Following the ceremony naming U. Portion of US Highway 72 Named in Honor of Iuka Mayor John Biggs

On Friday, December 20, 2019, a section of U. S. Highway 72 thru the city limits of Iuka was dedicated to the memory of Mayor Johnny Biggs who served the city some 20 years as Mayor and Board of Alderman. Mayor Biggs who died in 2017 at the age of 87, was instrumental in helping Iuka progress through the 1960's, 70's and 80's working with county and state officials to bring industries such as the Tenn-Tom waterway, the Yellow Creek Plant, TVA's Yellow Creek Nuclear Plant, and the building of the NASA facility, all of which brought many jobs to the people of this area. He served as Mayor and City Judge and was loved and respected by the many people he served.

along with MS Congressman Bubba Carpenter and MS Senator J. P. Wilemon were instrumental in dedicating the road and hosting the unveiling ceremony held at the Iuka City Hall. The program began with the presentation of the American Flag by Iuka Boy Scout Troop 26 Honor Guards Noah Carpenter, Logan Allred, and Aiden Brown; followed by the singing of the National Anthem by family friend Ciji Marlin and the invocation by family friend Nicholas Phillips. Program speakers included Iuka Mayor John Castleberry, Congressman Bubba Carpenter, MDOT Commissioner Mike Tagert, Senator J. P. Wilemon and Richard Bowen, former city attorney and family friend. Following the unveiling of the sign by family members, guests were treated to refreshments prepared by friends and the road sign was taken to the east city limits of Iuka to be erected by MDOT workers.

Legend Of The Christmas Rose

Christmas is the season of giving gifts, thereby, showing love towards one another. This does not mean that the gifts are the sole expression of your love. No gift is costlier or more valuable than something that comes straight from the heart even if the gift in question is inconsequential. The tradition of gifts during Christmas originated from the kind gestures of the three Wise Men who brought expensive presents for the Infant Jesus to welcome him into this world. Since then, people have made gifts a mandate for Christmas. But, this must be remembered, as the legend of Christmas Rose will show you, that the gesture counts more than the gift. Perhaps, this legend originated just to teach people that, no matter what you gift, it must be from the heart and soul - even if the gift in question is just a flower. It is owing to this legend that the Christmas rose, the flower which only blooms during the chill of winter, has become an important part of Yuletide celebrations.

The Legend

On a cold December night, everybody was coming to see their new Savior and brought Him all kinds of gifts and presents. The three Wise Men came in with their valuable gifts of myrrh, frankincense and gold and offered them to Baby Jesus. At that point, a shepherdess, Madelon, who had seen the wise men passing through, reached the door of the stable, to see the Child. However, being very poor and having brought nothing to offer to the child, she felt helpless and started weeping quietly at the sight of all the wonderful gifts that the Three Wise Men had got for the child. Earlier, she had searched, in vain, for flowers all over the countryside but there was not even a single bloom to be found in the bitter winter.

An angel outside the door was watching over her and knew about her fruitless search. He took pity on her and, when he saw her head drooped down in sorrow, decided to help her with a little miracle. He gently brushed aside the snow at her feet and where her tears had fallen, sprang a beautiful cluster of waxen white winter roses with pink tipped petals. Then he softly whispered into the shepherdess's ear that these Christmas roses are far more valuable than any myrrh, frankincense or gold, for they are pure and made of love. The maiden was pleasantly surprised when she heard those words and joyfully gathered the flowers and offered them to the Holy Infant, who, seeing that the gift was reared with tears of love, smiled at her with gratitude and satisfaction. Thus, the Christmas rose came to symbolize hope, love and all that is wonderful in this season.

Stockings

In the United States and England, children hang stockings on their bedpost or near a fireplace on Christmas Eve, hoping that it will be filled with treats while they sleep. In Scandinavia, similar-minded children leave their shoes on the hearth. This tradition can be traced to legends about Saint Nicholas. One legend tells of three poor sisters who could not marry because they had no money for a dowry. To save them from being sold by their father, St. Nick left each of the three sisters gifts of gold coins. One went down the chimney and landed in a pair of shoes that had been left on the hearth. Another went into a window and into a pair of stockings left hanging by the fire to dry.

Sweet Little Jesus Boy

On Christmas Eve 1932, Robert McGimsey attended a midnight church service in New York City and then headed back to his one-room apartment. As he walked the final blocks, he passed the open doors of private clubs where people were shouting and swearing and singing. Others were so drunk they had passed out on the sidewalk.

