8-Year-Old Iuka Girl Drowns in Pickwick Lake

Pamela McRae

An Iuka family is mourning the drowning of an 8-year-old girl after a weekend dad-daughter camping trip ended in tragedy. According to Tishomingo County Chief Deputy Mike Kemp, young Cheyenne Walters went camping with her father this past weekend between Coleman Park and Steel Bridge area on Pickwick Lake. They parked begin to imagine what he went through, carrying his little girl all that way."

He apparently got turned around and rescuers finally found him near Johnson Cemetery; he may have carried her as much as 3/4 of a mile, as explained by investigators and emergency responders, who searched for the pair after a 911 call came in around 6:44 a.m. She was taken by ambulance to Iuka Hospital, but life-saving attempts were unsuccessful.

Kemp said investigators went out to the site with Chad Walters later Monday morning and verified that the lake dropped off to at least six feet of water immediately below the rocky bank where Cheyenne had been standing. "Everything was exactly as he described it, it just looks like a terrible, tragic accident," said chief deputy Kemp.

Cheyenne just finished second grade at Iuka Elementary, where she was in GEMS class, and participated in Girl Scouts. She played softball for the Friendly Florist softball team and enjoyed playing outside and chasing butterflies.

Visitation will be at 5 p.m. until 9 p.m. Thursday at Cutshall Funeral Home and the funeral will be at 11 a.m. Friday, June 15th, also at Cutshall's. She will be buried at Oak Grove Cemetery.

Survivors include her father and stepmother, Chad and Kimberly Walters of Iuka, and her mother, Crystal Brown of Corinth; her grandparents, Donna and Lester Walters, and James Richard "Dickie" Brown and Janet Cummings; her great-grandparents, Alice Barrett and Ann Walters; and one sister, Cashlynn Walters of Iuka.

Pallbearers include Jake Walters, Shon Waldrep, Michael Wayne Barrett, Tony Maxwell, Daryl Lambert, and Brandon Lambert.

Battle of Iuka Planning Meeting Thursday

Lots of volunteers and organizations are needed to help produce the Labor Day weekend festival.

Get involved! There will be a planning meeting at 6 p.m. Thursday, June 14th at the Tishomingo County Development Foundation on Battleground Drive.

Iuka Man Killed in Wreck Early Tuesday

An Iuka man was killed in a one-vehicle wreck late Monday or early Tuesday morning off Pike Street in Iuka.

Billy Gene Stewart, 51, of Iuka, was killed when he apparently lost control of the 1982 Dodge Rampage he was driving toward town on Pike Street, according to Tishomingo County Coroner Mack Wilemon.

Apparently there were no witnesses to the wreck, said Wilemon. A passerby reported seeing the wrecked car around 1:15 a.m. Tuesday.

The cause of the wreck is still under investigation. Cause of death was preliminarily announced as trauma due to the accident, said Wilemon.

Lost Cause Confederate String Band to Help Kick Off Battle of Iuka 150th Anniversary Celebration

by Pamela McRae

Organizers announced this week that The Lost Cause Confederate String Band will help kick off the big Sesquicentennial and Heritage Day festivities Labor Day weekend in Iuka.

September 19th, 1862 the Battle of Iuka was one of the bloodiest of the Civil War, and this Labor Day weekend, the Iuka Battleground Commission and the Heritage Day Committee are teaming up to observe the 150th anniversary of that day with a festival, living history demonstrations, a reenactment of the battle itself, and much more.

The Lost Cause

The Lost Cause Band bills themselves as a Confederate string band preserving history through interpretations of antebellum and War Between the States songs performed on stringed instruments in Confederate costume. Their repertoire includes more than 100 authentic Southern arrangements promoting heritage, not hate. They perform routinely for events like the Battle of Iuka/Heritage Day festival, honoring the Southern roots of what later became blues, country, folk, bluegrass, Southern gospel, rock-a-billy and rock and roll music. They revel in preserving this unique period of American history for future generations to enjoy.

The band will play in Jay Bird Park in historic Downtown Iuka, and will also be playing some on Saturday morning, and Sunday prior to Battle Reenactment. They will set up in sutlers' (re-enactor's campsite) area to sell their CDs.

