Aircraft Makes Emergency Landing on Highway in Iuka

A small vintage plane bound for Florida made an emergency landing on Veterans Memorial Highway in Iuka around 4 p.m. on Tuesday, July 17th.

No injuries occurred during the incident on highway 25 near the hospital, when the plane landed on the roadway; Iuka Police, Mississippi Highway Patrol and first responders were called to the scene. One of the pilots commented, this is something you don't see every day.

The pilot and the plane's owner were reportedly in this two-seater when the landing took place. It was reported the pilot had attended an air show in Kansas City, MO.

The aircraft struck a mailbox before coming to a complete stop in the yard of the Vaughn residence near NMMC. Two of the plane's tires went flat during the incident.

The word Marines is printed on the aircraft, which was flying south. According to reports

Marine Observation Squadron 6 flew planes such as this from WWII through the Korean War. The words "Up & Up" can be seen on the tail fin.

The pilot had stopped for fuel in Waynesboro, Tennessee; the plan was to visit our local airport as well but due to issues with the engine an emergency landing on the highway was necessary.

The ordeal turned into an almost 8 hour event before the plane was pulled from the side of the highway. It was moved to the parking lot of a nearby business around midnight by a local tow truck. Traffic was stopped by law enforcement so the aircraft could be safely pulled to a nearby parking lot.

Many residents have greatly enjoyed viewing the aircraft parked in front of the Bingo establishment next to Jacks.

Tishomingo County School District Prepares For New School Year

Classes Begin August 5

The Tishomingo County School District is getting ready for school to begin in August and is looking forward to a greater sense of normalcy after a year of dealing with the COVID-19 pandemic. The district has published its "Safe Return to School Plan" on the district website and received positive feedback from stakeholders. The plan is flexible as the situation with COVID-19 can change quickly. The district encourages parents and the community to review the plan and submit any comments, if needed.

As the district plans to return to school, there are several things to note that will be different from last year:

School will be in session 5 days a week in its traditional learning schedule.

Buses will run as normal and masks are not required on buses.

Students will return to school on August 5, 2021. The school calendar can be found on the district website (www.tcsk12.com).

Masks are optional and not required at this time. The mask mandate from the governor for K-12 schools ended on May 31st.

Visitors are welcome at each campus. However, the district asks that if the visitor is experiencing any sickness or symptoms to refrain from entering the building.

All athletic and school events are at full capacity. The governor lifted the seating capacity caps toward the end of the school year.

If a student is showing symptoms of illness or COVID-19 specific symptoms, he/she should not come to school.

Due to a new Mississippi Department of Education policy regarding virtual learning, a student must be "live online" all day while a teacher is teaching his/her classes to be a virtual student. In response to this policy, the district WILL NOT offer a virtual option for students at this time. All students will be required to come to school face-to-face.

Students and staff who are exposed to positive COVID-19 individuals (whether outside of school or during school) will still have to follow the CDC's quarantine guidelines. Vaccinated individuals are exempt from quarantine requirements according to the CDC's guidelines.

If a student was home schooled last year, the student is required to take a placement test to register for school. Families of home school students should contact their child's school to schedule this test as soon as possible so registration can occur.

The district has plans to implement new programs and new personnel to assist with any learning gaps and/or learning loss that students may experience from last school year and the school shutdown in 2020. A K-4 summer program was considered, but after parent feedback and concerns students may

State Giving Free Taxpayer Money to Magnolia to Build For-profit Clinic in County has Local Health Providers Angry

10 July 2021 - Local health providers are expressing concern that the Yellow Creek Port Authority is funding building of a new for-profit clinic in Burnsville with taxpayer funds.

After investing decades of service, medical expertise, community donations to Tishomingo County, in their privately funded clinics, doctors and nurses were surprised by the recent announcement that the state government is providing $750,000 to a clinic that will be run by Magnolia Regional Health Center, of Mississippi.

