Wayborn Bowling Inducted into Mississippi Skeet Shooting Hall of Fame

Saturday, September 15, 2019 marked one of the highlights of Wayborn Bowling's career, as he was inducted into the Mississippi Skeet Shooting Hall of Fame, as one of 2 shooters in the class of 2019. The MSSA (Mississippi Skeet Shooting Association) bestows this great honor and recognition to past and present Mississippi competitors who have not only excelled above the competition but have contributed in often immeasurable ways back to the sport of skeet. The annual Mississippi Skeet Championship was held at Whitetail Ridge Outdoors, Blue Springs, MS, from Friday, Sept 13th thru Sunday Sept 15th. Thirty-seven of Mississippi's best and most competitive shooters were vying for the title of 2019 State Champion in each of the 5 events: Doubles - 12 gauge - 20 gauge - 28 gauge and 410. From their combined scores in 4 gauges, shooters were then recognized as High Over (HOA) and High All Around (HAA) for their scores based on all 5 main events. Bowling topped the weekend adding several class wins to his long list of achievements running 394x400.

The State Champion HOA was awarded to James "Jimbo" Bearden of Madison, Mississippi with the high score of 396x400. Jimbo happens to be the nephew of local Coach Bobby Lowrey. The HAA title went to Caile Bradham of Belden, MS with a high score of 491x500. Bowling ended the night with 490x500, winning his class division of AA1.

Wayborn's wife, children and grandchildren were honored to attend the Hall of Fame ceremony on Saturday night at Whitetail Ridge with him, meeting shooters from across the state and witnessing their strong comradery and deep love of their sport. Bowling was recognized for his long list of accomplishments, including 8 State Championships, 15 times a member of the All State 1st Team, 7 times a member of the All State 2nd Team and his 2005 Doubles World Championship in San Antonio, Texas. Bowling noted that "Skeet Shooting is an easy game- if you don't miss no one can beat you". Walker Brewer of Pheba, Mississippi was posthumously recognized as an inductee to the Hall of Fame as well. Brewer passed away in 2006, but his legacy lives on thru Skeet Shooters throughout the south.

Congratulations Wayborn, well done! We are so very proud of you!

Two Arrested For Meth

On September 9th Tishomingo County Sheriff's deputies conducted a traffic stop on County Road 944 after confirming that the driver of the vehicle had outstanding warrants. Jamie Wardlow and Jerry Richardson were arrested during the stop.

As the deputies were attempting to stop the vehicle a bag was thrown from the passenger side window which was later retrieved. The bag was found to contain a large amount of alleged methamphetamine. The vehicle was stopped and the driver was immediately arrested for the warrants.

The passenger in the vehicle was found to have outstanding arrest warrants as well. Both the driver and passenger were transported to the Tishomingo County Jail at this time.

Jamie Wardlow, 29-year-old, white female, of Burnsville, Mississippi was officially charged with the felony possession of a controlled substance (methamphetamine). Wardlow's bond was set by the Tishomingo County Justice Court at $5,000.

Kenny Carson Takes the Office of Tishomingo County Circuit Court Clerk

I, Kenny W. Carson, have grown my name in the hat for Tishomingo County Circuit Court Clerk because I love everything about Tishomingo County especially serving the people of this great County.

Most of my life has been spent living in Iuka. I currently am serving as Vice Mayor/Alman for the City of Iuka and have served in this capacity for the past two years. If elected, I will continue serving the people with integrity, dignity, and respect just as the current circuit clerk has done.

One item I would like to address if elected is the ability to make it easier for the people of the county to take care of business within the office. I will continue updating the systems necessary and make transactions in the office easy for the citizens.

Following graduation from Iuka High School, I attended Northeast Mississippi Community College focusing on a degree in Business with an emphasis in Marketing and Management. I continued working toward and completing my degree with a double major at the University of Mississippi. I

Pet of the Week

Congratulations to Muffin Guice. This adorable little fellow is our Pet of the Week at Iuka Animal Clinic. His owners are Milton and Sandra Guice. Muffin is 4 months old. He was a stray kitten about 6 weeks old when he was found in the woods by the Guice's home. The poor little guy was caught by some old fence wire and was meowing every breath. Mr. and Mrs. Guice untangled him and brought him inside to be fed and pampered. When the next morning came he had already stole their hearts and they decided to keep him. Muffin lives with 3 older cats that he likes to play with. At night he gets in the bed and sleeps with his new family. He is a busy boy that keeps the Guice's very entertained and he is a loving companion.

