Local Ballerina Stars in Tupelo Ballet's Production of The Nutcracker

Miss Isabella Webb, an 11-year-old sixth grader at Iuka Middle School has been cast in the starring role of 'Clara' in the Tupelo Ballet's 2011 magical production of 'The Nutcracker.'

Isabella, a student of ballet for more than six years auditioned for the title role in the holiday favorite this past September. She earned the coveted role from a field of seven contenders and will join the Corps de Ballet of Sugar Plum Fairies, Wooden Soldiers and Life Size Toys on stage this Saturday.

Isabella's little sister Amelia

Juliet will also be dancing in the production playing the part of a Little Bo Peep doll. Amelia is seven years old and a second grade student at Iuka Elementary School. Both girls are ballet students of Mrs. Sharon Long of Tupelo Academy of Dance.

The Nutcracker Ballet was first performed in 1892 and has become a beloved holiday tradition world wide. This is the 29th year the Tupelo Ballet has presented the elaborate production of The Nutcracker. Isabella has been rehearsing tirelessly as she prepares for her debut as "Clara", one of the story's main characters. Isabella and her sister Amelia, along with a full symphony orchestra, will be featured in this year's holiday production on December 3, 2011 at the Tupelo High School Performing Arts Center at 2:00 pm. There will be a second showing of the presentation at 7:30 pm for reserved seating.

Isabella and Amelia are the daughters of Mike and Amy Webb of Iuka. Grandparents are W K and Jewel Webb of Siltillo and Jim and Nan Long of Fulton.

"Just a Simple Christmas" Theme of Iuka Parade Friday Night

The 2011 Iuka Christmas Parade which will roll on this Friday night, December 2nd at 6:30 p.m. "Just a Simple Christmas" will be the theme this year and all holiday spirited people are invited to participate.

Entries will line up on Maria Lane, no later than 6 p.m.

Dr. Philip and Margaret Gray will be the grand marshals for the Iuka Christmas Parade Friday night.

Dr. Gray has had a thriving optometrist clinic in Downtown Iuka for 33 years, and both his children have both joined the practice in recent years as optometrists.

Dr. Gray has been taking care of eyes in Tishomingo County for a long time, with office days in Belmont, and Baldwyn, as well.

Margaret taught for 23 years in the Tishomingo County Schools, and is enjoying volunteering at the Helpful Samaritan Food Pantry in her retirement. Margaret and Philip are both members of Iuka Baptist Church.

Their children Adam, and wife Rebecca, and Emily, and husband Justin Presson, are carrying on the tradition of being part of the thriving downtown business community like their parents.

Burnsville Parade Monday Night

The Burnsville Christmas parade will be Monday, December 5th, beginning at 6 p.m. Lineup is in the Sisters' parking lot, and spectators can stand along Washington and Fulton Streets, and on the Burnsville School grounds.

The Burnsville Area Chamber of Commerce announced this week the selection of Tim Grissom as the Chamber's Citizen of the Year for 2011. This award is given annually for exemplary volunteer efforts demonstrating creativity, vision, leadership, and citizenship by providing service to programs and activities that positively impact the welfare of the Burnsville area.

Tim has lived in the Burnsville area for more than forty years. A 1984 graduate of Burnsville High School, Tim has been employed the past 25 years at Caterpillar as a machinist.

Tim and wife, Nancy are both very active in The Burnsville Area Chamber of Commerce as well as church and community activities in the area. They have three children, Cody, Colton and Hannah. Usually the whole family can be seen working together on various community projects.

Some of the things that make Tim a quality person for the Citizen of the Year are as follows: He has served as Vice President and President of The Burnsville Area Chamber of Commerce. He has chaired and served on many committees that have been responsible for events such as the Waterway Festival, Christmas Parade, and Trunk-R-Treat for Halloween, projects in Rainbow Park, and The Burnsville Municipal Park. Recently he has been working to obtain a Self Help Small Municipal Grant for the baseball fields as well as other facilities in the park. He has served as the Vice President of the Babe Ruth Baseball Organization.

There is a saying that "if you want something done find a busy

Tim Grissom, 2011 Burnsville Citizen of the Year, with wife, Nancy person to do it". That certainly would be true in Tim's case. He is a very unselfish person with multi-talents. He not only can be a leader but he will often do the hard and dirty jobs that not many people want to do.

