Veterans Day Parade a Huge Success in Downtown Iuka

Veterans Day float created by Iuka Baptist Church, additional photos inside

The Iuka Development and Economic Association organized the 1st annual Iuka Veterans Day Parade on October 10th which was an outstanding success.

Over 70 entries participated in this community centered parade to honor our local veterans. The parade was held in conjunction with the Jaybird Holiday Market, which was the largest Jaybird Market held so far with more vendors than ever before. The expansion of IDEA sponsored events is truly an exciting thing for Tishomingo County.

The massive amount of support for veterans demonstrated by our local citizens on this day was an inspirational sight. This will be a day those celebrated will not soon forget.

Mississippi Rural Hospitals Recognized for Quality Awards

In partnership with the Mississippi State Department of Health, Office of Mississippi Rural Health and Primary Care, the Association presented North Mississippi Medical Center—Iuka a hospital quality award at its recent conference:

PPS Hospital Strength Index Quality Award

These awards are based off of data from the Hospital Strength Index Pillar Composite Report, which is the industry standard for assessing and benchmarking rural and Critical Access Hospital performance.

Ryan Kelly, executive director of the Mississippi Rural Health Association states, "Quality healthcare is of high importance for all Mississippians, and these rural hospitals have demonstrated excellence in the respective categories. We are proud of the work that these healthcare professionals are performing on a daily basis for the state's rural patients and the attention to quality that they maintain."

The State Office of Rural Health and Primary Care began distributing hospital quality awards in 2016 as a result of a recent proclamation that Governor Phil Bryant signed declaring November 20 of each year to be Mississippi Rural Health Day.

Letter to the Editor

I went to the Iuka Cemetery Saturday (10th) to put flowers on my mother and daddy's graves. When I got done, I went and put the old flowers in the blue garbage can up near the highway. When I put the old flowers in, I saw an American Flag in the garbage and was very upset that someone would throw an American flag in the garbage. My daddy was seriously wounded in World War II and was very blessed to have lived.

I didn't remove the flag but it bothered me all night that I didn't. I decided I would go and get it out after church. When I went to retrieve the flag there had been another one put in the garbage. My question is do people not know how to retire a flag? The proper way is to burn the flag, give it to the Boy Scouts, National Guard, or American Legion. Also, there is a bin in front of the American Post #15 (old National Guard) where you can dispose of an old, worn flag. This was an Eagle Scout Project of Bryant Lambert. Please don't disgrace the American Flag by throwing it away. It is also not showing respect to the Veterans or the ones that are in the Military now.

I googled this: It is illegal to throw away the American Flag. ... The Flag Codes states that it should be destroyed with "with dignity, preferably by burning." This is best done by taking your old flag to an American Legion outpost, where veterans and members may then hold a ceremony as they properly retire/dispose of it.

Pet Of The Week

Congratulations to Boo Boo Aday. This adorable little kitty is our Pet of the Week at Iuka Animal Clinic. His owners are Rodney & Kenlyn Aday. Boo Boo is an 8 month old domestic orange tabby cat. He is a very sweet kitty who loves to snuggle more than anything. He enjoys his cat naps on momma's bed and playing with any cat toy that has feathers. Boo Boo has unfortunately suffered with some digestive issues in his short life. He has been treated with special food and medications to get his issues under control. He is a model patient while at the animal clinic but missed by his family when he has to stay. Boo Boo is a wonderful kitty who is much loved by his family.

Just as with humans, digestive issues in pets can also be common. Cats are normally the ones we associate with sensitive stomachs but our pups can suffer just as badly. The digestive system is comprised of several body parts that work together to ensure food is turned into energy and healthy tissue. When these body parts don't sync together, this can impede that process. The stomach, liver, pancreas and intestines all need to be on the same page. In addition to these body parts needing to work together, good gut bacteria and enzymes also need to join the party.

If one of these parts gets irritated, then our pets can suffer. If you have any concerns about your pet's digestive track call Dr. Jim Perkins and his staff at Iuka Animal Clinic for an appointment at 662-423-3470.

Shiloh National Military Park Announces Major Redesign of Visitor Center Exhibits

SHILOH - Shiloh National Military Park invites the public to attend a kickoff meeting for the major redesign of the exhibits and exhibit area at the Shiloh Visitor Center. The meeting will be held on November 27th from 6:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. in the visitor center auditorium.

In September, the National Park Service's Harpers Ferry Design Center awarded a contract in the amount of $639,700.00 to Formations, Inc., of Portland, OR, to provide planning, design, fabrication, and installation services for the visitor center. The goal of this contract is to develop new exhibits that feature artifacts from the park's collection, interactive and tactile experiences, and audiovisual presentations that provide visitors with opportunities to make meaningful connections to the park and its story. The designers will also provide recommendations for any architectural changes in the facility that will be needed to accommodate the new elements.