"It's like the state is cutting legs out from under us," Iuka nurse practitioner Sara Glynn explained. "We have invested our money, and served, and worked hard to not only provide quality health care locally, but bring home and hire doctors, are from Iuka, Belmont, Burnsville and keep this rural community healthy - to make sure that you don't have to drive an hour for a doctor like they do in other places."

"And it's not as if there is a need for another clinic; in addition to the award-winning hospital in Iuka that many people have worked hard to keep open through the years, there are four full-service clinics in Iuka, and a new urgent care clinic just opened up in the last year," said Dr. Margaret Glynn, of Iuka. "And now the state government is going to fund another clinic run by a competing hospital system in our county."

Not a Free Clinic

"It would be different," Dr. Glynn explained, "if the government was funding a free clinic for people who could use it. But, it's NOT a free clinic they are proposing, it is a for-profit clinic getting hundreds of thousands of free state money. And land from the Port to build on!"

"Our county has at least nine doctors that were born and raised in Tishomingo County," said one doctor in a letter. "They attended school in the county for twelve years, went on to college and studied day and night for another twelve years to become a hometown doctor. How are they rewarded? Their own state leaders have given their tax dollars away to Magnolia Regional Hospital to directly compete against them!"

Additionally, the county has many advanced nurse practitioners who are native Tishomingo Countians and are "the backbone of our local clinics, nursing homes, and assisted living facilities."

"They know their patients very well because they see them at church, see them shopping, and their kids attend school together. Home grown medicine is the best medicine," reads the letter.

"Imagine if, despite having a couple good grocery stores in your town run by hard-working private individuals or companies, and the state decided to GIVE Walmart or Costco (private, for-profit companies) $750,000 and land to build on," said Cooley. "That would not be right, and this isn't either. If they want to enter the health care market because there is a need, let them fund a clinic themselves; not use our tax dollars to build something that's going to hurt existing providers!"

No Need?

Tishomingo County is ahead of much of the rest of the state when it comes to needing additional medical services, according to the federal Health Resources and Services Administration. Tishomingo County is actually one of the few counties in Mississippi that scores very low in their calculations of what counties are underserved for medical services, scoring 1-13 compared to neighboring counties whose scores indicate they have more of a shortage of services.

The Port Authority is the state board that is responsible for the day-to-day function of the multi-million dollar earning Yellow Creek Port in the north end of Tishomingo County, as well as a Burnsville industrial park. The board is made up of ten government-compensated appointees by county boards from Alcorn, Tishomingo, Itawamba and Prentiss counties, and the Governor. With multiple industrial tenants like CMC Comets, Mississippi Silicon, Skyline Steel, FerroSouth, Iago Automotive and RollForm, the Port employs about 800 people in some of the best-paying jobs in Tishomingo County.

The Port has long been profitable, from fees it gets on the freight it moves in and out of the Port on the Tennessee Tombigbee Waterway. This $750,000 in state allocation for this specific purpose comes from SB 2971, passed by the legislature and signed by the governor. It was praised by Burnsville mayor David Nixon, a longtime member of the Port Board.

It is not unusual for the Port, or the Port through the County, to build a building (using government loans and grants) to house an industry, as it has done with many of the afore-mentioned industries, but there is always a lease agreement, and those industrial clients make lease payments on the facilities. Lease payments are processed through the Tishomingo County Board of Supervisors office, since in most cases the county "owns" the buildings and leases them to the industrial clients.

In this case, it appears the funding is free taxpayer money from the government, awarded without any competition.

Letter to the Editor

State Bill SB2971 Gives FREE Money to Magnolia to Open Clinic in Tishomingo County!

Dear Editor,
I write this letter today out of concern for Tishomingo County's growth and out of shock of the apparent misappropriation of state funding that I have witnessed this year. I am a graduate of Tishomingo County High School and made the choice to return to my community to serve its people as a medical provider. This is my sixth year as a Family Nurse Practitioner in my community, and I am an active individual in community projects for growth and development for our county.