The Citizen of the Year also serves as the Grand Marshal for the Christmas parade on December 5th.

Angel Tree Has More than 100 Angels Still Available for Adoption

Tishomingo County Angel Tree still has more than 120 angels to adopt for Christmas gift giving, and the Junior Auxiliary and Families First are asking everyone to call, or come by to help a child have a good Christmas.

According to Families First Director Janet Fulton, they have a lot of children who need a little help this Christmas, and some more are still out there who have been recommended.

Families are asked to spend $50 to $75 for younger children, and $75-100 for older children. All donations are tax deductible, and you can donate money for the project, and the Families First and Junior Auxiliary members will do the shopping for you.

Deadline is December 9th to get your angel gifts back to the Families First center for distribution on December 14th through 15th.

Call the Families First office at 423-7318 to adopt your angel today.

Children will enjoy Christmas stories, making crafts, tree-trimming, face painting, and Christmas games. Children can visit with Santa and get a present to take home. Parents will need to bring their camera for pictures. Mrs. Claus and all of her helpers will be there to make sure that fun is had by all. Refreshments will also be served. Door prizes and a grand prize will be given away. This event is supported by the Friends of the Library and it will be free, thanks to lots of great community support.

Tishomingo Parade Saturday Night

The Tishomingo Parade will be Saturday night beginning at 6. Lineup is at the school beginning at 5 p.m. Stand along Main Street/Highway 25 to get the best views!

Dr. Danny McClung was announced as Tishomingo's Citizen of the Year last Tuesday night at the Community Thanksgiving Service at Carter's Branch Baptist Church.

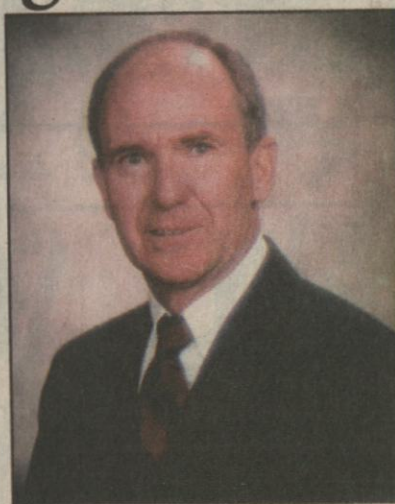

As the Citizen of the Year for 2011, McClung will serve as Grand Marshal of the Tishomingo Christmas Parade Saturday night.

In his many roles, Dr. McClung has had a positive impact on people in the Tishomingo community and beyond. People know him as a teacher, coach, principal, husband, father and grandfather. At his church, Tishomingo Baptist, he is also a deacon, Sunday school teacher and treasurer.

Raised in Paden, Danny was a 1964 graduate of Tishomingo High School. After graduating college, he returned to Tishomingo in the fall of 1968 to teach and coach basketball - he wasn't much older than the boys he was coaching!

For the next seventeen years he taught World History and American History to hundreds of Tishomingo students.

One of his greatest loves of his education career was coaching basketball, especially a perfect season and 31-1 record in 1976. He helped coach football for five years, and remembers winning a conference championship with an overtime victory over Faulkner. As a coach of the baseball team, he was part of two runner-up state champion baseball teams.

Dr. Danny McClung, 2011 Tishomingo Citizen of the Year

After coaching, he served as principal of Tishomingo for fourteen more years.

McClung stays active today working with the Families First Organization and doing contract work with the Mississippi Department of Education's Office of School Improvement.

Danny and his wife Brenda have a daughter, a son, and three grandchildren. He enjoys golf and playing football or kickball with his grandchildren to stay in shape.

