City Sales Tax Income Down from Last Year

Pamela McRae

The numbers indicate that Tishomingo County municipalities have not experienced any significant increase in sales tax income since last year this time, and numbers for the most recent month are generally down compared to last year.

According to data from the Mississippi Department of Revenue website, aside from a 12-month peak in Iuka last July, potentially from when legalized alcohol sales started, levels of sales tax returned to the cities from the state have remained mostly the same throughout the last 12 months.

Mississippi sales tax is 7 percent, which goes to the state. The municipalities receive back 18.5 percent of that 7 percent, or about a penny for every dollar of sales tax.

May of 2014 combined municipality sales tax for the cities in the county was down $928, from May 2013 and in Iuka it was down $1,103 for the same month.

County Gets No Sales Tax

Sales tax on merchandise sold in the county (outside city limits) goes directly to the State General Fund. Sales tax in county retail and service outlets (outside of city limits) was up $8,021 for May 2014 as compared to last year the same month, according to state Dept. of Revenue reports. However, unless there is a special local and private tax assigned, the county gets back no sales tax from the state, explained Tishomingo County Chancery Clerk Peyton Cummings.

Instead, county revenue is from ad valorem taxes collected on land and personal property, and in lieu funds from payments TVA makes to the state, of which Tishomingo County receives 12.5 percent, according to Cummings. The TVA money makes up about 60 percent of what Tishomingo County gets from the state.

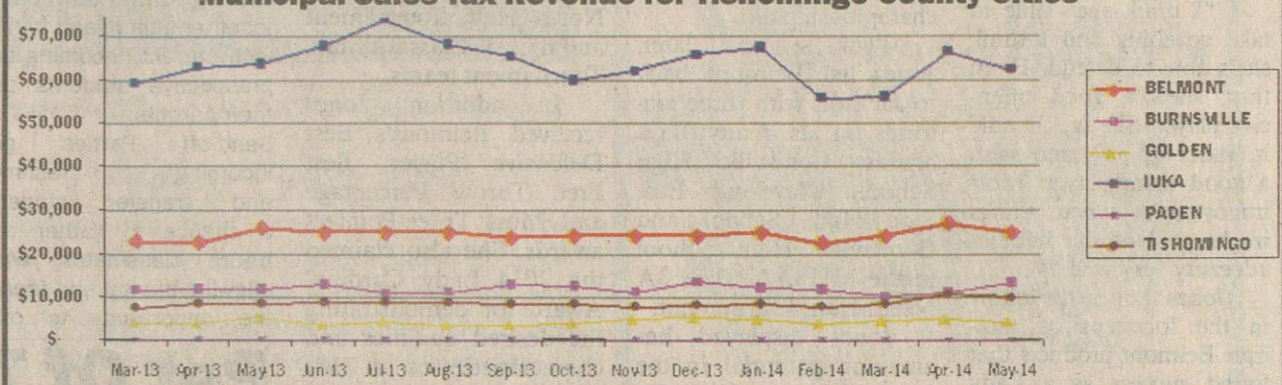

"County revenue is based on how many people in the county buy new cars, improve property, build homes, etc., explained Cummings, and housing starts have been down since 2009. They may be moving up this year, slowly, but they have a way to go before we return to 2007 levels," said Cummings.

TVA in lieu payments are down $374,699.94 from last year, according to Cummings. In June of 2013, the county received $1,359,406.14 and this June only $984,706.20, stated Cummings. The total amount TVA paid to Tishomingo County in 2013 was $2,819,343.

Last year the state received $27,230,283 for the year from TVA, and this year, TVA is projecting to send the state $19,741,941. One known reason is that TVA is making direct payments to Benton, Lowndes, and Desoto Counties for purchasing some power generating plants there, said Cummings.

This Weekend is Iuka's 19th Black Community Homecoming

This weekend hundreds of Iuka natives and descendants will return to strengthen their ties or learn about family history in Iuka during the 2014 Iuka Black Homecoming planned for July 18-20 at the Johnson-Ford Mitchell Community Center.

Each biannual event has a theme, and this year's theme is "Back Down Memory Lane."

