Belmont Girls Beat Ripley 60-55 for State Championship

The 2010 Lady Cardinals overcame a 10-point deficit to beat Ripley in overtime at the Coliseum in Jackson Friday, March 5th, to bring home the school's first Division 3A state championship.

The Lady Cardinals were behind by 10 points at the 15-minute mark, and with only 10 minutes left in regulation Belmont was 8 points down, but a huge hometown crowd at the Coliseum was collectively cheering, especially after missed shots late in the fourth quarter.

In overtime, the girls rallied to pull off their fifth win over the Ripley Lady Cardinals to bring home the school's first 3A "gold ball."

Belmont was reclassified to 3A this year from years as a 2A school.

"These girls have dreamed the dream since they were girls," said Coach Chris Higginbottom in remarks at a community wide celebration Sunday afternoon. "They have seen the generations of champions before them, and worked hard all year to make this happen."

"They will always know they were a part of a championship effort," said Assistant Principal Andy Chumbley on Sunday. "They will know for the rest of their lives that they have the ability to reach back within themselves and pull out that something extra to make a 'fourth quarter comeback' in whatever they attempt."

Higginbottom thanked the community, parents and administration for their support on Sunday.

"You can only put five people on the floor at a time in basketball, but ya'll have been the 'Sixth Man' who has made it all possible for us with your support."

The Lady Cardinals will begin Grand Slam championship play this Thursday night at 7 p.m. against Raymond, the 4A state champions.

Keeping Tradition in the Family

by Pamela McRae

The 2010 Belmont Lady Cardinals have something unique among basketball teams - second generation champs!

Seniors Anna Brooke Page and Zoe Hammock both have moms that also played on Belmont state championship teams in the 1980s under then-coach Malcolm Kuykendall.

Terri Armstrong Page and Tammy Rhodes Hammock were part of the teams that kept Belmont in the state's championship headlines, during the Kuykendall years, when he took teams to twelve state championship games, and brought home the Gold Ball eight times.

Kuykendall praised Higginbottom and his team for bringing back tremendous honor to our town and community. Higginbottom has less than 10 years coaching experience, said Kuykendall.

Meth Arrests Lead to Iuka Burglary Arrests

Pamela McRae
After investigating persons arrested in a February meth lab in Dennis, officials have arrested two people in connection with December burglaries in Iuka.

On February 7th, Tishomingo Sheriff's deputies recovered an active meth lab, at 179 Road 35 in Dennis, and arrested four people with methamphetamine-related charges. At the time, the investigation was ongoing, and names were not released.

Wednesday, Chief Deputy Jay Reynolds announced that the Swindle, 23, and Patricia Pitt, 38, were both charged with manufacturing methamphetamine.

Additionally, Jerry Brown, and Larry Dale Elrod, 30, were charged with possession of two or more precursors to manufacture methamphetamine the same night.

At the scene of the arrest and in the ensuing investigation, authorities found items and gained information that lead to the arrest of James Tilley, 26, and a juvenile in connection with the burglaries of the Mark Farris home, and the Ronnie Tigner home in Iuka on December 29th and 30th, 2009, said Reynolds.

Tilley is still in custody in the Tishomingo County Jail, and the juvenile suspect has been processed through the juvenile court. All those arrested on February 7th have been released on bond and are awaiting grand jury and, then, Circuit Court.

Reynolds said he appreciates the assistance of the Iuka Police Department in the burglary investigation.

Police Catch Juveniles Who Vandalized Old Courthouse

Pamela McRae
The historic Tishomingo Courthouse was the victim of vandalism this weekend and the culprits will be cleaning up their own mess.

The Iuka Police have arrested two juveniles in connection with the incident, which occurred sometime Saturday or early Sunday morning, Iuka Police Chief Randy Stringer said.

Instead of having charges filed, the juveniles are going to court and repair the damage. Under the supervision of their parents, as soon as the weather allows, said Stringer Tuesday.

The damage was done with paint on the back side of the house, and included lewd and trashy words on the back doors, windows, and some of the bricks.