Cats and kittens of every lifestyle, whether indoor-only, indoor/outdoor, or outdoor-only can regularly come in contact with harmful pests. Fleas, ticks, ear mites, intestinal worms, and heartworms can get into any home. Parasites hitchhike indoors on other pets or creatures, on shoes and clothes, or get inside through doors and windows. It is very important to protect your cat against these harmful parasites. Iuka Animal Clinic offers a great product called Revolution Plus. It is a once a month topical treatment for cats and kittens over 8 weeks of age that protects against fleas, ticks, ear mites, hookworms, roundworms and heartworms. It sounds amazing and truly is. A very easy to apply product that really works. Dr. Jim Perkins and his staff at Iuka Animal Clinic can help you choose the right parasite prevention for your pet. Call the office at 423-3470 for more information.

NEMCC Sports Hall of Fame's Twelfth Class Features Pair of Hoop Standouts and Longtime Coach

BOONEVILLE, Miss. Three worthy candidates will join the Northeast Mississippi Community College Sports Hall of Fame during its 12th annual induction ceremony.

Anthony Gamble, William "Billy" Southward and Shirley Hall are set for enshrinement at 4:30 p.m. on Thursday, September 19 in the Claude Wright Room of the Haney Union.

The trio will also be recognized at Tiger Stadium prior to the 7 p.m. game off of Northeast's homecoming football team versus Mississippi Community College and Junior Colleges (MACJC) North Division opponent Holmes Community College.

This group of honorees includes a long-time baseball and football coach for the Tigers plus a number of successful student-athletes that left their mark on the basketball court.

Tickets are on sale for this event and its accompanying meal at a cost of $15. For more information, contact athletic director Kent Farris at 720-7309 or by email at wkfarris@nemcc.edu.

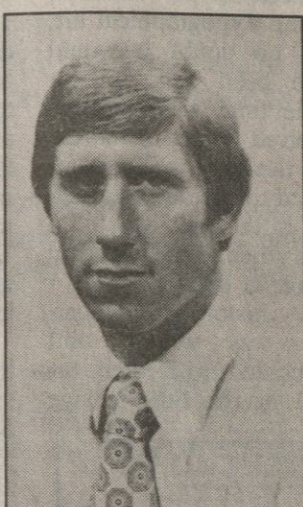

Tiffany Johnson in the Northeast Development Foundation office at 662-7185 or by email at anson@nemcc.edu.

Named to the Hall of Fame will be Anthony Gamble (Men's Basketball 1988-89); Shirley Hall White (Women's Basketball 1973-74, 1974-75) and William "Billy" Southward (Head Baseball Coach 1975-1985; Assistant Football Coach 1984-1995).

William "Billy" Southward, a native of Tishomingo County, was tasked with multiple responsibilities over a distinguished coaching and teaching career that spanned across four decades at Northeast Mississippi Community College.

He originally arrived at the Booneville campus in 1974 to assist legendary Northeast headman W.B. Ward as a defensive coach. Southward worked with the linebackers, defensive backs and defensive ends in his inaugural season with the Tigers.

Southward worked under five different head coaches at Northeast, including Ward from 1974-1985, Johnny Plummer from 1986-89, Hubert Tucker from 1990-94 and Gunter Brewer in 1995.

Billy Southward

His 22 seasons with the Tigers make him the second longest tenured football coach in school history. Only Carnell's 23 combined years as an assistant and head coach rank longer than Southward's service.

Five National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) All-Americans played for Northeast during Southward's time with the team, including defensive backs Barry Todd in 1977 and Maury Hill in 1979 plus defensive lineman Paul Rhodes in 1980.

Southward was on the sidelines for several of the most successful campaigns in program history. He saw the Tigers rise to No. 1 in the entire country in the J.C. Gridwire poll and No. 2 in the NJCAA rankings during the 1980 season.

Northeast captured its inaugural Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges (MACJC) North Division championship that year after winning nine straight outings. The Tigers also hosted a playoff game for the first time ever.

The Tishomingo native helped Northeast return to the state playoffs twice more in 1983 and 1987 after finishing as the MACJC North Division runner-up during both of those seasons.