Weekend Kicks Off Friday

Friday, August 31st, re-enactors will move into a campsite across from Mineral Springs Park, and there will be school demonstrations behind the Old Courthouse Museum.

Beginning at 4 p.m., the Lost Cause band will play in Jaybird Park. Also at 4 p.m. "General Henry Little," who was killed in the Battle of Iuka, will be portrayed by his great-great-nephew, Fielding Tyler, who is coming in from Virginia Beach. That will be at Twin Magnolias, where Little made his headquarters during the Battle.

There will be another living history event at the Old Courthouse beginning at 5 p.m., when Governor

John Stone, leader of the Iuka Rifles, Co. K, and one of Mississippi's post-war governors (as portrayed by Dr. Phil Bozeman, Stone's great-great-grandson) will greet festival attendees.

At 6 p.m. that night, there will be a military escort of General Little's "body" down historic Quitman Street. And then at dusk, Iuka will be illuminated by more than 2,000 luminaries, honoring those who gave their life in the historic battle.

Saturday and Sunday

Saturday events include the popular Heritage Festival-all day; military drills, living histories, descendants' reunion & banquet, mass grave roll call at Shady Grove Cemetery, antique car show, buggy rides, self-guided historic homes tour, grand ball, and much more!

Sunday events start when the battle site opens at 9 a.m. and will include church services, mail call, and the 2 p.m. Battle reenactment

For more information on this exciting event, please check out the website: www.battleofiuka.com.

Iuka 9-10 All Stars Bring Home Trophy from Michie Tourney

Has this Guy Signed "the Petition?"

So far this summer I have made no contact with any snakes, which makes it one of my better summers. Others have not been so lucky, one friend lost a small dog to a snake bite, and another lost a sack of groceries, including eggs, when she found one on her back porch.

Oddie Davis's great-nephew, Chuck Glidewell is responsible for the one pictured on this page. Nothing was said about its companion, they always have one when they get that big. Remember when Huck left the dead one at Jim's side and the other came back and bit Jim on the foot?

Chuck killed it in a wet county somewhere. I know this because the snake was drunk at the time. There is nothing worse than a drunken rattlesnake. You can't reason with them, they're overbearing, belligerent and hateful. Is this what we have to look forward to if Tishomingo County goes wet?

Letters to the Editor

What Are You Waiting For?

The petition to vote Tishomingo County wet is getting mighty close to having enough signatures to get this on the ballot to be voted on. I turned in 46 more signatures two weeks ago to the Tishomingo County Courthouse. There were 22 signatures that were good. For some reason, 24 of those names were rejected. This makes a total of 1,213 names that have been rejected. This tells me that the majority of Tishomingo county would like to see this go to a vote. A lot of people keep telling me that when I get a little closer that they will decide to sign the petition. I have asked them how they expect for it to get closer because there are too many people waiting for it to get closer to the end of it before they will sign the petition. If the people that keep believing this would come out and sign the petition it would already be over with. We only need 302 more legal registered voters to sign this. If you think that your name may have been rejected from the petition please call the Tishomingo County Circuit Clerks office at (662) 423-7026. If you would like to have a copy of this petition to sign I will be glad to mail you one, write to:

Another Week, Another Storm

Belmont Suffers in Monday Pop-Up Thunderstorm

by Pamela McRae

Monday evening, Tishomingo County was again hit by severe thunderstorms, and Belmont suffered significant damage from high winds and heavy rain.

The storm hit the county, from the north end all the way to the south, from about 5:30 to 6:30, and came on quite suddenly. Sunny conditions around 4:45 had people doubting the severe thunderstorm warnings that started being issued around 4:30.

According to Belmont Police Chief Donald Reno trees were down and blocking roads on Main, 4th, Monroe, Washington, Anthony Streets, Old Highway 25, Redbud Road, and Bethel Road, and roofs were blown off at the NAPA Auto Parts store, Belmont Café and the old Rainbow store. First Baptist Belmont and the Belmont school also sustained damage from high winds. There were some homes that reported trees down, and a couple with trees actually causing damage to structures, said officials.

