Teams Rally for Relay-for-Life this Friday Evening at Mineral Springs Park

Mineral Springs Park will be full of life this Friday night for Relay-for-Life.

From 6 pm to midnight there will be great entertainment, raffles, tailgating, games, a luminary display, a womanless beauty review, music, and a wonderful fireworks show. Teams will have booths to sell all kinds of great food, and there will also be carriage rides, and inflatable jumpers for kids.

Teams of people in our community will take turns walking or running around the track in this non-competitive event. Relay teams consist of individuals representing corporations, churches, clubs, organizations and families.

Throughout the month of May, several Iuka and county organizations have held events and fundraisers to support the fight against cancer, so organizers feel great about this year's campaign.

Survivors will be served a wonderful supper at 5 p.m., catered by Bow-T's (Harry & Te-

Fire Destroys Locke Home Last Week

Pamela McRae

Authorities are investigating the cause of a May 10th fire that destroyed a home north of Iuka.

The owners, Robert and Tazzy Locke, were out of town when firefighters arrived at 2770 Old Highway 25 about 1:30 in the morning last Thursday. They found it fully involved, with flames out the roof, said Harmony Central Volunteer Fire Department Chief Tommy Bonds.

Iuka Police had spotted the smoke and reported it, and Harmony Central was assisted by Iuka and Coleman Park volunteers. Fire fighters worked to try and locate anyone in the home upon arrival, said Bonds, since there were two cars in the garage. After they were told the owners were out of town, the fire fighters managed to get a car and truck out of the garage, but were unable to rescue the structure.

The cause of the fire is still under investigation, according to Tishomingo County Fire Investigator Jesse Jones.

Other Fires

April 30th, at 11:30, Iuka firemen responded to a fire at the home of Misty and Jeremy Glidewell on Cross Creek Lane.

An insurance inspector surveying some property in the area for damage from recent hailstorms noticed smoke coming from a bedroom window, said Iuka Fire Chief Brian Grissom.

Firefighters managed to keep the fire damage to the stairwell, laundry room and a bedroom, but the rest of the home suffered smoke damage.

Grissom said the fire possibly started under a staircase, and might have been caused by a clogged dryer vent.

That same evening, Iuka Fire Department also responded to a house fire at 206 Rowena in Iuka.

Apparently, said Grissom, the owners had cleaned out a storage unit, and were using one of the bedrooms for storage. They stacked stuff in front of a wall heater that came on. The house suffered much smoke damage and was uninhabitable, said Grissom.

"We try to tell people so often to take every precaution to avoid a house fire, like having your dryer vent cleaned out, and never, ever to put any furnishings or other items near wall heaters," said Grissom. "Wall heaters must have the power actually disconnected from them, or be shut off at the breaker box, because some will come on automatically at certain temperatures."

Dozens Participate in County's First Special Olympics at TCHS

by Pamela McRae

Monday morning may have been cloudy, but the light on the faces of some special athletes was like sweet sunshine.

Dozens of students in the Tishomingo County School District's special education programs turned out to compete against their peers in the first Special Olympics at the TCHS track.

Coaches Lanny and David Jones provided several categories of competition, from horseshoes to foot races and wheelchair races. And they had no lack of volunteers each time they announced a competition. Everyone won ribbons in the events, and at the end there was a medal ceremony to the champions - all the students.

Several parents came out to watch, and there were a lot of TCHS students that were able to lend a helping hand during the

Letters to the Editor

"I Did Not Know That There Were Anymore Bootleggers Left In Tishomingo County"???