The Tigers captured one of their biggest marquee wins ever during Southward's next-to-last campaign on the gridiron. Northeast upset defending national champion Mississippi Delta Community College by a score of 14-12 on October 20, 1994.

He joined his colleagues Carnell and Ward in earning MACJC Coaching Staff of the

Year laurels following the successful 1980 season. Southward was selected to coach in the 1977 MACJC All-Star Classic as well.

Southward took control of the baseball team from Carnell in the spring of 1975. He gave the program some needed stability after the Tigers featured seven different head coaches in the previous 14 years.

He also guided Northeast through a period of transition on the diamond. The Tigers expanded their schedule from playing fewer than 15 games before Southward's arrival to competing in more than 30 contests in his final season of 1985.

Several of his former Northeast student-athletes signed scholarships with four-year institutions, including Tim Kent, Jerry Long and David Wilkerson with the University of North Alabama.

Southward spent 11 total seasons at the helm of the baseball team. He is one of only two men to serve as head coach of the Tigers for more than a decade along with Ray Scott, who holds the school record at 15 years.

He remained at Northeast for an additional nine years as a physical education instructor after transitioning out of the athletic department. Southward officially retired from the college in 2005.

Southward starred on the gridiron himself at Mississippi State University from 1969-72. He was a three-year letter winner that started at both linebacker and defensive back for the Bulldogs.

Mississippi State went 6-5 during Southward's sophomore campaign, which included big victories over the University of Georgia, Oklahoma State University and Texas Tech University all at Mississippi Veterans Memorial Stadium in Jackson.

Southward and the Bulldogs, who were under the watch of coach Charley Shira, remained competitive during his junior and senior seasons with wins over the University of Florida in the state capital and the University of Houston (Texas).

He stayed in Starkville to open his coaching career as a graduate assistant for Mississippi State in 1973. The Bulldogs compiled a 4-5-2 overall record in Southward's lone year on the staff.

The Tishomingo High School alumnus was previously inducted into the Northeast Mississippi Coaches Association for Better Baseball (NEM-CABB) Hall of Fame in 2000.

KEEP TISHOMINGO COUNTY GREAT!

We are Republican because.....

We believe the strength of our county lies with the individual and that each person's dignity, freedom, and responsibility must be honored.

We believe in equal rights, equal justice, and equal opportunity for all, regardless of race, creed, sex, age, or disability.

We believe free enterprise and encouraging individual initiative have brought this county opportunity economic growth and prosperity.

We believe local government must practice fiscal responsibility and allow individuals to keep more of the money they earn.

We believe the proper role of local government is to provide for the people only those critical functions that cannot be performed by individuals or private organizations and that the best government is that which governs least.

We believe the most effective, responsible and responsive government is local government closest to the people.

We believe this county must retain the principles that have made us strong while developing new and innovative ideas to meet the challenges of changing times.

We believe in the rights of the unborn, but don't believe in same sex marriage.

Finally, we as the Tishomingo County Republican party are the best vehicle for translating these ideals into positive successful principles of local government.

Words From The Wisest King Before Jesus (part 31)

Ecclesiastes 7:1-2 says, "A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth. It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to heart." There is more wisdom in these two verses than most of the world will ever see! We are living in an age that seems to discount the value of a good name, but that is not a wise thing to do. Some people have been heard to say, "I do not care what people think of me." I doubt that most people are really honest when they say this, because most people do care what others think of them, that is why they wear certain kinds of clothes; eat in certain famous restaurants and attend meetings where important people speak. The name that we make for ourselves will form the character we possess in the eyes of those who know us. Solomon said that we would be better off with a good name than with precious ointment. Precious ointment can give us a good fragrance, but a good name can give us what people really think of us when the fragrance is gone!

Now we have what might be considered strange to some people, for Solomon has said that the day of one's death is better than the day of his birth. We might ponder on this for a moment and possibly see what Solomon meant by his statement. For one thing, he was saying that life does not have as much to offer as we may have supposed at an earlier age. Then he may have had in mind that those who know God have a better life after this earthly life is over, although he is not primarily speaking of life in heaven in the Book of Ecclesiastes. If we look at chapter 2 of the Book of Ecclesiastes, we will learn that Solomon did not find anything in life that really met the deepest needs of his spirit, so perhaps he is saying that the other end of life is better than the beginning, because of all of the sorrow and disappointment one must face in life. I am not being morbid about life, even though Solomon sometimes seems morbid in his writing, but I do know that the life that follows this one will be much better for all who know God. On the other hand, the next life will be must worse for those who have never received Christ by faith and been saved from sin. I enjoy life, as a general rule, but I have seen plenty of hard times in life, yet there is no need to let those times bring us to despair, for God will certainly help us through them if we know Him and depend on Him for help and strength.

