ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-EIGHT YEARS

New, Leased Trucks Could Reduce Thousands of Dollars in Maintenance Costs for County in Proposed Plan

by Pamela McRae

The county board listened to proposals from the landfill supervisor for leasing trucks that will hopefully help the county save money for operating the landfill site.

In their regular first Monday meeting last week, the Tishomingo County Board of Supervisors listened to Landfill Supervisor Mike Trim, who explained that leasing two new garbage collection trucks would hopefully cut down on the maintenance costs. For the four trucks the county runs now, they have spent about $70,000 already this year on maintenance, claimed Trim.

For the specified leased trucks, the county would pay from $2,100 to $2,300 a month to lease the trucks. At the end of the two years, the county could turn in the used trucks, or pay a balloon payment to purchase the trucks. Maintenance under warranty would be provided by the leasing company, and other maintenance would fall on the county, Trim explained.

Running the two newer trucks, tweaking the routes, and using one of the current trucks, Trim said he hopes his crew can collect all the county refuse on Monday through Friday. Currently, Monday is a day to just do maintenance on the old trucks, he said.

The board said that the landfill usually runs a $125,000 annual deficit, but that much of it is the disposal contract with Prairie Bluff in Chickasaw County.

Board Attorney Phillip Whitehead recommended the board look closely at the terms of the lease, and the turn-in requirements, before signing a lease.

Second District Supervisor Nicky McRae asked that Trim verify the maintenance dollar figure before the board take action.

Other Business

The board acknowledged the receipt of an invoice from CIG Contractors for the new jail, and authorized Chancery Clerk Peyton Cummings to move funds around to pay the $97,965 to the contractor, until the bond money was actually received. The jail is supposed to be completed and turned over to the county January 1st.

Morgue Moving

The board approved the relocation of the county morgue to the former rescue squad building, adjacent to the jail. The cooling unit had always been at Cutshall's Funeral Home, but was becoming a source of some conflict, explained County Coroner Mack Wilemon.

Third District Supervisor Danny Ryan agreed to make some alterations to the outside of the building to prevent water from gathering in one area of the building.

Election Commissioner's Widow to Fill Out Term

The board approved the appointment of Geneva Ware to fulfill the incomplete Election Commissioner term of her husband, Lavon "Snake" Ware, who was recently killed in a car accident. All the Election Commissioner positions will be up for election in 2012.

The board received notice from the Tishomingo County Historical & Genealogical Museum that there is still a significant leak in the building that needs repair. They determined that they had already approved maintenance and repair work for the leak at the Old Tishomingo County Courthouse. One of them said they would check on the situation.

The Board discussed the need for replacing the walking bridge at the walking path adjacent to the old hospital building, as it is getting dangerous.

Firefighters work last Thursday to extinguish a fire at the Tucker Home at the intersection of Highway 25 and Rutledge Salem Road.

Couple Loses Home to Fire Last Thursday

by Pamela McRae

Lloyd Gene and Dorothy Tucker of the Rutledge Salem Community escaped safely last Thursday night from their burning home, but firefighters were unable to save their house as flames consumed the structure swiftly.

Several volunteer departments worked December 15th from around 9 p.m. to past midnight to contain a fire at the home, located right off Highway 25 on Rutledge-Salem Road (County Road 186).

Bystanders said that the fire began behind the home in a screened in porch, where the couple had set up a light to keep their family dog warm.

Neighbors Charles and Debbie Ezell, returning from an event at school, saw the elderly couple in their yard soon after the fire began. Debbie said they had managed to get their car out of the carport, but didn't even have coats on.

Another neighbor, Kristie Robinson, helped Mrs. Tucker with a coat, and together with the Ezells they got them into a warm car, to protect them from the thirty degree temperatures.

Only a few treasured photos were saved by firefighters and the family dog escaped injury. The Tuckers have lived at the intersection of Hwy. 25 and Rutledge Salem Road since they moved back to Tishomingo County after Mr. Tuckers retirement.

Paden, Midway, Tishomingo and Harmony Central Volunteer Fire Departments all responded to the event. Firefighters had to return to the scene a couple more times to put out flare-ups, explained 911/Fire Coordinator Rickey Cummings.

Chief: Wall Heaters Cause Greater Fire Risk

Recently there have been several house fires, and local officials urge residents to be extremely cautious with any heating units they are using, or not using during cold weather days.

