WE ARE MOVING

The Tishomingo County News Office to Temporarily Relocate

The Tishomingo County News/Vidette office located at 120 Front Street in Iuka is temporarily being moved to 109 West Quitman Street near the old Courthouse Museum in the offices recently occupied by Judy Ryan Real Estate.

We will continue publishing The Tishomingo County News/The Vidette and will continue to sell the papers throughout town, even uptown in front of the old building during remodeling. Our mailing address will remain P. O. Box 70 for mail and our phone number will still be 662-423-2211. If you need any assistance in finding us do not hesitate to call.

The News Office has been located in the same location for some sixty or more years and has been remodeled several times. It began as a livery stable, Watson's Garage, a gas station and even housed a pharmacy. It was also the location of the first Chevrolet dealership in Iuka owned by Carlton Woodley.

It is one of the oldest brick buildings in Iuka and with the help of Joiner and Raynard Construction of Englewood, Florida the historic building will be preserved.

Over the years the employees have operated many times standing in water and after the recent tornado, it is time for the building to be gutted and completely remodeled. This will take some time and we ask our customers to bare with us during this process.

First Snow of the New Year Hits Area

2022 started off with a blast of winter weather over the weekend as the first snowfall of the year brought a lovely change in scenery to Tishomingo County.

While road conditions remained relatively clear the snow accumulation on trees, buildings, and unpaved areas was present well into January 4th.

According to the National Weather Service in Memphis 1.4 inches of snow was reported in Iuka at 9:46 p.m. on January 2nd. While the town of Tishomingo reported 1.2 inches at 12 a.m. on January 3rd.

Jerry Charbauskis made this lovely photo of the gazebo in Jaybird Park in Downtown Iuka after the snow had fallen.

Strangely the temperature went from the upper 70's to snowing in one day. More winter weather is in the forecast this week including below freezing temperatures. Everyone is advised to stay weather aware.

Christmas Under the Stars

20th Century Club Presents Award for Christmas Under the Stars

The home of Mr and Mrs Gene Jourdan on 110 East Meigg St in Iuka was awarded Christmas Under The Stars by the 20th Century Club. A beautiful poinsettia was given to the couple.

The elegant simplicity of traditional garland coupled with red bows in wreaths afforded an old time Christmas theme. The home known as Oakhaven is located on the site where the Baptist built the first place of worship in Iuka. The property was purchased from J C Terry in 1857 and the church was affiliated with the Big Bear Creek Association. The church was later relocated and a bungalow was constructed on the site. This bungalow was later destroyed by fire of such intensity that several of the large oak trees also burned. The present structure was begun by Samuel Dewoody in the fall of 1882 and was completed by John

M Stone who in turn conveyed it to Jennie Anfield in 1890, and his signature on the Deed was acknowledged by Oliver Clifton, Clerk of the Supreme Court of Mississippi as John M Stone was Governor at the time. T H Elam. Attorney, acquired the property in 1915 and upon his death in the house in 1918, the doorway had to be enlarged to accommodate the specially constructed casket necessary for his size. The house was purchased from his widow in 1936 by W

A Jourdan, whose wife also died in the hoe that same year. R E “Gene” Jourdan, the present owner, was born in the bedroom located on the northwest corner of the house in 1938 and he and his wife Beverly continues to live there where they call “Home”.

Pet of the Week

Congratulations to Priss Edmondson. This precious girl is the Pet of the Week at Iuka Animal Clinic. Her owners are Neil & Brenda Edmondson. Priss is an apricot color toy poodle. She is 5 months old. She loves to play with her toys and her favorite is a squeaky stuffed chipmunk that she drags around everywhere. Her mate Pierre is her favorite dog to spend time with. They play great together and love to snuggle. With her sweet personality she is a joy to meet. Priss is a special addition to the Edmondson family and is loved very much. Poodles, like many other long haired dogs require consistent grooming to stay looking and feeling their best. Our Groomer can have your fur baby looking great in no time.