What a strange way to celebrate the birth of the most perfect Person who ever lived on this earth, McGimsey thought. We seem to have missed the whole significance of His life.

That night McGimsey wrote his thoughts on the back of an envelope, words, which were written like the spirituals he had loved growing up in the United States, flowed out of his heart:

*Sweet little Jesus Boy,
They made You be born in a manger.
Sweet little Holy Child, didn't know who You was.
Didn't know You'd come to save us, Lord,
To take our sins away.
Our eyes was blind, we couldn't see,
We didn't know who You was.*

The song offers an apology to the Christ-child for not recognizing Him who came to this earth. But every year gives us an opportunity to look again at Jesus with new eyes of understanding and acceptance.

'Tis the Season
Time to say thanks to all of you who have made this past year a joy for us!

MS Highway Patrol Kicks Off Travel Enforcement Period

The Mississippi Highway Patrol will kick off the 2019 Christmas Travel Enforcement Period with the annual safety awareness initiative titled "Home for the Holidays." The initiative will run through the end of the year and is designed to ensure safe travel for motorists while also reminding them of their responsibilities during the busy holiday season. The MHP 2019 Christmas Travel Enforcement Period begins Monday, December 23 at 12:01 a.m. and will conclude Wednesday, December 25 at midnight. All available Troopers will be utilized on all state, federal, and interstate systems to combat reckless driving along with speeding and distracted driving issues. Safety checkpoints will also be conducted throughout the period in order to enforce child restraint and seatbelt laws while also removing impaired drivers. MHP investigated 203 crashes with 2 fatalities during the 2018 Christmas enforcement period. If alcohol is included in celebrations, we urge motorists to designate a sober driver or have other means of safe transportation. The 2019 MHP Thanksgiving period was deadly across our state with 10 fatalities and we want motorists to remember how dangerous traveling can be. Safe driving should be a major part of everyone's holiday plans and making it home for the holidays should be everyone's goal.

Courthouse Closing

The Tishomingo County Courthouse will be closed on the 24th and 25th of December for the Christmas Holiday and will be closing at 12 p.m. on the 31st of December and closed on January 1st for the New Year's Holiday.

Shiloh National Military Park to Celebrate its Birthday

SHILOH, TN - Join park rangers and the Hardin County Visitor and Convention Bureau as we celebrate the establishment of Shiloh Battlefield as a National Military Park. On Monday, December 27, 2019, Shiloh National Military Park will commemorate the 125th anniversary of President Grover Cleveland signing into law, the legislation creating Shiloh National Military Park.

The event will begin at 2:00 pm in the Shiloh Battlefield visitor center auditorium. Visitors are invited to attend a park ranger presentation on the national military park movement in the 1900s, and the operation of Shiloh until the National Park Service took over in 1936. Following the program, at 2:30 pm, the Hardin County Visitor and Convention Bureau will present a talk to the park for visitors to enjoy. This event is free and open to the public.

Shiloh National Military Park was established on December 27, 1894, but for years after the battle only the Shiloh National Cemetery stood as a reminder of the epic two-day engagement. That was until veterans of the Battle of Shiloh, both North and South, reunited to establish a lasting memorial to their role in history. Shiloh was one of the first five Civil War battlefields preserved as national military parks, along with Chickamauga, Antietam, Gettysburg, and Vicksburg.

The Shiloh National Military Park visitor center is open from 8:00 am - 5:00 pm every day except Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, and New Year's Day.

The park's bookstore is open from 8:00 am - 4:30 pm during the winter season. For more information contact the park visitor center at 731 689-5696, go to the park website at www.nps.gov/shil, or find us on Facebook. About the National Park Service: More than 20,000 National Park Service employees care for America's 401 national parks and work with communities across the nation to help preserve local history and create close-to-home recreational opportunities. Words From The Wisest King Before Jesus (part 46)

Solomon wrote the Book of Ecclesiastes, at least in my thinking, and in that book he gave some wise words that are worthy of our attention. In Ecclesiastes 8:8 we read: "There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it." Have you ever heard the words: "He is too mean to die"? Many of us have heard those words spoken about some person who has been known to be mean, but the fact is: nobody is too mean to die! Our verse tells us that no man really has the power over the spirit to retain it when it comes time to die. Oh, we could argue that doctors have "saved the lives" of some people, and I could agree that there is a certain truth in that, yet if God determines that it is time for one to die, even a team of doctors cannot change that. I am glad that God has allowed us to have good doctors, and I would be grateful should one be able to "save my life" if I were facing death, yet it seems that this would mean that God had not determined that I had to die at that time. Notice that our verse says that men do not have power in the day of death, meaning that they cannot just decide that they are not going to die, for such is impossible. I am acquainted with the term "will to live", and I think there is something positive to be said about that, yet again I say that when God says one is going to die, he will not be able to continue to live!