The Tishomingo County Sheriff's Department is coordinating a Women's Self Defense class that will be instructed by Lt. White at Golden Center Baptist Church Family Life Center's gym. The weekly program will be held on Tuesdays. The first class will begin on January 10, 2012, and will last around six (6) months with a couple of breaks during that time period. Each class will start at 7 p.m. and end around 8:30 p.m. The class is open to all women; however, ladies 14-17 years old will need to have the female guardian present during the class. Linda Reed is the contact person for this class and she can be contacted by phone at 662-423-7000 and email linda_reed@tishomingocountysheriff.com

2011 Tishomingo County 4-H Awards Banquet

The Tishomingo County 4-H Awards Banquet was held on Thursday, November 10th, 2011 at 6:30 p.m. at the Tishomingo County Fairgrounds to honor 4-H members who have excelled in 4-H experiences on the county, district, state, regional, and national levels over the past year. Approximately 100 4-H members, volunteers, parents, family members, distinguished guests, and staff members were present at the banquet. Mrs. Kindra Whitlock, Tishomingo County 4-H Agent, opened the night with a welcome. Dustin Lambert, 4-H Advisory Council Treasurer, gave the invocation followed by the Pledge of Allegiance led by Jonah Holland, 4-H Junior

County Council President. Several distinguished guests were present including Dr. Jean Crane - 4-H Advisory Council President, Representative Bubba Carpenter, Dr. Jim Perkins - Tishomingo Co. Farm Bureau Board President, Mr. Donald Crane - Farm Bureau Board, & Mr. Carol Tucker - Farm Bureau Board, and Brandon Grisson - Tishomingo County Board of Supervisors. Following a pleasant meal, each 4-H member was honored individually for their hard work and achievements through recognition. Members and volunteers of each club were also asked to stand to be recognized as well as individual members and volunteers. This year nine individuals who excelled throughout the year were presented with special awards. The Cloverbud (5-7 year olds) Rookie Award was presented to Cory Lovelace of Belmont. The Junior (8-13 year olds) Rookie Award resulted in a tie between Cassidy Hutcheson of Tishomingo and Emma Sparks of Belmont. To be awarded the rookie award, 4-H members must have been in the 4-H program less than 2 years and complete an application. After losing a very special 4-H volunteer, Mr. Stephen Holland, in November of 2010, the 4-H volunteer award was renamed the Stephen Holland Memorial Volunteer Award. The Stephen Holland Memorial Volunteer Award was awarded to Chris Holland of Belmont. Five 4-H members were also awarded the Standard of Excellence Award. The Standard of Excellence is a very prestigious award gained by the number of points an individual gains for their 4-H activities and experiences throughout the given year. These individuals go above and beyond to excel in the 4-H program through participation in projects, workshops, contests at all levels, leadership activities, and community service. The junior winners were Jonah Holland of Belmont, Lane Hutcheson of Tishomingo, and Emma Sparks of Belmont. The senior winners were Katelin Wallace and Dallas Strick-

len. The junior high point award went to Jonah Holland. The senior high point award went to Katelin Wallace. Dr. Jean Crane provided some closing comments, thoughts, and challenges for the upcoming year. She challenged our 4-H members and volunteers to strive to make 2011 even better! The banquet was adjourned with the 4-H Pledge led by Luke South, State & National 4-H Shooting Sports Ambassador. Ms. Kindra would like to say a special thanks to all of those who attended and assisted in making this night a special night for our 4-H members. She also would like to thank everyone for making 2011 an outstanding year and she challenges each of you to make the 2012 year the best 4-H year yet!

Everything Is Falling

While walking the dog down the drive this morning, rubbed my hand through my hair and amazingly the sun rays was just right to prove something to me that I did not want to know. One single hair from my head was falling and the gentle breeze was letting it ride until it was no longer in my sight. Don't guess I will ever see that hair again. It is gone into oblivion. That is not the most frightening thing. As I rubbed my hand through my hair again, more hair was falling. Will all my hair fall into oblivion?

This set my mind into a spin about things that are falling. I remember several years ago reading about a chick referred to as Chicken Little. The chick believed the sky was falling. An acorn had fallen from the oak tree and bounced off the chick's head, thus the sky is falling. He told all his friends and they believed Chicken Little's story, falling in line with the notion that it was quickly coming to pass. From Chicken Little come Chicken Licken, Henny Penny, Cockey Lockey, Duckey Luckey, Drakey Lakey, Goosey Loosey, Gander Lander, Turkey Lurkey, and Foxy Loxey. The names of the main characters in the fable - Chicken Little/Chicken Licken and Henny Penny - and the fable's central phrase - The sky is falling! - have been applied to people accused of being unreasonably afraid, or those trying to incite an unreasonable fear in those around them. I was surprised to find out there is even something called Chicken Little syndrome.