In 1982, Colbert County, Alabama went wet. The reason that I know that it was the year of 1982 is because it made me mad when it went wet. I had just stopped drinking in 1991 and I stayed sober for 13 years and 19 days. To the best of my knowledge, that is when the Tishomingo County bootleggers were put out of business. After that, it got so bad that the Moonshine Makers, which is known as wildcat whiskey, had to almost quit making it. There were a few of them around in the AL and MS hollers. When the legalized whiskey came, sugar got so high that a feller could buy that legal whiskey for the price that he could buy the illegal whiskey. What we always called it was ROT-GUT WHISKEY. The people that made Moonshine whiskey could not compete with the price of the legal whiskey. The whiskey makers and bootleggers tried to find work to support their family not just their habit, but a lot could not find any work. The majority of them have moved away from Tishomingo County to find work. The way it is now, there is hardly any work around this county. There were many more jobs back then than there are here now. At least we had a few paper-wood yards, sawmills, a shirt factory and a shoe factory. These were not the best of jobs in the world but at least you could afford to buy your wife and kid's food and groceries. Belmont, MS had about 7 to 10 factories in it. What do we have now? HARDLY ANYTHING. I was at the Tishomingo Courthouse on May 10, 2012 and a couple of people talked to me about this article that was in the Tishomingo County Newspaper. I do not personally know Mr. Roger D. Carter and the people I had a conversation with told me that he had not even lived in the Tishomingo County area in over thirty years! It would be hard for me to believe that he realizes what is even going on in this county. Mr. Roger Carter has written one of the best articles to the "Letter to the Editor" that I have ever had wrote to me. He has spoken the truth about the folks going to other counties and states and giving them all of our tax dollars. It seems to me that the folks of Tishomingo County are going to CONTINUE to do that. Why keep getting the garbage, drunk-drivers, and all of the other things that go with that from people having to drive so far to get it? Why not sell it and get the tax money off it? It is a matter of possibly losing $400,000 to $500,000 thousands of dollars a year in our tax money. We all know that many people in Tishomingo County drink alcohol, so why should we continue to keep losing our tax money? We all can interpret that we cannot prevent people from drinking. If they want a drink, they are going to get it one way or the other. Why not use the money to possibly better our future for Tishomingo County? We are using the tax-payer's money for people to break the law. Instead of the taxpayers having to pay for a place for the people that break the law, how-about letting the alcohol they buy pay for this instead of letting the taxpayers pay for it?

Mr. Rogers has a good point about the taxi-cabs, but they are not available in Iuka. If you are drunk and cannot drive, you will call on your buddy to drive you, whether he or she is a drunk or not a drunk. I have one question for Mr. Rogers, "When did he become God?" I do not believe that he knows who is going to Heaven or Hell whether they sign the petition or not. If you sign the petition, it does not mean that you are for alcohol. It only means that you are exercising your rights to have a chance to vote on this. If you would like a copy of the petition to vote Tishomingo County wet please write to me, Mr. Charles Al-bridge at the address: Indian Creek Rd., local Iuka. I will be glad to believe that ANYONE Hell for signing the petition.

New Jail

My name is Roy I am a jail and prisoner. Forty plus years ago "counted me worthy" in me in this ministry" and done my best to not do him - although I do every day.

The reason for is to commend Tishomingo County for the fine recently opened. We were in dire need and my hat is off to played a part in making jail possible.

I have been as as North Port Beach, and as far East as CA MA and many hundred points in between, but not entered a jail where been so well received like about it the most cleanliness, but how jail staff are regarding programs. Chaplain Wood is doing an excellent ministering to those and remaining faithful. Jail Administrator's regulations at the same He is a man, like the Chief Deputy, Jail Auditor, the Jailers, Sec and the Nurse who are unsung heroes of Tishomingo County. They labor, jobs and go unnoticed we need them. The says, "A laborer is worth this hire." By the same those who deserve worthy of credit.

Thank you, the Tishomingo County being you. You are in my book and a fine which many other jail follow.

Another birthday, with you not here, thirty years old this year. I cannot allow myself to think what might have been for fear of losing what is left of my sanity.

Met a young woman who lost her son in August, everyone was telling her it will get better. I can assure her that is a lie. The pain of you being gone never goes away, it always lays right beneath the surface of my heart. I have just learned to show that smile, move forward and look forward to the day I see you again. How can a pain that ripped a hole in my heart get better? Then of course, I get I am so sorry for you. No pity, or sorry needed. I was blessed beyond belief to be your Mommy. Yes, it was only for 16 years, but the magic of knowing you will last a lifetime. It really does not matter how many children or grandchildren you are blessed to have, each child has a different part of your heart, all equal shares. Just because the pain of you being gone is intense, it does not mean the joy and love of another is less.