The According to recent reports, the State of Mississippi has issued a grant to the Yellow Creek Port Authority for $750,000 to "meet the workforce healthcare needs of many of the industries located at both port locations" (Tishomingo County News, June 17, 2021) and awarded (without competition) this appropriation to Magnolia Health Care Center based out of Corinth, MS in Alcorn County. The industries that supposedly have a "need" for this clinic are based in Tishomingo County, and presumably, the majority of its employees in Tishomingo County. I also state that this possible use of tax money was not brought to the attention of the area clinics, nor were any other clinics offered the opportunity to make new services available that they may not have known were needed. I also state that services that each industry has voiced a need for have already been added to the full complement of services already provided by already established clinics in our area.

(Shown above) The government Health and Research Services Administration (HRSA) sets a measurement for AREAS OF MEDICAL NEED in the United States. Specifically in Mississippi, we are the only county in northeast Mississippi that DOES NOT HAVE a need, per capita, for more medical providers to service the medical and Occupational Health needs for this area. So why are we using government tax dollars to push another medical clinic that is not needed? Furthermore, tax dollars should be allocated to counties that are currently underserved to improve the health of Mississippi. Tishomingo County IS NOT in need as designated by research provided by HRSA.

The Tishomingo County Newspaper states

the needs of these industries are in the area of the Occupational Health. All the industries' needs are facilitated by the SEVEN area medical clinics already established in Tishomingo County. These services include workman's compensation cases, occupational health assessments such as hearing and drug screens, pulmonary function testing, vision testing, federal physicals, and department of transportation physicals. Onsite testing and preventative vaccines are performed on a need basis for each industry. There is no service needed that is not already provided by established clinics in our home county. Already established hometown clinics depend on these services to monetarily support the clinics and provide profitable jobs and services for our area.

I write this out of concern for our small business clinics and their longevity in our area. I am agast at the process to allocate these tax dollars in an unnecessary and seemingly disingenuously covert process. I believed that those who helped to pass this bill should be held accountable for a misappropriation of our tax dollars that our rural area works so hard to provide.

Pet of the Week

Congratulations to Maggie Mae Childs. This pretty little girl is our Pet of the Week at Iuka Animal Clinic. Her human parents are Briana & Bronson Childs. Maggie Mae is a 4-month-old Australian Shepherd. She is a free spirit who loves to play. She is most happy when chasing her brothers Bo and Murphy around. She is so intrigued in every new thing she comes across, including every insect on the ground, causing mom and dad to have to chase her down and keep her from eating them. Her family believes she thinks they are playing a game but hasn't quite figured out that she isn't supposed to try to eat the insects. Maggie is on the go 24/7, she likes to scare her family with cool jumps, leaps and hops from walls, chairs, and their laps. There is never a dull moment with her running around. Briana & Bronson are full of joy with Maggie Mae and knew she would fit into their family perfectly. While everyone is outside this summer enjoying the weather, Dr. Jim Perkins wants to remind you all to be aware of snakes. Puppies are at high risk for snake bites because they are curious and try to play with them. Puppies that live in rural areas often encounter snakes in their outdoor exploration. When the dog is too curious to leave a snake alone, the dog may be bitten. Most often bites occur on the face or neck when the dog tries to catch the snake but can also be on the dog's legs. A non-poisonous snake bite will leave tiny horseshoe-shaped teeth marks. The severity of a venomous bite depends on the size of the dog in relation to the snake, the number of bites inflicted, and much venom is. There may be red bleeding and firming of a snakebite usually include agitation, panting and drooling weakness. You may notice vomiting or seizures. The common sign of a bite location that hides the bite. You might mistake swelling to be a spider bite or a snake bite. If you think your dog has been bitten by a snake, Dr. Jim Perkins at Iuka Animal Clinic is right away at 423-8500.

