Christmas Season Kicks Off with Parades This Weekend!

Tishomingo County goes all out for Christmas, and though we've been shopping and having parties for a while, the festivities begin this week with the annual parades! Be sure to get out and see them! It should be clear, but so bundle up when you go.

Iuka - Friday, December 4th.

Starts at 6:30 from Maria Lane and winds up Battleground to Quitman, where it ends at Mineral Springs Park. Get your spot early!

Tishomingo - Saturday, December 5th. Starts at 6 p.m. with lineup at Tishomingo School about 5:30. The best place to see it is along Main Street (Highway 25) which will be blocked off for parade traffic.

Burnsville - Monday December 7th. Lineup by 5:30 at Burnsville Shopping Plaza and parade begins at 6 p.m. Best place to watch is on Front Street; the parade ends back at the shopping center.

Iuka Grand Marshall is L.O. Bishop

Pamela McRae

Iuka's Citizen of the Year 2015 and Grand Marshall of Iuka's Friday night parade is L.O. Bishop, famous for barbecue and being a storyteller extraordinaire.

"I'm humbled to be asked," L.O. earlier this week. Iuka has been a part of my life my life; my daddy got all his years here."

Such quips are frequent whenever you talk to L.O. Bishop and he has a story about absolutely everything.

His mother was an Edmondson, and he spent a lot of time as a child here in Iuka in places like his Uncle Paul's store (Edmondson Grocery), which was where Iuka City Hall is now. Now a regular member of the 9:35 Coffee Club in Downsville, Iuka, he is often on hand to visit around, invite people to barbecue gatherings and dog funerals, occasionally do something like feed the staff at Iuka City Hall, and a few times The Tishomingo County News, and always to tell a story!

Bishop is well known, and never meets a stranger, but he's best known for barbecue - Bishop's Barbecue has been in stores now for 30 years, he said. He and his family run the business from his farm in Allsboro, just over the border in the Freedom Hills of Alabama. He is married to Grace, and they have three children, six grandchildren and their eighth grandchild is on their way, he said.

He says they really messed up when they got married at ages 17 (her) and 19, because if they would have married at 16 and 18, they'd have had one more good year already.

"When we went to having kids, we went to Dr. Cosby's clinic (in Iuka) and got to spend two nights and $65 to have a baby delivered," said Bishop.

L. O. Bishop

"If we'd have realized what a bargain that was for the work involved, we probably would have raised some more babies for other folks."

A lifetime farmer, Bishop said he started expanding into the hog business in 1962 with a goal of making about $3 or $4

Linda Sue Johnson Citizen of the Year for Tishomingo

Linda Sue Powell Johnson was announced as Tishomingo's Citizen of the Year at last week's Tishomingo Community Thanksgiving Service at Carter's Branch Baptist Church.

A 1976 graduate of Tishomingo High School, Linda Sue has been a tireless volunteer for her church, the Tishomingo Chamber of Commerce, and the class of 1976 alumni group. She advanced through the ranks to become the loan officer at the Tishomingo branch of First American National Bank, and is always quick to greet everyone who comes into the bank by name. She is a friend to everyone.

Linda Sue will lead the Tishomingo Christmas Parade this Saturday night when it winds through downtown Tishomingo.

Community Christmas Tree Needs Angel Tree Gifts!

In preparation for visitors this weekend and next, the historic Old Courthouse Museum has been decorated for the holidays this week - all they need now are some toys for Angel Tree!

The Tishomingo County Historic Foundation has put up a Community Christmas Tree in the foyer of the courthouse, and invites the public to buy a toy for any age child and deliver it, unwrapped, to the courthouse. The gifts will go to Angel Tree recipients in Tishomingo County, through Families First.

The Old Courthouse Museum will be open during and after the Iuka Parade, so go see all the decorations put up by the Iuka Pilot Club, and the new Festival of Trees upstairs, with dozens of trees by local organizations and businesses.

Anna Hill Honorary Citizen of the Year

Also being recognized by the Burnsville Area Chamber of Commerce is Anna Davis Hill, as Honorary Citizen of the Year. Wife to David, and mother to Davis, Tucker, Bailey and RayLea, Anna had a big heart and spent her entire adult life helping others as a social worker. She graduated in 1985 from Burnsville High School, and her children all attend(ed) Burnsville.

Anna was tragically killed last February when she was helping someone else. She had left her car to check on someone whose car had slid off the road due to ice, and was killed when another vehicle lost control and hit her.