Solomon also said that the house of mourning has more lessons to teach us than the house of feasting. This is true, because the funeral parlor will silently whisper to all of us that we will be there some day, while the feast may cover over the hard truths of life and cause us to live momentarily in a dream world which has no real association with the real world!

NEMCC Names Blues Legend Sam Mosley to Alumni Hall of Fame Class

BOONEVILLE – For over 70 years, Northeast Mississippi Community College alumni Sam Mosley has been gracing the hills country of Mississippi and the entire Magnolia State with his gift of blues music.

A native of the Beaver Dam community in Union County and the son of a sharecropper, Mosley's love for music started young by listening to his father Joe Mosley play the mandolin in a string band with his brothers Bud and Theodore.

However, Sam Mosley's music career began to blossom early when he joined with his brothers Jamie and Ralph, as they started performing as the "Starlighters," in the 1950s and then "Jamie Mosley & the Dynamics," later on in the decade.

Mosley's career has spanned over seven decades and due to his numerous contributions to not only Northeast but the world of blues music, he is the college's Alumni Hall of Fame inductee for 2019.

Mosley will be enshrined along with other notable Northeast alumni such as Harold E. Lomenick (Class of 2018), Hugh McLarty (Class of 2017), Travis Childers (Class of 2016), Vance Witt and Earline "Woodsie" Woods (Class of 2015), Dr. William G. Jackson (Class of 2014), James Seth Pounds and Cathy M. Roberson (Class of 2013) and Major General Augustus Leon Collins and the honorable William "Billy Joe" McCoy (Class of 2012).

Northeast will hold an induction ceremony for Mosley and the three members of the college's Sports Hall of Fame class – Anthony Gamble, William "Billy" Southward and Shirley Hall White, on Thursday, September 19 at 4:30 p.m. in the Claude Wright Room of the Haney Union.

In addition to the induction ceremony, members of the Alumni Hall of Fame and the Sports Hall of Fame will be recognized prior to the Northeast football team's game with Holmes Community College that night.

Mosley will also serve as the Northeast Development Foundation and Alumni Association's representative and will present Homecoming Queen Victoria Brown of New Albany with flowers during the crowning of the queen ceremony as part of homecoming festivities at halftime.

Mosley has tirelessly served the college including providing a pair of free concerts to Northeast employees, students and the community.

In 2016, "Northeast Learns the Blues with Sam Mosley," drew 427 people to a concert in the Claude Wright Room of the Haney Union and in 2015, "A Night of Music and Memories with Sam Mosley" drew a crowd of over 300 people.

Mosley was even the focus of a keynote video at the college's InService in 2018, where he talked about his time at Northeast and how the college had shaped his views on life.

SAM MOSLEY BACKGROUND

Mosley's views on education were shaped earlier than that during his time at the B.F. Ford School in New Albany where he realized the value of an education and wanted to go to college to be a schoolteacher.

However, life had other plans.

Mosley was drafted into the United States Army in 1965 and served until 1967 — which included a tour in Vietnam from 1966-1967.

Upon his return to the states in 1967, Mosley reconnected with friend, Bob Johnson, who informed him that Northeast was re-organizing its football team after an 11-year hiatus and they were asked by legendary Northeast football coach William B. "Bill" Ward if they wanted to be on it.

Mosley and Johnson enrolled at Northeast in 1968 and it was during that first season back, that Mosley put his mark in the Northeast football record book by becoming the first African American to catch a touchdown pass when he hauled in a touchdown pass on a play called "190 Sideline and Go," and helped Northeast beat Southwest Mississippi 33-20 on September 7, 1968.

While Mosley was leaving his mark in the history books at Northeast, it was during his time at the Booneville-based college that he and Johnson were solidifying their blues music and after they would finish football practice in the afternoons, the duo along with Robert "Pistol" McGlown, would make their way to Memphis to play in the blues clubs in the Bluff City.

