses and children were welcomed.

Equipment exhibited this year included a full range of logging equipment, trucks and trailers, as well as equipment for landowners and professional foresters.

The in-woods demonstration areas were easily accessible being served by trams and buses. The John W. Starr Memorial RV Park is next to the show site and provides camping facilities for show attendees and equipment exhibitors.

Activities for children this year included Little Folks Skidder Contest, the Truck Stop, the Sand Box, the Little Loggers Limo Tour of the Live Area, a Log Rolling Contest, the Truck Table, and the Air Suspension Experiment. Another activity was the Sawdust Pile of Prizes. This event gave the children the opportunity to dig for approximately 30 seconds for cash and prizes buried in the sawdust pile.

Mr. D. K. Knight Mississippi Loggers Association was one of the sponsors of the Mid-South Forestry Show, and held their bi-annual Banquet on Saturday night serving a wonderful steak dinner.

Featured speaker at the Banquet was D. K. Knight, Co-Publisher/Editor-in-Chief and business partner in Hatton-Brown Publishers, Inc., based in Montgomery, Alabama. Hatton-Brown dominates the forest products publishing field with the titles Timber Harvesting, Southern Loggin' Times, Timber Processing, Southern Lumberman and Panel World. The company also publishes two magazines not related to the forest products industry.

In addition to coaching the corporation's editorial team, knight interfaces with the company's printer, helps manage the business and is an occasional writer and columnist. He became co-publisher and editor-in-chief for Hatton-Brown in 1981. He joined the company in 1968 after a four-year career in newspaper journalism

Health Care Providers Team Up to Provide Sports Physicals for Athletes

On May 17, 2008, local health care providers got together to offer local athletes an opportunity to get their health physicals for the upcoming school year at North Mississippi Medical Center-Iuka. Dr. Margaret Glynn spearheaded the event by gathering several health care professionals together to offer not only physicals but a variety of other screenings and information.

More than 125 young adults took part in the process, and the event is shaping up to be even bigger for next year, when the team hopes to include more screenings and information for young athletes to stay well during their activities.

"By providing comprehensive pre-sports physicals we want to minimize to athletes' risk of injury," said Dr. Glynn, longtime pediatrician and general practitioner in Iuka.

"These physicals are required every year," she said. "Also there are several new immunizations available for this age group."

According to NMMC-Iuka Administrator, Fred Truesdale, Jr., events like this one are the product of networking opportunities from varying agencies.

"These opportunities allow several healthcare entities from varying disciplines to come together and offer the services our community residents need. With rising energy costs and other economic concerns present, healthcare providers are focusing on the specific needs of their customers," said Truesdale.

One parent even spoke to that sentiment indicating that her family had to leave the county last year in order to get this much-needed service for her young athletes. Special thanks go out to Dr. Margaret Glynn for her work, and to others including, but not limited to, Randy McDuffy, ACNP, Ray Justice, RN, the staff of NMMC-Iuka, and all those young athletes who participated in this event.

Funeral Services Held For Gene Haines, 84, of Iuka

Leslie Gene Haines, 84, of Iuka, died Friday, June 20, 2008 at Lakeland Nursing and Rehab in Jackson, MS following a recent stroke.

Gene, a much-loved native of Tishomingo County, had lived at the nursing facility near Jackson for several years to be near his son and family. He made frequent trips back to Iuka and had just recently attended a dinner in Jackson honoring Senator Bob Dole. Mr. Haines and Senator Dole were roommates at Brooklyn College while studying to be in the Army Intelligence in World War II. It was a proud moment for Gene to be recognized by Senator Dole and enjoyed reminiscing about their days together in New York.

Gene Haines was a loving father and grandfather. He was a "gentleman" who loved people and was a good friend to many. He was quick-witted, kind-hearted, and enjoyed a joke, even when it was on him! He worked 53 years at the Iuka Post Office where he was a rural mail carrier and received many awards. He was also a former president of the 1st District Rural Letter Carriers Association.