The courthouse was built in 1870, and was just renovated and repainted last year, in a year-long renovation of the historic structure. The Tishomingo County Archives and History Museum is housed inside, and the courtroom upstairs is used for events and meetings.

"I was so brokenhearted, because we worked so hard on the building to get it looking so good," said Tishomingo County Archives and History Museum Executive Director Jan Anglin, who got the call during church Sunday about the museum vandalism. "This

Tri-State Foundation Funds Two Scholarships for MSU

by Pamela McRae

The Tri-State Educational Foundation has funded scholarships for students in the Engineering and Veterinary Schools at Mississippi State University.

Starting in the fall 2010 semester, undergraduates at the Bagley School of Engineering, and graduate/doctorate students at the College of Veterinary medicine will benefit from these two scholarships, each worth $5,000 a year. The scholarships honor two local citizens, Cecil H. Brown and Dr. James Perkins.

Dr. Bob and Sylvia Ferguson, and other Tri-State Educational Foundation members chose to establish the two scholarships from the Foundation, which benefits from the proceeds of Riverhills Bingo in Iuka. The Foundation already funds thousands of dollars in scholarships to students from Tishomingo County and the immediate area, as well.

The scholarships will be awarded by Mississippi State, who will work with the local donors to identify and prefer students from Tishomingo County, so eligible or potential students are encouraged to contact the Foundation for more information and to apply for the scholarships.

The Engineering scholarship is established by Nancy Brown, a board member with Tri-State Foundation, and will honor Cecil H. Brown, a graduate of Mississippi State University. Mr. Brown served in the Navy prior to beginning his studies in agricultural engineering. He began his career in a teaching position working with veterans, and joined Tishomingo County Electric Power Association where he served as office manager. He retired in 1986. He has been very active in the community, with the Boy Scouts of America, 4-H Clubs, Rotary and the Iuka United Methodist Church. He was married to the late Lydia Kirk Brown and they have two sons, five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. In his retirement, Mr. Brown enjoys

Tishomingo County Youth Participate in Kick Butts on March 24

On March 24, Mississippi youth in Tishomingo County will join kids in other counties and states to voice their opposition of Big Tobacco during 2010 Kick Butts Day.

Kick Butts Day is an annual nationwide initiative in which kids lead the effort to snuff out youth tobacco use. As part of this year's Kick Butts Day celebration, the Mississippi Tobacco-Free Coalition of Tishomingo County is working with area students to help them educate their peers about tobacco companies' deceptive marketing practices.

"The tobacco companies call kids 'replacement smokers.' Kick Butts Day is an opportunity for participating youth to speak out and tell others they are tobacco-free," said Faith Robinson, Director of The Mississippi Tobacco-Free Coalition of Alcorn, Prentiss, Tippah, and Tishomingo Counties.

Tobacco use is the leading preventable cause of death in the United States, killing more than 400,000 people every year. Every day, more than 4,000 kids try their first cigarettes while another 1,000 kids become addicted smokers, one-third of whom will die prematurely as a result. Sixty-nine thousand Mississippi kids now under 18 will ultimately die prematurely from smoking, according to the Campaign for Tobacco-Free Kids.

"Mississippi's kids play a huge role in helping to reduce youth tobacco use in our state," said Roy Hart, Director of the Mississippi State Department of Health (MSDH) Office of Tobacco Control. "The kids participating in Kick Butts Day 2010 are sending two very important messages: they want the tobacco industry to stop targeting them with advertising and they want elected leaders to do more to protect them from tobacco."

Through MSDH's local tobacco-free coalitions, young advocates take part in a variety of tobacco prevention activities throughout the school year including working with elected officials to develop policies that reduce youth tobacco use and exposure to secondhand smoke and educating their peers about the risks of tobacco use.

The Mississippi Tobacco-Free Coalition of Tishomingo County is a community-based coalition that works to prevent the initiation of tobacco use among youth, reduce exposure to secondhand smoke, promote tobacco cessation services to eliminate tobacco disparities. This is funded by the State Department of Health.