According to Iuka fire Chief Brian Grissom, there have been at least a couple times recently that fires have started when wall heaters came on, and furniture was put up against them.

"People think that since they are off, they are fine to put furniture up against," said Grissom. "But many models actually come on automatically at about 40 degrees, even if they are turned to the "off" position."

These types of heaters were responsible for a recent fire at a residence on Westwood Circle in Iuka, Grissom explained. The firefighters who responded to that fire had actually just worked another fire, which had similar origins.

G&G Steel Ships Mississippi River Lock Gates to Illinois

by Pamela McRae

G&G Steel Mississippi Works, located at the Tri-State Industrial Park north of Iuka, recently completed miter gates for a lock operation on the Mississippi River at Quincy, Illinois.

This shipment of upper and lower miter gates completed gate replacement for Lock 21 on the Mississippi River. This is the first shipment of a three-year contract with the Corps of Engineers, Rock Island District. It's only part of the impressive body of work that helped G&G earn recognition from the Tishomingo County Development Foundation as Industry of the Year for 2011.

The upper and lower miter gates are a bolted design, instead of the traditional welded design, explained Eric Daniel, Plant Superintendent at the Tri-State location of the Russellville, Alabama-based company. This was the first time in the Corp of Engineer's history that a bolted miter gate design was used. It is intended to facilitate timely replacement of individual gate components, in the event of being struck by a barge, instead of an entire gate.

The upper miter gates weigh 250,000 each, and are 27 feet tall. The lowers weigh 280,000 each, and are 33 feet tall.

Component fabrication & machining took place at the Russellville facility, while final assembly, testing, painting & loading on barge took place at the Iuka facility. The gates travel by water to their destination, which is what makes Tishomingo County's location on Pickwick Lake favorable for the huge steel structures fabricated by G&G Steel.

G&G is a family business that opened the fabrication facility in Tishomingo County's Tri-State Park in 2009. They employ 25 at the Iuka location.

El Pueblo Bringing Mexican Flair to Tishomingo with New Restaurant

Homestead and El Picante are teaming up to bring great Mexican food to the Southern end of Tishomingo County.

El Pueblo will open Wednesday at 5 p.m., and it can't be soon enough, apparently, explained Terry Vidal. When he arrived early Tuesday for a photo shoot at the new restaurant on Highway 25 just south of Tishomingo, three cars came through asking him when the new restaurant will open.

Vidal's name is probably familiar, as he and his wife Elizabeth operate the very successful Homestead Restaurant in Iuka. For the new restaurant in Tishomingo, he is joining forces with El Picante's Juan Miguel Ayala, who knows a bit about running a very popular restaurant, himself. The cuisine will be all Mexican, but Vidal is one of the partners, and still owns the building, which used to be Homestead, Too.

At El Pueblo, they will offer all the great food El Picante patrons enjoy, along with some new menu items which were previously offered as specials at the Iuka restaurant, explained Miguel's wife Rosa Maria Fuentes on Tuesday. She and Miguel and staff are busy getting everything ready for the Wednesday grand opening.

Patrons will also appreciate

Family Restaurant Traditions Combined - El Picante's Juan Miguel Ayala, wife Rosa Maria Fuentes, and son Abell with Elizabeth and Terry Vidal outside the new El Pueblo Restaurant in Tishomingo.

the warm hospitality for which the El Picante family and staff are known. Since it opened, Iuka diners have enjoyed not only the food at El Picante, but the friendship and interaction with the servers and family members, who are always willing to entertain Spanish language students' attempts at ordering (you get extra credit in class), and who have contributed to the local soccer scene with their inspiring skill.

The new restaurant, just south of Tishomingo, will be open from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. seven days a week.

Health Officials: Salmonella Identified, No Ongoing Risk to the Public

The Mississippi State Department of Health (MSDH) reports that salmonella is no longer an ongoing risk to the public in Corinth, Miss.

As of today, a total of 59 patrons and employees of Don Julio Mexican Restaurant, 1901 Virginia Lane in Corinth, have had positive cultures confirming the presence of salmonella.

"Our investigation has shown that the incident does not appear to be a food producer or supplier issue," said Northeast Mississippi District Health Officer Dr. Jessie R. Taylor. "It appears to be an isolated problem with this particular restaurant, and the restaurant is working closely with us to correct the problem."