Our verse also says that there is no "discharge in that war", indicating that death is a battle without a discharge from it. We cannot just decide that we will wait until a more convenient time to die, for all of us have likely spoken of the fact that certain people "died before their time", or before it was convenient for them or those they left behind. God does not necessarily choose a convenient time for men to die, although Psalm 116:15 does say, "Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of His saints." The word "precious", as it is used in this verse, means: valuable, not necessarily having a relation to the timing of that death, although God does know the timing of all deaths. I mentioned above that none is too wicked to die, and our verse says essentially that, when it says that wickedness shall not deliver those who are given to it. Many wicked people have mistakenly thought that death could not overtake them, but they have all been wrong so far! Notice that our verse indicates that some people are "given to wickedness", or that they have given themselves over to the devil and his wicked works. The fact is: the devil can keep even one of "children" from death when God has determined that it is time such to die. The wise thing to do in death is for one to be right with God, so when death does come he will know that he can "fall into the arms of the Savior" and be carried to the place of rest by the side of Christ and others who are in heaven!

Nothing Material Can Compare to God's Gifts

In chapter Five of the book of Acts in the Bible, there is a story that all Christians should hold dear to their hearts and non-believers should ponder carefully. The disciples were out and about in the land, telling the good news about the savior Jesus Christ and his rise from the dead. The Jewish religious leadership, called the Sanhedrin, were very upset by what they considered to be heresy. The Sanhedrin convened a trial and dragged the disciples before them. The disciples refused to renounce Jesus and tried to convert the Sanhedrin. They were furious and wanted the disciples put to death. A wise Pharisee name Gamaliel, who was honored by all the people, intervened. "Men of Israel consider carefully what you intend to do to these men," Gamaliel said, recounting the two prior false messiahs who came before Jesus. Their movements did not last. Gamaliel said: "Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail. But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God." The disciples were set free. Two thousand years later, there are 2.2 billion Christians in the world, a number that is growing more rapidly than ever. Most Jews wanted a military savior who would defeat the Romans and free the land. Jesus didn't fit their bill, so they refused him. Jesus did defeat the Romans and free the land and become King, just not in the manner and timeframe the Jews living at that time desired. So it will always be. God will achieve his purposes, but on God's schedule, not our own. Recent polls are showing a significant decline in Americans who call themselves Christians, from 77 to 65 percent in just a decade. Polls can be manipulated, but any news such as this is disturbing, especially in the light of increasing suicides, drug use, depression and mental illness. When a person fails to understand how the world works and their place in the world, it creates a disconnect that can lead to all types of misery. Every human being is a precious creation of God. Failing to understand this basic fact sets the stage for an impossible life.

Decades ago I was a social Christian and a secular humanist. Even so, I intellectually realized that man, society and culture desperately needed religion to function properly. That - and the insistence of my new wife Ginny - got me going to church regularly. Sermon by sermon, Bible lesson by Bible lesson, the amazing power and truth of God and his word was revealed to me. The more I learned, the more my secular mind was blown, until I reached the moment of truth: something in the Bible didn't fit my world view, it was not because the Bible was wrong, but because my world view was wrong. I became a true believer. I began to think what a different course my life could have taken. Fresh out of UCLA business school with a degree in information systems, I was headed to the Silicon Valley to invent the internet. Instead, I eventually ended back in the family newspaper business in God's country (struggling against the internet, how ironic!) as Jesus said, "What good is it for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit their soul." Who knows, it might have been a failure as a tech entrepreneur, but even worse, I might have succeeded and become rich, arrogant, unsaved and mired in human sin with no hope for salvation. The thought makes me shudder. My young children are at an age when many of their contemporaries challenge their faith. Praise the Lord, so far, they have stood firm. My prayer for my children has remained consistent: That the Holy Spirit dwell in their hearts so they can love the Lord and live happy and fulfilling lives. I tell them: If you see a turtle on a fencepost, would you believe the turtle got there by itself? You are the turtle. Or more simply, if there is no God, how in the world did you get here? There is a God. There is a magnificent plan, a huge drama, that is playing out over thousands of years. Every step along the way has been documented with breathtaking clarity. And it has all transpired just as the prophets accurately predicted hundreds of years before it happened. All you have to do is go to church, listen and learn, read the Bible, pray for revelation and you will have it. Only then will you find what you are looking for. In the first quarter of my life, I remember that shiny red Honda 100 motorcycle under the Christmas tree when I was 13. The joy I felt seemed like heaven on earth at the time. Now in the final quarter of my life, I think back on all my experiences, all the wonderful people in my life and the beautiful gift of life God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit have given me, along with even greater joy yet to come. The motorcycle now pales in comparison.