During their visit to be groomed have Dr. Jim Perkins examine them and give routine or other medical care that is needed. Also, your pet can receive their monthly parasite prevention so you have one less thing to do. Iuka Animal Clinic is your one stop for everything you need for your furry friend. Call the office at 423-3470. We know pets are family too.

I Remember

Down through the years Christmas has rarely changed for all of us. Christmas was celebrated at your own home with just your regular family and during the Great Depression days there were no bought gifts. Well, maybe a new pencil and tablet and if the cotton crop had done fairly well, maybe crayons and a coloring book.

Mom had made ragdolls and a little wardrobe of clothes. For my brother, Mr. Charley Milford, a friend of the family, one year made him a baseball bat from hickory. For the knob? He had carved a marble inside the hollow knob. My, that bat would be worth many dollars today but of course it was used at school and home until it was worn out.

I have shared how a hog was killed near Christmas to give us fresh meat. A young rooster was always fattened up to be ready for the delicious chicken and dressing. There was always plenty of good home-grown food, not only at Christmas, but all the year. Lard (shortening) was canned in glass jars and soghrum molassis were put in the same buckets from year to year.

There were always, peanuts, sweet potatoes, Irish potatoes, canned vegetables, eggs and if there happened to be work for my dad for a saw-miller we would, maybe, have fire-crackers and a few Roman candles.

George Robert, my brother sometimes got a knife and a home-made whistle from wood. We larger girls would get a vase, powder jars or colorful argile knee high stockings. We always had a program at school. Sheets were hung on wire across the little room to hide the characters until it was our time to appear or disappear. Christmas carols and Bible stories were presented. We always had the nativity screen live.

There was time back then to talk and share food with one’s neighbors.

My mom always managed to have little colorful jelly beans to put on the cake. I can share it now, but all the candy didn’t stay on the decorated cake until Christmas.

My dad liked lemon sticks and chocolate drops and sometimes we got an apple and, or an orange, too. What a treat!

Most of our toothbrushes from sweet gum bushes, were kept in a jar of water to stay fresh and our paste was soda mixture with a little salt. (Must have been good for teeth because at 97 I still have most of my teeth.)

Christmas has to be planned weeks before Christmas now. So many work at jobs that have to go right on 7-days a week. TVA for example, as well as hospitals and eating places, dairy-barns and many other establishments. Families have to adjust to accommodate their job. That’s one thing I miss but I think God for giving us means where we can make a living.

If you missed Dr. Glenn Mollette’s article in the Dec. 16th Vidette, get your paper and read it. If you read it? Read it again. The Editor could have put my article in the waste paper basket and published Dr. Glenn’s again. It spoke so loudly of how we grew up here in Tishomingo County. It sounded like my growing up in the late twenties and thirties, even though his article was three decades later than mine. He was from Kentucky.

Let us all thank God for all the wonderful blessings He gives us twenty-four hours every day – life, freedom, family, friends and this beautiful county and state to enjoy. Happy New Year to all of you and God Bless us in 2022.

Please, let’s remember who blesses us and lets us love, praise and honor our Immanuel – God with us!

Remains of Soldier killed during Korean War to be buried in Baldwyn, Mississippi

FORT KNOX, Ky. – The remains of a Soldier killed during the Korean War are slated to be interred, Jan. 15 at Asbury Methodist Cemetery. Graveside services for Army Pfc. Jimmy Rowland will be performed by Waters Funeral Home, Baldwyn, preceding the interment.

A native of Baldwyn, Rowland was a member of Heavy Mortar Company, 19th Infantry Regiment, 24th Infantry Division when he was reported missing in action July 16, 1950, at age 19, while fighting North Korean forces along the Kum River north of Taejon, South Korea. His body was never found, nor were any remains recovered that could be identified as Rowland. He was declared non-recoverable in January 1956.

In February 1951, four sets of remains were recovered at the foot of a bridge west of the Seoul-Taejon main supply route and south of Taepyeong-ni. Three of the individuals were identified as casualties from the 19th Infantry Regiment. The fourth set of remains, which could not be identified, were designated Unknown X-418 Tanggok and were later transported with all of the unidentified Korean War remains that were then buried as Unknowns at the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific, also known as the Punchbowl, in Honolulu.