[The Merriam-Webster Dictionary records the first application of the name Chicken Little to 'one who warns of or predicts calamity, especially without justification' as dating from 1895.[2] although idiomatic use of the name significantly predates that attestation.[3] Because of this association, the tale has become politicized.]

Have you ever seen a person that has a fear of spiders, snakes, the sky falling, or any other thing that causes them to think or become so fearful that it affects their daily lives? Think about these things: The stars are falling, dandruff is falling, arches are falling, teeth are falling (out), leaves are falling, stock market is falling, health is falling, children are falling (and they jump up), the elderly are falling (they lay there and say "help I have fallen"), my chest is falling, my skin is falling from the top of my head and therefore causing my face to be falling, the rain is falling, snow is falling, and my strength is falling. With everything falling, it sure looks like the earth will keep getting heavier and heavier and finally it will fall. See how ridiculous some things, when carried to an end makes no sense at all.

What has all this got to do with that hair that fell from my head? I don't know. But I do know the older I become, the many things that I once worried about might happen and never did materialize, I learned to let those things go. If you have something upsetting your life today, just let it go with the wind.

When a leaf falls to the ground, it goes back to the dust. Don't think I could find the fallen hair. One day, I too, must go the way of all life. Our lives will come to an end. This is real and not a Chicken Little theory. We will fall as time marches on as we know time. Enjoy the good things this day, tomorrow never comes. Just do what's right! OOPS! Dropped my biscuit!!

Iuka Baptist Church Children's Christmas Cantata

The Iuka Baptist Church Children's Choir will present iHope Christmas on Sunday, December 4th, 2011 at 6:30 p.m. Children grades one through six will perform, and will be directed by Bobby Counce. The main theme of the musical is faith, learning important lessons from the different characters in the Christmas story. This story follows a group of kids who created their own Web show called iHope (based on the name of the main character - Hope). They want to do a Christmas special, but feel like they need more inspiration and information before going "live". To find what they are looking for, they seek Hope's great-aunt, who used to be in show business. Hope and her friends find themselves with some pretty eccentric "showbiz-type" people who inspire them for their show.

Local officials and others gathered on Sunday, November 20, 2011, for an open house and ribbon cutting for Paden's new town hall.

The old town hall was a one room building purchased from the post office in the 1972 when the post office was officially closed.

Mayor Pam Oswalt stated that "many worked for a long time to bring this project to fruition. We would like to especially thank Wanda Christian and Sharon Gardner at Northeast Mississippi Planning and Development District, Representative Bubba Carpenter and Senator J. P. successful community. We commend the leadership and citizens of Paden for a job well done."

The architect for the project was Cook-Coggin Engineers, of Tupelo, and the construction contractor

Pastor's Tidbits

Evangelist, Phone (662)427-0350

When Did The New Testament Actually Begin?

I think there is much confusion among even believers concerning the division between the Old Testament and the New Testament. Part of this confusion revolves around the words in the fly leaves of our Bibles that say, "New Testament". Even though men meant well by adding these words to the inspired Scriptures, they still may confuse some people. I am saying that the new testament, or covenant, does not begin with Matthew 1:1, nor do the other gospels begin with the new testament. The actual new testament, meaning also a covenant or an agreement, does not begin until after Jesus' death. So, we would have to say that the new testament begins with the death and resurrection of Christ, which is not recorded until Matthew chapters 27-28; Mark chapters 15-16;

Luke chapters 23-24 and John chapters 19-20.

This means that many things that were taught and practiced in the earlier parts of these books were really "Old Testament teaching". When Jesus told a healed leper to "go and offer the gift that Moses commanded for a testimony unto them", He was teaching Old Testament truth (see Matthew 8:4). We are not being commanded to do such in our day, yet many people look at everything taught in the four gospels as being for church practice in our day. This is why some denominations are confused on sabbath keeping, which is never commanded for the church. We observe the first day of the week, the day on which Jesus arose.