The restaurant will remain closed until an improvement plan is approved by the MSDH.

Area healthcare providers have been notified of the situation.

For more information on food safety, visit the MSDH website at www.HealthyMS.com. Follow MSDH by e-mail and social media at HealthyMS.com/connect.

Spend Your Money Locally to Help County

If you read this article, really listen to what it is saying to you. Ask your friends and your neighbors if they read this article in the Tishomingo County News. This article is very important to each and everyone that lives in Tishomingo County.

I know alcohol taxes won't solve Tishomingo County's problems all the way. Stop and think about this, every dollar that is spent in other counties or states is not coming back to Tishomingo County. Once it is spent in another county or state we lose the tax dollars off of that money. Go to Wal-Mart in Corinth and look at the Tishomingo County people there that are shopping. Look at Gardeners Supermarket in Corinth, MS buying their groceries there and look at the folks at Lowe's that are from Tishomingo County. If you take all of these places, just think about all of the dollars that have already been spent from people from Tishomingo County. Once that money is spent in other counties and states it is not coming back to Tishomingo County. All of these tax dollars that is spent off of this money could have been spent in Tishomingo County. How can you expect Tishomingo County to ever grow when all we are doing is taking away from it. At least if we had the sale of alcohol in Tishomingo County we would be getting some tax money back that has been spent in other counties and other states. Once this tax money is give to these other counties and states Tishomingo County is not going to get it back. Then maybe things would get back to where folks will start spending their money in Tishomingo County rather than driving down to Corinth and other places such as Alabama and Tupelo to spend their money and give them our tax dollars. Its not that we are just losing alcohol taxes we are losing tremendous amounts of tax dollars on everything such as groceries, clothes, building material and anything that is bought outside of Tishomingo County. We are losing the tax dollars on all of it. Tishomingo County can never grow as long as we keep taking away from it. We have got to start putting something back into Tishomingo County. We are not just losing alcohol taxes, we are losing taxes all around on everything. If the sale of alcohol was here, most likely it would bring other stuff into this town. Then all that money that has been spent in other places will stay here in Tishomingo County. Most likely if that happens you will see Tishomingo County starting to grow and prosper. As long as we keep spending our money in other places besides Tishomingo County it is never going to grow or prosper on anything.

It is time that all of us people that live in Tishomingo County pull together and start trying to help our local business and spending our money in Tishomingo County to where our tax dollars will stay here and this county will grow and give our kids and grandkids a future. If anyone out there disagrees with the article and you have a better way of helping solving Tishomingo County's jobless problem and know somehow or some way there is something we can do to make Tishomingo prosper and become a better place for our kids and grandkids to grow up in and have jobs here in Tishomingo County where our kids and grandkids will not have to leave this hometown to have to work. If you have an idea that will help Tishomingo County prosper, please write a letter and send it to the "Letter To The Editor" in the Tishomingo County News.

Noah Robertson Receives Prestigious Scouting Award

Thursday, December 8th, 2011, Noah Robertson of the Scouting Venturing Crew 15 of Iuka (Sponsored by American Legion Post 15 - Iuka) successfully completed his Board of Review for the Silver Award in Venturing. The Silver Award is often considered the equivalent to the Eagle Scout Rank in the Boy Scout Program. Noah received the Rank of Eagle Scout in May of 2009, and has continued to work toward the Silver Award in Venturing. The Silver Award is extremely difficult to obtain due to the stringent requirements and long-term dedication necessary to achieve the honor. This process has encompassed a 2½ year journey with much hard work and many hours focused upon acquiring this lofty goal.

Venturing is a youth led high-adventure program for young men and women who are 14 years of age and have completed the eighth grade. The aim of the program is to build character, develop citizenship, and foster personal fitness through leadership, group activities, ethics, Christian living, high-adventure, and teaching others.

In order to successfully meet the qualifications for the Silver Award, Noah had to complete the following:

1. Become proficient in emergency preparedness (including standard first aid, CPR, and Safe Swim Defense)
2. Participate in two Ethics in Action Forums
3. Lead one Ethics in Action Forum
4. Complete and teach the Venturing Leadership Skills Course
5. Earn the Venturing Gold Award, and
6. Earn at least one of the five Venturing Bronze Awards.

