Man Dead After Jump from Waterway Bridge

by Pamela McRae

An Iuka man died last Wednesday after jumping into the Tenn-Tom Waterway off the bridge north of Iuka.

According to Tishomingo County Coroner Mack Wilemon, Michael Shane Taylor, 39, apparently was observed driving his car to the bridge that goes over the Waterway near the Scruggs Bridge access area. He stopped his car, and jumped over the side of the bridge, where he fell approximately 75 feet into the water, said Wilemon. Eyewitnesses who stopped reported that by the time they stopped and got out to look, Taylor was floating face-down in the waterway.

Depth of the waterway at that point is between 15-20 feet.

Emergency personnel recovered the body about 50 yards from the bridge. Wilemon said the cause of death was drowning.

Wadkins, Smith Win School Board in Local Elections; Constable Runoff Nov. 25th

by Pamela McRae

Local school board and election commissioner positions were decided Tuesday, but there will be a run-off to determine South Half Constable in two weeks.

Tuesday's mid-term elections resulted in the Republicans gaining control of the Senate and have the largest majority in the House of Representatives since the Truman administration. Tishomingo County contributed by giving incumbent Republican Senator Thad Cochran 66 percent of its vote, and incumbent Republican Representative Alan Nunnelee a 76 percent win over challengers.

Locally, it was a low turnout, with only 38 percent of Tishomingo County's 12,166 registered voters casting ballots.

In local races, Iuka's Emily Wadkins won the First District School Board seat with 40 percent of the vote. In school board elections, the victory goes to the one with the most votes, even if it is not 50 percent.

She will be the first woman on the board since the 1997-2002 term of Jeanette Mann.

Her closest competition came from Cynthia Lambert with 23 percent of the vote. Buzz Sander-son and Keith Wimberly had 18 and 17 percent of the vote, respectively.

In the Fifth District School Board race, Gregory Smith won with 43 percent of the vote over opponents Carol Wanner, with 34 percent, and Jeffery Martin with 22 percent of the vote.

Special elections for election commissioners from the second and fourth district were won by those already appointed to the posts. Beverly Ragan was unopposed in the second district. Chas-ity George won with 62 percent of the vote in the Fourth District race over Josh McNatt with 37 percent. George and Ragan will continue to fill unexpired terms until county-wide elections in November of 2015.

In the special election to fill the unexpired term of South Half Constable left open by the death of Jeff Kemp, Donald Ray Thomas won 48 percent of the vote, but it must be at least 50 percent, plus one to win outright for that position. Thomas will face Don Hall in a run-off election November 25th. Hall received 29 percent of the vote. Other opponents Hobie Kemp and Larry Bolton each won 11 percent.

A Mississippi state constitutional amendment guaranteeing the already existing right to hunt and fish earned a 93 percent approval in the county, and won state-wide, as well.

There were several other judge positions that were unopposed on the ballot.

Pet of the Week

CONGRATULATIONS to Shadow Blythe! This handsome fellow is our Pet Of The Week at Iuka Animal Clinic. This is what his owner Doretta Blythe has to say about him: "Shadow is a 14 year old Poodle. He makes every step I make. He loves all dogs & people, including cats. He enjoys riding on the golf cart, the boat, the wave runner, and the 4-wheeler. His pals are Addie, Yarra, Terria, and the new stray, Tramp. He has been loved & spoiled for many years. He even loves Dr. Perkins & Heidi (his groomer) but he can be noisy when I leave or arrive to pick him up." Join Dr. Perkins & staff in congratulating Shadow as our Pet Of The Week.

Our pets depend on us for their care. This means spaying or neutering for their overall health and to prevent pet over-population. There aren't enough homes & so many end up being strays that have a terrible time just surviving. Schedule an appointment today for your dog or cat.

Call Iuka Animal Clinic (Dr. Jim Perkins & staff) @ 662-423-3470 for all your pet needs where 'Pets Are Family, Too. Check out our Facebook page.

New Organ Dedication at Iuka Methodist Church

Iuka United Methodist Church recently completed renovations to accommodate a new Allen Quantum 285 Digital Church Organ made especially for the historic Iuka church. It will be dedicated at a special service this Sunday, November 9th at 11 a.m. in the sanctuary. Everyone is invited to come and see and hear the new organ Sunday afternoon.