A team comprised of six members of an organizing committee - Mary Britten, Natoria "Sha" Dilworth, Bridgette Houston, Lena Mitchell, Sabrina Mitchell and Cathy Pritchard - has been working for months to assure everyone who attends has a fun experience.

"I think having it every two years is a great idea because people have something to look forward to, seeing people they haven't seen in a while," Britten said. "Everybody doesn't come every time, but if they miss one they know they can come again. It's a good way for families and friends from Iuka to stay in touch."

In addition to the central committee members, however, dozens of other people in the community work to bring all facets of the weekend together, and committee members receive lots of feedback from their extended family and friends as the date approaches.

"Everybody is getting excited about it and looking very forward to it," Pritchard said. "They think it's going to be a good time and can't wait for it to get here."

Iuka began celebrating the homecomings in 1976 in response to the U.S. Congress' call for communities around the nation to plan their own local celebrations of the nation's bicentennial.

Sabrina Mitchell reflects on her earliest memories of the homecomings: "When I was a little girl I enjoyed the idea of everybody coming home and enjoying the crowd. As I have gotten older and I have been working on the committee, I see what all it takes to make it happen and appreciate it more, to make sure that when everybody comes home that they enjoy themselves."

Anywhere from 300 to 600 people have participated in homecoming weekends through 38 years and 18 homecomings to date. The 1996 homecoming, and each homecoming since 2006, has been memorialized in a souvenir program book featuring messages and photos from families and businesses documenting their businesses in Iuka.

"Homecoming has 'come back to life' over the last eight years and more people are cherishing their roots," Houston said. "I hope that it remains a successful and historical experience for many years to come."

Plans for this year's homecoming include a number of familiar features as well as a few new events:

- Friday night: Registration, t-shirt pickup and welcome dance.
- Saturday: Barbecue picnic, reacquaintance time, professional family photos, water slides for children, motorcycle club ride-in, another fun evening dance.
- Iuka native and author Brenda Briggs-Johnson will have a book signing of her book, "Called and Didn't Know It: The Things that Happened on the Way to Preaching," from 12-2 p.m.
- Sunday: 11 a.m. morning fellowship and memorial service at Jones Chapel CME Church.

Jones Signs with Northeast Basketball

Northeast Mississippi Community College has turned to an exceptional athlete from a local high school powerhouse to bolster its 2014-15 women's basketball recruiting class.

Natasha Jones became the newest member of the Lady Tiger hoops team when she signed her National Letter of Intent (NLI) with the ten-time Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges (MACJC) state championship program.

"We're very excited to add her into the fold," said Northeast head coach Brian Alexander. "It starts with character and Natasha is one of the best kids out there. We're happy to get her here because she already knows how to do a lot of the things that we're going to be teaching."

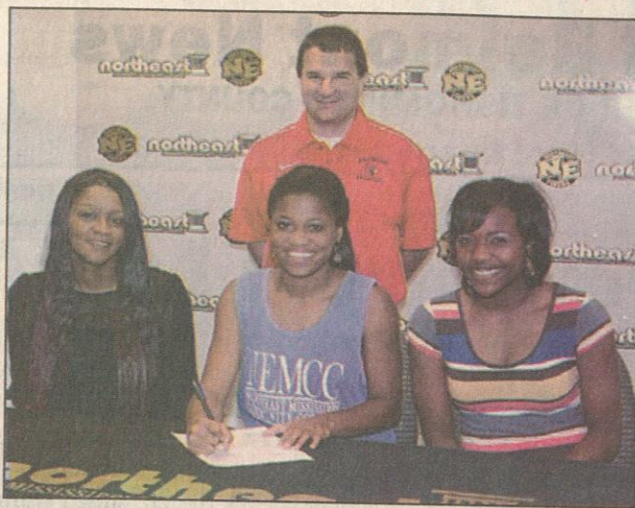

"I think she's able to take coaching and I think she's able to defend. From that, she's a good offensive player. She can handle it, shoot it, pass and she's a good team player. Most importantly, when things might go bad she handles adversity very well."

Jones hopes to follow in the footsteps of multiple Belmont products that found success as a Lady Tiger, including 1987 National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) All-American Sherry Slayton, 2013 MACJC All-State selection Angelia Allen and Anna Brooke Page, who was a 2014 National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) All-American at Blue Mountain College.