For more information about the Kick Butts event in Tishomingo County or for cessation contact the Mississippi Tobacco Free Coalition of Alcorn, Prentiss and Tishomingo Counties at 662.423.6500 or www.HealthyMS.com fishing, gardening, cooking and church work.

The Veterinary scholarship has been established by Tri-State Foundation Board members Judy and Kenny Schaper, and honors Dr. James F. Perkins, a long-time local veterinarian. Perkins graduated from MSU and Auburn, and became Tishomingo County's first licensed veterinarian in 1971. He is a member of the Mississippi Veterinary Medical Association and the American Veterinary Medical Association. He has served a number of roles with Mississippi Farm Bureau, the Tishomingo County Cattlemen's Association, the Iuka Rotary Club, the Iuka Chamber of Commerce, the Iuka School Board, and the Mississippi Forestry Association. He has been involved in farming and ranching for many years and is married to Kay Emerson Perkins who is very involved in the veterinary practice. They have six children and seventeen grandchildren.

Insight Into Eyesight

Dr. Phillip Gray
Senile Macular Degeneration

If detected early enough, senile macular degeneration, the leading cause of blindness in the elderly, can be treated very successfully in the eye specialist's office with a laser beam. Treatment delayed for longer than two weeks after the first symptoms appear reduces the success rate considerably, whereas treatment started earlier prevents progression of senile macular degeneration in over eighty percent of cases.

So important is early detection and treatment that it is a good idea for the elderly to check their vision on a daily basis for this potential problem.

The test can be quickly performed without anybody's help or any special equipment. Merely stare, one eye at a time (covering the other eye with your hand), at a long straight line, such as a door frame. If, to either eye, the line appears bent or twisted, or if a black spot gets in the way, tell your eye doctor about it right away.

Local Hardee's Employee Wins Company-Wide Biscuit Challenge

Hardee's is holding a nationwide biscuit competition to find the "best of the best" when it comes to baking Hardee's famous "made from scratch" biscuits. These biscuit bakers are tested on knowledge and execution of biscuit making procedures, knowledge of biscuit equipment, personal appearance and, of course, the biscuit's appearance, texture, temperature, size, and weight. There are several bake-offs leading up to the national competition that will be held in St. Louis in May. Our local Hardee's biscuit baker, Don Barnes, has had a streak of success with these challenges. He first competed at the Booneville Hardee's in February. There he took the Northeast MS Champ title. On March 3rd he traveled to West Point, MS where he competed against 6 other biscuit bakers that represented the best in the company throughout Mississippi, Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Alabama. After the scoring was complete, Don was named the Diamond Hospitality Franchise Biscuit Baker Champion. Don's next competition will be held near Little Rock, AR. We wish Don the best of luck as he represents Iuka in the coming up challenges. GOOD LUCK DON!

Thank You

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who came to help us in the near tragedy that occurred in our family on Saturday afternoon. We can never express the deep gratitude for all that ya'll have done. To the First Responders, Burnsville VFD, Matt, Brian, Jeff, Scotty, my Dad, and others whom I didn't see or don't remember: your quick response literally saved lives. People like you are what make this country great, and you people are who make Northeast Mississippi great.

To Bro. Scotty and our Chapel Hill Church family: you guys dropped everything and came to help. Love really is a verb. Ya'll are a testament to the action-love that Christians should display. Afterwards, several commented on how impressed they were with your show of support and love. I'm proud to call you brothers and sisters. Your prayers (and those of others) brought about an awesome work of God that day. The calls, visits, food, and support ya'll have given are all appreciated.

To the Iuka Hospital staff, the Air-Evac team and the LeBonheur Hospital staff: ya'll went above and beyond any service you had to perform. Your service went a long way in calming nerves.

To the many we don't even know who prayed and sent electronic-prayer alerts: thank you. God is definitely in the healing business.

To our friends, co-workers, and community members who prayed, helped, and called: thank you for your concern and faith.

To our wonderful Lord Jesus: thank you for the gift of life that you gave back. Miracles still happen.
 God Bless You All,
 James, Tina, Ali, and Lilly Monroe

EXCUSES, EXCUSES: WHY NOT EXERCISE?