(Noah earned two Bronze Awards: Outdoor & Religious Life)

On November 11, 2011, Veterans Day, Noah held a

Flag Retirement Ceremony at Iuka Mineral Springs Park. Noah organized a community-wide event in which he and his troop showed the public in attendance how to properly fold and retire a flag over the fire, and how to properly cut and retire a flag over the fire. The scouts gave a properly cut piece of a flag to lie upon the fire as part of the solemn ceremony. There were over 200 people in attendance with over 60 worn flags being retired. The local American Legion Post 15, local VFW Post 3962, and all other veterans were invited to attend, as well as the community in general. Noah chose this project to complete as part of his Venturing Silver Award Project.

Noah is the 15-year-old son of Joel and Tonia Robertson, brother of Andee Jane and Isaiah Robertson, a student at Tishomingo County High School, and a member of Mount Evergreen United Methodist Church.

We are already getting excited about ways to increase participation for next year's event.

Food boxes will be prepared and made available this week. If you'd like to have the opportunity to help individuals in our county, we'd love to give you the opportunity to be a blessing. There is nothing like the feeling you get from doing a kind deed, especially during this special season of the year when the greatest gift of all was given for mankind, Christ Jesus our Lord. Opportunities to help will be Wednesday morning, December 14th at 9:00 and Friday night, December 16th at 6:00. Pick up time for food boxes will be Saturday morning, December 17th from 8 to 10 am.

As an added reminder, recertification for all recipients will be during the month of January. Please be gathering the needed paperwork to ease in this process.

We at the Food Depot wish all of you God's blessings, a Merry Christmas, and a wonderful holiday season!

There is so much we wish we could say
We think about you everyday
We miss your laugh, we miss your smile
Oh how we wish we could visit awhile.
No "How you doing sis?" with
A big hug to follow.
No "Whatcha doing tonight?"
Or "I'll see you tomorrow."
But the time will come
When one day we'll be Together again forever and eternity.

In Memory Of My Husband At Christmas Time

David McVay 8-16-48 - 8-2-2011

"My Happy Ever After"

When we first started out,
We both wanted to live "happily ever after".
Over time, we learned
That kind of joy and closeness Doesn't come from just wishing.
It comes from being together
Through good times and bad
And everything in between.

It comes from showing your love
Over and over.
And developing a bond of trust and love
That can not be broken.
Through it all,
You were there for me,
More times than I can even begin to count,
I was surely there for you.
You were my partner, friend and soul mate
And you still are, even after God took you
To Heaven to be with him, and David, I love you
And I miss you so much, and I will see
You again one day.

Merry Christmas In Heaven
With All My Love,
Your Wife, Carolyn

Chuck Clark Awarded Most Promising Male Vocalist Of The Year

Local Southern Gospel singer, Chuck Clark, of Iuka, was awarded the Most Promising Male Vocalist of the Year from the Georgia Country/Gospel Music Association at their awards show on December 3rd in Dalton, GA. "It is an honor to get this award but more of an honor to get to serve the Lord the way He allows me to," said Chuck when accepting this award. "I just want to make sure HE gets all the honor and glory for it because without Him I couldn't do any of this."

Chuck is from Iuka and has been singing solo now for about six months. Chuck Clark Music Ministries has been honored to sing in a lot of places the last few months and the blessings are too numerous to mention. "I just want to make sure that when I sing, people know two things, one, I love to share the Lord through the songs I sing, and two, I want to see the lost come to know the Lord. That's what it's all about." Sharing God's word through song is what Chuck feels passionate about. "Some are called to preach, some to teach, He wanted me to sing and so that's what I do and that's what I love."

Some of you might remember Chuck's Dad, Jim Clark, who worked at Wal-Mart and sang at different churches and nursing homes in the area for years before his passing in 2006. "I think about him before I sing everywhere I go. I know he's seeing what's happening and hopefully he's proud of what I am doing."

Chuck has been married for the past 28 years to Marlene and they have three daughters, Lacy, Emma and Morgan, and four grandchildren, Maddi, Camron, Elijah and Mason. "These are the greatest blessings of all," said Chuck when talking about his family.

Chuck just wants to thank all of the people who have been of great support and encouragement to him during the past few months. "To all my friends, for all the prayers that have gone up, I thank you."

If you would like for Chuck to come sing at your event, revival, homecoming, etc. you can call him at 662-424-3086, e-mail to chuck.clark@fortheeone.org or write P.O. Box 403, Iuka, MS 38852. Chuck is also on Facebook, (Chuck Clark or Chuck Clark Music Ministries) and twitter (@chuck4Him) His new website that is under construction is www.chuckclarkmusic.com.