"Northeast and Belmont, in my opinion, go hand-in-hand," Alexander said. "We want to make sure that line stays open and that we bring those fans back. We want all of Belmont to come over and support Natasha."

Jones was a three-year varsity letter winner for coach Chris Higginbottom and helped the Lady Cardinals claim the 2012 Mississippi High School Activities Association (MHSAA) Class 3A state title.

The 5-6 guard saw action in 30 games as a sophomore and scored in 24 matchups. Jones and her teammates celebrated at center court inside Mississiippi Coliseum after defeating league rival Ripley High School by one point in the championship tilt.

Natasha Jones became the latest in a long history of phenomenal athletes from Belmont High School to join the Northeast Mississippi Community College women's basketball program. Joining Jones at her signing ceremony on the Booneville campus were (standing) Belmont head coach Chris Higginbottom, (sitting, from left) aunt Peggy Luster, Jones and sister Elisiah Jones.

Two seasons later, Jones led Belmont back to Jackson with three victories in as many days against Louisville High School, Cleveland East Side High School and Booneville High School in the MHSAA Class 3A North Half Tournament.

Jones displayed her amazing potential in the 2014 MHSAA Class 3A State Tournament opener versus Hazlehurst High School by shooting 44 percent from the floor with 19 points, three rebounds, two assists and a pair of three-pointers.

She compiled solid statistics of seven points, five steals and four boards in the title matchup on March 14, but Jones and the Lady Cardinals fell to Booneville 56-51 and finished as the MHSAA Class 3A state runner-up.

Jones averaged 11 points, 2.7 rebounds, 2.4 assists and two steals per contest during a senior campaign in which Belmont totaled an outstanding 22-11 overall record.

"Northeast just seemed like the best choice," said Jones. "I've lived around here and watched the Lady Tigers play. The coaches are amazing so I thought it would be good."

Jones was well decorated in her final year at the prep level. She was named to the All-Division 1-3A, the All-Class 3A North Half Tournament and the All-Class 3A State Tournament teams.

In addition, Jones received Belmont's Best Defensive Player, Best Free Throw Percentage and Most Three-Pointers awards. She also claimed the 2014 Lady Cardinal Award for demonstrating the desired qualities and characteristics of an elite student-athlete.

"My first goal of course is to win a state championship," Jones said. "For my next goal, I want to increase my three-point and free throw percentages."

In 96 career games at Belmont, Jones tallied 781 points and shot 38 percent from the field. She was 73 percent from the charity stripe with a 65 of 83 mark during her senior season.

Jones scored a career-high 28 points in her inaugural varsity outing as a freshman against Saltillo High School. She notched a personal best seven steals in a triumph over Bruce High School in February 2013.

Pet Of The Week

Congratulations to Ginny Segars! This pretty girl is our Pet Of The Week at Iuka Animal Clinic. This is what her owners Dr. Kelly and Martha Segars have to say about her: "Ginny is a 6 year Schnauzer and she is the alpha boss of all the large dogs. She is a tomboy - no frilly stuff for her. She is a great watch dog and just gets better with age and her acute hearing. She enjoys Heidi's (Pet Groomer at Iuka Animal Clinic) grooming and tolerates Dr. Perkins. She very carefully uses her paws to get attention and food. Her favorite pastime is sitting on the couch with Dr. Kelly." Join Dr. Perkins and staff in congratulating Ginny as our Pet of the Week.

Hot summer is here! Make sure your pets have plenty of fresh water and shade and never leave them in a vehicle even for a minute as the temperature rises very quickly.

Ask us about our Summer Specials! Call Iuka Animal Clinic (Dr. Perkins and staff) at 662-423-3333 for all your pet needs where 'Pets Are Family Too.' Don't forget to like us on Facebook.

Class of 1944 Honored at 66th Tishomingo Reunion

by Ruth Dawson

Seventy years ago, in 1940, thirty-nine "green freshmen" (as we were called) entered the halls of Tishomingo High School. We knew what was coming. The Belt Line – an initiation for the freshmen boys. The girls, if they got "too smart" had to wear an onion around their neck. I don't recall any of my classmates being subjected to this ordeal. We must have been a good group of girls.

