Barge Runs Aground in Tenn-Tom Waterway

Pamela McRae
Officials with the Tennessee Tombigbee Waterway confirmed Wednesday morning that a barge developed a problem and ran aground sometime last night at mile marker 100 near the Tri-State Commerce Park in the Pickwick Lake area of the waterway. According to Larry Merrihew, president of the Warrior Tombigbee Waterway Association, one of the barges in the group started taking on water and so the towing crew repositioned it from the other barges, but it aground so that its condition could be evaluated while the cargo moved on. Merrihew said that the barge came from Mobile, Alabama, and must have hit something on the way to cause it to take on water. He did not indicate what the barge was carrying. He said that divers were on their way to the site to see if the damage could be repaired, and assess the situation.

The barge was pushed out of the path of transport; there is at least 140 feet of clearance around it, so it is not stopping other barge traffic on the heavily traveled Tennessee Tombigbee Waterway. The Coast Guard was working the navigation issues involved and warning marine craft, said a representative from the Ohio district Wednesday morning.

Staff at the Yellow Creek Port were aware of the situation, but no one answered calls at county-owned Tri-State Commerce Park. The barge was not docking at, or being used by either the Port or Tri-State, it seemed from the reports.

Sheriff Announces More Arrests Resulting from Grand Jury Action

Authorities arrested a man during the investigation of the theft of 900 pounds of metal from a Tishomingo factory. Matt Day, 24, has been charged with grand larceny in connection with the case. TBEI, on Highway 25 just north of Tishomingo reported that at least 900 pounds of scrap metal had been stolen from its facility. Investigators were able to track the metal to a recycling place in Memphis, where Day reportedly received $600 for the scrap. Day is released on bond, and his case will go before the next grand jury, said sheriff department investigator Jeff Palmer.

Tishomingo Police Car Involved in Collision - Emergency workers at the scene of a Saturday night collision on Highway 30.

Tishomingo Policeman Injured in Saturday Night Collision

by Pamela McRae

The Mississippi Highway Patrol is investigating a two-car collision involving a Tishomingo police officer Saturday night.

Troopers and dozens of county emergency personnel responded to the scene about 8:45 p.m. on Highway 30, less than fifty yards west of Highway 25, where a 2008 Nissan Altima driven by Joseph H. Kain, 21, of Burnsville, had apparently collided with a 2006 Crown Victoria driven by Officer Tim W. Williamson, 47, of Iuka. According to Trooper Ronny Hall, Williamson was patrolling on Highway 30, north of Tishomingo, headed west, and Kain was eastbound when they hit head on.

Emergency responders had to extricate Williamson from the car. He was wearing a seat belt said Trooper Hall. He was airlifted from the scene to North Mississippi Medical Center in Tupelo, and later to the MED in Memphis. According to reports, he had surgery on a broken leg, and hip replacement.

Kain, who is serving with the U. S. Air Force, was pulled from his vehicle before it caught fire, said emergency workers at the scene. He was also airlifted to NMMC in Tupelo where he was treated for serious, but not life-threatening injuries, and has since been released.

The cause of the accident is still under investigation.

Pray it Forward Soup Kitchen to Serve First Meal Monday Night

by Pamela McRae

When they open a community soup kitchen at the Burnsville Community Center next Monday, a Burnsville family will be following a dream to help others.

Next Monday night, a healthy meal including potato stew or chili and all the fixins will be available at the Pray It Forward Soup Kitchen for Burnsville families who need a little help with a good meal. Though they plan to provide for Burnsville residents, founder Emma Rhodes says they won't turn anyone away. There are no qualifications for receiving the ministry's service.

"It's been my dream for four years to do this," says Rhodes, who says they are doing this to help out families in this difficult economic time. "We want to try to do it at least once a month, toward the end of the month, when money can get a little thin for many families."

Tim and Emma Rhodes, and their children Brittany and Nathan Barnes will be serving their first meal from 5-7 p.m. Monday, and it will be a healthy one, too, explains Emma, who has been diagnosed with diabetes and neuropathy. She has lost 105 pounds in the past year, so there will be sugar-free desserts, and unsweetened tea offered, as well.

Pray it Forward will be looking for volunteers, and donations to help with this ministry. Students can count their volunteer service for service hours in clubs like Beta, said Rhodes.

The Rhodes family will be offering a soup kitchen ministry. Above are Tim and Emma Rhodes, and children Nathan and Brittany Barnes.

Anyone interested in helping, can call 662-279-6140. If you know someone who could use some help, please bring them along on Monday night for a good meal.