Live Animal Event Planned for Iuka Public Library on Saturday

Come meet Dakota, one year old Swain's hawk, along with Sune Jobe Burch and all other wildlife ambassadors of WAVE Raptors and Reptiles this Saturday at the Iuka Public Library! Featuring owls, hawks, snakes, and a variety of other animals, this program will allow attendees to get up close and personal with some of our region's more diverse inhabitants.

July 24th - WAVE Raptors and Reptiles
August 7th - Central MS Turtle Rescue

The events are a result of a collaborative effort between the Iuka Public Library and the Tishomingo

Arts Council, whose programs have complemented each other throughout the summer.

"This partnership is a new way to connect the library with the larger community," says Librarian Gwen Spain. "I like seeing the Summer Reading Program theme in other places."

For the July 24th Raptors and Reptiles event, two sessions are offered, the first beginning at 10.30 am, and the second beginning at 1 pm. Seating is limited, so be sure to reserve your spots by emailing tishcoarts@gmail.com with subject line: Raptors and Reptiles.

A Vision Of The Future Glory Of Israel After Judgment (part 2)

One could actually write volumes on this subject, but I will not attempt to do so here, yet I do want to write enough to give the idea that God has said much about Israel's future glory. Yes, judgments have come on Israel already, and there are more to come, but one day those judgments will end and Israel will be restored to a glorious future. This, however, will begin with a redeemed remnant of Israel. Isaiah 4:3-6 says, "And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem. When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning. And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence. And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain."

I may not be able to comment on all of these verses in this article, but they need to be given together to get the full sense of what is being said. Notice that God speaks of those who are "left in Zion", indicating that many in Israel will be killed during the tribulation, yet there will be a believing remnant that will survive and come to a time of peace in the reign of Christ on earth for the thousand years. Notice that those left will be called "holy", for they will have turned to the one true God. These will have been "written among the living in Jerusalem", which indicates that God Himself chooses who will live through the tribulation and the anti-christ's hatred of Israel (see Revelation chapters 12 & 13). It will be the Lord Who washes away the filth of the "daughters of Zion", and we need to stop listening to those who say that "Zion" is the church, for it is not. Moreover, the prophecies that are given concerning the future of Israel will not fit the church. Yes, the church will be on earth during this time of peace for a thousand years, but it will not be a part of Israel. Notice also that it is the "spirit of judgment" that washes Israel and purges her. The "little positive essays" of some preachers and teachers will not do the job when it comes to correcting the people of God, either in Israel or the church! After God has judged Israel, He will create a cloud of defense and glory upon Israel during the night. Even the word "night" lets us know that this is not in "heaven", for there shall be no night there in the new heavens and earth, according to Revelation 22:5. So, God is going to bring peace to earth for a thousand years, and redeemed Israel, at least the remnant, will enjoy the peace and prosperity that God has promised them through thousands of years!

I Remember

By Ruth Dawson

The devil got a big hold on me this morning. It's Sunday and about seven A.M. I woke up, time for me to roll out and be ready to go to church by 9:45 a.m.

The trouble maker of this world kept telling me I didn't need to go to church today. "It's raining and oldies like you need to sleep in. Your age will excuse you from attending. Pull the covers up and snuggle for two or three more hours you don't need to go to church." Wrong! I needed to go to church to worship and fellowship with my sisters and brothers. I needed to go to worship in a place that was dedicated for the gathering of God's people to thank Him and praise Him for His love and care for His children. We need to worship and thank the creator more than the created every day.

With all the restrictions that have been made to try to keep us safe and from spreading Covid 19, follow the rules.

At Tishomingo Baptist Church I sit in the middle of a pew. On each end sits a couple, and the wives of each couple were my students when I was teaching them at Paden: Fredia (Nichols) and Bobby Scott and Peggy (Ward) and Roger Rohloff. If I need anything either lady will graciously assist me. Sometimes I don't understand the scripture? I just pass my note sheet and they take care of that. Now that we have the hearing aids? Bobby Scott sees that I get a fresh battery every Sunday. This gives Kim or Teresa a break. Makes me proud.