The upperclassmen formed two lines with belts ready to warm the pants of the runners and run they did. The line extended from the southeast side of the gym, about the distance of the south end of the gym, over the coal pile. I remember my brother, George Robert Page, Jr., only got a few "light" taps. After the boys learned him, he got several "talleys".

Before we graduated, the "Belt Line" was outlawed. I suppose by the school board. Why? Belt buckles were used by a few (there's one in every crowd) and young boys carried home deep bruises. Also, one year they were forced to run over or jump the coal pile. This ended the initiation.

Remembering about years gone by is always so refreshing. We, after seventy years, can still have the mind to remember back when and that's a God-given blessing. So many can't when they reach our age. If one of us messes up? The other two can patch it up. That way, we can still keep our tales straight.

In the spring of 1940, our Superintendent's son, Billy Nettles, Jr., received his diploma. The reason I'm getting personal about Billy? He had registered to be at the Alumni Banquet. In fact, the certificate for the oldest alumni present had been made. I watched the door for his appearance. He never showed up.

Margaret Underwood came to me and said, "Ruth, I believe you are the oldest alumni here". Surprised? No. That's why I had been watching the door. I always felt a sigh of relief when Billy and Ruby showed up. He loved to talk of his life at THS as a Superintendent's son, and I loved for him to be the honoree as the oldest alumni present. Not that coming ninety bothers me. I have too much living to worry about that, but four score and ten? Kindly big.

We four members of the class of 1944, Christine, Jim, Carolyn, and I had a good visit on Friday evening as always at Christine's home. We didn't go over to the Homestead's in Iuka for dinner but enjoyed our meal at Christine's.

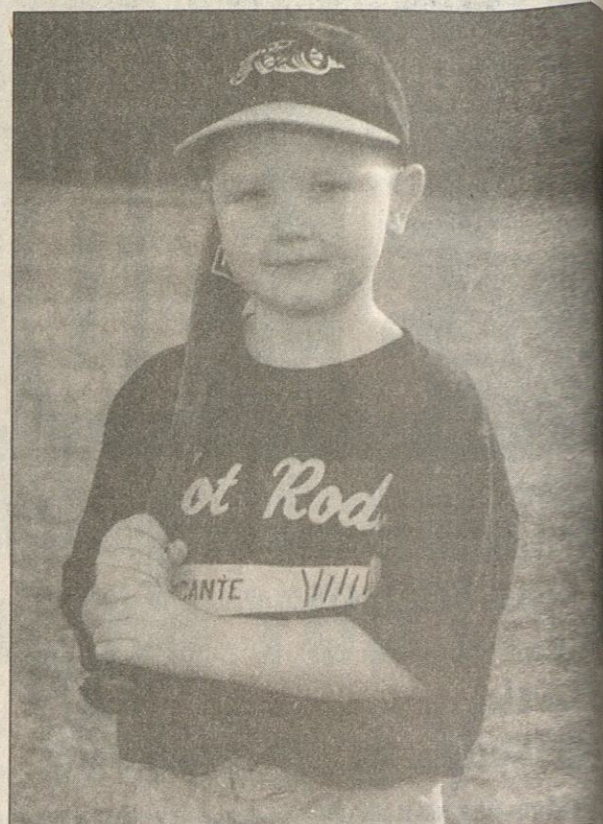

Reckon why? You guessed it. Those numbers have just kept piling up and we were completely satisfied to stay "put". Years have a way of telling tales we really don't want to admit. But we did this year.

During a war-torn world, we, the class of 1944 did survive. A few of our class members were injured, but no loss of life. Of the thirty-nine we still have seven living members: Lyman Hellums, Betsy Ross Deaton Tanner, Peggy Deaton Hoover,

The honored class of 1944 received at the banquet certificates for the highest percentage present of the living members: Jim Vanos, Dublin, OH the certificate for longest miles traveled; Ruth, the certificate of being the "Youngest at Heart" present; and Bobby Walden a certificate for being the youngest graduate.

Tishomingo County businesses and friends always share great door prizes and this year was no exception. We always love for our name to be called. Yours truly received a rod-and-reel. A great gift for a girl who loves to fish. I'll be sending Wal-Mart a 'thank you' for their generosity. I will put it to good use and enjoy the time. "Time". It's important to all, young and old. Enjoy it and use it wisely. See you in 2015, at the 67th Tishomingo Alumni Banquet on July 4th, 2015.