Pool, supporters provide new backstop for the Girls of Spring

Pamela McRae
The Lady Braves softball team is enjoying several improvements to their home field when they play their first home game Tuesday.

Thanks to the administration and several volunteers, there is an attractive new brick backstop and later in the season, work will begin on an outfield wall, Coach Malcolm Brown.

Ranked as high as number 8 in the statewide polls, the Lady Braves are coming off a successful last year, when they won Division 1-4A championship. But everything's new now."

warned Coach Brown on Tuesday. "It's always a new ballgame, a different season, but I feel good about the team and their potential."

Last week, Brown finally had the whole team on the field together at once for the first time, he said, when the basketball players finally joined in. In tournament play at Mooreville last weekend they beat Mooreville 8-5, and Hamilton 6-0. The junior varsity beat South Pontotoc 3-2.

The Lady Braves play this weekend at the Lady Aggie Classic in Kossuth, and their home opener is Tuesday, when they play Kossuth, again. Junior varsity plays at 5 p.m., and varsity follows.

Field Improvements

The team and Coach Brown thank all the people who made the field improvements possible, including, the city of Iuka, for donation of equipment, Tishomingo County Second District crew, TCHS and principal Dr. Eddie Britton, who bought the brick, Matthew Walker and Monotech, who fabricated the backstop poles, and the maintenance crew of Tishomingo County Schools, including Terry Jaynes, Scotty McKay and Scott Frazier.

The Hero of the Battle of Corinth - Colonel Williams P. Rogers - Sword Returns to the North Mississippi Town One-Hundred and Fifty Years Later

Corinth, Mississippi, February 15, 2012: On Saturday and Sunday, March 3 and 4, 2012, the public will get the opportunity to view one of the most poignant relics from the Western Theatre of the American Civil War at the annual Corinth Civil War Relic and Military Show and Sale sponsored by the Colonel W. P. Rogers Camp of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

The sword and scabbard belonging to Colonel William P. Rogers of the 2nd Texas Infantry will return to Corinth for the first time in the 150 years following his death at the Battle of Corinth in October 1862. Colonel Rogers is considered to be the "Hero of Battery Robinett." He died in a Confederate effort to retake Corinth from the Federal Army. General Williams S. Rosecrans, in charge of defending Corinth from the Confederate assault, ordered Rogers buried where he so gallantly fell. Both the sword and scabbard were cut from Rogers' body as souvenirs of war and were scattered among various owners for almost 150 years. In early 2010, collector Allen Wandling (wandling@charter.net), who lives near St. Louis, Missouri, was able to reunite the sword and scabbard. Now, as a marble obelisk near the Corinth Civil War Interpretive Center marks Colonel Rogers' grave, the Corinth area will commemorate the Sesquicentennial of the American Civil War by displaying this prominent piece of history.

Show hours are Saturday, March 3rd from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. and Sunday, March 4th from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. at the Crossroads Arena on Harper Road in Corinth, Mississippi. A small admission fee applies. For more information concerning the Relic Show, go to www.battleofcorinth.com; call 800-748-9048; or email belis1960@comcast.net.

Volunteers Being Sought for Shiloh's 150th "Grand Illumination"

Shiloh National Military Park is seeking volunteers to help with activities on Saturday April 7, 2012.

In commemoration of the 150th Anniversary of the Battle of Shiloh, park staff and volunteers will be placing and lighting 23,746 luminaries around the battlefield, which will represent the total casualties of the bloody two-day fight.

"Any help would be appreciated," said park ranger Joe Davis, "it should be a very moving and satisfying ceremony, as we honor those Americans who sacrificed everything during this terrible battle."

Anyone interested in volunteering at the park is asked to call ranger Heather Smedley at (731) 689-5696 or email her at heather_smedley@nps.gov to sign up. More information on Shiloh Battlefield's sesquicentennial events is available at www.nps.gov/shil.

Lady Cardinals Headed to Big House

Hello again, Belmont High School Students! I hope you're all excited for the many events activities to be held this week!

Congratulations to the 2011-2012 Belmont Lady Cardinals Basketball Team. They are heading to the Big House! The Lady Cardinals defeated Velma Jackson on Thursday evening 63 to 42 in the first round play of the North Half Tournament on home court. Then the Lady Cardinals punched their ticket to Jackson and advanced to the championship game against Ripley by defeating Independence on Friday evening by a score of 58 to 37. Although the girls had defeated the Ripley Lady Tigers twice this season, the third time was not the charm for the Lady Cardinals as they lost in the championship matchup 42 to 39. However, the Lady Cardinals advanced to the State Tournament with their win against Independence and will play Choctaw Central at 9:00 a.m. in Jackson. Everyone, plan to come down and watch our girls as they hope to advance to the State 3A Championship! If you would like to order a State Tournament t-shirt for the game from Southern Boutique, you will have to have your order in no later than Tuesday at 10:00 a.m. Let's go, Lady Cardinals!