Tishomingo County EMA director Bill Strickland said that he had reports of structure damage in 50 locations, and that power was out to as many as 5,000 customers. He said there were also trees down on Snowdown Road in Iuka.

There was also 6 inches of water in the Belmont Library, but investigation indicated it had blown in the back door, said Strickland.

This house near Belmont school had damage from a storm that was blown down in Monday's storm.

There are tarps available through the EMA office, said Strickland, who had already distributed several by Tuesday morning.

Chief Reno issued thanks to all the agencies and people who pitched in to help with the clean up.

"It's times when we all pull together for the common good, serving the public. I really see how good it is to live in the place we live in. Thank you, Chief Reno. Thank everyone who helped with the cleanup."

A Father's Day Tribute

I wanted to put something in the paper in remembrance of Daddy (Noonan Cecil Phifer) for Father's Day and for his birthday, June 20th. I could think of many, many things to say about Daddy, about his goodness, his willingness to always help his fellow man and encourage everybody, his big heart full of love that overflowed to everybody he met, but I thought this was so appropriate. Daddy raised Diane right along side of us; she knew him well – and what a heartfelt eulogy she wrote and delivered at Daddy's funeral. It's just so good that I wanted to share with everybody.

Eulogy of Cecil Phifer

By Dianne Cutshall Biddle

I have never not known Cecil Phifer. He called me "Blossum". He has been a part of my life forever. And Brenda, she was in the room with me when my mother died and I was with her when Lillian died. And I have lots of memories of spending time with a lot of you, Phifers. He taught me how to drive, ride a horse, and eat turnip greens and cornbread. He spanked me one day for sitting down in a mud puddle with my good dress on and made me so mad I begged my Daddy to fire him. Cecil never let me forget that story.

I walked home with him from work many nights to spend the night with Brenda and mostly to eat supper with them. As a child, I remember how his foot hurt and had to be soaked every day, the dark days and nights of his mother's death, Lillian's sickness and death, and I don't remember him ever complaining. On a lighter note, I'm sure he wished I wasn't always around when he had to sit with the phones and he brought his new girlfriend, Rosie. I watched them like a hawk. And then, we had a bigger Phifer family: Rosie, Johnny, Billy Ray and Noonan.

Cecil was the kind of man you could get an education from. He knew lots of "stuff". There was a right way and a wrong way about everything. He might not have had a lot of formal schooling, but he was wise to the world. He was what you would call "old school", maybe local color in our town. Cecil did a lot of hauling. He went on long ambulance hauls, many hearse hauls, a lot of flower wagon hauls, and a lot of Everett Cutshall hauls, then had to haul me around town. Later he did the same for my children, taking them to school in the hearse. He loved my children like they were his.

Cecil and George taught me how to work funerals. We didn't direct them, we worked them. Many times I looked around and Cecil and I would be looking at each other with tears in our eyes. We were the "softies". Cecil had a lot of compassion for everyone.

I'm proud to have been a student of Cecil Phifer's. This world needs more like him.

Good-Bye, CE-BO

Iuka Middle School Uses Grant To Improve Nutrition, New Equipment Will Make IMS Meals Healthier For Students

As part of a comprehensive effort to improve student health, Iuka Middle School plans to install new kitchen equipment. Using a Nutrition Integrity grant from the Mississippi Department of Education Office of Child Nutrition, funded by The Bower Foundation, the school will replace its existing deep fat fryer with oven steamers. This healthy change is made possible by the Nutrition Integrity grant that Tishomingo County School district received in May, 2012.

"A combination oven steam uses super-heated steam to cook foods with less fat, saturated fat, and trans fats," says Food Service Director Teresa Stanford. "Since school meals are such an important way to insure that our children are fit, healthy, and ready to succeed, we want the foods we serve to be as nutritious and appealing as possible. "The new equipment will help the foodservice staff improve the 7500 breakfast and lunches served every month to students and staff in the Iuka Middle School cafeteria.

Installing new kitchen equipment and lower-fat cooking methods are two of the many ways that Iuka Middle School is focusing on the health of students. More fresh fruit and vegetable choices are also available to students and staff in our efforts to improve school nutrition. "We recognize the critical connection between good health and success in the classroom," says Principal Christie Holly. "In addition to replacing our fryer with this new oven steamer, our local wellness policy includes that we will eliminate fried foods for a period of five years.