"Shiloh National Military Park preserves the Civil War battlefield where the first major battle in the Western Theater took place in April 1862. The current exhibits in the visitor center are 30 years old and are no longer effective," said Superintendent Dale Wilkerson. "New exhibits are needed to provide interpretive approaches that are based on park themes, that reflect current scholarship and multiple perspectives, and that are accessible. As part of the design process, there will be public meetings to provide the community with opportunities for learning about the development of the new exhibits and for providing input as the design moves forward. It is important for us to include the local community in the process as we move forward with the revisions to the center."

Haley Brooke Wilbanks

Family and friends of Haley Brooke Wilbanks, 25, of Walnut, lovingly known as "Red", celebrated her life at 2:00 P M on Sunday, November 11, 2018 at Jesus Name Community Church in Walnut, MS, where she was a member. Visitation for friends began on Saturday evening, November 10, 2018 at 5:00 P M at Jesus Name Community Church.

Haley was born on June 19, 1993 and made sure she was the center of a large, loving family, all of whom are devastated. Although her parents, Larry and Donna Wilbanks of Walnut, MS, never made a difference in their four daughters, Haley Brooke was their baby and they have suffered a void that will never be replaced. Haley was not only beautiful, but a light to all who knew her. She cared for those around her - from her St. Jude children to the sweet elderly patient whom she would sit and pray for.

Haley and her sisters; Danielle Bailey of Crestview, FL, Courtney Sanford of New Albany, MS and Kayla Gutzler of Walnut, MS, had a bond like no other. They were not only sisters, but best friends. Whether it was the volleyball court or late night Disney movies, they have always been inseparable, and had a love that could not be denied. They will forever cherish her memory.

Sometimes you may not grow up with your "sisters" they may become a part of your "family" later in life. After all, it's not the blood that makes you family, but your relationship. Jennifer Scyoc was one of those "sisters" who has always been there for Haley and her sisters and they love her deeply. Other special "sisters" are Angel Chesser and Lindsay Dickman. Some may be blood, some may not be, but all had a special place in Haley's heart.

Haley was "Aunt Red" to five handsome nephews, Brayden Bailey, Klein, Easton and Kade Sanford and Magnus Gutzler, and two beautiful nieces, Heidee Sanford and Kynslee Bailey. She loved them with all of her heart and was so proud to be their "Aunt Red". Haley was blessed to have other "special nieces and nephews" who may or may not have been blood: Cole Dickman and Ry-lie Dickman. Aunt Red loved to play and sing "Never Grow UP" from Peter Pan to them.

Although Haley had no biological brothers, her brothers-in-law, Scott Bailey, Adrian Sanford, and Nick Gutzler filled that spot to a tee. She loved to tease them and they did her. Those guys protected her and watched over her just like she was their little sister.

Haley leaves behind her Granny, Mary Blunt of Iuka, MS. Her Granny made sure she was a big part of Haley's life, from traveling to Knoxville for Christian School Competition, ballgames at Walnut, church plays or family gatherings, Granny was always there for her. Haley also leaves behind her uncle, Jim Blunt of Tishomingo, MS; her aunt, Mar-ita Blunt-Daniel and her cousin, Chastity Parker both of Chicago, IL.

Haley adored working as a Registered Respiratory Therapist at Magnolia Regional Health Center, where she had been the past couple of years. The friends she made there were like her extended family and she made a point to tell everyone how much she loved her job. Lee Anna Jarnigan and Rebecca McCulla were two of her closest friends whom she loved dearly.

Ministers conducting Haley's Celebration of Life will be Bishop Gary Porterfield, Rev.

Cory Porterfield, Rev. Jacob Lovelace, Rev. Manuel. Pallbearers: Jake Gray, Justin Grant Gaar, Payton-lar, Shane Chesser, Josh Bateman. Honorary Pallbearers are: Lemons, Matt Wilbanks, Tripp Goolsby, Jake man, Gaither Barnes, Jimmy Dillenger.

Preceding Haley's death were her grandparents, Joseph and Glor-wilbanks of Walnut, Jimmy Blunt of Tishomingo, MS and Kevin Wilbanks of Walnut, MS.

Magnolia Funeral Home has been honored to serve the family of Haley Brooke Wilbanks.

Flag Presentation at Iuka Elementary

We had a great time at the Iuka Elementary for our flag presentation to the 1st and 2nd graders. It was part of veterans' appreciation leading up to Veterans Day. Commander Don Grant, Vice Commander Mario Barnes and Chuck Nimic discussed the history of the American flags going back to prerevolutionary times. Following the presentation, we passed out small American flags which the children waved in the air and chanted USA, USA. They made us feel very proud. We are thrilled to see our youth so proud of our country which we've defended.

Chieftain Chatter

We need your canned goods! The annual canned food drive ends this Friday. Please send items! Make sure they aren't expired and no water bottles this year. IMS hosted its annual Veterans Day program which was a huge success.