I used to say I lost you but I have found that you are not lost, you are alive in my heart and memories. You are just gone for a moment.

So, my sweet Casey, as you look out, in your world, if you happen to see your Mommy, know I hold you close waiting for the day those wonderful Ledbetter arms will hold me again. Happy Birthday darling...by the way if you happen to see a beautiful young woman from Iuka, put her under your wing, her brother is there too, God cut ya'll from the same cloth.

Seated are Jo Russell, President and Maxine Wade, Vice-President. Standing L-R: Sue Kerby, Historian; Fredda McCune, Treasurer; Zenobia Oaks, Parliamentarian; Terry Shea, Recording Secretary; Joy Kitchens, Corresponding Secretary; and Terrie Whitehurst, Reporter.

These new officers are looking forward to keeping the "Light" shining for a successful club term in 2012-2014 with community action projects.

GFWC-MFWC Iuka 20th Century Club Installs Officers For 2012-2014

On May 3rd at 6:30 p.m. the Iuka 20th Century Club had their monthly business meeting at the Tishomingo Living Center with 11 members present - Ruth Ellen Cox, Sue Kerby, Joy Kitchens, Fredda McCune, Vicky Monjeau, Zenobia Oaks, Jo Russell, Terry Shea, Wilma Thorne, Maxine Wade, and Terrie Whitehurst. Jo Russell, hostess introduced Meg Deaton, Administrative Assistant of the Tishomingo Living Center to members as they arrived. Ms. Deaton presented the program for Zenobia Oaks, the program chairman. Ms. Deaton presented a very informative program about the changes and services that the Tishomingo Living Center will offer in the near future.

After the program, Jo Russell led the club in the pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag and gave the devotional "God Is Good". She offered the blessing for our food that Ms. Deaton so graciously provided for the club - a delicious BBQ meal with Jo Russell providing the dessert. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the meal and the fellowship.

The business meeting began with the minutes, financial report and the correspondence. Plans for Relay for Life were finalized. Purple bows, luminaries, butterfly memorials, and a survivor's meal which President Whitehurst is planning. All Relay money should be turned in before or on Bank Day, May 17th.

Announcements were made about the following projects: TCHS Awards Day on May 15th; IES Art Festival; Summer Reading Program; Yard of the Month for May, June and

July; MFWC Summer Institute in July; GFWC Convention in Charlotte, NC June 12th-17th. Club Social will be May 17th at the Library with a salad lunch at 12 p.m.

Following the business meeting, President Terrie Whitehurst installed the officers for 2012-2014. She used the light bulb as a symbol of what each officer needed to do to keep the "Light" shining for the club to have a successful new term. Zenobia Oaks installed Terrie Whitehurst as the reporter.

After the installation, incoming President, Jo Russell presented the outgoing President, Terrie Whitehurst with a garden art butterfly for her outstanding leadership for the past three years.

The door prize was won by Terry Shea.

Looking to Identify Confederate Veterans

Kathy Everitt, of Cappleman's Antiques, was kind enough to share this photograph of Confederate veterans from about 1910. A few are identified, but perhaps some of our readers will recognize someone from their family, or may have seen this photo and have more information than what is on the back:

Confederate Veterans, Bay Springs, Tishomingo County, 10 miles west of Belmont, around 1910.

Rev. Joe S. Stockton, far left, second row, flag bearer.

If anyone has additional information, please contact Mrs. Everitt at Cappleman's, 662-423-9962.

Looking for Civil War Stories

The Civil War sesquicentennial celebration later this year is a great opportunity to document the many stories and historical accounts that exist about our county's involvement in the Civil War, especially the Battle of Iuka.