IUKA, Miss.—We have excuses for being late to work, for not visiting the in-laws and for eating too much fast food. We're full of alibis when it comes to exercise, too. Here are the top excuses for not working out - busted.

Excuse: I can't afford to join a gym.

Busted! If you want to get fit on the cheap, get active at home. "There are a lot of fun cardio activities you can do outside, like running, cycling or even walking with a friend, the kids or your dog," says Emily Wadkins, director of the North Mississippi Medical Center-Iuka Wellness Center.

Excuse: I have no time to exercise.

Busted! "You don't need a lot of time," Wadkins says. "You can get health and fitness benefits from doing short, intense bursts of activity." Try doing 15 minutes of an aerobics video twice a day or hoisting dumbbells - or cans of corn - in between loads of laundry.

Excuse: I'm too tired.

Busted! Just get going and you'll be happy you did. "Exercise will actually give you more energy and make you feel better," Wadkins says. "If you lace up your running shoes and head outside, chances are you'll feel much more energetic after your workout. It doesn't really make sense, but you really do feel more energetic after exercise than before!"

Fitness experts at the Iuka Wellness Center can help you get past the ex-

Needle Chasers Make 57 Pillowcases for St. Jude

Members of the Needle Chasers Quilt Guild of Tishomingo County, MS, recently completed fifty-seven pillowcases for the children of St. Jude's Research Hospital. The charity project was in conjunction with American Patchwork and Quilting's "1 million pillowcases" challenge. The challenge was the brainchild of Cindy White, who lost her son, Ryan, to cancer in 2008. While Ryan was undergoing treatment, Cindy both sews and quilts, tried to make his hospital room feel more like home. After Ryan's death Cindy founded ConKerr Cancer, a nonprofit organization, and the project, "A Case for Smiles," lives on in Ryan's memory.

Letter To The Editor

I would like to relate an experience I had a few weeks back concerning the Iuka Hospital. It is no secret that certain people of our area look upon this medical facility with disdain. I am now in a position to give a truthful testimonial as to the value of the Iuka Hospital to the community. On a Friday evening in January, I suffered a heart attack. My wife drove me to the hospital after calling ahead to alert the people in the emergency room. I was met at the front door with a wheelchair and hustled into the emergency room. No less than eight people hovered around me, giving me injections, nitroglycerin, IV's and EKG's. I was informed right away that this facility could only stabilize me until I could be transported to Tupelo for further treatment. My pain subsided somewhat under the attention of Doctor Lamb, the emergency room doctor. However, a few minutes later, I suffered another extremely serious heart attack. Doctor Lamb offered an injection which was not always successful with heart patients possibly have consequences, brain hemorrhage, immediate death. I wanted mine and my consent before using me. Due to my intense we agreed to the and Doctor administered it immediately. It was a blood thinner offered immediately was then transported by helicopter to the Mississippi Medical Center. While being wheeled into the emergency room, I was stricken by an even more serious attack. I was prepped for immediate heart surgery. The next morning I was awakened the next intensive care. The thing that I do here, is to pray for hospital emergency workers at Iuka. The professionals and concern for me treatment they gave priority one. I am not enough about Doctor who knew exactly do and did it. I have a new respect for the at Iuka Hospital. Allen Hendrix, Burnsville

On February 18 and 19, 2010, Jerry Ervin treated the students of Ms. Hall's Spanish classes to a presentation of his travels to Panama and Guatemala. He showed them pictures of people, places and products of these countries as well as actual items made or grown there. In June Mr. Ervin will again be traveling to Guatemala on a mission trip and he enlisted the students in helping out by donating dental hygiene items or teaching supplies for the children of Guatemala. Pictured are Alena Freshour, Morgan Clark, Nathan Gilchrist and Erin Alexander, Spanish II students with Mr. Ervin as he shows them a handmade shirt from Guatemala and is wearing another shirt and hat from there. Morgan Clark has promised to tell her class about her father's upcoming mission trip to Costa Rica also.