"The funds received from this grant will complete our goal of placing two combination oven steamers in every school in the district while improving school nutrition for all Tishomingo County students" says Superintendent Malcolm Kuykendall.

Happy 98th Birthday!

On June 1st, Tishomingo Community Living Center resident, Ms. Lela Gamble celebrated her 98th birthday. Ms. Lela smiled when Activity Director Jamie V... started planning a birthday party for the resident. Ms. Lela laughed, stating that being 98 is party enough. Her day was filled with visits from family, friends and staff. On behalf of the staff and residents of TCLC, we wish Ms. Lela a Happy 98th Birthday!

DAR Presents Award

Sue Kerby, active member of Chief Tishomingo DAR had the honor to present the Historic Preservation Recognition Award to Cindy Nelson, past Regent and is the Historian of the Chief Tishomingo DAR, on May 26th, 2012 following the Memorial Day Service. This award comes from the national DAR.

Mrs. Nelson is a voice for historic preservation in Tishomingo County. She founded the Tishomingo County Historical and Genealogical Society (TCHGS). One of her community historic endeavors was to save the old courthouse and its contents. TCHGS opened the courthouse to the public as the Tishomingo County Archives and History Museum in 2003.

Another accomplishment was to restore Midway

School by asking for grants and raising funds to save the school. With help from the public, former students and the Midway Homemakers Club, this school is available for public use for a small fee. It is used frequently for meetings, reunions, receptions, and weddings. The school is a community historic treasure.

In 2009, Mrs. Nelson acquired an abandoned one-room colored school in an effort to save it from destruction, she managed to get land donated and moved the school to a safer and more accessible location. This is still a project underway.

Under her visionary leadership, the local school system works with the museum to plan and promote support educational programs. At TCHS, history students receive credit in volunteerism.

Mrs. Nelson is currently involved with the historic Midway School, the Burnsville One Room Colored School, the Tishomingo County Historic and Genealogical Society and the Tishomingo County Archives and History Museum. As such, she is the key person responsible for funding, programs and stewardship.

Indeed, Cindy Nelson certainly deserves this award and we, the people of Tishomingo County and the DAR are indebted to her accomplishments. Thanks, Mrs. Cindy Nelson for a job well done and as you continue in your efforts to preserve our history, we salute you!!!

Tishomingo County Veterans Honored At Memorial Event

Chief Tishomingo Chapter DAR was recently honored to unite with the American Legion Post 15 in honoring Tishomingo fallen veterans. The Memorial Day Service was held on Saturday, May 26th, 2012 at 10 o'clock a.m. at the Veteran Memorial Monument located at the Tishomingo County Courthouse. The monument had a beautiful red, white and blue floral arrangement placed by the Luka 20th Century Club. Don Grant placed a beautiful standing patriotic spray to honor our veterans.

To begin the ceremony, Eunell Handy, DAR Regent welcomed everyone. Don Grant led the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag. Jo Russell offered the prayer for our country and our heritage followed by the group singing "America".

Don Grant, Commander of the American Legion, Post 15 did the Memorial Roll-Call by reading the names from the monument of the fallen veterans of World War I, World War II, Korean Conflict, Vietnam Conflict and Operation Iraqi Freedom. At this time of sovereignty, the group sang the "Star Spangled Banner".

In conclusion, Sue Kerby, DAR active committee member, read the nomination for the Historic Preservation Recognition Award and announced that Cindy Whirley Nelson was the recipient of this award. Mrs. Nelson is a former Regent of DAR and currently serves as DAR Historian and works on several committees.