He was an active member of the Iuka United Methodist Church where he served on the Administrative Board and was a former Chairman. He was also the first president of the Iuka Methodist Men's Club. He was a member and past master of the Iuka Masonic Lodge and was a 32nd degree Scottish Rite mason. He was the former president and member of the Iuka Country Club.

Mr. Haines enjoyed golf, swimming, bridge, and coin collecting. He was a member of the Mensa and Intertel societies for the intellectually gifted for over 25 years. He proudly served in the U. S. Army during

Funeral services were held at 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, June 24 at the Iuka United Methodist Church with Rev. Jon Kaufman officiating. Burial was in Oak Grove Cemetery with Cutshall Funeral Home in charge of the arrangements.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Sarah Haines; a son, Jim Haines; and a daughter, Leslie Haines.

Survivors include one son, Carter Haines and his wife, Jackie of Jackson, MS; one sister, Bettye Guthrie of Cherokee, AL; and three grandchildren, Laura Haines of Jackson, MS, and Sarah Catherine Haines and Jackson Haines, both of Iuka, MS.

Pallbearers were Butch Thomas, Don Waldrep, Frank Brinkley, Jr., John Castleberry, Bill Curtis, Jr., Gary Lomenick, R. L. Brown, III, and D. O. Jourdan, III. Honorary pallbearers were R. L. Little did we know that morning, that God would call your name.

In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone.

For part of us went with you the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories; your love is still our guide.

And though we cannot see you, you are always on our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same.

But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

The family of the late Virginia Davis would like to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to all who helped ease our sorrow. A special thank you to relatives, friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness, thoughts and prayers, cards, calls, flowers, food, visits, hugs and support during this difficult time. Also, a special thanks to Cutshall Funeral Home for their compassion and understanding as well as their professionalism. We would also like to Thank Bro. Greg Philimlee for his reading at the service.

To those who knew her, you were truly blessed because God did not just take an angel; He took an amazing, kind, and wonderful person who meant the world to us. She had a heart of gold and every day we thank God for letting us have her in our lives. Your smile will never fade in our hearts. We miss you so much and will forever love you. "To the world she was but one, but to us she was the world."

Thank you so much,
Edward Davis and family

Duct Tape Tux Could Earn Scholarship

On April 5th, TCHS Senior Tyler Deatherage wore a unique creation to the Tishomingo County High School's junior/senior prom. Tyler created his entire ensemble—tuxedo, hat and shoes—out of pink and green duct tape!

You may ask yourself, "Why would a young man choose to wear duct tape to his senior prom?"

Tyler created and wore this ensemble so he could enter the "2008 Stuck at Prom Duck Brand Duct Tape Scholarship Contest." Tyler said he got the idea after he broke both arms in a skateboarding accident. He knew it would be difficult for him to wear an ordinary tuxedo, so he decided to be creative and also try to win scholarship money. He had read about the scholarship on Fastweb.com, a free scholarship search web site. Tyler was very handsome at the TCHS Prom, and we wish him the best of luck with the scholarship contest!

Relay For Life Raises $25,000 for Cancer Society

The team from Iuka Hospital raised the second largest amount. Organizers send out a huge thank you to all of the volunteers who helped with the record amount raised!

Letter to the Editor

First off, I would like to make it clear that I do not feel that all police officers are bad. I have friends who are police officers. One thing about them that is the same as all other officers is that they are not above making mistakes. Just because any officer makes a mistake doesn't make them a bad police officer.

Yet, in Burnsville it goes far beyond just making simple mistakes and has been that way for far too long. I can't believe that I am the only one who thinks so, I may be the only one to say it but NOT the only one who thinks it. There have been no signs that it's going to get any better. In fact it seems to be getting worse. It isn't that the law is not being enforced but that JUSTICE is not being done either.