The entire community of Burnsville, and everyone who knew her, join the family in remembering the legacy Anna left to us all. The Chamber hopes that David and her chil-

FDR and the CCC Gave Men Purpose & Made U a Beautiful Park

Ok, I got the year wrong, the Paden tornado was 1950. Almost no one noticed that fact except my aunt Frances. I had a lot of comments about that story and I appreciate them all.

This past week I took my grandkid to Tishomingo State Park. I wanted him to see it and to know about the Civilian Conservation Corps, the ones that built most of it, and that his great-Granddaddy was in the Corps. They lived there in the Park, in barracks, and got paid and fed when times were rough and people had no money and no way of getting any. Thank you, Franklin Roosevelt.

Most of them are gone now, but they left behind some beautiful lasting work. I'm trying to find a little of the history off the area before the park, but not having much luck.

I asked the Ranger, Terry Harp, what were the possibilities of seeing a snake that day? He said "slim," and that's exactly what I wanted to hear.

Iuka's IDEA & Tishomingo County Historical Foundation presents

A Dickens Christmas

December 11th 3 p.m. - 8 p.m

Downtown Iuka & Old Courthouse Museum

Step back in time and enjoy the holidays the old-fashioned way with A Dickens Christmas Celebration Friday December 11th, in historic Downtown Iuka.

From 3 to 8 p.m. merchants will be open for Christmas shoppers, and there will be music, food, caroling, and lots of celebrating of Christmas downtown! At 6:30, the Old Courthouse Museum will host a Christmas singing for everyone.

The honor choir from Iuka Elementary will be on hand to entertain with Christmas songs, and other groups, as well.

Dress Up Opportunity!

It's not mandatory, but people are encouraged to dress in Victorian period clothing if they like - and lots of folks in Iuka do enjoy this, judging from participation in last year's event and several Battle of Iuka events.

Last year it was a wonderful atmosphere and downtown stores were filled up with shoppers during the Dickens event. Organizers are building on that this year; there will be food and hot cocoa available from several local organizations, and several of Iuka's boutiques will have tables, too, with Christmas gifts to buy.

At 5 p.m. the New Salem Baptist will begin the evening appropriately by telling the story of Christmas with a live Nativity, and reading of the story from the Book of Luke.

New this year, at 5:30 p.m., historic Iuka United Methodist Church will open its doors for visitors to enjoy Christmas music from their state of the art Allen organ, played by Jane Rhea. There will be two 30 minute programs, so everyone can enjoy this treasure.

Horse-Drawn Carriages

Darryl Nunley and his Clydesdales and carriages will be giving rides around the downtown area and there are more than St. Nicholas in Victorian attire, will be visiting and available for pictures with youngsters and the young at heart. To add to the picture perfection of the evening there will be illuminating the streets down the Old Courthouse Museum.

St. Nicholas Visits Shiloh for a Children's Civil War Christmas

Shiloh National Military Park is inviting children to participate in a Civil War Christmas program on December 5, at 2:00 pm. We are excited to present this fun filled, yet educational opportunity to area children. This unique hour long program will introduce young people to how Christmas was celebrated over 150 years ago in our nation.

Soldiers in camp, and their families at home would celebrate the season by singing festive songs. Many of the Christmas carols that are sung today, originated around the Civil War time period. Children will be able to learn some of these classic songs, and perform one for their family. Each child will make a special songbook filled with Christmas carols to take home.

St. Nicholas (aka Santa Claus, Kris Kringle, and Father Christmas) will take time out from his busy schedule to make a special appearance at Shiloh Battlefield.

If your child is interested in attending the Civil War Christmas program, and visiting with St. Nicholas, please register by contacting the Shiloh Battlefield Visitor Center at 731-689-5696.

5th Annual "Reindeer Dash" 5K Run!

The food Depot of Tishomingo County will host the 5th Annual 5k run Saturday, December 12th. It will begin at the Tishomingo County Food Depot at 8:00 am. We have titled this event "The Reindeer Dash". Participants are encouraged to dress for the event in Christmas colors or attire if desired, but it is not required.

This race is a way for the Food Depot to not only raise money for the holiday season and beyond, but to support healthy living in our area through exercise.

Proceeds of this event will go far in making sure that families in need within our county have the continued resources to help them. Your support of the Food Depot 5k will not only help to ensure the success of this vital food program, but will also demonstrate your community involvement.

Participants may register for $25 each. This includes a t-shirt and a snacks/water. Registration will be the day of the event. Participants need to arrive by 7:30.

This will be a walk/run event so come one come all! All ages are encouraged to participate. The event will take place rain or shine so be weather savvy and check the forecast the night before.

Thank you in advance for your support. We look forward to another fun race for a very worthy community cause!

