Supervisors, continued from front

any future agenda.

According to board attorney Philip Whitehead, a public notice with the originally approved motion (and 10-9 hours) will be sent for publication in the Tishomingo County News beginning this week.

Clarifications

As expected, an issue like this generates a lot of talk on both sides of the issue. Some people think that the county should have had the right to vote on Sunday sales, but Mississippi law allows the people's representatives (supervisors) to determine the ordinances governing sales of beer and alcohol. It is within their right to make whatever decision they choose.

They are required by law to publicize the change to the ordinance, but not to ask for public opinions or a hearing.

Another issue is that some think that it should be contained to just the lake marina areas, and the law does allow for a "resort status" to be established, but that required action by the legislature, which is already adjourned for the year.

The county has previously had property around Bay Springs Lake designated "resort status," to attract a hotel prospect, but that has never come to be.

Also, Paden and Burnsville already allow Sunday sales by board-of-aldermen approved ordinances.

The Tishomingo County Board of Supervisors can, and do issues that come to them in regular meetings, and several other during the month, ever they choose to meeting. Since the "cess" at the end of meetings, it allows legally to come back session and without ing to publicize the ing, or post that a meeting, aside from regular 1st and 3rd day meetings, is held.

district. They offer items that Kevin has himself in his own houses.

Pet of the Week

CONGRATULATIONS to Maggie Enlow!! This little cutie pie is our Pet Of The Week at Animal Clinic.

This is what her owners have to say about her: "My name is Maggie Enlow and I am a 2 1/2 year old tiny Yorkie with a big heart and a bigger attitude. My family/pack is Greg and Danette Enlow. I came to live with Greg and Danette when I was 5 months old. I love Dr. Perkins and his staff, especially Heidi, who makes me look beautiful. Every visitor who comes to our house comes to see me or at least that's what I think. My favorite toys are 'Leopard', 'Bunny', and a big floppy 'Pheasant'. I love to carry them in my mouth and have someone chase me. I am a champion at the game of 'Keep Away'. I love visitors but I fiercely protect our turf from stray cats, squirrels, and deer that come into our yard. My mom has a big pink purse made especially for me to travel in when I go to the Iuka Animal Clinic.

When it's time to ride, I run to get inside. As you can tell, I am a special girl and much loved by my family and all who know me." Join Dr. Perkins & staff in congratulating Maggie Enlow as our Pet Of The Week.

Myth: I can't afford to give a flea preventive monthly.

Reality: Can you afford to change the oil in your car to keep it running smoothly and help cut down on expensive repairs? Providing preventive health measures for your pet is the same approach.

Compared to the stress and cost of treating flea-related illnesses-and possibly someone to decontaminate your home-monthly control is a low-cost alternative. If you can't afford to pay for a year's worth at a time, you can buy monthly, quarterly, or every six months.

Call Iuka Animal Clinic (Dr. Perkins & staff) @662-423-3470 for all your pet needs where Pets Are Family, Too!

Happy 20th Anniversary May 20th Joey and Susie

Family isn't always blood. It's the people in your life who want you in theirs; the ones who accept you for who you are. The ones who would do anything to see you smile and who love you no matter what.

Praying For A Miracle For Makalyn Powers

Eleven year old Makalyn Powers is in need of your thoughts and prayers. She attends Iuka Middle School and is in the 6th grade. Makalyn is the daughter of Brandy Powers of Iuka and Rick Powers of Glen. Her siblings are Caleb Powers and Kristin Nguyen of Iuka.

Makalyn Powers

Makalyn has been diagnosed with Suprarenal Pulmonary Hypertension and Eisenmenger's Syndrome. She has a VSD larger than a quarter between her ventricles with bidirectional shunt. She isn't operable for any open heart surgery because of the pulmonary hypertension in her heart and lungs. All of Makalyn's data has been sent to St. Louis, Missouri where she will have a consultation for her heart and lung transplants. All the time of transplants she will spend a minimum of 6 months hospitalized. When she will be flying to

New York City to see the Nations Top Expert in her rare condition and diagnosis. Due to Makalyn's illness she is currently having to travel a great deal to specialists around the country. This duration is expected to last indefinitely. Any monetary donations can be given to any First American National Bank (Benefit For Makalyn Powers). Donations given go directly to Makalyn's needs such as medical expenses, gas, food, flights, etc., and is greatly appreciated. Claiming a miracle in Jesus name.

Casey Joe Ledbetter

May 13th, 1982 - February 10th, 1999

Your birthday is again upon us. Just realizing you have been gone 15 years. You would be 32 years old. You would be 32 this year, my heart and mind plays tricks on me, someday, it seems it was only yesterday that you were here. Other times, it seems it was many lifetimes ago. For sure, everyday you are always in my heart. I try not to think of the 'what-ifs'. What if you had married, what if you would have had children? Those thoughts are the ones that mess with my head. For sure, don't let those thoughts linger. I have to admit my heart always aches a little around this time of year. YEP! I am a bit emotional. Then I pick up my big girl panties and move forward. Life is so full of so many great memories, some in the past, but so many more still left to be made.

Love You, My Casey Joe!
Happy Birthday!

The Bible In Miniature (Part V)

I have called Romans chapter 12 the "Bible in miniature" because it covers so many things that we are to do as believers, almost as if God is giving a nutshell version of the entire ethical system of the Bible. The first three verses show us the need to present ourselves to God, as well as the need not to think too highly of ourselves. Since the first three verses show us how to think about ourselves, we will now need some information which shows us how to think of others, and the rest of the chapter does that!

Romans 12:4-5 shows us that believers are all one body in Christ: "For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office: So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another." There is no way, nor is there any need, to seek to get around the truth that all people who are truly saved in this age are a part of the body of Christ, which is also called the church: (Ephesians 1:22-23; 5:30-32, and other references, clearly teach this truth.) Yes, there is disagreement within the body of Christ, just as there is disagreement within physical families, but that does not change the fact that all who have been saved since Pentecost are a part of the body of Christ. (I am using Pentecost as the time the church began, others may have different opinions, but the main thing I am saying is that the church and Israel are distinct groups, as clearly taught is Romans chapters 9-11.) By the way, the church is not supposed to be a "bunch of puppets" who never can have any differences of opinions or thoughts. If we read the Bible with any carefulness, we will learn that good people have often had different opinions. This does not mean, however, that we do not agree on the fundamentals of the faith, for we do agree on these things.

Did you notice that our verses say that the physical body (verse 4) has many members? Most people would say, "Of course we know this." The problem is that many people seem to miss the point that the body of Christ (spiritually) is made up of different members, meaning that we do not all have the same function. Some of us have been called to preach the gospel as pastors, evangelists or missionaries. Others have been called to be musicians, pianists or Sunday school teachers. Still others are termed as "helps" in I Corinthians 12:28 (few people ever vie for this position, but it is mentioned before some of the most coveted "gifts"). The word "helps" means: "relief"; it comes from a word that means to succor, or run to the cry of another. So, God has placed some people in the church to be there when others need them. We should always desire to improve in our administration of the gifts that God has given us, but we should always realize that it is God Who has "set some in the church", as is stated in I Corinthians 12:28. All who are saved belong to one another, because we do all belong to Christ as His body, the church! Please do not forget this important truth!