Mosley was the astute student and made sure that his grades were in order, even though his time was split between the classrooms, football and the blues clubs and graduated with from Northeast with an Associate of Arts degree in business data processing.

Mosley's education did not stop there and went on to the University of Mississippi (Ole Miss) and graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1973.

While his love for being a schoolteacher never faded, Mosley knew that he wanted to share his love of music to the masses.

Mosley's music career picked up when he reconnected with Johnson. After agreeing to a creative partnership, the duo tried to decide on a name for a group and went through phases of "Bobby Johnson and the Messengers," "Sam and Bob and The Soul Men," and even "Mojoba," before finally settling in on "The Mosley and Johnson Band."

While the name took

a while to come up with, one thing was for certain, Mosley and Johnson's music was in high demand in the Mississippi Hill Country and across the Magnolia State.

In 1967, Mosley and Johnson started recording at the John Mahalic studio in Tupelo but their big break came in 1968 when, while performing at a Memphis nightclub, the duo was asked for some demos and was soon on their way to recording with Hi Recording Studio in Memphis.

While with Hi Records, the pair released a pair of 45 records with the songs "Gimme Some Lovin'" and "Is It Over?" which Mosley performed under the pseudonym, David Duke.

In 1971, Mosley and Johnson released their first album together, Mississippi Mud, under their own record label – SABO Music – as Sam and Bob and the Soulmen.

Soon after the release of Mississippi Mud, Mosley and Johnson found themselves at Malaco Records in Jackson and produced three albums for the central Mississippi label.

In addition to their own record release, Johnson and Mosley also recorded for Polydor records in the 1970s as Mojoba before finally finding their identity as The Mosley and Johnson Band.

During over 30 years working together, Mosley and Johnson, neither of whom had formal music training, steadily learned the music world and became one of the go-to duos for not only performing on stage but also in a studio and writing songs for other artists including Malaco artists such as Bobby "Blue" Bland, Little Milton, Johnnie Taylor and multiple other musicians throughout the Mississippi, Tennessee and Alabama region like Z.Z. Hill and his hit song, "Down Home Blues."

Throughout their careers, Mosley and Johnson had the opportunity to work with the vaunted Muscle Shoals studio band in Alabama.

Mosley and Johnson's career continued to reach new heights throughout the 1980s with the release for the self-titled album "Mosley & Johnson" in 1985 and "Mosley & Johnson Premium" in 1987. Johnson and Mosley's song, "Rock Me," came off the 1985 album and the duo's "Slide On," helped the pair earn their first gold record for songwriting and producing. However, in 1989, Mosley and Johnson reached the international market when the pair set out on a European tour and played in such European cities as London, Paris and Switzerland.

The pinnacle of the European tour for Mosley and Johnson was the Montreux Jazz Festival in Switzerland where the duo got to perform on stage with Blues musician B.B. King.

Sadly, Johnson passed away while performing onstage during a Verona performance in 1998 but Mosley has kept the name alive and continued to perform with Johnson's brothers Willie and Miles as part of the Mosley Johnson Band.

In 2000, Mosley and Johnson were nominated for a Grammy Award for Best Traditional Blues Album off of Bobby Bland's "Memphis Monday Morning,"...only to lose out to King's "Blues on the Bayou."

In 2008, The Mosley Johnson Band was honored with a marker on the Mississippi Blues Trail in New Albany at the corner of Washington and Cleveland streets. The Mississippi Blues Trail contains 120 markers throughout the Magnolia State and outside the state with 30 of the markers contained in the Mississippi "Hills Country."

During his performance times, Mosley has had the opportunity to play with Blues greats such as Lou Rawls, Bobby Bland, Denise LaSalle and Johnnie Taylor and had the opportunity to write for some of the best as well.

A graduate of New Albany's B.F. Ford School in 1964, Mosley has received two gold records for songwriting and producing, one gold record from his work with Johnny Taylor and two from his work with ZZ Hill.

However, Mosley's love for education has not been lost to time and since his retirement from the furniture industry, he has made time to educate the youth of Union County and the hills country of Mississippi about the blues, racial reconciliation and civil rights in Mississippi.

Mosley is married to the former Margaret Ezell and has five children and many grandchildren.

He is a member of Beaver Dam Baptist Church and his wife is a member of Watson Grove Baptist Church.

He spends a lot of time with his grandchildren, educates today's youth and plays as often as possible.