NORAD Celebrates 60 Years Tracking Santa

PETERSON AIR FORCE BASE, Colo. — The North American Aerospace Defense Command is celebrating the 60th Anniversary of tracking Santa's yuletide journey! The NORAD Tracks Santa website, www.noradsanta.org, launching Dec 1, features Santa's North Pole Village, which includes a holiday countdown, games, activities, and more. The website is available in eight languages: English, French, Spanish, German, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese, and Chinese.

Official NORAD Tracks Santa apps are also available in the Windows, Apple and Google Play stores, so parents and children can countdown the days until Santa's launch on their smart phones and tablets! Tracking opportunities are also offered on Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, and Google+.

into each search engine to get started.

Also new this year, the website features the NORAD Headquarters in the North Pole Village, and highlights of the program over the past 60 years.

Starting at 12:01 a.m. MST (2:01 a.m. EST) on Dec. 24, website visitors can watch Santa make preparations for his flight. NORAD's "Santa Cams" will stream videos on the website as Santa makes his way over various locations. Then, at 4 a.m. MST (6 a.m. EST), trackers worldwide can speak with a live phone operator to inquire as to Santa's whereabouts by dialing the toll-free number 1-877-Hi-NORAD (1-877-446-6723) or by sending an email to noradtrackssanta@outlook.com. Any time on Dec. 24, Windows Phone users can ask Cortana for Santa's location, and OnStar subscribers can press the OnStar button in their vehicles to locate Santa.

NORAD Tracks Santa is truly a global experience, delighting generations of families everywhere. This is due, in large part, to the efforts and services of numerous program contributors.

This year's contributors include: the 21st Space Wing, 140th Wing, Acuity Scheduling, Alaska NORAD Region, America Forces Network (AFN), Analytical Graphics, Inc., Avaya, BeMerry! Santa / Noerr Programs, Bing®, Canadian NORAD Region, Chirpon, The Citadel Mall, Civil Air Patrol, Christmas in the Park, Colorado Springs Business Alliance, Continental NORAD Region, Cradle-Point, Defense Video & Imagery Distribution Systems, DoD News, The Elf on the Shelf, Extended Stay America, Federal Aviation Administration, Getty Images, Globelink Foreign Language Center, Harris, Hewlett Packard (HP), iLink-Systems, Kids.gov, Level 3 Communications, Marine Toys for Tots Foundation, Meshbox, Microsoft®, Naden Band of Maritime Forces Pacific, National Tree Lighting Ceremony, Naturally Santa's Inc., Office Depot/Office Max, OneRender, OnStar, PCI Broadband, Portable North Pole/Ugrov Media, Pueblo Riverwalk, Ronald McDonald House Charities of Southern Colorado, Save the Children, Sears, Space Foundation, Spil Games, SiriusXM®, Strategic Air & Space Museum, Unity, U.S. Air Force Academy Band, U.S. Air Force Band of the Golden West, U.S. Air Force Band of the West, U.S. Air Force Band, U.S. Air Force Heartland of America Band, U.S. Army Ground Forces Band, U.S. Band of MidAmerica, U.S. Coast Guard Band, U.S. Department of State Family Liaison Office, U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, U.S. Postal Service, Verizon, Visionbox, West Point Band, Windows Azure, and Xtomic.

It all started in 1955 when a local media advertisement directed children to call Santa direct — only the number was misprinted. Instead of reaching Santa, the phone rang through to the Crew Commander on duty at the Continental Air Defense Command Operations Center. Thus began the tradition, which NORAD carried on since it was created in 1958.

Take Charge America Shares Tips for Saving Big Money During the Holidays

PHOENIX — (Dec. 2, 2015) — It's the most wonderful time of the year — and it's also the most costly. Consumers often overspend during the holidays, and most people intend to pay off holiday debt in January. It's much easier said than done. It's not uncommon for holiday debt to linger months after the presents are unwrapped.

"The hysteria of the holidays can impact even the most frugal among us," said Mike Sullivan, spokesman, Take Charge America, a national nonprofit credit counseling and debt management agency.

Sullivan offers five tips for saving money during the holidays:

Make a list, and check it twice: Holiday gifts are a big expense, and it's hard to stick to a budget if you're scrambling to find gifts at the last minute. Determine the right present for each person on your list ahead of time and avoid the frantic overspending resulting from last-minute planning.

Join the DIY movement: Do-it-yourself projects are all the rage. If you have the time and inclination, consider making gifts for loved ones. For grandparents, it could mean framing a child's artwork, while cousins might enjoy a hand-stamped mug and homemade cocoa. It's an opportunity to give a fun and meaningful present without spending a fortune.