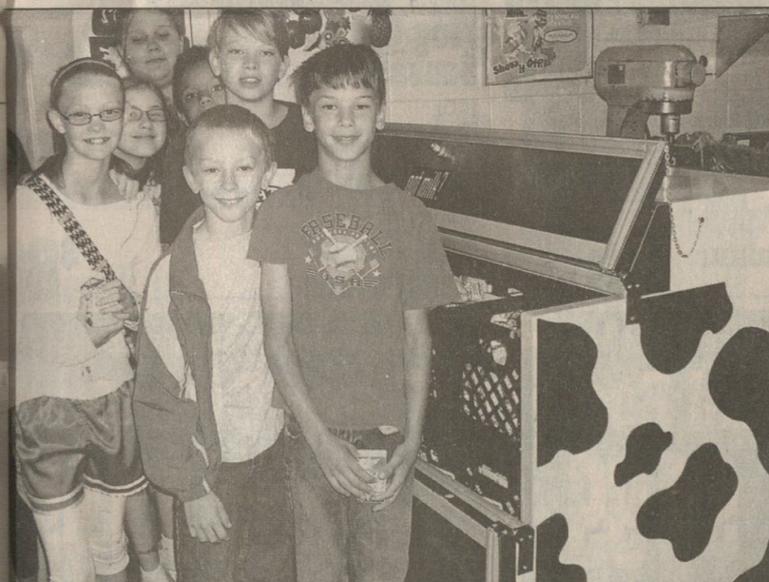

Refreshments were served. Following the DAR had a short business meeting. Eunell Handy, DAR Regent, called the meeting to order and the DAR Ritual was conducted. Officer reports were given, the 150 year anniversary celebration was discussed. DAR officers for the upcoming year which will be discussed at the next meeting in September. The committees have some changes

Tishomingo County Schools Win 2nd Place In Statewide Breakfast Contest

Tishomingo County Schools won second place in the Mississippi Statewide "Fuel Up Like a Pro" breakfast Contest by participating in school breakfast during the month of March. Second place prize was a Dairy Makeover valued at $3,000.00. This contest was sponsored by the Southeast United Dairy Industry Association. Tishomingo County Schools increased breakfast participation by 11.29 percent during the month of March. Studies have shown that eating breakfast can improve math, reading, and standardized test scores. Breakfast helps children pay attention, perform problem-solving tasks, and improves memory. School Breakfast provides 1/4 of the recommended amounts of protein, calcium, iron, vitamin A, and vitamin C for the day. Thanks to all the students who participated in school breakfast during the month of March.

Charles and Delyla Byram

Tishomingo Couple Helps To Keep History Alive

Delyla and Charles Byram of Tishomingo, Miss., with Janice Switcher, Volunteer at the Tishomingo County Archives & History Museum

Charles and Delyla Byram of Tishomingo, Miss., continue to astound the Tishomingo County Historical & Genealogical Society for their generosity to the citizenry of this County. Following several years of donations of cameras, books, military memorabilia, artistry, local history, photographs, and much more, the couple recently surprised the organization with another special donation.

Through his profession as a professional photographer, Charles, accompanied by his beautiful and artistic wife, Delyla, met and made lifelong friends with many accomplished movie stars in their day, including Foy Willing, Riders of the Purple Sage, for whom Charles created two album jackets. The families visited often.

During a recent telephone visit with the late Foy Willing's wife, Sharon Lee

Willing, the Byram couple mentioned the Tishomingo County Archives & History Museum and the fact that they had recently donated a large collection of black-and-white western star photographs to be sold by the Society to help generate some much-needed funding for County-wide historical efforts. Mr. and Mrs. Byram suggested a donation of one of Foy Willing's one-million seller albums to accompany one of Charles' photography exhibits. Mrs. Willing was very pleased to contribute and recently mailed the couple a collection of RCA Victor, Majestic, and Capitol records that include these songs: Have I Told You Lately, Cool Water, So Round, So Firm, So Fully Packed, No One To Cry To, Someone In Tennessee, Stampede, I Care No More, Goodbye and Good Luck, Twilight on the Trail, and Tumbling Tumbleweeds. She also presented the Byram's her book entitled "No One to Cry To." Published in 2006, this book contains many of Mr. Byram's original photographs. The book chronicles the career of Foy Willing of The Riders of the Purple Sage.

The Byram couple presented the gift to Cindy Nelson and Janice Switcher of the Tishomingo County Historical & Genealogical Society on May 19, 2012.