Coach Richard Russo Elected To Region 2-3A Coaching Staff Of The Year

Burnsville native Richard Russo and the Water Valley High School Football Coaching Staff has been elected by their peers as the Mississippi Association of Coaches Region 2-3A Coaching Staff of the Year.

Russo serves as the Blue Devils' Defensive Coordinator on the (11-3) team that shocked many around the state by defeating the Aberdeen Bulldogs to win the Region 2-3A Championship in October. He took over a defense that had allowed a school record 38.7 points per game. In just four seasons, the defensive unit had improved to allowing 12.3 points per game. The defensive unit paced a squad that advanced to the MHSAA Class 3A Quarterfinals for the second consecutive season.

This marks the fifth time in Russo's 11-year coaching career that he has been named a member of the Coaching Staff of the Year. He received the award twice at Bruce High School and twice at North Delta School, including Head Coach of the Year at North Delta School. Russo is a 1992 graduate of Burnsville Middle School, a 1996 grad-

Grief Seminar Scheduled to Help with Holiday Blues

It is during the holidays that the death of loved ones or any other loss can trigger deep feelings of grief. Next week, there is a grief seminar at Iuka United Methodist Church that aims to help community members handle the emotional issues of the holidays.

Whether a personal loss is expected or sudden, major or minor, due to death, divorce, loss of a job, the onset of disease, or any other loss we all experience grief as a response to the loss. There are many feelings we experience in times of grief, ranging from anger, fear, guilt, sadness and more. Sometimes we are confused by what we feel or what others tell us how to feel during our experiences of grief. We plan to spend the time in this seminar speaking about the stages of grief and how to respond to someone who is grieving.

On Thursday, December 15th at 7 p.m. a grief seminar will be offered at the Iuka United Methodist Church. The leaders of the seminar, Rev. Jon Kaufman and Mrs. Sandra Skinner, have both experienced deep personal loss and will share their stories of loss and grief.

The seminar is free and open to anyone in the community.

ACT Center to Host Sign-ups for Smoking Cessation

Individuals making a New Year's resolution to quit smoking or tobacco use can find a helping hand as the North Mississippi Medical Center-Iuka's ACT Center program will host an open enrollment on December 27, 2011. The center, based at NMMC-Iuka, is staffed by Respiratory Therapists certified in helping people quit using tobacco using an evidence-based planning method that is recognized statewide for its effectiveness. The treatment for clients involves a six-week course and provides some medications in order to help people kick the tobacco habit.

The ACT Center will have two open enrollment periods on December 27, 2011, at the hospital from 9:00 - 11:00 AM and from 4:00 - 6:00 PM for people to come by and enroll or just see what the program is all about. The ACT Center program is designed to help people quit using tobacco, and many people each year make this one of their New Year's resolutions. For more information on the ACT Center or other Respiratory Therapy programs at NMMC-Iuka, please call (662) 423-4675.

Braves Get a Victory Over New Site; but Lady Royals Get Revenge

by Pamela McRae

The Lady Braves handed the New Site Lady Royals their only defeat this season a few weeks ago, and Tuesday night, they returned the favor, ending TC's nine-game winning streak in overtime 68-65.

It was one of the most exciting games of the season, and fans supporting New Site as well as the home team filled the stands.

The teams delivered, with an exciting but messy game - there were 92 turnovers, combined -New Site had 49 and Tishomingo County recorded 43.

Tishomingo County lead the entire first half, and into the third quarter, with sophomore Deirdre McCoy leading the scoring with 21. Anna Claire Griffin had 14, and Danielle Blakney 10.

As any coach will tell you, free throws and layups will make the difference, and the Lady Braves missed a few early in the game.

Griffin managed to get her groove back later, and with 38 seconds left in the game, she made two free throws to force the overtime.

The teams performed evenly in the OT, but fouling Morgan Pearson allowed her to make 8 of 10 free throws to earn the Lady Royals a victory.

The 9-2 Lady Braves move on to a division challenge against 4-2 Itawamba, who are coming off a 50-39 loss to Nettleton last week. It will be the Lady Indians first Division game.