The Belmont High School and Junior Varsity Baseball Teams participated in the Corinth Jamboree this past Saturday in exhibition play. The Cardinals defeated Corinth, but the Junior Varsity came up short against Tishomingo County. The Belmont High School 2012 Baseball Banquet was held on Monday with featured speaker Mississippi State Assistant Baseball Coach Nick Mingione. A great time was had by all who attended, and Coach Deaton hopes to make this an annual event for the players. The team is scheduled to play next Saturday in the Booneville Classic against Baldwin and Tishomingo County and on Monday, February 27th against Sulligent.

The Belmont High School Tennis Team is also scheduled to begin its season next Saturday in the Tishomingo County Classic. Good luck to Mrs.

Eva Kirk and members of the team. Can't wait to see you on the courts!

The BHS FCA would like to remind parents that it hosts an after school tutoring and devotional program each Monday immediately following school until 5:00 at Calvary Baptist Church. Students are provided a snack, a devotion, and help with homework. Transportation from school is provided. If interested in this, please contact the building office where your child attends. Don't forget, students, that FCA meets each Wednesday morning at 7:30 in Mrs. Camille Stanfield's room. You do not have to play a BHS sport to attend the meetings.

On February 23rd, the Belmont Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America will be taking part in the Northern District Competition to be held at Northeast. Everyone competing in an event should get busy preparing for this. Good luck on Wednesday.

Several BHS Band Members were busy this past week-end taking part in the Ole Miss Honor Band! Valerie Mitchell, Logan Oaks, Emily Wiltshire, and I spent Thursday through Saturday rehearsing and performing a concert under the direction of director and composer Michael Gilemo. It was a great experience for all, and although all the honor band participants are Mississippi State fans, they enjoyed their time at the Ole Miss Honor Band and hope to have many more opportunities like it in the near future.

Congratulations to the Math-Science Team that competed at the Math-Science Tournament at Blue Mountain College on Tuesday, February 14th. The team members are Luke Shook, Anna Timbs, Lee-Ann Hicks, Erin Pounds, Jacob Hughes, Blake Huffman, William Holcomb, Emile Creel, Tanner Deaton, Paige Brooks, Micah Page, Kyle Schroeder, Hannah South, Shelby Scott, Cassidy Collier, Haley Swindle, and Amber Pharr.

The Biology I Team, made up of Luke Shook, LeeAnn Hicks, Anna Timbs, and Erin Pounds, placed 3rd in team competition.

The Chemistry Team, made up of Emile Creel, Jacob Hughes, William Holcomb, and Blake Huffman, placed 3rd in team competition.

Anna Timbs placed 3rd in the individual Algebra II competition! Also, Jacob Hughes placed 1st in the rock, paper, scissors competition. Congratulations to all the team members who participated in this event. A team of six will travel to Northeast Mississippi Community College on March 27th to compete at the Math-Science Tournament.

Several guests have made appearances at Belmont High School in the past few months to speak to several of Mrs. Amy Burks's science classes. Mrs. Carissa Searcy spoke to BHS's Biology II classes on December 2nd about careers in nursing, preparing for nursing school, and the many health issues of today. Dr. Emily Gray Presson met with the A & P class January 20th to discuss health, disorders, and care of the eye, surgeries, general health, and improving vision through contacts and glasses. Dr. Tom Brent spoke to the Biology II classes on January 24th about his work with biochemistry and genetics. Dr. Brent has a very distinguished career, which includes graduating from Cambridge University and obtaining a Ph.D. degree in Biochemistry from London University, publishing over one hundred scientific papers, serving on NIH Study Sections, and collaborating with clinicians at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in attempts to treat pediatric cancer, particularly brain tumors. The measures to which Dr. Thomas P. Brent has gone in the field of DNA repair have been astronomical, and the BHS students who listened to his stories, as well as the stories of all these admirables, consider themselves extremely fortunate to have gotten this opportunity.

There will be a family reading night for the PTO. Parents and students will enjoy spending time together while listening to guest readers and doing reading activities. This event will be February 28th.

Another school-wide event is Pennies for Patients. Students will collect coins that will be donated to Leukemia and Lymphoma patients to help pay for treatment. I think this is a very good cause, and needs to be supported.

Yearbooks are still on sale for $25. You will need to check with a school official if you are interested in purchasing one of these readable time capsules. Yearbooks allow you to take a glimpse into your past. Who would want to miss out on this amazing opportunity?