"Talking among friends and other volunteers has brought to light many old family stories that we need to record, collect and document if at all possible, before the memories are lost forever," said Debbie Brown, who is working on the ses-quicentennial remembrance, along with members of the Battleground Commission, and the Tishomingo County Historical and Genealogical Society.

Committee members and the Tishomingo County News are preparing a special edition to include information about historic homes, war accounts, and other family stories.

"The people who remember these things are getting older, and we must preserve the stories, so that future generations can realize the legacy they have in this place," said Brown.

Families and individuals are urged to recall, and compare family stories, and bring in photos that might be pertinent to the 150th anniversary observance of the Battle of Iuka. Bring your stories to the Tishomingo County News office, email (tcnews@bellsouth.net), or fax (423-2214) them, and we will compile the stories for our special edition, which is tentatively scheduled for publication in August.

GFWC-MFWC 20th Century Club "Yard Of The Month"

GFWC-MFWC Iuka 20th Century Club is proud to present the "Yard of the Month" for May to Chris and Richard Ortnier at 604 Graham Rd. The lovely yard begins with a water fountain in the front flower bed with cannas, knock-out roses, hostas and other plants bordered with money grass that extends across the entire front of the house. At the end of the house is a "wishing well" with more lovely plants and shrubs. The mailbox is a huge "boutique" with a beautiful flowering bush by it. Small crape myrtle bushes are planted across the front at the street which will be gorgeous. Beside the house is a unique fish pond landscaped with rocks, some yard art and plants with a bench for sitting to enjoy nature, read a good book or just people-watching! The Ortnier's were presented a gift certificate courtesy of Country Boy Farms on Battleground Drive.

Thanks, Chris and Richard for your hard work in making Graham Rd. an outstanding beautiful part of Iuka.

Rushing Drugs Donates to New B&G Club Technology Center

Ben Burns, of Rushing Drugs in Iuka, has donated a Compaq Presario laptop to the Iuka Boys & Girls Club to help them update their technology center.

"Our computers need updating, and so I've been asking around for some help, and Ben was one of the first to jump in to help," said Kevin Lovelace, Boys & Girls Club Unit Director.

The B&G Club will have the tech lab at the Iuka Elementary School location this summer, and in the fall, the mobile lab will be at the Teen Center a couple days a week, too, explained Lovelace.

"That's why we got laptops, so that they can serve us at both locations," Lovelace said.

Dying Man's Last Wish

His name is not important, not for this story. He was the Mayor of Paden. He was sick, he was dying, and he knew it.

We sat there in his room at the hospital, me and my cousin, Junior, who was also one of the Paden Alderman, and the Mayor's wife. We didn't have much to say, there wasn't much we could say. We had come to see him because we liked him and we knew how bad off he was. After a while she got up and left the room. It was just us, it was quiet.

It was a struggle for him to breathe much less talk, but he raised his hand and motioned for us to come to his bedside. We stood there beside him. "Boys," he said, "Boys," and coughed a couple of times and then just looked at us. It is sad to see someone dying, knowing there was nothing we could do for him. He had always been a healthy man, robust, a hunter, a fisherman, extremely active.

He wasn't from Paden, he had married a Paden girl, a cousin of mine. He had worked all of his life in Memphis and then retired down here.

He was of that old school. He was a gentleman and he had been a good mayor. He grew up during the time that men didn't share their secret habits openly, a time that women didn't drink at all, or so we thought, and men did their drinking down at the barn or at the smoke-house. He was from that time.

He said, "Boys, I'm not going to leave here," he coughed and struggled again trying to talk, "and there's something I need for ya'll to do for me."

At that time I had never been asked to honor a dying man's last request. I wondered if this was some legal matter, something to do with the Town or a personal matter he didn't want his wife to know about. He coughed. You could see the sadness in his eyes. He started again.

"In that cabinet by the garage door at the house is nearly a full fifth of whiskey. If she finds it she will pour every bit of it out."

"I want you boys to get it."

Looking back, I don't know if it meant that much to him or if it was the only thing that he could think of that he could do for us. We took it to my cousin Sue's house in Tupelo and told her to save it for Christmas.