Braves Win Over Royals 62-38

Seniors Joey Shannon and Adam Norvell lead the scoring for the Braves in their victory over New Site Tuesday night.

Shannon, with 21, and Norvell, with 14, helped the Braves get the win over the outmatched Royals team.

The Braves improved their record to 4-6, and go up against the Itawamba Indians Friday night.

Local Museum is in Need of Year-end Donations

December is a common month for citizens to honor the season by giving support to organizations that are close to their hearts. During this time, many people traditionally donate to charities and non-profit organizations. Placing the Tishomingo County Historical & Genealogical Society on your year-end gift list is a great way to show your support for your local archives and history museum.

We appreciate how much you care about Tishomingo County and our joint attempt to preserve the stupendous history of our area. Making a tax-free gift to HISTORY is an opportunity that no one wants to miss. It will help your local historical society and allow you to have a viable tax deduction as well.

Memorial donations to honor the memory of a loved one or friend is also a worthy cause. A memorial can be a one-time gift from family member or friend, a memorial fund may be set up as a way for others to donate in remembrance of this loved one. In either case, we send a card to the family, acknowledging your special gift. If you'd like to contact us about establishing a Memorial Fund at Tishomingo County Archives & History Museum, please call Cindy Nelson at 662-279-1798.

To send a tax-deductible year-end gift, make your check payable to Tishomingo County Historical & Genealogical Society. Please include a note specifying that this is a year-end gift and mail to: Tishomingo County Archives & History Museum, P.O. Box 273, Iuka, MS 38852. You may also call the museum at 662-423-3500 and leave your credit card number. We are open Tuesday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. to receive your telephone phone calls.

The Tishomingo County Historical & Genealogical Society wishes to extend our genuine and heartfelt thanks to each and every one of you during this holiday season.

Goal for TC - Braves striker Andre Remedios scores a goal against New Albany on Saturday. The Braves were ahead much of the game, but a goal in the last two minutes tied the game, and put it into overtime- which New Albany won.

Winter's Blessings

by Tita B

Winter is coming, officially on December 21st, although this date is now debated by the winter solstice theory. There is evidence all around us. The vibrant red and yellow leaves have turned brown. Snowflakes have enhanced our mornings, invigorating our longings on at least two occasions this season. The squirrels living out there are busy running up and down the pecan trees storing up food for winter. Days seem shorter now that daylight saving time has kicked in. The elections are over.

The mums and knock-out roses which stood bravely waving their blooms in spite of the temperature which dipped lower each night have paced it in for this year. Firewood has been gathered (from storm damaged trees in a neighbor's yard) for the fireplace which serves as back-up for our electric, gas heaters, and heat pumping air conditioning unit. Often a warm blaze warms our hearts as we sit inside on cold winter evenings.

Back on, November 9th, we witnessed Glen Whitlock taking down his campaign posters. We honked the car's horn and gave him a thumbs-up wave. Here is hoping he is setting a good example, and before long all of the candidates – both winners and losers – will remove their signs.

The hunting seasons are open. Hunters are delighted to be outdoors enjoying each other as they stalk their prey. As we drive through the night, or in early morning light on country roads, deer and wild turkey are sighted more often. Their beauty delights us for a few moments.

Winter is a good time to update scrapbooks with highlights of the year. Mine included the 15th birthday celebration of my granddaughter, Mia, in May. Then came a trip to Pensacola, Florida with three teens in June, and in October a trip to the suburbs of Chicago to visit relatives. We drove downtown Chicago where my husband was thrilled with the new Marilyn Monroe statue, which is more than five stories high but oh so lifelike, right there on Michigan Avenue near the Tribune Tower. Our memories of 2011 are cherished.

We have bought an entire shelf of used books from Goodwill and the library to read during the cold days while we sit by the fire with our hot cocoa. Many of these books are almost new. We know we are old-fashioned, we prefer to hold a solid, bound, book to looking at small electronic gadgets favored by our grandchildren. We do stop in at Barnes & Noble, or other book stores, occasionally to purchase a new book or two that we cannot resist.

Christmas is exciting! Shopping for gifts, getting them wrapped, and finally attending both church and family parties keep us active. Filling shoe boxes, giving small monetary gifts, and purchasing practical gifts for those less fortunate, and dropping a few dollars in the Salvation Army buckets make us feel better about ourselves, knowing we have helped in a very small way. We also have learned to give to a family with no job, a single Mom with two children, three children in another state with a Mom in prison because of drugs, a widow who lives alone. These recipients truly appreciate our sharing not just at Christmas but at any time. We count our blessings with open hearts.