Today Peggy said to me, "Mrs. Dawson, why don't you write about you carrying your class to the summer revival at the Paden Baptist Church every year. I was saved because you carried us to church, and I'll never forget it." Hugs and tears. She looked radiant telling about it. She has been a great Christina lady and lived for God all these years. Peggy is not ashamed to tell anyone when she made her profession of faith and has shared her testimony in praise and song. I have several gospel tapes that she, her first husband, the late Jessie Pruitt, and children, made when they were doing gospel concerts. So good. They were a great witness for Christ for several years.

The principal at Paden School always announced at assembly that the revival would be going on and if any teacher wanted to carry their students and go with them, they were welcome to do so.

I would discuss our going ahead of time so they could tell their parents. I never had a student that didn't want to go.

You are probably thinking? "They didn't have any other choice," really they probably didn't or if they did, no one ever knew. The parents back then wanted their children to go to church and was happy for me to go and take them. It never bothered the lunch room ladies that sometimes we were a little late getting to lunch. They were always glad to feed us when we got back.

I'm going to share a comical incident about Peggy and her twin sister Patsy. As with sisters and brothers, they didn't always agree. I had the perfect cure for their problem: I would make them hug and love each other. It worked and ended up with the class and me laughing. A good rule, usually, and they forgot what was their problem.

I had two students that became ministers. Don't get the idea that I think I was the only teacher they had, that loved the Lord. There was Mrs. Artie Timbes and Mrs. Arta Mars and others I'm sure. Mrs. Artie Timbes was the pianist and this was her home church. It was like "a great reunion day" when we'd just open up and sing. My memory may be slipping, but as I recall, the majority of the congregation was school students.

Digress: While teaching at Boggs Chapel we were the congregation. Bro. Will Whitner was the pastor. He knew the school children would be there and he brought the best messages any minister could preach to young boys and girls. They learned more in that hour than I could have taught them in any subject matter.

The parents at Boggs Chapel were like those later at Paden. Denominations? Didn't matter. Jesus Christ was preached at both churches. One Baptist and one Methodist. Both churches were less than one tenth of a mile from school. I can honestly say "In those twelve years there was never a problem. We behaved at church like we did at school."

EXHIBIT A - COUNTY GOVERNMENT RESOLUTION OF INTENTION

The Board of Supervisors, acting for and on behalf of Tishomingo County, Mississippi (the "County"), took up for consideration the matter of authorizing and approving a loan on behalf of the County from the Mississippi Development Authority (the "MDA") for the purpose of assisting existing industries deploying long term fixed assets that through new technologies will improve productivity and competitiveness and to assist existing industries through the purchase of land, buildings and equipment.

Thereupon Supervisor Brandon Grissom offered and moved the adoption of the following resolution:

RESOLUTION DECLARING THE INTENTION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF TISHOMINGO COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI, TO AUTHORIZE AND APPROVE A LOAN ON BEHALF OF THE COUNTY FROM THE MISSISSIPPI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY IN A MAXIMUM PRINCIPAL AMOUNT NOT TO EXCEED THREE MILLION DOLLARS ($3,000,000) FOR THE PURPOSE OF MODIFICATION OF EXISTING BUILDING TO MEET MANUFACTURING REQUIREMENTS: such as new HVAC, air compressor, fencing, improvements to an existing door, driveway modification, electrical upgrades, crane upgrades, and other building improvements.

WHEREAS, the Board of Supervisors of Tishomingo County, Mississippi (the "Governing Body" of the "County"), does hereby find and resolve, determine, adjudicate and declare as follows:

The Mississippi Existing Industry Productivity Loan, constituting Sections 57-93-1 et. seq. Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended ("Act"), was enacted for the purpose of promoting business and economic development in the state of Mississippi (the "State") in investment by private companies locating in the State.