Delyla's famous magnolia prints, The Whisper of Peace, and a huge number of personal photographic collections created by Charles, including Kirk Allen (the original superman), Myron Healey, Gene Autry, Laurel and Hardy, Slim Andrews, Don Barry, Bill "Red Rider" Elliot, Clark and Scarlett O'Hara, Lash LaRue, and Victor French are available in the Woodall Mountain Market Gift Shop located in the old Tishomingo County Courthouse.

The Tishomingo County Historical & Genealogical Society is grateful and very appreciative to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Byram for assisting them with their mission to preserve history by way of their recent contributions.

Davis Feed Store in Iuka

Once a thriving business in Iuka, the E. D. Davis Farm Supply was located on the corner of Eastport and Fulton (now Higdon's). Mr. Elmo is shown in front of the supply in the early 1950's. He retired in the late 50's and his son Garvin Davis took over the business. Mr. Elmo, a successful businessman, and his wife, Ms. Roxy, were both born in Iuka. They had two daughters, Dorothy and Elaine, and son, Garvin Mr. Davis died in 1962 at the age of 66. Mrs. Charlotte Long Gounce, granddaughter of the Davis family is sharing this photo with our readers.

Sign Language Club Attends Annual Deaf Awareness Day

The very first Tishomingo County High School Sign Language Club was initiated this school year. Thomasena Brown, who serves as an Educational Interpreter and is avidly involved in the deaf community, is the sponsor of the club. Students who are involved in the club have participated in several events this school year. Students, Christine Cutshall and Shelby Moss served at the Mississippi School for the Blind during a Deaf/Blind retreat focused on "Accessing the Dream". They also held county-wide deaf meetings at the high school inviting our deaf community to come out and socialize with each other. Recently the Sign Language Club participated in the Annual Deaf Awareness Day held at Six Flags over Georgia. During the event, students communicated with deaf individuals about different aspects of life. Many of the deaf were happy our students were learning their language, so they encouraged the student to keep up the good work. Our students understood the importance of being the ears and voices of the deaf. This was a great learning experience for them and they look forward to next year's event.

According to Gallaudet Research Institute, Gallaudet University, there are approximately 10,000,000 persons that are hard of hearing and about 1,000,000 who are functionally deaf. Here in MS, we have about 20,000 deaf individuals with a portion residing in our school district. The Sign Language Club will continue serving the deaf community and they will be happy for any individuals who would love to be a part of the county-wide deaf awareness gathering to please come to the event. The Sign Language Club would like to thank the Tri-State Educational Foundation for funding this event.

Mississippi Dance Students Accepted to School of Nashville Ballet Summer Program

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (June 11, 2012) - The School of Nashville Ballet has accepted three young dancers from Mississippi, who study at Tupelo Academy of Dance Arts, to participate in its Junior Intensive summer program, where they will spend part of their summer developing their ballet technique at the official school of Nashville Ballet:

- Isabella Webb, of Iuka,
- Emme Riley, of Tupelo,
- Anna Calhoun, of Tupelo,

"Our Junior Intensive summer program offers students a chance to work with our internationally recognized teachers and be seen by Nashville Ballet's Artistic Director Paul Vasterling," School of Nashville Ballet Director Andrew Walker said. "That exposure and continued training through the summer can help students gain the competitive edge when auditioning for school or performance opportunities later on."

Students in the Junior Intensive program come from seven Tennessee counties and six states in the southeast. All 50 students selected for the School of Nashville Ballet's Junior Intensive program spend summer having fun while developing their dance and performance skills.

Nashville Ballet is the largest professional ballet company in Tennessee. Nashville Ballet presents a varied repertoire of classical ballet and contemporary works by noted choreographers, including original works by Artistic Director & CEO Paul Vasterling. Nashville Ballet and the second company NB2 (a professional training company) serve nearly 25,000 adults and children annually through performances and our outreach and community engagement programming. Curriculum-based outreach programs bring dance education to community centers, colleges, public libraries and public elementary, middle and high schools across the state. The School of Nashville Ballet provides world-class instruction in ballet and other forms of dance for dancers of all ages.

