Snow Blankets County - More Expected This Week!

Last Wednesday afternoon, after days of dire warnings, and expectations, it finally snowed in Tishomingo County and over much of the state.

But it was worth the wait, with near record snowfall that began around 3 p.m. Wednesday and fell heavily all evening, covering the country in a blanket of beautiful winter wonderland.

The snow didn't result in serious power outages in this county, and some TCEPA crews went south to help other power companies where power lines were affected by the inclement weather.

Like all decent Southerners, kids of every age hit the snow in whatever snow gear they could find. It was wet and sticky, and made great snowmen, snowballs and sledding conditions.

Be sure and see page 11 for a collection of snowmen from our county readers!

More Expected

As of presstime, predictions were for more freezing precipitation and cold temperatures starting Wednesday evening and into Thursday morning.

Readers are encouraged to prepare ahead of time for bad weather, and stay off the roads if at all possible.

Sledding on the Trace - For those who live nearby, the hilly shoulders of the Natchez Trace are great for sledding during a rare Mississippi snowfall. Above, Candace Barry gives a push to start Emma McRae, Makinlee Yeager and Kylee Barry down a hill near Tishomingo State Park. They are on a sled custom-made by Kylee's uncle, Craig Middleton.

School Investigating Making Up Extra Days

Tishomingo County School Superintendent Christie Holly said that the state will soon determine if students will have to make up the six days they have missed so far for bad weather.

Only one makeup day was built into the calendar this school year, confirmed Holly, so students will not get off April 6th, referred to sometimes as "Good Monday." The students will still have an extra week to make up at this point. According to Mississippi state law, students have to attend school 180 days each school year.

But, says Holly, the district and others have applied to the state board of education to grant a waiver for the missed days.

Some county parents and students have been frustrated by calls cancelling school the night before, in anticipation of bad road conditions. Several of those days have perversely turned out to be fairer than expected, with fine conditions.

"It is frustrating to try to predict, but we go with the latest meteorological forecasts and try to make the safest call on behalf of our students," explained Holly. "The main roads and highways are clear for travel, but we have to think about those potentially icy back roads. It's not so much our seasoned bus drivers we worry about, but teen drivers who aren't experienced drivers."

The district hopes to have a decision soon on the snow days. Icy weather moving through the Tennessee Valley late Wednesday could mean another "snow day" Thursday.

Public Service Commissioner Holding Town Hall Meeting March 19th

Public Service Commissioner Brandon Presley will hold a Town Hall Meeting Thursday, March 19th at the courthouse.

"I want to give the people of Tishomingo County the opportunity to share their concerns with me personally about utility services, cell phone service, high-speed internet service and natural gas service in their areas," Presley said. "I also appreciate the opportunity to speak directly to the public about the important issues facing the PSC today."

Everyone is invited. The meeting will be from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. in the courtroom.

Four Qualify for Special Election for Congress

Attorney Chip Mills of Fulton is entering a special election to fill an empty U.S. House seat in north Mississippi.

The 30-year-old Mills said Monday that he believes Washington is broken and it's time for the next generation of conservative leaders to serve in Congress.

He's the fourth declared candidate in the nonpartisan race to succeed Republican U.S. Rep. Alan Nunnelee, who died of brain cancer Feb. 6.

State Sen. Nancy Collins of Tupelo, district attorney Trent Kelly of Saltillo and attorney Quentin Whitwell of Oxford said last week that they are running in the special election.

Qualifying deadline is March 27, the election is May 12 and a runoff is June 2.

The winner will serve most of a two-year term that ends in January 2017.

United Daughters Of The Confederacy Met at Museum

The United Daughters of the Confederacy, 1000 Marshall Stone #394 cancelled their February 7th meeting and it was rescheduled for February 24th due to the winter weather. We met at the Tishomingo County Archives and History Museum (old courthouse) at 2 p.m.

Those present were: Eunell Handy, Vickie Durham, Sharon Hairrell, and visitors: Cole and Luran Hairrell. We did the U.D.C. rituals and sang "When Johnny Comes Marching Home". President Sharon Hairrell opened the meeting and minutes from the last meeting were read and approved. We discussed old business which was taking part in a workshop to help those who want to know more about their Confederate heritage. We decided we would have applications available at the A.R. workshop. Eunell requested some supplies and they had been ordered and received. Eunell gave the Treasure Report and it was approved. Registrar Vickie Durham gave her report and stated that we were working on four applications. We are looking forward to these ladies joining us.

Our new business that we discussed was our Division Meeting that will be held on March 14th in Jackson, MS and our District Meeting that will be held on April 11th in Booneville, MS. Other new business was to plan a trip in the near future.

Our program was on the topic of "Women in the Confederacy," and our woman this month was "Loreta Janeta Velazquez, A.K.A. Lieutenant Harry Buford". She was Cuban born and claimed to have masqueraded as a male Confederate Soldier during the Civil War. It was said that she fought at Bull Run, Ball's Bluff, and Fort Donnellson but was discharged when her gender was discovered. She reenlisted as a man and was said to have fought at Shiloh. She was discharged again when her gender was discovered. She then became a Confederate spy working in the disguise of both man and woman.