The show choir and 5th & 6th grade choruses, led by Bethany Cheaves, sang a moving, patriotic medley.

You can still buy yearbooks online. Go to the IMS website to purchase yours.

December 14 is the

IMS Science Fair.

Don't forget that Thanksgiving break is next week. We at IMS hope everyone has a blessed holiday, and we will see you Monday, November 26.

Have a great Thanksgiving!

Hoof Beats

This past Thursday, Burnsville students honored our veterans with a special program. Many local veterans and their families were in attendance. There was a special break for our veterans, followed by a program in the auditorium. Several students spoke on the tributes our veterans have made to our country. Our chorus band also honored our veterans in song. The 1st grade students even gave a special performance of the Eagle song. Our guest speaker was Mississippi state representative Bubba Carpenter. Mr. Carpenter is not only our local representative, but he is also a Burnsville alumni. Among the honored guest in attendance was Mr. J.E. Hudson. Mr. Hudson is a 99-year-old World War II veteran, who still pushes his lawn. We want to thank him along with all the other veterans for their service and sacrifice for the freedoms we enjoy today.

Our Mustangs basketball teams will be traveling to Belmont November 15th to take on the Cardinals. Our next games will

Food Depot News

Thanksgiving Day is just around the corner. Hopefully we will all take some time to be thankful for the many blessings we enjoy. Most of us have problems from time to time, but if we made a list of positives and negatives in our lives, I feel sure the positives will outweigh the negatives.

Please take time to visit those who are unable to get out and about this holiday season. Spend time with those you love, and send a card or take time to pick up the phone and call those who live too far away to visit.

This week is food box week and you have an opportunity to help give back to your community. Be at the Food Depot on Paul Edmonson Drive Friday night, November 16th at 6:00 p.m. to help pack boxes and/or Saturday morning, November 17th at 8:00 a.m. to help load boxes (men) and at the courthouse basement Saturday morning at 8:00 a.m. (ladies) to help pass out pick up cards.

May God Bless you and your family this Thanksgiving season!

20th Century Club Honors Veterans at Tishomingo Manor

The 20th Century Club assisted in serving the residents at Tishomingo Manor for a Veterans Day Celebration. There were other organizations there to honor them and thank them for their service and sacrifice. Kindred Hospice expressed their deep appreciation with a lapel pin of the U.S. flag. It was such an honor and humbling experience to visit with them and hear their stories. We honor and respect the men and women who have served in our U.S. armed forces. We salute you and thank you.

GEMS Family Fun Day

The gifted education teachers from Tishomingo County held our first "Family Fun Day" Saturday November 10th at Tishomingo Elementary School. We had about 100 parents, students and family members present. There were samples of student art work from each school on display for everyone to see. Each teacher also provided a fun STEM (Science/Technology/Engineering/Math) activity for the children to explore. Mrs. Henderson from Iuka Elementary provided several "LEGO" challenges. Mrs. Horn from Belmont assisted with "Cups, Cubes, and Craft Stick" challenges. Mrs. Hardin from Tishomingo provided engineering and constructing opportunities in the "Construction Zone". Ms. Wheeler supplied directions and items needed for students to create "Flex tangles". The most popular activity was the "Build a Boat" challenge provided by Mrs. Osborn from Iuka Middle School. Two students tied the contest by building boats that each held 157 marbles using only aluminum foil and craft sticks. We also invited some local resources that are available to our students and their families. Special visitors who also set up activities for our students were representatives from 4H, Girl Scouts, and the Museum of Natural Science. We are already making plans for next year's "Family Fun Day"!

Superintendent Holly Meets with Student Advisory Council

Tishomingo County School District Superintendent Christie Holly recently met with the 2018-2019 Superintendent Student Advisory Council to discuss ideas for improving the district and to gain insight about student perspectives concerning school performance and opportunities. The council members are recommended by administration at each school in grades 9-12 and include students from Belmont High School and Tishomingo County High School. Also, two council members must be students at the Tishomingo County Career and Technical Center. "I am very excited about this year's group of students. I enjoy meeting with them and hearing about school and learning from their perspective. We have extremely bright, creative students in our district, and to hear their ideas and perspectives helps us gauge how we are meeting our vision to ensure excellence for all students." The council meets once quarterly and discusses various topics concerning day-to-day school operation, classroom instruction, and ideas for the future. This council has helped with ideas for extracurricular activities, policies, celebrations, and district/school promotion ideas.

Way to go Bulldogs! This week, the Dogs play at Burnsville and host Iuka at home, so be sure and come out and support these talented players. Last week's Veteran's Day program was truly an inspiration as Chancery Clerk Peyton Cummings spoke about the sacrifices Veterans make to keep us all free. We were honored to have several Veterans in attendance, as well as en-