On March 4, 2019, X-418 was disinterred by the Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency, as part of Phase 1 of the Korean War Identification Project, and transferred to the DPAA Laboratory at Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam, Hawaii.

Rowland was accounted for by the DPAA, Nov. 5, 2021, after his remains were identified using circumstantial evidence and dental, anthropological and mitochondrial DNA analysis.

Rowland's name is recorded on the American Battle Monument Commission's Courts of the Missing at the Punchbowl, along with the others who are still missing from the Korean War. A rosette will be placed next to his name to indicate he has been accounted for.

More than 7,500 Americans remain unaccounted for from the Korean War.

What Will Happen On Earth When Israel Is Restored? (part 4)

I hope not to bore anyone with this subject, but I feel compelled to write more on it, especially because it has basically been overlooked by most churches and preachers. If God does not restore Israel, then none of us need to imagine that we will be in heaven and later on the new earth, for God would not be a promise keeping God if He should not do what He has promised to do. Sometimes I hear the argument that God will not restore Israel, because they have failed God so much. I might ask just exactly how much the present day church has failed Him! Perhaps Jeremiah 51:5 will fit well here: “For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.” This verse alone should settle all arguments that say God has forsaken Israel, for it directly says that He has not! Perhaps the problem of doubt concerning Israel's restoration comes to the front, because so many people seem to think that it is our “good living” that will get any of us to heaven, or give us favor with God. Granted, the Bible is clear on the point that all of us should live our lives to please God, but that cannot be done apart from God's work in us to bring us to salvation, and then to continually cleanse us from sin!

Now we will return to Isaiah chapter 54:10, where I stopped in the last article: “For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but My kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of My peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.” The nation to whom God is speaking here is Israel, as verses 5-9 clearly show. Notice the emphatic language of God in this verse. The mountains and hills might be removed, but God's kindness will not depart from Israel. One might say, “But God had to correct Israel by captivity to foreign nations, and a host of other things.” While this is true, I might ask how much correction God has had to do in the church, or in my life or yours! More than that, we might think of children, especially for those of us who have them, and realize that there had to be correction for all of them, as there had to be correction for each of us who are parents, as we were growing up. “Perfect people” are just not available on earth! I want to be better than I am. Do you not have the same desire? Israel sinned; America has sinned and every other nation that has ever existed has sinned, but our God is a forgiving God. Yes, it does cost individuals and nations when they sin, and without the grace, mercy and forgiveness of God, we would all wind up in hell! God has dogmatically promised that His kindness shall not depart from Israel, so she will be restored as a nation. This certainly does not mean that every Israelite will be saved from sin and hell, but it does mean that God has an unconditional covenant with Abraham to bless his seed, Israel, and nothing, or no one, can reverse the unconditional covenants God has made, although He has made some conditional covenants. ## Develop a plan for 2022

By Dr. Glenn Mollett
Proverbs 29:18

“Where there is no vision the people perish. “Everyone needs a strategy. You may be 25 or 85 years in age. Who cares? Probably the only one who cares about your age is you. Your age either tells you that you are too young or too old. Remember, age is only a number. We have to put numbers aside and go with our hearts. If God is in it then don’t worry about the number.

What do you want to do? One of the ways to know the will of God is to determine what we believe we would enjoy doing. The will of God is what we would determine to do if we just had enough sense. We will never rise above what we do not want to do. If we want to do something our chances of success are greater.

What is stopping you? Consider your life and where you want to be and determine the blockades. Sometimes the greatest blockade is the decision to move forward. Until we make that decision we aren’t going anywhere. Once we know then we can assemble what is required to reach our destination.

Learn from the past and put it behind you. Past failures often eliminate us from life participation. We remember when we failed. A life that is fearful usually accomplishes far less than the life that has faith and confidence. Fear freezes us in our tracks.

Who are you today? Who you are and the direction you are going is far more important than where you have been. You can’t change the past but you can steer your life in a new direction.

Develop a life action plan. Why not plan a strategy for the next six months and even the next year? You and God can determine where you will be. Start today!