Nashville Ballet is funded in part from grants made available through the Metro Nashville Arts Commission, the Tennessee Arts Commission and the National Endowment for the Arts. Funding from the Ingram Charitable Fund supports the presentation of the Nashville Symphony Orchestra for most performances. Additional funding is also provided by The Shubert Foundation, Bridgestone Americas Trust Fund, HCA Tri-Star, Sun Trust, ELAN Hair / ELAN Skin, Caterpillar Financial, The Memorial Foundation and Publix Super Market Charities.

Technology Donation - Barbara Sweeney, right, has donated a Compaq computer for the Boys' and Girls' Club, represented by Executive Director Kevin Lovelace.

Boys' and Girls' Club Gets Another Computer for Lab Update

With the donation of four computers so far, and purchase of several more, the Boys' and Girls' Club of Iuka is making progress on its goal to upgrade the technology in its mobile computer lab.

Monday, Barbara Sweeney, of Iuka, donated the fourth Compaq laptop that will be added to the eleven others already purchased by the Board of Directors of the Boys' and Girls' Club of Iuka.

Their goal is to get twenty computers to replace their old computer lab equipment, which included desktop computers from 2004, explained Kevin Lovelace. The mobile technical center will be located at Iuka Elementary during the summer, where some 85-90 kids attend the club daily. In the fall, the mobile lab will allow use of the equipment at the Youth Center in Mineral Springs Park, where junior high club kids attend an after-school program.

The Boys' and Girls' Club board bought some of the computers, and others have stepped up to donate to the program, including Ben Burns, of Rushing Drugs. Barbara Sweeney is also on the board of directors, so she sees the value of the program.

"This is such a worthwhile program, and I really feel like it makes a difference in the lives of these children and their parents," said Mrs. Sweeney of the technical education opportunities provided by the program.

The students will use education modules through a national Boys' and Girls' Club program at www.myclubmylife.com. They will learn many aspects of computer usage, from word processing and graphic design, to presentation and web design software, said Lovelace.

The Boys' and Girls' Club of Iuka registered its 1000th member last week, and already have about a dozen more kids signed up since then, said Lovelace, making a total of about 240 currently enrolled in the free program. There are eight employees and several part-time volunteers that help at the club.

Old Tishomingo Traces by June Bullard

Wright Bonds Gravesite Located

Have you ever searched and searched for something and suddenly it's there staring you in the face? It had been right there under your nose all the time! This happened to me last Wednesday in searching notes of my paternal second greatgrandfather Wright BONDS. I read the obituary of my greatgrandfather Lemuel Bonds who died 5 June 1909, Wright's youngest son. In the obituary it stated that "Lemuel would be buried in the Bonds Family Cemetery." Wait a minute! I had always believed that he was the first buried there but evidently he wasn't because it said the Bonds Family Cemetery, not Lemuel's private burial ground. The first time I visited the site I noticed 3 or 4 large mounds indicating graves of adults and several small mounds for children. I supposed that Lemuel was the first interred there because he was the only one to have a monument, a Civil War marker provided by the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Then, my mind started racing back, when I first visited the cemetery, I wondered why it was located across the road from Lemuel's homeplace. Seems like they would have built the cemetery behind the house not right in the front.

As I continued to try to sort things out, I started looking through copies of old deeds I had found in the Iuka and Corinth Court Houses. I found where Lemuel Bonds' wife Sarah (Scruggs) daughter of William A. and Elizabeth Scruggs (my second greatgrandparents) had inherited 1/7 of William's estate and Lemuel bought the other six parts. So, the Lemuel Bonds' homeplace had originally been the Scruggs homeplace! I knew by looking at the 1850 Census of Tishomingo County that Wright's widow, Priscilla, Lemuel and Sarah Bonds (Sarah & Lemuel married in 1849) were living next to William and Elizabeth Scruggs. The late Grace Coker told me that Kate Moser told her that Elizabeth Scruggs was buried behind the Lemuel Bonds' home around 1886. At the time, I wondered why she wasn't buried in the Bonds Cemetery. Now, I realize since William was buried behind their house, she wanted to be buried beside her husband. The Wright Bonds homeplace is across the road from the William Scruggs homeplace. In those early times families used their own property for burial grounds. Now, I think, I can safely say, the Bonds cemetery did not start with the burial of Lemuel, it started with the burial of Wright Bonds who died on 10th of February 1843. (This is the actual death date of Wright from his pension of War of 1812 found in Fold3. Every Bonds researcher is using his estate settlement date as his death date).