Go Forth Ministries Who We Are

Who one IS NOT
 One as much as who IS. From the beginning, Forth Ministries chose to be a church, any church, another church. We wanted to be THE church - a body of like-minded Christ followers whom God called out for the purpose of going into the community to be the Hands and Feet of Christ.

The word "church" comes from the Greek word ekklesia which means a "gathering out of" and simply means a group of people called out for a particular purpose. For example, in the Greek translation of the Old Testament ekklesia is used to designate the "gathering" of Israel for the particular purpose of the Nation of Israel as a whole.

The word ekklesia was in use during Paul's day, but it began to take on strong religious connotations which were partly borrowed from a Jewish idea. But in the New Testament, it is used to indicate a body that is entirely new. The Christian community was designated for the first time as the ekklesia (Acts 2:47) to differentiate it from the Jewish community synagogue.

Go Forth Ministries' purpose is to be in partnership with the local church of all denominations. We are not in competition with anyone. We are not out to "steal" members. (In fact, we don't even have a membership.) We even attempt to plan our "gatherings" at times not to conflict with the local church. It is our purpose to work with the local church to accomplish the tasks that Christ commanded of His followers.

In the gospels of Matthew and Mark, a man asks Christ what is the greatest commandment. Christ responds - "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength." The second is this: "Love your neighbor as yourself." (Mark 12: 30-31) In the gospel of Luke a man asks Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus then tells the parable of a man who is robbed, stripped of his clothing, beaten and left for dead. Along comes a priest and a layman - two religious men who, upon seeing the man, cross the road to avoid him - they ignore him. Then along came a "Samaritan" - a hated foreigner. The Samaritan had compassion on the broken man. He administered first aid, gave the man a ride to the closest inn, made him comfortable and paid for his extended stay. At the end of the parable, Christ then asked the questions, "Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?" The man replied, "The one who had mercy on him." "Jesus told him, 'Go and do likewise.'" (Luke 10: 29-37)

Go Forth Ministries is called out to GO into the community to be the hands and feet of Christ - we seek to be a neighbor by showing kindness to those who are hurting, broken and need. We invite you, The Church, to join us as we GO!

Lady Cardinals Win 3A State Championship Game

The previous week at BHS has been nothing short of wonderful! Our talented Lady Cardinal basketball players took home the title of 3A STATE CHAMPIONS on Friday after a nail-biter versus the Ripley Lady Tigers at the "Big House" in Jackson. The game was close as I had predicted and even went into overtime after the score was tied up 51-51 just seconds before the final buzzer. Although the Tigers led for a large portion of the game, our girls prevailed and brought home the gold! Words cannot express how appreciative we are to the entire team for all the hard work that they put into this season. If you happen to see a player or coach, be sure to congratulate them! It was a somewhat emotional game for the senior basketball players who knew that it could be their last game to ever be played.

Senior player Mallory

Torrence shared her feelings with me about the win. She said, "I think that the Lord really blessed us this year! We have a devotion before each game, and I think that those really helped us all to get closer to God. I am so happy to say that all the sweat and hard work has finally paid off!"

That quote alone clearly exemplifies the attitude that many of our players have, and gives us reason to be even more proud of them. As a result of their big win, the girls will be participating in the "Grand Slam". They will play the first game Thursday against Raymond.

CARDINAL CHATTER
by Carmen Wallace

Baseball gave us more good news this week with 2 wins on Saturday (Baldwyn, Ackerman). This week, they will face Baldwyn and Red Bay. Hopefully, the boys will give us 2 more wins! Great job, Cards!

There is even more good news to come with SPRING BREAK next week. I'm going to speak for all students (and teachers) and say that we cannot wait. Students have a variety of things planned for next week during the break. Junior Briana Credille said that she'd be spending the week sleeping late and catching up on family time. Sophomore Abby Reeves shared that she'd be heading down to Destin, FL with a friend's family to spend the week on the beach. No matter how one chooses to spend next week, it is agreed that it is a much needed break. I hope everyone gets their share of R & R. Have a blessed week!