Stay warm. Enjoy the Christmas Season and may 2012 be your best year yet.

Harmony Homemaker Volunteer Club Meeting

The Harmony Homemakers held their regular monthly at 12:00 PM at the Extension Office on December 12. This was a combined business meeting with our Christmas Party. This is pot luck. Extension personnel were invited to eat with us. Danny Owens and Diane Hamm were available to eat with us.

Mary Hall, President, called the meeting to order. She had received a gift for her birthday, "Prayers for Holidays".

The devotion was a prayer from this book which was read by Carolyn Buchanan. It was written by Robert L. Stevenson.

We had 11 members present with a total of 364 hours. Let's keep track of those hours.

The Lemonade was taken to the Boys & Girls Club and a very nice letter was received.

One of our members, Lois Tucker, was featured as "Cook of the Week" in the Tupelo Journal. We are all proud of her. She brought her wonderful bread and chicken salad for our luncheon.

Financial report was given. At this time we made our decisions on what contributions we would give this year. We will be making donations to the following: Food Depot, Good Samaritan Food Pantry, Back Pack Ministry, Boys & Girls Club and a selection from the Angel Tree. We had approved the Burnsville school Museum last meeting.

Billie Holland and Nellie were selected to purchase the presents for the Angel Tree.

Dollars were collected for the Food Pantry.

With no further business the meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served. It was all delicious. Cards were exchanged and some people had presents to present.

January 16 at 1:30 at the Extension Office. We invite anyone interested to join us.

Are You Building On The Rock, Or On The Sand?

Jesus said in Matthew 7:24-27: "Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of Mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. And every one that heareth these sayings of Mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, and it fell: and great was the fall of it." While we are not living in the time of Christ, and everything He said does not apply directly to the church age, yet we are wise to listen to what He said. My reason for saying this is that Jesus lived under the law of Moses, therefore, He told one man to go and offer a sacrifice for a testimony, after he had been cleansed from leprosy. This is because the law of Moses commanded such animal sacrifices (see Matthew 8:4). The moral teachings of the sermon on the mount which Jesus had just given in Matthew chapters 5-7, however, contains teaching that can apply to any age.

My big point is that men would do well to build their lives on the truth of the Word of God. Those who build on God's Word are like men who build a physical house on a rock foundation. Those who build their lives on the sinking sands of this life will one day find that their very "houses" have been destroyed by the "rain, winds and floods" of life that come against them. Life is not easy for anyone, but it is easier to cope with the problems of life, when we have the knowledge that we are building our lives on the truth of God's Word. It is pathetic when we see those who have built on everything else, other than the Word of God, for those "houses" will someday come crashing down, with nothing left but a pile of useless rubble! Men are prone to build on the fads and philosophies of those around them, but such foundations will shift every few years, and a different foundation will replace them, thus instability will be the rule of such lives. If one desires stability, he must build on what has been stable through the ages and for eternity, the Word of God! This must begin by placing one's faith in Jesus Christ for salvation! On what foundation does your house stand?

Mildred Nixon Hill

Mildred Nixon Hill, 94, of Iuka, died Wednesday, December 7th, 2011 at Southern Magnolia Estates in Iuka. She was born on September 3rd, 1917 in Paden. She was the daughter of Clinton Kelly and Annie Willard Robinson Nixon. She graduated from Tishomingo High School and attended the University of Mississippi.

She married Martin Elton Hill on April 25th, 1937. They had one daughter, Ann Hill, a young lady who accomplished a lot in her short life. Mildred was a special mother to a special girl.

After teaching a few years in Prentiss County as a husband-wife team, the couple moved to Ashland where they owned a Western Auto Store. There, Mildred made her home, nearly as a spot for Ashland's youth activities, and with her daughter, she was an early supporter of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis.

Following the death of her husband and daughter, Mildred worked several years at the Baptist Hospital in Memphis. There she assisted families of hospital patients in her usual helpful way. After her retirement in 1980, she returned to Tishomingo County to reside with her mother in Iuka. Here, Mildred was a member of Iuka Baptist Church and the Ann Judson Circle. As an active member, she contributed a lot of her church activities and was a devoted Christian.