One man was arrested by Burnsville PD for "Disorderly Conduct Failure to Comply" MS law (97-35-7) after a woman came to their apartment and started a fight with the man's wife. The husband broke the fight up and called the police and was the one who got arrested. The women were not arrested even though the woman who attacked the man's wife was still on the property and trespassing. The judge noted this fact in his ruling but still found the man guilty.

The police refused to take the woman into custody as a citizen's arrest which is what the husband wanted before he was arrested. MS law (99-3-1 sub. 1) the law that gives the police the power to make arrests as police officers and states in the last part of that paragraph that "Private persons may also make arrests."

In fact the only way to have some one arrested for a misdemeanor if the police do not see it and in some cases even if they do is to file a complaint at city hall and only if the judge issues a warrant. MS law (99-3-1 sub. 1) doesn't require a citizen to file a complaint before making an arrest for a crime they themselves saw even if they were the victims of the crime but this law has never been enforced.

Burnsville PD arrested another man after he walked out to his driveway to see what was going on when the police had a man stopped that pulled into the end of his driveway. At court the police said the reason they arrested the man that lived in the home was because the police officer told the man to go back inside his home and instead he just backed off some 25 to 30 feet and sat on the back of his own car and watched. The man was arrested for "Disorderly Conduct Failure to Comply" MS law (97-35-7). It should be pointed out that the man that had been stopped was still sitting in his car while the other man that was just watching was being arrested. Only after did the police find that the man in the car was driving without a license and was arrested himself.

Burnsville PD broke up a fight in the middle of the street. The police only arrested one of the women who were fighting. The police officer said that the other woman did not have a weapon even though two witnesses, one about 100 yards away and the other 20 yards away, said they both had weapons. The woman that the officer arrested was charged with aggravated assault.

The next day the police told the woman that was arrested that she couldn't sign papers at city hall to have the other woman charged and arrested as the police in the first case I spoke about said that you could do. If this is not playing favorites I don't know what is.

Burnsville PD gave another person a ticket for failure to yield for emergency vehicle when he did pull over in less than seven tenths of a mile when it was safe to do so. The driver was not trying to evade the police. He was just young and an inexperienced driver. Burnsville PD frisked the driver and his girlfriend and found nothing.

These are just what I have seen and heard myself. There must be others out there that know of more and maybe even worse. If you have you should make a complaint to the mayor and to the board of aldermen in Burnsville as soon as possible. Don't let up until something is done to stop it. Police act like this is what causes citizens to distrust in their government.

Don't be like others that say they just don't want to get involved. That is how the police get away with things like this and it could be only a matter of time before it happens to you and if you don't speak up who will, me? It's not going to stop for one person but it will for many.

As much as I would like to put all the blame on the officers who were involved with each of these cases I can't. The courts and the aldermen and mayors of Burnsville past and present have allowed these actions to happen. The board of aldermen are the one's that hire police officers in Burnsville and are responsible by MS law (21-8-13 sub. 4) for investigating misconduct of the police and all department and if misconduct is found to act accordingly including but not limited to firing an officer.

MS law (21-8-17 sub. 1) makes the mayor the supervisor of all departments in his municipality which includes the police department and order the officer to drop a charge by MS law (21-15-9). MS law (21-15-15) gives the mayor the power to remit and vacate fines. Also the court has the authority to find some one not guilty. Now is the time for them to do the jobs they were elected for and appointed to do or it is time for the citizens of Burnsville to elect those who will. Please don't sit back and let things like this happen in our own town.

TISHOMINGO COUNTY AREA PROPERTIES FOR SALE

Now is a good time to buy. Housing inventory levels in many markets are high and interest rates are at historic lows. Contrary to perceptions, conventional mortgages are widely available at favorable interest rates for the bulk of homebuyers. Buyers with good credit and a realistic view of what they can afford should have no difficulty obtaining mortgage approvals.