We discussed "General Stonewall Jackson," who was accidentally wounded by his own men. He was hit three times by southern bullets and one shattered his left arm and it was amputated. He developed pneumonia and died. Our next meeting will be held on March 17th at 4 p.m. at the Tishomingo Archives and History Museum (old courthouse). Anyone interested in tracing their Confederate heritage is welcome to attend.

On Friday, February 13th, 2015, the GFWC-MFWC Iuka 20th Century Club had the pleasure of hosting the annual Valentine Party for the clients and staff of Tishomingo Industries. Prior to lunch, the clients made Valentine posters which they proudly display for "picture time". They also made Valentine sacks for their loot (candy and Valentines). After a delicious spaghetti lunch, we played two games of "Jingo" - one for Valentine's Day and one for Happy Birthdays. Also, the King and Queen were selected. What a fun time for everyone!!!

Funeral Services for Suzanne Kelley Rutledge

Retired educator Suzanne Rutledge died on Tuesday, February 28, at University of Birmingham. Mrs. Rutledge taught mathematics and English at Iuka Middle School for a number of years. She was beloved by students for taking personal interest in each student and for spending time tutoring those who might lag behind. Her teaching career began at Fort Apache Indian Reservation in White River, Arizona and continued in the Okolona, MS school system before the Rutledges moved to Iuka. Mrs. Rutledge was an active member of the Iuka United Methodist Church where she currently served as teacher of the Lucy Simpson Ladies' Sunday School Class and president of the United Methodist Women. For several years she served as chairwoman of the Council on Ministries for IUMC. In addition Suzanne played the Handbell Choir of the church. She has been a member of the "Memorandum" committee for several years.

Literacy was very important to Mrs. Rutledge. She was on the Board of Directors of the Iuka Library. She attended Friends of the Library monthly meetings regularly and with special events at the library including the children's Christmas party and the annual book/rummage sale. Suzanne spent many hours organizing donated books and items to make the library a success.

Suzanne Kelley Rutledge was born on December 25, 1943. She graduated from Camden (Alabama) High School and Auburn University, where she was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. Suzanne was a pianist for the Auburn University Marching Band. She later served as a consultant for her sorority on a national level, guiding many university chapters to success.

There has never been a more devoted Auburn fan than Suzanne Rutledge; she was a "War Eagle" through and through. She attended the National Championship game at the Rose Bowl in January 2014 and reconnected with many Auburn alumni that she had known in college. Daughter Kelley said she seemed to know everybody there. To her delight Suzanne was able to meet and have her picture taken with alumnae Charles Barkley, pro basketball player.

Suzanne had a "larger than life" personality, with the ability to make anyone feel welcome in any situation. She especially loved children and made it a point to visit the nursery every Sunday to spend some time with the children. Her many friends included the ladies with whom she played bridge on Monday nights. She often regaled the women with stories of her grandchildren, with whom she spent as much time as possible. They loved to be at "Gran" and "Poppy Bill's" house to ride the four wheeler and play outdoors. When she was with her grandchildren she literally dropped everything else to be at their beck and call.

In the years that she taught school Suzanne never met a student that she didn't like. She was somehow able to connect with each one on some level. Many of her students have used the words "mentor," "Southern lady," and "role model" to describe her. Mrs. Rutledge influenced many lives in a positive way.

On November 25, 1967, Suzanne married her college sweetheart, William E. "Bill" Rutledge, who survives her. In addition she leaves a son, William Brant Rutledge (Leigh Anne) of Florence, AL and a daughter Kelley Rutledge (Matthew) Norris of Augusta, GA. Her six grandchildren were her greatest joy. They include Anne Houston, MaryEllen and Scarlett Rutledge, along with Will, Kate and Claire Norris. Her sister Kay Pruitt (Bill) and nephew Billy of Tampa, FL survive her as well.

Funeral arrangements are entrusted to Cutshall Funeral Home in Iuka. Visitation will be from 4:00 until 8:00 pm at the funeral home on Tuesday, March 3, 2015. Services will be held at Iuka United Methodist Church at 11:00 am on Wednesday, March 4, 2015 with Reverend Kerry Powell officiating. Interment will follow at Oak Grove Cemetery in Iuka.

Pallbearers include Donnie Brown, Jeff Butler, Cliff Daniel, Neil Davis, Robby Grisham, Bill Harrington, Gene Jourdan and Steve Nelson. Honorary pallbearers include the Monday Night Bridge Club, the 9:35 Men's Coffee Club, and the Men's Sunday School Class at Iuka United Methodist Church.

Memorials may be made to the Iuka Library, 204 N. Main, Iuka, MS 38852 or Iuka United Methodist Church, 101 E. Eastport St., Iuka, MS 38852 or the charity of the donor's choice.