Recipe for a Happy New Year. Anonymous

Take twelve fine, full-grown months; see that these are thoroughly free from old memories of bitterness, rancor and hate, cleanse them completely from every clinging spite; pick off all specks of pettiness and littleness; in short, see that these months are freed from all the past—have them fresh and clean as when they first came from the great storehouse of Time. Cut these months into thirty or thirty-one equal parts. Do not attempt to make up the whole batch at one time (so many persons spoil the entire lot this way) but prepare one day at a time.

Into each day put equal parts of faith, patience, courage, work (some people omit this ingredient and so spoil the flavor of the rest), hope, fidelity, liberality, kindness, rest (leaving this out is like leaving the oil out of the salad dressing—don't do it), prayer, meditation, and one well-selected resolution. Put in about one teaspoonful of good spirits, a dash of fun, a pinch of folly, a sprinkling of play, and a heaping cupful of good humor.

Start A New Year Anonymous

"A new year is unfolding—like a blossom with petals curled tightly concealing the beauty within.

Lord, let this year be filled with the things that are truly good—with the comfort of warmth in our relationships, with the strength to help those who need our help and the humility and openness to accept help from others.

As we make our resolutions for the year ahead, let us go forward with great hope that all things can be possible—with Your help and guidance."

Our Staff will provide Personal Care for you and Your loved ones during your time of need.

Old Courthouse Museum Announces Auditions for Upcoming Play

After the terrific response to the Old Courthouse Museum's production of "12 Angry Men," they are proud to announce auditions for their next action-packed courtroom classic, Agatha Christie's "Witness for the Prosecution". The play centers around young hapless inventor Leonard Vole, who makes a friend in wealthy, elderly Emily French. When Emily is found dead, leaving Leonard as her principal heir, he is an immediate suspect. His only hope lay in the testimony of his cold-blooded wife Romaine, who chooses not to back up her husband's alibi but to testify against him. For Vole's attorney, this is just the beginning of a shocking series of twisting revelations and betrayal.

The play calls for 9 males and 4 females, and the museum is hoping to cast a number of understudies, so there is ample room for everyone to come be a part of this great show.

Auditions will be held at the Old Courthouse Museum January 7, 8, and 9 from 7pm until 9 pm each night. The performances are scheduled to run March 27 and March 28, with possibilities of add-on performances the following weekend in the event of a repeat of the sell-out crowds seen at «12 Angry Men». It is the hope of the museum that in the event of extra performances, the understudies will be given a chance to perform.

I Am the New Year Bible Illustrator

I am the new year. I am an unspoiled page in your book of time.

I am your next chance at the art of living. I am your opportunity to practice what you have learned about life during the last twelve months.

All that you sought and didn't find is hidden in me, waiting for you to search it but with more determination.

All the good that you tried for and didn't achieve is mine to grant when you have fewer conflicting desires.

All that you dreamed but didn't dare to do, all that you hoped but did not will, all the faith that you claimed but did not have—these slumber lightly, waiting to be awakened by the touch of a strong purpose.

Charlotte's Attic

City workers paving the parking lot (shown below) in the west end of Jaybird Park. The dates for the photos are not known. Probably the 1960's.

New Construction in Jaybird Park

The City of Iuka recently received a $130,000 Small Town Municipal Grant which is being used to construct much-needed public bathrooms in the Jaybird Park in Downtown Iuka. The bathrooms will be handicap accessible and will be open to the public all the time, not just for special occasions. According to the city they should be finished by early Spring.

From our old files: City workers working in the parking lot across from the "News" office which at one time stored lumber and was the first site of a depot in Iuka. From left: Diddler Thorne, Howard Adcock (Tad); George Estes, and Snocum Adcock.