Make a "batteries-not-included" fund: It's the little things that blow the budget — like buying batteries for toys and electronics, picking up last-minute countermeasures for a holiday party or buying a gift for a neighbor you accidentally left off your list. No amount of planning will help you avoid these expenses altogether, so set aside a slush fund to cover the costs.

Draw names: As families grow, so do expenses, and this is especially true over the holidays. Instead of purchasing gifts for every last niece, nephew and cousin, draw names and find the perfect present for just one person. You will be less stressed — financially and otherwise — and so will the rest of your family.

Be careful how much you're "saving." It's easy to justify purchases when every last retailer is offering holiday discounts — and it's easy to get swept up in the fun and excitement of scoring good deals — but you're not really saving money when you buy things you don't really need or even want. Second-guess every unplanned purchase to root out and avoid unwise spending.

Free Legal Clinic a Success

On November 12 a Free Legal Clinic was held in Tishomingo County. Gayla Carpenter-Sanders, Executive Director and General Counsel for the Mississippi Volunteer Lawyers Project led the clinic. Many citizens of Tishomingo County benefited from the help they received from this clinic. Some of Tishomingo County's lawyers, county judges and Judge Jacqueline Mask were a great help in assisting the citizens of our County. Attorneys provided legal advice, helped draft documents and advised on how to present cases in court.

Singing at Tishomingo State Park

Monday morning Nov 23 was a treat for the Senior Citizens of Tishomingo County Adult Day Care that meet at Tishomingo State Park. They were greatly entertained by music and singing by Mac Milligan, Veronica Smith, Allen Stanley and song writer Mack Loyd Wadkins. Veronica sang many songs written by her grandfather Mack Loyd. Allen and Mac sang and played beautiful music. The clients and staff thoroughly enjoyed them bringing in the spirit of Thanksgiving. The Day Care is sponsored by Northeast MS Community Services. For more information about services offered please call 662-438-7137. Pictured left to right: Mac, Allen, Veronica, and Mack Loyd.

UDC Met at TC History Museum

The United Daughters of the Confederacy, John Marshall Stone #364, met on November 17th at 4:00 p.m. at the Tishomingo County Archives and History Museum in Iuka, MS. Present were Mary Ledbetter, Eunell Handy, Marie Durham, and Sharon Haimell.

We completed the UDC rituals and singing "Dixie" and the meeting was open. The minutes of the October meeting were read by Sharon Haimell and approved. Eunell Handy gave the business report and it was approved. Registrar Vickie Durham gave her report and we are just waiting for more information from those who have filled out applications. Chaplain Mary Ledbetter had nothing new to report.

New business was discussed and applications to the former Sons of the Confederacy, hoping to be one in their family, may want to check with the UDC. Also let them know when and where we meet. We also discussed our Christmas program. It was decided that we would meet on December 15th at "Lil Smokies" in Iuka at 4:30 p.m. It will be Dutch treat. Marie Durham will have the program, the topic will be Christmas time during the Civil War.

Eunell Handy presented the program for November, "Secret Agents in Hoop Skirts-women spies of the Civil War." One of these was "Rosie Greenhow." Rosie was known from a young age as "Wild Rosie." Rose O'Neal Greenhow was the wife of a wealthy and prominent doctor in Washington D. C. Her charmed life took a tragic turn in the 1850's, when her husband and five of their eight children died. Rosie was a fervent supporter of the Confederate cause, became a ring-leader of a growing network of anti-Union spies. Renowned as a charming hostess and engaging conversationalist, she gleaned critical information from politicians and diplomats, passing along secrets to Confederate General P.G.T. Beauregard and other contacts.

In July 1861, Greenhow obtained critical information about the Union Army's planned attack on Manassas, Virginia. She sent a 16-year-old courier, Bettie Duwall, through 20 miles of Union territory with a coded message for Beauregard tucked into her hair. Confederate President Jefferson Davis later credited Greenhow for his Army's success at the Battle of Bull Run (Manassas).

In 1861 her home

was raided by the newly formed Secret Service. Rosie and her youngest daughter, Little Rose, were arrested and placed under house arrest. She was still able to transmit cryptic notes to Confederate leaders. After her release in 1862 she was sent on a diplomatic mission to Europe, she became engaged to a British nobleman and published her memoirs. While returning to America in 1864, Greenhow's ship ran aground off the coast of North Carolina after encountering Union forces. Trying to escape in a rowboat, she drowned in choppy water, weighed down by gold intended for the Confederate treasury. This was a very interesting program.

Remember, we will meet December 15 at "Lil Smokies," in Iuka at 4:30 p.m. If you know you have Confederate Heritage and would like to visit our meeting it will be a Dutch social/meeting and you are welcome to attend.