Happy Birthday to the one kid that keeps us on our toes and is so smart and funny. We love you past the moon!

Happy 5th Birthday

Local Attorney Honored for Pro Bono Service

The Mississippi Volunteer Project (MVLP) recently honored Greta L. Kemp, an attorney with offices in Jackson and Belmont, Mississippi, with the 2014 "Beyond the Call of Duty" Award. The Award is presented annually and recognizes an attorney who is a member of the Mississippi Association for Justice (MAJ) and provided outstanding pro bono legal services during the previous year. Kemp received the Award on June 13, 2013 at the MAJ Convention in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Over the past year, Greta has logged over 40 pro bono hours and handled matters for MVLP ranging from divorce and child custody to guardianship cases. Kemp owns and operates the Kemp Law Firm, PLLC, where she maintains a family law, personal injury, criminal defense, premises liability, civil rights and wills and probate practice. She is a graduate of Belmont High School, the University of Mississippi, and Mississippi College School of Law.

Tiffany M. Graves, Executive Director and General Counsel of MVLP, commends Kemp for his dedication to MVLP and its clients, noting, "Greta has been a passionate advocate for low-income individuals in the Jackson Metro Area and Tishomingo County who would not otherwise have access to an attorney or courts. Many of our clients now have much better lives thanks to the assistance they received from Greta."

Unlike some states, the Mississippi Bar Association does not require attorneys licensed in the state to fulfill a pro bono hour requirement. However, the Bar encourages attorneys to provide at least twenty (20) hours of pro bono legal services to the poor annually or make a contribution of at least $200.00 to the Bar to distribute to legal aid organizations that help the poor.

Harvest of Quilts in September Showing

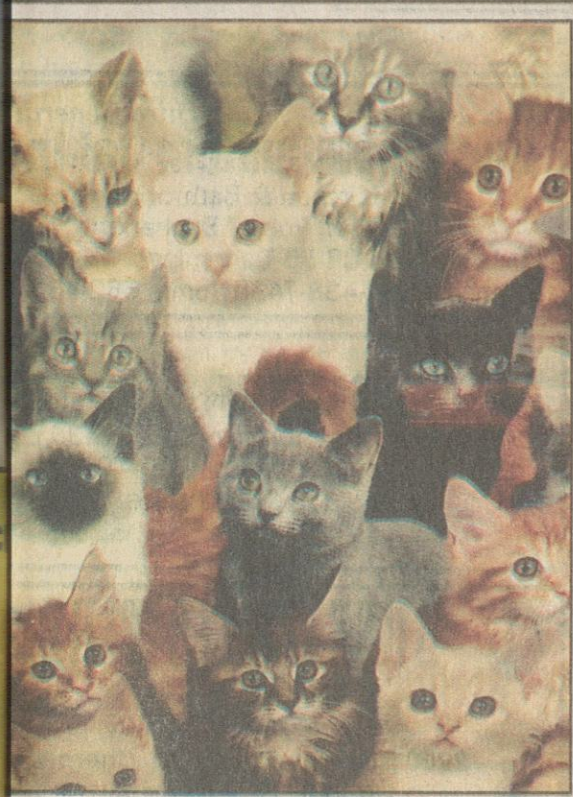

Make your plans, check your calendars for September "Harvest of Quilts" quilt show hosted by the Needle Chasers Guild of Iuka. Circle the dates Friday, September 19th and Saturday, September 20th for the Quilt Show "Harvest of Quilts". Even if you are not a quilter but love the art of quilting you will want to attend this grand show. This is the eleventh annual quilt show by Needle Chasers. There are presently 54 members in the Tri State area that are working at hosting this event. It takes many people working together to conduct a successful show and we need you to make this event successful. Attending and if you would like to enter a quilt in the show. Many people love quilts and are not even quilters, and then quilters love quilts because they love to quilt. QUILTS are quite unique in lovely treasured stitches which makes it so wonderful to be able to come to the "Harvest of Quilts" and view so many treasures at one time. When you attend the show you will be eligible for Viewer's Choice voting during the show. Winners in Viewer's Choice will be awarded on Large, Medium and Small Quilts based on the number of votes the quilt receives from viewers by noon on Saturday, September 20th.