The last organ had a life of 35 years, and the new one has a wonderful sound that resonates throughout the old church, thanks to a new speaker system integrated tastefully into the historic building. According to the company's site, Allen's Quantum technology offers unprecedented control over even the smallest sound nuance, resulting in tonal realism previously not available from a pipeless organ.

With hundreds of control knobs and buttons, a two-tier keyboard, a full tier of pedal controls, and a USB port for sampling and recording, organist Jane Rhea says the organ is a joy to play, and it probably does more than she will ever master. Ms. Rhea is one of two organists who alternate playing the organ for Sunday services.

The organ and the renovations were all paid for by memorials and individual donations, a long standing tradition at Iuka Methodist. The memorial stained glass windows paid for decades ago by families in memory of church founding fathers were also recently cleaned and refurbished.

Young Iuka Businessman, Chad Daugherty, Dies

The unexpected death of Chad Daugherty last week has left the community grieving for a young man who was known for his fun-loving personality, big smile, and kind heart.

Chad Riley Daugherty, 34, was found dead at his residence on Snowdown Road in Iuka Thursday morning by his brother, after he did not show up for work. It is believed that Chad died during the night from a heart attack. It was only six months ago that Chad's father, Butch Daugherty, died unexpectedly from a heart attack. The two deaths have caused disbelief and shock for those who knew and loved them.

Since the death of Butch, Chad and his brother, Chris have operated the family's businesses Daugherty Refrigeration and Daugherty Rentals in Iuka.

Chad was a very outgoing person who loved to talk and be with friends. He enjoyed outdoor activities including hunting, fishing, golf, and racing and also enjoyed competing in dart throwing competitions.

Services were held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, November 1st, 2014, at Cutshall Funeral Home Chapel in Iuka with Ben McAnally officiating. Burial was in Oak Grove Cemetery. Cutshall Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Survivors include one brother, Chris "Chunk" Daugherty and wife, Kellie of Iuka; one very special niece, Elizabeth Kay Daugherty; two aunts, Dennie McRee and husband, Mike of Iuka and Linda Whitaker and husband, Willy of Iuka; three uncles, Dale Tapp of Iuka, Larry Parker and wife, Nancy of Cherokee, and Joe Earl Parker and wife, Noreen of Iuka; and a host of cousins and other relatives.

He was preceded in death by his parents, James D. "Butch" and Debbie Parker Daugherty; and several other family members and friends.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, Memorial and Honor Program, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105; by phone (901) 578-2805; or online at www.stjude.org/donate.

An online guestbook can be accessed at www.cutshallfuneralhome.com.

Great Truths In Small Packages (Part VI)

We are still looking at the little Book of II John. Verse 7 says, "For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an anti-christ." I covered a part of this verse in the last article, but more needs to be said. Have you noticed that John is not bashful or backward about identifying who is anti-christ? (I am not thinking about the man of sin who will come later; I am thinking, as was John, about anybody who takes his stand against the Christ of the Bible!) We have become so liberal in our thinking in this nation that almost anybody with any teaching can pass as a preacher of the gospel and demand support for a television program, and the sad fact is: he will likely get that support! No, I am not against support for those who preach the gospel in any place by the various means of media. I am against people being so gullible that they do not recognize when one is teaching falsehood, and I am in good company with the apostle John in the epistle (letter is the same word as epistle) before us. Those of our day who want to say only positive things need a primary course in the simple things of the Bible, then they will teach both positive and negative things!

John was not trying to "win friends and influence people" when he wrote the letter before us; he was being factual, because God had inspired his writing! By the way, I will take any part of the inspired Scripture over anything that men have written that is against Scripture. I think that those of us who preach and teach the Word of God have an obligation to warn people that there are some deceivers out there who are interested only in the fame they can attain and the money they can collect! John said that those who are "off base" on Who Jesus really is are really anti-christ, meaning that they are truly against Christ. I do thank God for the good messengers of God who spend much time in studying the Scriptures and then propagating what they have gleaned from God's Word. We are not all in the same "camp", as far as local assemblies go, but we are all on the "same page", as far as doctrinal truths go. When somebody says that he and his church do not bother with doctrine, I want to warn people not to bother with attending such churches. In John 7:17 we have the words of Jesus: "If any man will do His will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of Myself." Even Jesus used the very word "doctrine" to identify His teaching. The word "doctrine" in the Greek language means: "instruction, either the matter or the process of instructing". In my mind, we need much more instruction from the Word of God than most churches are giving today!