The Writing Exam will be March 1st for grades 4th and 7th. This is a test you will need to try your best on. Who knows, you may end up a famous author like Mark Twain or Edgar Allen Poe.

The Math-A-Thon is a school event that is also happening now. You can raise money to donate to St. Jude, and complete a math booklet to help out. We need tons of students to participate in this; after all, it is a worthy cause.

I have decided to add a word of the week to every column I write, so this week's word is:

Historical Society 16th Annual Meeting Held at Midway School

The historic Midway school building teemed with people and energy as the Tishomingo County Historical & Genealogical Society held its 16th Annual Meeting on Thursday, February 16, 2012. In her keynote address, President Cindy Nelson, stated that "volunteers make a difference in the dash." She explained that our headlines will display an ending of our birth date and death date. These dates will be separated by a dash. That little dash represents how we end our life and the difference that we make in the life of someone else.

Volunteerism is the act of selflessly giving our life to something we believe—free of pay. As a person volunteers, though they may not earn money, a feeling of self-worth is fostered, and volunteers earn respect and favors instead of money. During 2011, a total of 102 individuals donated 19,475.5 hours of service work to the Society.

Board members and staff were introduced and acknowledged in appreciation as Mrs. Nelson presented a program on the work of the Society from 1996 to 2012. The Society, which was founded in 1996 to collect, preserve, and protect the history of Tishomingo County, has made great strides in their quest. Located in the Old Tishomingo County Courthouse, the John Marshall Stone Research Library is a state-of-the-art genealogy library. The exhibits in the museum tell the story of the county. Preservation efforts at the Old Courthouse, the Midway School, and the Burnsville One-Room School have brought forth more than $185,000 tax-free dollars to Tishomingo County.

Award Presentations Made at Annual Meeting

Since volunteers are an integral part of this organization, each year the Society recognizes volunteers through awards in five categories. Ranae Vaughn, Marketing & Publications Director, recognized the following awardees for their outstanding contribution to the Society.

Matt Alred and Corrie Linton received the Preservation Patron Award in recognition of commitment to historic preservation in Tishomingo County. They were recognized for their unselfish dedication in making the Burnsville One-Room School restoration a success. Both individuals took on major leadership roles as project leaders in this endeavor and dedicated themselves to see the project from beginning to end.

The Belmont & Tishomingo Journal received the Award of Merit. The Journal always finds a place for TCHGS articles. We can always count on the Journal to make our organization shine whenever they feature us in their paper. We are very thankful for the service they do for Tishomingo County and look forward to working with them in the future.

The Belmont & Tishomingo Journal received the Award of Merit. The Journal always finds a place for TCHGS articles. We can always count on the Journal to make our organization shine whenever they feature us in their paper. We are very thankful for the service they do for Tishomingo County and look forward to working with them in the future.

The Spirit of TCHGS Award was presented to the Midway Homemaker Volunteers and Mr. Ricky Whirley. The Midway Homemaker Volunteers were recognized for their outstanding work in the preservation of the Midway School. They have committed many years to preserving and protecting the school and have been a great inspiration to TCHGS. Ricky Whirley was recognized for his outstanding work in helping us rescue the Burnsville One-Room

Colored School. When our president went on vacation last year, and our grant deadline was drawing near, her brother, Ricky, stepped in and assisted the project leaders in meeting the assigned deadlines.

The Volunteer of the Year Award was presented to Mr. James Cole and Mr. Gary Phillips. Mr. Cole has been a volunteer at the museum since January 26, 2010. He donates 4 hours per week as a museum docent. He assists visitors with tours and the history of our area. He enjoys all American history and is a Vietnam veteran. Last year, Mr. Cole transitioned into the Civil War Interpretation Room, and he is expected to receive a lot more visitors this year as we prepare for our Battle of Iuka's 150th Anniversary. Gary Phillips recently worked with the night shift volunteers on a number of projects. He provided that "man" power that the ladies needed in taking care of some important maintenance projects like installing blinds and locks and other carpentry skills. He also assisted us with taking photographs and logging in some of our collections.

Ms. Rebekah Phillip and Ms. Haley Rencher were the recipients of the Youth Volunteer of the Year Award. Rebekah has been a great help at the museum. She has typed, filed, cleaned, and rearranged exhibits. Haley has also been a great help at the museum while rearranging exhibits and performing other tasks.

Kaitlin Wallace presented the entertainment of the night with her melody of music and energetic performance. Later, as delicious refreshments were served by the Midway Homemaker Volunteers, Gary Phillips performed some jazz tunes.