She was a member of the 20th Century Cub and served as president. She was, also, a member of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees (NARF), Jacinto Chapter, and served as secretary-treasurer.

One of Mildred's interests was genealogy, and she was an active member of the Daughters of American Revolution (DAR). She was Regent of the Chief Tishomingo Chapter for several years.

Services were held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, December 10th at Ludlam Funeral Home in Iuka with Dr. Ronnie Hatfield, pastor of the Iuka Baptist Church officiating. Burial was in Memphis Memorial Gardens, near her late husband and daughter. Ludlam Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Survivors include a sister-in-law, Dorothy Dietch Nixon; two great-nephews, John and David Casavant; and many cousins from the Nixon and Robinson families.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Martin Elton Hill; her daughter, Ann Hill; her parents; her sister, Helen Marguerite Nixon; two brothers, James Clinton Nixon and Edward Kelly Nixon; a niece, Louise Casavant Nixon; three sisters-in-law; and one brother-in-law.

Memorials may be made to the Iuka Baptist Church, 105 Eastport, Iuka, MS 38852; or to St. Jude Children Research Hospital, 3704, Memphis, TN 38135.

Burnsville Ramblins

Recently I read about all the people being arrested for drugs and that is bad. But I think some of these doctors should be held responsible for causing some of these people to get hooked on drugs.

When I was young, my parents were druggies! I was drugged to church on Sunday. I was drugged to the wood pile to have the board of education applied to the seat of learning when my mother heard me practicing a new word I had learned that would have warmed a sailors heart! I was drugged to school when I had overheard my Grandpa Paulie Hale telling Starlon Hudson about all the fish he had caught in Yellow Creek. Or my friend and mentor, Jimmie Rex telling me about the squirrels he had shot! I was drugged to Mr. Hector Bishops' cotton patch on (now) Old 72 Highway to pick cotton when I just knew my back was gonna be wrecked forever. In 1950 I was drugged off my grandpa's porch and hauled off to Michigan and I did not like it! Nine months of snow and three months of skeeters! But to tell the truth, I believe being drugged so many times made me a better person and I guess being drugged so many times wasn't so bad after all!

Give a Gift of History a Gift of Heritage

Are you stumped for Christmas gifts? Give a gift that lasts all year and for many years to come. There's no better time to share your love of your local community. After all, at its core, preservation is about protecting the places that mean something to you. And what better way to give a meaningful gift than to give the History of Old Tishomingo County, Mississippi Territory? With the purchase of this book as a gift, you can continue to save a historic place, spread your love of preservation, and assist in protecting our county heritage.

The fourth printing of Fan Alexander Cochran's History of Old Tishomingo County, Mississippi Territory was compiled and edited by RaNae S. Vaughn and Cynthia D. Nelson for the Tishomingo County Historical & Genealogical Society (TCHGS) located in the old historic courthouse in Iuka, Mississippi. TCHGS has been granted full copyrighting privileges of this publication. Permission was granted in a letter written April 5, 2005, by Edward Bruce Cochran, Executor of Fan Alexander Cochran's estate.

This book, History of Old Tishomingo County, Mississippi Territory, is a compilation of the history of the Mississippi Territory, namely, Old Tishomingo County, from the date of its surrender by the Chickasaw Indians to 1870, when the county was divided into Tishomingo, Prentiss, and Alcorn counties. Covering the period of 34 long and eventful years, this history would have been lost forever except for old papers and documents that the author, Mrs. Fannie Mae Cochran, unearthed in trucks and chests. The hardships of real people are recorded in these pages; these pioneers were the descendants of men and women who had successfully withstood the dangers and suffering of blazing new trails. "Today the descendants of those hardy pioneers can be found in every part of the world, but especially in the counties of Alcorn, Prentiss, and Tishomingo, and they hold in highest reverence the memory of their intrepid ancestors who made it possible for the present generation to enjoy the fruits of daring, hardship, privations and indefatigable effort." These are the words of Mrs. Cochran's uncle who compiled and published the information within this book about Old Tishomingo County in his newspaper in 1902.

This book is being offered for $35.00 on a time limited basis. Please add $5.00 shipping and handling. Books may be purchased at the Old Tishomingo County Courthouse at 203 East Quitman Street, Iuka, Miss., Tuesday through Friday, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., on-line at www.shop.tishomingohistory.com, or by telephone at 662-423-3500.