This show is open to exhibitors who want to display a quilt they have made themselves or as a group. No pre-printed quilts will be allowed. Quilts that have been previously exhibited may be exhibited this year for judging if they meet the following criteria a) the quilt has never won a Viewer's Choice prize in previous Needle Chaser's shows; and b) the quilt was not judged in a previous Needle Chasers judged show. Entry fee is $10 for guild members and $15 for non-guild members. Non-guild members are limited to two entries.

There will be awards for the following categories: Best of Show (large, medium and small), Hand Appliqued - separate division for Machine Quilted and Hand Quilted; Machine Appliqued - separate division for Machine Quilted and Hand Quilted; Pieced - Machine Quilted (separate divisions for quilting by maker and quilted by professional); Pieced - Hand Quilted; Mixed Techniques (i.e. pieced with applique; embroidered with pieced or appliqued blocks/borders); Other Techniques (Cathedral windows, yoyos, whole cloth quilts, crazy quilts, embroidered and Wearable's). Bible Proofs Of Salvation (part II)

It has seemed to me for years that it would be a tormenting thing to live on earth without the knowledge of salvation through Jesus Christ. Please keep in mind that the Bible allows no substitutes for Jesus Christ as the only Savior. Without seeking to be offensive to anyone, I am compelled to say that salvation comes through no other source or person, except Jesus Christ (John 14:6; Acts 4:12). God made the way to heaven straight and narrow, but He also marked it clearly as being Jesus Christ Himself. I John 5:13, which I gave in the last article, says clearly that we can know that we have eternal life. II Peter 1:4 says, "Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust." We do not become little Gods when we are saved, but we do become the children of God, for we receive the Holy Spirit, by Whose work of regeneration we become partakers of the divine nature, thus we become sons of God.

A problem arises for the world of unbelievers, as they look at those who say they belong to God, because the world often cannot see any difference in professing believers than they see in the unsaved of the world. I John shows us several proofs that will prove to the believer, as well as to the unsaved person looking at us, that we have distinguishing marks of salvation! The first Bible proof, or mark, of salvation is the proof of fellowship. I John 1:3 says, "That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ." First, we must define what is meant by fellowship, so I will say that it means: "sharing". One man put it well by saying, "It means two fellows in the same ship." This is good, for they are sharing the ship. Many churches have "fellowship halls", in which they share, but that sharing is usually a big meal. That is not bad, but it is not the most important kind of fellowship, for John said: "Our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ". Sharing with the Father and the Son by the presence of the Holy Spirit is one proof that we are saved. Those who say they are saved, yet have no desire to fellowship with God, are either still lost or terribly backslidden! It is the normal thing for saved people to desire fellowship with their Father and with their Older Brother, Jesus Christ (Hebrews 2:11-12). Those who have never had this desire need to stop deceiving themselves into thinking that they belong to God, for they do not! A second fellowship is mentioned in I John 1:7, which shows that we also have fellowship with other believers, when we walk in the light. So, the two prongs of fellowship, with God and with other believers, is a proof of salvation! Absence of these two prongs of fellowship is a sign that something is not right in one's relationship with God!

Southern Cornerstones

A Brief History of Tishomingo State Park

The following brief history of Tishomingo State Park in Tishomingo County, Mississippi, was written by Patty Hester, a 9th grader at Belmont High School, in 1971 for a school project.

The history of Mississippi is filled with many legends of colorful pageantry and heroic deeds of the Chickasaw Nation. Visitors to the park get a glimpse of its exciting past as they stroll the landscape of massive rock formations and rock-filled crevices.

Saddleback Ridge, where legends say the great Chief Tishomingo rode his pony, rises between Haynes Lake and Bear Creek. Hikers enjoy the swinging bridge constructed by workers of the Works Project Administration; the bridge spans the creek while fishermen delight in the cool green waters below which have provided great sport for many centuries. The spirit of living and the delight in natural beauty that was first enjoyed by Chief Tishomingo and the Chickasaw Nation remain for everyone to enjoy who visits Tishomingo State Park.