Pursuant to Section 57-93-1 of the Act, the MDA is authorized to make interest-bearing loans to state, counties or incorporated municipalities for the purpose of making loans to existing industries to deploy long term fixed assets.

The County will agree to assist existing industries and will request the MDA to finance a portion of the cost associated with the improvement of these improvements (the "Project").

Pursuant to the Act and guidelines adopted by the MDA, the County will file an application with the MDA for a loan to be used in development of the Project in the amount of Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000) (the "Loan").

The County and the Authority will enter into a Loan Agreement (the "Agreement") with the MDA wherein the County agrees to the proceeds of the Loan subject to and upon the terms and conditions of the Agreement.

In order to secure the Loan, the County will execute and deliver to the MDA a Promissory Note (the "Note"). Failure of the County to meet its repayment obligations shall result in the forfeiture of homestead exemption annual tax loss reimbursement in an amount sufficient to repay obligations due pursuant to Section 57-93-1 of the Act.

The Loan shall not be deemed indebtedness within the meaning specified in Section 19-9-5, Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE COUNTY, AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. The Governing Body of the County does hereby declare its intention to authorize and approve a Loan from the MDA in a principal amount not to exceed Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000) for the purpose of making loans to existing industries to deploy long term fixed assets.

Section 2. The Loan will be secured by a Note executed and delivered by the County to MDA. Pursuant to Section 57-93-1 of the Act, the County to meet its repayment obligations shall result in the forfeiture of homestead exemption annual tax loss reimbursement in an amount sufficient to repay obligations due until such time as the indebtedness has been discharged or arrangements made to charge such indebtedness satisfactory to the MDA have been made.

Section 3. The Governing Body proposes to authorize and approve the Loan from the MDA in the amount and for the aforesaid purposes at a meeting of the Governing Body to be held at its regular meeting place at the County Courthouse in Iuka, Mississippi at 9:00 a.m. on the 2nd day of August, 2021, or at some meeting held subsequent thereto. If twenty percent (20%) or fifteen hundred (1,500), never is less, of the qualified electors in the County shall file a written protest with the Clerk of the County against the authorization of the Loan on or before the aforesaid date and hour, then the Loan shall not be entered into unless authorized at an election on the question of authorizing and approving the Loan. Such election shall be called and held as provided by law. If no protest is filed then the Loan may be entered into without an election on the question of authorizing and approving the Loan at any time within a period of two (2) years after the date above specified.

Section 4. This Resolution shall be published once a week for at least four (4) consecutive weeks in the Tishomingo County News, a newspaper published in the City of Iuka, Tishomingo County, Mississippi and having a general circulation in the County and qualified under the provisions of Section 13-3-31, Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended. not attend the full three-week session to reap the full benefits, the district decided to add extra help during regular school hours and offer after-school programs using ESSER funding. "We want to help students where they are, and we know some students who need help may have not been able to attend the summer sessions. So we feel it's best to help kids when they are with us with extra tutors and offer extended help after school to best help kids and to make it easier on parents," stated superintendent Christie Holly. "We are in the planning phases of after-school systems at each campus where teachers are paid to stay and help students. We want to make this a focused learning time and help students who may need help. Any student would be able to take advantage of the offerings. The district hopes to have it ready to begin at the end of August. We want to make sure teachers can see their students and assess where they are in August to target instruction support during the day and after school," explained Holly. ESSER funding will be used to make these programs and personnel available.

"We are so excited to hopefully regain a sense of normalcy for the 2021-2022 school year. We appreciate our parents, students, and community for their patience and hard work this past school year. But most of all, we thank our dedicated teachers, administrators, and staff who went above and beyond to do their very best to take care of our students and their health last year. Words cannot express how blessed we are to have such dedicated employees in our district," stated Holly. She graduated Tishomingo County High School in 1996 where she says she learned so much from her teachers. She gives thanks to her teachers whom she says she still admires. They gave her a high quality education. She says they were wonderful, admirable, encouraging and caring teachers who set examples of excellence and integrity.