Now we will look at Hebrews 9:16-17 for clear teaching on when the New Testament actually began:

"For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth." We speak of "the last will and testament" of men, a means by which men leave their possessions to those whom they choose. Such wills are of absolutely no strength as long as the maker of the will is still living. This is exactly the same thing that God is saying in our verses above; Jesus had to die, before the new testament became effective, so the old testament was still in force, until Jesus died! Those of us who teach the Bible need to pay close attention to this truth, for it will help us to rightly divide the word of truth! By the way, the old covenant lost its power when the new covenant was ratified by Jesus' death, so that we are not under the laws of the Old Testament (Hebrews 8:13).

State FBLA Delivers Supplies for Okitibbeha County Hospital Intensive Care Unit

The Executive Board of the Future Business Leaders of America completed their State Community Service Project by collecting and donating supplies to the OCH Hospital Auxiliary in Starkville, MS, to be delivered and used in the new Intensive Care Unit upon completion. The new ICU unit will house the state-of-the-art ICU room, waiting area and hospitality suites. The supplies donated will go a long way in aiding patients' family members in a time of distress.

Olevia Page, state reporter from Northeast Jones High School, Laurel, MS, organized the project as part of her state responsibilities and the other state officers participated in gathering and presenting the donated items. Officers made their presentation to the hospital auxiliary unit of the Okitibbeha County Hospital after attending the state Fall Leadership Conference that was held on the campus of MSU on Friday, October 14, 2011.

Belmont Senior Christmas Bash Thursday Night after Parade

Hello again, Belmont High School students. I hope everyone had a pleasant Thanksgiving Break and is looking forward to the busy weeks ahead of us. We have only three weeks of school until Christmas Break!

Although the BHS Cardinals and Lady Cardinals Basketball Teams took a break from team play during Thanksgiving, things will get fired up again as the teams take on Myrtle on Tuesday, November 29th, at home. This will be our last varsity home game of 2011, so everyone come out and support our basketball programs! The teams will also face Collinwood, TN, again on Friday, December 2nd, at Collinwood while the Lady Cardinals will travel to Pontotoc on Saturday, December 3rd, to play in the "Battle of the Best." Both teams will head to Baldwin on Tuesday, December 6th, to face the Bearcats and Lady Bearcats.

The annual Belmont Christmas Parade will be held on Thursday, December 1st, at 6:00. Many of our students will be participating, including the Belmont High School Cardinal Marching Band and the BHS Christmas Queen, Halie Bell. It is our town's turn this year to host the Northeast Mississippi Community College Marching Band for the parade. Everyone come out and enjoy the sights and sounds of the season. Don't forget, also, that the BHS Cardinal Marching Band will be performing in the Tishomingo Christmas Parade Saturday evening, December 3rd, as well.

Seniors, get excited about our Senior Christmas Bash coming up on Thursday, December 1st. The party will be held at First Baptist Church, and it will begin at 7 following the Christmas Parade. I hope to see you all there!

The 2011 Belmont Elementary School Christmas Musical will be held on December 14th. The showing for parents and family members of kindergarten, 1st, and 2nd grade students will begin at 9:00. The showing for parents and family members of 3rd and 4th grade students along with those families with students in multiple grades will begin at 1:00.

The 2011 Student Food Drive is now underway! You may bring food items for this throughout the month of December.

Cardinal Chatter

Belmont School Nurse Mrs. Melody Harris recently took members of the Tobacco FREE Coalition to attend the Leadership, Engagement, and Activism Development Conference at Oxford. Students participated in sessions focusing on instruction on how to create a change in their communities through being youth leaders and through combating youth tobacco use. Thanks, Mrs. Melody, for all that you do for our school.

The Chatter would like to extend a special "Congratulations" to Mrs. Christy Hughes for being elected Belmont School's Teacher of the Year for 2011-2012 by her peers. Way to go, Mrs. Christy! As a former student of Mrs. Christy's, I can definitely testify that she is very deserving of this honor! A special "Congratulations" also goes out to Mr. Herman Oaks for being chosen our area's Good Citizen for 2011!

Seniors, keep informed of scholarship applications and financial aid opportunities offered throughout this year. Also remember to submit your design for your senior yearbook ad, along with your fees, as soon as possible.

Have a great week!