The Loochopola Lodge stands in the highest mountain-like peak in the 1,541-acre park and overlooks a bend in Bear Creek. Wild plum thickets and lavender flowers lend colors to the stone steps which wind down from the back veranda to the distant road. The lodge accommodates up to 150 for dances and 125 for banquets.

The park has six stone cottages and several rustic cabins that furnish an ideal chance for getting away from the rush and hurry of modern day life. All of the cabins contain spacious fireplaces to further enhance the spirit of relaxation.

Camping and picnicking are tops. In addition to the cottages and cabins, the park offers tent and trailer camping on cedar- and pine-filled hilltops overlooking Bear Creek. A large stone barbecue shelter adjoins the fireplace and numerous picnic tables, and the shelter is ideal for group dining. Within about three miles, there are 40 camping spaces on the shores.

Governor Ross Barnett backed the building of Haynes Lake and came to help pounce the first fish in the lake. In 1964, Governor Paul Johnson came to the fishing rodeo and pledged support for improvements on the spillway. Haynes Lake is a 70-acre lake amid a beautiful setting of tall pines and oaks. A beaver dam is located at the far end of the lake. The lake is named in honor of Mr. Prim Haynes. Largemouth bass, bream, and catfish are plentiful. Boats are available at the lake but no large motors are allowed. Near the lake is the sight of the John Mauldin Watermill.

For those who enjoy hiking and the wonderful sights of natural beauty, a trip down Saddleback Ridge is a must. Winding down stone steps from the lodge is an old Indian path that leads to the swimming pool. The park swimming pool, with adjoining bathhouse and concession stand, is on a scenic bank overlooking Bear Creek. Certified life guards are on duty each day until dark after the pool opens for the protection of all involved. Near the swimming pool is one of the most visited attractions in the park. A rustic swinging bridge spans over the waters of Bear Creek.

Kool Kidz Day

All area children are invited to come to Jaybird Park on Friday, July 18th from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. for face painting, balloons, popsicles, and a big bouncy house. At 12 noon, we will meet at the activities building beside City Hall for lunch. Then we will go inside Iuka Baptist Church at 1 p.m. for a program featuring Alan Jones. Alan is a great ventriloquist and magician. In case of bad weather, event will be in IBC activities building.

It's all FREE and all KIDS are welcome. Sponsored by Iuka Baptist Church.

They Fizzed, Boomed, And Read At The Library!

It was "Fizz, Boom, READ!" at the Iuka Library all through June for the annual Summer Reading Program. With a focus on science, the kids enjoyed presentations, live animals, crafts, and exploring new ideas. Plus there were some yummy treats including "Worms in Dirt" and the rare chance to make big messes in the library! Parents made a point of reading to young children in the Read To Me component, while older ones set personal goals to read as many minutes as they thought they could during the month. The Top Reader was James Poling, with a total of 7,500 minutes; his family noted that he read almost constantly from morning until bedtime. He was awarded a $50 cash prize, sponsored by Donnie Brown State Farm Insurance. As a group, the kids who reached their goals read a total of 23,902 minutes in June! That equals nearly 400 hours of young brains immersed in books to help avoid the "summer slump" for a jump-start to the upcoming school year.

Volunteers worked hard to provide the Summer Reading Program, and our generous sponsors really made it happen! Thanks go to: Friends of Iuka Library, 20th Century Club, Donnie Brown Farm Insurance, Grocery, NMM Farm Bureau and Kay Perkins, and individual donors.

Music City Drum & Bugle Corps Coming Back to Tish. County to Offer Clinics and Present Show

The Music City Drum & Bugle Corps is coming back to town and will offer clinics to some local bands, and a show the evening of July 22nd.

According to director David Boggs, the 140 or so members of the elite marching band will return to Iuka this week, and continue to work on the show they are performing this summer at competitions throughout the nation. A few weeks ago, they camped out at TCHS for their annual summer training camp, when they worked about 12 hours a day perfecting their routine.

On July 22nd, there will be a camp with the MCD&BC for TCHS band members and other bands from throughout the area. The camp attendees will work with Corps members from 3-7, and even go through a Corps rehearsal. Then at about 7:45 they will perform the full routine for parents and the public. A $5 donation will go toward raising funds for both the TCHS band and Music City. The performance will be on the football field at TCHS.