Since this is the 200th anniversary of the War of 1812, it would be great if Wright Bonds' descendants could get together and get a monument erected for him in the Bonds Cemetery. Wright was a great man dedicated to serving Tishomingo County in its infancy. He was one of the first grocery store owners in Tishomingo County and his store ledger can be found at the Corinth Museum. He owned a store in Alabama near the county line of Lawrence and Franklin Counties before moving to Tishomingo County. The names of the people in the ledger match some of the names of people who owed him money in his estate settlement. Wright Bonds Jr. was the executor of his father's estate and he was a county official who worked out of the courthouse so it would be logical that he left the ledger there. Beside his business and political interests, Wright was also a minister of the gospel and solemnized marriages throughout old Tishomingo

County. In Wright's record from War of 1812, he was a sergeant in the Volunteers, 1st Regiment (Perkins) Infantry, December 1813 and at Fayetteville, Tennessee 25 February 1814. He was $11 per day, 40¢ per horse and .25 per day riding. Wright Bonds' Tishomingo County record about six years before but his spirit lives on in his efforts to make Tishomingo County a wonderful place and through his efforts who can be found in the county to coast. It is wonderful to have heroes especially ancestors.

When God Says "No"

Forgiveness does not necessarily put everything back just like it was before! We are hearing a theology in our day that makes it sound like sin doesn't really cost us anything, as long as we seek forgiveness and receive it.

This just is not what the Bible teaches about sin! I am thinking about one of the greatest men in the Bible, Moses. Numbers 12:3 says, Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth." Numbers 12:7 shows God as saying that Moses was faithful in all His house. Deuteronomy 34:10 says, And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face." With all of the great things that God's word says about Moses, we have a problem recorded in Numbers 20:12 that barred Moses from entering the promised land. Our verse says, And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed Me not, to sanctify Me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them."

As great as Moses was, he was still barred from entering the blessed promised land, because he failed to sanctify God at the waters of Meribah. God had told Moses to speak to the rock, but he struck the rock twice with his rod. Deuteronomy 3:24-25 shows Moses praising God and asking Him to allow him to enter the promised land. God gives His answer to Moses request in Deuteronomy 3:26-27: "But the LORD was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto Me of this matter. Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan." Some things just cannot be recovered after some sins! Moses loved God; he was a great leader and He wrote five books of the Bible, but he was not allowed to enter the promised land. Those who think that everything can be restored after sin need to realize that some things can never be as they were before. Such is often the case with divorce, especially when children are involved. God will forgive, but that does not make everything right with the children. People need to count the cost before they walk away from the plain and simple truths of God's Word!

Looking for Civil War Stories & Photos

The Civil War sesquicentennial celebration later this year is a great opportunity to document the many stories and historical accounts that exist about our county's involvement in the Civil War, especially the Battle of Iuka.

"Talking among friends and other volunteers has brought to light many old family stories that we need to record, collect and document if at all possible, before the memories are lost forever," said Debbie Brown, who is working on the sesquicentennial remembrance, along with members of the Battleground Commission, and the Tishomingo County Historical and Genealogical Society.

Committee members and the Tishomingo County News are preparing a special edition to include information about historic homes, war accounts, and other family stories. "The people who remember these things are getting older, and we must preserve the stories, so that future generations can realize the legacy they have in this place," said Brown. Families and individuals are urged to recall, and compare family stories, and bring in photos that might be pertinent to the 150th anniversary observance of the Battle of Iuka. Bring your stories to the Tishomingo County News office, email (tcnews@bellsouth.net), or fax (423-2214) them, and we will compile the stories for our special edition, which is tentatively scheduled for publication in August.

Thank You

The family of Larry Brown would like to extend their appreciation for all of the prayers, phone calls, food and flowers that were given during this difficult time. It meant so much to have such a loving community caring for us through this. Sincere thanks, Sue, Brandon and Latasha Brown And Family
